Prologue

It happened on a rainy day.

On my way back home after receiving the ancient book, I was struck by a lightning.

Soon after, I lost my consciousness.

That moment, I heard a voice.

A really bright voice, voice filled with the positive vibe.

[TL: Sorry I am leafy fan]

『First login Bonus! I present you with these 2 gifts -Maximum Flare 30 hits + a – Wife

I will be in your care, during our time in the other world.』

I opened my eyes and saw an unfamiliar roof.

then, women wearing a maid costume peeped at me.

I've never seen her before.

“Etto.....?”

I tilted my head in confusion.

“Uh!? He, Head maid! Kouta sama has woken up!”

“Wha, what did you just say!?”

She shouted while panicking, toward someone.

And, I hear the dashing footstep come to my direction “Kou, Kouta-sama! Thank god you have woken up!”

“eh.....?”

Again another woman I've never seen before appeared and hugged me really tightly.

She is a beautiful person with a blond hair. Who is she?

“stop, eeto, who are you.....?”

“Aa, you must've lost your memory due to the shock from the lightning, It's really sad you forgot the face of your wet nurse. aa, such a pitiful Kouta-sama. You even got burned till your hair turned black..... It is fine, I will wait till you become healthy again. ”

“??”

Wet nurse?

I don't recall any face resembling her, a really beautiful face with a blonde hair. But she is right about my name being Kouta though.

“You've just woken up today so you must rest for the day” she said so, and the blonde haired women left the room.

“I was actually showered by the lightning”

And after that, I heard some mysterious voice. it said something about login bonus or something.

while comprehending about my situation right now.

『Good morning, my wielder』

“Ann?”

My bosom was actually shining with light. While thinking so I opened my clothes, I saw a lustrous shining book.

“What is this”

『I am a grimoire who made a contract with your soul. Soulas Gold. I was the one who brought your soul here after you were struck by a lightning 』

“...etto....Soul?”

So it means I died.

『To rephrase it, you in Japan died. And you got the body of a person who also got struck by the lightning around the same time.』

It seems like I was transported to another world by the lightning.

“.....Ma, there is no use complaining it now.”

『You really are quick to adapt.』

“Why is the one who brought me here saying that. And what are you?”

The ancient book I got from my grandfather was black and the cover was filled with dirt but now it is really clean and emits a celestial aura.

『I already said I was a Grimoire. I am part of your soul.』

“Grimoire....?”

『The root of all Magic and Skill. Think of me as a part of your power. My special characteristic is a login bonus』

“Aa, yes. I wanted to ask you about that.”

The mysterious part is not only the cover.
I don't understand, what's the thing that is written in the grimoire, like Login bonus and Highest tier magic and etc..

“What is this login bonus that is written.....wha—-?”

When I was asking it.

...I started to sleepy all of the sudden.

I am too sleepy I feel like I'm gonna lose control of the body.

『Your body is damaged with the lightning. So you should rest for today』

“Wait....I still have many things I need to ask....”

It's another world so there are many things I want to know.
I'm starting to feel excited and all but it is the not time to sleep.

“It's fine. Time for us to talk, there will be much more chances.....”

“.....”

She whispered it to me really kindly, I lost my consciousness till the next morning.

『— second-day login bonus! Fire type beginner magic 20 shots』

Chapter 1

In the afternoon, When I woke up, there was a was a head maid who is also a wet nurse of mine.

When I asked her about my situation, she said this place is a town called Kartia.

And my body's owner used to be a Kouta Vales, a rich youth, who was a hikikomori in the house, and one day, when they thought I went outside he was struck by the lightning and fell unconscious.

.....What to say, he was a really unlucky guy.

I can't help but feel sympathy toward my fellow brother who suffered the same fate of getting struck by a lightning.

After talking about stuff like that, the wetnurse left the room. She said she didn't want to stress me out since I got injured.

It's true that my flesh is hurt, but right now most of them are healed. My legs and arms moves, and I can even stand and walk.

My body's constitution is really similar to my real one. So there is no weird feeling in moving my body.

It's just that, the body is similar to mine in Japan, which had a lack of exercise and contains little to no muscle.

Maa, me being hit by the lightning and was unconscious for days didn't help it too.

—Even me right now has no motivation to exercise

I don't know the map or the direction around the house so I won't leave the room and sleeping is really fun and relaxing so I don't have any difficulties right now.

I've been lazing around the bed.

“—tto, right. I had some more questions to ask”

Thinking so I opened the grimoire. Suddenly, the first page lightens up and the words appeared.

『second day login bonus! Create Fire, 20 shots acquired』

“...Ha? What’s this”

Again weird writing have been added.

In the First-day login bonus, it is written Highest tier magic, what does it even mean?

While thinking so, the grimoire started talking again.

“This is a special property of me who is a Grimoire”

“...tsu, don’t surprise me by talking suddenly”

“I’m sorry. Good morning, Kouta-sama. This is the second day in the other world, how is your body condition? Getting a grimoire inscribed on your soul and processed your body so that the grimoire won’t affect you too much, Is there any defect you feel?”

I feel like I just heard something really scary, I should not think about it.

“There is no problem but what is the special property of Soulas”

It must be that Login Bonus

For things like social games.

“Hai. Every day, you acquire or learn a new skill or a magic”

No, I don’t know what is magic. I won’t be able to utilize it.

“It will be fine. I who is a grimoire and your soul have done a fusion so the magic is inscribed automatically to your soul”

“For real”

Isn’t this a bit too easy, Magic?

“This is my special property. It is a necessary power to live in this world so there is no wrong in learning one”

No, It might be like that but.

Aren’t you altering my soul a little too much?

And the way you speak is becoming more frank, this Grimoire.

“It is only your imagination”

“Aa, fine. So I can use magic. Is there like ways to do it”

“Hai. You recognize the magic name, and aim at the target than shout it.”

Eh, isn't this a bit too easy?

“Since Magic is a power like a tool. So there will be no meaning if you can't use it easily”

I see.

Then, let me try it, I should probably aim at outside from the window.

Highest tier would most likely be dangerous so, Maa, First tier Create Fire should be fine.

“Target.... Is”

That huge rock which Gardner always complained that it was a hindrance.

It was a rock which didn't move even slightly when several strong looking man hit it with a hammer.

It is a perfect target.

“Yoshi,- -- 《Create Fire》”

I raised my hand and while holding the grimoire in another hand I said it lightly.

—DOPAN!

The blue fire bullet which came out of my palm melted and destroyed the big rock in the garden.

“...Eh?”

“PACHI PACHI. Amazing, Kouta-san”

I heard a clapping sound from my grimoire, wait, wait.

Isn't this a bit too powerful?

Wasn't this a Beginner tier magic.

“Aa, didn't I tell you before?”

“What?”

“It is easy to use the magic but hard to learn. A beginner elemental magic can easily take 2 years to learn. So the Caloric power will be strong”

“You should’ve said that first....!”

So I learned and used something like that. What does this mean?
When I was shouting at the grimoire, my head started to feel light.

“O...this feeling, is this my limit to the stamina....?”

“You just healed from the injury and when you use a spiritual power and mana, of course, your stamina will finish. And Elemental magics uses a lot of it too. Since it is powerful”

“I see.....”

I wished you said that before also.....

“Sorry....Even if you learn the magic, your stamina parameter won’t increase. So be careful.”

I see, this means that when I have some free time I should move my body a little.

While thinking a future plan, My consciousness faded.

『—Third day Login Bonus, Create Ice, 30 shots, acquired!』

Chapter 2

I gained login bonus today too.

“Create Ice 30 bullets, hmm”

I kind of hesitate using it, after that incident with the fire.

“But, this is an elemental type Magic! We got lucky this time!”

Eh, this is lucky? Isn't this what Soulas is forcing onto me?

“Soulas, you don't know the upcoming login bonus?”

“That's....I don't know the upcoming bonus. Since Login bonus's power all depends on Kouta-san's luck, so it is chosen randomly.”

What. I heard something I should not have, this book.

Depends on luck?

“...Wait a second, Soulas”

“Hai, what is it?”

“Do you think a human who died by the lightning have any luck?”

“Of course, you have, the bad luck”

It's true I nearly died, I mean died.

But even so I was able to survive like this may show my luck.

But looking at it from the audience, I am an unlucky human who died by the lightning.

“At least for me, I don't think I am a lucky human.”

“It's fine. You have me”

I don't get what's fine. It makes me worried.

No, it's true that this grimoire helped me.

And maybe this is a grimoire which gives you luck by holding.

.....But somehow I have this feeling that it may be cursed.

“Oh, right, I am really curious to what “wife” below in the first-day login bonus.

Is it magic?"

"No, it means wife"

"Unn.....what do you mean?"

I never heard of getting a wife in login bonus and I don't see anyone that seems to be my wife.

"No, it's me you know?"

What. Is this like the high-class joke of that wife can be read. If so I cannot help but laugh.

"No, I have a real body too. Look at me!"

Saying so the grimoire started flickering. Parapara, to the next pages.

—Kah.

It shined really brightly. Then.

"Fuu, finally, I was able to become this form"

A blonde loli was sitting on top of the bed. She has a weight and is sitting on top of my legs.

"Anoo.....Who the heck are you?"

"Eh? I am your grimoire. Soulas-Gold, didn't I tell you before?"

"Stop Lying!"

[TInote: Why the fuck are you lying, woou my god, Sorry]

I unconsciously shouted.

"Eh, but...."

"I am not so easy to trick"

At first Soulas got surprised and had her eyes wide open, then she started having tears in her eyes and held my hand.

"Ko, Kouta-san, I am me. It's real! There is no reason for me to lie!"

"Anyone would be like that if a book suddenly turned into a human"

“No, No, I am one also one of the goddesses, of course, I can do that. Believe mee—”

Soulas is shaking me up and down while having teary eyes.
If so then why did something like this sleeping in the warehouse of modern Japan?

“Maa, We can talk about that later. I might as well as believe you that you are Soulas but, what’s a wife?”

“You see that is. The grimoire’s contract is like finding your other half. I couldn’t come up with a better word than Wife, and. You see I can also take a human form”

“Iya, ma, it’s true you can take human form but”

She is quite cute with a big breast and all but.

“So that’s how it is and you can take me as part of bonus item, and you can treat me as a wife, so please take care of me alright?”

Saying so Soulas return back to her book form.

“Fuu, it depletes a lot of energy when I turn to Human form. A, but if Koutasan desire so, then I will become human form anytime.”

“.....”

What’s this. This goddess is too much of a pushover.

“It feels strange to get a wife in the first login bonus....”

Chapter 3

『Fourth day login bonus – Wind type beginner magic – 40 shots acquired!』

When I opened the Grimoire on the fourth day morning, there were these words added to it.

“Haa, the magic is increasing again....”

Magic is being accumulated quickly inside my grimoire.

My grimoire’s first page is already full with the login bonus magics.

But, without any stamina or practice, it will be hard to use. That’s why I am doing push ups and pull ups right now so that I could have a good amount of stamina.

“Waa, another good magic. Congratulation!”

“Unn, It’s good that it is a strong magic but, the grimoire’s page is getting full. Is it okay like this?”

“If it’s only the first page than it is fine. It will be added to the next page.”

Fumu, with this I have one thing I became curious toward.

“Does this thing have like a limit to its accumulation?”

“So far as it goes, there is a limit. If all the pages in the grimoire got filled, then you can’t acquire more than that.”

AA, I guess it wasn’t unlimited.

Oh well, the grimoire is really thick, and there are more than hundreds of pages so I should be safe for a while.

“So It’s best if I practice and use the magics.”

“Hai, some of them requires great mastery level so it will be a lot easier if you use it frequently”

I see. Then I should practice it.

The target is the rock which got shattered to half from its original size.

The magic I'm going to use is《Create Ice》. If I have some spare power than I will use《Wind Shock》.

.....Most likely create ice would be similar to create fire and will create an ice-like bullet from my palm, with a strong power.....

If I aim properly, there should be no danger, maybe. Thinking so I shot.

「《Wind Shock》」

Next moment, an ice floe with the size of 2 meters was shot out from my palm.

And then,

DOZUN!

It pierced through the window frame and boulder along the ground beneath it.

“Wa-.....”

“Unn, you can also use ice type magic with ease. With a good amount of power! Kouta-san it's incredible.”

I don't think this is a problem of whether or not this is amazing.

Is this really a beginner level.

How excessive is the power of the magic in this world?

“Iya, it is really hard to learn it you know? If it was a common grimoire.”

“Aa, I see....”

Rather, what should I do, I destroyed part of the room.

Thinking so,

“Kouta-sama!? I heard a deafening sound, are you fine!?”

The wet nurse barged into the room looking panicked.

And then her eyes went wide open as she saw the grimoire in my hand and the dregs of the ice on my other had.

“Eh, that is, did you just use the magic!? Kouta-sama did that!?”

“Eh? Aa, un, yes I was the one.”

When I said that the wet nurse looking excited held onto my hand.

I'm probably going to get scolded, so I should be prepared for it. But,
"Amazing! Kouta-sama's power awakened now— This is a miracle!"

"Hai?"

She got emotionally moved to the point of crying.

"And you even already contracted with the grimoire, this is the miracle like talent's way of awakening! Was it the Kouta-sama who shattered the strengthened rock yesterday...?"

"Aa...Unn"

Right. I shattered it. And then I smashed the window frame too; I did a roguish thing.

When I nodded to her question, she nearly fainted to the fall while having her hand on her forehead.

"What kind of thing..... The miracle indeed happened.....This miracle is a significant matter to the Valesu family! Please wait a moment! I will call the Sage!! "

"Sa, Sage?"

Who is that?

"He is a Sage who works for our Valesu family He was the one who judged Kouta-sama to have no talent in magic! I need her to withdraw her statement and make a new judgment!"

[TInote: I'm not sure if the sage is female or male so I wrote her since she probably will be female XD]

The head maid rushed out of the room saying so.

"Sage, huh. There was someone like that...."

While I was thinking, I fell onto my bed.

I was happy that there was a slight improvement since I wasn't that tired from using the magic.

Chapter 4

It happened during the night.

“Kouta-sama, sorry for the impoliteness.”

The head maid knocked on the door.

That Sage she talked about probably came.

They call him a sage so I can only imagine an old man with a white bearded with an aura of wisdom, but what kind of person will come.

While thinking so and waiting,

“Umu... You call old women like me at a time like this, really a cruel act...”

A black haired little loli entered.

While looking sleepy and rubbing her eyes, she looks just like a kid.

“E.....tto.....?”

I unconsciously looked suspiciously at the head made; she nodded as if she understood me.

“Aa, that’s right. Kouta sama’s memory is still hazy! This person here is a Media Rose-sama, She is one of the sages which could be counted on hand.”

“Don’t call me things like Sage. I’ve only lived for 100 years or so, and a magician who is on the verge of retirement. Fua.....”

Little loli yawned and looked at me.

Next moment, her gaze changed.

“Ale...Have, I ever met a boy like this?”

“Have you forgotten about it? He was a boy who was judged to have no talent, and this caused a great shock to Kouta-sama. Since then he started being hikikomori....”

Head maid started crying. Aa I see.

This was the reason he was a hikikomori.

“Iyaa, soz soz. So this Kouta-kun is the one I should look at. Then, I want to concentrate and ask him things, so can you leave us two alone?”

“E, E E, no problem, how about Kouta-sama.”

“I have no problem either.”

After I nodded the head maid left the room.

Media looked at her leave than opened her mouth.

“Fumufumu, your soul’s brightness is obviously different from when I saw it before. Should I say, different person, you are.”

This sage can see the soul.

She found out I was a different person in the instant, amazing.

“Ma, if I couldn’t even do things like this then I won’t be called a sage which could be counted on 10 fingers. —So, this should be our first meeting, so nice to meet you? I’m called media. And you?”

“I’m Kouta. For some reason, I took over the body.”

“Ooh, I see. Maa, it’s not a rare thing for a magicians community where a soul changed into a different person suddenly. No need to mind.”

This sage is way too nonchalant.

She is even smiling and making Kara Kara sound.

And is it fine for a soul to change all the time like pon pon?

“Hahaa, When you live long like me than you will know. Maa, that doesn’t matter. What we should talk about right now I about your magic.”

Right, you were saying something about brightness.

“Umu, your soul has a strong power. Generally, if a soul is weak, it will fail to make a contract with the grimoire and gets destroyed, but for you, there will be no need for such worry.”

This part is the part I don’t get it.

I already got the grimoire when I woke up.

“Fumu, you must’ve have contracted with a unique Grimoire. I want to have a look at it but....”

And she looked at the soulas in my hand.

“Ale? Should I let you see it?”

“No, only the person who made a contract can read that grimoire. I can only listen to what you say.”

Oo, there was such a function. Then there is no point in me giving her.

“Umu, so how many magics you can use right now?”

“Four. fire, ice, wind all elementary, plus one more I don’t know of.”

When I said that Media’s opened her eyes wide.

“Hou Hou Hou! Four attributes! That is amazing. If you can use four of them, then that’s astonishing!”

“Is that so?”

“Umu, Grimoire has its attribute, if a grimoire is fire attributed that it can only use fire type magics, for water type grimoire than water type magics, it has a limit on what you can learn.”

I see. Now that I think about it, Soulas also said something about attributes.

That means the ability to learn various types of magic with Login Bonus may be a good thing.

“Amazing! You might be the greatest genius I’ve checked on! Right.... I don’t know the specific details of the power, so tomorrow I want you to show me the magic, is it fine? ”

“It’s fine to use it but won’t it be dangerous to do it around here?”

Beginner Magic was already that powerful.

I can’t just use it in the garden.

“Umu. that’s why tomorrow we can do it in the place where you can shoot as much as you want, and I will be making the place. ”

Saying just that, the Sage left.

....Place where I can shoot magic as many times as I want....

I’m starting to get a little excited.

Tomorrow might be a bit more tiring.

Thinking so, I went to sleep.

『Fifth day login bonus! Maximum Flare, five shots acquired!』

Chapter 5

Afternoon

“Ooi, over here!”

Media brought me over to her house in a forest few kilometers away from the city.

This is my first time out of the city, and I’m having fun looking at these animals I’ve never seen before.

“A good amount of monsters appear here, and guild even issues many subjection quests for the monsters here, so it is a perfect place for experimenting.”

“Monster is it.....”

I’ve never encountered one before, so I can’t imagine what it looks like, but won’t it be a bit dangerous around here then.

“It’s fine; I’m here with you.”

“I feel better when you say that but.....”

“—Shi! Quiet!”

Media placed her hand on my lips before I could finish my sentence.

In the direction she pointed toward, it was present there.

“Bururu.....!!”

An ox is walking with two feet and carrying a large stone ax.

Similar to the ax, their body is also really huge.

“Isn’t that a bit too big for a starter?”

“It’s a minotaur living around here. An axe which grows larger by blood essence from the living things, and it is already quite grown so it must be relatively powerful.”

Don’t say such a scary thing this lightly.

And is it fine such a dangerous thing living around the human village?

“Ma, if it ever gets near the town than Guild’s people will just easily subjugate them into minced meat. It may be powerful but, nothing can beat numbers. Ten high-level adventurer and they are over.”

It really is scary talk.

So it is strong as an individual.

Will I be okay if I challenge it?

“If you ever get in danger then I will defeat it. So don’t worry and shoot your magic to your hearts content. I even casted a barrier around here; it took me a whole day to do it.”

Media knocked on the floor lightly, next moment, a transparent wall like thing appeared surrounding the place.

“With this you don’t have to worry about any unnecessary disturbance plus you can even use a bit destructive magic, and it won’t leave a scratch to the outside world.”

“Oo, fo real.”

“AA, You can use the magic to your hearts content, Kouta-kun!! Anything is fine, and if you shoot your strongest magic, then I can easily see through your grimoire’s characteristics!”

“—Ou!”

I see, I am allowed to use my most powerful spell.

We even have insurance, on what if.

When you say it like that, then I might as well as use my strongest spell.

I opened my grimoire and checked the inside.

I should first check on my today’s Login Bonus.

“—Tte, isn’t this overlapped with the one from before? ”

The bonus magic for the fifth day was Maximum Flare.

It perfectly added the shots to the first-day login bonus.

Five was added to the first 30x.

I can use it for 35 shots.

“Naa, Soulas. There are many different types of magic right?”

“Hai, including the derivative ones then it can be counted to over a thousand.”

I see.

Even with that I overlapped, what does this even mean.

I’m really unlucky.

“Ev, even if you say that, I can’t do anything about it—”

It really depends on the luck for this bonus.

Oh well, I might as well as be happy since my bullet increased.

“AA, If I can really shoot anything then, I will go all out from the beginning.”

I can finally shoot the magic I was scarred to use all this time.

“Then, I will do it.”

I held my arm toward Minotauros.

When I concentrated my consciousness surrounding air started to vibrate.

Noticing such an abnormal situation, Minotauros looks at our side. And feeling scared they tried to run away.

—But it’s too late.

“Highest Tier, Magic.....”

“Eh? Highest...?...Wa, it.....!”

「《Maximum Flare》!!」

Next instant, a swirl mixed with lightning, flame and explosion, instantly erased the existence of Minotaurs. And,

“—!!”

The blast not only destroyed the barrier, but it also burned the surrounding into a crisp.

Because of《Maximum Flare》’s recoil, we fell back.

We stood up and looked at the scene.

“...Wow”

One word to describe it would be Flame hell’s painting.

There are only ashes left inside the barrier.

Outside of the barrier is no better, most of the surrounding trees are burned and are left with ashes, and there are several indication of monster’s annihilation.

“This is quite a sight.”

It's not the time to be impressed.

This is terrible.

“.....Oi, Soulas. Can't you at least lower its power? This world's magic really got too much firepower.”

Even the beginner magic was really destructive, and when it comes to Highest tier its firepower really cannot be joked.

It was a suicidal attack.

“Iyaa, You can't blame me-. It's not my fault that magics are generally really hard to master!”

“I'm mastering it with no problem, so I am being troubled with it!”

And, it took away quite a lot of my stamina.

What's this magic, I'm already exhausted.

—With a single bullet only and this happened.

I won't be able to finish my remaining 34 bullets.

Feeling like this I was glaring angrily at Soulas,

“He, Heeeeen, My barrier-!”

Media started crying while clinging to me.

She must've had been entangled by the blast, so she is covered with ashes.

Maa, other than that she is fine, so it's all good and all but,

"I didn't hear that you are going to use such a strong magic aaaaaa."

Oi. You were acting old and saying you were sage or something, where did that Media go.

"Ba, Barrier I created with much difficulty....Even took a whole day...."

"Aa...., but, somehow, I'm sorry?"

"This Barrier can endure till middle-high tier magic but. You skipped the high and higher and used the highest magic, how can it take such..... "

She is feeling down and crying.

You told me to use the strongest, so I just shot it.

I think I over did it.

"A, right Kouta-san. I forgot to tell you. In Highest tier magic there are the even lightning type, Ice type etc..."

"For real."

"If you ever master it please be careful on the usage at that time."

Unn, Maa, If I somehow master it I will probably ban the use.
And this is how I learned more about my Grimoire.

Chapter 6

I dragged my half worn out body because of the recoil of the of the 《Maximum Flare》、I was somehow able to bring myself back to the room.

On the way, I met the head maid and I told her of my subjugation of Minotauros, she was really surprised, so it must've been a good result for a first campaign.

I received some damage but not to the point of inability to walk.

Oh well, I feel really grateful to Media who was crying all the way while helping me walk till my room.

“Gusu....It's fine. Since I can only do things like this”

“Don't sulk. I was in the wrong for breaking your barrier which took really long to cast.”

It seems it was really a truth that she took a whole day casting the barrier.

“I'm not sulking. It's been a while since I saw such a bright soul so I thought I would try my best to judge but it was easily overwhelmed.”

Aa, she's feeling really down.

She does not have the aura of an adult and became a normal Loli.

“I understand. Kouta-kun, your magic, and grimoire are way too special. Even though you only mastered 4 magics, you can already use Highest tier magic. — But, your knowledge and stamina must be strengthened. ”

That was what I was also thinking.

I know it now that I've used Maximum Flare.

——One mistake and it could become a suicide.

This time, we were only blasted away by the explosion but if I don't improve my mastery than I feel it might be dangerous.

“If you want to gain experience like that then guild is a good place to do so. You can even earn some money too.”

“You mean Guild by that huge building inside the city”

While on the way out of the city, I saw an adventure who wore armour and swords entering and exiting the building.

“That one is an adventure guild. There is a separate guild for a magician. Both overseas the quests but if you want to gain more knowledge of the magic then Magic guild it is.”

“By quest, you mean hunting of the monster like we did before?”

“Umu, even a normal minotaurs subjugation can get you plenty of money”

I see. The subjugation of monster may be the best method of earning money with the magic.

But I won't be able to do it for now.

Since I'm already like this after a single shot.

“You know what.... Shooting out a Highest tier magic, the one which takes you a hard work and dedication, and if you didn't even feel a bit tired then for sure my heart will be broken that time. And I will acknowledge you as a monster.”

“O, Ou”

“Normally it's not strange for a person to fall unconscious after shooting such magic.... You have a strong soul so you somehow were able to walk. ”

So that's how it works.

My soul's strength has a relationship between my fatigue after shooting out a magic.

“Oh well, it's won't differ since I'm still practicing my magic so I will wait a little more before going to the guild”

It won't be funny if I hastily accepted the quest and killed myself with my own magic.

I should act carefully.

“If you ever feel a need for more knowledge on magic you can always ask me. I will always be living near your house.”

“Hee, Then, If I got some unknown magic then I should go ask you?”

“If it is within my knowledge then I will try best to teach you. But don't come asking me about those Highest tier magic knowledge since I'm not sure about most of them."

Media said so while looking afar.

She looked really sad but it is true that I lack the knowledge on magics so I am going to count on her for help.

"See you Kouta-kun, rest your body properly"

"Ou, thanks"

I who parted with the sage fell onto my bed.

I slept till next morning.

『Sixth Day Bonus. Skill : : 【Increase Range】Aquired!』

Chapter 7

After sleeping through the night after my first expedition, I saw a new login bonus in the grimoire.

But, it wasn't a magic rather a 『Skill: 【Increase range】』

“Skill, hee”

First time hearing it. I wanted to ask about it to Soulas so, I knocked on the book lightly.

“Ooi, Soulas, are you there?”

Suddenly, the grimoire started shaking. Then, it lightly shined.

“Haai, I'm over he~~re”

She took on a human form. Lately, Soulas's been changing to human form whenever she explains me stuff.

I don't really mind her being a book as long as she is able to explain it to me.

“.....”

Soulas wears really revealing clothes so I don't know where to look. I even sometimes can't help but look at that big breast. I can't help but feel slightly uncomfortable.

“? Kouta-san? Where are you looking at?”

“Nn, Iya, I'm not looking at anywhere. Right, I wanted to ask about the Skill.”

“A, Hai. Skill is an ability which resides in a person”

“And I can get that by the Grimoire?”

Oh right, she said something about getting things other than magic before.

“If you generalize skill than magic is also part of it. It's just that there are too many varieties which then got its own name.”

“Hee”

Now that I think about it I even got a wife in my first bonus. So the things I can get from Bonus must be really wide in range.

“So, what’s the effect?”

“It increases the effect range of the magic”

“...I knew it was something like that but, haa”

“Wha, why do you look so down!”

What can I say, this will make anyone regretful.

“Normal magic already has a stupidly wide effect range, and if it further increases it then, won’t it make it harder to use?”

“I, it will be fine. It won’t be active all the time! maybe ”

That maybe is really scary.

Why don’t you even know that?

“Because, technically speaking the one who is mastering is Kouta-san.....”

“In the end, I am the one who can only try it haa.”

I sighed lightly.

But I shouldn’t shoot my magic in the garden.

I was thinking what to do,

“Aa, that’s it”

I thought of one Idea.

To execute the plan I ran out of my room.

“Then, you came to my place, so that you can ask me to cast a barrier.”

“Ou. I’m counting on you Media.”

I showed up in the Media’s Library.

The library was in a place a bit far from my home and it was an old residence.] There are no houses around the place so the mansion’s garden is quite wide. A perfect size for a little magic experiment.

“I’ve told you that I would teach you some knowledge but what kind of a person are you to learn a skill in a single day. What kind of power your grimoire and your soul have”

“Iyaa, how do I say it, I’m sorry”

“Jeez...Just wait for a moment I will cast a barrier”

While mumbling complaints, Media casts the barrier.
The surrounding space got isolated.

“Maa, It’s kind of fun looking at your condition and all. But next time make an appointment before coming. ”

“Ouu, I will do that from next time”

Saying so I opened my Grimoire.
First, as a trial I will shoot out normally.

Target is the tree that Media prepared for me.

“Γ《Create Fire》!J”

As always when I chanted the magic the magic ball came out of my palm.
And the power is as always. It blasted the tree into pieces.

“Oo, You can also use beginner tier magic. I feel a little at ease ”

It really is a beginner magic since Media also said so.
But I think there is really something wrong with the power or is it just my imagination.

“Ow, well. This time, I will use the skill....to”

Soulas said that the chant is the same way as the magics one.
The target is the boulder right next to the tree.

“[Increase Range] 《Create Fire》”

I activated both the magic and skill at the same time.
The blue flame in the shape of the bullet, after being shot split into several parts.

—DOBAH!

It landed on the rock as if a missile from the tank was shot.
Then, even though it became small the power is still high so the rock and the surrounding became full of holes.

“Terrible.....”

High powered magic became a slaughter type magic.

Media came approaching to me while I was feeling at a loss while looking at the smoke coming out of the craters.

And She looked at me with a really curious gaze.

“You are really amazing. The skill you said you mastered was [Increase range]!”

“Eh? Is this skill amazing or what”

“Umu, really marvelous and strong skill. You need to train for several years so there are less people who mastered the skill.”

Hee, it's a rare skill. I guess I got it lucky this time.

I always thought of myself as an unlucky guy but maybe I am lucky.

“Even though it is strong.... Whenever you are in a party or a group, you might accidentally friendly fire and kill someone. So the magicians who mastered the skill is usually called a “Comrade Killer””

“Aa, unn. It's the bad kind of rare skill.”

I take back what I said before.

I guess my luck is really bad.

“Iya, it's strong you know? If doesn't include the devastation it may cause on the surrounding”

“The magic in this world is always something like this!”

Ma, at least I understand that it is strong.

It's just hard to use.

“Unn, it was a good thing that I was able to try it today. There may be a little to no chance of me using it but it's not like it is impossible to use.”

“I see. If you were able to gain the experience, then it was worth my time”

.....For now, If I ever am going to shoot the highest tier magic than I must be sure not to use the Increase range.
