Prologue

A teaser, not a definite pick-up (yet).

Prologue

「Good grief, where on Earth could it have gone so wrong that it became like this, I wonder—I'm begging you, so someone please just tell me。 There's a limit to being utterly confused, you know—」

In the heavily downpouring rain, the figure of a single man could be seen climbing the steep mountain, talking to himself.

He looks to be around 20 years of age.

His height is short, and he's wearing rough and tight clothing, but that doesn't seem to matter in this downpour.

No, even if the rain wasn't heavy, the blood dying red stains on those clothes would have led to the same result.

「.....dammit。 I never goddamn wanted to become a hero just to end up running around like this.....I just wanted to defeat the Maou to save the world, and then get surrounded by women ! 」

The man's name is Yomawari Meguru

Being summoned as a hero, he, alone, shouldered the hopes of the people to fight the Maou.

And then, right now, Meguru is running away.

Running—while fighting.

What is he running away from? What is he fighting against? Even though the Maou was defeated?

Meguru himself understands all too well. The enemy he's going against, he knows who—but the reason for that, he has not a clue.

Just a while ago he was fighting a life-and-death battle with 10 Knights clad in armor, and yet he had not the slightest idea about the reason why they fought. However, there is one thing he understands, on the chest of those armed Knights, the crest of the Kingdom, by whom Meguru was summoned, was carved.

—why.

—why me.

—why in this goddamn wide world, do I have to become like this.

While trying to kill each other, by those thoughts, he vented out his full killing intent.

But even so, even when Meguru annihilated all the Knights, by no means it was the end of all that. On the contrary, it was only the beginning.

During a long period of time, the same thing continued again and again.

It became something that happens on a daily basis.

It also had long reached the point of turning into Meguru's daily life.

Lately, it's been going on continuously. Every single day, without break.

「No surprises.....this is just too tough.....」

His irritation is reaching its peak.

「Haa.....っ、haa.....っ、haa.....」

Even so, he continued to run. The reason he ran is clear as day. It makes him feel at ease, even just a little bit more than when he stopped his feet.

There's not even spare time to think about whether they stopped pursuing after he had killed so many of them already.

「Ah、damn。 I even defeated the Maou、 why the hell did it turn out like this—ツ！」

That moment, sensing someone's presence beyond the bush, Meguru stopped his legs. He already used up all the weapons he had for the battle earlier. If by any chance, the thing beyond that bush is an enemy, he has no choice but to have to fight barehanded. There's no spare time to delicately be preparing magic either. Meguru stiffened his body, but soon relaxed.

It was not an enemy. No, to be exact, it was a former enemy.

The thing that made its appearance, was the Maou that Meguru should've defeated, Pearlnight "Resurrection" Halwehi. A touch shorter than Meguru, the girl in mini-skirt too, was dyed in blood stains just like Meguru himself.

Pearlnight "Resurrection" Halwehi. (TN: ハールヴェツヒ I gave up on the name)
The girl that was formerly dictating the world, and should've been killed by Meguru.

「Pearlnight.....。 You lived.....」

Fuu—Meguru heaved a sigh.

「Even though I surely thought I killed you。 You're still living huh」

His whole body and soul trembled incomprehensively.

「Thy too、 because of trying to kill me、 you made enemy out of the world」

Pearlnight broadly grinned. However, those words carried no nuances, it was instead that of an exhausted tone of voice.

Because unclear words would only get washed away in this downpour, that voice gave a tired impression in this kind of situation where one has to make his or her voice stand out.

「How many.....have you killed ? 」

「Who knows、 I know I don't。 I didn't even care to count after 100」

To Pearlnight's question, Meguru answered while shaking his head.

It was a situation where Meguru had to kill the people that he was supposed to protect. He doesn't even want to think about it.

「What the hell is actually happening。 This is the first time I'm so blind about everything。 Just what the hell kind of things I've got caught up into ? 」

「Well。 I know not of the details. However、 it really is not just thy and I who don't comprehend—」

Shrugging her shoulders, Pearlnight said so.

「The country that summoned thy、 and those Demon-race countries not under my control seemed to have joined hands to plan an overthrow on both the Maou and the Hero。 They formed a non-aggression treaty。 I thought it was really a dream when humans and Demon-race actually joined hands to achieve one common goal. It's something that even I, after hundreds of years, could not do and yet thy hath done it easily with thy gigantic powers」

「Hahaha、 in the end、 it turned out to be a good thing didn't it」

Meguru laughed, mocking himself.

「Good grief、 I actually did think I would be surrounded by lovely onee-san's while living carefreely, but in the end it turned out like this」

「If thy want onee-san、 then there's one right here」

Pearlnight smiled with those words.

「Naah、 I'm not interested in a washboard onee-san that shows no signs of growing」

「Self-centered, aren't you. My vagina is that of a rare artifact, you know. Look at me, don't you want to violate such a lovely lady? 」

Even in this kind of situation, Pearlnight lifted her short skirt up to the very limit.

「I'm not kiddin'」

Even though Meguru cursed like that, his crotch reacted. During this several months, Meguru hasn't been able to “react” as he has been being chased.

「Even though you said that with your mouth、 your body is honest。 How about this、 let me give you some oral sex」

Saying so, Pearlnight felt up Meguru's penis.

「Ah、 oi。 Wait、ツ! 」

「.....っ! 」

When the two people were about to commit into the act, some foreign sounds were heard nearby—this time it's definitely an enemy.

They were the pursuers that had been chasing Pearlnight.

Just like Meguru, she has been fighting and running. Even though Meguru got mixed up into this situation when he could've escaped—he didn't complain. Rather, he has a plan.

「Pearlnight、if we escape I'm gonna bang you。It's not worth my effort if I don't do that」

「Kufu、that's the best discussion I could ever ask for。I too, have been living decently all these hundreds of years。My hymen also recovered。If it has come to this、then let's quickly kill these fellows and go to my castle。It's going to be amusing if we join hands and make the world our enemy, don't you think?」

「That's if we killed them first。I feel like we're not gonna make it, but there's no choice but to fight。By the way Pearlnight, do you know what happened to the party members that were waiting for me? 」

「Who knows。I heard rumors about them receiving positions and money from the Kingdom when you were betrayed。I don't know the details, though」

「I see、so that's how it is。Gotta dish out my revenge on them too。Making me fall into this situation, I'd be damned if I didn't fucking at least make them my sex slaves。And they even fucking said that they liked lovey-dovey romantic sex with me ! 」

The two of them, without hesitation, walked straight up to the bush from where they heard the sounds were coming.

They're not going to run anymore.

This time, it's all about counter-attacking.

If it's the combination of the strongest human and the strongest demon, they surely will win.

◆ And no, Q&A is still a thing, I'm not dropping that.

Chapter 1: Maou and Hero, at first it's by mouth

Chapters with ◆ is sex.

Chapter 1: Maou and Hero, at first it's by mouth ◆

With the outside appearance of summoning the Hero to defeat the Maou, Yomawari Meguru was summoned in order to deal with other countries. However, that plan has been rolled back to square one. Because Yomawari Meguru is just too strong.

That's the only reason.

Although Yomawari Meguru was not someone endowed with high aptitude for magic, his skills and physical capabilities surpassed the limits. Moreover, with the kind of magic he possesses, which allows him to manipulate space and time, his capabilities for combat is overwhelmingly superior—but nevertheless, it's not that he doesn't know fear. No, rather than that, it can be said that his soul and body movements have full knowledge of what fear is.

When Meguru recalled the time he was summoned to this world and tasted the thing called fear for the first time—he first thought about the former Maou who's running right in front of him right now, Pearlnight "Resurrection" Halwehi.

Former Maou, no, even right now she's probably still a Maou.

A girl who's called the strongest Demon.

The fact that Meguru met Pearlnight should not have been possible under normal circumstances, it was an exception among exceptions.

He sent a fleeting glance at her.

While looking at the girl running before him, Meguru heaved a sigh. It has been 3 days since they met again. In order to thoroughly mow down their enemies, the two haven't taken any decent rest.

Still looking at her, Meguru reminisced.

It's about the time back when only one week had passed since Meguru was summoned.

It was the first time Meguru had practice training.

The meaning of that training was truly significant.

If a goblin village was formed near the Kingdom by whom Meguru was summoned—it means that's also their destruction. Goblin extermination was Meguru's first subjugation act, no, more like his first time training under a schedule.

And though he also performed mock-battles with the Kingdom's Knights, those were not to the point of a life-and-death battle.

For that reason, he was not fully entrusted with the extermination of goblins. In case of an emergency situation, 10 people, including the Kingdom's Knight Leader and the Knight Order Vice Leader, were by his side, all ready to jump into the fray if he ever needed help. As this mission is his first step towards becoming a hero, he didn't want to spoil it. Of course, he did have the confidence to devote himself to the training—however, even with that mentality, his first mission was a touch out-of-reach for Meguru.

「Compared to practicing 100 times, you'll gain more experience from actual combat. It'll be good if you can act without thinking too deeply about it」

With only that being said by the King, Grimmoire Kanaberal, Meguru didn't really think much about it.

He only thought of it simply as his first step to become a Hero.

Even the country itself didn't really put too much hope into Meguru, they thought that if anything happens the Knights can just step in and rescue him. If he could gain some experience and from there, nourish his level then it was going to be all good.

And then, it was the day appointed for the extermination of goblins. Together with the Knights, he located the goblin's village. But when they broke into the place—Yomawari Meguru felt fear.

It was Fear.

First time seeing this scene of taking lives and ready to be taken his own life, fear piled up inside him.

It was certain that he feared.

The reason is, it was a straight-forward outbreak of war with the goblins.

The goblin village he broke into—————had already been annihilated.

It was a cruel scene of easily surpassing the number of 40 or 50 dead bodies of ugly midgets. But dead bodies weren't really dead bodies either, as they were all scattered into pieces.

The sudden situation made him unable to comprehend the things that happened, he had doubts that they killed each other. It was not impossible for this to happen to low-grade monsters. Next on the list should be an attack from a foreign tribe.

However, the result was skies different than what he was thinking of.

In the middle of the sea of goblin dead bodies, a single figure of a girl bathed in blood standing stock still gave him the answer.

Even though the girl wasn't injured, from her mini-skirt that had been dyed red by fresh blood, drops of red-color dripped down to the ground.

Saying so, the girl turned towards his way.

This girl exterminated the whole goblin village.

The situation was unthinkable no matter how much one racks his brain, Meguru needed a few more seconds before he could comprehend all this. Even if he knew the answer he got was correct, there was no way he could just comprehend it instantly.

And fear, was the thing that rose up inside of him.

It took him several seconds to liberate his body from that fear.

A few seconds.

Only a few seconds.

The few seconds he used to blink his eyes to sort out the information inside his head, those were the fatal few seconds that Meguru could never take back.

「What a bother」

Just before he closed his eyes, the voice of the girl could be heard.

The second his eyes were closed, the girl standing in the sea of dead bodies vanished from his field of vision.

In the end, she vanished only from Meguru's sight. When he turned back and looked at the people that should've been whom he would seek help from, all the standby Kingdom Knights were scattered into pieces.

Scatter-ed.

In. To. Pieces.

They all turned into dead corpses.

No difference from the goblins, all the Kingdom Knights who followed him also got annihilated.

However, Meguru alone remained.

Under normal circumstances, Meguru should've turned into pieces too, but it was not the case.

Towards Meguru, the girl only projected out her blood-thirst.

And she approached him.

「What are you. An irregular?」

So she said. Then agreeing to herself, the girl nodded “un un” and disappeared to somewhere.

It wasn't really luck in the middle of misfortune, though.

In any case, while being called a Hero, Meguru ended his first practice training with a bitter result of not even getting into any training at all.

A few years after that.

Right now he's acting together with the girl he met that time, the one that should've been killed by him.

Is this fate?

「Geez、I can't even laugh at this joke」

Meguru murmured in a troubled manner.

「Hn? Did you say something?」

Pearlnight turned around towards Meguru, saying so.

「Nope. It's nothing」

「Hm, that so. We should see my castle anytime now. There shouldn't be any more pursuers since we came all the way here」

After 3 days and 3 nights of running non-stop, the castle walls filled with blooming star-like Linalia flowers finally became visible.

It is the castle that Meguru and his hero party marched in in order to defeat the Maou. The state of the castle hasn't really changed compared to several months ago.

「This way」

Saying so, Pearlnight dashed off, following suit is Meguru. Having the tightly shut doors smashed, Pearlnight kicked the door that should've been opened with a key and kept walking upstairs.

After all, it's still her own house, what are we gonna do about cleaning up after this?, he thought while the sounds of around 6 more doors being smashed reverberated the empty castle.

「O-Oi. Pearlnight, aren't you breaking too many already?」

「No, we can't open them if I don't do this. Right now, Prism is extending a defensive barrier extending over this castle. The doors won't even move a tiny bit if you try to open it normally. That's why I'm smashing all the doors together with the barrier's ceremony. Still, even if it's Prism it would require some time to reconstruct the barrier. See? If we hurry up we can secure this area」

Pearlnight said so while laughing.

This chick is something, thought Meguru.

Breaking defensive barriers into pieces with just going around kicking things, even the Imperial Court Magicians would faint with foams bubbling from their mouth if they heard about this.

「Now then, we're here」

Pearlnight said so while kicking a door flying.

Craaaaaaash—making a huge sound, the door was flown off to the other side of the room and fell down.

From the empty space where the door should've been, the inside of the room could be seen. In the middle of the room, there's a girl with sky-colored eyes who's wrapped in maid outfit, opening her mouth with an expression that literally said what the hell just happened.

「I'm home, Prism. Looks like you did quite a good job being in charge while I was away. I'm thankful」

「P-Pearlnight-sama, I'm not worthy of your thanks. Your safety should be above anything else」

The girl named Prism shook her head while answering Pearlnight. Because she shook her head a bit too vigorously, her beautiful sky-colored hair fluttered along.

「Then, why the hell are you here. Yomawari Meguru」 (TN: Uh oh. The typical obnoxious tsundere loyal servant?? Please no...)

So said the girl with a reaction as if it's the most natural thing ever.

It was to be expected. Just a while ago he was trying to kill her beloved and respected Pearlnight as a Hero.

For that reason, Meguru was troubled.

He was unable to find words to say towards this girl who's honestly projecting blood-thirst while glaring at him.

Seeing Meguru like that, Pearlnight threw in the lifeboat.

「Prism, from now on Meguru's going to make enemy out of the world. So, won't you forgive him? If we do that I can continue to live, too. We also intend to make this place our base for a while. It'll save me troubles if you can get along, no ? 』

「If Pearlnight-sama said so then I have nothing else to say. This one, Prism Riverside, shall assist you with all sincerity of my body and soul for Pearlnight-sama's sake」 (TN: Yup. It's confirmed. This author has "godly" naming skills LOL)

「That helps, I can be at ease with you here. Be it me or Meguru, both our faces are too well-known to the public」

Saying so, Pearlnight placed her hand on Prism's head, gently patting her. Prism on the other hand, was ecstatic with a satisfied expression.

「Err, sorry for the stupid timing but, won't you lend me the bathroom?.....It really is painful being like this」

Prism's eyes of resentment and hatred pierced straight towards Meguru, but soon, as if it was nothing.....

「Then, please wait for a minute. Right now, I'm rewriting the barrier so that you can walk around freely.....okay, this should be fine. With this the doors should become openable. Also, Pearlnight-sama please don't go around breaking doors anymore」

Understood. As Pearlnight said so, the two of them headed towards the bathroom.

After moving to the bathroom, he took off his clothes while Pearlnight did the same right behind him.

Exposing her naked body, her moderately small breasts and her well-taken care of, beautiful pubic hair could be seen. He unintentionally turned his gaze away.

「What are you being surprised for. I also got soaked in blood and rain-water, you know? Unfortunately there's only one bathhouse in this castle. That's why we can only enter together. Don't put yourself on edge like that, I'll take everything off so...」

Saying so, Pearlnight stared at his crotch while entering the bath first.

「Come on, what are you doing. I'll wash you so hurry up」

「Wa-Wait. I'm good so you can just go on ahead. I'll bathe later」

「What are you on about, we postponed it 3 days already. I can't endure anymore so hurry up and come on in」

From inside the bath, Pearlnight stretched out her arms and grasped Meguru, pulling him in. Then she forcefully made him sit on the stool.

「I can't help it, dammit. It's been accumulating ! 」

「I see. It can't be helped, then. I'll wash you while you're erect. Hamuu」

Saying so, Pearlnight held the erect penis glans in her mouth.

「Uhh.....wait.....」

「Hnu.....lick.....chuu.....amuu.....nmuu.....puwaa. How was that ?

Felt good ? 」

A bit awkward, she let go of the penis, looking at him, seeking an impression.

「Hn, well, it's okay.....hnn」

He put up a tough front.

「Hmph. Pretending to be tough huh. Then how about this. Hnn.....juuru.....」

Completely different than just now, she suddenly chewed on it, crawling her tongue around.

「Nguu.....」

In a blink of an eye, the penis was smeared with saliva as she further swallowed it.

Pearlnight screwed the penis into her narrow throat while slurping, making obscene sounds and starting her fellatio.

Though it looked a bit unpleasant, the penis continued to indulge in her suction without responding.

「Hnn.....fuu.....hnnhn.....nchuu.....chuuruu.....cough.....」

Sometimes the stimulation given by the penis was too much for her to handle.

「P-Pearlnight.....」

Sometimes Pearlnight breathed out while vigorously putting the penis deeper and deeper inside.

「Puhaaa.....eguu.....」

For a second Pearlnight seemed to pulled the penis out, but she vigorously jammed it back in, swallowing the whole penis perfectly.

He felt a never-before pleasure rushing through his whole body from the depth of her narrow and hot throat.

Pearlnight slowly restarted her fellatio, but the strokes got longer it couldn't be compared to earlier.

「Pearlnight, wait, I can't.....」

「Hngu.....juu.....eguu.....nguu.....guee」

She wasn't going very fast, but the unending sticky stimulation continued on constantly.

After pulling way out to the tip of his glans, she plunged it back into her mouth until her lips are pressed against his hips.

Pearlnight kept up the deep-strokes as if tasting the penis, but the time interval between each round trip shortened gradually.

「Fuu.....」

After breathing a breath, Pearlnight suddenly sped up.

「Nguu.....juubu.....guue.....hnuuu.....」

Not changing the length of each stroke, with a speed like she's throwing her face into his hips, she sucked on the penis.

It wasn't long until his endurance ran out, his limit has been met.

「No good.....Pearlnight ! Uuu..... ! ! 」

「Hguuuuuuuuuuuuu ! ! ! ! ! ! 」

The moment his ejaculation began, Pearlnight pressed her lips against the root of his penis, plunging the whole thing into her throat.

「Hn.....cough cough.....」

The pulsing penis dumped loads of semen down Pearlnight's throat's depth. As if urging on the ejaculation, Pearlnight shook her head, indulging in the penis.

After a while when the ejaculation stopped, Pearlnight made slurping sounds, slowly pulling out from the penis that has not 1 drop of semen left on it.

「.....Hn.....fuu.....naa.....」

After pulling the penis out all the way from her mouth, Pearlnight looked at him, opening her mouth wide. As she opened her mouth with her lips making slimy sounds because it was wet with semen, small bubbles of semen could be seen down her throat.

「Hn.....」

Like that she closed her mouth, then after showing an appearance of carefully tasting the semen, her throat rang a sound, slowly gulping everything down.

「Haa.....」

As Pearlnight opened her mouth again, he understood that all the semen has already been swallowed straight into her stomach.

「Thanks for the meal」

Saying so, Pearlnight smiled with a satisfied expression.

Chapter 2: Maou and Hero, grasping the situation

Introducing the harem~

Chapter 2: Maou and Hero, grasping the situation

Hero – Yomawari Meguru

Maou – Pearlnight “Resurrection” Halwehi

Maou’s servant – Prism Riverside

As a team, this combination is quite unique, but if this team were to pick a fight with the world, it’s going to be a big problem—in the first place, they already planned to mess with the world, so despite the problem being big or small, it’s already there. However, these guys are the kind of problem that can be called “the first and foremost prioritized”.

Originally, if we listened to the one formerly fighting against the world, Maou Pearlnight then 「In the beginning, even though I didn’t plan to kill them when I freely roamed the world, the relationship between them turned bad anyway. Six countries joined hand and attacked, you know? Even if it’s me, it’s still impossible. That’s why I lost to your hero party. But that also means they needed the strength of 5 other countries to do that, you see」 that’s what she would say.

「Well, during my 800 years being the Maou before you came, the situation was at a deadlock without any improvement. However, it shouldn’t have just developed straight to a situation where 5 countries joining hands with demons」

「.....hn ? 5 countries ? Wait a minute, wasn’t it 6 countries and demons ? 」

Meguru asked.

「No, only 5. The Beast Kingdom Zenofobia didn’t participated in this alliance. The relationship between beastmen and humans weren’t good to begin with.

That's why the King, Riley Riot rejected the offer, it seems. 『Lending help to humans? Don't make that kind of joke』 or so he seems to have said. It's all just rumors, though」

「Nah, if it's that old geezer then I think it's likely. I only met him once, but he looked at me like looking at some trash. He only mobilized his personnel because of "a hero of a Kingdom". That old fart, he really hates humans」

Recalling the time Meguru himself first met Riley Riot, he continued.

「Moreover, it's good that we have one less enemy to fight right now. It's just impossible to take on 6 countries at the same time」

「Six or five, same thing」

「No, I plan to attack them one by one, though. That's why Zenofobia not being in the Alliance will work for our side's advantage」

「Crushing them one by one.....huh」

Pearlnight repeated.

「Even if you say to crush them, how are you going to do it? Kill the whole population of the country? Murder every single one of them? 」

Asnwering Pearlnight's terrifying words, without a single reflection of emotion...

「No, I don't plan to kill the citizens. Only the King and the fuckers who betrayed me. Thoughtless murder isn't necessary. On top of that, it's a waste to kill all the girls, no? Well, I'll make the traitors feel like it's better just to die than live, though. Even if they beg for death, I won't let them die. I'll let them suffer and suffer and suffer and suffer and suffer so they know my pain」

...Meguru said so with a laugh.

Traitors.

Either Pearlnight or Prism know about that all too well.

They were the people that joined with Meguru as his hero party.

Holy Maiden – Anastashia Eularia

Sorceress – Cecilia Mavis

Holy Knight Leader – Sapphire Foltesimo

Shinigami – Sariel Hallone

An even more unique combination than Meguru's current team.

A mixed of various kinds of people.

It wasn't exaggerated to say that all the people with greatest war potential from each country gathered in that team. With that kind of team composition, they could easily blow up a country. For that reason, in order to restrain that kind of power, it's necessary to control each of them one by one.

Leaving that aside.

Relatively speaking, this world is full of enemies because it's a fragile world.

In actuality, other countries feared that the country with this Hero who possesses gigantic powers would form an Alliance and invade them, so they forcefully formed this new Alliance when they heard the rumor that the Hero switched over to Maou's side. Because of that reason, this Alliance is a weak one.

In other words, Meguru's thoughts about crushing them one by one was perfect.

Meguru and Pearlnight don't know about this fact, though.

「Since it's safe to say that those guys joined the Alliance when the situation was at its worst, the fact that they aimed for our lives could be seen as utterly desperate for them but.....」

「Nah, even if they formed an Alliance, it's very unlikely that they'll make a move together at this current time. They don't trust each other anyway. Well, this is just a possibility, but Anastashia probably already called Cecilia to talk about it. Anyway, the status quo isn't so bad, even if it's at its worst」

「It's all good if we can crush them before those two can join hands, no?」

Pearlnight spoke, confirming the situation.

「Exactly. That's why our first and foremost target to crush is the Holy Maiden Anastashia Eularia of Sentoaria」

While laughing with a broad grin, Meguru began to think about how he would humiliate his ex-comrade.

Anastashia Eularia was a Holy Maiden.

Of course, she's the kind of legendary Holy Maiden that would come out to give speeches for attendant work.

From the moment Anastashia was born, up until now it has been 20 years. While accomplishing her work as a Holy Maiden, she was not allowed to be in a relationship with any man.

「Anastashia is, like, kinda wasteful」 (TN: He means that it's a waste for her to not be able to touch men) Him—someone that has been summoned from a different world, as a Hero, and at the same time as an enemy, spoke those kinds of words to Anastashia at every opportunity.

In the middle of a meal.

In the middle of her prayers.

Even in the bath, he said so.

「Such a waste. Really such a waste. That body, that hair, your everything is wonderful, and yet you're trapped in this position of a Holy Maiden. It's like you dug your own grave」

At first, myself was in denial.

So she thought.

For the Anastashia who continued to be a Holy Maiden, she feared that she'd lose the reason to live if she rejected the offer to become a Holy Maiden. That's why, that time she was angry.

Such a waste.

Even until now, Anastashia lives on without being able to comprehend those words.

Probably it was just he himself that these words were meant to aim at.

If she thinks like that, this cloudiness hiding inside her head would probably become able to be cleared away even just a little.

However, right now she can't even put up with just that.

He had now recognized this world as his enemy, on top of that, together with his former enemy. Even if it's him, making an enemy out of the world would leave him no margin to survive, or so Anastashia thought.

For the first time, a man who talked to her became her enemy.

For the first time, the man she fell in love with, became her enemy. (TN: WHAT? WTF? I'M SORRY WHAT?) But then again, Anastashia can't do anything about that.

As a Holy Maiden, she carries the hopes of the people. She can't possibly betray them because of her own feelings. For that reason, she betrayed him.

But for the first time, whenever she thinks about being hated by him.

Whenever she tried to conceal her earnest feelings for him, and thought about living on while being hated by him as an enemy.

She swore that she'd kill herself and become a puppet.

「Hnuu.....Meguru-sama.....」

However, while recalling his words, she could only comfort herself. (TN: Yeah I think the chick is masturbating lmao)
