Chapter 1: Surpassing Mind

Late at night, the sky was black like ink.

There was a brilliant meteor streaking across the sky, completely illuminating the dark skies.

In the state of Xing Chen Da Lu(Star continent), there is a void with an immense palace floating on the sky.

There is an elderly man wearing a black robe holding a cyan scepter bowing towards a throne.

“Servant Si pays respects to the king!”

On the throne was a middle aged man wearing a majestic cyan robe, giving off a majestic aura like an immovable mountain.

The majestic middle aged man gave a slight nod towards the elderly man in the palace hall.

“What may be the reason for the state elder Si Kong to have an audience with me?”

The old man shook and knelt: “My Lord, this servant immediately went for an audience after discovering this night; a star descended the Wan Nian Dynasty. I did not dare to neglect this sighting, this is the reason for having an audience with the king!”

Whoosh! Whoosh!

The heaven and earth started to shake, the eyes middle aged man on the throne suddenly let out a bright gaze!

“Who dared create chaos in my Dynasty? Kill without mercy!”

The middle aged man abruptly stood up letting out a mighty force.

He had a tall stature, like a giant born to intimidate others.

Si Kong kneeling stated: “This servant already gave his best and investigated, the star descended in the east, it gave life to someone name Ye!”

The middle aged man went silent for a while, he moved away from the throne, with killing intent flashing in his eyes and in a cold voice:

“Give out an order throughout the Xing Chen Da Lu, find anyone with the surname and related to Ye, kill them with no mercy!”

“Yes my lord, this servant will immediately carry out the order!”

Si Kong paid respect to the king, stood up and bowed, turned and left!

In the east there was an endless territory, inside of which was the insignificant small town Ye Zhen.

In the small town Ye Zhen there was a number one clan, it was the Ye Clan!

This night was a very important night for the Ye Clan, because the beautiful mother of the clan was pregnant, tonight was the time for labor.

15 years ago the beautiful woman was also pregnant, however it wasn't meant to be because the body was waste born with broken veins!

For a dozen of years the beautiful woman has not been pregnant, until this year she finally succeeded.

If the second child was once again a failure, naturally the position of master will shift.

That is why the beautiful woman becoming pregnant was the focus of attention of everyone in the clan, especially those wanting the position as master.

The Ye clan courtyard was bustling with liveliness, while those looking at the position were unhappy.

The courtyard was massive with multiple lamps used to light up the place, there is a youngster aged 15 to 16 lying in bed.

In the room was a servant girl with the same age awaiting any orders.

Suddenly the youngster in the bed abruptly opened his eyes; an unfamiliar sight appeared in the eyes of Ye Xing.

Rustle—

Ye Xing suddenly stood up, his eyes filled with unfathomable color.

What is going on?

Ye Xing mind felt like it was struck by lightning, memories started to go around.

That's right! I passed through a super computer connection that went to this mysterious fantasy world to observe!

In this mysterious fantasy world, I am a hunter, made to use a bow to fight a boss and rule the world, after then..?

Now that I think about it, there was a warning: A problem occurred with the super computer connection; all players please disconnect immediately or face the consequences.

Ah! I was fighting a boss, then in the last minute then it suddenly told me to disconnect from the game?

I hesitated and there was 35 seconds left, after...there was no after.

How am I here?

I did not quit the game?

Don't tell me I am in a virtual world?

For that moment, Ye Xing was filled with questions!

He immediately raised both of his hands, what he saw was young tender hand, his mind was struck; in a flash he had the answer!

It was hard to accept the reality.

"Young master, you woke up?"

Ye Xing moved astounding the maid, walking towards the servant girl.

He looked again at his hands, it was a young person's hands, it was not his in-game hands, nor was it his real hands.

Confirming he was in another world, in addition he was also now a young man.

“You are—?”

Ye Xing looked at the maid while making his way over with a puzzled expression.

“Young master, I am Xiao Qing, do you not remember me young master!

The servant girl with an anxious complexion looked at Ye Xing: “You and Ye Hu probably had a competition leading to the young master hitting his head, young master you need to be more careful, I am Xiao Qing, do you remember, I am Xiao Qing!”

With Xiao Qing’s words Ye Xing started to have a headache remembering a lot of memories, causing his eyebrows to wrinkle and held his head with both hands.

After a moment, Ye Xing put both of his hands down and looked up with his clear bright eyes: “I remember, I saw Shuang Ling and Ye Qing together causing anger, and there was an argument...!”

Xiao Qing repeatedly nodded: Yes young master, it seems your head did not break after all. Young miss Shuang Ling is your fiancée, and young master Ye Qing arranged a date, no wonder young master was filled with fury. They proceeded to beat the young master; sadly the young master can't interact with the stars force and unable to enter Wu Dao (Martial Way). Naturally they were not an opponent for the young master even if you use all your strength. Also you had a rock climbing competition with Ye Hu almost losing your life, the clan master was frightened.

The memories of Ye Xing started to all come back, all thanks to Xiao Qing recalling all the events that transpired.

At this moment there was no longer anger in his heart, but instead was excitement.

With the old Ye Xing's memory he knew he was in Xing Chen Da Lu and no longer in earth. In this world one can cultivate.

Ye Xing in earth was an orphan, otherwise he would not have joined this dangerous project to measure the mysterious fantasy world. After arriving in Xing Chen Da Lu one can cultivate to be an expert, this makes the somewhat game-like world to be more refreshing and exciting.

"In the future I will be a an expert, who will Ye Hu and Ye Qing be, they will be kneeling before me!"

Ye Xing with his delusion for the tomorrow happily laughed.

Ye Xing can't use magic however he can absorb the power of the many stars in the heavens to cultivate.

In the Xing Chen Da Lu, the only way one can enter the Wu Dao is through the interaction and absorption of the stars.

Obviously not everyone can interact with the stars and absorb its power. Out of 10 people, approximately only 4 can interact with the stars and do martial arts, the remaining 6 can't and forever will not be able to cultivate, living their whole lives as mere mortals.

Ordinary mortals, even if they try to reach the peak of their physical body through exercise, the highest one can get is only equivalent to the 3rd layer of martial apprentice, incapable of being a real expert.

Xing Chen Da Lu is the world of the strong, a world of warriors. Ordinary people are like ants, without the affinity with the stars; one can never be a warrior and can only be considered as having a waste of a body.

"Young master, your body is broken and has no affinity with the stars, I'm afraid as time passes you will not be able to compare with young master Ye Hu. Furthermore it was said that young master Ye Qing has already entered the 4th layer of Wu Dao.

Xiao Qing seeing Ye Xing happy, she immediately splashed water on him by reminding him of his body's situation.

Not all the memories of the past Ye Xing has come back, leading him to not know and ask: "

"I am crippled? What is crippled?"

Xiao Qing's knowledge is not very high; however she still was able to enter Wu Dao and is currently in the 1st layer of martial apprentice. This topic is common sense in this world.

"Young master, only through the absorption of the star's power can one enter Wu Dao, but you can't sense the power of the stars, even if you give your best in strengthening your body, the best you can achieve is the 3rd layer of martial apprentice. The distance from being a real martial expert is too vast.

"How can't I induce the power of the stars? Xiao Qing, tell me, how can others do it while I cannot!"

Ye Xing is suddenly lifted his head, he is not the same person as the old Ye Xing, he has arrived in a world where one can cultivate, which is something he wants to be able to do in his life.

Fate led him to this situation; surely he cannot waste this chance.

On earth he was an orphan that did not enjoy much success, but after arriving in this world, one can cultivate. A desire surged from his heart to rule and be king.

"Young master, you have tried many times, and time and time again you failed to induce the power of the stars. You are at least not alone, out of 10 people, 6 cannot use the power."

Xiao Qing let Ye Xing recognize the reality he is in.

"I will try again!" Ye Xing said with a faint smile unwilling to waver.

"Young master you must live one, do not try anything rash..!"

Xiao Qing sighed, with a helpless voice said: "First you must meditate your 5 internal parts(heart, mind, intention, center, core), you will be trying to find a star that can relate to you, until then can you only use the power of the stars and be able to cultivate."

Ye Xing listened to what Xiao Qing had just said; he concentrated at the 5 parts of Xiao Qing which made a weird situation.

His eyes were like scanners, completely observing Xiao Qing's whole body and entering her mind. It's as if her body became transparent and the force within her body can be seen clearly.

What is this all about?

Ye Xing was shocked, it seems like his eyes were different compared to normal people.

Chapter 2: Surpassing Mind

Ye Xing felt a familiarity to the mind.

After joining the project regarding the mysterious fantasy world, a lot of things happened such as him being able to scan bodies like a computer.

Don't tell me..?

Ye Xing's mind shook, an incredible idea popped up in his mind!

Like a supercomputer, his mind is a million times faster than that of a normal person!

Ye Xing was very clear about the situation, a supercomputer mind has a lot of benefits, most obvious of most is that he will be extremely smart.

One can have very good memory, also able to understand and learn many things. This talent is so good that it even can be considered as evil.

On order to confirm his thoughts, he gazed away from Xiao Qing and concentrated on a wall.

The scanning capability is not only limited to the human body.

Surely enough, gazing at the wall Ye Xing can see through and see its complete composition, seeing minerals that did not exist in earth!

The scanning is also not limited to one wall, immediately he saw through the second wall, then to the third making them seem transparent. The walls no longer seemed real rather look like see through veils. After penetrating the third wall he saw a man, this was his parents hall.

Parents?

Ye Xing's heart shook, he was an orphan and never had parents, however just by looking he instinctively felt that they were his parents.

Although they were the parents of the previous host of the body, the feeling is very deep. When Ye Xing was born, Ye Fei Hong and Liu E were very disappointed because of his crippled body, nonetheless they still cared for him.

Recently though, since Liu E is pregnant with her second child, both parents focused their sole attention to the incoming child and neglected Ye Xing slowly becoming indifferent.

As the time for labor comes closer and closer, Liu E started not going out causing Ye Fei Hong also to stay and take care of his ife.

The second child will determine if there will be a proper descendant, Ye Xing being crippled naturally was ignored and given up on focusing on what is major.

Ye Xing recalled, he was a filial son, deep down the previous host of the body was the yearning for his parents.

Although the previous host was a cripple and cannot practice proper martial arts, he still gave his best to strengthen his body. So even if he is only a young 16 year old kid, there still is the accumulated strength after years of exercise.

Ye Xing in an unnatural world did not know what path to take, the Ye Clan has been a martial family for generations, therefore he wanted to try to cultivate and stay with his family.

Since he took someone else's body, of course he will use the identity of the original owner and remain with the family.

To him, the original hosts parents were now also his parents.

As for his fiancée, he coldly snorted, sooner or later he would divorce her!

It's already late at night, but there are still a lot of people in the hall. It seems like his mother is about to have a second child.

The incoming child, no matter a male or female, his father did not like him much already, what more when the child is born. He is scared of the consequences and the more hate he will receive.

Ye Xing sighed, if the previous owner did not die, then his future would have not been bright.

Now however all those things do not matter, all he needs is the identity, no love from the father, no love from the mother, these do not matter to him.

Suddenly he heard something from Xiao Qing: "Young master, do you understand?"

Ye Xing suddenly looked back, nodded and said: "Not to worry!"

Although Ye Xing only took a glance at Xiao Qing, he can already see clearly the power within her.

Ye Xing immediately copied what Xiao Qing is doing and started to meditate. It was like a journey in the skies with many stars, he started to induce the powers of the stars.

In a blink of an eye, Ye Xing felt power to surge from a faraway distance that started to descend and envelop his body.

In an instant, after inducing the power of the stars, it seemed like one of the huge stars became more visible and power surged through it dropping on his body giving a relaxing feeling making him happy.

Ye Xing was surprised. he felt his strength increasing, his power was being upgraded.

“Young...young master, you can now truly access the power of the stars?”

Xiao Qing touched her lips, eyes filled with shock, looking where Ye Xing is.

At this moment, Ye Xing was no longer in the roof top, rather he was in a pitch black sky.

When Ye Xing is inducing the power, there is a pitch black sky, at the distance there is a massive star silhouette, however it still is indiscernible. To Xiao Qing, all she sees is the pitch black skies, her understanding is different from Ye Xing.

After discerning the stars for the stars for the first time, it was unusual, after interacting more with the stars there was something called the Xian Xiang.

Xing Xiang, is the foundation of discerning the stars, the distance plays a significant role when it comes to aptitude.

Xiao Qing never heard of this therefore never knew how to differentiate, but this is due to the dark sky which is hard to notice.

Now that Ye Xing can do this, it can be proven that he can use the power of the stars to strengthen himself.

Xiao Qing cannot believe it, before Ye Xing no matter how hard he tried always failed, this time finally succeeded and doing it with ease, as if the previous setback is being reversed.

As far as she aware, the first induction of the stars takes along time, the fastest usually takes at least 12 hours, it requires a lot of time.

“Don’t tell me that because before he often tried to grasp the stars power, it accumulated finally building up making finally possible and easy to induct the power.”

Xiao Qing is having second thoughts, what if he really used a lot of time, or maybe he never was crippled and unparalleled in aptitude?

After the star power entered the body of Ye Xing it started to strengthen his body with a brilliant effect, however Ye Xing is aware that he is only absorbing some, most of the power is wasted away.

This is due to too much of the power surging causing most of it to be wasted, but it also helped rapidly increase and improve.

Ye Xing’s mind spun, according to Xiao Qing there is a method to control the power within the body.

Ye Xing immediately used his strong mind to scan the body, he found out that Xiao Qing used 3 channels to control the star’s power, all of it going through the 3 channels.

Suddenly, with the use of the 3 channels more power surged in then spread by the channels throughout the body. With this, Ye Xing's absorption rate increased again by ten times.

Ye Xing's body at all corners are being strengthened, power slowly rising, in a quarter of an hour the black sky started to fade, the connection was cut stopping the absorption.

At this moment, Ye Xing feels like his strength increased around 2 to 3 times compared to beforehand, his body filled with power.

Using his mind and eyes, he discovered his strength is now slightly greater than Xiao Qing's at the 1st layer in warrior, showing he already entered Wu Dao. After entering the 1st layer, his Dan Tian started to form with his star ring.

The first night Ye Xing arrived in Xing Chen Da Lu, he already took the first step in the Wu Dao. There was excitement in his heart, his dream to become the ruling expert, he took his first step to his journey.

Ye Xing filled with hope and pride states: "Xing Chen Da Lu, I, Ye Xing has come, I will surely cultivate to become an expert, to walk the path of a ruler, I have arrived in Xing Chen Da Lu!"

After hearing the statements Ye Xing have said, Xiao Qing hearing this naturally giggled.

In the eyes of Xiao Qing, her young master was in an incomparable situation, cultivating to be an expert, what a complete joke!

Xiao Qing smiles and says: "Young master you just started to interact with the stars, not even sure how long until you can reach the first layer, the distance to becoming an exceptional master is just too far!"

Regarding Xiao Qing's contempt, Ye Xing did not mind and asked: "You told me the boundary to become an exceptional master is too hard? Why is the distance so big?"

Xiao Qing then replies: "In Wu Dao, there are nine realms, before only exercising can only reach the 3rd layer known as martial apprentice, this is only the start, only after passing 3 more layers can one genuinely say one is a warrior."

Xiao Qing's voice started to get worked up: "Only after reaching the 7th layer can exert internal force externally, known as the martial master, only then can one be considered a master but this too is only a layer. In the entire Star state, after reaching the 8th layer, the martial scholar, can one be widely considered an expert.

Xiao Qing's tone changed: "Leaving out the Star state, a genuine expert is at the 9th layer, still this cannot be known as an exceptional expert!"

Ye Xing then asked: "What can then be considered an exceptional expert?"

Xiao Qing taking a deep breathe and having respect said:

"Beyond the 9 layers in the Wu Dao is the martial saint, finally can be considered an exceptional expert with the strength of thousands of men!"

Chapter 3: Martial Arts

Haha...! To me the martial saint, also the 9th layer of the Wu Dao is not that far.

Ye Xing laughed out loud, not really understanding the great difficulty needed to be passed to reach the 9th layer of Wu Dao.

He was very confident, with his excellent mind, to him the distance to the martial saint is not that far.

"Not that far?" Xiao Qing exclaimed: "Young master are you crazy, thinking that reaching the martial way is easy!"

After taking a deep breathe, Xiao Qing remembered that Ye Xing hit his head just earlier, naturally not knowing the hardships to get to the 9th layer of Wu Dao, much less the martial saint.

"Young master, the Ye Clan is the sole power in Ye Zhen, but even the clan master is merely on the 5th layer of Wu Dao. Also, the wife of the clan master is merely in the 7th layer of the Wu Dao and is already is a power.

Xiao Qing with a profound tone said: "In the entire Shan region, encompassing about a thousand li(500 meters), there are many warriors, but there is only one martial saint. The difference between a normal warrior and a martial saint is massive, it is like the heaven and earth. With what you have just said a moment ago, you must not say to other people or you might as well die!”

Ye Xing just smiled, naturally his view of the Wu Dao and Xing Chen Da Lu is different.

Even with the clear explanation of Xiao Qing regarding the Wu Dao, Ye Xing was still confident and not feeling any pressure at all.

“Martial saint! A peerless master!”

Ye Xing mouthed silently, in his mind he wants to be a peerless master, the martial saint is his goal.

“Young master, although the distance to the martial saint is too far, at least you can finally use the star’s power, finally entering the Wu Dao and also not a cripple anymore. The clan and your parents will surely be happy, I will now report this to the clan master and the lady!”

Seeing Ye Xing stop saying anything, she happily left the room.

Not long after, Xiao Qing immediately came back with a happy face: “Congratulations young master, the lady finally has a second child, the young master now has a little brother...!”

Ye Xing just gave a faint smile, if he was the original host, he would care, however he is not causing him to feel not needing the congratulation.

If the second child was a female, it would have been better, however it is a son which obviously makes his position even worse.

“Young master you don’t seem too happy, Ah I see, you fear that the clan master and lady will only pay attention to your little brother and disregard you? Now that I think about it recently they have not been paying the young master too much attention anymore!”

Xiao Qing was just really simple-minded, not even thinking about it when she said it directly to Ye Xing.

Fortunately he wasn’t the same Ye Xing anymore, after Xiao Qing spoke, he just laughed it away.

He by no means care even a little bit if his parents do not love him!

Xiao Qing finally realized what she should not have said, trying to smile and said: “Young master, you may see him tomorrow, you just woke up and must rest for the night. The next day after eating your meal, you then can see the clan master!”

After Xiao Qing leaves, Ye Xing was lying in bed. Although he was excited that in this world one can cultivate, he still is a bit shocked in suddenly arriving in this world.

This was just unbelievable, he unexpectedly arrived at Xing Chen Da Lu, it was just too unfathomable!

“I’m finally in this dream, or is it finally the dream is with me?”

Ye Xing began to doubt if this was all real, was he really in Xing Chen Da Lu, or was he just in earth having a dream.

But he just disregarded the idea, his memories of earth were very distinct, the ones here are a bit fuzzy. All Ye Xing can do is move forward and remember more.

It is impossible to have distinct memories in a dream, he can clearly remember everything about earth. There must have been a reason for his soul to arrive in Xing Chen Da Lu and being in the body of this young Ye Xing.

Ye Xing doubts that he will be able to return to earth in this lifetime, he must make sure no one in Ye Zhen know that he is a different person now.

He tried to recall, combining his own memories to that of the original host.

Unfortunately, even if he tried, he only recalled few memories from the original master.

He was a youngster in the Ye Zhen, his father named Ye Fei Hong the clan master, and his mother named Liu E the clan lady.

Since before he couldn't really use the star's power and couldn't cultivate, he only knew one practice of chinese boxing— Bone Crushing Fist.

Bone Crushing Fist, considered to be in the lower grade martial art, and barely can be seen as chinese boxing. It was useful for refining the body, making the body and bones strong.

Having strong bones is fundamental, as what they say, the first to be refined is the bone.

Ye Xing being awake without doing anything decided to use the Bone Crushing Fist, punching towards the air making echo sounds showing the power behind it, at last the bones of his body were refined.

After one punch from the Bone Crushing Fist, 38 echoes can be heard.

Ye Xing remembered when the original host tried to use this technique, he only succeeded in creating 18 echoes. It seems after assimilating the power of the stars, his body became stronger and so did his bones.

The Bone Crushing Fist was a common body strengthening chinese boxing technique. Even the normal people without the power of the stars can utilize this technique and strengthen their bodies.

The Bone Crushing Fist in total has 4 stages, the 1st stage is the easiest and can be easily learned. As long as you make an echo, that can be already considered as entering the first stage and learning the technique.

The 2nd stage then requires to be able to create 30 echoes, this was also quite easy to attain even for those in the 1st layer of martial apprentice.

It is when trying to get the 3rd stage things get hard, one must make 70 echos. This was hard for normal people and usually people in the 2nd layer of martial apprentice can attain this.

For the 4th stage, one must create 100 echos and only attainable those reaching the 3rd layer of martial apprentice.

The old Ye Xing only can do 18 echos meaning he just was in the first stage, however just now he already created 38 echos. This means he has quite the understanding of the technique in this stage.

Ye Xing, of course was not just satisfied with 38 echos, he continued to practice the Bone Crushing Fist which he scanned with his brain. The brain immediately analyzed every aspect and effects the technique can give.

At the same time, his brain was making adjustments to make the cultivation better. It discovered that the Bone Crushing Fist is just not only about the bones.

Thus, with Ye Xing's control, the brain improved the Bone Crushing Fist, once again making variations to the style.

Originally the Bone Crushing Fist has 27 moves, each move cultivating 3 to 4 bones, altogether cultivating 100 bones.

After the variation made by his mind, the number of moves was raised to 36 moves, each move refining 4 to 6 bones, altogether 206 bones are completely cultivated.

Ye Xing and his mind were in complete synchronization, his mind being able to create a new style.

“What is this? My mind can create can create its own martial arts? Haha...! This surpassing mind is really extraordinary. The Bone Crushing fist had a limit of cultivating 100 bones, the perfect brain however making the technique be able to cultivate 206 bones of the body. I have to say, I’m a genius Haha...!

Ye Xing’s mood was very pleasant, in the room he began to practice the newly created and perfected Bone Crushing Fist!

Punching with the Bone Crushing Fist, his body was able to create 48 echoes. With just another try of cultivation, he already increased by 10 echoes!

The perfected Bone Crushing Fist was indeed extraordinary, not only does it refine to body and bone, with the brain’s modification, the effects are even greater.

Naturally with the 10 added echoes, it is not much, however just now the echoes that sounded out was extremely oppresing.

If this is how the bone is really cultivated, the sound is really crisp and at the same time also a strong force erupts out.

Ye Xing just arrived in Xing Chen Da Lu, still not sleeping and energetically practiced the Bone Crushing Fist over and over again.

With night passing, using the perfected technique, Ye Xing can now create 72 echoes with a strong sound. However he just can make completely clear crisp of 46 echoes therefore he has yet to reach the higher levels.

In merely a night, Ye Xing already refined 8 bones which is considered fast. With already being able to reach 72 echoes, how long would it take for him to reach the highest level?

Practicing the whole night, Ye Xing was covered with sweat but he is not sleepy at all. After arriving the new strange world, he is filled with interest and passion.

“Ya, young master what is up, why are you full of sweat?”

Early morning Xiao Qing arrived with breakfast was extremely surprised.

“Today I was in good spirits, practicing the Bone Crushing Fist earlier.”

Ye Xing indifferently stated, regarding the improvement of the technique his lips were sealed.

In the Ye clan there is the 4th layer of Wu Dao and 5th layer of Wu Dao, reaching the 100 bones of the Bone Crushing Fist. Improving such a technique even though ordinary is a hard task.

Especially reaching the 206 bone refinement, I'm afraid such a thing goes against the heavens.

Ye Xing did not want to be in the spotlight in Xing Chen Da Lu, all it will bring is a bad outcome.

Chapter 4: Martial Arts

Ye Xing took a bath, changed his clothes and ate his meal. After which he followed Xiao Qing towards the courtyard and the main hall.

Xiao Qing informed of their arrival, then were allowed to enter the room of Ye Xing's parents.

The Ye clan's beautiful lady, Liu E was lying in a big bed with a newborn baby by her side.

Liu E's full attention were to the baby and did not notice Ye Xing coming in.

The same was for the Ye clan master Ye Fei Hong, stationed beside the bed paying attention to the infant. He only gave Ye Xing a glance then returned his attention to the infant in the bed.

Beside the Ye Clan master was a young beautiful lady, looking at Ye xing gave a faint smile filled with mockery.

Ye Xing immediately recognized the young girl, she was the original host's cousin and fiancée, Liu Shuang.

This girl was originally seen together with Ye Qing which made him extremely mad before, what is more the younger brother of his, Ye Hu, Ye Xing was also not a match.

He tried to play his strength by challenging Ye Hu to rock climbing but ended up getting hurt causing the new person to occupy Ye Xing's body.

"Father, Mother."

Ye Xing this early wanted to exploit the original identity of the host, calling out to his mother and father.

Hearing Ye Xing, Liu E turned towards him and gave an unenthusiastic smile: "Xing er you came, quickly look at your younger brother."

Ye Xing walked over to the bed, looking at the little kid: "What's the younger brother's name?"

This child will probably be the favorite, not that it matters because he is not the old Ye Xing: therefore he didn't have any unnatural expression.

"He will be called Ye Bao, his real name being Ye Chen."

(TL: To clarify, Ye Bao is the nickname, while the real name is Ye Chen. Bao means jewel or gem, pretty much showing the favoritism already.)

Liu E said with a smile, being happy that Ye Xing did not show any hostility to Ye Chen.

Pausing for a bit, Liu E smiled and continued to say: "Xing Er, last night Xiao Qing said you can already sense the star energy, is this true?"

"En." Ye Xing nodded.

Without any hint of joy, Liu E calmly stated: "You can finally use the power of the stars, however even you are not crippled anymore, you are 16 this year. Your brother however was born with innate talent and a star descended showing good omen, which means his future is limitless. Starting today, all the medicine will be given to your brother, you have no say in this!"

As they say, poor language but abundant martial!

To have a strong body, there must be adequate nutritional support for precious food for nourishing the blood and qi is not enough. Naturally medicine is needed to nourish the body.

To refine the Wu Dao, it is necessary for important resources, this can not be done only by rich clans.

Ye Xing in the past was a cripple, although he can practice the Bone Crushing Fist to 18 echos which is good compared to normal people, without the help of medical herbs he can't lay a solid foundation.

For the previous Ye Xing, without these resources, it will be like his way of living will be cut off. Without the herbs, his Bone Crushing Fist won't improve, even after a while might digress.

Ye Xing as the son of the mast of the clan, before at least had resources assigned to him. Now however it has been taken away by Liu E to give to Ye Chen, Ye Xing was obviously abandoned.

In fact, Ye Xing being a cripple his parents already have given up on him, like a dead horse in a hospital, Ye Xing to them was just wasting resources.

Now that there is a second son, of course they will try to cultivate him. Although Ye Xing can now induce star force, to Ye Fei Hong and Liu E it was too late, they had no shred of confidence in his future.

"I have no objection!"

Ye Xing has already foreseen this result, nothing unusual was happening.

He did not complain, he had a surpassing brain as a blessing, who can compare to him? How can little resources hinder him?

Ye Xing was free and at ease. This was contrary to the expectation to the parents expectation, they felt they do not understand him completely.

To them this was good, there is no resentment between the family.

"Pretending to be generous!"

At the side, Liu Shuang being completely ignored by Ye Xing when he came was in a bad mood:

“Older cousin, it doesn’t mean you can induce the power it will be smooth in cultivating. With your limited talent it will be difficult, resources are important, do you not feel bad at all?”

Ye Xing looked at Liu Shuang and narrowing his eyes: “Giving to my younger brother, who I love dearly, is that something an outsider like you should care about?”

Liu Shuang’s complexion turned blue, from childhood to now Ye Xing always chased her, when did this Ye Xing start talking to her like that?”

“Uncle and Aunt, look at him....calling me an outsider!”

Liu Shuang stomped her foot as if about to cry, trying to move the two.

“Xing er, is that how you speak, Liu Shuang is your cousin and fiancée, not an outsider!”

Liu E with a stern look faced him, Liu Shuang was her niece, naturally she can’t let her be wronged.

“Fiancée...!”Ye Xing sneered, Liu Shuang to the old host was like a gem, to him however she wasn’t even worth a blade of grass.

“Ye Xing, a man’s heart should be broad, why are you so petty?”

Ye Fei Hong naturally knew the conflict between Ye Xing and the two brothers Ye Qing, Ye Hu, therefore taking his anger to Liu Shuang:

“Although Shuang Ling is your fiancée, she still is currently living with the Ye Clan and part of our younger generation. You losing to the brothers is only a little conflict, do not lose even more face!”

Ye Fei Hong was the clan master, Ye Xing, being born a cripple obviously caused him to dislike Ye Xing.

After the competition between Ye Hu and Ye Xing, him falling unconscious became a family joke which made Ye Fei Hong burn with anger.

However due to Ye Xing being in a coma, Ye Fei Hong didn't have the chance to vent his anger. Later on Ye Chen was born which caused him joy diluting a lot of the anger.

Now that Ye Xing was in front of him, Ye Fei Hong started to recall of the matter which caused his anger to rise up again.

Ye Xing remained silent, this cheap father was really interesting, his fiancée and another man were in a date, but instead he gets mad at him and wants him to bow down?

Oh...

Ye Xing reacted quickly, the date between Ye Qing and Shuang Ling is the matter of the old host, these things he did not care about at all.

He started to recall, that Shuang Ling and Ye Qing were flirting with each other, obviously not a normal relationship causing the old Ye Xing to be irrationally mad.

It was hard to say, there was no concrete evidence, in the eyes of others Ye Xing was being petty, causing him to feel inferior filled with envy....

Besides, the Ye Xing now is different, he didn't even try clarifying. In short all he needed was the original owner's identity, first to stay until he is capable, sooner or later he will get out of here.

"This is dad's lesson!"

Ye Xing did not get annoyed, his expression was constant, Ye Fei Hong felt like he punched cotton letting out his anger.

Ye Xing again spoke: "Dad, I now can sense the power of the stars, but can not cultivate a method, please bestow me knowledge!"

With Xiao Qing's body, Ye Xing learned the three channel method, but his goal was clear; he wanted to use his identity to save the trouble and justify cultivating methods.

Ye Fei Hong did not have any plans to teach him and even wanted to rebuke him, but with what Ye Xing had said he couldn't say it. He took out a book from his bosom and threw it to Ye Xing:

"You have to cultivate properly by yourself."

Ye Xing took a look at the cover of the book which had three words, 'Evergreen Power'.

He knew this Evergreen Power method, it was a low grade method which everyone in the Ye clan who entered the Wu Dao uses.

This was exactly what Ye Xing got from observing Xiao Qing cultivating, which was the 3 channels; with that however it can be seen the way she did it was full of mistakes.

Ye Xing's knowledge is really muddled, furthermore he did not have anyone to ask help from, even with his brain using a method with a lot of loopholes is quite bad. Now that he has the manual, it makes a big difference, now like the Bone Crushing Fist, he can cultivate it properly and perfect it.

"Thank you dad!"

Ye Xing caught the Evergreen Power, with a genuine smile on his face: Dad, mom, Ye Xing will leave first."

"Aunt, Uncle, I will now also take my leave...!" Liu Shuang Ling seeing the development, also decided to follow suit and leave.

.....

"Older cousin, congratulations, more than 16 years old finally being able to sense the star's force, not a cripple anymore!"

Standing outside, Liu Shuang Ling overtook Ye Xing and softly said: "It is a pity, brother Ye Qing who is also 16 is already at the 4th layer of Wu Dao, a genuine warrior. You however just entered the Wu Dao, hehe, no matter how hard you try you can not be compared to elder brother Ye Qing."

After saying those words, laughing sounding like a small bell walked away.

Wu Dao 4th layer?

Ye Xing faintly smiled, his goal was the martial saint, a peerless master. Wu Dao at the 4th layer? Ye Xing never thought of comparing himself with Ye Qing in the first place.

Returning to his room, Xiao Qing was waiting for Ye Xing. He let her leave and started to read the Evergreen power page by page.

Every page his peerless brain will scan it putting the contents in his head permanently, even photographic memory is not as good as that.

Chapter 5: Breakthrough

Evergreen power is a lower grade method that allows star energy to flow through 3 channels in the body.

Ye Xing first learned the method through Xiao Qing, however she had too many loopholes so it was insufficient.

Even with the manual, completely mastering the Evergreen power using the three channels can only absorb 80 percent of the power at most.

With Ye Xing scanning the method with his brain, he improved the Evergreen Power.

The deduction capabilities of the surpassing brain is indeed powerful. With the base knowledge of Evergreen and his brain, Ye Xing has been practicing the use of the 3 channels in his body, which he rapidly completely use to cultivate.

Other using 1 channel can only assimilate 80 percent, with Ye Xing however, he can absorb it completely, all 3 working together is just as imagined.

A completely opened channel, compared to a normal one with only the capability of absorbing 80 percent, the 20 percent boost is huge.

With the same amount of time, Ye Xing's cultivation speed surpasses that of a normal person.

Besides, he also has his brain which helped him open the channels completely. What's more is that his brain even improved it to the point of being able to use a 4th channel for cultivation.

When the 4th channel is finally completely opened, the surpassing brain can also improve it to opening a 5th channel...

Eventually, after the 5th channel was opened to its fullest, Ye Xing tried opening a sixth channel but it failed.

Although the surpassing brain is amazing, it still haven't fully comprehended Xing Chen Da Lu's cultivation knowledge. The reason it was able to make the Evergreen Power perfect was due to knowing the base knowledge through the manual.

Evergreen Power is merely a lower grade method, therefore very limited. The fact that the surpassing brain was able to improve it to the extent of opening a 5th channel is already going against the heavens.

For every extra meridian, there is a qualitative leap forward, especially compared to the 80 percent 3 channels, the combined effects are at the least 10 times greater than the original.

Practicing 5 channels has already gone beyond the realm of lower grade methods, even the best middle grade methods can only go up to 6 channels for cultivation.

In other words, after the improvement of the surpassing mind, the grade of the Evergreen method increased from the lower grade to the middle grade.

With regards to the Ye clan in Ye Zhen, a middle grade method is the best they have, is it given to those entering to the Wu Dao? Don't even think about it, there is no person that can easily get this kind of treatment.

However right in this moment, it is already like Ye Xing is being treated that way.

Although he was only able to induct star force recently when he is already 16 years old, and has just started practicing martial arts which is way later than the other younger generation in the Ye clan; his cultivation condition is much better compared to the other younger generation.

He was confident that he can surpass the others in the younger generation, it is just a matter of time.

This time will not be too long!

Ye Xing sat cross-legged on his bed, absorbing the star energy cultivating through Evergreen.

Vaguely, he sensed one huge and dark star, though he doesn't know what it is yet, he can feel it surging with strength, it was no ordinary star.

With the force surging from the star in the deep dark void, upon landing on Ye Xing it is absorbed by his 5 channels. It is refined into flesh, blood and bone refining energy which is used to strengthen his body.

The reason for Ye Xing entering easily to the 1st layer of the Wu Dao was due to the hardships done by the previous person. providing a good solid foundation. Furthermore with the help of Xiao Qing indirectly showing Evergreen, just in the first night he already entered the 1st layer of Wu Dao.

The 1st layer of the Wu Dao is the entrance, the hurdle is not hard to go over, however trying to go into to the 2nd layer, that is where the difficulty starts.

To Ye Xing with the help of the middle grade Evergreen method which is ten times faster than usual, practicing to the 2nd layer won't take too long.

An hour later, Ye Xing stopped cultivating, being in the 1st layer of the Wu Dao, he can no longer absorbed anymore star force due to 1 hour is his limit, he needs to rest for also at least an hour to continue cultivating.

Ye Xing did not wait an hour, he went to the backyard, that moment he was cultivating the Bone Crushing Fist.

The Bone Crushing Fist cultivates the bone, while the Evergreen method cultivates the channels, blood and flesh, which do not conflict with each other. When he no longer can practice Evergreen, he then will cultivate the Bone Crushing Fist.

Although the bones have no direct relation with cultivating in Wu Dao, the bones are the foundation of the body, only strong bone can compliment strong flesh.

Thus, to a martial apprentice, cultivating the Bone Crushing Fist is essential, which in turn will also improve cultivating other methods.

Refining the perfect Bone Crushing Fist for a whole hour, Ye Xing was sweating and finally stopped. He rested for a few breaths, then sat on a flat stone next to the courtyard practicing the Evergreen method.

Due to the huge success the Ye Xing has with cultivating the Bone Crushing Fist and absorbing power from the stars in the dark void, he didn't feel like going back to his room.

Just recently, because it is already time for lunch, the servant girl Xiao Qing came over to deliver food.

Fortunately even though the cultivating resources was transferred to the brother, what he ate before was still the same now, which was precious food for nourishing the body.

Ye Xing was trouble-free, because if there was no nourishing food, his body can't continuously do the training he is doing.

After lunch, Ye Xing told Xiao Qing to leave and not to disturb him. He walked to the courtyard, after a quarter hour he began to continue cultivating Evergreen.

After practicing both the Evergreen method and Bone Crushing Fist an hour each in intervals, it was getting late and it was time for supper.

With Ye Xing's progress, he first went back to his room and took a bath while Xiao Qing brought dinner.

For the whole day Ye Xing did not dine with his parents at all, making Xiao Qing bring the food to him all the time. If it was the old host, he would have been sad, for this was going on for a month or so.

To Ye Xing this was pleasing, since his cheap parents never liked him in the first place, then might as well save the trouble.

A day for him is, when not practicing the Evergreen method, he would cultivate the Bone Crushing Fist for the next hour, after dinner Ye Xing has ample time to do what he wants.

Compared to the first night of being energetic all day, Ye Xing was tired for cultivating all day. After of one more hour of practicing, he went to bed and slept very deeply.

The next day early morning Ye Xing was refreshed, all the tiredness was wiped out in his deep sleep.

In the morning, Ye Xing went to the backyard to exercise, instead of practicing Evergreen and Bone Crushing Fist, he practiced exercising power, responsiveness and speed according to his brain.

Strength is important, but explosive speed and reaction is significant for real life situations.

Before without the energy, it was essential to learn these martial skills, now with his surpassing brain it is still a required course to do at least each day.

After an hour, Xiao Qing brought breakfast so Ye Xing stopped his morning exercise.

He ate his meal speedily and told Xiao Qing to leave and come back on lunch, then he began practicing Evergreen Power.

The original host often trained a lot, so it wasn't abnormal to Xiao Qing to see Ye Xing practice, besides due to this she has a lot of free time making the relationship of the two in good terms. His only interest right now is to cultivate using the Evergreen method.

As time passed, Ye Xing spent everyday cultivating with his bones and body strengthening, everyday he has a substantial increase in strength, day by day he is getting stronger.

In an instant, five days passed.

With the Ye clan being the dominant force in Ye Zhen, multiple guests came due to the second son being born.

Although with the numerous guests paying respects to the Ye clan master, in another courtyard was a 16 year old juvenile cultivating everyday the past few days progressing leaps and bounds.

Hu - Ha - Ha - Ha - Hu - Ha

In the main house, Ye Xing was practicing the perfect Bone Crushing Fist and Evergreen each style flowing out beautifully like calligraphy.

Every strike that is made, two to three snapping sounds can be heard.

After a while an explosive punch came from the Bone Crushing Fist, Ye Xing revealed a face of joy.

Just a moment ago, Ye Xing counted in total the sounds that came out using the Bone Crushing Fist, where 108 echos can be heard. This shows that he finally cultivated 108 bones, which the normal Bone crushing can never hope to reach.

There were 108 echos, 72 crisp echos, 36 dull echos which is representative of reaching the higher realm of the Bone Crushing Fist.

Usually only those who reached the 2nd layer of the Wu Dao can use the higher realm of the Bone Crushing Fist, but with it perfected, even though Ye Xing is at the 1st layer the effects are huge and within five days achieved this much.

Of course compared to the normal Bone Crushing Fist, this is quite amazing, but compared to the perfected peak practice of 206 bones and 72 dull echoes, what he achieved is still small.

Any kind of martial arts, after reaching a higher realm the road to the peak gets more difficult such as the Bone Crushing Fist. For those below the 3rd layer of the Wu Dao, the higher realm is the limit, only after reaching the 3rd layer can one perfect the method.

The perfect Bone Crushing Fist is now in the lower realm, meaning there is still a lot of room for improvement.

(TL: Just to clarify this weird  method, the bones refer to the bones refined after every punch. While the crisp is the less desired echo, the dull echo defines the level reached.)

Chapter 6: Breakthrough

Sixth day, 79 echoes!

Seventh day, 85 echoes!

Eight day, 90 echoes!

Everyday Ye Xing's perfect Bone Crushing Fist improves, the strength in his bone rising.

As the trend is seen, there are less and less bones to refine leading to the back, which is difficult.

In the past 8 days, the perfect Bone Crushing Fist and punches have made great progress. The cultivation of Evergreen method is not that bad, getting more and more closer to the 2nd layer.

Ye Xing's muscles are also getting a lot more powerful in the past 8 days, he feels like lifting hundreds of pounds is an easy task.

Especially in his body, the first star ring from being a bit dim now has become bright. Outside the first ring, is a second dim ring that is barely noticeable.

If the second ring completely appears, this indicates that he has reached the 2nd layer of Wu Dao.

If it was other people, the appearance of the second ring is very hard to notice early on, the only way to fully know if one has reached the 2nd layer is by testing if it was achieved.

To Ye Xing however, with his brain scanning, he can see the extent of the level he has reached and can know what level he is currently in.

Looking in his dantian the blur of the second ring can be seen, showing that reaching the 2nd layer is now close.

“This time, I will enter the 2nd layer of Wu Dao!”

This time at night, Ye Xing already ate dinner and was sitting cross-legged on his bed.

Very quickly, he started cultivating the Evergreen method, incorporating the 5 channels to absorb the star power into his body, then refining the muscles with qi.

The muscles and the blood were being nourished by the star energy, however not enhanced.

With Ye Xing's cultivation clearly appeared in his surpassing brain, he watched the second ring from being extremely vague slowly transforming into something clear.

As every minute passes, his body is getting stronger, his second ring becoming more clear, slowly reaching the 2nd layer.

After about an hour later, Ye Xing's second ring in his dantian was finally clear and complete. Although compared to the first ring it was dim, but then again it was clear proof that Ye Xing has stepped into the 2nd layer of Wu Dao.

"Finally broke through to the 2nd layer of Wu Dao. Eight days, only eight days time, I reached the 2nd layer of Wu Dao!"

Ye Xing in one night reached the 1st layer, and in 8 days reached the 2nd layer, this is even more rare.

Stepping into the Wu Dao is important, the original master paved the way by having a solid foundation, but from the 1st to the 2nd layer was all Ye Xing's hard work.

In the past few days, his memories have been fusing with the old host more and more, showing the distance between the two in martial arts. Even the best Ye Qing was said to take at least a whole year to reach this level.

Compared to others in the younger generation, some spent more than a year's time, some even needed at the least two years time.

Compared to the effort and time needed by the other younger generation, Ye Xing just needed 8 days which is extremely short.

Ye Xing knows even with the improvement of his brain of the Evergreen method, now a middle grade method, it still should not be this quick. His induction of star energy is a bit unusual.

Stars are also a big factor in affecting cultivation speed, if higher level stars are used, the more power surging can one get, naturally cultivating faster.

“Wu Dao 1st layer has about 100 to 300 jin(half a kilogram) of force, Wu Dao 2nd layer has about 500 to 600 jin of force, my Bone Crushing fist at last finally has 90 echoes, almost reaching the ordinary Bone Crushing Fist’s peak. This strength must be at least 2 times stronger than the usual 2nd layer strength, whether it is comparable to the 3rd layer I’m not yet sure.”

Ye Xing feels the surging strength in his body, his heart can not help but beat faster.

For a normal person, the 1st layer of the Wu Dao is already difficult to deal with, even with 35 normal people working together they still not are a suitable opponent.

In comparison the 2nd layer to normal people is already a master, having 500 to 500 jin of force, capable of throwing a person a long distance, even if a dozen more people join hand in hand, they still can’t handle this strength.

As for the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, they can be compared to 100 normal people, with the power of 1 thousand jin, a mere touch to a normal person can lead to a deadly injury.

Ye Xing feels as if his strength far outstrips a normal 2nd layer martial apprentice, but compared to the hundred people strength of a 3rd layer practitioner, he still doesn't compare.

A coalition of a hundred normal people is comparable to a small force, it is difficult to handle.

A third layer of Wu Dao is equivalent to at least an army of a hundred normal people, it can be just imagined how powerful it is.

"Although my improvement is fast, but compared to the 3rd layer Ye Hu, I am still far worse, I'm afraid I still need to keep trying!"

In Ye Xing's core, it can be seen that he reached the 2nd layer of Wu Dao, so he can take it easy.

Although both Ye Qing and Ye Hu is not his goal, he still keeps them in mind, he needs them as reference, in the martial road one must take step by step, in the future he will be stepping on them.

Ninth day, still cultivating!

Early morning is exercise, after which an hour of Evergreen, then an hour of Bone Crushing Fist, this is the same for the afternoon.

Today, his punch improved attaining 94 echos, increased growth speed and already improved greatly compared to yesterday.

At night, after an hour Ye Xing was once again using Evergreen Power, checking his dantian, he still found his second ring dim.

From the 2nd layer to the 3rd layer compared to the 1st to 2nd is much harder. Even if Ye Xing's cultivating speed is superior to an ordinary person, it's hard to replicate the 1st to 2nd layer speed in just days.

Tenth day, the Bone Crushing Fist reached the 98 echoes.

In Ye Xing's dantian, the second ring is now more noticeable, but still pretty dim.

In the eleventh day the Bone Crushing Fist reached 101 echoes, successfully breaking through the hundred mark, according to the normal Bone Crushing Fist, the hundred mark is the limit, 101 echoes transcends the peak.

In the perfect Bone Crushing Fist, to normally reach this one must be in the 3rd layer of martial apprentice, but Ye Xing who just entered the 2nd layer in barely 3 days already reached this level.

However, Ye Xing has not been improving much, today he only improved by 3 echoes, The Bone Crushing Fist progress has been declining.

Ye Xing checked his dantian for the rings, he found that they became brighter, but at this rate, for the second ring to be as bright as the first, he might need at least a whole month.

To condense a third ring and reach the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, it will take a long time.

“The perfect Bone Crushing Fist has a total of 206 bones, I now have cultivated less than half, in theory there should be no decline yet in this situation!”

Ye Xing was sitting, then his mind was struck.

“The problem is not in the perfect Bone Crushing Fist, it’s probably due to my body, correct, I do not receive any resources so my body can not keep up with my cultivation speed!”

Ye Xing with his surpassing brain scanned his own body, checking his nutritional needs, and found it was so.

Although eats precious food for nourishing everyday and is well-fed, but compared to the needs of his body, it is not nearly enough.

This is due to the fact that the Bone Crushing Fist needs to absorb a lot of nutrition in the body, therefore affecting his cultivation, influencing his speed.

“Continuing practicing the Bone Crushing Fist and reaching the 3rd layer of Wu Dao is possible, however it will take a really long time!”

“No, I heard the main family’s envoy is coming to Ye Zhen to select talented young generation in the Ye clan. This is my chance to leave, I must grab this opportunity!”

“For this month, to reach the 3rd layer and reach the peak of the perfected Bone Crushing Fist, I need resources. Since my family doesn’t want to provide me, I will find it myself!”

Immediately, Ye Xing has decided.

He wants to leave Ye Zhen, beside it is the Qingyun mountain range, to look for medical ingredients. With his surpassing mind that allows him to have better eyesight than most, he will be able to find the proper resources.

Only with the medical ingredients, will the perfected Bone Crushing Fist and Evergreen greatly increase, he must grab this opportunity to leave and explore.

Tian Cang City's Ye Clan main house has better martial arts, also have better warriors, that is the place Ye Xing want’s to go to.

On the twelfth day, after Ye Xing ate dinner, he told Xiao Qing to leave.

He went out to search for medical ingredients, since Ye Fei Hong and Liu E already decided to give all of his to Ye Chen. Ye Xing doesn’t want to talk to them.

Qingyun mountain is very broad and immense, nobody really knows how big and how many fierce beasts live inside.

To go to the Qingyun mountain range is not safe, so he has to do some preparations.

After leaving the residence of the Ye clan, he didn't right away go to Qingyun mountain range, but rather first headed to the small town.

Martial apprentices do not have inner strength, only simple force, it is hard to kill fierce beasts, so he needs weapons.

Ye Xing himself does not have a weapon, also doesn't want Ye Fei Hong to find out, as the young master of the Ye family, he naturally has a way to acquire what he wants.

Ye Zhen is not very big, after Ye Xing walked in a street, he found a weapon store which he went into.

Chapter 7: Bow and Arrow

A body of a warrior alone is not enough to fight a fierce beast, to be able to succeed every warrior needs a weapon, it is necessary.

Once someone is still not a genuine warrior, to go to the mountain infested beast, one needs a weapon.

Therefore weapons is the cultivating world's industry, also the medical industry is just behind it.

The store that Ye Xing went into is called the Ye Zhi weapon, which is actually the Ye clan's family business and Ye Zhen's biggest weapon store. It has about 60 percent of market share, inside is an assortment of weapons, swords, spears, rods, almost every kind.

Although Ye Xing was the young master of the Ye clam, but due to his parents not liking him too much, he doesn't have that much pocket money. He also did not ask from his parents, so he cannot afford to buy a weapon only borrow.

His parents might not like him much, but he still is part of the family after all, so naturally he can at least borrow weapons from the store.

At most, if the news reach Ye Fei Hong's ears making him angry, by that time Ye Xing would already have entered the Qingyun mountain range.

Coming out of the Qingyun mountain range, Ye Xing is confident with his eyes, he can earn enough to buy his own two weapons.

"Young master Ye Xing!"

Ye Xing entering the store, a guy gave a greeting.

Although this was the first time Ye Xing went to the weapon store, the shop assistant naturally knows the son of the family master.

Despite being a cripple, the contempt is only known within the family, outside even if he is crippled, he still is the young master of the Ye clan. He is still has a high status, which one can not just neglect.

Ye Xing was giving off an easy going attitude and nodded: "Bring to me a good bow to look at, do you have a topnotch bow here?"

"On the first floor are the swords, the bows and arrows are on the second floor. young master Ye Xing please come with me."

The guy led the way, bringing Ye Xing to the second floor.

"Oh...! Is it not older cousin Ye Xing?"

Ye Xing has yet to reach the second floor, at the top of the staircase was a young man 1 to 2 years younger than Ye Xing. When he saw him, he gave an exaggerated shout.

“The Ye clan is big, the siblings are numerous, naturally not all have the same parents, most are related as cousins.

Even though they are cousins, there is no need to be deliberate called as older cousin.

“Young master Ye Hu!”

After the man saw this, he gave a bow and looked at Ye Xing: “Young master Ye Xing come take a look at the bow and arrow.”

After that he continued: “Young master Ye Xing please!”

The rock climbing competition between Ye Hu and Ye Xing, where Ye Xing fell unconscious, everyone in Ye Zhen knew, they all knew that Ye Xing and Ye Hu have a disparity between them.

Ye Xing subtly glanced at Ye Hu then continued casually towards the second floor.

Seeing Ye Xing being composed, Ye Hu was surprised. If it was in the past, Ye Xing would have already been angry.

Being surprised in his heart for being ignored, Ye Hu gave a mocking smile: “Bows and arrows? Oh, older cousin Ye Xing, with your feeble body, can you even pull the bow and shoot the arrow?"

While speaking, Ye hu turned around and went back to the second floor.

Originally he was about to leave, but after seeing Ye Xing, which to him is like fresh meat, he did not leave.

Archery is not really a hard thing, even if it was the previous Ye Xing with cultivating the Bone Crushing Fist to 18 echoes, is enough to pull a huge bow.

A normal person usually can't have the strength of 120 jin to pull a big bow.

When Ye Hu said that Ye Xing can't pull the bow and shoot arrows, he didn't mean the Ye Xing really can't do it, but he was laughing on how weak Ye Xing strength is.

Daring to ridicule and taunt Ye Xing, Ye Hu was not the only one, there were many in the family, he was just one of them.

He is a major elder's grandson, he already is in the 3rd layer of Wu Dao only at 14 years old. He is promising just like his older brother Ye Qing, who at 16 years old already entered the 4th layer of the Wu Dao becoming an genuine warrior.

Regarding Ye Hu, Ye Xing did not take him seriously, to him he is just like a bug flying around and buzzing.

Ye Xing did not go to the ordinary bow, he pointed at the 6 shi strength bow: "Show that one to me."

(TL: Shi means stone, and a shi is equivalent to 120 jin of force. This means that every shi, you need an additional 120 jin strength to use the bow. In this case, Ye Xing chose the 6 shi bow, which requires 6 times the strength of a normal bow.)

The man was only in charge of receiving guests, showing the merchandise in the lower tier cabinets.

The one in charge of the stronger goods was a 30 year old man named Lu Daxiong who is at the 3rd layer martial apprentice.

Seeing Ye Xing talk about the 6 shi big bow, he couldn't refrain from staring blankly, wasn't Ye Xing a cripple?

Lu Daxiong said: "Young master Ye Xing, this large bow is at the 6 shi level, you need at least 720 jin of force to pull this bow.

'That's it!' Ye Xing nodded.

Maybe young master Ye Xing only wants to look and nothing more, Lu Daxiong thought to himself. He passed the iron bow to Ye Xing.

At this moment Ye Hu snorted and laughed, his mockery obvious to the eye and said: "Ye Xing, you, do you have the strength for this 6 shi bow?"

Haha...!"

Ye hu wasn't done laughing, Ye Xing with the iron bow in his hands took a deep breath, then pulled the iron bow to a full arch.

Everyone around suddenly had the look of horror, Ye Hu filled with smiles on his face suddenly froze.

Ye Xing pulled the iron bow with his strength effortlessly, as if he can also do that to 8 shi and 9 shi bows.

Such a strong bow, pulling it at once is not easy, though stronger bows are good too, it is more useful if it can be speedily and continuously used.

The force of the 6 shi bow is just appropriate.

"Tsk, so what if you used all your strength to pull it once...!"

Ye Hu uncomfortably spouted, but his eyes were filled with astonishment.

Even if Ye Xing was to use all his strength to open the iron bow for a moment, this still shows he has a lot of strength.

"This is it, big brother, can you give me 20 arrows."

Ye Xing smiled to the man selling the bow, continuously ignoring Ye Hu.

“Young master Ye Xing has good strength.”

Lu Daxiong gave a praise, it was not too surprising after all, even being crippled, with extreme exercise it is possible to have the strength of a 3rd layer martial apprentice.

Ye Xing pulling the iron bow surprised him, however not to the point of it being unbelievable, Lu Daxiong smiled: “Qingjin arrows are sturdy, able to penetrate with force, it fits this kind of bow.”

The bows and arrows were not separated, here arrows are sold also, Lu Daxiong seeing that Ye Xing did not have arrows, he gave him another topnotch product arrows.

“The iron bow is 6200 silvers, Qingyun arrows is 1 silver per piece, here there are 32 arrows, young master Ye Xing, all together it is 6232 silvers, there are 32 silver as remainder, I will give the arrows to the young master as a present, overall it is 6200!”

Lu Daxiong put the Qingyun arrows in the counter, with a smile on his face looked at Ye Xing.

“6200 silver? Hehe..!” Ye Hu gave an ironic laughter again, he had a clear understanding about Ye Xing, it was highly unlikely that Ye Fei Hong will give Ye Xing so much money.

This was Ye Hu’s judgement, Ye Xing did not have much money, but he did not panic and said:

“Big brother, I do not have much silver, can you lend me this bow for a month, I will double the price for you.”

Lu Daxiong looked slightly embarrassed, more than 6000 silver of money, this is not a small sum, but Ye Xing is the son of the master of the Ye clan, compared to giving face to the clan master, what does 6200 silver amount too?

So for only merely a moment, Lu Daxiong with his face changing color made a decision.

Before he can speak, Ye Hu saw the arrows in the counter said:

“Oh, you really have no money ah, hehe...Ye Xing, although my Ye clan is a big family, 6200 silver does not amount to much, but there is a regulation, if everyone was like you going here and not paying, how will the Ye clan survive?”

“What do you want?”Ye Xing coldly looked at Ye Hu.

Ye Hu was like an annoying house fly that won't just disappear, naturally Ye Hu taunted to no end, but right now he needed the bow and arrow for going into Qingyun mountain range. Ye Hu is already trying to obstruct his path.

“Why? Hey...! Want to buy this bow and arrow, either come here and buy or leave the things and beat it!”

Ye Hu coldly spoke, his eyes attentively looking at Ye Xing.

“Two young masters calm down, young master Ye Hu you do not need to embarrass young master Ye Xing, the payment for this bow and arrow I, Lu Daxiong will cover it and give it as a present to young master Ye Xing, the two young masters must not have a dispute about this...!”

Ye Hu glared at Ye Xing, both gazing at each other as if there was a spark, Lu Daxiong was nervous and promptly spoke.

If the two young masters fight here, no matter the result is won;t be good and he will be punished, might as well lose his savings and give the bow and arrow away as long as the dispute is ended.

If the family were to hear this and reach Ye Fei Hong that the dispute was solved by him. he will be looked with favor, as long as he can curry the favor of Ye Fei Hong, 6000 silver is not much.

Lu Daxiong already gave the best he can, unfortunately the anger between Ye Xing and Ye Hu is too big, how is it easy to extinguish this?

Ye Hu his hand on the quiver did not move, he instead grabbed the iron bow in Ye Xing’s hand saying: “I said no, this won’t do, give it to me!”

Chapter 8: Bow and Arrow

"Give it to me...!"

Although Ye Xing did not feel like bothering with Ye Hu, but at this moment he was also angry, directing a blow to Ye Hu which he could have caught in the past.

Ye Xing's body issued an explosive sound, fully using his Bone Crushing First.

Ye Hu although two years younger than him was already in the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, it is not an easy task, this Bone Crushing Fist is the limit of Ye Xing.

However, the 101 echoes exploded out, an outsider will have difficulty in knowing the exact amount.

"You dare touch me?"

Seeing Ye Xing punch out, Ye Xing's eyes was filled with disdain shouting; "Beat it!"

With a loud shout, Ye hu's palm turned into a fist, echoes also sounded out, he also used the Bone Crushing Fist.

Bang--

Two punches going against each other, there was a loud thud.

Ye Hu was instantly shocked and pulled back his fist, his body going back by three steps.

Regarding cultivation, Ye Xing was only at the 2nd layer of the Wu Dao, Ye hu was at the 3rd layer, there was a difference of a whole level.

However, in regards the Bone Crushing Fist, Ye Hu already entered the 3rd layer, but has not perfected the method. Ye Xing with his 101 echoes of a punch, the strength was a distance apart.

In terms of comprehension, Ye Xing in boxing is superior giving more strength.

“Good, good, good! Ye Xing, I still haven’t given you a lesson, today I will give you a taste of it!”

Ye Hu’s face was swollen red and angry, his body being punched back by Ye Xing, this was unacceptable.

In his view, Ye Xing just a moment ago had the upper hand, he still has yet to use his full strength.

Now that he is fully ready, he must beat the crap out of this guy, no matter if he is the son of the clan master.

Ye hu shouted, sounds echoes out of his body, punching towards Ye Xing to attack.

Ye Xing coldly snorted, his punch is the perfected Bone Crushing Fist, he is not afraid of someone in the 3rd layer martial apprentice.

What's more, he still have not used his brain to scan, if he did all Ye Hu's flaws will be seen, even with the 3rd layer strength, Ye Xing has no reason to be scared.

Cone Crushing Fist!

Ye Xing wanting to try the formidable power of the perfected Bone Crushing Fist, he punched towards Ye Hu.

However, after the collision was about to happen with Ye Hu, Ye Xing's fist was suddenly pulled back.

At this moment, suddenly two hands reached out to grab, one skillfully grabbing Ye hu's hand while the other hand only caught air.

Eh?

Ye Fei was astounded, Ye Xing unexpectedly dodge his grab making him surprised.

"Who would dare to stop me...?"

With Ye Hu's wrist suddenly caught, he gave out an angry roar, trying to move it but it was unmoving.

"Third Elder!"

At the side a respectful voice came out, the one who caught Ye Hu's arm was a warrior of the Ye clan.

"Third Elder!" Even the guests of the store also had to be respectful to this person.

Ye clan was the number power in Ye Zhen, in addition the main family is in Tian Cang City where they hold a large influence. The Ye clan has the Third Elder, his name resounds in Ye Zhen.

"Third..Third Elder!"

Ye Hu was startled, then suddenly calmed down. The Third Elder is a genuine warrior, he has reached the pinnacle of the 4th layer Wu Dao. He is only a step from reaching the existence of a 5th layer cultivator.

The 3rd and 4th layer has a divide, in front of a 4th layer Wu Dao, there is no chance of resistance.

Of course, the Third Elder's focus is not really cultivation, he is the younger brother of the clan master, Ye Xing is his nephew. If he were to see Ye Xing to be beaten up, there is a possibility he will do double of that to the culprit.

Although he is also a nephew of the Third Elder, this is not by blood but merely by family, there is a difference.

This made him happy, thankfully he had not yet beaten up Ye Xing, but inwardly he was also blaming himself, the Third Elder is the one that supervises the weapon store, fighting Ye Xing here was really unwise.

Ye Hu decided in his mind, he will definitely teach Ye Xing a lesson in a safer place, then run back to his grandfather. His grandfather is the Great Elder, who has reached the 5th layer of Wu Dao, his grandfather can cover him, after beating Ye Xing his punishment would not be severe.

“Third Elder!” Ye Xing humbly nodded to Ye Fei Ting.

Ye Fei Ting was Ye Xing’s uncle, but because he was a cripple, Ye Fei Ting did not pay much attention to him. Their relationship was not close, that is why he still called him the Third Elder, nothing more.

“What is the matter with you two, brothers in a family fighting each other, this will receive ridicule, do you want to create a situation?”

Ye Fei Ting let go of Ye Hu’s wrist, he looked at both the youngsters, not trying to side with any party.

When Ye Xing and Ye Hu was about to go against each other, the man in the shop was afraid of what will happen to the shop, so he immediately informed Ye Fei Ting to handle the situation.

If not, usually Ye Fei Ting was not in the weapon store but rather usually stays inside the weapon storehouse.

“Third Elder, Ye Xing has no money and wants to borrow 6200 worth of bow and arrows, if everyone knew of this, a lot will go to the store just to borrow. The Ye clan will be greatly affected no matter how rich it is, we have a rule that you can only buy, not borrow, that is why I was determined to fight Ye Xing.

Ye Hu spoke in a loud passionate voice, he thought he was being reasonable.

“After 1 month, I will pay double the price.”Ye Xing lightly said.

Regarding the situation, Ye Fei Ting already heard the truth from the shop assistant.

Ye Fei Ting put both his hands on his back and said: “Both of you are children of the Ye family, for an insignificant amount of 6200 silver you both fought, I am gravely disappointed.

He looked at the two, then spoke to Lu Daxiong: “Lu Daxiong!”

Lu Daxiong immediately nodded: “Third Elder!”

Ye Fei Ting says: “To resolve this fight, you tried to bear the consequences, this is good, this bow and arrow you do not need to pay, I will cover it and give it to Ye Xing as a present.

Lu Daxiong respectfully said: "Yes, Third Elder."

Ye Fei Ting's attitude to Ye Xing was surprising, it seems that the original host's uncle was not that bad.

"Many thanks uncle!"

Ye Xing was not being indifferent, since Ye Fei Ting was good to him, he naturally did not address him as Third Elder but rather as uncle.

"After your injury, it seems like you are a bit different."

Ye Fei Ting looked at Ye Xing, before when he was in front of him, he was a pushover and unconfident, not daring to talk too much. He patted Ye Xing: "That's more like it!"

After that, Ye Fei Ting turned and walked away.

Ye Hu coldly snorted, ruthlessly staring at Ye Xing with an unsightly face, then walked away.

"Young master Ye Xing!"

Lu Daxiong took the quiver and went to Ye Xing, inside was 20 arrows.

Ye Xing tied tee quiver on his back, then slung the iron bow on his body then walked down stairs.

At the first floor Ye Xing got a sharp blade, it wasn't that expensive so he can afford it.

After leaving the weapon shop, Ye Xing went to a medical store and bought a few things. After which he left Ye Zhen for Qingyun mountain range.

Qingyun was a large mountain range, it was immense, the warriors of Ye Zhen merely explored a tiny area of it.

Ye Zhen is part of a mountain area, out of town for about a mile is a mountain, Ye Xing went towards it. Like a drop of water in an ocean, he seemed so small and insignificant.

Qingyun mountain is a genuine mountain range, its distance is incomparable to other areas, filled with fierce beasts, the other beasts compared to the ones here are small and nothing more.

Ye Xing passed one mountain ridge after another, walking about 10 li of distance, to arrive in front of a tall mountain ridge. This ridge was many times higher than the other around it.

Qingyun mountain range is so vast that there is a legend, in the deepest part of the range, there is a huge ridge occupied by a fierce beast that is comparable in strength to a martial saint.

He did not immediately enter the Qingyun mountain range, but rather he stopped in a forest.

He was familiar with the bow and arrow.

On earth, he was an excellent archer, it was his favorite sport, he practically can hit a target a hundred times with precision. Once there was this man who was the nation's archery champion, they had a competition and he crushed this man like a bug.

Because of this, when he started playing a virtual fantasy world game, he chose his career as a hunter armed with longbows.

And now this body is much stronger than it was in earth, his arm strength 10 times greater than before, which is essential for using a bow.

Vision, another thing that is important for an archer, with his surpassing brain, his eyes can see from afar, compared to others his vision is superior.

Arm strength, eyesight, Ye Xing is 10 times better than he was in earth, so in Xing Chen Da Lu, he can display his gift as an archer.

Ye Xing chose a tree as a target, on the trunk he put a mark, he then walked away from it by at least 100 meters, holding his iron bow and taking out his Qingjin arrows.

Pulling the arrow, then shoot it!

Whoosh--

Breaking free, the Qingjin arrow burst out, in a flash disappeared.

In a blink the Qingjin arrow was firmly nailed on the trunk.

The iron bow of 6 shi is really an extraordinary bow, if it was on earth, he would have a hard time hitting the target accurately at a hundred meters away.

However, Ye Xing's goal was not only the trunk, but the mark on it, using his vision he was able to clearly see.

Chapter 9: Medical Ingredients

Ye Xing tried the limit of his vision, it seems like he can see things from 10 li away.

A mere hundred meters, with Ye Xing's vision is naturally like right under his nose.

After looking into the distance, he looked at the arrow which seems to miss the target by two palms.

If two palms were compared to a body of a fierce beast, two palms is not much, however this two palms of distance is crucial.

For example if the fierce beast body is really strong, without hitting its weakness it will be hard to kill.

For an archer to kill someone with a bow and arrow, not only must one not miss, but also what area he must hit, and hit that area itself.

Ye Xing has high marksmanship, also he is in peak condition, however he still has not reach god-level in using the bow and arrow, practice is needed.

With his vision looking at the trunk a hundred meters away, Ye Xing took another Qingjin arrow and pulled the bow.

Whoosh--

The Qingjin arrow suddenly burst shooting and in a short time hit the trunk that was a hundred meters away.

This time, Ye Xing's eyesight is ten times better, the result is better than the first arrow however due to the wind, it caused him to miss the mark by a distance as big as a fist.

With respect to a person who just first used a bow, this marksmanship can be called heavenly. Even if someone worked hard for many years, it doesn't mean one can match what Ye Xing has done, a big factor of this is Ye Xing's improved vision.

Archery takes many years of hard work, if you want it to go further, it is extremely difficult. Ye Xing can be classified as a beginner, he still has a lot of room for improvement.

Ye Xing took out a third Qingjin arrow, trying to maintain his vision.

When practicing, Ye Xing does not intend to fully use his vision capabilities, he will practice in his normal state. This will vastly increase his accuracy, naturally improving without the need of using his overpowered eyesight.

Whoosh--

Whoosh--

.....

An arrow after another, until reaching the tenth arrows, Ye Xing stopped and walked forward.

After the adjustment, Ye Xing made great progress, the tenth arrow within a palm distance of the target.

Going towards the tree, Ye Xing pulled out the Qingjin arrows then went a hundred meters away again continuing to practice.

The arrows will become blunt after a while, Ye Xing had 20 arrows, 10 for practicing, the other 10 as a real weapon for the fierce beasts, for those not to lose their sharpness.

Ye Xing shot each of the 10 arrows, pulling one arrow after another, continuing to practice rounds of exercises.

Repeating it ten times, the iron bow was pulled by him hundreds of times, Ye Xing felt his arms to be sore.

The iron bow from the weapon shop was extremely hard to pull, however Ye Xing only needed a split second to pull it and release the bowstring as well as shooting the arrow. He repeated this process time and time again, pulling the bow and shooting, all this without the arms shaking.

In this case, in trying to hold the bow steady, it requires at least 5 times the normal force.

In other words, Ye Xing shooting a hundred times, shooting the iron and pulling it can be considered doing it for more than 500 times. Even with his cultivation of the Bone Crushing Fist to 101 echoes, it is still hard to bear it.

The strength of a 3rd layer Wu Dao martial apprentice is not weak, but his bones can barely do it, his muscles going sore from repetition.

Ye Xing stopped practicing archery, taking back all the arrows, he found a neat area to sit down and cultivate the Evergreen method.

AN hour later after being nourished by the star force, Ye Xing's arm, bone and muscles are no longer sore, it even became stronger. He then continued to practice archery.

He was hungry, so Ye Xing in the nearby hills shot a beast, he roasted it and ate. It was already nightfall, he dug out a small cave to rest, using a boulder as a door entrance.

Two days later, he doesn't know how much he already practiced, his shooting improved a lot.

In the distance of a hundred meters, without Ye Xing using his farsighted vision, he can hit the target within a fist's distance.

If he used his vision, he will hit the target at its center, without missing at all.

Even if Ye Xing was 50 meters away, 150 meters away, with his hypersight, his shot will accurately hit the mark.

In terms of achievement, Ye Xing's skill can be compared to a lifetime's worth of practicing archery, His skill is so high and has such a good marksmanship that it can now be considered godly.

In this past two days, Ye Xing sometimes will practice the Bone Crushing Fist, but the progress is not so fast, only hitting 105 echoes, in two days it only was raised by 4.

On the the third day, Ye Xing carried his quiver with his iron bow slung stepped into the tall ridges of the Qingyun mountain range. Relying on his archery, if he was to meet a fierce beast, he can totally kill and hunt them.

Also with his hypersight, if there was a really high leveled beast, Ye Xing can find it in a distance and avoid it in advance.

Strong vision, superb archery, Ye Xing's viability in the wild is even higher than a true warrior who is called to be the king of the jungle.

In Qingyun mountain range, high peaks are a common sight, on the high cliffs are tree and beautiful flowers...

Even with Ye Xing possessing a strong vision and has his hypersight, in Qingyun mountain range he was very cautious.

Although he has the capabilities to rule the jungle, after all it was his first time to enter massive ridges of mountains. In earth he never had such an experience, all his experience were only from a virtual game.

Ye Xing climbed to a high peak, gazing with his hypersight, scanning the vast distance but it is limited, so he can only see a small area.

(TL: To avoid confusion, with his hypersight he can see 10 li away which is very far, however it still is not enough for the vastness of the mountains)

Just now, in a circumference of 10 li he saw several fierce beasts; a black tiger, a big-clawed leopard, a large-toothed pig and brightly colored python.

As for the common beasts, they are even more.

After careful observation, Ye Xing selected his targets, he picked the large-toothed pig. Not because it is good to kill, not also because it is valuable but because near it Ye Xing can see a patch of precious medical ingredients on the tree trunk, a fleeceflower root.

The large-toothed pig is not a good target, between it and normal beasts there is a difference.

Its fur is really thick, swords and other weapons, even arrows have difficulty in hurting it.

Its head is like copper, almost impregnable, even a 6 shi bow can only graze it.

Also, its teeth are very sharp, very large, it can cause big injuries.

Even if a genuine warrior was to come across it, they will also would want to avoid it.

However, for Ye Xing as long as his target has a flaw, he can kill it. The big flaw of the large-toothed pig is its ears.

The arrow can pierce the ear and penetrate into its head.

An hour later, Ye Xing avoiding all types of poisonous insects, he arrived to the territory of the large-toothed pig and slowly approached it.

When Ye Xing was a hundred meters away from the large-toothed pig, it was lying down when it suddenly raised its head. Its ears perked up, it has very sensitive hearing, smelling a hint of danger.

No matter its action, it must be killed!

Whoosh--

The large-toothed pig was listening, suddenly a ray of light came from the trees, it was the Qingjin arrow.

In a blink of an eye, the Qingjin arrow entered the ear of the large-toothed pig.

A 6 shi strength bow, penetrating with force, as well as hitting the pig's weak point, the Qingjin arrow directly entered the ear piercing through its skull.

The large-toothed pig howled, its body fell on the ground struggling.

The vitality of a fierce beast is very powerful, even after its head being shot through, the large-toothed pig was still struggling for a moment, then finally stopped twitching.

When Ye Xing came near it the large-toothed pig moved charging, sadly it was already dying, as it went up it went down again.

Ye Xing immediately scooped out the fleecflower root, this root has a particular age, its cost is very valuable, even his parent's medical ingredients were not as precious as this.

After receiving the fleecflower root, Ye Xing pulled out the Qingjin arrow from the head of the pig, it was now filled with poison.

The corpse of the large-toothed pig is also valuable, even compared to the root its value is not far off, but Ye Xing did not care and left.

If he wanted to exchange it for money, it will take a lot of effort to bring to Ye Zhen, and it will also take unwanted attention.

What is more, with the yell of the large-toothed pig, it will surely attract the other fierce beasts in the area, the rather away the better.

On day time Ye Xing finds medical ingredients, hunting fierce beasts, after that he finds a safe place to cultivate.

At night, Ye Xing is in his small dug out cave, with a large boulder as a door entrance.

In an instant, a few days pass, everyday Ye Xing has a harvest, nonstop medical ingredients, besides majority of it are rare and precious.

Hungry, he will eat fierce beasts, thirsty, he will drink the blood of fierce beasts. What's more is with the help of the medical ingredients, his progress with the Evergreen method and Bone Crushing Fist is very fast.

One afternoon on the seventh day, Ye Xing killed a black tiger and collected its blood. Afterwards he found a valley with no beast and cultivated.

Every time he cultivates, he would use his hypersight to scan, in seven days he is already far from Ye Zhen, how long he has been in Qingyun mountain range he did not keep it in mind.

When Ye Xing finished a set of Bone Crushing Fist, his gaze swept through, in all his time in the mountains, it is his first time to find another person.

Chapter 10: Medical Ingredients

He did not immediately go towards the other person.

Rather he went towards the trees, Ye Xing was at least a hundred meters away.

Nothing can be concealed to Ye Xing's eyes, the other man also had a strong bow, like Ye Xing he was in Qingyun mountain range to hunt.

He scanned again on the bow one more time, the bow was also the same, a 6 shi iron bow.

A 6 shi strength bow, requires 720 jin of power to pull, for common usage I'm afraid you need at least a thousand jin of force to practice, as well as reaching the 3rd layer of Wu Dao or higher.

He came with covered tracks, sneakily arriving obviously does not have a good intent, Ye Xing does not like this.

Ye Xing pretended to feign ignorance, but in fact he was watching every move of the other man.

The hunter stealthily approached Ye Xing for about 50 meters away, he was hiding behind a mound of flowers.

After which, he took out a black arrow aiming at Ye Xing.

Although Ye Xing already expected this, he couldn't help but be filled with rage.

He after all came from earth, where society had laws, although there were murders, it was relatively small in number.

Ye Xing has not yet experienced the terror of a warrior's world, this hunter was a stranger, he did not even see him before and already wanting to sneakily kill him, his heart was filled with anger.

Whoosh--

In a split second, a cold light came from the mound of plants, it was heading directly to Ye Xing's throat.

This was an excellent shot, an arrow straight to the throat, apparently this guy has a lot of confidence.

This arrow gave Ye Xing a ruthless lesson, here in Xing Chen Da Lu, it is not like earth, there is a huge difference in rules.

In the martial world, death is a common thing, it can be a trivial reason or without a reason at all.

The arrow was quick, almost in a blink of an eye was about to penetrate Ye Xing's throat.

Unfortunately, the arrow was too fast that he was not able to react to Ye Xing.

Between the moment both shot at each other, Ye Xing had moved a step sideways, then reached out and grabbed.

The arrows were too fast, an ordinary eye cannot see but Ye Xing can see it clearly, Ye Xing grabbed out.

An arrow shot from a 6 shi bow is really strong, even if Ye Xing caught the arrow shaft in a split second, he had to use the Bone Crushing Fist to stop it.

Ye Xing backed up two steps and caught the arrow.

The arrow tip was green like Ye Xing's arrow, filled with poison to kill fierce beasts.

The hunter behind the mound of plants was shocked and turned pale, he has been practicing the use of bows for 20 years, if the target was inside a hundred meters he never missed, today a young juvenile unexpectedly avoided being killed by the arrow.

If he only dodge, he would be surprised not shocked, however Ye Xing reached out and caught the arrow which shocked him.

A 6 shi bow and arrow, how fast it is, how can it be possible? Can it be caught by hand?

Even if it was a genuine warrior, they could never catch arrows empty-handed.

He wanted to shoot this strange boy, as a senior hunter in the Qingyun mountain range, he knew this stranger is like him, looking for medicine. He wanted to get the harvests of his counterpart, even if he doesn't have, the bow and arrows are good enough.

It appears that he will finally kick the bucket!

Even his pride, sneakily shooting someone failed to harm a hair from this young man, he even caught the arrow, this scared the soul out of him.

After a moment of shock, he rolled from tree to tree, and ran with the cover of trees rapidly.

Ye Xing has a bow, he is also a hunter, the other man must be a veteran hunter, he understand why he did a sneak attack.

Ye Xing took out his iron bow, ha grabbed an arrow and place it, he used his hypersight to scan, he saw where the other man is.

Although Ye Xing is not used to Xing Chen Da Lu in terms of survival, he was not used to killing, however the other man just tried to kill him.

Ye Xing in his heart has his own principles, that man shot this arrow to him, so therefore he will pay him back with the same arrow, that way it is fair.

The hunter was taking shelter behind the trees, running dozens of meters looking back and saw Ye Xing not catching up. The distance between them is now more than a hundred meters so he can relax.

Although it was slow going through the trees, it was still safer. Now that he was a hundred meters away, this was beyond a warrior's range, this hunter felt that he was secured and no longer need to hide behind the trees.

Whoosh--

At this time, Ye Xing pulled the bow powerfully and in an instant the black arrow shot a hundred meters explosively going to the hunter.

The hunter heard the explosive sound of air coming from behind him, looking back his eyes had a moment of panic.

Pu--

In an instant the back arrow went through his throat, then continued onward a dozen more meters before hitting a tree.

An arrow piercing the throat, the hunter was instantly killed, his body fell on the ground with his eyes filled with horror, also with a hint of disbelief.

He could not see clearly, with a distance of a hundred meters, even if it was a warrior hunter, it doesn't necessarily they can do it, but how come this youngster can shit my throat with an arrow?

"You shoot me, I shoot you, you even tried to hide, do not blame me!"

Ye Xing coldly looked, he was calm as usual, he went to the body of the hunter a hundred meters away.

On earth, never killed a man, he also never was in a fight, this was his first kill, however there was no tension, confusion and feelings of guilt.

Quickly his mind was filled with a carefree feeling, the man tried to take his life, so he took his instead, it was a good feeling having life on his hands.

He feels like he is in a fantasy world, with a bow in his hand, kill the boss alone, go around the world and everything is within his grasp.

He missed the wonderful memories of the fantasy world.

In Xing Chen Da Lu, he is not like when he was on earth, living a restrained life.

Everything is oneself, everything is under control, this world can't oppress him, the ways of this world can't restrain him, other people's view can't influence him.

He is like in a fantasy world, live free and easy, live with joy, he will not seek out to kill others, however those who offend him, he will answer them with his bow.

After not much time, Ye Xing arrived at the body of the hunter. In the hunter's body, he searched a wrapping, after opening he saw that inside was 3 medical ingredients.

Two of it were common, one was an emperor blood grass which is precious, it was not inferior to the fleeceflower root.

The emperor blood grass can repair qi and blood, it has a strong impact for cultivating the Bone Crushing Fist and the Evergreen method.

This 3 mere medical ingredients are little compared to Ye Xing's harvest, evidently this man did not have the surpassing mind also his equally great eyesight.

In addition, Ye Xing found in the bosom of the man was a few silver, it wasn't much, only about 300 silver, not as precious as the bow and arrow themselves.

In Qingyun mountain range, it is not a place to use silver, therefore this man did not really bring that much.

Ye Xing dug a hole and buried the hunter, then took the medicine away.

As for the bow, Ye Xing took out a few arrows he did not use, the rest he hid under piles of leaves, remembering the area, when he leaves the mountain he will get it.

This time he suffered an attack, this was a normal thing, he will now directly eat the medical ingredients to cultivate and progress in lightning speed.

A few days pass and Ye Xing's perfected Bone Crushing Fist reached the 170 echoes, he was now close to the peak 206 echoes, meaning he is now near higher realm.

In the common Bone Crushing Fist, he already reach above the peak of it, even surpassing the perfect realm of it.

After refining to 170 echoes, the Bone Crushing Fist is terrifying, even against a 3rd layer Wu Dao martial apprentice reaching the perfect realm in the normal Bone Crushing Fist, Ye Xing will not lose.

Ye Xing while staying in the Qingyun mountain range also had a lot of progress in the Wu Dao, he is already at the peak of second layer, the distance from the 3rd layer is not too far off.

This day, Ye Xing made a lot of discoveries.

He discovered middle grade medical ingredients, red blood mushroom.

Middle grade medical ingredients, this is a valuable resource for a genuine warrior, this red blood mushroom, the value of this is about several thousands of silver.

In ten days in Qingyun mountain, Ye Xing got a lot of medicines, many of which are rare herbs worth thousands of silver, however middle grade medical ingredients, it was the first time he saw one.

“The last two days, the perfected Bone Crushing Fist’s progress has slowed down, it seems like lower grade medical herbs are limited, making it hard to reach the higher realm of the perfected Bone Crushing Fist hard. This red blood mushroom is just in time, it can help me cultivate the Bone Crushing Fist to the perfect realm. ”

Ye Xing was looking at the red blood mushroom.

If he took that red blood mushroom, not only will he reach the perfect realm of the Bone Crushing Fist, but also Ye Xing’s cultivation can also increase.

Right now he is in the peak of the 2nd layer Wu Dao, naturally he will break soon tot he 3rd layer.

The Red Blood Mushroom is extremely useful to Ye Xing.

However, Ye Xing frowned, the Red Blood mushroom is an extremely valuable medical ingredient, how come there is no fierce guardian beast?

Near the Red Blood Mushroom was a multi-colored leopard, about three meters in length.

This leopard's head is larger than normal leopards, even compared to tigers it is bigger.

However, its body is not as big as a tiger, it is more streamlined. If a person was to see this, they will think speed!

It is a middle-tier beast Iron Leopard.

Fierce beasts are divided in grade by strength, a middle-tier beast is as strong as a person in the 4th to the 6th layer of Wu Dao.

The Iron Leopard is a top quality beast in terms of speed, also top quality in attacking power. Compared to other middle-tier beasts, it is impressive, even a 4th layer warrior will be unable to escape from its grasps.

“To hunt or not to hunt?”

Ye Xing’s mind was turning, he has a desire to hunt the leopard, however the risk is great.

“Currently I am in the peak of the 2nd layer, the final step to reach the 3rd layer is a bit difficult, more time is needed.

“The perfected Bone Crushing Fist is already at the higher realm, the lower grade medical ingredients are now having less effects. It seems like without the help of middle grade medicine, it is difficult to reach the perfect realm and the time needed to get to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao is long.”

“The thing is, this Red Blood Mushroom can let me enter the 3rd layer of Wu Dao and reach the perfect realm of the Bone Crushing fist in a short time...!”

On his second thought, Ye Xing’s thoughts in hunting the Iron Leopard prevailed. After all, the Red Blood Mushroom has big benefits and he is confident on his archery skills.

In an open battle, even if there was ten Ye Xings, they still won’t be the opponent of the Iron Leopard. But with a bow and arrow in hand, it doesn’t necessarily mean there is no hope in killing the Iron Leopard.

A bow is different from other weapons. With a bow in hand, it is possible to kill someone who is multiple times stronger than you. Even if the target is ten times stronger, as long as you properly use the bow and arrow, it is possible.

“Furthermore in a half month’s time, the main family envoy will be in Ye Zhen. When that times arrives, surely the Ye clan will hold a competition, only by reaching the 3rd layer of Wu Dao will I have hope in defeating Ye Qing. The main family envoy will choose who is a stronger warrior, this only happens once a year, I cannot waste this chance!”

Ye Xing revealed strong eyes, he has made his decision.

His goal is to be a martial saint, a peerless master, therefore it is necessary for him to venture the large skies. This will enable him to learn higher level martial arts.

When you are younger, the more valuable time is, he didn’t want to miss this opportunity. He didn’t want to spend another year in Ye Zhen in vain.

He will start with the bow in his hand, brimming with confidence.

He arrived in this mysterious world armed with a bow fighting a boss, now the Iron Leopard is in front of his eyes, as if it is the boss.

Now, he wants to be a hunter, with a bow in his hand, will hunt the Iron Leopard alone.

Half an hour later, Ye Xing went towards the leopard and the Red Blood Mushroom in the valley.

In this valley, there weren't too many trees, the horizon was more open. Ye Xing was slowly crawling on the ground closer to the Iron Leopard.

Wind was blowing from Ye Xing towards the Iron Leopard, it sniffed as if noticing something. Then the scent disappeared so it did not mind it.

Ye Xing continued closer!

Suddenly the Iron Leopard lying on the ground moved its upper body, eyes scanning the area in all directions with its ears perked up listening.

At this time, between Ye Xing and the Iron Leopard the distance was 560 meters.

Clearly the senses of the leopard are keener than low-tiered beasts. When Ye Xing was hunting weaker beasts he got at least to 100 meters before being noticed.

The iron bow's range is not limited to 560 meters, but the problem is accurately hitting a target from that distance.

This not only requires a strong arm, but it is also needed to maintain the bow and have precise vision of the target.

Even a warrior specializing in archery will find this hard to do.

This distance is the limit of Ye Xing in shooting accurately, there is a big chance a mishap might occur. He was deciding if he should try now, or wait for the Iron Leopard to lose awareness and go nearer for a better shot.

However things did not go according to his plans.

The Iron Leopard after scanning stepped up and stretched, then began patrolling its area.

Ye Xing was gloomy for his bad luck, the leopard actually discovered something, now slowly going to his direction. Ye Xing did not hesitate, he immediately pulled the bow into an arc and targeted the eyes of the leopard.

Whoosh—

The sound was loud, in a flash it went towards the eyes of the leopard.

The Iron Leopard was very fast, he had to shoot from afar otherwise in a few breathes it will be on his throat.

The Iron Leopard's head is like steel, only the eyes and the ears are its weak points. Ye Xing in a moment right away went for the eyes.

However, the leopard was in high alert, it was not an easy shot, it immediately reacted and dodge its head to the side.

Ding—

The Qingjin arrow hit the head making a loud sound, Ye Xing brought a piece of flesh throwing it.

Although the leopard was hit in the head, the bone was not hurt and it was only a small injury.

The Iron Leopard attacked letting out a growl going towards Ye Xing's direction in the speed of the wind.

Ye Xing was already up, he didn't try to run, although he is not slow in any regard, it is still incomparable to the iron Leopard. If he tried to run not only will he lose breathe, the leopard will also overtake him, he will die regardless of his superior mind.

In such a tense moment, Ye Xing's mind became more clear, without a hint of panic.

Aside from his surpassing mind, a great factor in him being calm is his experience in the fantasy world.

Calm without panic, he challenged the boss.

In a flash Ye Xing took out a Qingjin arrow and placed it on the bow.

Ye Xing's two eyes watched the incoming Iron Leopard, with his surpassing mind he analyzed the situation.

The surpassing mind scanning the Iron Leopard magnified several times, seeing the blood flow, muscle activity, power transmission, motion path... any type of movement the brain analyzed.

Whoosh—

After just two breathes Ye Xing shot again, the second Qingjin arrow shout out, emitting a sharp sound.

In an instant!

The Qingjin arrow accurately show towards the Iron Leopards knee joints.

The moment the Iron Leopard is about to leap off the ground, the muscle relaxes, but also the two bones separate revealing the joint.

Without the surpassing mind, noticing this instant is impossible.

The Qingjin went right in between the bones, piercing the cartilage.

The Iron Leopard tried to leap forward in an instant, the speed was too fast making it crash to the ground rolling a few times.

Ye Xiong used this opportunity, he turned and ran while loading a new arrow.

After running about 20 meters, Ye Xing turned while the Iron Leopard stopped rolling. It roared due to the pain while Ye Xing shot another arrow.

Even though the arrow hit the joints, the leopard was still fast, a moment ago he was 20 meters away, now it was in front of him.

But during the time the leopard shortened the distance, Ye Xing already shot the third arrow.

Whoosh—

Another sharp sound came towards the Iron Leopard, this time the Qingjin arrow went to another joint.

Ye Xing although not nervous still paid close attention to his arrows, using all his strength, it was frightening.

The Iron Leopard fell on the ground again.

After what happened the first time, the leopard rolled less and went towards Ye Xing.

Both joints in the front legs of the leopard was hit by the arrow making it hard to maintain balance.

This time Ye Xing did not run again, he just stood there with great speed loaded another arrow.

At this time with the Iron Leopard having disabled the two front legs, used its two remaining unharmed legs to jump to Ye Xing.

If he had ran like a while ago and turned his back, Ye Xing would have already died.

Unfortunately, with Ye Xing's surpassing mind, he already saw the desire of the leopard.

Therefore, he pulled the bow, after the Iron Leopard opened its mouth he shot the arrow towards inside.

With a whine the Iron Leopard fell in front of Ye Xing.

Chapter 12: Archery

When the Iron Leopard fell, Ye Xing immediately jump to the side.

Sure enough, the Iron Leopard really had strong vitality, even though it suffered a fatal injury, it still tried to bring Ye Xing with it. If he did not react in a flash, he might have been buried under the Iron Leopard.

After the final blow was dealt, the Iron Leopard's body twitched, finally reaching the end of its life.

Ye Xing was greatly relieved.

Although with his confrontation with the Iron Leopard did not even damage his clothes, however Ye Xing still collapsed due to tiredness, as if he participated in a war game.

Ye Xing breathe a sigh of relief, adjusting his breathing he looked at the Iron Leopard with an excited smile on his face.

The strength of the Iron Leopard was at least as strong as the 4th layer Wu Dao of a genuine warrior. For someone who has only reached the 2nd layer of Wu Dao, this was a terrifying existence.

However, even such a presence died under his bow and arrow, this was truly something to be proud of.

Determining that the Iron Leopard was dead, Ye Xing went towards the Red Blood Mushroom.

As Ye Xing was going towards the Red Blood Mushroom, suddenly in the mountain five people appeared.

Ye Xing has to focus completely fighting the Iron Leopard so he did not right away notice the five people.

Ye Xing's relaxed attitude in an instant collapsed, his heart was irritated.

The Red Blood Mushroom was still not in his hand, then these five people just suddenly appeared, this was not a good thing.

Before fighting the Iron Leopard, Ye Xing looked around and found no one else.

Although his eyesight is formidable, it still can't see everything. After looking around the area, he was unable to see behind the mountain, causing him not to see these five people.

After he shot Iron Leopard, its roar attracted these people.

Ye Xing scanned the five people with his surpassing mind, immediately he was surprised.

Two people carried bows, obviously cultivated to the 3d layer of Wu Dao.

The three others were all in the 4th layer of Wu Dao as genuine warriors, the one in the middle was even in the later stages of the 4th layer.

After seeing them, they were all not too old, from 15 to 16 years old in appearance. Their ages were not different from his own, they seem like they came from influential martial clans.

Especially the one in the 4th layer of Wu Dao who was very young, his age was only around 15 years old.

In the Ye clan's younger generation only one person has reached the 4th layer of Wu Dao who was Ye Qing. It can be seen that this guy has talent and came from an influential martial family.

Ye Xing stopped his footsteps, not going anywhere the Red Blood Mushroom. From their location, they do not necessarily have seen the mushroom just yet, might as well not bring their attention to it.

"Friends, I came to kill the Iron Leopard, sorry for the bother!"

Ye Xing clasped his hands, smiling at the people on the mountain while greeting.

He pointed out that he killed the Iron Leopard, trying to convince them of his strength to make them leave.

So long as these five people leave, he at once will get the Red Blood

Mushroom.

The body of the iron Leopard was not far away, there was no one else aside from their, causing the five to change face complexion.

Hunting an Iron Leopard was unusual, even with all five of them together, they wouldn't dare.

The young man in the middle of the group with the 4th layer of Wu Dao signaled secretly to go for the kill.

He smiled to Ye Xing and said: "My good archer friend, killing an Iron Leopard is no easy task, may I know where are you from?"

While speaking, he went down the hill behind him the other four people followed.

Ye Xing clearly saw the hand gesture as he scanned them.

After killing the other hunter in the Qingyun mountain range he didn't think much, but unexpectedly all this young men were already vicious, Ye Xing was frightened.

Xing Chen Da Lu and earth were truly different.

Now that he knows their intentions, Ye Xing still did not have the medicine, as the five are going as long as they are not blind, they would see the Red Blood Mushroom.

He was planning to take the Red Blood Mushroom and run away without a trace.

Ye Xing was cold but still had a smile on his face, and walked towards the Red Blood Mushroom: "My humble self genuinely is Luo Zhen from Ping Yang County, how about you my friends, where did you guys come from?"

Ye Xing definitely won't reveal his real name, while on earth he read about an immortal named Luo Zhen that was from Ping Yang, so he just said it.

"A person from Ping Yang...?"

Zi Shan County is a big place, inside there were many towns, there was no such county which confused the young man in the 4th layer of Wu Dao.

But then he smiled, why care about the origin of a dead man?

They already knew about the Red Blood Mushroom and planned to kill the Iron Leopard.

However after a lot of care, they still did not try to move on the Iron Leopard because it was too fast. If they tried and failed, it would be difficult to escape.

At least now the Iron Leopard is dead, Ye Xing seemed like an easier target compared to the beast.

Even though Ye Xing had superb archery, they still were five people, two 3rd layer hunting warriors, and three genuine warriors.

In their perspective, even with the distance, at most Ye Xing only had one choice, death.

“You need to remember, my name is Xiong Qicai from Tian Cang City... Eh?”

The young man in the 4th layer of Wu Dao was laughing, as he went nearer the Red Blood mushroom his complexion changed, he saw Ye Xing’s plan, he raised his hand.

Whoosh—

Whoosh—

The two hunters from both sides shot arrows trying to kill Ye Xing.

Damn—

Ye Xing observed both arrows going his direction with his surpassing mind, he calculated at most he can just sidestep it.

If he continued to get the Red Blood Mushroom, even if he tried dodging at least one arrow will hit him.

The other five people wanted to kill him, if he is hit he will undoubtedly will die, it was hard to escape!

He did not need to think it over, Ye Xing already made a decision, he rolled to the side to dodge both of the incoming arrows trying to kill him.

The next moment Ye Xing got up while in the same time, loading two arrows on the bow.

Whoosh—

Whoosh—

One bow two arrows, both aiming to the throats of the hunters.

After Ye Xing shot, he didn't stop for a moment, he moved at the limits of his body and ran.

Even if the shots were rushed, Ye Xing's two arrows were still accurate, this was because the distance was only about 50 to 60 meters, Ye Xing can't simply miss.

The two hunters instinctively dodged, the two warriors beside Xiong Qicai however used their blades to slash the arrows.

In a split second Xiong Qicai suddenly jumped, as if he was a goose flying to the sky, landing softly and leaped. It was obvious he was using a light motion martial art.

Ye Xing was capable of killing the Iron Leopard, naturally Xiong Qicai was afraid of his exceptional archery.

If he was to fight over Ye Xing for the Red Blood Mushroom there will be hard feelings between the two. Even if there was a 5th layer practitioner, with his exceptional archery, it is hard to feel at ease while being in Qingyun mountain range.

Now that he saw Ye Xing has already decided about the matter, Xiong Qicai wanted to kill him in order to prevent any other misfortune.

Ye Xing desired to escape, Xiong Qicai naturally can't let him just get away or else it will be troublesome.

In the middle of the Qingyun mountain range was a valley with barely any trees, which is unusual in this place which is filled with jungles.

This kind of place is the worst for a good archer.

Xiong Qicai put in full use his light motion technique almost as fast as the Iron leopard going to Ye Xing.

Ye Xing looked back, Xiong Qicai was momentarily analyzed, without slowing down he flipped and shot an arrow straight to Xiong Qicai's core.

Xiong Qicai looked startled, Ye Xing will running away is still capable of fighting back?

Ye Xing shot worse than he thought!

The most important thing is the speed of the arrow, it should arrive at the right time in order for Xiong Qicai to have no time to dodge.

Dang—

Xiong Qicai used his blade to block the arrow aiming for his chest, which created a sound.

He was going fast awhile ago leaping but due to the strength of the arrow he had to stop as Ye Xing got farther away.

Whoosh—

Whoosh—

Ye Xing just needed to shoot one more to put Xiong Qicai in trouble causing him injury, however he also needed to dodge the two incoming arrows. Ye Xing had no choice but abort his plan of shooting the next arrow.

At this time Ye Xing has already run away a hundred meters from the two hunters, causing both to crease their eyebrows. This is now out of their range, they have no choice but try to get closer.

Meanwhile, the other two people in the 4th layer used their light motion technique, trying to chase Ye Xing.

If only there were two people he has confidence even if they are in the 4th layer of Wu Dao that he can kill them just like what he did to the Iron Leopard.

However, his opponents consisted of five people, he is forced to fight in a dangerous situation.

He is a hunter, as long as he reaches the Qingyun mountain ranges he will be in his home ground.

Ye Xing would shoot one to two arrows from time to time, preventing the three warriors to use their movement technique again in catching up to him. Soon he will finally reach the outskirts of the ravine.

After climbing the hillside, there was a high cliff with a river with a length of 10 feet at the bottom. Ye Xing immediately jumped without hesitation.

"I will be back...!" Xiong Qicai arrived at the cliff when Ye Xing already disappeared, all there was is Ye Xing's warning echoing.

Chapter 13: Hunt

An overhanging cliff.

Beneath the cliff is a river with only about 10 feet in length, the water was matchless filled with countless deadly rocks.

As seen from the cliff, there was no place to jump into the river, he probably already died due to the rocks.

The three people in the 4th layer of Wu Dao all caught up trying to chase, when they looked down they gasped, it was too frightening to jump off.

“Young master, the guy that jumped down probably died be it either due to the deadly dense rocks or drowned, his body has already been washed away!”

The oldest out of all the 4th layer warriors took a glimpse at the river below the cliff, he didn't see the silhouette of Ye Xing therefore he concluded he was dead.

“Unless one if a great master, anyone below that rank without a doubt will die!”

The other 4th layer Wu Dao warrior after observing the area, also came up with this conclusion.”

“Dead, but where is the corpse?”

“It must have been washed away...!”

The two 3rd layer hunters finally came, after looking down the cliff they said those words.

The vertical height of the cliff from bottom to top is about 60 to 70 meters, if someone jumped from this height, be it a 6th layer Wu Dao warrior, that person will also die without a body to be recognized. Although there is a river at the bottom of the cliff, the river is extremely narrow filled with deadly rocks, there is no place to safely fall.

Only, to others there is no safe place to fall, but Ye Xing is an exception to this.

Ye Xing has his surpassing mind to scan, where the torrents are, what the depth is, and where the deadly rocks are, all of this he can simply see clearly.

In the eyes of Ye Xing, the areas his body can safely fall intact is not small at all. An example of which was an area near the middle where it was a safe area to fall in.

With the surpassing mind calculating, Ye Xing immediately jumped to the nearest safest spot falling to the river unscathed.

After which, Ye Xing went to one of the bigger rocks that prevented the people on the cliff from seeing him.

At the same time, his vision scanned through the rock, there were five people on the cliff. All of this was scanned by his surpassing mind, all their movement, the way their blood and qi moved, Ye Xing could see everything.

“It seems that kid is really dead, this Red Blood Mushroom will be mine!”

Xiong Qicai was silent for a long time, he looked down and concluded, he gave a slight smile.

After speaking, Xiong Qicai turned and walked away, as did the other four.

Whoosh—

At that moment, a Qingjin arrow was shot creating a sharp sound.

The five people were the most relaxed at this moment, when they heard the sharp sound it was too late.

The oldest 4th layer Wu Dao warrior let out a scream, the Qingjin arrow went through his back and pierced his heart.

The strength of the arrow was extremely strong, after piercing through the oldest warrior's heart, it continued to the throat of the person in front, Xiong Qicai.

Not only was the arrow's timing perfect, the angle of how it was shot was unparalleled. The arrow was aimed at the vital points of two people.

While it already pierced the first warrior, Xiong Qicai reacted very quickly swinging his body but the arrow still hit his shoulder.

Two screams sounded out in no particular order.

The oldest 4th layer Wu Dao warrior fell to the ground, after all an arrow shot through his heart directly.

Xiong after being hit fell forward to the ground.

The three other people were astonished, the arrow came from the direction of the cliff.

Beneath the cliff, Ye Xing unhurriedly placed both of his bow and arrow to the ground laying low.

"Young master Qi...!"

The vision of the other people were obstructed by numerous mountains, him being below as long as he doesn't foolishly appear, they won't be able to attack him.

"Damn that scoundrel...!"

Xiong Qicai's face distorted, his eyes emitting a terrifying glow, standing up to the man's direction: "How is Xiong Yiming?"

He didn't need for the reply of the three others, Xiong Qicai looked at the pool of blood around Xiong Yiming, obviously dead.

"Damn that bitch, this father will dismember your body!"

Xiong Qicai pounded his hand to the ground like a hammer, saying those words with resentment.

"Smelly boy, do you not know the Xiong clan of Tian Cang City? You dare shoot at the younger generation of the Xiong clan, even injuring the young master. You will all die, we will search the entirety of Tian Cang City, the Xiong clan will find you and your clan, all will die without a burial site.!"

One of the 3rd layer hunter shouted towards the bottom of the cliff.

Ye Xing naturally knew the Xiong clan of Tian Cang City, the Ye Clan was one of the biggest powers in Tian Cang City, however they still cannot compare to the Xiong clan.

The Xiong clan in Tian Cang City was like the Ye clan in Ye Zhen, they were undoubtedly the number power. Like the Ye clan, they also had many clans, which were far more numerous than Ye Clans.

Ye Xing was in Xing Chen Da Lu, he lived in the lower Ye Zhen, he obviously should feel fear the Xiong clan of Tian Cang City.

However, in earth he had a lot of experience, he did not fear big powers, he shouted from the bottom of the:

“The Xiong clan of Tian Cang City, I heard were a really strong power that should be feared...! However, I am afraid you guys are not in Tian Cang City but in the mountains, is the Xiong clan aware of this? Even if the Xiong clan was to search the mountains, by the time they arrive you guys are probably have been eaten by fierce beasts.”

What you do to me, I will do to you in return! This is I, Yr Xing's principle.

This people wanted to kill him, forcing him to have to jump off a cliff to escape. If it was like that, then Ye Xing will return with one word in mind—kill!

In Qingyun mountain range, if the distance grows, it is advantageous to him. He wanted to attack, he wanted to retreat, everything is under his control.

At this time, the 4th layer Wu Dao warrior already removed the arrow from the young master's body. He bound the wound and applied some medicine, which caused the flood from flowing out, with the medicine containing the poison from the arrow.

The 4th layer warrior checked the poison in the young master's body, it seems like Xiong Qicai was not in a grave situation.

However, when Ye Xing spoke out Xiong Qicai and the other three had unsightly faces.

Escaping from Ye Xing should be easy due to him not reaching martial disciple, at most he cultivated to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao. What's more is that they had two peak 3rd layer people, as well as three genuine 4th layer Wu Dao warriors, they were very strong.

But what happened was is Ye Xing became the hunter, and the five of them became the prey instead, one dead and one injured.

The Xiong clan was the number one martial family in Tian Cang City, this little brother of the Xiong clan went out being arrogant, now has a bit of fear to those of superior strength.

The result was they became the prey, being bluntly told they were going to be killed, how can they not be angry!

The identity of being the younger generation of the Xiong clan never failed in protecting them for multiple years, this is the first time it happened.

Particularly, Xiong Qicai's father was a 7th layer Wu Dao great master, in the clan he had equal footing with the clan master. His identity since birth is something that most sought out after, today however he suffered a setback causing a difficult disaster.

Now that person's potential is overwhelming, his archery was scary. How did he even survive that fall from the high cliff? Even with two 3rd layer hunters and three 4th layer genuine warriors, they are still having a hard time.

Xiong Qicai badly wanted to kill the other counterpart, however he has no choice but retreat. and clench his jaws:

"Bury Xiong Yiming, pick up the Red Blood Mushroom, we will immediately leave and return to Tian Cang, do not leave any trace or else he will follow us.

They quickly buried Xiong Yiming, then Xiong Yicai got the Red Blood Mushroom and they immediately left. The two hunters were at the back in charge of clearing their tracks and creating false ones.

A few hours later, Ye Xing returned to the valley.

Even if it was an expert hunter, they would have a hard time finding the four due to the two hunters covering and faking tracks.

However, Ye Xing's eyes are ten times stronger than a veteran hunter, and small scratches he scanned and found the real trace following them.

In Qingyun mountain range it was hard to find traces, especially with a good hunter faking tracks making it unbearably hard.

Therefore Xiong Qicai and the others after leaving the valley they ran as fast as they can. After leaving the area of the valley, they were in a more familiar place and avoided a number of powerful beasts, while weaker beast avoided them.

Ye Xing has been walking in Qingyun mountain range for ten days now, he was now nearer to Tian Cang City than he is to Ye Zhen.

The four people escaped all day the past few days, finally reaching the outskirts of Qingyun mountain range.

When they left the mountain range, it was night with only the moon in the sky illuminating the world.

If one wanted to leave, there was a big range that must be scaled in order to go to Tang Cang City, which requires great strength and time.

After leaving the mountain range, the four of them stopped.

“Young master Qi, the mark we left in the valley probably not found by him, furthermore our speed was very fast. We already finally left that place, even if he was a good hunter, he still is not here.”

The 3rd layer hunter said.

Xiong Qicai looked at the Qingyun mountain range, it was dark that night,he nodded: "Alright, we will rest here this night, tomorrow we will set out again...!"

Whoosh—

A lasing arrow suddenly came from the darkness piercing Xiong Qicai's throat.

Chapter 14: Hunt

This arrow was black, there was no light source anywhere, only the arrow breaking free created a sharp sound.

What's more, when Ye Xing shot the arrow, Xiong Qicai was talking completely unaware. When he finally noticed the sharp sound, it was too late.

He was barely 15 years old, Xiong Qicai already cultivated up to the late stage 4th layer of Wudao. With such a cultivation at that age, even in Tian Cang City he was arrogant.

Xiong Qicai's identity was also to be feared, his father was a great master in the 7th layer Wu Dao. He had a high standing within the Xiong clan, even equal in footing with the clan master.

However, Ye Xing's arrow does not distinguish from high to low, no matter the identity, whether a martial disciple or a warrior, only death awaits you.

Xiong Qicai was unable to say any more, he died with his eyes only showing a glint of regret while he fell to the ground.

"Young master Qi...!"

Although Xiong Qicai was at the center while three were around him, even with instinct they were unable to react only seeing the arrow on the throat.

Whoosh—

Whoosh—

The two hunters in the 3rd layer Wu Dao heard the incoming arrow, they sidestepped and shot to the direction where the arrows are came from.

After Ye Xing shot the arrow, he already shifted positions making the two's shot all in vain.

Suddenly, a sharp sound came, a black arrow broke free and went straight to one of the hunter's throats.

At this moment, during the exchange the two hunters were already very wary. After they shot the arrows they immediately rolled to the side.

The arrow that was suppose to pierce one of the hunter's throat ended up grazing the scalp instead.

In a split second a shrill scream emitted, a ring was heard.

The hunter that rolled to the ground didn't get up again. Ye Xing after he shot an arrow shot another in an instant.

He knew that his opponent will try to dodge, so when the hunter rolled on the ground, another arrow was already shot through a heart, another man dead.

The other hunter that was only hit on his scalp after rolling ran as fast as he can for another 10 meters. In the meantime, an arrow was shot towards the 4th layer Wudao warrior's throat.

Ye Xing already calculated everything with his surpassing mind, the arrow that did not hit the hunter was a decoy. In reality, Ye Xing was really aiming for the 4th layer Wu Dao warrior all this time.

He has only shot two arrows and two people are dead again.

Is it a pity, the warrior who is superior to someone who is a martial disciple, if he was wary he can easily deal with Ye Xing's deadly shot.

A one in a thousand occurrence, the 4th layer Wu Dao warrior actually hit the arrow with his swing of the blade.

Although the 4th layer Wu Dao warrior was able to deal with Ye Xing's arrow, he was still shocked drenched with sweat.

In the dark night, he couldn't see the far distance. He had no idea what the arrow came from, what angle it was, who will dare stay? He exerted all his effort and rapidly escaped.

He fled, leaving the 3rd layer Wu Dao hunter to his own burial, him alone facing Ye Xing, who was Ye Xing's opponent?

He did not have the courage to fight with Ye Xing, so he turned and fled.

Whoosh—

In a blink of an eye an arrow was shot entering the hunter's heart. Him deciding to flee was him only just accelerating to this death.

Soon after, Ye Xing came out of the darkness and came towards Xiong Qicai's body. It is a pity but he can only look as the 4th layer Wu Dao warrior just fled into the darkness.

In his ten days in Qingyun mountain range, he has spent a lot of his arrows. While he fought with the five people in the valley he also wasted more arrows. After he jumped off the cliff, he only had five arrows left.

He used one to kill one person, now he used everything up with nothing more in his quiver.

If only he had an extra of two more arrows, the 4th layer Wu Dao warrior would have died and not escape.

He already is now out of the Qingyun mountain range, the warrior has already ran quite the distance. It was hard for Ye Xing to catch up so he just gave up on hunting the man.

Searching the body of Xiong Qicai, Ye Xing soon found the Red Blood

Mushroom and a small amount of precious medicine ingredients.

Also, he found quite a few banknotes and over ten thousand of taels, they were obviously well off bringing so much to a place like Qingyun mountain range.

In addition Xiong Qicai had a long blade which was extremely precious, a middle-grade treasure. In Ye Zhen, it is scarce and not below the value of the Red Blood Mushroom, worth a lot of money.

With the Red Blood Mushroom, Ye Xing can cultivate to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao and make a breakthrough. He now planned to go back home to Ye Zhen and his clan. He did not leave anything valuable from Xiong Qicai's long blade to all his money, he then re-entered the mountain range.

At night, strong beasts tend to act more rather than in the morning which makes Qingyun mountain range dangerous.

Under normal circumstances, Ye Xing dug a small cave on the mountain at night, hiding to rest.

However, Ye Xing does not intend to do his usual routine tonight. After all, he let the warrior escape, around this time he would have reached the Xiong clan in Tian Cang City. The Xiong clan might send out the older generation and kill him.

He cannot stay in this area, he must keep away from this area, entering the vast and deep mountains.

In Qingyun mountain range, Ye Xing was a dragon in a sea, even great masters of the 7th layer will find it difficult to kill him.

Although Qingyun mountain range is dangerous at night, Ye Xing after all is near the outskirts. Besides, he has his superior eyesights canning any changes, therefore he was capable of discovering strong fierce beasts, he can walk with no mishaps.

At daybreak, Ye Xing has returned to the valley where the Red Blood Mushroom was. He went to the cliff again and jumped to the river below.

After, Ye Xing just went along the river far away from this place.

This way, although the Xiong clan might use hounds to track him, they will have a hard time finding Ye Xing.

When night arrived, Ye Xing was now far off and he found a mountain with no fierce beast in it. There was a natural cave that he sealed and rested inside it.

He didn't sleep at all last night until the whole day today. Ye Xing is now tired so he slept and woke up when it was dawn.

Ye Xing went out the cave and climbed the peak of the mountain. He used his superior vision to scan the 10 li radius, not finding any Xiong clan member that has come.

如此又行了一天，夜晚，叶星找到一个他之前过夜的小洞穴，将洞口以巨石封挡，在此过夜。

Again, in the night Ye Xing found his old cave from the night before. He sealed the cave with the boulder and spent the night in the cave.

洞穴中，叶星拿出了赤血灵芝。

Within the cave, Ye Xing took out the Red Blood Mushroom.

得到赤血灵芝后，要么在赶路，要么过于疲惫，一直没有机会服用，现在总算有机会了。

After getting the Red Blood Mushroom before, he was either in a hurry or too tired so he never had the chance. Now however, he had the chance to take it out.

叶星先是修炼了一会长青功，星辰之力在五条经脉中都走上了一圈，一心修炼，没有杂念。

Ye Xing started to use his method using his five channels, cultivating with no distractions whatsoever.

At this time, Ye Xing ate the Red Blood Mushroom, using his Evergreen method, he slowly refined it.

The medicine in Xing Chen Da Lu has a higher effect than compared to earth's. Here they can also absorb the power of the stars for growth, capable of strengthening one's body. For the cultivation of a warrior, it even has a bigger effect.

Soon the medicinal energy within the Red Blood Mushroom was pulled out by Ye Xing's Evergreen method. It went through his body nourishing his flesh, blood, bones and muscles.

Meanwhile, the Red Blood Mushroom also contained the stars power within it, which Ye Xing also absorbed to his dantian. The second ring in his dantian started to be increasingly bright.

As time went on, The Red Blood Mushroom's medicinal energy rushed to Ye Xing's blood and flesh which is felt by his whole body.

Operating the Evergreen method was pushed to the limit by Ye Xing absorbing everything to his blood and flesh. To the point that even his body couldn't accept anymore of it.

"Slow, these five channels in absorbing is too slow!"

At this time, Ye Xing now understood on experience of the importance of a good method.

His surpassing brain already improved the Evergreen method, making it a lower-grade method from its original ordinary grade. However, to Ye Xing it was still not enough.

Time passed, Ye Xing only paid attention in absorbing the Red Blood Mushroom to his body, he already neglected the time passed.

He did not know how long it has been, the medicinal energy of the Red Blood Mushroom started to decrease. He felt that only the star within his body is making improvements, he doesn't know anymore if his physical body is also absorbing the medicinal energy. His body from head to toe was brimming with strength.

He scanned his own body, in his dantian his second ring is brilliant to its limit, seemingly no different with the first ring.

In addition to the second ring, a third ring appeared, although it was quite dim.

The 9 layers of Wu Dao has marks, in the dantian one ring indicated the 1st layer while the 2nd ring indicated the 2nd layer.

Now in Ye Xing's dantian is a third ring, indicating that him absorbing the Red Blood Mushroom medicinal energy unknowingly made him break to the 3rd layer.

Ye Xing's heart was filled with joy, he broke through the 2nd layer of Wu Dao in just half a month. Him clearly entering the Qingyun mountain range was clearly the right choice.

This place let him grow, without making any changes to his outer appearance.

Soon, the sense of expansion of the star in his body ceased. He clenched his fists, exerting force on his body, a burst sound came out. Even though the sound heard was not much, but the surpassing mind was able to completely record it.

There was 206 echos and 185 sharp echos.

Prior to that, he only reached 170 sharp echos, after taking the Red Blood Mushroom, the cultivation of Ye Xing's Bone Crushing Fist has greatly improved.

Ye Xing's body although it did not expand, with the Red Blood Mushroom, the Bone Crushing Fist reached the perfect realm.

206 echos of the Bone Crushing Fist means cultivating it to the perfect realm, how much stronger is it?

Ye Xing was looking forward to it!

Chapter 15: A Slap on the face (1)

Ye Xing looked through a crack, there was light already going through.

Dawn has arrived, he spent the whole night time absorbing the Red Blood Mushroom.

It was a sleepless night, however Ye Xing did not feel any exhaustion, rather he was energetic.

He felt that his body was filled with energy, not a muscle was feeling stressed or uncomfortable.

“The 3rd layer of Wu Dao, the Bone Crushing Fist reaching the perfect realm, I do not know my strength, what level is it now?”

Ye Xing asked himself, he had no point of reference so he couldn't determine it.

He was sure that he was in the boundary of martial apprentice, someone on the same level as him can't compare, he's just not sure if he can handle a 4th layer Wu Dao warrior.

“If I use my surpassing mind to scan, looking at other people's flaws, there certainly is no need to fear someone in the 4th layer Wu Dao. Hence, the only way i can know is by trying!”

Ye Xing clenched his fist, he was very confident.

He opened the entrance to the cave, walking out it was dawn. The air on Qingyun mountain range was very fresh, he took a breath of relief, feeling very good due to the refreshing feeling.

His body was brimming with power, Ye Xing was eager in putting it to use, he then began to use the Bone Crushing Fist.

Every move, every form, sharp echos came out, Ye Xing completing the Bone Crushing Fist resulted in 206 echos.

There was 20 dull echos and 186 sharp echos.

He just barely used the Bone Crushing Fist, compared to before, it really has improved a lot. The medicinal energy was clearly helping, making his progress even go faster.

At this point it was really getting bright, Ye Xing continued his journey to return to Ye Zhen.

In his returning trip, Ye Xing did not find any more herbs, but his speed was way faster, getting out of Qingyun mountain in just three days.

At noon, Ye Xing returned to Ye Zhen.

“This Yun Blood Grass’s value is about 2,500 silver taels, this Huang Xue Grass’s value is about 3,700 silver taels, this Fleeceflower Root value is about 3,400 silver taels, Ah... Furthermore there is even more medicinal herbs here. Young master Ye Xing, this is all worth about 20,000 silver taels, where did you get all of this?"

Ye Zhen's drug store shopkeeper was astounded at all the medicinal herbs Ye Xing brought.

In the town of Ye Zhen, there are many hunters that enter the Qingyun mountain range looking for medicinal herbs, but the drug store never had a hunter bring so much in one time.

Even hunters at the warrior stage go to the mountains but do not have this many gains.

Ye Xing smiled: "Shopkeeper, do you accept? Do not tell anyone about this, or else I will mess up your store."

"Accept accept accept, naturally I will comply! I swear, I will not talk about young master Ye Xing!"

The whole batch of medicine sold for at least 20,000 silver taels, reselling these will earn a lot of money, in business there will be no objections.

The Shopkeeper check the inventory saying: "A total of 18,770 silver, young master rounding it up, would you like it to be 19,000 silver?"

"Deal!"

Ye Xing nodded, in an instant his body has 19,000 silver taels.

Not long after, in the Ye Zhen weapons shop there was astonishment:

These four bows are all 6 shi strong bows, each worth 5,000 silver taes. The long blade... EH? This blade is a middle-grade weapon, worth 32,000 silver taels!"

"Deal!"

Ye Xing did not pay much attention to the price, it was already good: "Shopkeeper, you must remember, all this must be kept in secrecy or else you will face the consequences.

"Young master Ye Xing, rest assure, I will never utter a sentence!"

The weapons shopkeeper promised: "This is 50,000 silver taels, take it."

As Ye Xing was getting the money, he looked over at the wall, in the middle he saw a strong bow: "I want this bow!"

Ye Xing was at the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, the Bone Crushing Fist has reached the top, compared to 2nd layer Wu Dao,he was much stronger.

The 6 shi bow was the strongest lightweight bow, but Ye Xing wanted something stronger.

“Good eye young master Ye Xing, this is our town store’s treasure. This is the sole bow that surpasses the 9 shi strength, named ‘Yiding Gong’!”

The weapon shopkeeper went beside the bow, he smiled to Ye Xing and said with a different tone: “Only, young master Ye Xing, to handle this bow you need strength!”

1 shi is 120 jin.

The Yiding Gong is equivalent to a power of 10 shi. A strength of 1200 jin, such a strong bow, a 3rd layer Wu Dao martial disciple, it will be difficult to pull, much less shoot.

“ I want it, also give me a cylinder of good arrows.”

Ye Xing nodded his head, a 9 shi strongbow was still a bit too light and easy for him, this Yiding Gong is just right.

Ye Xing wanted to buy, the shopkeeper naturally did not haggle, he took the bow and got 50 long arrows:

“This is the Poyin arrow, one arrow is 20 silver taels, the Yiding Gong costa 20,000 silver taels, young master Ye Xing and I did a large business transaction. This Poyin arrow will be free of charge and is a gift!”

“Good!”

Ye Xing was not polite at all, he counted 20,000 silver and gave it. Taking the fifty arrows, he placed it in the quiver, carrying the Yiding Gong, he left the weapon store.

Ye Xing selling the medicinal herbs and weapons were worth tens of thousands of silver. If it is sold in the family store, it will give rise to astonishment in the Ye clan, it cannot be avoided to be interrogated.

Therefore Ye Xing sold at the other stores, they can guard the secret, although he was not worried of the trouble, it was quite inconvenient.

After leaving the weapon shop, Ye Xing went towards the Ye clan.

Although he and his parents are not that close feeling-wise, this is the first time he did not ask them, he was gone for half a month and at the least must report back.

At the same time, he also wanted of share of him reaching the 3rd layer of Wu Dao to his parents.

As for the excuse, he already thought about it, in Qingyun mountain range he had a good encounter incidentally eating a precious medicinal herb. This caused his sudden growth in strength.

The original owner of the body was a filial son, although he was dead his instinct still caused the idea of approaching the parents. Ye Xing took his body so naturally he complied to his wishes.

Along the street, Ye Xing frowned slightly while his brows creased, he was being followed. Although Ye Hu was hiding, he could not escape Ye Xing scanning with his eyes.

Ever since their last encounter, Ye Hu wanted to teach him a lesson, so he followed him now.

Previously, he wanted to do it, however Ye Xing no longer went home, so Ye Hu failed numerous times.

Today, Ye Xing was strolling aimlessly in Ye Zhen, then he saw Ye Xing. Naturally he followed him secretly, Ye Xing sped up and so Ye Hu tried catching up.

In a remote dark alley in Ye Zhen, Ye Xing met up with Ye Hu, catching Ye Hu following him.

This alley was very remote, it was uninhabited, it was the Ye clan's shortcut road. Ye Xing knew Ye Hu will try to cut him off here but he still went for it.

He felt no need to change route.

Ye Hu with both of his hands on his chest, with an oppressive look to Ye Xing: "Ye Xing, you finally showed yourself ah, these days where did you go?"

Ye Xing with a harmless smile on his face: "I went to Qingyun mountain range going around."

"You entered Qingyun mountain range? I spit! I see you running wildly!"

Qingyun mountain was a dangerous place, Ye Hu didn't believe Ye Xing would dare, his face had an expression that needed to be slapped: "Ye Xing, do you know when you were gone for half a month, many great things happened?"

"What's the matter?"

Ye Xing's smile on his face disappeared, Ye Hu laughed happily, it is clear that something bad happened.

Ye hu laughed and said: "Hei Hei Hei...! Ye Xing, I congratulate you ah, your little brother Ye Chen died. This time you do not need to worry, your parents won't abandon you anymore, Hei Hei...!"

"What did you say?" Ye Xing's expression changed.

Although his soul was from earth, but his body shared the same blood with Ye Chen, Ye Chen was his little brother, they were related by blood!

After the birth of Ye Chen, Ye Xing did not blame him for getting his parents love from him. He just hoped that when Ye Chen grew up he would have a great future.

He was an orphan, even though he has his pride and perseverance, but in fact he desired family affection!

He did not feel affection for his parents, but his brother by blood he loved and cared for!

When Ye Chen was born, he had only seen him once, but on that occasion, Ye Xing's surpassing mind clearly remembers him.

Now, he suddenly heard that Ye Chen had died, which he couldn't believe.

In response to Ye Xing, Ye Hu was happy and said with a cheap smile:

"Ye Xing, you do not believe, it is true, Ye Chen that kid has already died for seven days Hei Hei Hei... The main family came to say that your dad's position is now over, you have ten days. The main family envoy came to Ye Zhen, my eldest brother at the 4th layer Wu Dao was a genuine warrior, he went to the main family to learn. When my eldest brother comes back, surely he would have reached the 5th layer of Wu Dao, Hei Hei... When that time comes, my eldest brother will be the next clan master. Ha ha ha, I heard Ye Chen had a different innate talent, everyone said he will be the future when he grows up, I didn't expect he would just die. Ha ha.

Since he came to Xing Chen Da Lu, Ye Xing has never been this angered, even when people tried to take his life, he did not have this fury.

He strode forward and swung to slap with his palm Ye Hu.

“You dare touch me? This will be a lesson to you!”

Seeing Ye Xing powerful approach, Ye hu showed excitement, raised his arm to block while trying to punch Ye Xing’s face.

Pa

Beyond Ye Hu's expectation, he couldn't actually block Ye Xing's palm. Immediately Ye Xing ruthlessly gave a slap on the face.

Chapter 16: A slap on the face (2)

Ye Xing was really mad, he scanned Ye Hu; tracking all his movements, naturally he knew what Ye Hu was intending to do.

Therefore, Ye Xing's palm midway suddenly changed its course, avoiding Ye Hu's simple attempt to block, completely smacking him on the face.

Crack, rattle!

After slapping Ye Hu right on the face, within Ye Xing's body power forced out, he immediately put Bone Crushing Fist to use.

Cultivated to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, perfect Bone Crushing Fist, just what deadly force was this?

Ye Hu tried hitting Ye Xing's body with a fist, however he didn't even get to touch him before being slapped, causing him to fly back.

In an instant, blood and teeth flew out, Ye Hu was dazed, on his face was an obvious mark of a palm.

"This slap is for my brother!" Ye Xing said loudly after the slap.

After which, he strode forward towards Ye Hu.

Ye Hu landed, stumbled and almost fell. He had a hard time balancing his body when Ye Xing already arrived in front of him.

Ye Hu was dazed, he was clearly confused, Ye Xing gave another slap.

Pa

Ye Hu was struck by the second slap! He screamed again and flew back, on the other cheek appeared another prominent palm mark.

“This slap is for the old me!” Ye Xing with anger again shouted!

Ye Xing finished before Ye Hu reached the ground.

After two continuous slaps, Ye Hu was stupefied, how can he stand still? His previously straight legs went soft, then fell on the ground.

Ye Xing went forward, kicking Ye Hu with his foot causing him to fly again. He rolled like a shrimp, once again letting out a scream.

Then with a loud bang, Ye Hu directly hit the alley wall, causing him to faint.

“This kick, is because you pissed me off!”

Ye Xing said with a cold tone, holding back his anger finally subsided a bit.

Ye Hu was a 3rd layer Wu Dao warrior, Ye Xing knew that Ye Hu won't die with just this. He didn't even cast another glance to Ye hu who was lying on the ground unmoving, he turned and left for home.

He was not entirely convinced on what Ye Hu had said about his little brother dying right away, however Ye Hu wouldn't just tell a lie like that.

He wants to go back to verify.

Ye Xing ran to the Ye clan, when he entered the Ye residence, he met a family member that gave him a weird look.

Beside, in the Ye residence, there was no hint of cheerfulness, not even a lamp was lighted up. This was all due to the second son of the Ye family, it was very abnormal.

This is even more evidence that what Ye Hu has said is probably true.

In Ye Xing's point of view, he still has little hope.

Very quickly, Ye Xing entered the family mansion, entering he saw the servant girl Xiao Qing.

"Young master!"

Suddenly seeing Ye Xing, Xiao Qing gasped and trotted over: "Young master, where were you the past half month? The clan master was very angry!"

"Xiao Qing, tell me, what has become of my brother?" Ye Xing caught Xiao in his arms asking.

Ye Fei Hong angry or not angry, Ye Xing did not care, however, Ye Chen's life he cared about.

Xiao Qing with sorrow on her face said, "Little young master, he... he's dead!"

Rumble...

Even if he's reasoning already told him that what Ye Hu has said was true, hearing Xiao Qing confirm Ye Xing's mind there was a bang, it was difficult to bear.

In his mind, he and his parents had no sense of being close, only the original owner felt some sort of attachment. His brother was different, Ye Chen was his real family.

But...

"Thieving God, on earth I was an orphan, at last in Xing Chen Dalu I have a little brother, you still want to leave me an orphan?"

Ye Xing unwillingly roared!

"Lead the way, send me to the room!"

Ye Xing handed the Yiding Gong and quiver of arrows to Xiao Qing, afterwards he started to walk over.

Ye Chen's death touched Ye Xing's heart!

Originally, he had pride, he had persistence, his love for family was hidden, Ye Chen's death aroused his emotions.

Perhaps the reason he is feeling these emotions are because of the previous owner.

He understood that Ye Fei Hong and Liu E's hopes were pinned upon Ye Chen, now with Ye Chen's death they are certainly hurt.

Now, as their only son, he must play the role of the first son and accompany them.

"Ye Tian Zhong, do not let me find any evidence, or else I will end you!"

"Ye Fei Hong, I have spoken to you many times, I am part of the Ye clan. Death in the clan is terrible, this is a very sad affair, I undoubtedly have no problem with the son of the clan master, let alone try to kill Ye Chen. There was no reason for me to put this matter on my hand."

"Good, Ye Tian Zhong, you finally spoke out your true feelings, you just precisely said that you wanted my son to be dead to take the position, but you are saying that it wasn't done by you?"

"Ye Fei Hong, you are being unreasonable, I just gave you a reason, but you do not understand it?"

“You killed my son! Ye Tian Zhong, you are of the older generation, you flatter me!”

“You deviated to become a devil, I do not need to talk to you anymore!”

.....

Ye Xing came to the halls when he heard the heated argument.

His father Ye Fei Hong and a clan elder Ye Tian Zhong were having a dispute.

Soon Ye Xing saw the elder Ye Tian Zhong, rage came out of him.

Ye Tian Zhong was extremely angry, he was releasing oppressive airs, after seeing Ye Xing, it got even worse.

“Food wasting useless person!”

Ye Tian Zhong furiously scolded Ye Xing, he passed Ye Xing and never looked back.

Ye Xing clenched his fist, he almost punched the old bastard’s face.

However, the other person was a clan elder, Ye Xing had to disperse his urge and endure.

Until Ye Tian Zhong disappeared did Ye Xing enter the hall, Ye Fei Hong opened his eyes, he gasped and on his eyes were fury when he saw Ye Xing.

“Father, I am back...!” Ye Xing walked in front of him.

“This bastard, thought he was dead but actually came back!” Ye Fei Hong scolded with anger as he saw Ye Xing coming.

Walking in front of Ye Xing, Ye Fei Hong shouted and slapped out: “Why didn’t a useless person like die instead!”

Little brother Ye Chen died, which already evoked Ye Xing’s emotions, with the original owner’s instinct, he tried approaching his parents. Going back to his parents he wanted to tell them about his progress, believing talking to them will improve their relationship...

However, with just a sentence from Ye Fei Hong, Ye Xing’s family affection turned into ice.

Ye Xing scanned the trajectory of Ye Fei Hong’s palm, if he tried he could avoid the slap.

But Ye Xing did not avoid it!

He stood there without moving a muscle, his heart now filled with indifference.

Pa

Ye Xing got slapped, his face turned to one side, a burning pain arrived.

Ye Fei Hong's slap was not weak at the slightest.

But, he did not know why, but although there was pain on his face, Ye Xing actually relaxed a lot.

The original owner's feeling disappeared, his relation to Ye Fei Hong as a father and son was completely gone after the slap.

Ye Xing suffered a slap, however it completely destroyed the old owner's feelings.

He originally wanted to tell Ye Fei Hong everything, however now he did not want to say anything anymore.

Ten days later the competition will be held, he wanted to to soar and force his way to the main family in Tian Cang.

Afterwards he will leave Qing Ye Zhen with no regrets, he will travel the boundless skies and become a peerless expert.

"Your useless son is already dead...!" Ye Xing wanted to say, but he still endured.

He indifferently mumbled: "My life is hard!"

But he said the truth, the "I" does not refer to the old Ye Xing, but himself.

He appeared on earth with many misfortunes, but he came to Xing Chen Dalu to live another life in a different body, is it this life just really nothing?'

Ye Xing's answer infuriated Ye Fei Hong, but at present in front of him was his son, it was hard for him to make another slap.

"Get back to the courtyard, you are not allowed to leave, i unexpectedly saw a useless person like you!"

Ye Fei Hong's tone was suppressed with fury, pointing towards the exit of the hall.

Ye Xing did not talk again and started to walk away.

Returning to his residence, Xiao Qing saw the slap mark on the face of Ye Xing which scared her: "Young master, you are the clan master's only son, how can he do this to you, I'll rub ointment on you...!"

Seeing her going to try get ointment Ye Xing caught her: "This injury is not of importance, you first need to tell me, how did my younger brother died?"

Based on what Xiao Qing narrated, Ye Xing obviously saw that someone killed Ye Chen.

Ye Chen's death gives a big benefit to the great elder because everyone knows that Ye Xing is crippled. Ye Fei Hong's second son died, naturally the position of clan head will be passed on.

Also the son of the great elder, Ye Qing, who was considered the Ye clan's outstanding genius of the younger generation, can hopefully one day take the position of the clan master.

It is no wonder that Ye Fei Hong and the elder had a dispute because Ye Fei Hong has his doubts with Ye Tian Zhong, there is a reason .

However what Ye Xing does not understand is, when Ye Chen was assassinated, how come Ye Fei Hong was not also included in the killing?

Chapter 17: Family Gathering (1)

Xiao Qing was applying ointment on the face of Ye Xing, at that same time a servant girl was doing the same to Ye Hu.

After Ye Xing left, Ye Hu immediately woke up, he always looked down on Ye Xing all his life, now he felt humiliated. He felt that he had no more face, he could not refrain from crying.

He did not dare tell anyone about this matter, with cloth wrapped around his head, he secretly slipped in and went home.

When he went home, he thought of telling this matter to his grandfather, that way he can hide under his protection.

However, after receiving a beating from Ye Xing, not only did Ye Tian Zhong try to hide him, he might even scold him to losing to trash, furthermore adding another slap to his face.

Therefore, he did not dare tell this to his grandfather.

Aside from him and the servant girl, the only other person to know about this matter is his older brother, Ye Qing. The first thing he did when he got home was not get treated, but instead told the maid to invite his older brother Ye Qing.

Ye Qing and Ye Xing were the same, both are 16 years of age currently, but three months before, Ye Qing already cultivated to the 4th layer of Wu Dao as a warrior; he was the number one person in the Ye clan younger generation.

“Little Hu, are you sure Ye Xing was the one who did those things to you? It was not another person secretly doing it?”

Ye Qing looking at Ye Hu was feeling distressed, but regarding what Ye Hu said, he had time believing it.

Ye Xing was crippled, this was common knowledge, and Ye Hu was at the 3rd layer of Wu Dao. If Ye Xing practiced to the extreme and also is at the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, how can it be that Ye Hu could not fight back at all?

“Elder brother, I am very sure, it was only me and Ye Xing at that time. I do not know why I was not able to block his slap, his slap suddenly changed direction, he slapped me twice on the face, then he ruthlessly kicked me. Elder brother, from childhood to now, never have I ever been humiliated like this, you must take revenge, beat him up for me, so much so that even his mother would not be able to recognize him!”

Ye Hu crying with tears, said those words while sobbing.

Ye Qing patted Ye Hu's shoulder: “Little Hu, be at ease, the humiliation you suffered, I will return to Ye Xing tenfolds. He is merely a cripple, he only had a lucky encounter, his body is only at the middle stage of martial disciple, not capable of inheriting the clan master position, I will be the one to get the position! Little Hu, when that time comes, I will personally sort him out!”

Ye Hu emitted hatred on his eyes: "No, elder brother, you will get the clan master position a long time from now, I want him to suffer right now."

Ye Qing looked unhappy: "Although he is trash, he still is the son of the clan master. If he does not come out the mansion, don't tell me I will go there myself?"

Ye Hu looked around and said: "Elder brother, Ye Xing is at the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, I guess he will participate the competition. I believe when that moment comes, you can beat him up fairly, destroy him in front of the envoy, trample his dignity, let him lose face, so he can taste humiliation."

Ye Qing nodded: "Alright, as long as he dares enter the family competition, I will ferociously destroy him!"

.....

Back at the courtyard, Ye Xing was doing his daily cultivation, he did not leave the place by even a step.

Within him the Red Blood Mushroom's medicinal energy was abundant, this day Ye Xing's progress has been remarkable.

This day, in the mansion backyard, except for Ye Xing there was nobody else.

Pi... Pi... Pa... Pa...

Ye Xing was in the middle of using the Bone Crushing Fist, every time he punches out, quite a few echoes are heard.

A set of Bone Crushing Fist, Ye Xing's whole body and bones issued out echos.

It can be heard that there are 206 echos, the whole thing being done, the Bone Crushing Fist was at the perfect realm.

Ye Xing heaved a sigh of relief, releasing the qi around blasting ten feet around him.

To exhale qi like an arrow, only a genuine warrior can do such a thing.

Ye Xing still has not cultivated his inner strength, his body can't also compare to that of a 4th layer Wu Dao warrior, but he had strong bones that is even stronger than a 4th layer Wu Dao warrior; allowing him to exhale qi like an arrow.

"Tomorrow the family competition will be held, my Bone Crushing Fist is at the perfect realm, I also cultivated to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao late stage. Someone at the boundary of martial disciple is not my match, can only a warrior determine my strength?"

Ye Xing clenched his fist confidently: "In the clan gathering, I, Ye Xing will soar! No one will be able to stop me, I will go to the main family in Tian Cang!"

He was thinking the main family in Tian Cang, there are high level martial techniques to learn, Ye Xing was excited, with his surpassing mind, he just can't disregard learning the best techniques; what he is scared of the most is being notable to learn the best techniques there are.

Right now, he learned both the Evergreen method and the Bone Crushing Fist, which are lower grade methods, he was eager to learn other techniques.

"The envoy of the main family is finally coming from the main family from Tian Cang, he surely must be an expert!" Ye Xing was guessing!

Ye Xing's expectation was right, the envoy arrived, if he saw the person he surely would have been amazed.

Ye Fei Hong respectfully treated the main family envoy, to his surprise it was a 17 to 18 year old youth.

"This family has troubled the honorable master, the family in Qing Ye Zhen is honored!"

In the Ye clan hall, Ye Fei Hong and the elders were all respectful to the youth, giving their salutations.

In the Ye clan in Tian Cang, the young master Ye Yunlong was renowned in the city for his talent, still not reaching 18 year of age, however he already cultivated to the peak of the 5th layer of Wu Dao. Not much people can compare to him, even the clan master.

Ye Yunlong from head to toe was wearing white clothes, on his head was a jade crown, on his hands was a fan, he looked like an elegant son of an official. Beside him was a young beautiful girl, both hands holding a sword, it was his weapon.

Ye Yunlong was holding on to his fan: "Ladies and gentlemen there is no need to be polite, the Ye clan of Qing Ye Zhen is important, when elder Tian Nan was alive, he helped establish the Ye clan. Although elder Tian Nan has been dead for 300 years, but the clan patriarch still cherishes this memory, that is why I decided to go here. I selected the younger generation of the Ye clan in Qing Ye Zhen in the hopes that like elder Tian Nan days, the Ye clan will go stronger."

Ye Tian Nan, he was the predecessor clan master of the Ye clan in Qing Ye Zhen, he was exactly the grandfather of Ye Xing. He was able to attain the level of the 6th layer Wu Dao, when he was alive, not only was he the clan master of the Ye clan in Qing Ye Zhen, he also was an elder in the main family.

During the period of Ye Tian Nan, the Ye clan in Qing Ye Zhen was extremely rich and powerful, they were Ye clan's strongest branch, nevertheless they started to decline.

"Many thanks clan master...!"

Ye Fei Hong's expression looked moved, he excitedly replied.

Ye Tian Nan is the pride of the Ye clan in Qing Ye Zhen, nowadays after 300 years, the main family remembered and respected their ancestor, furthermore, it was the young clan master came showing the sincerity of the main family regarding their value.

Tomorrow the family gathering will be held, in respects for Ye Tian Nan, the preparation begins today, the Ye clan delegation left towards the grave of Ye Tian Nan.

After the ancestral veneration of Ye Tian Nan, the Ye clan created a reception for Ye Yunlong, not much was said.

The next day, in the family gathering as set the competition was going to be held. At the side in the pavilion was Ye Yunlong, the clan master Ye Fei Hong, the great elder Ye Tian Zhong. Beside Ye Yunlong was his sword.

The rest of the elders sat in succession under the heads.

The Ye clan of Qing Ye Zhen is not as good as the main family, however they still had a lot of people, in Ye Xing's generation, which is from 13 to 17 years of age, there are more than people.

However, some of them them, like Ye Xing were crippled so they did not have the qualifications to join. Only 30 people are able to participate the competition.

When Ye Xing arrived at the competition platform, there were already many Ye clan clansmen that arrived. All of them were around the platform, only the younger generation with talent entered the platform.

Everyone's attention was on top of the platform, they did not give much attention to the arrival of Ye Xing.

However, the moment he step foot on the platform, he suddenly became the focus of attention.

"Ay, young master Ye Xing you are also going?"

"Is he not a cripple. not having the qualifications to join the competition?"

.....

For a moment, all around the competition platform everyone was discussing.

Next to the stage in the pavilion, Ye Fei Hong and all the elders saw Ye Xing enter the stage, gaining all their interest.

"He is a cripple, what is he doing?" At this point no one understood, the great elder angrily rebuked with veins popping on his head.

"Cripple?" Ye Yunlong gazed at Ye Xing: "Perhaps he really does not know, whose kid is he?"

"He is the son of the clan master." The great elder coldly groaned.

"Bastard, giving me me trouble, getting me embarrassed!" Ye Fei Hong's complexion turned ugly, he wished he slapped Ye Xing beforehand so he would have died.

On top of the martial art platform, the Ye clan younger generation saw Ye Xing approach, all of them were distracted many roaring with laughter. Ye Qing and Ye Hu looked, he actually came.

"Brother Xing, why did you come? Right now the main family envoy is here, again letting uncle be embarrassed, now uncle is angry!"

Beside Ye Xing was a juvenile similar to his age, said in a low voice.

This was the third elder Ye Fei Ting's son, whose name was Ye Feng, he was a good friend to the old Ye Xing.

"I already can interact with the stars, letting me enter the Wu Dao so I joined the family gathering." Ye Xing faintly smiled saying.

At this time the one presiding over the gathering was Ye Fei Zhou, who was part of the older generation at the 4th layer of Wu Dao. He came over to Ye Xing with an unhappy mood said:

“Go go go, in front of the main family envoy, you want the clan master to lose all face? Leave quickly!”

“I already cultivated to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, as the Ye clan’s junior, can I not participate?” Ye Xing loudly said.

The voice spread around, the situation suddenly became quiet, everyone’s face was amazed, even Ye Qing and Ye Hu were no exception.

Chapter 18: Family Gathering (2)

Regarding the matter of Ye Xing being able to interact with the star's power, aside from Xiao Qing, only Ye Fei Hong, Liu E and Liu Shuang Ling knew.

At 16 years old finally being able to interact with the stars, even though he was not a cripple anymore, it was not given much attention because the second son was born. Ye Fei Hong and Liu E did not really take the matter to heart, so they did not really mention it to anyone.

It was the same for Liu Shuang Ling, when it came to Ye Xing's matter, it was insignificant to her and she forgot about it, therefore the news was not passed around.

Whether or not there is a response to the stars, it could not be determined externally, so people thought Ye Xing was still a cripple that cannot interact with the stars.

At this moment, suddenly hearing Ye Xing already entering the Wu Dao, furthermore even cultivating to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao; the Ye clan members, how can they not be amazed?

In the pavilion, Ye Fei Hong's eyes showed astonishment. Ye Xing only started to interact with the stars for one month, how is it that he already cultivated to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao?

Did Ye Xing really cultivate to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao? Ye Fei Hong's mind surged, how is it possible?

Although at 16 years old still not reaching the level of a true warrior, his future is limited, Ye Xing only needed a month to reach the 3rd layer, Ye Fei Hong's mind was filled with hope!

However, Ye Fei Hong remembered ten days ago when Ye Xing returned home, he gave him a slap, his feelings went up then sank.

Ye Fei Hong really did not care about Ye Xing, so after he slapped him he did not give it much thought. At the present, his and Ye Xing's relationship as father and son is already gone.

"Uncle Fei Hong, what is going on here?" Ye Fei Hong heard someone say, it was apparently Ye Yunlong.

Ye Fei Hong looked embarrassed: "Young master, Ye Xing already could interact with the stars long ago, he is not a cripple, only I did not really pay much attention. Therefore I did not know that he already cultivated to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, I am not sure if what he is saying is true or false!"

Cultivating to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao in a month, this is too shocking, Ye Fei Hong did not disclose this, Ye Xing only interacted with the stars for only a month.

Ye Yunlong looked at Ye Fei Hong's expression then he understood: "True gold fears no fire, since he is not a cripple, let him participate the family gathering."

Ye Yunlong openly said it, naturally no one dare rebuke it, whether or not what Ye Xing's cultivation is true or not, it did not matter.

Ye Hu's eyes flickered with radiance, excitement can be seen, even if Ye Xing was a 3rd layer martial disciple, it doesn't mean he is the opponent of Ye Qing.

In addition, Ye Xing's strength is not that bad, the probability of him running into Ye Qing is high, he was looking forward to it, Ye Qing beating the hell out of Ye Xing!

The family gathering rules are simple, two people will battle each other, the winner will advance. If one is able to enter the top three, it is possible to obtain a reward from the clan, especially the one in first, people say the reward will be a middle grade medicine ingredient.

A middle grade medicine ingredient in the Ye clan in Qing Ye Zhen was extremely precious. In the previous years there was not this high of a reward, the great elder invested a lot, besides all the other elders agreed to it, the clan decided the reward will be a middle grade medicine ingredient.

The great elder's intent was clear, it was obvious, Ye Qing a genuine warrior in the younger generation participating, the first place was his.

Originally 31 people altogether joined the family gathering, for the first round Ye Qing had no opponents, but after adding Ye Xing, there is now a total of 32 people. Now they can be grouped in 16, now everyone had an opponent for the first round.

Ye Qing in the middle of the younger generation was the celebrity, naturally he was the one first for the first round. His opponent's name was Ye Dan, he was already 17 years old, cultivating to the 3rd layer of martial disciple.

Ye Dan knew that he was not match for Ye Qing, but he still gave his best in fighting. Sadly, the difference between the 3rd layer of Wu Dao and the 4th layer of Wu Dao was immense, the gap was too big.

The two fought hand to hand, the first move Ye Qing slapped Ye Dan causing him to fly, the disparity between a martial disciple and a warrior was dreadful, it was too large.

Everyone gasped in shock and adoration, Ye Qing cast a glance to Ye Xing, the corner of his mouth showing a slight smile, he was pleased with himself.

For the next few fights, the progress was relatively fast, almost half of the the younger generation that joined the competition were at the 2nd layer of Wu Dao, in order to speed it up, the 3rd layer and 2nd layer people were paired up, naturally the progress was fast.

The ninth fight was Ye Xing, it didn't take long till it was his turn, his opponent was a martial disciple was at the 2nd layer of Wu Dao. The name was Ye Zhi, only at 14 years old, she was the female representative.

Ye clan's representative was the aid of the clan master, but she did not pay much attention to Ye Xing.

“Brother Ye Xing, I did not hear you can interact with the stars, now you suddenly cultivated to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, this is truly hard to believe!”

Ye Zhi’s softly chuckled, clearly she was not convinced that someone who was crippled before, now already cultivated above her.

Ye Xing indifferently said:“Whether or not it is true or false, you can only try, why must you try to guess?”

“Good, I will try if it’s the truth!”

Ye Zhi tenderly shouted, her jade-like palm extended, a slap came over to Ye Xing, furthermore an echo bursted out.

Lower tier martial arts–Chain Palm! At the same time the Bone Crushing Fist was used.

The Bone Crushing Fist was a strong bone technique, it was not a fighting method, although it was quite strong to be used directly, Ye Zhi was a female, her strength was naturally weak, the way to prevail over an opponent is through martial skills.

Ye Zhi’s practice of the Hain Palm was rough, Yw Xing’s sight as if a torch, he was unfazed by the her attack, he shot a fist to the center of the palm of Ye Zhi.

Ye Xing did not even use 30 percent of his power, Ye Zhi already gave out a miserable shriek, after one fist of Ye Xing she had to move back a dozen of steps.

Ye Xing's clenched fist was a bit numbed, he did not use the full strength of his arm.

In a moment, Ye Zhi suffered a defeat!

Seeing it with their eyes had a greater impact rather than just hearing Ye Xing say that he was in the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, all the members of the Ye clan were stunned shocked.

Ye Xing did not use a martial skill, he barely used the Bone Crushing Fist, with a mere fist against the 2nd layer Ye Zhi, his cultivation obviously was at the 3rd layer of Wu Dao.

Once a cripple, now already at the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, this change really gave the people of Ye clan a hard time to believe.

"A month, only a month's time, he really is at the 3rd layer of WU Dao, how is this possible?"

Liu Shuang Ling although is not a direct relative, is already considered to be part of the Ye clan and was part of the 32 that is participating the family gathering. Before when Ye Xing said that he cultivated to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, Liu Shuang Ling was not convinced, now she has no choice but to believe, her mind was exceedingly shocked.

"What a fortuitous meeting! Apparently someone from the family had a happy encounter, once mediocre forever mediocre. It is impossible for him to top elder brother Ye Qing, I still believe in brother Ye Qing!"

In the mind of Liu Shuang Ling, she does not know why, after she looks at Ye Xing, she feels that she is out of breath, it was difficult to bear.

At the present the only one not shocked of Ye Xing's strength was Ye Hu, his eyes were leaking a very fierce look and expectation: "Humph, for now I will let you have the limelight, now you are getting a lot of attention, wait for my brother's beating and you will lose a lot of face!"

Ye Hu hoped that Ye Xing will be matched up with Ye Qing early on, however after the first round, he unexpectedly matched with Ye Xing in the second round.

Ye Hu's face was suddenly cold, in a flash he remembered Ye Xing's two slaps and kick to his body.

It is not known closed information that the matchup between Ye Xing and Ye Hu caused excitement.

The conflict between Ye Hu and Ye Xing is common knowledge, a month ago Ye Xing and Ye Hu had a climbing competition causing Ye Xing to hurt his head.

Now Ye Xing was already at the 3rd layer of Wu Dao just like Ye Hu, the people of Ye clan are anticipating the real strength of Ye Xing and who is stronger between the two.

The one in charge of the competition Ye Fei Zhou clearly knew the people's anticipation, perhaps he also wanted to know Ye Xing's strength with the both of them fighting, that is why they both meet in the second round.

The first fight was the same as before, Ye Qing won in a move, again going through the next round.

The battles were very fast, Ye Xing entered the platform, his face was like a smile yet without a smile(idiom), looking at Ye Hu approach.

Ye Hu and Ye Xing both at the 3rd layer Wu Dao, who is more formidable between the two?

All the Ye clan people's eyes were wide open, they were looking with anticipation on the platform, waiting for Ye Xing and Ye Hu to fight.

However Ye hu's move was beyond what all the people expected.

He did not enter the platform, coming out from the group of younger generation people he said: "I concede!"

Last time Ye Xing stomped on him, how can he dare try to go at it against Ye Xing.

Now Ye hu waited for his brother to take revenge for him, fiercely beat up Ye Xing, letting himself fight Ye Xing he would not dare.

"Concede—?"

All around the martial art platform, suddenly at once snorts of disdain rised in the air.

The waited expectantly for Ye Xing and Ye Hu to fight, but Ye Hu immediately threw the towel, this puts people in a bad mood.

In the pavilion, the great elder Ye Tian Zhong's complexion turned to anger.

He despised Ye Xing, calling Ye Xing trash not only once, but now his grandson Ye Hu did not dare fight getting looks of contempt.

What is this? How is it this trash has no equal? Ye Tian Zhong was angered.

Chapter 19: Winning Streak

“Who is this? To admit defeat with someone in the same realm, even too scared to fight...!”

Ye Yunlong waved his fan, he said with contempt.

At the side, the great elder Ye Tian Zhong's face was dark, he wished there was a crack he can hide in.

At the present, Ye Fei Hong was feeling a bit of happiness, Ye Hu after all was the grandson of the great elder.

Ye Yunlong chuckled, regarding giving careful recognition to Ye Tian Zhong's face, he did not care.

“In the past his body was crippled, how come today he is a 3rd layer Wu Dao martial disciple? Don't tell me that the clan master position will continue to be passed on? That won't do, the clan master position should be for my Qing er. You must really show off your talents, so that the young master can see, this will let you seize the clan master position!”

Ye Tian Zhong in his mind placed all his hope on Ye Qing.

When Ye Tian Zhong was younger, he was the son of Qing Ye Zhen's clan master, however he was in the same generation of the excellent Ye Tian Nan. Even if it was in the main family in Tian Cang City, he still was the number one talent completely surpassing him. Finally, his father was the clan master, still the position was instead given to the nephew who was Ye Tian Nan.

This matter, Ye Tian Zhong has always been brooding about, wanting to take the clan master position back. However, he could not compare to Ye Tian Nan, even his son could not compare to the son of Ye Tian Nan.

At last the generation of his grandchildren, his grandson Ye Qing was ahead in his generation without compare, finally he could see his wish being fulfilled.

If only Ye Qing was able to show his sufficient talent, Ye Xing will be pressured, which in turn will also pressure Ye Fei Hong himself, passing the clan master position to the excellent younger generation.

Ye Tian Zhong's gaze was burning, he was looking towards Ye Qing, he restored his confidence.

Ye Hu conceding, a lot of people snorted with disdain, however as the competition advanced, everyone's attention started to shift.

After time has passed, the second round was completed, the final 8 has been determined.

They are the following: Ye Qing, Ye Xing, Ye Feng, Ye Yuan, Ye Yuan(same pronunciation but different words), Ye Lan, Ye Xin and Liu Shuang Ling.

Ye Qing was the grandson of the great elder, Ye Xing was the clan master's son, Ye Feng was the third elder's son, Ye Yuan was another grandson of the great elder, Ye Yuan was the son of the second elder, Ye Lan was the passing elder's daughter, Ye Xin was born from a division from the clan and Liu Shuang Ling was the clan lady's niece.

The third round of the competition is about to begin!

The drawing of lots has been complete, Ye Qing is paired with Ye Yuan, Ye Xing is paired with Ye Yuan, Ye Feng is paired with Ye Lan and Liu Shuang Ling is paired with Ye Xin.

In this round Ye Xing will not meet with Ye Qing, however his opponent was the grandson of the great elder.

Ye Yuan this year is 15 years old, cultivating already to the late stage of the third layer of Wu Dao, compared to the early staged Ye Hu the difference was quite big.

After hearing Ye Fei Hou announce the pairings for the family competition, the people of Ye clan showed excitement in their eyes, at long last, this is the first round that they will see Ye Xing's real strength.

The first fight as before is Ye Qing's, no matter if his opponent is Ye Yuan who cultivated to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, in a strike he won.

This battle had no suspense whatsoever, but it looked amazing, the gap of the fighters was too big, for the first place in this competition, who can compete with Ye Qing?

The second fight, it was Ye Xing against Ye Yuan.

Everyone's mind were reeling using their mind to inspect, to their eyes, Ye Xing was a lump of mist.

Now, it is time to unveil this mist!

Even the people within the pavilion, Ye Fei Hong and all the elders also concentrated on the stage without taking their eyes off it.

Ye Yunlong's eyes concentrated, revealing the color interest, a former cripple, suddenly turned. Against all the odds, he cultivated to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao martial disciple, this story was very interesting.

He wanted to know the next development in the story!

"Ye Xing, although I do not know why a cripple like you cultivated to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, i am not as worthless as Ye Hu. I will not concede in defeat, I want to see myself how big of a storm you can make!"

Ye Yuan walking entering the martial art platform, his body revealed an imposing aura, he has indeed cultivated to the late stage of Wu Dao in the martial disciple realm, he was really strong.

Ye Xing walked entered the platform from the opposite direction and stopped: "Ye Hu admitting defeat, he indeed was wise!"

At the edges of the platform Ye Hu felt his face becoming hot.

“Seventh Cutting Slash!”

Ye Yuan was not like Ye Xing, he did not talk much, he shouted and attacked straightforwardly.

Seventh Cutting Slash was a low grade martial art, it was a skill of the palm, altogether there were seven forms, each one has another seven variations to learn, in total there are 49 variation forms to master.

Every variation attacked key body parts and joints, if one was hit by it, even with great strength the outcome may result in being cut.

Ye Yuan made a vertical stroke which is the first palm slash, aiming at the shoulder joint of Ye Xing, his hand resembled that of a blade.

Ye Xing moved his body to one side avoiding Ye Yuan's attack. Ye Yuan immediately changed the trajectory of his attack, his hand as if a blade slashed horizontally, aiming to slit Ye Xing's throat.

Bone Crushing Fist!

Within the body of Ye Xing an echo bursted out, he punched towards the blade like palm.

All eyes at the moment widened, two people cultivated to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao martial disciple, one fully used the Bone Crushing Fist, while the other fully used martial skill Seventh Cutting Slash.

Who is stronger?

In everyone's mind, the advantage was with Ye Yuan, his skill after all was a martial skill, it was specialized to cut down opponents, furthermore the strength increases with every variation.

The Bone Crushing Fist was merely for strengthening the body and the bones, it is purely for strength.

The result went against everyone's expectation, as the fist and the palm struck each other, Ye Yuan's palm as if feeling an electric shock moved back.

He felt that he was not able to cut the fist, rather it was completely intact, Ye Xing's hands and bones were invulnerable, Ye Xing's hand was not cut under the strength of the Seventh Cutting Slash.

Ye Yuan's palm suffered pain, Ye Xing's hand however did not even get injured in the slightest.

Using the advantage that was created, Ye Xing launched forward punching straight to the chest of Ye Yuan.

Bang

Ye Yuan let out a miserable shriek, his whole body was hit flying out, he fell several meters away on the ground.

After getting hit by Ye Xing's punch, he found it hard to stand up again.

No matter whether it was the younger generation participating on the competition, the spectators, the clan master, the great elder, they all had only one expression.

Stupefied!

Two fists! Ye Xing only had used two punches then defeated Ye Yuan who was a 3rd layer Wu Dao martial disciple!

Everyone was shocked and couldn't believe it!

"Quite mean, this boy surprisingly cultivated the Bone Crushing Fist past the satisfactory realm!" Ye Yunlong in his eyes showed astoundment.

If Ye Yunlong knew that Ye Xing cultivated the Bone Crushing Fist not merely to the satisfactory realm, everyone in the Ye clan will be stunned.

Ye Fei Hong looked at Ye Xing who had vigor on the platform, he was loss in thought, in his mind he was upset.

Ye Xing said that he cultivated to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, he felt that he really did not understand his son, he was completely ignorant when it came to Ye Xing.

He could not believe it, he completely abandoned Ye Xing, he unexpectedly grew to such an extent.

The great elder Ye Tian Zhong creased his brows, Ye Xing was at the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, he was already gobsmacked. Now that he saw his true strength, it fully exceeded his expectations, it was hard for him to believe.

On the edges of the platform, Ye Qing looked at Ye Xing, his gaze gave off a cold light, he heard about Ye Xing from Ye Hu, but that's all, he was not yet a genuine warrior.

However, at the present he gave more importance to Ye Xing, not only does he now want to beat up Ye Xing up, he was burning with a desire to fight.

As a genuine warrior, unexpectedly the one that brought out his desire is from the martial disciple realm, Ye Qing would have never thought of this before.

But now, he had the burning desire to fight with Ye Xing.

Ye Xing left the stage, Ye Yuan's body was carried away, the people of Ye clan were still dazed, upto the extent that they did not pay much attention to the fight between Ye Lan and Ye Feng.

Ye Lan was at the middle stage of the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, Ye Feng on the other hand cultivated to the peak of the 3rd layer of Wu Dao. Ye Feng was stably winning the fight, in less than 30 moves Ye Lan finally lost, letting Ye Feng advance to the semis.

The final competition was between Ye Xin and Liu Shuang Ling, everyone in the Ye clan started to pay more attention.

In Qing Ye Zhen, Liu Shuang Ling was one of the top beauties in terms of looks, even that she cultivated to a high extent, reaching the peak of the 3rd layer of Wu Dao. She as a person had high popularity.

Even in the pavilion the young master Ye Yunlong after seeing Liu Shuang Ling caused his mind to be stirred a little bit. In Tian Cang City, there are more beautiful and higher cultivated girls with heavenly tenderness, however there were not that many that were like this. That is why even if you were to look at Tian Cang City as a whole, Liu Shaung Ling will still be ranked among the top beautiful women.

“Vigorous Fist!”

“Penetrating Blossoming Hand!”

Ye Xin has cultivated to the late stage of the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, he walks the strong violent route, his fist had strong power behind it, he was brimming with strength. He was cream of the crop in the younger generation in the family, obviously he was not weak,

Liu Shaung Ling’s cultivation was slightly higher than Ye Xin’s by quite a bit, however she did not dare to be arrogant. She moved skillfully and agilely, both hands moving quickly as if butterflies, Ye Xin’s strong fist met up with hers like a gentle breeze.

Both fully used their lower grade martial skills, one was soft, while the other was the opposite, both clashing with each other!

Both made a hundred moves and were evenly matched, however it was about to end.

Ye Xin's method was spirited, full of energy, but it cannot last long. Ye Xin's strength has decreased significantly, he was panting.

Liu Shuang Ling's style was gentle, using softness to conquer strength, as the hundred moves were exchanged she was getting stronger.

The fight reached the exchange of 130 moves, Ye Xin's attacks were now half a beat slower, Liu Shuang Ling did not stop until she hit a vital point, Liu Shuang Ling won.

The top 4 of the family competition are the following, Ye Qing, Ye Xing, Ye Feng and Liu Shuang Ling.

For the fourth round there will only be two battles, it was Ye Qing against Ye Feng, Ye Xing against Liu Shuang Ling!

Chapter 20: Winning Streak

Ye Hu was gloomy, there was a fifty percent probability, however Ye Xing still is not paired up with Ye Qing!

With Ye Xing being able to defeat Ye Yuan in two moves, Liu Shuang Ling will obviously also have a hard time.

“Humph, Ye Xing the higher you go, the harder you fall!” Ye Hu was consoling himself in his mind.

After the draw of the 4th round came out, everyone in Qing Ye Zhen were guessing the results, surely Ye Qing and Ye Xing will win, at the end they will both confront each other in the finals to be number one.

However even if they were already guessing the results, everyone was still looking forward to the fights.

In the fight between Ye Qing and Ye Feng, there was nothing unusual, Ye Qing as usual will crush his opponent. Everyone was looking forward to the fight between Ye Xing and Liu Shuang Ling.

The two were yet to be married husband and wife, everyone was happy to watch the two fight.

“Wait do not concede defeat, he surely would not injure you, use all your strength to test him!” Ye Qing as he passed by Liu Shuang Ling softly whispered.

After which Ye Qing immediately went to the stage and fought Ye Feng, after fast exchanges Ye Feng was heavily injured.

Liu Shuang Ling will undoubtedly will lose to the hands of Ye Xing, so she will fight Ye Feng for the third place. So Ye Qing seriously injured Ye Feng to make it not a trouble anymore.

In the pavilion, the third elder Ye Fei Ting's complexion turned cold, in his eyes were pure fury, Ye Qing obviously did this to seriously injure Ye Feng.

Watching his son be carried out of the platform, how can Ye Fei Ting not be angry.

Unfortunately, even if he is an elder, in the family meeting it is not good enough, If he was angry, all the other elders will stop him and he will become a joke, all he can do is suppress his anger.

He could not help it, Ye Fei Ting's eyes fell to Ye Xing.

Ye Xing will definitely fight with Ye Qing on the top.

"If Ye Xing can beat Ye Qing in behalf for my son, it will be many times better!"

Ye Fei Ting was thinking about it, however even if he wanted to see the results already, there was nothing he can do but watch.

The gap between a martial disciple and a warrior was too big, it was too difficult, can a martial disciple beat a warrior? This was a very big hope!

Ye Xing looked over to the pavilion, he and Ye Fei Ting's gaze met.

In a moment, Ye Xing read Ye Fei Ting's eyes, he then nodded.

This somewhat dumbfounded Ye Fei Ting, it was as if Ye Xing's eyes sent a message: Good, I will sort out Ye Qing!

Where was Ye Xing's confidence coming from? Ye Fei Ting was suspicious, maybe he understood what Ye Xing meant in his eyes wrongly!

Is that so? This should not be right? Ye Fei Ting could not determine it, but in his heart he was looking forward to it!

At this time, Ye Xing and Liu Shuang Ling came to the platform, all the attention fell on these two people.

"This way you quickly cultivated to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao, it seems that you really had a happy encounter!"

Liu Shuang Ling's beautiful hair was on her forehead, her actions gave off a soft and gentle mood.

In the memory of Ye Xing, Liu Shuang Ling never talked to him in this tone, Ye Xing did not think Liu Shuang Ling wanted to start anew, he still has yet to show his real strength and potential that is higher than Ye Qing's!

In this way, he thought that his counterpart was definitely hiding something.

Now that the other party believes that he had a good encounter, this was their explanation why he suddenly had such a fast upgrade in strength.

Ye Xing nodded and lightly said: "Well I went to the Qingyun mountain range to travel, I almost died, however I unexpectedly encountered a medical ingredient, I ate it then I suddenly raised my strength to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao."

A medicine that directly raises one's strength to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao? How precious is this medicine?

From what Ye Xing has said, they believed it and had envy in their hearts to Ye Xing, this medicine from a crippled body, he took it and it was wasted on him!

"You really depended on medicine to forcefully cultivate, al depended on medical ingredients to strengthen your body, therefore you strength surpasses that of a normal person, still eager to excel greatly!"

Liu Shuang Ling thought so, with Ye Xing admitting it, she in her mind filled in the blanks and said.

"It may be so!" Ye Xing did not object.

Getting the answer Liu Shuang Ling's demeanor changed immediately saying:

"It is no wonder you are what you are today, you depend on luck, in time it will run out. If you did not have another happy encounter, I'm afraid you will stay in that realm forever not ever advancing to be a warrior in your whole lifetime."

"Perhaps that is true, who can say for sure in the future!" Ye Xing shrugged his shoulders. his expression was indifferent.

However, this indifferent expression in the eyes of Liu Shuang Ling was annoying, she felt hateful.

She was used to Ye Xing having the face of excitement in front of her as such is fear, she disliked the fact that Ye Xing could not give a damn, in addition his expression showed self confidence.

"In the future, let me try your genuine strength you got after your happy encounter!"

Liu Shuang Ling coldly shouted, immediately using the Penetrating Blooming Hand, she attacked towards Ye Xing.

The Penetrating Blooming Hand uses softness to conquer strength, Liu Shuang Ling took the initiative to attack, it was obvious she lost her cool.

Crackle Rattle

In a moment that Liu Shuang Ling attacked, in the body of Ye Xing suddenly echos burst out!

In an imposing manner Ye Xing's body rose, his black hair scattered in the wind, he threw a fist like an angry lion.

Ye Qing thought Ye Xing will let Liu Shuang Ling strike, Liu Shuang Ling thought the same too, they both were gravely mistaken.

Let Liu Shuang Ling hit? Why would that be allowed?

Ye Xing with a fist, although the power of the Bone Crushing Fist did not completely erupt out, however this 70 to 80 percent power still can not be compared to the normal martial disciple.

Liu Shuang Ling's Penetrating Blooming Hand used softness to conquer strength, however as Ye Xing's fist arrived, she nevertheless was unable to handle this terrifying force, hitting it with her palm felt like there was an electrifying shock, she had no choice but to pull back.

Ye Xing's powerful strength in the fist, no matter strong and flexible Liu Shuang Ling was, it was hard to resist.

Liu Shuang Ling was surprised, Ye Xing already strode forward, once again sending a fist.

Penetrating Blooming Hand!

Liu Shuang Ling used her full strength, however with regards with Ye Xing's fist, she was incapable of resisting.

Ye Xing's fist was unstoppable, hitting her shoulder she had no choice but fall down with both hands used as a support, she turned.

Shadow Leg!

Liu Shuang Ling turned, both feet rapidly kicked, repeatedly aiming for Ye Xing's vital points, putting to full use the lower grade skill.

Peng Peng Peng Peng

Ye Xing responded quickly, as before using the Bone Crushing Fist, obstructing all of Liu Shuang Ling's kicks.

Afterwards a sound came out, Liu Shuang Ling let out a miserable shriek, her body flew for about 10 meters dropping to the ground.

Ye Xing's fist was too strong, after trying to block his fist, naturally Liu Shuang Ling was sent flying.

Liu Shuang Ling fell to the ground both of her legs feeling pain, she clenched her teeth. Her eyes looking at Ye Xing, in her eyes were both anger and surprise!

Right now in front of Ye Xing, she was feeling strange!

She could feel it, Ye Xing did not have protective feelings for her, it was beyond her expectation.

Formerly, although she never cared about Ye Xing, however Ye Xing always had the look of infatuation, how can he be willing to hurt her?

This time however, she really was hurt in the hands of Ye Xing.

In addition, she also failed in testing Ye Xing's real strength.

Meanwhile, Ye Xing's actions also went beyond the expectations of the majority the Ye clan people. In the past Ye Xing treated Liu Shuang Ling well with infatuation, however now it seems like there is a change.

In the edges of the platform Ye Qing's eyes narrowed, showing fierceness from it. He wanted to let Liu Shuang Ling try to get YeXing to show his power, he knew the outcome but nevertheless he was disappointed.

As before he still had confidence certain of his victory, although he did not know he did not know the limit of Ye Xing's strength, but after all he was just a martial disciple, until where can his strength reach?

Nevertheless he already cultivated the inner strength of Wu Dao, in his dantian was four star rings indicating he was a genuine warrior.

Ye Qing was on the edges of the platform, slowly entering. Liu Shuang Ling was already defeated, entering the fifth round was only him and Ye Xing, there was no need to draw. This fifth round was the defining battle, who the best will unfold between the two of them.

A person helped Liu Shuang Ling down the platform, aside from the person in charge of the competition Ye Fei Zhou, there was no one else on the platform aside from Ye Xing and Ye Qing.

The whole Ye clan and every person had their eyes locked on the two people on the platform, all eyes showing a deep color of interest.

There were two people, one was a younger generation man who was a warrior, one was a former cripple who was an unexpected dark horse in the competition!

The fight between the two, it was a must see!

Even in their hearts they already had a prediction on who will win, but their interest in the fight remains undiminished.

The wanted to know, Ye Xing the dark horse, what can he do in front of a genuine warrior, to what extent can he last.

In the pavilion, in the period that Liu Shuang Ling was sent flying by Ye Xing, Ye Yunlong was slightly unhappy, in his perspective, Ye Xing did not understand being king to the opposite sex, especially confronting a beautiful woman, one must win graciously!

Ha opened his fan and used it for a few times saying:

“A cripple that could not interact with the stars, today now cultivated to the 3rd layer of Wu Dao. Ye Xing is a dark horse, this is truly surprising, but this time he will have a hard time, this time he will be against a true warrior, his rise is about to come to an end.”

A martial disciple beating a warrior, it is possible but it is very rare, usually it can only happen to top talents of Tian Cang City, for example, Ye Yunlong!

However in his situation, at the boundary of the 3rd layer, he can already use inner strength, meaning he was already halfway to the 4th layer, a genuine warrior. In his dantain the 4th ring was already appearing, there was only a little time left until he reached the 4th layer.

Ye Tian Zhong saw that Ye Yunlong was favoring the side of Ye Qing, his face suddenly showed delight saying:

“Young master, this person that is at the 4th layer of Wu Dao warrior is Ye Qing, he is this elder’s grandson, it has already been months that he is at the position as the best younger generation in Qing Ye Zhen, he is the only one that is a genuine warrior. His potential is very big, his future is bound to be a success, in Tian Cang City I hope the young master will keep an eye on it!"

Chapter 21: To win

"Ye Xing, we finally encountered each other, you humiliated little Hu, I will pay you back ten times that!"

Ye Qing looked at Ye Xing, on the corner of his mouth was a hint of disdain.

"Hehe, Ye Qing, where is your proof?" Regarding Ye Qing's disdain, Ye Xing was indifferent.

"So you had a happy incident, beat out several martial disciples, isn't your confidence somehow inflated?" Ye Qing as before still had a look of disdain on his face.

"What? You annoyingly let me get clear headed!" Ye Xing's was same as always, unchanging, as before, smiling.

"I will, I will let you know the gap between a martial disciple and a genuine warrior, showing you the big disparity!"

Ye Qing's face turned cold, Ye Xing's indifferent manner towards him led him to feel anger.

"You talk too much, in my eyes a genuine warrior is not worth anything!" Ye Xing said while he shrugged his shoulders.

“Humph! Shameless boasting!”

Ye Qing found it hard to continue listening, with anger he humphed: “At the most three moves, I shall make you crawl on the ground unable to stand up!”

Great Monument Hand!

With a great tone, Ye Qing already made his move, with a big stride forward, a single palm went towards Ye Xing in an attempt to swat him.

The palm has yet to arrive, however its strength can be felt by the strong wind that came as an effect of it, the atmosphere changed as a strong sound came, it can clearly be seen that this one palm had formidable power.

Great Monument Hand, it is a lower grade martial art with it being a strong martial skill. Ye Qing shot out his palm, as it approached strong sounds came, it was obvious that the Great Monument Hand had great power, showing that it was cultivated to the upper realm.

A Wu Dao 4th layer, the Great Monument Hand cultivated to the upper realm, the might is no small matter!

“Humph, he believe’s just because he had that happy encounter, he can compare himself to elder brother Ye Qing, he truly is overestimating his own abilities!”

“Martial disciple and warrior, the gap between the two is immeasurable, elder brother Ye Qing's Great Monument Hand's might is terrifying, with the use of three moves, or even with just one, he can beat Ye Xing!"

.....

Some of the younger generation are naturally behind Ye Qing, in succession started to talk.

When they regarded Ye Xing a while ago, they were dissatisfied with him, against someone like Ye Qing with fame and power, they naturally started to mock Ye Xing.

"Although Ye Qing's internal strength is not that strong, but simply put he is already a 4th layer warrior, this is someone a martial disciple can absolutely not contend against. In addition, with cultivating the Great Monument Hand to the upper realm, beating Ye Xing with three moves is sufficient enough!"

Within the pavilion, the head Ye Yunlong determined the outcome.

He was from the main family in Tian Cang City, already cultivating and practicing multiple middle grade martial arts, so much that he also studied a remnant of an old high grade martial arts. With his great insight, he was able to determine and made a judgement on the outcome of the fight.

"Young master with what you said, Ye Xing seems to have had a happy encounter, but going above Ye Qing who cultivated with hard work, step by step reaching the position of a warrior, three moves is enough!”

The great elder Yr Tian Zhong was smiling ear to ear.

Crack Rattle

While everyone was discussing, inside Ye Xing’s body a sound exploded out, he gave out an imposing aura, letting people feel as if there was an immovable mountain.

Ye Xing also suddenly took a big stride forward, sending out a fist.

There was nothing fancy about it, every person cultivated the Bone Crushing Fist. However this one fist nevertheless is extremely formidable, a burst of strength creating wind, filling the atmosphere with a great sound.

Bang

Everyone was astonished at Ye Xing’s fist to bring about such power, at this time he collided with Qing’s palm.

What martial skill was not put to full use, only a mere Bone Crushing Fist, at once was able to contend against the Great Monument Hand cultivated to the upper realm?

In addition, it seems that the inner strength was used for the Great monument Hand?

Every person was unable to take off their eyes from the stage where there is a confrontation, they already in their minds already accepted the scene, Ye Xing will surely be swatted away from the stage by Ye Qing with his Great Monument Hand.

However, in their eyes another scene played out causing them to change expression's color.

Ye Xing indeed flew, however only moving back by two steps. What is more is that a genuine warrior like Ye Qing was also forced to take two steps back.

In their first encounter with each other, they both unexpectedly are evenly matched!

The strong a robust chinese boxing, how was it capable of withstanding a martial skill used to kill? Besides, there is an absolute gap in cultivation.

Everyone in their eyes exposed an inconceivable color!

Ye Yunlong at the time was fanning himself, immediately let go.

The great elder Ye Tian Zhang's smiling expression suddenly froze on his face.

The overwhelming majority of the Ye clan people had their mouth's wide open, dumbstruck! Everyone's eyes showed astonishment in their eyes!

Ye Fei Ting was momentarily dazed, suddenly he stood up with joy on his face, Ye Xing surprisingly was genuinely capable to fight against Ye Qing. This let him realize in a flash, Ye Xing just a while ago gave him a meaningful glance, now he understood what he meant!

It seems like most people were shocked stunned, Ye Xing unexpectedly withstood the Great Monument Hand of Ye Qing, also he only had to take two steps backwards, Ye Qing was unable to believe what happened.

Once he was a cripple, now he unexpectedly can now go contend with me? This is impossible! Ye Qing in his mind snarled, he was filled with fury.

Great Monument Hand!

Ye Qing angrily roared, in his body his internal strength started to work at its maximum, both hands as if were mountain monuments, continued to attack Ye Xing.

Bone Crushing Fist!

Ye Xing did not show any weakness at all, within his body was exploding strength as if there is great fire, both fist went out colliding with Ye Qing at great strength!

Bang Bang Bang Bang...

Every confrontation, two men with their palm and fist violently clashed, issuing great sounds. Listening to it felt there was a great battle between two men, in one's heart sounds can be felt causing it to palpitate.

In a flash, the two people already exchanged ten blows, however both of their bodies seemed like to be made out of iron, not showing any tiredness at all. Also not showing any damage at the least, as before they were evenly matched.

Up until now, the two went over three moves.

Ye Qing said in three moves he will beat Ye Xing, however now what he said turned into a joke!

As well as the ones of the younger generation that said Ye Qing will beat Ye Xing in one move, now at present each and everyone one of them shut their mouth, amazed at the two causing them to be speechless.

In the eyes of Ye Yunlong, also exposed a rarely seen astonishment, on his face was a bit of mockery. He determined previously that Ye Qing will beat Ye Xing in three moves, but Ye Xing was still fighting making him talk rubbish.

"This...how is this possible? A 3rd layer Wudao martial disciple, only relying on the Bone Crushing Fist, how is he capable of fighting against a warrior?"

Ye Tian Zhong across his face was astonishment as he said that, forgetting to become angry.

The same as Ye Tian Zhong, the people of the Ye clan all could not understand it, a martial disciple putting to full use the Bone Crushing Fist, capable of using it to the degree of fighting a stalemate with a warrior, this is extremely unimaginable!

“I actually looked down on him, it seems that his encounter was not what we thought as previously to be a fortuitous meeting, within his body his bones are actually refined by at least a hundred times!”

Ye Yunlong’s insight was out of the ordinary, to be able to point out and saying it.

“Please young master clear up the confusion!” Ye Fei Hong was both alarmed and happy, also he was not clear about the reason, he asked towards Ye Yunlong.

“The human body’s bones does not only have a hundred bones, I heard that altogether there are 206 bones, however the Bone Crushing can only cultivate a hundred of them. The rest the Bone Crushing Fist is unable to cultivate, only with the use of precious medicinal ingredients and talent can strengthen it!”

Ye Yunlong was accomplished in Tian Cang City making him proud, as the Ye clan young master he naturally knows a lot of secrets.

“What? Cultivating the Bone Crushing fist unexpectedly only affects half of the bones? In the world don’t tell me that there is no martial technique that can cultivate all bones?"

The great elder asked while being surprised.

Ye Yunlong was silent for a moment, he knew a few secrets regarding the Wudao:

"There is, but it is exceptionally precious, to say the least regarding high grade martial arts, with regards the main family of the Ye clan there is no such thing, perhaps only great colleges has the ability to have such martial arts. To my understanding, only with the all the bones in the whole body being refined can one have the prospects of becoming a martial saint, as well as for martial arts to cultivate all bones, only sacred grade martial arts are enough!"

Si

The Ye clan people hearing what have been said, without exception all sucked a mouthful of breath!

Martial Saint! Sacred grade martial arts! These all are extremely distant, regarding to the members of the Ye clan people, such a thing is practically only legends!

With Ye Yunlong speaking, Ye Xing and Ye Qing already exchanged more than 20 to 30 moves, the inner strength of the Wudao is really powerful, no matter the strength shown by Ye Xing using the Bone Crushing Fist, it is barely capable of obstructing his counterparts attacks.

To think absolutely relying on the strength of the opponent, it was hard to predict the what will happen!

With this Ye Xing nevertheless was not anxious or impatient, his expression was tranquil, there was no urgent need to use the surpassing brain, rather he can use this to refine his combat experience.

As for Ye Qing, his mood compared to Ye Xing is the complete opposite, at this moment his face already was swelling red, his veins can be seen from his neck, his expression was filled with extreme emotion, his anger was matchless.

Under the eyes of everyone, he kept repeating that in three moves he will defeat Ye Xing, however at present thirty moves has already been exchanged. Ye Xing as before is still healthy, not looking defeated at all at any aspect.

This was practically the same as Ye Xing using the fight as a mean to trash his face!

“No...! A martial disciple, how is it possible he can fight at a standstill with me? This is impossible! By no means is it possible, I need to teach him a lesson, I definitely need to teach him a lesson!”

Ye Qing was roaring in his mind, his eyes exposed a ominous glint, he decided to use his trump card.

He bellowed with rage: "Ye Xing, do you think my strength is only as such? Starting now I will let you know, the genuine pinnacle of my strength!"

Roaring Ye Qing suddenly changed, he whipped his legs sweeping, throwing a fist Ye Xing retreated back.

In the pavilion the Ye clan people were frightened, the moves of rotating his leg around his body used by Ye Qing was a middle grade martial art!

Furthermore, it can be seen that the power of that leg was strong, clearly at the lower realm of cultivating the middle grade martial art, compared to the upper realm of a lower grade martial art the power is greatly superior!

Ye Qing entering the 4th layer of Wudao has not passed more than 3 months, unexpectedly he already used a middle grade martial art cultivating it to the lower realm, it seems that the great elder Ye Tian Zhong did not hold back in giving special treatment to Ye Qing!

Middle grade martial art Collapsing Mountain Leg!

Ye Xing was feeling the pressure from his opponents leg whip, this kind of strength was hard to resist.

To finish... everyone's mind felt this was the reason

With Ye Xing's performance, the Ye clan people certainly were shocked, however some were still not convinced he was capable of withstanding Ye Qing's Collapsing Mountain Leg!

At first Ye Fei Ting finally thought that Ye Xing can win in his son's place Ye Feng, however his face changed when Ye Qing put to full use a middle grade martial art, he lost his confidence.

Surpassing mind, scan!

Ye Xiong did not want to again let Ye Qing try to hit him again, immediately he used his trump card within himself.

In a split second, Ye Qing's leg trajectory and strong pressure, with the inner strength, all was scanned by Ye Xing seeing everything clearly.

All of the flaws, there was no escape!

Chapter 22: To Win

Ye Xing did not retreat rather he started to advance. Everyone was astonished, a fist went out towards Ye Qing's incoming leg.

Ye Qing just wanted to issue a laugh of victory making him happy, but he felt that his leg became numb, unexpectedly all its force dissipated.

The Collapsing Mountain Leg in a split second, Ye Xing broke it!

Bang

Ye Qing was shocked, his eyes could not believe it, Ye Xing with a fist going forward hit his chest.

The perfect realm of the Bone Crushing Fist, the power of it completely erupted out with one fist, no matter if one is a 4th layer of Wudao warrior, all will not be able to withstand it.

Ye Qing let out a miserable shriek, meeting Ye Xing's fist, he flew backwards by around 10 meters. He fell to the ground gripping his stomach, he was tragically groaning, how can he get up?

How can this be?

Everyone in the Ye clan, two eyes open wide! Both hands shaking, once again they did not understand!

Even Ye Yunlong, his face in a split second expressed sluggishness.

Ye Qing exhibited a middle grade martial art, obviously it should defeat Ye Xing, letting him obtain victory. However, in just a split second, Ye Xing unexpectedly surprised everyone by obstructing the Collapsing Mountain Leg. In addition, in one fist he caused Ye Qing to fly.

This did not let anyone believe it, it is practically inconceivable!

Ye Yunlong inwardly inhale a breath, muttering in a low voice:

“He is a 3rd layer Wudao martial disciple, unexpectedly has a strong eyesight, in a glance he saw through the flaw of Ye Qing’s leg move?”

While he was muttering, in Ye Yunlong’s mind appeared a beautiful image of a woman, in Tian Cang City she was a proud woman, her eyesight was matchless, allowing her to challenge geniuses a rank above her!

Beside Ye Yunlong at his right and left, Ye Fei Hong and Ye Tian Zhong without exception were stunned, however one was pleasantly surprised while the other was filled with fury!

The results of this battle, it exceeded everyone’s expectations!

“Good!” Ye Fei Ting suddenly clapped, in a moment he was staring blankly, afterwards he reacted with a big shout.

His son Ye Feng, met Ye Qing and was seriously injured, so much so that he needed to be carried off the stage. Currently, Ye Qing met Ye Xing and was in the same predicament, he was unable to stand up, he was inhaling mouthfuls of air.

“In a competition from the same family, he unexpectedly did such a fierce thing with his hands, how can this be good!” Ye Tian Zhong in a cold voice spoke, at this moment he was angered after hearing Ye Fei Ting shouted happily.

“My son suffered serious injury under the hands of Ye Qing, however that can't be the only one, how come Ye Qing can't suffer under the hands of Ye Xing!”

Ye Fei Ting opposed with equal harshness, coldly ridiculing.

Ye Tian Zhong was left speechless, he angrily snorted, he wanted to vent his anger but he did not.

This moment, on the platform Ye Qing finally started to move, he was still in grave pain however at last he can crawl up.

He could not believe it, as genuine warrior, he unexpectedly lost at the hands of a martial disciple.

Moreover, this martial disciple was once a cripple, the person he never put on his eyes, Ye Xing!

"You lost...!" Ye Xing in front of indifferently stated.

"No! I did not lose!" Ye Qing loudly shouted, he ferociously went towards Ye Xing. This defeat, he could not bear it, he could not accept it!

Pa

The one in charge of the competition Ye Fei Hou felt that he could not make it and there was no time, Ye Qing already lunged at Ye Xing, once again putting to full use the middle grade martial art Collapsing Mountain Leg!

Only, the angered Ye Qing was muddle headed and lost his rationality, compared to before when he put to full use the Collapsing Mountain Leg, this time it was filled with mistakes.

From Ye Qing to his leg, his force had a slight variation, his inner strength started to operate and orbit all of which was seen by Ye Xing through scanning with his surpassing mind.

This time, Ye Xing did not try to dispose of the Collapsing Mountain Leg, rather he positioned his body diagonally forward, avoiding the opponent's attack.

Meanwhile, within his body his bones echoed out sounds, with a palm, he gave a ferocious slap to the face: "Get lost!"

Ye Qing tried to kick Ye Xing but ended up making his face go closer, so when the closer he got he met Ye Xing's palm head on.

Pa

Once again Ye Qing flew upward, he finally tasted the same beating that Ye Hu received under Ye Qing.

Ye Xing taking the task at hand was ruthless, Ye Qing's body flew spinning by 720 degrees falling to the ground.

This time, Ye Qing's mouth was bleeding with his teeth flying out, this slap ended him, he could not get back up.

"Disgraceful!"

Within the pavilion, the great elder saw Ye Qing meet Ye Xing's slap causing him to fly, his eye sockets wanted to pop, his mind was filled with fury and could not help burst out.

Whoosh

In the time period of a wink, the great elder from inside the pavilion leapt out, as if a hawk snatching a small chick, he lunged to Ye Xing.

Nobody expected it, the great elder was the most supreme from all the elders, unexpectedly wanted to suddenly dispose Ye Xing, all were shocked.

No matter how the clan master Ye Fei Hong was also not able to react immediately.

Whoosh

However not everyone did not react, the third elder Ye Fei Ting almost in the same time as the great elder also leapt out of the pavilion.

“Do not try to face someone from the younger generation to vent your anger!”

Ye Fei Ting came over as Ye Tian Zhong shot out a palm to Ye Xing trying to swat him.

Pa

Ye Fei Ting blocked the palm however he needed to take 7 to 8 steps back to stop and spit out some blood.

Although Ye Fei Ting was a half-step in entering the 5th layer of Wudao, his inner is in the verge of entering his inner flesh, however he still after all is not a complete existence in the 5th layer of Wudao, compared to the great elder Ye Tian Zhong, the difference in strength is not small.

“Uncle!” Ye Xing supported Ye Fei Ting, casting an angry glance at Ye Tian Zhong, this old ignorant fool, he did not know how to conduct himself with dignity.

“Under the eyes of numerous people, you unexpectedly slapped Ye Qing on the face, humiliating my grandson, this old man cannot let you go without a lesson! ” Ye Tian Zhong’s anger did not dissipate, his anger was going to the heavens, he desired to set about this task.

“That’s enough!”

Ye Yunlong’s voice sounded out from inside the pavilion: “Ye Qing received a lesson, he brought upon the disaster to himself. Ye Xing won this competition, he is an elite in my Ye clan, he can follow me to Tian Cang City to the main family and pursue his studies.

The young master of the main family has spoken, Ye Tian Zhong could not dare be impudent, however in his mind he was unwilling, he felt wronged and wanted to spit out blood.

Ye Yunlong said: “Ye Qing is a 4th layer Wudao warrior, he can also follow me to the main family. In addition, the 3rd placer of the competition and the 4th placer also showed remarkable talent, they can also come!”

“Many thank young master!”

Ye Fei Hong was happy, normally the main family only gives 2 to 3 spots for those wanting to go, however this time Qing Ye Zhen actually got 4. This matter is obviously a happy occasion.

Furthermore, Ye Xing seized the first place for the competition, this made Ye Fei Hong in his heart happy.

Although his relationship with Ye Xing was not good, the goodness between the two was as thin as a cicada's wings, but he knew Ye Xing was a filial son. From childhood to now he was longing for importance, he only wanted him and Ye Xing's relationship to change. Ye Xing will surely disregard their former hatred, he will listen to his word.

(TL: I normally don't do this but, who the fuck does he think he is? Suddenly just cause mah boi Ye Xing be beastin' and feastin', he suddenly cares, what a tool! End of rant)

Ye Tian Zhong although he was not resigned to what happened, at this moment he had no choice but accept it and swallow his anger, he wanted to leave.

"Ye Tian Nan's offspring are not useless, Ye Xing you already are not the same person as you used to be, I have a new level of respect for you. In the future you need to continue striving harder, following your grandfather as a role model."

Ye Fei Ting pat Ye Xing's shoulders, in high spirits he spoke, afterwards he returned to the pavilion.

Someone immediately went to help Ye Qing to go down, Ye Xing also started to go to the edge of the platform.

Seeing Ye Xing arriving, everyone from the younger generation looked, there wasn't a disdainful look anymore, it was replaced with shock, reverence!

Liu Shuang Ling was in a daze looking at Ye Xing, in her heart her emotions were overturned filled with all kinds of flavors(idiom for a combination of different emotions), she was filled with regret.

In her mind, this fiance of hers was a cripple, it could be said he was worthless, that is why as a result she started dating Ye Qing. They had good plans, in the future demanding to withdraw the marriage proposal with Ye Xing, with Ye Qing taking his place.

This is due to the fact that Ye Qing was about to take the position of clan master, she wanted to be like her aunt Liu E, to become the Ye clan's clan lady!

But now at present, everything changed, Ye Qing met Ye Xing and was put to a stop, Ye Xing showed his strength and potential, everything that of Ye Qing's.

It is obvious and evident, the future clan master will not be Ye Qing!

As a result, Ye Qing's position in her mind took a dive, as well as the previous looked down upon Ye Xing, suddenly skyrocketed and became high.

"Luckily, our wedding engagement is still intact!"

Liu Shuang Ling in her mind rejoiced, she softly said: "In the mind of elder cousin I am a treasure, although at present he is a bit angry, however if I give him a fake expression, he surely still obediently listen to what I say, I will continue to stay as a treasured darling!”

Thinking of this, Liu Shuang Ling could not help curl the corner of her mouth.

“After the competition, go to the clan master’s reception hall!”Ye Qing came over and said one sentence to Liu Shuang Ling, finally Ye Feng showed up.

“Brother Xing, before I did not discover it, you actually were this ferocious, I will dyingly adore you!”

Ye Feng exaggeratingly called out, although when he met Ye Qing and got beaten up, he was already treated and recovered quite a bit, only unable to display his strength.

“Hey Hey..., what is this, you surely have not forgotten about me.” From not far away, a thought happily appeared in Liu Shuang Ling’s mind.

Very quickly, the Ye Feng and Liu Shuang Ling both received a lot of injuries from their opponents, after the competition Liu Shuang Ling got the third place while Ye Feng got the fourth.

Because this time the top four will be able to go to the main family, the family naturally increased the rewards, the top three did not change, however now until the tenth place got something.

Ye Xing received the first place reward, he got a middle grade medicinal ingredient, while Ye Qing and Liu Shuang Ling who both got second and third respectively both received precious lower grade medicine.

From the fourth place to the tenth place, each also got lower grade medicinal ingredients as a reward!

If the great elder Ye Tian Zhong was still here and saw Ye Xing receive the middle grade medicinal ingredient, he surely would have felt wronged and bullied.

The first place reward's value is over tens of thousand of silver taels of middle grade medicinal ingredients, however he was the one who actually proposed it, he even fought for it to happen, thinking that it would end up with his grandson Ye Qing!

The result was completely different, in the end it was Ye Xing who won!

As the competition drew to a close, Ye Qing arrived beside Liu Shuang Ling, Liu Shuang Ling however distanced herself and happily left for the clan mansion.

Ye Xing in contrast happily returned home, letting his young servant Xiao Qing prepare paper and ink, writing a big word "Stop".

Chapter 23: At ease

“Congratulations aunt, congratulations uncle...! Elder brother Ye Xing has amazed the clan and became a celebrity overnight. His skill was immovable like a mountain, no opponent could withstand him, this is truly worth celebrating. Shuang Ling earlier knew that elder brother Ye Xing’s bearing has been unusual, today it was confirmed elder brother Ye Xing was truly the hardest to handle..!”

In the Ye clan reception hall, Liu Shuang Ling in high spirits was speaking to Ye Fei Hong and Liu E, announcing the great news!

Ye Fei Hong at the site, naturally was clear about it, for a time he was completely astonished, as well as Liu E who also had her eyes shaking.

She just gave birth to a second child, in the middle of the month suddenly died, she suffered an immense strike, the passing days have been awful.

Nowadays hearing such a good news, her face flashed a bit of brilliance.

“Shuang Ling, what you said is the truth, Xing er has truly cultivated to the 3rd layer of Wudao, furthermore defeating Ye Qing in the 4th layer of Wudao?”

Liu E was still in disbelief, she couldn’t refrain from asking again.

"It is the truth, it has been seen by many, uncle also saw this, Ye Xing while in the Qingyun mountain range, encountered a fortuitous meeting, however I realized this cannot be, maybe he said this to save face. It cannot be avoided to be said, elder cousin Ye Xing truly shot up, he probably held it in not trying to show his abilities. How is elder cousin Ye Xing, I am really fond of him, hihi..!"

Liu Shuang Ling wrapped her arms on Liu E's arms, swaying it asking.

"En, what Shuang Ling has said is the truth, Xing er really hid it deeply, deceiving everyone, it is only today he revealed it, who could have known, he was already at this state!"

Ye Fei Hong stated.

On the face of Liu E a flash of vigor appeared, exposing a smile: "Good, good, Xing er finally has a future, my mind is at peace. The position of family head he can get, Fei Hong, when the day comes we can finally face grandfather and grandmother."

These days she was immersed in the sadness of Ye Chen dying sorrowfully, today it was joyous, her mood of sadness was now clearing off.

Ye Fei Hong went beside Liu E patting her shoulder:

"You gave me a good son, dad and mom would have been grateful if it wasn't too late, they would not blame you. In the past we ourselves have neglected Xing er, too much ignorance. From now on let us pay more attention to him, let us hope he does not bear any more grudge on us.”

“Hey..!”

Liu E recalled the time Ye Chen was born, she got all the drug ingredients from Ye Xing and gave them all to Ye Chen, in a breath: “Starting from now we must make up for what we did to Ye Xing, unfortunately, tomorrow with the young master he will leave for Tian Cang City...!”

After thinking about Ye Chen, Liu E’s son, she was once again filled with idle sadness, she asked: “Fei Hong, in the bottom of it, the death of Chen er, who has done it, has the investigation yielded any results? Have you found anything about Ye Tian Zhong?”

Ye Fei Hong shook his head, he let out a sigh: “I was mistaken about Ye Tian Zhong, Chen er’s death and him are unrelated, the young master brought information, the main family in Tian Cang City, as well as the other branches, a lot wanted him dead. There are too many people, it is too big of a situation, we can’t find the murderer.”

Liu frowned and said: “Don’t tell me someone wants to deal with the whole Ye clan?”

“Perhaps it is true, the Xiong clan in Tian Cang City is a big suspicion, my Ye clan has been growing stronger and stronger threatening the Xiong clan’s number one position in Tian Cang City...!”

Ye Fei Hong with a confused expression said: "In the event that the Xiong clan wants to deal with our Ye clan, to assassinate specific newly born babies, it basically serves no purpose. The prevention of the rise of the Ye clan seems like not to be under the hands of the Xiong clan, only if someone else did it, why would they, it truly stomps the mind."

After saying those words, Ye Fei Hong waved his hands and his expression wiped clean: "Well, Lady, Chen er already has left, we must not talk about him. Now Xing er has future prospects, the heavens have not cut short our road. In the future we must properly treat Xing er, he will be the next to serve as clan master, this will be enough and we can quietly live our later years."

Liu E nodded, the dead have already departed, now she must focus on those alive.

As for Ye Xing, it seems like before that he was a cripple, whether his parents cared for him or not, it was now all in the past...!

"Aunt, Uncle, going to the main family in Tian Cang City, I will surely take care of elder cousin Ye Xing. After coming back from the main family, his cultivation will surely rise up to another level, his strength will also become harder to deal with. Aunt Uncle, when that moment comes I ask of you two to take care of my and elder cousin Ye Xing's wedding ceremony. For a lifetime, I will only love elder cousin Ye Xing, only desiring to take care of elder cousin Ye Xing for a lifetime, also die with him with old age. In addition I want to give birth to a healthy son to give to elder cousin Ye Xing, so in the future someone will continue holding on to the position of clan master...!

Liu Shuang Ling spoke to Ye Fei Hong, Liu E heard what have been said regarding Ye Xing.

Ye Fei Hong and Liu E were extremely joyous after hearing what Liu Shuang Ling said, both were happy, Liu E looked dotingly at her niece, happily saying:

“Good, Good, Shuang Ling, we shall await your return from the main family in Tian Cang City, me and your uncle will be taking charge of the wedding ceremony. You soon will give Ye Xing a healthy and plump son, hehe...!

At this moment, Ye Xing by some lucky coincidence arrived inside the reception hall, hearing what Liu E has said. He came in saying: “Who said that I want to take her as a wife?”

Voice resounding, Ye Xing walked inside.

What Ye Xing has said went completely against Liu Shuang Ling’s expectations, the latter’s complexion immediately became white.

At the same time, Ye Fei Hong and Liu E’s brows both wrinkled, in Ye Fei Hong’s mind anger rose with instinct, his eyes were glaring.

However, he immediately thought, at present Ye Xing is not the former cripple with no future, as well as the need to fix their relationship with Ye Xing. Therefore as a result, Ye Fei Hong’s anger started to simmer down.

Liu E although before did not regard Ye Xing much, she still did not have a conflict with Ye Xing, their relationship was neutral:

“Xing er, Shuang Ling is your fiancée, you naturally would want to take her as your wife, otherwise who else will you take as a wife?”

Ye Xing indifferently smiled: “Fiancée? Before perhaps that was true, but starting from now, she isn’t.”

While speaking, Ye Xing went forward and took out a folded piece of paper and gave it to the hands of Liu Shuang Ling.

“Elder cousin Ye Xing, I...!”

Liu SHuang Ling acted like a spoiled child, however after opening the folded piece of paper and looking, her complexion suddenly became deathly white. Afterwards even with her usual spoiled act, she could not say anything.

On the paper there was something written, there was a big character, on both side of the big character were small characters: Ye Xing “BREAK”
Liu Shuang Ling!

“Elder cousin, you... you unexpectedly broke away from me?” Liu Shuang Ling could not dare believe it!

Looking at the divorce document, Ye Fei Hong and Liu E were both in a daze, this marriage was set up by them with the deceased parents of Liu Shuang Ling. It has been decided since they were children.

Now, Ye Xing unexpectedly in front of them broke it with Liu Shuang Ling? This... how is this possible?

"Xing er, this was made with your aunt and uncle, how can you break it off with Shuang Ling!"

Liu E with anger was shaking, Liu Shuang Ling was her niece and family member, she promised to her dying brother and his wife to take care of Shuang Ling, letting Shuang Ling become the wife of the future clan master.

"My life is for myself to see, since she is my fiancée, why can't I break it off? I thought of ceasing it, so I broke it!" Ye Xing indifferently stated.

"You are an unfilial son, you dare speak to your mother like that!" Ye Fei Hong's anger once again broke out, he raised his arm sending a slap to Ye Xing.

This time, Ye Xing no longer allowed Ye Fei Hong to motionlessly slap him, he dodged it saying:

"My good father, you cheerfully beat your son? Could it be that after the slap previously, you are still not satisfied, once again thinking about slapping? It seems like this is so, you thought I was leaving from here to go to Tian Cang City so you tried slapping me again!"

Ye Xing said this while facing directly at him.

"You..., you evil creature...!" Ye Fei Hong raised up his palm, trembling with anger, unable to send out another slap.

After a few breaths, Ye Fei Hong did not slap out, Ye Xing cupped his fist, paying respect to Ye Fei Hong: "The son give many thanks to the father for the favor of not slapping me, since this is the case, this son will now take his leave!"

After saying this, Ye Xing turned around and walked out.

"Elder cousin, cousin Ye Xing, you must not break it off with me, I will listen to you in the future, not anymore provoking you to anger. Elder cousin, I seek you... you must not break it off with me..."

As Ye Xing was leaving for the exit, Liu Shuang Ling suddenly came up, clinging to Ye Xing's arm.

She knew, she did not demand Ye Xing because she wanted to regain success in life, she wanted to fix it with Ye Xing, if she didn't she will not have the opportunity to become the clan lady.

Ye Xing did not feel like talking, he flung his arm, Liu Shuang Ling was unable to hold on. He continued with large strides, walking outwards.

From now on, he will have nothing to worry about, he has step foot to the road into becoming a peerless master, leaving with an imposing figure behind.

Looking at the upright as well as unfamiliar rear view of the figure, not only was it Liu Shuang Ling on the floor with a white complexion, Ye Fei

Hong and Liu E also were depressed with a lonely appearance!

Ye Xing in the end did not listen, they noticed that their distance with him was too far apart, it was too late.

Returning to his own home, Ye Xing was not feeling unwell at all, contrary to that, his mind now was carefree!

Tomorrow, he will set out on a journey, leaving for Tian Cang City. He will go to the vast and wide sky wandering the world, that place had strong martial arts for him.

From now on, the fish will leap out the vast ocean, the bird will fly through the high heavens!

As for the Ye clan in Qing Ye Zhen, his connection as parent and son with Ye Fei Hong and Liu is already non-existent.

However, when he arrived in Xing Chen Dalu, it was this place which was his starting point. This is the place where he first felt the stars, at last finally learning martial techniques, taking his first step in Wudao. In addition, he also got his chance to go to the main family of the Ye clan here.

He and this place has a connection!

He is not a vengeful person, starting from this day, he will strive to assist the Ye clan of Qing Ye Zhen, but not because he is the son of Ye Fei Hong; rather he is not a man that forgets favors!

The road in front of him is vast and wide, to become an exceptional expert is his goal, Ye Xing had great expectation, his mind was perfect, he also had the middle grade drug ingredient from being first place in the competition.

Chapter 24: At ease

This tree root of Chinese Foxglove Ginseng(it's a type of plant) is a middle grade drug ingredient, however it is on the lower quality boundary, it cannot compare to the previous medicine Ye Xing took which is the Red Blood Mushroom.

However, this middle grade Chinese Foxglove Ginseng drug ingredient, its medicinal energy is far from the lower grade drug ingredient. Regarding Ye Xing's cultivation breaking through the 4th layer of Wudao, turning into a genuine warrior, it has a great impact.

Ye Xing ate the Chinese Foxglove Ginseng, he then started to operate the Evergreen method, refining and absorbing it!

After experiencing the assimilation of the Red Blood Mushroom, Ye Xing's absorption rate of middle grade drug ingredients have been very rapid, his body is unceasingly strengthening itself.

As a 12 hour period passes by, Ye Xing's body was surging with energy as he was refining the drug ingredients energy, his cultivation once again was upgraded, already reaching the boundary of the 3rd layer of Wudao.

In addition, he was able to sense that his open five channels within his body, there was strength rushing forth, seemingly extremely formidable.

This was the Wudao inner strength!

Entering the 4th layer of Wudao, the criterion is to have 4 star rings within the dantian, however before that, first the inner strength must come out. This was the boundary, it is practically a half step into to the 4th layer of Wudao.

Ye Xing scanned his dantian, all three of the star rings were all very bright, they were indistinguishable, however the fourth star ring has yet to appear.

Ye Xing's cultivation upgraded extremely fast, his flesh alone is already very strong, however when all is said in done in a short period of time, there is still the difference of assimilating the star's power. To completely enter the 4th layer of Wudao, there is still a need for more time.

Medicine alone cannot stack up together, there is still the need to absorb the star's power, therefore self cultivation is also very important.

Ye Xing stopped cultivating, his mood was very good, if once again he was allowed to fight against Ye Qing, he does not necessarily need to use his surpassing mind, his brute strength alone is enough to beat the opponent.

Furthermore, after arriving in Tian Cang City's main group, he does not need to use a lot of time, cultivating and completely entering the 4th layer of Wudao is possible. When that time comes, he will become a genuine warrior, his strength will once again progress.

"In Qing Ye Zhen, I, Ye Xing is number one, in Tian Cang City, I will absolutely not be weak compared to the others!" Ye Xing said to himself in his mind.

“Young master, are you done cultivating?” As Ye Xing appeared to be finished cultivating, Xiao Qing walked in saying: “Young master, you did not eat your midday meal, you surely are hungry, quickly eat your evening meal!”

While cultivating he did not notice the time, at present it was already nightfall, Ye Xing completely missed the lunch period.

On the table, Xiao Qing already prepared the evening meal, it was very rich, you can see compared to the past that it has improved a lot.

Ye Xing absorbed the Chinese Foxglove Ginseng’s medicinal energy, contrary to one might expect he did not feel hungry, arriving at the table: “I cannot eat this much, Xiao Qing, you together with me should share eating this!”

Xiao Qing was suddenly somewhat embarrassed: “Young master, this was the clan head’s and clan lady’s command that you needed a nutritious banquet! I do not have such a blessing to eat!”

Ye Xing flicked her head: “I let you eat, you should feel at ease eating, how can you say so much more.”

“E..., young master, it will be my pleasure!” Xiao Qing was blinking, happily saying those words.

Very quickly, Xiao Qing added the tableware, however she has not began eating, she seems to recall something: "I almost forgot, young master, I spoke a bit with the clan master, wanting to tell you something."

"Say it!" Ye Xing nodded his head.

Xiao Qing said: "The clan master said, young master at last will be in the main family in Tian Cang City, he wanted you to be careful and on guard, you must not be arrogant and overbearing. Besides that, he wants you to pay attention to someone named Ye Wen Ying who is an elder, he said that the young masters that arrive in Tian Cang City that are taught by Ye Wen Ying, afterwards all become clan heads or clan elders. However if you do not get along with him, the clan master said that since the old clan elder died, everyone else from Qing Ye Zhen could not compare to him, he advises that you become cautious and do not provoke anyone. Furthermore, you must take note of Ye Wen Ying's grandson Ye Yun Kong, he is the main family's talented child in the younger generation, you must not strive for stubborn fights, you must concede to a certain degree. En, these are the things said by the clan master."

Ye Xing's eyebrows slightly raised: "It seems that as I go to Tian Cang City, it will also be hard to predict if it will be smooth and steady! Ai!"

As the early morning came and the first strands of sunshine came, two carriages from the Ye clan in Qing Ye Zhen departed.

There were two horse keepers, both are at 4th layer of Wudao and are genuine warriors, one came from the main family, while the other came from the Ye clan in Qing Ye Zhen.

In the first carriage, it was extremely luxurious, inside was the Ye clan main family young master Ye Yun Long as well as his sword ready to serve.

In the second carriage, compared to the other is rather ordinary, but it was also in comparison spacious, Ye Xing, Ye Feng, Ye Qing, Liu Shuang Ling were the four people, all of which was inside the carriage.

Inside the second carriage the atmosphere was somewhat odd, Liu Shuang Ling looked at Ye Xing, filled with hidden bitterness. Ye Qing looked at Liu Shuang Ling, he was feeling a bit unfulfilled, after looking at Ye Xing he was filled with fury.

Ye Feng inside the carriage was feeling embarrassed at the atmosphere, he obviously is the type of person who did not want to get involved, in his mind he was somewhat nervous, fearing that these three people might suddenly decide to start fighting!

Among the four people, the person who had a constant expression was only Ye Xing, he was not feeling like caring about Ye Qing and Liu Shuang Ling's gazes, what is it with this mood.

As he saw the Ye clan mansion getting farther and farther away, he felt like he was a prisoner finally allowed to fly free, finally flying on the vast wide sky.

His mood was very good!

The distance between Qing Ye Zhen and Tian Cang City is more than hundreds of li, Qing Ye Zhen was part of a mountainous area, the road was not smooth, the carriage is always shaking, to arrive to Tian Cang City a whole day is needed.

Ye Feng was evidently anxious which was clearly showing.

Ye Qing was afraid of Ye Xing's strength, even if his mind was burning, he did not dare provoke Ye Xing, Liu Shuang Ling as well does not dare to bother him, he did not have any way of dealing with the situation.

Although Liu Shuang Ling wanted Ye Xing to be closer, but she knew Ye Xing's feelings, she also had her own pride, she did not want to lose face in front of Ye Feng and Ye Qing, when she tries trying to seek Ye Xing.

Therefore, Ye Xing, Liu Shuang Ling, Ye Qing, these three people all inside the carriage, did not interact with each other.

After the initial tension, Ye Feng started to feel relieved, he then started to converse with Ye Xing who was beside him, the two of them were chatting cheerfully, while the other two Ye Qing and Liu Shuang Ling were at the side sulking.

En route, there was a small meal, then the carriage continued its way to Tian Cang City.

The endless journey finally draws to a close, when nightfall came, the carriage came from a mountain peak, in front of it not too far away appeared a huge city.

It was Tian Cang City, compared with Qing Ye Zhen, it was not limited to being ten times bigger.

The Ye clan in Tian Cang City was a first class aristocratic power, taking up a huge area. There was a straight path which the carriage used to enter Tian Cang City, after which they entered the Ye clan territory.

“This one is Ye Wei Hong the attendant, a warrior at the 5th layer of Wudao, he will bring you people to your residences!”

Entering the Ye clan courtyard, there was an attendant who welcomed them, Ye Yun Long instructed them then started to part ways with Ye Xing.

As well as Ye Wei Hong, who brought them to a separate area, en route there was a show of strength:

“You people are inside the clan, perhaps you guys have talent, perhaps you are the child of a clan master, all of these are indication of one’s outstanding talent, your whole life you have been aloof and proud. However, in the end you are now in the main family, all your advantages no longer exists, son of a clan master? A person with great talent? Here there are a lot of those, there is little value in being a child of a clan master, having great talent, in here, you are ordinary, part of the younger generation. You should drop the habits of being aloof which is terrible, the main family has its rules and customs, all of which you must follow and comply. If you were to stir up trouble, creating disorder to the established standard, there is no lack of methods in punishing you, you should know of this...!”

“We are aware...!” The four people did not dare go against Ye Wei Hong, all of them respectfully replied.

Before, the four with regard with the Ye clan main family, all they knew were things they heard, they never had a direct idea of it, but now they have.

In Qing Ye Zhen, a 5th layer of Wudao warrior, there was only two of them in position, one was the clan head Ye Fei Hong, the other was the great elder Ye Tian Zhong.

In the Ye clan main family, such a person is merely an attendant, a cultivation of 5th layer of Wudao, it can be seen that such people are many in the main family.

The elders of the Ye clan main family, certainly have very high cultivation's, at the least being in the 6th layer of Wudao.

It goes as far as in the Ye clan main family, long ago they heard there was a 7th layer great master!

In comparison to the branch family in Qing Ye Zhen, the Ye clan main family in Tian Cang City, the difference is simply colossus, the disparity and gap in strength, the distance can be said to be more than ten times.

Ye Wei Hong brought the four to a big courtyard, on the gateway there was something written, Fen Zu Yuan.

In Fen Zu Yuan, there were a lot of small courtyards, there was the Qing Sang Yuan, Tian Shui Yuan, Bai Yi Yuan and many more.

Inside some small courtyards, the younger generation that already arrived have already resided in them, seeing Ye Xing arrive and the others arrive, many were looking.

Before long, they arrived in a small courtyard named Qing Ye Yuan, which was obviously established for Qing Ye Zhen.

Ye Wei Hong did not enter the courtyard, halting outside of it he said: "This Qing Ye Yuan is the place you people will reside in, inside there are four rooms, one for each person, you must rest from the tiring journey. Tonight you will rest for a day, tomorrow early morning, you will go to the plaza of Fen Zu Yuan and gather, you must not be late."

After speaking Ye Wei Hong walked away, Ye Xing and the others entered, each selected one room, very quickly they changed, their daily needs and meal for the night came.

Ye Xing stayed inside the room, not much time passed and Ye Feng came to look for him, they spoke of the likes of Ye Wen Ying and Ye Yun Kong, clearly Ye Fei Ting to some extent told him a few things.

"We will not take the initiative to quarrel, but there is no need to be afraid, just do good for yourself. If someone as expected wants to bully us, we can only fight back, we must let the people know, we are not to be provoked!"

Ye Xing pat Ye Feng's shoulders saying those words.

After Ye Feng left, Ye Xing began to cultivate the Evergreen method, he almost is arriving to the 4th layer of Wudao, when that time comes, even if he confronts an arrogant child from the main family, he will have nothing to fear.

The first night arriving in the main family of Tian Cang City, it was very peaceful and calm!

The next day at dawn, Ye Xing and the others already were out of bed, putting on the clothes of the main family, arriving at the plaza in Fen Zu Yuan.

Chapter 25: Test

Outside Fen Zu Yuan there is the plaza, numerous teenagers have gathered.

There were about 200 people, about half of which are from the younger generation of family, the other half are from within the range of power of the main family in Tian Cang City, which were recruited as external disciples.

It is a very big clan, if it was thought that the development and prosperity has slowed down, it is only needed that more fresh blood is acquired, no matter if one is from the younger generation of the clan, or an external disciple, as long as you have talent, it is deserved to have a chance to cultivate.

Of course, naturally the more important ones are those members of the family themselves, therefore in the Ye clan main family, the main family younger generation is given more importance, then the branch members, the last are the external disciples.

This time there is a recruitment of new disciples, the difference between the branch members, external disciples and the main family younger generation, is that some cultivated really early.

In the plaza, there are many youngsters, at this time one can see the main family, they were looking down on other people.

Ye Wei Hong was in front 200 people receiving them, beside him was an elderly man of about 60 years old, he gave Ye Xing a feeling of extreme danger.

Ye Xing was certain, ever since he came to Xing Chen Dalu, he has never encountered such a strong warrior, even if he was to compare Ye Yun Long to this man, he is comparably weak when put together.

This must be an existence of a 6th layer of Wudao, Ye Xing used his surpassing mind to scan him, surely enough he was at the 6th layer of Wudao.

“Everyone from the younger generation, starting from today, you all will officially become disciples of the Ye clan in Tian Cang City. From now on, the Ye clan’s reputation will be your reputation, the Ye clan’s humiliation will be your humiliation, you must remember, you will forever be with the Ye clan!”

Ye Wei Hong said aloud: “Now say it once more!”

“All we do is with the Ye clan!” Everyone in the younger generation shouted!

“The voices are too weak...!” Ye Wei Hong roared like thunder.

“All we do is with the Ye clan!” Everyone in the younger generation roared!

“Say it once more!”

“All we do is with the Ye clan!”

Ye Wei Hong was finally satisfied, he nodded and he said: “Good, you all must remember what you said today, from now on, whoever dares to harm the Ye clan’s affair, you all will become enemies!”

After Ye Wei Hong spoke with the everyone in the younger generation, he introduced the old man: “This man is elder Ye Wen Ying, he is in charge with the cultivation of new disciples, I ask elder Ye Wen Ying to speak.”

Ye Xing and Ye Feng blinked with their eyes, they looked at each other face to face, today at last they are in the Ye clan main family for the first day, unexpectedly they already meet elder Ye Wen Ying.

To one’s surprise Ye Wen Ying was in charge of the cultivation of the new disciples, Ye Xing and Ye Feng both in their minds felt this was not a good premonition.

Ye Xing and Ye Feng only barely turned their heads, Ye Wen Ying’s two eyes suddenly stared at them, his vision was practically like that of an eagle.

Ye Wen Ying took a step forward saying: “First of all, this old man represents the Ye clan, I welcome you all in the younger generation in becoming a member. Secondly, this old man wants to warn you all, no matter how amazing you all are, be it a dragon or a tiger, finally in the main family, you all must abide the rules, if anyone dares to challenge my prestige, this old man will give you an unforgettable memory!”

Pausing, Ye Wen Ying continued to say: "The ye clan is a large influential clan, there are regulations, there are clear rewards and punishments, the resources are limited, there also is numerous people, my Ye clan does not go for mediocrity, only attaching importance to the elite! Next, you all will conduct a test, six stars or more, you can meet with an elder to become a disciple, the main focus is to nurture. Five stars, one can everyday cultivate, for four stars, you will be assigned to separate branches, completing daily work, now the testing will begin!"

While Ye Wen Ying spoke, an attendant placed a block of stone in front of the plaza.

The whole stone was dark, in the middle there was a notch, to the side there were stars, altogether there were nine stars.

"This is the Blood Life Rock, we will begin from the left side, announce your name, history, age, cultivation, then drop blood on the middle of the Blood Life Rock inside the notch, so we can measure all of your mandate of heaven(I think this refers to destiny, meaning like the talent a person can reach or possesses), this will decide the treatment and harvest you all will get as criterion!"

Ye Wen Ying waved his hands said.

"Ye Yu Heng, coming from Qing Sang Zhen, 14 years old, 3rd layer of Wudao!"

The first youngster from the left side arrived at the Blood Life Stone, loudly speaking, after biting his finger, he dripped his blood on the notch in the middle of the Blood Life Rock.

Very quickly, on the Blood Life Rock the stars began to be filled with a scarlet color rays of light, one... two... finally there were five bright lights!

“Qing Sang Zhen, Ye Yu Heng, five star mandate of heaven.” Ye Wei Hong declared Ye Yu Heng’s aptitude, beside him was an attendant that recorded it.

“Ye Yu Feng, coming from Qing Sang Zhen, 16 years old, 4th layer of Wudao!”

“Qing Sang Zhen, Ye Yu Feng, four star mandate of heaven!” Ye Wei Hong announced.

“Tian Shui Zhen, Ye Yi Dao, four star mandate of heaven...!”

“Tian Shui Zhen, Ye Yi Jian, four star mandate of heaven...!”

“Bai Yi Zhen, Ye Bai Sheng, fourstar mandate of heaven...!”

“Bai yi Zhen, Ye Bai Wan, five star mandate of heaven...!”

.....

The test for the younger generation began, very quickly ten from the younger generation took the test.

Their mandate of heaven, majority of it were four stars, a small number of it was five stars, as for above five stars, it is the same as those below four stars, there were none.

“Qian Niu Zhen, Ye Man, six star mandate of heaven...!”

When the 49th youngster took the test the outcome came, suddenly in the plaza there was exclamations of admiration.

The test up to now, this is the only six star mandate of heaven!

The eyes of Ye Wen Ying both let out energy: Good, Ye Man, this old man desires for you to become a disciple, are you willing?”

With two eyes of admiration, the youngster Ye Man had the look of exultation, on the spot he paid respect to Ye Wen Ying: “The disciple pays respect to the master!”

Ye Wen Ying with satisfaction nodded: "Good, afterwards the test of strength, you do not need to participate on it, you must return and fix you things, you will live on this old man's residence, you can have someone bring you!"

With everyone having the look of envy in their eyes, Ye Man left.

Six star mandate of heaven, even if it was someone from the younger generation of the main family, you can count them with your fingers, he is bound to be a genius.

This time, someone came out who was Ye Man, no one else in the younger generation came out with a six star mandate of heaven, majority were in the four stars, the five stars were even less.

"Ye Xing, coming from Qing Ye Zhen, 16 years old, 3rd layer of Wudao!" In a short time, it was ye Xing's turn, he was the first place in Qing Ye Zhen's competition.

Ye Xing still did not drip blood, he just recently started cultivating, with his age, other youngsters were sneering at him.

16 years old at the 3rd layer of Wudao, in comparison to the five star mandate of heaven, this qualification is pretty bad.

All the youngsters were sneering, Ye Xing sensed a sharp gaze, he swept his vision, it was precisely Ye Wen Ying.

Whether it was the juveniles sneering, or if it was Ye Wen Ying's severe gaze, Ye Xing remained unmoved, his expression was constant. He bit his finger, then dripped his blood on the Blood Life Stone.

Soon, on the Blood Life Stone the stars issued out bright rays of red lights, one.. two.., after that the third one twinkled a bit then it immediately died out.

"Two.. two star mandate of heaven?" Ye Wei Hong announced and he was surprised!

One to three star mandate of heaven, this indicated a low class mandate of heaven, when the Ye clan recruited its disciples, it was hard to predict when a three star will appear, as for a two star mandate of heaven, such a thing has never appeared!

To be capable of being selected to go to the main family, and all from the branch families having a bit of talent, how is it possible he only has a two star mandate of heaven?

In terms of aptitude there were two aspects, one is connecting with the stars, the other is the mandate of heaven, the mandate of heaven refers to the health of a body!

Ye Xing remained silent, his soul is himself, but the body originated from the old owner, he knew the aptitude of the old owner was awful, but he didn't expect it to be this bad, not only could he not connect with the stars, not being able to interact with the stars, unexpectedly his mandate of heaven is also only two stars!

YeWei Hong announced the results, everyone sneering bursted out laughing, before the test, the worst was merely at the four star mandate of heaven, two star mandate of heaven? This simply is a trash existence!

“No wonder, at 16 years old, he is only at the 3rd layer of Wudao!”

“How was he chosen to go to the main family? Don’t tell me taht Qing Ye Zhen is uninhabited?”

Many other of the younger generation sneered and ridiculed.

Ye Feng, Ye Qing, Liu Shuang Ling were all amazed, somewhat they cannot dare believe, Ye Xing in Qing Ye Zhen in the Ye clan competition was outstanding, unexpectedly he is only at the 2 star mandate of heaven?

If this was sent back in Qing Ye Zhen, who will be convinced?

Ye Xing has a mature spirit, he did not feel as if he lost face, besides, he did not feel that his mandate of heaven was this low, he felt that his connection with the stars is extremely out of the ordinary. As well as his aptitude, his connection and mandate of heaven has potential!

Also, his cultivation speed is also proof of this, two star mandate of heaven, it is not at all awful!

In everyone’s mind there was ridicule, Ye Xing walked then someone said : “Who is your father?”

Ye Xing stopped his footsteps, looking at Ye Wen Ying he said: "Ye Fei Hong."

Ye Wen Ying suddenly laughed: So it turns out you are the grandson of Ye Tian Nan, hahaha..., Ye Tian Nan ah Ye Tian Nan, your unjust six star mandate of heaven, unexpectedly what came out was a two star mandate of heaven trash in the younger generation, ridiculous, indeed very funny, haha...!"

Seeing Ye Wen Ying laughing with madness, Ye Xing asked: "Elder, a low mandate of heaven means you are trash?"

Ye Wen Ying didn't expect Ye Xing will ask him, he was stumped, immediately he shouted: "Low mandate of heaven, without a doubt it is rubbish!"

Ye Xing shook his head saying: "This younger generation does not understand, this youngster feels that low strength is what make someone trash!"

Ye Wen Ying in his mind felt speechless, even if he just ridiculed this youngster in front of everyone, having heard what he just said he could not help but stare, suddenly he sowed discontent.

"Humph! Two star mandate of heaven trash, you dare speak of strength!" At this moment a voice of disdain came from the crowd.

The person who spoke was from Bai Yi Zhen clan branch, he was Ye Bai

Yuan, 16 years old, his cultivation reaching the pinnacle of the 4th layer of Wudao, he was a new disciple, his cultivation was the highest.

After Ye Bai Yuan spoke, a few laughed with agreement, all of them were the ones that had five star mandate of heaven talent, as for everyone else, they all approved of what Ye Xing said.

If low mandate of heaven meant trash, in that case in comparison to those at the five star mandate of heaven, doesn't that mean that they are also trash?

No, definitely not! What Ye Xing said is what was in the bottom of their hearts, low strength meant that you are trash!

Some of those that had four star mandate of heaven, did not feel weaker than those at the five star mandate of heaven!

Chapter 26: Test

In comparison to the test by Ye Xing, the test's afterwards did not have anything special, there was no disturbance.

Very quickly, apart from Ye Xing, there wasn't a two star or below four star mandate of heaven!

Merely, Ye Feng, Ye Qing, Liu Shuang Ling, due to coming from Qing Ye Zhen, all of them took the attention of Ye Wen Ying. Most especially Ye Feng, asking if he was the grandson of Ye Tian Nan, this was the train of thought of Ye Wen Ying.

The test of the branch families younger generation, as well as the people outside the family, in terms of quality there was quite a difference on the younger generation, out of the hundred or more people, there were only two with five star mandate of heaven, the rest were overwhelmingly four star mandate of heaven, there were also a few three star mandate of heaven.

As for the two star mandate of heaven, as before there is only one, not a single more, and Ye Xing was the sole one!

In the Ye clan aptitude test, they can only measure the mandate of heaven, as for the astrology(referring to the connection with the stars I think), here was no standard, therefore the height of the aptitude, naturally is based on the mandate of heaven.

After testing the aptitude, there was a strength test!

“The following test will be about your strength, there will be two disciples from the main family that will test you, to examine if you are capable of being a disciple in the main family, you must persevere to be recruited!” Ye Wei Hong proclaimed.

Strength test, regarding everyone in the younger generation's status this will have no importance, the reason why there is such a test, is to let these disciples be taught a lesson by the main family senior apprentices, to show the disparity in strength, to avoid people from not obeying and being disciplined.

These people after all are new disciples, each coming from different regions, all of them being the best from their origins, it was hard to avoid being arrogant, it is necessary that they kill this arrogance.

As Ye Wei Hong spoke, there were two youngsters that walked over, at the right side was older of age, at around 15 to 16 years old, at the left side was younger of age, around 13 to 14 years old, both looked at the branch family younger generation and the outside disciples sweeping their gaze, on their face was an obvious proud expression!

As they were approaching, Ye Wei Hong said: “These are exactly the two that are main family disciples that will test your strength, at the right his name is Ye Yun Tao, 16 years old, cultivation at the pinnacle of the 4th layer of Wudao. At the left side is Ye Yun Fan, 14 years old, cultivation at the pinnacle of the 3rd layer of Wudao, both are proud disciples of elder Ye Wen Ying!”

Out of the new disciples that are being received, there were 3rd layer of Wudao, there were 4th layer of Wudao, in the event that they are to be tested in strength, they dispatched a 4th layer and 3rd layer disciple to completely steamroll others, there was no other reason. Both disciples that were sent were capable of suppressing those at the 4th layer of Wudao, therefore they were both sent out.

Since Ye Wen ying was in charge of the cultivation of the new disciples, in that case, the test of strength of the new disciples is his job, naturally his disciples were chosen for the task.

Ye Yun Tao and Ye Yun Fan walked over, first they gave salutations to Ye Wen Ying, afterwards they greeted Ye Wei Hong.

Ye Wen Ying faced the two and nodded, afterwards Ye Yun Fan started to move, he quickly stepped and was in front of Ye Wen Ying.

Ye Wen Ying in a soft voice whispered over a sentence to Ye Yun Fan’s ear, his gaze looking at Ye Xing and Ye Feng’s body, sweeping his glance.

Ye Yun Fan repeatedly nodded, the corner of his mouth faintly curved up, exposing a savage expression, his gaze also swept over Ye Xing and Ye Feng.

Ye Xing’s two eyes scanned, he clearly saw the actions of the two, the corner of his mouth also exposed a smiling expression.

Ye Feng in the contrary had an expression of nervousness, although he did not see the meaningful glance of Ye Wen Ying and Ye Yun Fan, also not knowing the words they spoke to each other, however it was obvious, him and Ye Xing should not be meddlesome.

Ye Wen hing gave the beginning signal, Ye Wei Hong grandly spoke: "The strength test will now begin, those at the 4th layer of Wudao, you will face Ye Yun Tao for guidance, those at the 3rd layer of Wudao, you will face Ye Yun Fan for guidance, we will see how long you can persevere, as before we will start from the left side, one by one you will come!"

"Ye Yu Heng, 3rd layer of Wudao! Please advice this apprentice!" Ye Yu Heng as before is the first one to go on stage, walking over in front of Ye Yun Fan.

"I will give you all a lesson, to let you know, the difference of being the main family disciple!" Ye Yun Fan walked over.

"Begin!"

As Ye Wei Hong spoke, Ye Yun Fan immediately pointed his finger, putting in too full use unexpectedly a middle grade martial art Mountain Splitting Palm!

In barely two moves, Ye Yu Heng meeting against Ye Yun Fan a palm sent him flying, falling on the ground unable to stand back up.

Since there is a desire to show the new disciples the disparity in strength, naturally there was no gentleness in the slightest.

The second to come in stage was Ye Yu Feng, who was at the 4th layer of Wudao, his opponent is also at the 4th layer of Wudao Ye Yun Tao!

Ye Yu Feng's circumstances compared to Ye Yu Heng was not any better in the slightest, also on two moves Ye Yun Tao caused him to fly, also unable to climb back up.

One by one the new disciples went up the stage, each of the branch members were the best in talent, they had the same realm as Ye Yun Tao and Ye Yun Fan correspondingly, the overwhelming majority did not last three moves, those that reached at the least five moves were tiny in number.

Although Ye Yun Tao and Ye Yun Fan had cultivation's at the pinnacle of 4th and 3rd layer of Wudao, their martial arts played a big factor, compared with the branch family younger generation they surpassed them by a lot.

Soon one by one the new disciples were suffering defeat, all the new disciples showed expressions of shock, the strength of the main family disciples really was awfully strong and there was a big difference.

This display of strength was very effective!

.....

Bai Yi Zhen's Ye Bai Yuan after being on stage, all the new disciples were crying out in alarm, under Ye Yun Tao he lasted ten moves.

Beforehand, no matter who it was, whether it was Ye Yun Tao or Ye Yun Fan, all did not last ten moves.

Ye Bai Yuan at the fifteenth move was defeated at the hands of Ye Yun Tao, but there were only light injuries, his face was filled with a happy expression, he swept his gaze at the other new disciples, he was quite pleased of himself.

Ye Bai Yuan after going on stage, he was above most of the new disciples, no one lasted ten moves, whereas he reached fifteen moves.

“Ye Xing, 3rd layer of Wudao, please advice this apprentice!” After Ye Bai Yuan, there weren't others worth mentioning.

Ye Yun Fan's gaze was bright, there was a savage smile on his face while he walked over.

“This was the two star mandate of heaven trash, just a moment ago you dared talking about strength, do you have a lot of strength? Hei Hei...! I see that you will only last one move!”

Meeting Ye Xing on stage, Ye Bai Yuan sarcastically spoke.

“Senior brother Bai Yuan eyes is like a torch, sensitive to the tiniest detail, absolutely did not misjudge!”

“En, just a moment ago the result was a two star mandate of heaven, he also used strength as an excuse, not it’s the strength test, there isn’t anymore excuse...!”

.....

Ye Bai Yuan’s show of strength gave all the new disciples astonishment, many people started to bootlick him,

The rest of the new disciples, even though they did not bootlick Ye Bai Yuan, however they still agreed with Ye Bai Yuan’s opinion.

Only those from Qing Ye Zhen like Ye Feng, Ye Qing, Liu Shuang Ling showed weird expressions.

Everyone was giving their comments, Ye Xing already arrived in front of Ye Yun Fan, immediately a palm shot out.

Mountain Splitting Palm!

When Ye Wei Hong proclaimed the start of the match, in a moment Ye Yun Fan made a big stride forward, this palm was going towards Ye Xing's face.

As the palm approached there was strong winds, there were echoing sounds, Ye Yun Fan towards Ye Xing took matters into his hands, it was obvious in comparison to the others this palm was filled with strong energy.

Confronting Ye Yun Fan's all out strength, Ye Xing appeared to be very calm, as if he was taking a stroll forward, he used his Bone Crushing Fist, conveniently waving a fist.

Bone Crushing Fist?

All the new disciples upon seeing this, their eyes seemingly fell to the ground, Ye Xing unexpectedly did not employ a martial skill, instead merely using the bone strengthening Bone Crushing Fist?

How can he resist Ye Yun Fan's Mountain Splitting Palm? The Mountain Splitting Palm is a middle grade martial skill!

If some were to say that Ye Xing will lose to Ye Yun Fan in just one move, seeing it firsthand, they in their mind already believed in it.

However the outcome, nevertheless was against everyone's expectation.

Pa

There was a loud sound, fist and palm collided together, both were revoked, Ye Xing's body did not move even half a step back!

Contrary to one might expect, Ye Yun Fan felt frightful strength attack him, he could not help but retreat a step back!

Don't tell me that my eyesight already started to blur?

All the new disciples in their eyes did not dare believe what they saw, some even started to rub their eyes.

However, their eyes did not make a mistake, Ye Yun Fan truly after meeting with Ye Xing's fist retreated a step!

Let alone the disciples, even Ye Wei Hong and Ye Wen Ying from the elder generation, on their face appeared an alarmed expression.

Ye Wen Ying's expression could not be described, with a cold snort: "Did you not eat? How come there is little strength!"

was the first time.

He himself did not dare believe this result, recalling everything in his mind, his eyes exposed a savage thought.

Branch Vein Hand!

Ye Yun Fan loudly shouted, once again dashing towards Ye Xing.

This was the first time he put to full use the Branch Vein Hand, it was also a middle grade martial skill, however compared to the Mountain Splitting Palm, it was much more vicious, this middle grade move can create disorder in the tendons and veins, giving a serious repercussion.

Even so much so that it can fracture a channel, completely handicapping the person.

Ye Xing's expression turned cold, his opponent unexpectedly used a ruthless martial art, it can only be found in the main family, his opponent was a disciple of the main family, Ye Xing in his mind had anger, but it did not flare out.

Ye Yun Fan's attack trajectory, did not escape Ye Xing's two eyes, his body flashed, one by one he avoided the Branch Vein Hand going his way.

It seems that Ye Xing, has already lasted more than ten moves, his opponent has still yet to hit him, he naturally restrained the attacks.

Ten moves... fifteen moves... twenty moves...

Ye Yun Fan simply did not show any indication of stopping his attacks, instead it became more and more rapid, getting more and more fierce.

Each and everyone of the new disciples looked with fear in their hearts, even if Ye Xing was the one fighting Ye Yun Fan, already persevering for more than twenty moves, they all started to ignore it.

Now, all the new disciples started to worry, looking at Ye Yun Fan's expression, how can this be testing Ye Xing's strength, he simply wants to kill Ye Xing.

Even the buddha was somewhat angry! For Ye Xing to dodge Ye Yun Fan's twenty moves, with the opponent being overbearing, Ye Xing's rage and fury broke out!

"Get lost!"

Ye Xing shouted loudly, the Bone Crushing Fist displayed was about 70 to 80 percent of its power, a ferocious fist exploded out.

In a blink of an eye Ye Xing's fist collided with the palm of Ye Yun Fan, there was a miserable shriek, suddenly there was an image of a man flying out!

Chapter 27: To beat face

Ye Xing stood untouched!

Issuing out a scream, the one sent flying was Ye Wen Ying's disciple Ye Yun Fan!

Aside from Ye Qing, Ye Feng, Liu Shuang Ling, who long all long ago predicted this outcome, the rest of the new disciples all without exception were startled, they were stunned.

Ye Yun Fan possessed great strength, all the new disciples felt that no one in the 3rd layer of Wudao will be able to last ten moves, the overwhelming majority in three to five moves all suffered defeat.

However, in this way Ye Yun Fan was powerful, still Ye Xing with one fist explosively sent him flying!

This led all the other new disciples have a hard time believing it, a few were not convinced what their eyes have just seen!

Pa

Ye Yun Fan flew out for about more than a dozen meters, he fell to the ground, rolling around for a bit, he stopped exactly on the feet of Ye Wen Ying!

At the side, Ye Yun Tao was looking distracted on the spot, he could not help but rub his eyes.

As well as Ye Wen Ying, looking at Ye Yun Fan right at his feet, there was as if a black cloud on his face, on his eyes anger was blazing.

He intentionally explained to Ye Yun Fan, coming across Ye Xing from Qing Ye Zhen, as well as Ye Feng, he must take care of them, fiercely putting them in their place.

The outcome, there was not even a thread of injury on Ye Xing, Ye Yun Fan instead with just one fist from Ye Xing was sent flying right in front of Ye Wen Ying.

What is this? This simply is a hit on the face of Ye Wen Ying!

However, Ye Wen Ying was unable to flare up, at the present in this test Ye Xing was clearly ahead of everyone, this new will travel around. Ye Yun Fan going against Ye Xing with a fist was sent flying, this was proof that Ye Xing had great strength, Ye Yun Fan is unable to test Ye Xing in terms of strength.

“The younger generation believes that low strength is what makes someone trash!”

Ye Wen Ying in his mind remembered what Ye Xing has said not too long ago, his expression turned surly like water!

He was going to use Ye Xing's two star mandate of heaven at first to make him look like trash, however Ye Xing used reality as his proof, Ye Wen Ying's disciple was the real trash!

Ye Yun Fan's palm were aching dully, he did not pay as much attention to his injuries, after seeing Ye Wen Ying's gloomy expression, his face started to bloat like a big.

"Ye Xing, I will cripple you...!"

Ye Yun Fan sensed the anger from Ye Wen Ying, in his mind he started to get scared, he put all the blame to Ye Xing, crawling back up he shouted, once again trying to dash towards Ye Xing.

"Stop!" Ye Wen Ying coldly shouted.

With his eyesight, previously Ye Xing avoided the attacks, then counterattacked, plainly with a fist Ye Yun Fan was flying, he already saw that Ye Xing strength was far from a martial disciple.

Ye Yun Fan once again rushed up, there was only going to be one outcome, he for a second time will be knocked down by Ye Xing, it was inviting him to be disgraced, at the same time also making him lose face.

Ye Wen Ying spoke, Ye Yun Fan did not dare disobey, his body stood at his original place, Ye Wen Ying angrily spoke: "People that are trash, go to hell!"

Ye Yun Fan resentfully looked at Ye Xing, he silently spoke, withdrawing himself.

"Elder, you saw the strength of two star mandate of heaven, is that not enough?" Ye Xing smiled at Ye Wen Ying.

He looked at Ye Wen Ying's expression, he knew this business was not over, this elder will unlikely let him off.

Since this is the case, Ye Xing also did not need to pretend in facing him, if he just exited, this will only swell his thick skinned face!

Ye Wen Ying coldly spoke: "It seems that you have confidence in your own strength, you should at once let Ye Yun Tao give you directions! Ye Yun Tao..."

Ye Yun Tao took a step forward, his eyes showed fierce intentions: "Disciple is here!"

Ye Wen Ying said: "Give this cocky kid a lesson, let him deeply know the main family disciple strength!"

"Yes sir!"

Ye Yun Tao laughed, coming over to Ye Xing, as he was walking he gave a nod to Ye Yun Fan: "Junior brother Yun Fan, I will give this boy a lesson."

As a 4th layer of Wudao pinnacle warrior, even if Ye Xing showed great strength above that of a martial disciple, but Ye Yun Tao still did not put him on his eyes.

Ye Yun Tao laughed with disdain, he regarded Ye Xing as worthless!

All the new disciples were silent, a pinnacle 4th layer Wudao warrior Ye Yun Tao was about to give Ye Xing a lesson, it seems that Ye Xing will be ruthlessly sorted out!

Even though Ye Qing, Ye Feng, Liu Shuang Ling knew of Ye Xing's extreme strength, they also felt Ye Xing was not Ye Yun Tao's opponent.

After all, Ye Xing defeating Ye Qing, he was only at the initial stage at the 4th layer of Wudao, Ye Yun Tao was at the pinnacle, if Ye Qing and Ye Yun Tao were to fight, he would only last two moves.

Three people had varying expressions, Ye Feng with regards Ye Xing was anxious, his look was nervous, it was different for Ye Qing and Liu Shuang Ling, the fact is Ye Xing will be sorted out, they were taking joy in his calamity.

Also taking joy in the calamity was Ye Bai Yuan, beforehand he ridiculed Ye Xing as a worthless person, boasting that Ye Xing under the hands of Ye Yun Fan will only last one move. The result however was Ye Xing beating their face.

Now, he was taking pleasure seeing Ye Xing meeting Ye Yun Tao and being sorted out!

"Hei Hei..., certain people have the impertinence to injure a main family disciple, extremely arrogant, should be sorted out!"

Ye Bai Yuan spoke mockingly, there was silence between the new disciples, that is why it was clearly heard.

Ye Yun Tao's corner of the mouth curved up showing a smiling expression, he regarded what Ye Bai Yuan have said as something pleasant to hear, his inner meridians started to operate, his pinnacle 4th layer of Wudao cultivation was completely exposed, there was surging matchless vigor, coming towards Ye Xing to crush him.

Even if Ye Xing was 20 meters away from all the new disciples, looking at Ye Yun Tao all started to feel a collapsing mountain was coming over, it is obvious that in front of Ye Xing, just how big of a pressure was he experiencing?

However, Ye Xing was standing like a javelin completely straight, as if he was a genuine mountain, as the gailing attack was coming over, he was motionless like a mountain.

Ye Xing appeared to be very calm, Ye Yun Tao was imposing and oppressive, his manner did not have any effect at all.

Seeing Ye Xing taking all the pressure, not at all being affected, Ye Yun Tao showed a displeased expression, he coldly snorted, he took a big stride causing him to arrive in front of Ye Xing, sending a fist out.

Middle grade martial skill Roaring Tiger Fist!

One fist, there was whooshing sounds, it was as if a tiger roared with an oppressing tone.

The same was for Ye Yun Tao himself, he was also like a fierce tiger, his appearance was that of boldness and power, he was exerting the presence of the Roaring Tiger Fist!

Ye Yun Tai as far as the middle grade martial skill attainments, compared to Ye Yun Fan he was much higher, the Roaring Tiger Fist has already surpassed the lower realm!

Pinnacle of the 4th layer of Wudao warrior, to display an exceeding lower realm Roaring Tiger Fist, it was absolutely formidable and no small matter, he was like a genuine tiger pouncing bringing terror.

At once all the new disciples were stunned, how will Ye Xing be able to resist the fist, perhaps Ye Xing had a delusion that he can take it, Ye Xing already has lost.

Crackle Rattle

Ye Xing within his body exploded out sound, it was like beans creating noise, how many of the sound that came out was uncountable, in a brief moment there were multiple of it.

Was that the Bone Crushing Fist?

The new disciples were dumbfounded, at this point, Ye Xing unexpectedly did not use a martial skill, fighting a pinnacle 4th layer of Wudao warrior he is underestimating, he was simply courting death!

Even Ye Yun Tao himself, in his mind could not help be astounded, Ye Xing had the impertinence to rely on the Bone Crushing Fist to deal with him? He nevertheless was pleased, this kind of tendency, he with one fist will snap Ye Xing's arm, he shall make Ye Xing fly, letting Ye Xing fall done to the ground unable to climb up again.

Pa

In a blink of an eye, the two has their fist's collide together!

Both parties involved felt dreadful strength being transmitted to their fist, however both people did not move like a mountain, there was no recoil and no half steps back!

Ye Xing using the Bone Crushing Fist, all of its power burst out, using a thread of his inner strength inside his meridian, how is the power this astonishing?

Even if he exceeded the lower realm of the Roaring Tiger Fist, he must not think that he can suppress him!

Wu

Ye Xing obstructed Ye Yun Tao's fist, in a split second he took the initiative to attack, sound exploded out of his bones, a fist directly attack Ye Yun Tao's face.

At present all the people were stupefied!

Many people softened their eyes, whether or not it was clear in their eyes, before their eyes they saw something they could not dare believe!

Ye Yun Tao was gobsmacked, before his eyes he was seeing something different, if he did not react fast, Ye Xing's fist would have already reached his nose.

Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa...

Ye Yun Tao's fist obstructed Ye Xing's fist, afterwards he repeatedly used the Roaring Tiger Fist, he attacked Ye Xing wildly, Ye Xing put to full use the Bone Crushing Fist to resist.

Four continuous fists collided, there was unending noise, in a flash, the two already exchanged ten fists.

The two earnestly collided, they were progressing unconditionally with great strength confronting each other, the outcome gave the feeling of incredibility.

The 3rd layer of Wudao Ye Xing, unexpectedly was capable of resolutely resisting the pinnacle 4th layer of Wudao Ye Yun Tao, furthermore there was not even a bit of backing down.

Ye Xing's cultivation was at the complete boundary at the 3rd layer, his meridians already cultivated inner strength, only a little bit more, he will enter the 4th layer, his strength will be like Ye Qing's, but much stronger.

Even though Ye Yun Tao's strength was distant from Ye Qing's, however Ye Xing also had absolute strength in the collision, he was not in the least fearful at all.

The new disciples sucked in a breath of cold air, no matter if it was Ye Feng who was anxious now being happy, or Ye Qing, Liu Shuang Ling, Ye Bai Yuan, or all the other new disciples, right before their eyes there was a scene that was incomparably shocking.

At once in the plaza, some distant main family disciples also had expressions of shock, many were dumbstruck.

Before Ye Yun Fan was injured under the hands of Ye Xing, now he was capable of fiercely fighting Ye Yun Tao without backing down at all, this was petrifying.

Before after suffering defeat, Ye Yun fan was looking for excuses in his mind, believing that his self was not weak at all compared to Ye Xing, now it seems that their strength was not comparable at all in the first place, they were not in the same level.

Ye Wen Ying had a gloomy expression, although his external appearance did not show it, however in his innermost being his lungs were bursting with rage.

He was a main family elder, 6th layer of Wudao strength, but he felt like sorting out this new disciple, in spite of this he cannot accomplish it, when he was younger with Ye Tian Nan, was he like this?

Soon, Ye Xing and Ye Yun Tao have fought hand to hand with ten moves, both as before was evenly matched, the trend seemed like it will continue continuing for more than ten moves, perhaps it will get harder as it goes longer.

Ye Xing with the corner of his mouth showed a sliver of a smiling expression, Ye Yun Tao's strength was clear, he did not plan to continue any longer, he immediately started to use his exceeding mind to scan the situation.

Ye Yun Tao's figure was suddenly entered by the exceeding mind, to Ye Xing, there was no secret at all that can be kept by Ye Yun Tao!
