[Spoilers] Slime Tensei Summaries Ch. 6-12

Chapter 6 - Pantyless Panty Flasher: He goes off working alone, earns the skill [Leap-Weak] while moving, he tries gathering the rest of the plants in the area other than the poison ones he ate before and he finds out there's several 3 types, ones restore stamina, ones poison, and another numbs, after eating the numbing one he gets the option to evolve into both [Paralyze Slime]

or [Neo Slime] and picks Neo Slime overwriting his [Body Hit] with [Charge] and also gaining [Enlarge] and [Shrink], he then runs into some Goblins, by looking at them he learns the skill [Analyze-Weak], he also finds out that Goblins don't wear underwear.

Chapter 7 - First Victory: He starts off the fight sneaking up behind the Goblins one of them has a club, so he spits all the poison he can create at once into the face of the Goblin with a club. While the other Goblin is surprised over this he then uses [Charge] to charge at the other one, in doing so he felt the bones of the Goblin being crushed and was surprised at its power compared to his previous [Body Hit], he was pretty sure he killed the Goblin in a single blow with that. By the time he notices it the other Goblin with the club has gotten up and hits him from behind with the club doing a lot of damage and the MC finds out the slimes are surprisingly weak to impact damage. As the Goblin comes at him for another he spits more poison but the Goblin will just dodge it, seeing through that MC spits it on the ground in front of the Goblin causing it to slip. He then uses Jump to leap in the air and then Enlarges, as he falls he crushes the Goblin into a gore-ish mess. He finds out that one of the Goblins was (Type A) supposedly a rare variant and he "stole" skills from killing them.

[Weak Goblin Howl], [Method to Deal with Clubs], [Language: Goblin Race], he also gained levels up to 7 and skills from that [Press Attack], [Goblin Killer],

[Attack Up - Small], [Defense Up -

Small], [Speed Up - Small], [Mana Up - Small], [Endurance Up -

Small], [Luck Up - Small].

Chapter 8 - Betrayal: After returning to the cave it's time to go hunting with the other slimes, so he follows along with the pack, he's thinking they might just suicide again against adventurers and wondering if they'll attack other monsters in the forest when they come to prey. When he sees what's there he's shocked, it's two young human girls 5-8 years old each. As the slimes prepare to attack their prey he realizes he can't live as a monster, he jumps up and uses Enlarge to grow 10x bigger similar to with the goblin though with his higher level he can grow larger now crushing some of the slimes who went to attack while also creating a wall between the girls and the slimes. He tells the slimes to leave and they start to see him as an enemy and they go on attack Leaping at him to attack. Since the timing was convenient he just opens his mouth and swallows several of the ones that jumped in whole. Afterwards he kills off the rest with poison and other things. He gains a few weak skills from killing the slimes the most significant of [Liquid Body Control] or something along those lines. He then approaches the two girls and pats them on the head, since they're afraid of him he puts them on his head and uses the body control to make seat belts for them, he then starts jumping towards their village. The younger one enjoys the ride.

Chapter 9 - The Method to Gain Power & Solitude: After arriving at the human village he approaches and sees villagers panicking preparing to go into the forest, he leaps in right next to them with the girls on top and then realizes that he's being seen as a monster, the humans are in panic and holding their weapons to him but they can't attack because they think he's holding the girls hostage. He finds out the girls names are Alice and Mina and let's them go, then prepares to jump away when they try to attack him with pitchforks, one of the humans shoots an arrow at him so he spits poison and melts the arrow. He then escapes to a nearby field.

Chapter 10 - Opening Night: In chaos over betraying his fellow slimes and being attacked by his fellow humans, he realizes he can't be anything now and he's just weak. He cries that it's a cruel fate compared to dying like he previously did, he makes his resolve to live and get stronger and calms down. Then his time restricted skill [Possibility of Inexperienced Evolution] triggers and he's given the option to evolve into [Paralyze Slime] that was the choice before, though the evolution he gains [Breathe

Anesthetic], and [Minute Paralysis Resistance], in addition since conditions are met he learns [Sight That Can See-Through Arrows], [Escape Assistance], [Lone Struggle], and [Oppressed One]. He finds the [Oppressed One] skill ironic and ends it with the line "It's painful?" He also realizes that whenever he evolves into a different type of slime his level resets one, and he needs to level again, while thinking how he can level up, he remembers there's a cave full of slimes and heads off.

Chapter 11 - Slime Massacre Drama: After arriving at the cave he finds many slimes still in there all of them are regular white variety with varying sizes, he decides to fight while testing out the various skills he learned. So he starts off trying [Weak Goblin Howl] to wake up the sleeping slimes, they're all stunned by this and can't move in fear, he then goes around massacring all the slimes in the cave while testing skills and finally goes to sleep.

Chapter 12 - Skeleton of Awakening: When he wakes up and opens his eyes he realizes a skeleton is standing over him looking down. Since he is rather surprised by the absurdity of this he doesn't know how to react and just calmly wakes up. The skeleton is a skeleton and it says in an energetic voice that it came after hearing the calls of a soul and what it found was a slime, since it started making bone jokes he tsukkomi'd it. He asks what the skeleton is, and he says rich and a butcher, the skeleton says it's a service to a first time customer and offers him some mysterious meat. The MC decides to eat it after eating it his body starts to feel like its burning up so he goes to attack the skeleton and then he gets a message that the condition has been cleared to evolve into [Flame Slime]. After evolving he gains [Minute Heat Resistance] and [Fire Breathing]. He questions the skeleton some more and he's a [Demon Butcher], basically he's there to trade with him in meat. Since the dead slimes in the cave are likely to lure in Goblins the skeleton asks to change locations after the rain stops and they leave the cave to talk business.
