

The Demonic King Chases His Wife

(邪王追妻：废材逆天小姐)

Chapter

701-750

Su Xiao Nuan

(苏小暖)

Story Description:

She, renowned assassin of the 21st century, actually crossed over to become Su Manor's most useless good-for-nothing Fourth Miss. He, Jin Empire's imperial highness, was an emotionless overbearing demonic tyrant with unrivaled talent.

Everyone knew that she was an idiotic good-for-nothing and bullied her as they pleased. But only he, the overbearing tyrant with the discerning eye, just wouldn't let go even if his life depended on it. For the time being, let's see how the clash of stubborn versus stubborn plays out in this good show of the chaser and the chased.

Original Story can be found here: Link

Chapter 701: The matter of accepting a disciple (1)

Today's Grandmaster Rong Yun had on a floaty, gorgeous, soft golden robe made of silk. His pair of eyes was as clear and serene as a green pool. His gaze was misty, without a ripple nor hint of clues, without desire or demand. Like a deity travelling through the human world.

Emperor Jing was initially sitting upright at a high position, but when he saw Grandmaster Rong Yun, he suddenly stood up from his dragon throne. He quickly stepped down to welcome him.

His entire face was full of smiles: "Grandmaster Rong Yun, you've come here from afar. Quickly, please have a seat."

Grandmaster Rong Yun's expression was calm and collected, lukewarm like water. He nodded his head slightly as he unhurriedly sat down. Furthermore, his expression as he faced Emperor Jing did not give him excess respect.

Emperor Jing also thought it was only to be expected for Grandmaster Rong Yun to be this indifferent.

The chief eunuch had already brought up the best tea he personally steeped.

Emperor Jing, with his own hands, offered the tea.

There was a smile in the Jade Lake fairy's eyes. She took a step forward to take the teacup from Emperor Jing's hands: "Your Majesty, please let me do it instead."

Jade Lake's fairy personally received the fragrant tea and respectfully placed it on the small table. Her movements were skillful and natural. As if she often did this sort of thing.

At this moment, in the throne room, aside from Emperor Jing, there were also a crowd of civil and military cabinet ministers.

Seeing this, they could not help but betray a startled expression on their faces.

One's understanding was that Grandmaster Rong Yun had a cold and detached temperament. He was like this even towards the children of the ten powerful families, it was even harder for other people to get close to him.

However, today, Grandmaster Rong Yun actually acquiesced for the Jade Lake's fairy to stand by his side to pour tea for him. This showed that Grandmaster had tacitly accepted her already.

Thinking up till now, the gaze of everyone who looked at the Jade Lake's fairy became increasingly more respectful.

Some people who had previously rejoiced in the misfortune of Jade Lake's Li family because of the rumours, now had shut their mouths tightly, afraid of stirring up trouble for themselves.

After Li Yaoyao put down the tea, she stood by Grandmaster Rong Yun's side smartly. Her eyes smiled shallowly with a myriad of bearings. Looking at her was like seeing a fairy among humans, a beauty that could not be found locally.

Emperor Jing noticed the attitude Grandmaster Rong Yun had towards the Jade Lake's fairy. The thoughts that had initially been extinguished gradually started to burn again.

That day, when Nangong Liuyun was leaving, he had come to the palace and spoken with him. He said something like he would not marry anyone else other than Su Luo, that loathsome girl. He even said that Su family's girl had unlimited potential. In the future, her accomplishments would not be worse than Li Yaoyao.

Emperor Jing shook his head.

That day, he really was conned by second child, into actually believing his words.

Now, looking at Grandmaster Rong Yun's attitude towards Li Yaoyao, even a fool could tell, Li Yaoyao, like this, was about to fly up like a rocket.

If Li Yaoyao was to be accepted by Grandmaster Rong Yun as his last disciple, then her status would be very precious. By that time, even if second child wanted to marry her, he might need to wait in line.

Thinking up to now, Emperor Jing's desire to arrange the marriage of the Jade Lake's fairy to Nangong Liuyun became increasingly stronger.

In addition, it would be best to finalise the marriage before Li Yaoyao was taken in by Grandmaster Rong Yun as a disciple.

Emperor Jing restrained the thoughts that were beginning to stir. He smiled at Grandmaster Rong Yun and said, "Great Master, it's rare for you to make a trip here. You should stay in Eastern Ling for a few more days."

Grandmaster Rong Yun sipped his tea. His voice was cold: "After the matter of accepting a disciple is completed, then I will leave immediately."

The corner of Emperor Jing's smile became slightly stiff.

This Grandmaster Rong Yun really spoke bluntly. Even faced with the emperor, he also had no sensitivity to the other's feelings.

However, Emperor Jing only felt rather depressed and would not really get angry.

Because, when one has reached Grandmaster Rong Yun's elevated status, then one had no need for worldly formalities. Being temperamental was the normal state for them.

However, mentioning the matter of accepting a disciple, Emperor Jing could not help but feel his heart light up. He cast a glance at Li Yaoyao and asked while smiling: "This sure is a happy occasion, don't know who Great Master has decided to take as a disciple?"

Grandmaster Rong Yun shot a glance at him like he was looking at an idiot. His voice was indifferent, faintly discernable as wind: "Haven't completed."

Emperor Jing clapped his hands and excitedly said, "If it's like this, then how about this emperor have those apothecaries come for you to select?"

Chapter 702: The matter of accepting a disciple (2)

The civil and military ministers under the steps made of precious jade suddenly looked at each other in dismay.

His Majesty, the Emperor, was really devious.

If this was given for him to announce, then naturally, the ones arriving will mostly be refining pharmacists from the court of Eastern Ling Empire. This was called not letting one's own water to flow into others' field.

However, Grandmaster Rong Yun was not a fool, either. How could he have agreed?

Yet, Grandmaster Rong Yun's reaction was beyond their expectations.

In contrast to the emperor's excitement, Grandmaster Rong Yun's reaction was a lot colder.

One could only see Grandmaster Rong Yun take a slight sip of tea. That pair of eyes as dark as a green pool was bright enough to see through the entire world's schemes. His expression was cold and indifferent as he said: "Just a meeting is fine."

There wasn't even the slightest movement in the expression of the Jade Lake's fairy who was behind him.

That's right, based on natural aptitude, strength and background, who could beat Jade Lake's Li family's little princess? Even if someone came before to be selected, they would just serve as cannon fodder.

At this moment, everyone was green with envy towards the Jade Lake's fairy for being able to get Grandmaster Rong Yun's favor.

However, the emperor had another scheme inside his heart.

Li Yaoyao being picked out by Grandmaster Rong Yun was also a good thing. However, if the court Apothecaries under his control could also be accepted by Grandmaster Rong Yun into his school, it would be a double celebration.

So, in regards to this matter, the emperor's interest was rather strong.

News of Grandmaster Rong Yun wanting to take a disciple spread from the throne room.

It was as if this news had grown wings. In an instant, it had already spread throughout the whole imperial capital.

On this day, Apothecary Leng finally came out from the refining pills room.

This time, after going into seclusion for half a month, his harvest was rather large. Just as he emerged from his seclusion, his steward told him the news in the throne room.

Such a good opportunity... How could this be missed!

Apothecary Leng waved his arms about widely, "Prepare a horse! To Su Manor! Hurry!"

Although he could also bring Su Luo to see his Master in private, but, how could it be compared to now in a perfectly justified way?

Upon hearing this, the steward was about to command a servant to harness a horse. Yet unexpectedly, Apothecary Leng caught up to him with a few quick steps. He immediately jumped onto the horse's back and left just like that.

He left behind the steward and the coachman, looking at each other in dismay...

Apothecary Leng spurred the horse on, hurrying towards Su Manor.

Today, Su Zian had just announced he was sick and stayed home.

Ever since the incident that happened at Su Manor before, Su Zian had become more haggard, and the entire Su Manor had settled into silence.

"My lord, Apothecary Leng has arrived!" The steward saw Apothecary Leng's horse from afar. Without waiting for him to draw near, the steward flew into a run.

Su Zian was just sitting in the study, contemplating. Seeing that Apothecary Leng was coming, he could not help but feel overjoyed at the news.

“Someone come, quickly, quickly come to welcome Apothecary Leng! Also, quickly go and call the Fifth Miss out here. Just say that Apothecary Leng is here. Hurry up and go!” Su Zian repeatedly commanded in haste.

On his face was an expression of simply being overjoyed.

Su Jingyu was still lying on the bed right now. The bones in his whole body were so soft, they had become a lump. He did not even have the strength to raise his arm.

Madam Su was also this way.

The gloomy and dismal Su Manor had become lively and bustling because of Apothecary Leng’s arrival.

Apothecary Leng abandoned the horse and charged into Su Manor.

Before even waiting for him to stand still, Su Zian had already hurried forward to greet Apothecary Leng.

Su Zian had a flattering and ingratiating smile on his face: “Apothecary Leng. Welcome, welcome. Please, come in quickly.”

Apothecary Leng let out a snort. However, seeing as Su Zian was Su Luo’s father, Apothecary Leng reluctantly gave him some face: “Lead the way.”

Although they had just taken their seats in the living room, a servant had already brought out cups of tea.

Apothecary Leng’s forehead knotted slightly: “Quickly, ask your daughter to please come out.”

Daughter? Su Zian’s eyes suddenly lit up!

He already said so! Apothecary Leng seemed to have a very good impression of Su Xi, how could he really abandon Su Manor without any regard?

Su Zian urgently instructed the servant: “Hurry, hurry! Hurry up and ask for the Miss to please come out!”

Chapter 703: The matter of accepting a disciple (3)

However, before the servants could leave, Su Xi, who was dressed up properly like a new person, appeared in the hall.

“Daddy, you called for me?” Su Xi walked up and intimately wrapped her hands around Su Zian’s arm.

“Xi’er, come over to pay your respects to Apothecary Leng. Just now, Apothecary Leng was looking for you.” Su Zian pulled Su Xi along to greet Apothecary Leng.

“Xi’er is very mischievous and not thoughtful, could it be that Apothecary Leng likes this.....” Su Zian said while smiling.

Su Xi was pulled along by Su Zian and was just about to kneel in front of Apothecary Leng; but, Apothecary Leng suddenly stood up.

“Su Zian, are you playing tricks on this apothecary?” Apothecary Leng was displeased as he glared at Su Zian.

“Eh?” Su Zian was very puzzled. What was wrong with Apothecary Leng? What did he do wrong?

“Why would this apothecary be fond of this girl? Where did this come from? You must explain it to this apothecary clearly!” Apothecary Leng’s attitude was always eccentric and irascible, towards people who were unpleasant to his eyes, he would never show mercy or give them face.

“This.....” Su Zian’s expression was bewildered.

Wasn’t this what you, as an elder, had said yourself earlier? This elder had praised that Xi’er was good with every word and forbade me from bullying her. Why was he going back on his words now?

Su Zian’s heart was extremely puzzled, however, he could not say it so bluntly with these words. As a result, he could only timidly say: “Elder, the person you wanted to see..... isn’t Xi’er?”

“What Xi’er, Dong’er (1), this apothecary doesn’t know any of them!!”

Apothecary Leng had his hands folded behind his back, then arrogantly and childishly turned his head away.

The corner of Su Zian's mouth immediately had a suffering expression, but he also became more doubtful: In the end, where did it go wrong?

When Su Xi heard Apothecary Leng's words, she immediately became unhappy.

What Xi'er, Dong'er? Wasn't Apothecary Leng treating her just like any stray cat or dog? How could he be so disrespectful to her?

Su Xi scowled and coldly said: "Apothecary Leng, how could you say it like that!"

Su Zian hurriedly covered Su Xi's mouth!

This loathsome girl had truly dared to say it!

Who was Apothecary Leng, he was an Elite Apothecary oh! Ever since Grandmaster Rong Yun had arrived, everybody had found out Apothecary Leng's other identity, which was Grandmaster Rong Yun's first disciple.

Su Xi, this girl, actually dared to contradict him, did she not want to live?

The corner of Apothecary Leng's mouth had a taunting sneer: "This is that whatever Xi'er? Tsk, tsk, tsk, how can this apothecary think highly of her? Su Zian, are your eyes decorations or is your brain an ornament?"

"Sssss—"

The servants outside simultaneously sucked in a breath of cold air.

Apothecary Leng was truly egotistical and sharp, his poisonous tongue could cause a person's death.

Their family's Master was the Great General that protects the nation, when was he ever pointed at and cursed in the face by others?

Speaking of Su Zian right now, his heart was angry as well as furious. But, he could only endure it silently as he squeezed out a rigid smile at the corner of his mouth: "Then, if it is like this, Apothecary Leng has identified the wrong person. Our Su Manor does not have the person you are looking for.”

Su Zian rigidly clenched his fists, proving that his anger inside was rolling over and over.

Apothecary Leng pointed at Su Zian with one hand, appearing to be very resentful of Su Zian for not meeting his expectations: “This apothecary just knows that you do not have good eyesight, and especially reminded you of this. However, I never expected that it’s not that you don’t have eyesight, rather, you are totally blind!”

“Apothecary Leng, our Su Manor truly does not have.....” Su Zian also had a temper, and also, his temper was not good. But, in front of Apothecary Leng, he could only continue to endure.

“Bullshit! Isn’t Su Luo your daughter? Isn’t she in your manor? You would dare to go so far as to lie in front of this apothecary’s face! Su Zian, you have big guts!” Apothecary Leng glared at him.

Su Luo???

Su Zian suddenly became motionless as if struck by lightning.

*

1) Xi’er, Dong’er: This is a play on Su Xi’s given name Xi (溪), which in Chinese, is pronounced the same as the word for West. Dong is 东 the Chinese for East. So Apothecary Leng is saying ‘what East child West child’.

Chapter 704: The matter of accepting a disciple (4)

Su Luo knew Apothecary Leng? The person Apothecary Leng was searching for was Su Luo? Then, it means that..... he had made a mistake! Before, the person Apothecary Leng cared about was basically not Su Xi, rather, it was Su Luo, who he had constantly neglected!!!!!!!!!!

Thinking about this, Su Zian's brain was stupefied. He foolishly stood there, not knowing how to respond.

However, Apothecary Leng would not let him off so easily, with a cold and vengeful voice, he said: "From my point of view, based on your moral conduct, you really do not have the qualifications to be her father! Su girl being so clever, quick-witted and lovely, how could she have a father like you? You have really humiliated her!"

These words.....were simply too sharp and too merciless. Compared to directly slapping Su Zian's mouth, it was even more shameful.

Su Zian opened his mouth, wanting to talk, but discovered that, no matter what, he could not express anything.

Hearing the meaning behind Apothecary Leng's words, then, from the beginning, the person he favored was Su Luo, right? What's going on? Could it be that it was Su Luo who was able to invite Apothecary Leng to the manor before? But why was it that she didn't say anything?

"That girl.....that damned girl actually did not mention even a single word!" When Su Zian recalled Su Luo's manner of an observer that was as light as clouds and gentle as a breeze, his heart ignited into a flaming rage.

Originally, Su Xi stood on one side with an expressionless face. Now, hearing Apothecary Leng's words, immediately, she was no longer calm.

"Apothecary Leng, how could you speak about my daddy like this? Su Luo, that slut, how is she fit to be daddy's daughter? Daddy treated her as if she does not exist, as he ought to....."

Apothecary Leng's ice-cold eyes shot towards Su Xi. A frightened feeling suddenly appeared in Su Xi's heart.

She unconsciously fell back a step and could not continue speaking that sentence.

The corner of Apothecary Leng's mouth raised into a cynical cold sneer, "Mistakenly taking the fish in your eyes as a real pearl, it's no wonder that Su Manor is not peaceful, and declined to this degree."

Su Zian clenched his fists tightly, the muscles on his face trembling because of his emotions.

Apothecary Leng silently snorted: "Why haven't you already quickly gone to fetch that girl? My Master is currently waiting in the throne room to accept his last personal disciple. If this opportunity was missed, humph, humph!"

Su Zian's eyes suddenly opened very wide, and said in a stunned tone: "Isn't Grandmaster Rong Yun going to accept the Jade Lake's fairy as his disciple? Why would he accept another disciple?"

Apothecary Leng coldly snorted in displeasure: "Who said that he would accept Li Yaoyao? This kind of rumor and you still believe it?"

"But....." In truth, Su Zian actually believed it, "But, in this world, besides Jade Lake's fairy's unparalleled beauty, who else could enter Grandmaster Rong Yun's eyes?"

Su Zian's words really represented most people's point of view.

Who knew, Apothecary Leng actually sneered twice, waved his hand, and, not saying anything else, only said: "Call out Su Luo, that girl, opportunity only knocks once."

At this moment, Su Zian still felt that it was too difficult to believe.

Su Luo was able to get Apothecary Leng's recognition, this already greatly exceeded his expectations, and stupefied his entire person.

Now, Apothecary Leng went as far as to say that Su Luo, that girl, might replace the Jade Lake's fairy?

If these words were to spread out, who would believe it? In any case, he didn't believe it.

Su Zian repeatedly smiled bitterly: "Apothecary Leng, don't joke around....." In any case, Su Zian could not believe it.

"Does it look as if this apothecary is joking with you?!" Apothecary Leng rolled his eyes at him in annoyance, "Speak less nonsense, quickly, I order you to call the person out."

Under the repeated urging of Apothecary Leng, Su Zian finally ordered someone to ask for Su Luo to come.

Seeing Su Luo, the first words that came out from Su Zian's mouth was complaints: "Luoluo, why didn't you say that your relationship with Apothecary Leng was so good?"

Chapter 705: The matter of accepting a disciple (5)

He started to call her Luoluo again? A mocking sneer flashed through Su Luo's eyes. However, her face remained calm and she pretended to be at a loss: "Daddy, you never asked, oh."

Su Zian was choked off and immediately flew into a rage out of humiliation: "Your mother and brother are already ill in that kind of condition. However, after seeing them like that, you never thought of asking for help from Apothecary Leng? How could you be this heartless?"

The corner of Su Luo's mouth hooked into a shallow sneer: "I am heartless? Then, can I ask Daddy what was the reason why they became like this? This is called you reap what you sow. The amount of salt that Daddy has eaten is more than the amount of rice that I have eaten, naturally, you should understand."

Su Luo was not even a bit polite to him.

"You— you this loathsome girl!" Su Zian's heart was extremely angry.

Actually, just now, when he heard Apothecary Leng's words, he had great expectations for Su Luo. However, he didn't know why when he saw her, his anger would immediately rise upwards, to the extent that now, he was put in an awkward situation.

Apothecary Leng sent a ferocious glare at Su Zian: "You dare to curse at my friend? You truly have guts! Su Zian, do you wish to die!"

Su Zian's eyes opened really wide.

Apothecary Leng, who always had an eccentric temperament, would actually stick up for Su Luo? Moreover, he actually disregarded his status and scolded him.....wasn't this too many facts being overturned?

Su Xi was even more furious, secretly biting her gums.

Why is this little slut's luck so good!

First, she was protected by His Highness Prince Jin. Now that His Highness Prince Jin had left, there was Apothecary Leng who stuck up for her! This was simply too maddening!

Su Luo's indifferent gaze swept past their faces.

Looks like Su Manor, this wolves den, it's better that she avoid it as soon as possible. So as not to find herself having more punishments to suffer through.

Thinking this far, Su Luo smiled shallowly: "Apothecary Leng is already here. If Father has something to say, then please say it to Apothecary Leng yourself, why drag me into it?"

However, Apothecary Leng simply did not give Su Zian the chance to speak. He pulled Su Luo, and turned around to immediately walk away: "Little great aunt, time is already getting short, why are you still paying attention to the messes of these people?"

Su Luo laughed: "What matter could be so urgent?"

"You have a big chance to become my junior apprentice sister. If you were delayed by these people, then it will be too late for regrets in this lifetime." After saying this, Apothecary Leng completely ignored the roomful of people and pulled Su Luo to quickly leave.

As a result, Su Zian could only stare helplessly as Apothecary Leng took Su Luo away.

Hate secretly filled Su Xi's heart. Her mouth loudly cursed: "Grandmaster Rong Yun would take an interest in her? She has the capabilities to replace the Jade Lake's fairy? Stop daydreaming! If that slut can really become his disciple then, I.....I will swallow this chair!"

Su Zian glanced back and glared at Su Xi very fiercely. Those watching eyes filled with a deep, dark cold light made Su Xi frantic.....

"Daddy....." She tried to act like a spoiled child, normally, this trick would be very effective.

However, Su Zian turned his hand and just slapped her: "Disappointing thing!"

Obviously, the person Apothecary Leng had a preference for wasn't her. However, she still had the face to tacitly agree to it in front of him, to the extent that he produced such a big disgraceful scene!

If she had said it a bit earlier, he would have treated Su Luo a lot better earlier, and things would not have become as terrible as it was now.

Su Xi was suddenly slapped stupid by that hit.

She covered her inflamed right cheek, crying full of being wronged. Her face was full of disbelief as she muttered to herself. "Daddy you hit me, you actually hit me....."

"Loathsome girl! Your brother and your mother had become like this, everything's your fault!" Su Zian had unresolved wrath.

Su Zian currently had pent-up frustration received from Apothecary Leng and Su Luo, that currently had nowhere to vent. By chance Su Xi approached, then she could only become his punching bag.

Chapter 706: The matter of accepting a disciple (6)

Su Zian was just about to slap Su Xi again.

However, incredibly, Su Xi had already covered the slap mark, turned and ran away.

While she ran, she also cried. Her cries seemed as if she had been extremely wronged.

Speaking of Su Luo's side.

After Nangong Liuyun left, he left his Dragon Scaled Horse for Su Luo to look after.

At this moment, the Dragon Scaled Horse was waiting in front of the gate.

Su Luo, with one jump up, sat on top of the high horse.

As for Apothecary Leng's excellent colt, who seemed mighty and majestic before, now, compared to the Dragon Scaled Horse, it didn't even dare to raise its hooves.

One in front and another in the back, the two horses quickly arrived at the Imperial Palace.

Inside the Imperial Palace.

Grandmaster Rong Yun sat upright on the red sandalwood chair with an indifferent expression.

Jade Lake's fairy cleverly waited upon him at one side, her expression pure and cold. However, her eyes would inadvertently flash with a self-satisfied smile.

Seven people stood in front of Grandmaster Rong Yun.

These seven were Court Apothecaries that had been arranged earlier by Emperor Jing, as a result, they were available at any time.

Grandmaster Rong Yun indifferently said a sentence: "Present the most recent medicinal pill you have refined.”

The Jade Lake’s fairy delivered the tray collected with the pills to the table in front of Grandmaster Rong Yun.

On the red tray, seven bottles were arranged in order.

These seven Apothecaries normally were also masters at strutting around. But now, in front of Grandmaster Rong Yun, each and every one of them was like mice that had seen a cat. They were holding their breaths with rapt attention and did not even dared to breathe loudly.

At this moment, the throne room was quiet and soundless, even the sound of heartbeats could be heard clearly.

Emperor Jing stared at Grandmaster Rong Yun with a grave expression. His eyes did not even blink, afraid that he would miss a trace that showed his mood on his face.

Master Rong Yun twirled the first bottle of medicine in his hands, opened the bottle and sniffed it briefly. His forehead wrinkled slightly and set the bottle aside.

Afterwards, it was the second bottle, the third bottle.....

During this time, in the throne room, not a single sound could be heard. Those seven Apothecaries that were undergoing the examination were even more nervous, to the extent that they were on the verge of fainting.

This opportunity, with regards to them, was the same as changing their entire lives.

However, when Grandmaster Rong Yun’s forehead wrinkled more and more tightly and his expression became more and more gloomy, their hearts also dropped to an all-time low.

Sure enough, as Grandmaster Rong Yun finished examining the last bottle of medicine, he looked at Emperor Jing. The corner of his mouth raised into an indifferent smile: “There’s no more?”

At this moment, Emperor Jing’s entire body became stiff. His complexion carried a trace of embarrassment: “This, this is.....”

“This is your Eastern Ling Empire’s most outstanding Apothecaries?” Grandmaster Rong Yun’s eyebrows rose slightly.

“Don’t tell me..... none of them are qualified?” Emperor Jing awkwardly asked.

“Completely unqualified.” Grandmaster Rong Yun shook his head.

Emperor Jing’s eyes flashed with a trace of disappointment.

He should have already known that Grandmaster Rong Yun’s conditions for accepting a disciple would certainly be extremely harsh. He could only blame his own heart for believing there to be a bit of luck.

However, this way only proved the Jade Lake’s fairy’s strength even more.

Able to be chosen by Grandmaster Rong Yun, and be brought along at his side. In terms of refining drugs, what kind of attainments had she reached?

The more Emperor Jing looked at the Jade Lake’s fairy, the more satisfied he become.

Look at that, in every aspect, she was perfectly matched with second child, not a single part was mismatched.

He decided, tomorrow, he would discuss the date with the Jade Lake’s Li Family. After Nangong Liuyun returned, then they would be married.

At this moment, Emperor Jing, who was immersed in his own world, simply did not consider everything. If this matter was really set, then based on Nangong Liuyun’s temper, wouldn’t he directly tie up the old emperor and send him to the bridal chamber.

Grandmaster Rong Yun cast an apathetic glance at Emperor Jing, with curiously coincidental timing, he said a sentence: “The quality of these apothecaries are much worse than Western Jin Empire’s apothecaries.”

Hearing these words, Emperor Jing, who sat on the Dragon Throne, and the many civil and military ministers in the room, blushed with shame.

Eastern Ling Empire and Western Jin Empire, in every aspect of strength, were almost the same. Their competition was even more intense, and neither would accept the other as better.

Chapter 707: The matter of accepting a disciple (7)

If it was some other person who said that Eastern Ling Empire could not compare to the Western Jin Empire, these civil and military ministers would definitely beat him with shoes or wooden planks. But, the one who said it was Grandmaster Rong Yun oh.....

Then this was a fact.

The Eastern Ling Empire's civil and military minister's hearts were sullen, but they had no choice but to accept it.

Just at this moment, Apothecary Leng led Su Luo quickly towards the throne room.

Grandmaster Rong Yun's disciple, who would dare to block?

As a result, Apothecary Leng was unimpeded and unhindered as they arrived in the throne room.

But before Su Luo saw Grandmaster Rong Yun, she used a small trick.

She fished out the little divine dragon who was sleeping soundly in her space and carried him in her arms.

Apothecary Leng puzzlingly gave her a glance, but Su Luo only smilingly explained: "If this happens, then your master would at least give some face."

Because he had not seen Grandmaster Rong Yun's preferential treatment towards the little divine dragon personally, so Apothecary Leng remain puzzled.

At this moment, they had already stepped into the throne room.

"Your disciple pays his respects to Master." Apothecary Leng respectfully kneeled down to make his salutations.

Apothecary Leng's hair was grizzled and seemed aged, but he would call a man who was in his twenties, 'Master'. Also, his expression was very respectful.

This kind of scene, in other's eyes, had an indescribable strangeness.

However, Grandmaster Rong Yun and Apothecary Leng were already accustomed to it.

Grandmaster Rong Yun's expression was the same as before as he nodded slightly. His gaze moved over to Apothecary Leng and cast a faint glance at Su Luo.

To say it more accurately, he cast a glance at the little divine dragon in Su Luo's arms.

Sure enough, his expression became slightly gentler.

Apothecary Leng looked at the row of gloomy apothecaries, and then looked at the medicinal pill tossed on the side, understanding flashing through his eyes.

It seemed that none of these court apothecaries were chosen by Master.

Apothecary Leng bowed and said: "Master, this disciple brought a person to see you. This girl's gift in refining pills is indeed not bad. If Master sees it, then would certainly like it."

Su Luo just so happened to move forward to pay her respects, but saw the corner of the Jade Lake's fairy's mouth raise into a smile.

The Jade Lake's fairy gently looked at Apothecary Leng, her tone bathed in the autumn wind and extremely sweet-sounding: "The Apothecary Selection is already finished. Apothecary Leng, you have arrived too late."

Anger flashed through Apothecary Leng's eyes.

If it was any other person, no matter what, they would give the Jade Lake's fairy some face. Unfortunately, Apothecary Leng's temper was extremely eccentric.

If he liked someone, then naturally, he would be extremely good to them.

If he loathed someone, then naturally, he would be ruthless to them.

He treated Su Luo well, then, he naturally loathed Li Yaoyao.

As a result, Leng Yan sent her an unrestrained glare: “Who are you? In front of Master, how are you qualified to speak? Move to the side with you!”

Jade Lake’s fairy completely did not anticipate that Leng Yan would be this rudely blunt. For a split second, she was dumbfounded, then another second passed, and her clear autumn eyes became misty with water, as if she was wronged but could only endure.

At this moment, almost everybody used a condemning stare to glare at Apothecary Leng.

Leng Yan’s heart became even angrier.

He was clearly speaking the truth, yet this loathsome girl, without touching her, would cry so easily? It was simply that the more he saw her, the more he disliked her.

Apothecary Leng snorted once: “Who are trying to fool with your acting? Aren’t you just afraid that Su Luo’s innate gift is better than yours, and as a result, you wouldn’t dare to compete with her. So this way, you deliberately block her? Stop pretending to be innocent!”

Su Luo’s heart truly could not endure it anymore and gave Apothecary Leng a round of applause.

Apothecary Leng was worthy of being called a natural mediator. His words were sharp and did not beat around the bush.

These words were blunt, however, it really said what was in the Jade Lake’s fairy’s thoughts.

“I didn’t!” Li Yaoyao, whose thoughts were exposed, had a secret hatred flash through her eyes.

Only now did she understand.....

Chapter 708: The matter of accepting a disciple (8)

With regards to Leng Yan, this kind of blunt asshole, putting on an act would only incur additional ruthless attacks from him.

As a result, she had no choice but to put away her white lotus flower-like delicate female act, and reinstate her rational manners.

“Apothecary Leng, I only judge matters as it stands. After all, Grandmaster had just examined many medicinal pills, and seeing that he is also tired.....”

However, the adorable Apothecary Leng Yan sent her a strong glare: “What are you saying? Don’t tell me that in your eyes, Master is this weak? After inspecting a few bottles of medicine, he would already be tired? Are you cursing Master or are you scornful of Master? In the end, what kind of evil intentions are you harboring? Moreover, is that my master or your master, do not use this kind of self-believing attitude in front of me.”

A string of criticism showered down and tossed in the Jade Lake’s fairy’s face, immediately, she was scolded stupid..... it made her unable to return to reality for a while.

She had been pampered and spoiled since childhood, when did she ever receive this kind of criticism? Even though she knew how to pretend, she still was unable to continue pretending.

Even though in her heart, she had already considered Grandmaster Rong Yun as her teacher, but, when all was said and done, she still had not officially become his disciple.....

Jade Lake’s fairy’s hands at her side clenched tightly, and she hurriedly walked forward, kneeling in front of Grandmaster Rong Yun: “Master, my.....my mouth was not screened properly and have offended you. Please, you mustn’t be angry.....”

Grandmaster Rong Yun’s voice was clear and cold: “Get up.”

Soon after, he somewhat helplessly sighed and cast a glance at Apothecary Leng: “You are already this old, why is your temper still as fiery and explosive as a cannon? Then, in the future, how to get along with fellow disciples?”

Once Grandmaster Rong Yun’s last words were said, the situation immediately made a startling reversal!

Although the Jade Lake’s fairy’s face still looked wronged, however, no matter what, she could not conceal an expression of being pleased.

Fellow disciples.....what Grandmaster Rong Yun meant was that he had already tacitly agreed that she was his disciple? Thinking about this, Li Yaoyao’s heart immediately became sweeter than honey.

Today, the difficult questions that Apothecary Leng raised, Li Yaoyao had engraved them deep in her heart. She decided to wait until after she had been accepted by Grandmaster Rong Yun as a disciple, she must think of a way to have Apothecary Leng killed off!

Emperor Jing had made an even more firm decision, after the end of the court session, he would personally go to Jade Lake’s Li Family, to agree as quickly as possible on a wedding date. Otherwise, after Grandmaster Rong Yun had accepted Li Yaoyao as a disciple, the Jade Lake’s Li Family would be so arrogant as to have their tails stuck up.

After hearing Grandmaster Rong Yun’s words, Apothecary Leng’s expression became somewhat gloomy.

Listening to Master’s tone of voice, it’s as if he was truly going to accept Li Yaoyao?

Leng Yao’s temperament was straightforward. He did not like Li Yaoyao, this kind of young woman who puts on acts. He felt that Su Luo was very good, with a similar temperament to his that did not bother about trifles.

Thinking like this, he was even more resolute in his notion about marketing Su Luo to Grandmaster Rong Yun.

“Master, you should take a look, this girl is really pretty good. Maybe she would really fit your intentions. Just looking wouldn’t delay much of your time.”

Grandmaster Rong Yun cast him a glance, in the end, his gaze still landed on the little divine dragon's body who was in Su Luo's arms.

Under the Jade Lake's fairy's expectant gaze, Grandmaster Rong Yun, in the end, still nodded his head: “Present the medicinal pill.”

The Jade Lake's fairy was hesitant, and was just thinking about going or not.

But she could only see that Apothecary Leng had already brought up and presented the medicinal pill Su Luo refined: “Master, once you have a look, I guarantee you will be shocked.”

Grandmaster Rong Yun slanted him a glance, his gaze landing on the white jade porcelain bottle in his hand.

At this moment, the Jade Lake's fairy's gaze was staring fixedly at Grandmaster Rong Yun, attempting to find any clues of his mood from his face.

In fact, she did not believe that Su Luo's ability at refining medicines was stronger than hers. Only, that little slut's luck was really too good, every time, at the crucial point, she would turn the tables and take the win.

Chapter 709: The matter of accepting a disciple (9)

It could be said that the Jade Lake's fairy was afraid of losing against Su Luo's luck.

At this moment, besides the Jade Lake's fairy, the gazes of nearly everybody present were on Grandmaster Rong Yun's face.

Su Luo's name recently really resounded in the entire imperial capital, as a result, many people recognized it was her.

But because her reputation in the past was bad, therefore, many people did not think too highly of her.

"Isn't this Su Zian's unmarried daughter? That day, the one who had a life-and-death duel with her sister?"

"It's exactly that one. From rumors, her strength is pretty good, however, no one ever said she could refine medicine before."

"Just her could be compared to the Jade Lake's fairy? Don't know how she deceived Apothecary Leng to actually persistently be on her side."

"To let her come out at this moment, isn't it losing our imperial court's face? At that time, when Grandmaster Rong Yun explodes from anger..... who would be able to bear it."

The ministers discussed this spiritedly, none of them were optimistic about Su Luo.

Because in their minds, the Jade Lake's fairy was like a fairy from the ninth layer of heaven. Whereas Su Luo, was merely a silly girl in the ordinary human world. How could this be mentioned on equal terms?

Not only were the court ministers discussing this spiritedly, in Emperor Jing's heart, it was also like ten thousand horses rushing on grassland.

Even though he had only seen Su Luo once before, but the impression this loathsome girl left was deeper than anybody else's.

Just barely saw her once, his second son, who was usually obedient, used his poisonous tongue to almost anger him to death. There was also his Treasure Storage Pavillion.....

Indeed, just thinking about it made him furious.

Emperor Jing sent a very fierce glare towards Su Luo, and Su Luo as well, felt something at this moment. She lifted her eyes and met with Emperor Jing's gaze.

Afterwards, the corner of her mouth unhurriedly lifted into a shallow smile, a very meaningful smiling expression.

Emperor Jing coldly and heavily snorted a few times.

He promised second child not to kill her, however, this did not represent that he would indulge second child to be led astray by this loathsome girl. He had decided that after court was dismissed, he would set a wedding date with the Li family.

Thinking up to here, Emperor Jing cast a hateful glare at Su Luo.

However, right now, Su Luo already didn't have the inclination to infuriate him. Her complete attention was focused on Grandmaster Rong Yun's body.

Grandmaster Rong Yun sniffed the medicine in the white jade porcelain bottle, a peculiar expression then flashing across his face.

Rather, his white as jade palm spread open and poured out a single medicinal pill.

This one move immediately attracted everybody's attention.

Because before, with those seven apothecaries, Grandmaster Rong Yun merely sniffed them a bit before casting them aside.

Now, he had poured it out, could it be that this girl from Su family truly had a chance?

Grandmaster Rong Yun looked at the semi-transparent white pill in his hands, his forehead wrinkling again.

This piece of Spirit Restoration Pill was rich, clear and transparent. Indeed, it was truly a very high grade product.

Only.....

“Elementary Apothecary?”

He looked at Leng Yan, his eyes sharp as ice blades.

Leng Yan’s expression flashed with a trace of embarrassment. He also knew that Su Luo’s rank was too low. However, who told her to start refining so late, there was nothing to be done about it.

Just when he was about to explain, Grandmaster Rong Yun had already returned the medicinal pill into the white jade porcelain bottle. Soon after, he tossed that porcelain bottle back to Su Luo.

“Elementary Apothecary?” At this moment, everybody was startled and dumbfounded by this news.

Apothecary Leng actually recommended an Elementary Apothecary to Grandmaster Rong Yun, this was simply..... this was simply an insult to Grandmaster Rong Yun.

Finished, finished, once Grandmaster Rong Yun gets angry, nobody should even think of living well for another day..... One after another, until everybody’s heart harbored complaints towards Su Luo.

The mocking smile at the corner of Jade Lake’s fairy’s mouth expanded without limits.

Fancy that she would still consider this little slut as an opponent. However, she never imagined that she was merely an insignificant little Elementary Apothecary.

Just like this, she still dared to come and compete with her? If this wasn’t suicide, then what was?

In this split second, Li Yaoyao’s was feeling extremely good. She had a smile on her face and cynically looked at Su Luo.

Chapter 710: The matter of accepting a disciple (10)

And from beginning to end, Su Luo's expression was always indifferent, with an unconcerned appearance.

Grandmaster Rong Yun stood up.

Jade Lake Fairy hurriedly stepped forward to serve.

The crowd of people, one by one, knelt down to respectfully send off Grandmaster Rong Yun.

Since everyone had already been eliminated, then, the Jade Lake's fairy was the sole candidate.

Just when everybody was waiting to congratulate the Jade Lake's Li family, as Grandmaster Rong Yun passed by Su Luo, he clearly said a sentence: "After ten days, you should gather all the stuff together, otherwise, you will lose the first round."

Saying this, he tossed a rolled up piece of white paper to Su Luo, then left without turning around.

Jade Lake's fairy followed closely behind Grandmaster Rong Yun.

Originally, she had wanted to seize the opportunity to taunt Su Luo with some words, but after hearing what Grandmaster Rong Yun had said, she was momentarily stupefied. Her entire body froze rigidly on the spot.

Grandmaster Rong Yun's words meant: Su Luo got past the qualifying round?

How could an Elementary Apothecary even compete with her? Hateful!

A thread of hatred flashed in the Jade Lake's fairy's eyes. In the end, where had the mistake occurred? Or was it that, Apothecary Leng truly had a huge influence on Grandmaster Rong Yun?

At an angle others could not see, Jade Lake's fairy sent a fierce glare at Apothecary Leng, she thoroughly hated Apothecary Leng.

And at this moment, Su Luo just so happened to look at her, the cynicalness that flashed in her eyes made the fury in the Jade Lake's fairy's heart soar even more.

"Then,, I'll first congratulate you in advance, hope you won't lose in the first round will be good." Jade Lake Fairy smiled insincerely.

"I won't lose, then, the person who will lose is you. The Jade Lake's fairy is truly magnanimous, you want to let me have this opportunity?" The corner of Su Luo's mouth held a smile, her tone light.

The Jade Lake's fairy angrily squeezed her clenched fists, but her face still maintained a touch of a clear, cold smile: "Su Luo, in fact, why should I? You are only an Elementary Apothecary oh. Spending such a huge price to fawn on Apothecary Leng, what kind of outcome could there be?"

Jade Lake's fairy proved herself to be called the Jade Lake's fairy. Before, Apothecary Leng had directly supported Su Luo, thus, she immediately splashed dirty water onto Su Luo, hinting that Su Luo had fawned on Apothecary Leng to get here.

"What's wrong with being an Elementary Apothecary? Even though I'm an Elementary Apothecary, I can also beat you." Su Luo said with all smiles.

"Beat me?" It seemed as if the Jade Lake's fairy had heard the funniest joke on earth, her eyes contained a smile and said to the surrounding people with a laugh, "She said she can beat me, do you guys believe it?"

All the civil and military ministers in court burst into loud laughter.

"What's called overestimating one's abilities, I finally experienced it today."

"This Su Zian ah, how did he bring up such a shameless daughter? Saying these kinds of words and not knowing how embarrassing it is. I even feel ashamed for her!"

"That's right, as an Elementary Apothecary, she thought she was an Advanced Apothecary? Grandmaster Rong Yun is such a noble existence, how could he accept an Elementary Apothecary to be his disciple?"

Jade Lake's fairy heard the court ministers' words and was full of satisfaction. She complacently cast a sidelong glance at Su Luo. She coldly and arrogantly passed by Su Luo's side, shook her sleeves and left.

Su Luo's voice sounded behind her: "It appears quite a lot of Advanced level Apothecaries didn't get past the qualifying round. And yet I, this very small and lowly Elementary Apothecary, passed oh."

Jade Lake Fairy squeezed her clenched fists, added more strength to her feet and turned around to walk away quickly! When all was said and done, the Jade Lake's fairy had suffered too many losses under Su Luo, therefore, she still avoided Su Luo like the plague.

At this moment, the entire hall was nearly absolutely silent. Almost everyone's gazes were concentrated on Su Luo's body.

No matter how much they thought, they could not understand. She was clearly an Elementary Apothecary, why was she chosen by Grandmaster Rong Yun?

Among these, the most jealous would be those seven court apothecaries.

Chapter 711: The matter of accepting a disciple (11)

Each and every one of them were well-known apothecaries in Eastern Ling Empire. The lowest level among them was an Intermediate Apothecary, but now, they had lost to an Elementary Apothecary. How could you ask them to endure this?

Even more so, they basically didn't understand, why did Grandmaster Rong Yun allow that girl to pass the qualifying round?

Compared to other people, Emperor Jing was even more shocked.

Now, his entire body sat stiffly on the dragon throne, his expression when looking at Su Luo was extremely complex.

At this moment, the words Nangong Liuyun said to him before leaving appeared in his mind.

He said that on Su Luo's body, you should not be astonished at anything that was impossible occurring with regards to Su Luo. It was because she just happened to have that kind of good luck. If he dared to make it difficult for Su Luo, wait until he came back, he would tear the entire empire into pieces. These were the exact words Nangong Liuyun said.

Emperor Jing also remembered that when Nangong Liuyun said these words, inside the room, it was enveloped in icy frost, the temperature had dropped below freezing point. It gave him the illusion of being able to see the Grim Ripper.

Emperor Jing continued to look at Su Luo with a foolish expression, with great difficulty, he swallowed some saliva.

So many Intermediate Apothecaries and Advanced Apothecaries were all looked down by Grandmaster Rong Yun to such a degree. But Su Luo, this tiny, lowly Elementary Apothecary, actually....made it past the qualifying round?

If this wasn't luck, then what was it?

“Your Majesty, do you want to go to the Jade Lake’s Li family....” The head court eunuch secretly suggested to Emperor Jing.

Just a moment ago, Emperor Jing had already instructed people to prepare the betrothal gift. Now, the betrothal gift had been prepared properly, it was time to send the betrothal gifts.

This kind of matter needed to be done early, it was inadvisable for it to be delayed.

At this moment, Emperor Jing’s mind was in chaos, very much tangled up. Momentarily, he didn’t know what to do that would be best.

He thought about it, and he still decided to stay put. Wait until Grandmaster Rong Yun had picked the real disciple, then discuss it. In this way, he wouldn’t be wrong again.

At that time, sending the betrothal gifts to Jade Lake’s Li family, surely Nangong Liuyun would understand.

“Had better....wait again.” Waiting until the results were out was bound to be the safest.

Emperor Jing did not believe Su Luo could win, rather it was because he trusted in Nangong Liuyun’s vision.

This kind of news always spread very quickly.

Before Su Luo even returned to the manor, this news were like a virus spreading to and within Su Manor.

Originally, Su Zian had believed that Su Luo going to the throne room would become a laughingstock. Currently, he was extremely worried about this, but suddenly, he heard such good news spreading from outside. Immediately, he was completely stupefied.

What? Su Luo actually made it past the qualifying round?

And also, she was chosen after Grandmaster Rong Yun had looked down on many Intermediate and Advanced Apothecaries. Moreover, Su Luo did all this in a situation where she arrived late. She could even pass this way? Why would the heavens be this generous to her!

In the end, just how many secrets had this girl concealed from him?

First, she hid her light under a bushel to secretly cultivate.

Afterwards, she firmly concealed her identity as an Apothecary.

If it was not for Grandmaster Rong Yun accepting a disciple at this time, very likely, he, as her father, wouldn't even know until the next lifetime that his daughter was actually an Apothecary.

Watching for Su Luo to return to the manor, Su Zian originally wanted to immediately go up and welcome her.

However, he thought a bit and felt that way would lose too much of his dignity and airs as a father. As a result, he gave a slight cough and sat properly in the great hall, waiting for Su Luo to pay her respects to him.

However, he waited left and right, and still could not see Su Luo returning after all the waiting.

Didn't the servants say that this loathsome girl had returned to the manor? For more than half a day, even if she had crawled, she would still have been able to crawl from the gate to this great hall.

Su Zian held back his expression and glared at the steward who had arrived in a hurry: "Where is the Fourth Miss? Why is it that I still haven't seen her come over?"

An awkward expression flashed across the steward's eyes: "Fourth, Fourth Miss directly returned to her Wisteria courtyard..."

In other words, Su Zian sitting here waiting was his own wishful thinking?

Su Zian's complexion immediately dropped and became gloomy.

Chapter 712: The matter of accepting a disciple (12)

He was so angry that he smashed the teacup in his hand: “Loathsome girl, really believe that your wings have grown strong! In the end, does she even have this father in her eyes!”

“Master, how about you personally.....”

“Personally, fart! Get lost!” Su Zian, panting with rage, sat back down in the chair. He was so regretful that he was nearly gnashing his teeth.

At this moment, it was very quiet in Su Manor.

Su Zian was in a rage for a while, unexpectedly, he had a slight feeling of his blood going cold.

He wanted to look for someone to talk to, but suddenly discovered that in such a huge Su Manor, he didn't even have a single person to talk to.

Su Wan.....was already thrown into the forest, even her skeleton didn't remain behind.

Su Qing.....didn't know which great expert had saved her, didn't know her whereabouts.

Su Jingyu.....was reclining weakly on the bed, half-dead, not much alive.

Madam Su.....as above.

The only person that could still walk and jump was Su Xi. However, due to his slap, he didn't know where she had run off to.

Nowadays, in Su Manor, the only one living comfortably was Su Luo, who everyone had despised and was disdainful of from before.

Su Zian put his head in his hands. He truly couldn't understand, just in more than half a year's time, why had the circumstances reversed so much?

When did everything start to happen?

It was from that moment that Su Luo had woken up that everything started to change.

Su Zian's expression now was discussing and conjuring, suddenly bright then dark. Making it hard for people to see clearly.

But speaking of Su Luo.

After returning to Wisteria courtyard, she opened that piece of paper that Grandmaster Rong Yun had given her. She had just glanced at it and couldn't help but suck in a cold breath of air.

The first topic mentioned, with regards to her, was too difficult, right?

Gather seven pieces of crystal stones, divided into red, orange, yellow, green, cyan, blue and purple, the seven colors, with one piece of each color.

Su Luo plaintively hugged the comforter and rolled about on her bed.

This was asking her to go where to magic out a purple-colored crystal stone huh?

Red, orange, green, cyan, and blue, these six, she really did have. It was because the Amethyst Crystal Fish in her space was like a venerable hen that could lay eggs.

Moreover, her Amethyst Crystal Fish followed the three meals a day to drop a crystal stone.

Therefore, these days, Su Luo had been paying attention all along. Once a high grade crystal stone came out, she had always stored it away.

The lower grade ones were used by her and the little divine dragon to cultivate.

As a result, now, Su Luo could take out the first six colors of crystal stones. As for the last purple-colored one, she really didn't have it.

She simply had never even seen it before.

Ten days time, making her go where to find it?

During this time, Beichen Ying made a trip to come over. Hearing the news that Su Luo was looking for a purple-colored crystal stone, he was startled until his eyes opened wide.

“Purple-colored crystal stone...isn't this too difficult?”

Su Luo aggrievedly threw up her hands: “That's right, only heaven knows where this piece of purple-colored crystal stone can be found.”

“Rest assured, I...” Beichen Ying was about to say more but was interrupted by Su Luo.

“Your Beichen aristocratic family, is fifty four-thousand kilometers away. You couldn't make a round trip within ten days.” Su Luo gave a sigh.

Moreover, such a precious thing as a purple-colored crystal stone, how could Beichen Ying even ask his clan for it? She didn't want to owe such a huge favor.

The always sunshine-like big boy child Beichen Ying, now had his brows tightly knotted: “The Jade Lake's Li family home is not far from here, more than enough to make a round trip in ten days.”

“Are you saying...Grandmaster Rong Yun is leaning on Li Yaoyao's side?” In fact, Su Luo's heart had always thought this way, only, she was not certain.

“Otherwise how else, it's not three days, not five days, but exactly ten days.” Beichen Ying frowned.

“On the surface, it seems she is indeed more suited than me to be Grandmaster Rong Yun's disciple.” Su Luo spread out her hands.

“She only knows how to make some effort on the surface. I merely doubt that having her follow along Grandmaster Rong Yun's side for more than half a year already. How is it that Grandmaster Rong Yun did not discover her true colors?” Beichen Ying frowned suspiciously.

Chapter 713: The matter of accepting a disciple (13)

Su Luo used one hand to prop up her chin, also expressing her doubts.

Grandmaster Rong Yun was accustomed to being indifferent. His methods of doing things were enigmatic and impossible to predict. No matter how much people pondered, they really were unable to understand.

However, she always felt that Grandmaster Rong Yun, being that sort of wise and farsighted person, should have been able to see Li Yaoyao's true colours. If this was the case, then, why did he still side with her?

The more Su Luo thought about it, the more her head hurt.

“Forget it, it's just the first exam question. Losing is fine, consider it a loss. There are still opportunities after this.” Su Luo spread out her hands.

“If you've already lost the first round, then it will be very hard to win it back later.” Beichen Ying's gaze was gentle and soft like water. He stood up and rubbed Su Luo's head.

This sort of intimate action was something only Nangong would do. So, momentarily, Su Luo had a somewhat blank expression.

Just at this moment of being distracted, Beichen Ying had already walked far away.

“This child, how can he just randomly rub someone's head.” Su Luo grumbled a line of complaint, without actually thinking too deeply about it.

During these ten days, Su Luo did not actually stay idle.

Aside from refining drugs in her space, the rest of her time was spent staring at the Amethyst Crystal Fish.

Additionally, she kept telling the little divine dragon repeatedly that he must not be gluttonous and eat it on the sly.

The little divine dragon also understood the seriousness of the matter, and his little head nodded solemnly. The several days after, he did not even go play the water sports he loved the most. His small body just laid on his stomach in front of the Amethyst Crystal Fish.

Two large limpid eyes, with clearly distinct black and white sections, stared fixedly at the Amethyst Crystal Fish without blinking.

However, even if it was like this, the Amethyst Crystal Fish was still very disappointing.

Until the last day, the Amethyst Crystal fish still had not spit out that purple-colored crystal stone that Su Luo had wanted the most.

Su Luo let out a sigh, there was no other way...

Even though she was not able to obtain the purple-colored crystal stone, Su Luo still got up really early in the morning. After freshening up and dressing, she looked like a completely new person. Like this, she went towards the throne room.

In the throne room, there were less civil and military officials this time, yet, there were more of Jade Lake's Li family's people.

Li Yaoxiang, Li Aoqiong, were all present.

Jade Lake's fairy had a smile in her eyes. She cast a glance at Su Luo with that smile that was not a smile.

One must know yourself and know your enemy. Only then can you come out unscathed through a hundred battles (1) . The Jade Lake's Li family naturally had taken notice of the activity on Su Luo's side all along.

Who told her to be the only finalist that passed to fight with the Jade Lake's fairy for the position?

The news that the Jade Lake's Li family asked around and got was that there was no movements in Su Manor, only Beichen Ying was outside, busily running around.

Moreover, it was a pity that every time, he would return disappointed.

Grandmaster Rong Yun sat at a high place. Today's him was still dressed in a soft, white robe. Aristocratic and graceful, his pitch-black, ink-colored eyes carried a kind of deeply hidden sharpness in the midst of seemingly being empty and misty.

Apothecary Leng stood on the steps and with a loud voice, said:

“Ten days’ time is already over. Now, present the items with both hands.”

When he spoke, Apothecary Leng swept a worried gaze over Su Luo’s face.

The news in the entire imperial capital was usually thorough. All of Su Manor’s activities were observed by everyone.

At this time, almost everyone didn’t have any hope placed on Su Luo.

However, thinking about it, it also made sense. One was Jade Lake’s Li family’s little princess. The other was the very small Su Manor’s unfavoured daughter birthed by a concubine.

This sort of matter that involved one’s background, family property and connections, how could Su Luo possibly win?

Also, it was a purple-colored crystal stone, how could she possibly bring one out?

The corner of Jade lake’s fairy’s contained the traces of a slight smile. She placed a red silk bag on the tray and took a step back.

After standing firmly back in her place, she used a provocative gaze to sweep towards Su Luo.

However, Su Luo, at that moment, stood there motionless.

Su Luo’s peculiarity drew in everyone’s attention.

What was this, Su Manor’s unfavoured daughter birthed by a concubine, waiting for? It seemed as if she was trying to stall for time.

However...

Everyone could not understand.

If this was any other matter, then fine. However, with this purple-colored crystal stone, even if she stalled for time, if she could not bring it out, then she simply could not bring it out.

In the end, what exactly was she waiting for? Could it be that she would wait and wait, allowing her to wait until it arrived?

*

1) One must know yourself and know your enemy. Only then can you come out unscathed through a hundred battles: This was from Suzi's book of the Art of War, a famous book written in 776-471 BC on strategies of war.

Chapter 714: Rong Yun's Bias (1)

In fact, Su Luo was still waiting.

That morning, the Amethyst Crystal Fish still had not spit out a crystal stone yet. Therefore, she placed all of her last hopes on this last chance.

She hoped the Amethyst Crystal Fish would, at the most crucial moment, be able to spit out the purple crystal stone that she needed the most. Please, please.

Didn't everyone all say her luck was good, that she's the illegitimate daughter of the goddess of fortune? This time's luck must be very impressive! Su Luo was praying secretly inside her heart.

A hint of a sneer flashed across the Jade Lake's fairy's eyes: "Miss Su, it's your turn."

The corner of Su Luo's mouth contained a trace of a shallow smile: "There's no hurry. Has the Jade Lake's fairy already collected them all?"

Li Yaoyao gave a smile that was not a smile: "Waiting for you to hand in the exam. Naturally, I'll wait to see the results. Hurry and go up, stop delaying for time. If Grandmaster Rong Yun gets angry, the consequences will be severe."

At this time, Su Luo talking about this and that with Jade Lake's fairy was just to stall for more time.

There were still ten minutes left before the Amethyst Crystal Fish would spit out another crystal stone...

The Jade Lake's fairy noticed that Su Luo was still deliberately stalling for time and could not help but sneer: "Miss Su, if you don't have the purple-colored crystal stone, then you just don't have it. Even if you wait, it won't come. How long will you drag this out?"

Su Luo did not pay her any attention. She maintained her I'm-mulling-over-it expression and nearly infuriated the Jade Lake's fairy to death.

On the surface, Su Luo seemed calm and collected, but actually, inside her heart, she was secretly anxious.

Su Luo had never known that time originally passed this slowly...These ten minutes let her fully experience the torment.

Just right at this time, Grandmaster Rong Yun shot a glance at Su Luo. His clear and cold voice rang out: “Time—” “Pop—” Before Grandmaster Rong Yun could finished speaking, he saw a little dragon suddenly leap up towards his body.

The little divine dragon, having received Su Luo’s command, ran into Grandmaster Rong Yun’s arms and acted cutely.

Before Grandmaster Rong Yun had treated him well. Now, seeing him run over, Grandmaster Rong Yun also came to like it.

The little divine dragon didn’t just stay well-behaved in his arms and acted cute. He was very lively, leaping up and down.

One moment here, then another moment there. Suddenly, he leapt up onto that table.

As everyone knew, the embroidered pouch that had every color of crystal stone was placed on this tray.

The speed of the little divine dragon’s paws were very fast. Don’t know where he got his courage from, and one paw went into the pouch and grabbed something, immediately stuffing it into his mouth.

Even though his action was quick, under thousands of staring eyes, everyone had seen it very clearly!

As a result, everyone froze, staring blankly.

This... What was this supposed to be... Wrapped inside that embroidered pouch was clearly the items the Jade Lake’s fairy had handed in.

The bystanders were shocked, but how could their shock be compared to the Jade Lake’s Li family’s?

Wrapped inside that was actually seven colors of crystal stone, with one for each color. If it had been something else, then forget it. But the purple-colored crystal stone was extremely hard to come by. Even though they were one of the strongest among the ten great powers, they also had to grit their teeth to bear the pain before managing to gather them all.

Li Yaoxiang got so angry that his face flushed red.

Subconsciously, he wanted to rush up there and examine it. However, before waiting for him to even get close, the two chamberlains at Grandmaster Rong Yun's side obstructed Li Yaoxiang's way.

One indifferent voice, like the wind, said: "Stop right there."

A grim and bloodthirsty voice said: "Courting death?"

The hot blood that rushed up to Li Yaoxiang's head cooled down in a flash. Only then did he realise that a moment ago, he almost offended Grandmaster Rong Yun.

Even though he realised this point, but due to arrogance, it only eased the tension in his expression slightly: "Grandmaster Rong Yun, please examine them for a moment, which crystal stones did we, the Jade Lake's Li family, lose!"

If it was others, then fine. If it turned out to be the purple-colored crystal stone... For Li Yaoxiang, just thinking about it, felt his head hurt.

At this moment, the corner of Su Luo's mouth twitched slightly.

She somewhat speechlessly supported her forehead with her hand and raised her head to look at the sky.

It was because of her family's little divine dragon's treasure hunt ability.

Chapter 715: Rong Yun's Bias (2)

If he was to take something, then just take the best. So, she was certain that what the little divine dragon took away was definitely the purple-colored crystal stone.

Grandmaster Rong Yun's expression did not change. His gaze when looking at the little divine dragon carried a trace of a gentle smile. In an indifferent voice, he instructed the chamberlain, "Pour it out and let's have a look."

"Yes, Master." The coldly detached one stepped forward and picked up the corner of the embroidered purse. A crashing sound rang out and the crystal stones poured out onto the table.

Li Yaoxiang stared fixedly at that pile of crystal stones. After seeing things clearly, immediately, a huge change occurred in his expression.

"What just happened here? Where is the purple-colored crystal stone? And also, the blue-colored crystal stone? Why is it that they're all gone?" The more he said, the more worked up he got.

At this moment, the little divine dragon had already returned back to Grandmaster Rong Yun's arms. His little head was pressed tightly against Grandmaster Rong Yun's chest. That pair of clammy, limpid eyes were simply way too lovable.

The moment Li Yaoxiang raised his head, he was faced with the little divine dragon's innocent-looking eyes. Suddenly, a wave of anger rushed towards his head!

"Quickly, have the purple and blue-colored crystal stones returned! Otherwise, you'll be skinned with your tendons pulled out!" How precious was the purple-colored crystal stone, that his family's old father could not even bear to cultivate with it. Yet, now, it had been swallowed in one gulp by the little thing in front of his eyes!

The little divine dragon's two small claws were clinging tightly to Grandmaster Rong Yun's clothes, his pair of eyes looking innocent and at a loss.

The fierce and tough Li Yaoxiang going against the stupidly adorable little divine dragon... Even though everyone had seen the little divine dragon steal the crystal stones, but Li Yaoxiang's aggressiveness made everyone furrow their eyebrows.

Li Yaoxiang wished he could rush up there, capture that little thing and immediately beat it to death!

Still pretending to be innocent, still pretending to be bewildered, pretending to be innocent and bewildered your sister's fart! You little thief!

However, the little divine dragon, who had a backer, simply did not pay any attention to his volcanic eruption-like rage. He only looked towards Grandmaster Rong Yun without letting go. He knew that Grandmaster Rong Yun really favored him.

Confronted with Li Yaoxiang's clownish hopping mad behavior, Grandmaster Rong Yun frowned slightly. He swept a disgusted glance over at Li Yaoxiang, "What are you anxious about? You're scaring it."

While Grandmaster Rong Yun smoothed out the little dragon's scales, he was also trying to appease him.

Li Yaoxiang was immediately dumbfounded.

Not just Li Yaoxiang, it could be said that almost all the people present were dumbfounded.

Look at this. Grandmaster Rong Yun, who had always been just and harsh, what sort of thing did he just say?

This little thief stole something in a public place with numerous people, yet he wouldn't even allow the victim to reproach it loudly because it would scare this little thief badly?

Everyone looked speechlessly towards Grandmaster Rong Yun... So, it turned out, that even someone as noble as Grandmaster Rong Yun, his heart also developed bias. Moreover, he was biased in such a justifiable and unbridled way.

Alas, who asked him to be set up so high, to be the Grandmaster Rong Yun that everyone wanted to look up to admirably?

At this time, countless people were delusionally fantasizing that they were the little dragon inside Grandmaster Rong Yun's arms. To receive Grandmaster Rong Yun's bias, how blessed would that be.

The Jade Lake's fairy was almost unable to maintain the smile on her face anymore.

She had always thought that regardless if he was faced with a monk or even Buddha, Grandmaster Rong Yun would always be biased towards her.

However, it was when Li Yaoxiang was relentlessly reprimanded a moment ago, that she suddenly came to realize. The Grandmaster was most biased not towards her, nor Su Luo, but towards this little dragon!

Looking at this little dragon, the expression on the Jade Lake's fairy's face condensed into frosted ice. The rage inside her heart burned unceasingly.

How could she forget, that time when they were at the Amethyst Fish Palace, this little thing was still a little puppy at that time. However, it played tricks on her until such a shameful thing happened to her!

"Great Master..." The Jade Lake's fairy held back the rage inside her heart and squeezed out a stiff smile onto her face: "Those pieces of purple and blue-colored crystal stones..."

Grandmaster Rong Yun lifted his hand.

The Jade Lake's fairy immediately was unable to make a sound. No one else dared to jump out again.

Chapter 716: Rong Yun's Bias (3)

Then, afterwards, Grandmaster Rong Yun placed both hands under the little divine dragon's arms, bringing him up until their eyes met. His expression carried a trace of interest: "How many did you steal?"

The little divine dragon tilted his head and thought for a moment, then thought some more, and finally extended one little finger.

"Just one?" Traces of a smile flashed across Grandmaster Rong Yun's eyes. However, these traces flashed across so fast that other than himself, almost no one else noticed it.

The little divine dragon stretched out its face and nodded solemnly. Just that one, there weren't any more!

"You are good, one grab and you grabbed their most precious piece." Grandmaster Rong Yun exasperatedly poked his little head.

There was actually a trap in what Grandmaster Rong Yun said.

When everyone was still at a loss and ignorant, with regards to the little divine dragon's theft, Grandmaster Rong Yun had already washed it clean.

One grab and you grabbed their most precious one. Moreover, the little dragon emphasised that he only took one. Then, this piece... In the end, was it the purple-colored crystal stone or the blue-colored crystal stone?

The little divine dragon covered his forehead that felt somewhat painful from being poked. He pouted his little mouth, looking aggrieved. The hearts of the people who saw it would all go soft.

Everyone could not help but believe that this adorable little thing only stole one stone.

Just a moment ago, Li Yaoxiang had done his best to restrain himself. However, seeing Grandmaster Rong Yun's attitude, the more he saw, the more he felt there was something fishy and could not help but interrupt loudly: "Great Master, this statement is wrong. How can it be just one piece? Obviously it was two!"

The little divine dragon turned its body around. Panting with rage, he extended one little claw. One! Just one!

Li Yaoxiang said hatefully: “The blue-colored crystal stone and the purple-colored crystal stone are both missing. How can it be just one? You little thing, not only do you steal, but you also lie! Simply bad to the bone!”

The little dragon, panting angrily, continued to extend his little middle claw. As if to say, it was just one, just that one!

Grandmaster Rong Yun glared at Li Yaoxiang: “Don’t think that just because the little divine dragon can’t talk, you can slander it.”

The moment Li Yaoxiang heard that, immediately, he choked on a mouthful of blood in his throat.

Slander? He slandered which shameless little dragon? What sort of talk was this? Grandmaster Rong Yun was surely too biased?!

Li Yaoxiang was so angry that he nearly stomped about: “Great Master, how can you be so biased! It’s obviously that it stole away two pieces! The crystal stones inside that bag were ones I personally placed inside. I placed them in there personally - how many there were inside, how could I have counted wrong?”

Grandmaster Rong Yun frowned. He cast an indifferent glance at him: “And you still consider yourself the Second Master of the Jade Lake Palace. Lowering yourself to argue with a magical beast.”

Li Yaoxiang choked on another mouthful of blood inside his throat.

Even defending his own rights was wrong? How could it be that having had something stolen, one still has to praise the other party for a job well done in stealing it? What sort of reasoning was this!

In fact, this was Grandmaster Rong Yun’s justification.

In fact, Grandmaster Rong Yun was essentially the same as Apothecary Leng inside. For someone they cared about, they would be extremely protective, biased and indulge them without any limits.

Li Yaoxiang could not swallow those two mouthfuls of anger down. Finally, he said hatefully, "Then, according to Great Master's meaning, this matter will just be let go like this?"

Grandmaster Rong Yun cast an indifferent glance at him: "It's rare that he has something he likes, just give it to him to play with."

In other words, having the little divine dragon take a fancy to your family's crystal stone, you should be honored. Instead, you're here making a big fuss, how scandalous.

Having heard what was said, Li Yaoxiang once again had a mouthful of blood rise up rapidly. He felt that he was soon going to cough up all the blood he had left.

He felt that in all the years he had lived, he still had never seen someone so biased to such a generous and magnanimous degree. It was to the point of even being confident that justice was on his side.

Actually, it was not just him. All the people present were all somewhat speechlessly looking at Grandmaster Rong Yun... They also really had never seen a person as biased as this before. It really was an eye-opener.

Chapter 717: Rong Yun's Bias (4)

But, what means were there? His strength was tyrannical, the only Grandmaster rank Apothecary in existence on the continent. If he wanted to be biased, what could you do?

In order to curry favour with him, didn't they conceal their conscience and lick his face. Praised him for being biased well, for being honorably biased, for being biased in an open-hearted and magnanimous way?

Therefore, it can be said that in this world of the strong being respected, strength was the firm reasoning. Without strength, just like Li Yaoxiang in front of Grandmaster Rong Yun, then one must eat a loss.

Li Yaoxiang tolerated it again and again, but he still could not bear it. He asked with a cold face: "The blue and purple-colored crystal stones that were stolen, how is Great Master prepared to deal with the matter?"

Grandmaster Rong Yun cast a puzzled glance at him, then asked distrustfully: "Could it be that those crystal stones were not presented by you guys?"

"Yes, they were." Naturally, they were presented by the Jade Lake's Li family.

Grandmaster Rong Yun was even more puzzled: "Since it was presented by you guys, then it should be considered as this Apothecary's possession. Whoever this Apothecary wants to give it to, I can give it to. Why are you commenting on it?"

Li Yaoxiang was immediately..... Left speechless!

But... this-this was wrong!!!

Even though it was something that was presented, but after the examination, wasn't it supposed to be returned? How could Grandmaster Rong Yun just take them for his own?

However, this was not something Li Yaoxiang could say. Once said and caused him to be angry, what's to be done if he directly did not want Li Yaoyao to be his disciple anymore?

Therefore, the expression on Li Yaoxiang's face was what's called twisted... just as though he was constipated.

Actually, at the start, Grandmaster Rong Yun truly had no plans for wanting these items. He had originally intended to examine it and then allow for them to be taken back.

However, who could have imagined that the little divine dragon would cause such a brief episode. Adding to this, Li Yaoxiang was jumping up and down on this again and again. So, in order to tackle the difficult problem, he just accepted the items as his own .

Why would Grandmaster Rong Yun care about the fact that Li Yaoxiang was all twisted over there. The people he cared about had always been few in number.

At this moment, Grandmaster Rong Yun placed the crystal stones back into the embroidered purse. He used a long string to tie a knot, while he was at it, he hung it onto the little divine dragon's neck: "Since you like it, then take all of these too."

This, was, just, too, biased!

The expression on the Li family's people was what was called unsightly.

A second ago, Grandmaster Rong Yun had specifically taken the embroidered purse as his own. However, a second after, he just gave the stuff to the little divine dragon.

This-this was simply too much.

Actually, the even more insulting thing still had not happened yet.

The little divine dragon somewhat disdainfully jabbed at the deflated embroidered purse.

There was an undergarment (1) hanging on his neck, really ugly. The little divine dragon expressed his great dislike and disdain for it.

Upon seeing this, Grandmaster Rong Yun could not help but smile. He straightened the embroidered purse that was made crooked by the little divine dragon's jabbing. He pulled out a few blue crystal stones from who knows where to stuff into the embroidered purse until it was full to the brim. Then, he patted the little divine dragon's head: "You should be happy now, right?"

"Awoo, awoo, awoo!" The perfectly satisfied little divine dragon nodded hurriedly, then excitedly abandoned Grandmaster Rong Yun who he had finished exploiting. He turned around and rushed towards Su Luo.

All at once, he leaped into Su Luo's arms. Then, as if to take credit, he took off the embroidered purse and stuffed all of it into Su Luo's sleeve.

Seeing this, the corner of everyone's mouths, without exception, twitched.

What do you call this matter!

The Li family's crystal stones were taken by Grandmaster Rong Yun as his own. Grandmaster Rong Yun gave the crystal stones to the little dragon and made a loss by adding several more blue-colored crystal stones. The result... the little divine dragon gave the crystal stones to that unremarkable young concubine's daughter from Su family?

At this time, everyone used mystified gazes to stare fixedly at Su Luo.

Envious, simply too envious!

If they also had Su Luo's great luck, how nice would it be to have a little dragon like this as a spirit pet.

At this time, the Jade Lake's fairy stared at Su Luo hatefully.

*

1) 兜兜: Loosely translated as 'undergarment', it is a piece of cloth with strings to tie around the neck and back...It acted like a bra for women and babies wear it too see image below but is shaped almost like a bib. So, it's a traditional undergarment for women, equivalent to the modern day bra but covering more skin and clothing for babies.

Chapter 718: Rong Yun's Bias (5)

Li Yaoyao's pair of beautiful eyes ignited with a raging inferno, itching to burn Su Luo until not even ashes were left.

Hateful!

She originally thought that this time, her victory was assured. However, who would have known that halfway through, Su Luo, that busybody, jumped out unexpectedly to disrupt her plans. If Grandmaster Rong Yun was a person who would love Su Luo because of the little divine dragon, then her position would be in danger!

Jade Lake's fairy could not endure it anymore and took a step forward. She bowed to make her salutations to Grandmaster Rong Yun: "What Great Master said is naturally correct. However... how will the outcome of this match be determined now?"

That's right, there was no definite proof of how many pieces of crystal stones the little divine dragon had grabbed.

From the start till she presented the items, only the Jade Lake's Li family knew how many pieces were inside, others could not have known of this.

Grandmaster Rong Yun's expression remained unperturbed: "Then, let's regard this as you having submitted seven pieces."

These words, when heard, sounded uncomfortable ah.... What do you mean by just regard as It was obviously seven. Now, it seemed as if she had been given and took huge advantages... Li Yaoyao became so depressed that she nearly vomited out blood.

She just knew that running into this accursed little divine dragon, nothing good ever happened.

However, because she knew Grandmaster Rong Yun liked the little divine dragon, therefore, the corner of Li Yaoyao's mouth squeezed out a smile.

Since she already received his words, the Jade Lake's fairy naturally would not foolishly argue over this. Her eyes carried a smile, and with a nod, she stepped down.

Since Grandmaster had said she submitted seven pieces, then now, it's time to see what Su Luo, this slut, has.

.

If she could not submit seven pieces, even if her little spirit pet was clever, so what? Wasn't it still a loss?

At this moment, everybody's gaze was concentrated on Su Luo's body.

Yet, Su Luo's expression really was somewhat enigmatic.

Ten minutes had passed, the little Amethyst Fish in her space finally started to spit out bubbles.

Su Luo watched with rapt attention.

It's coming out, coming out.....

Su Luo secretly encouraged the little Amethyst Fish in her heart. Hoping that it could, at the most crucial point and by all means, strive for the purple-colored crystal stone.

However....the matter that made her depressed still ended up happening.

During this most critical moment, the little Amethyst Fish actually spat out --a red-colored crystal stone!

Su Luo was itching to pick it up on the spot and spank its bottom.

This child was truly too disappointing. At the most crucial moment, it screwed up.

Even if it was not a purple-colored crystal stone, shouldn't it at least be a blue-colored crystal stone? But no, it directly spat out the lowest ranked red-colored crystal stone. Su Luo didn't even want to speak to it.

The Jade Lake's fairy saw Su Luo's face become disappointed, the corner of her mouth then raised into a smile that was not a smile: "Miss Su, time is already up. Even if you were to continue to delay, Beichen Ying still would not arrive.”

Su Luo's eyes flashed with a cold thought.

If Beichen Ying had rushed towards the imperial palace, then it means that he had already found a purple-colored crystal stone. However, the Jade Lake's Li family had already arranged for strong experts to block the road he must take.

They could not harm Beichen Ying excessively, after all, he was still a member of the Beichen Palace. However, blocking him and not letting him enter the Imperial Palace, this was already enough.

Grandmaster Rong Yun's indifferent gaze shot towards Su Luo, the meaning in his eyes was very clear.

Just at this extremely urgent juncture, Su Luo felt that her own palm had an extra crystal stone. The thick spiritual energy was clearly that of a purple-colored crystal stone!

Su Luo took a furtive glance and saw the little divine dragon covering his little mouth, laughing.

Seeing Su Luo looking over, the little divine dragon shyly covered his little face. He turned around and proceeded to roll into Su Luo's sleeves, rolling about and acting bashful.

Clenching that purple-colored crystal stone, Su Luo's heart simply burst with joy.

Why?

Because the little divine dragon could not bring out a purple-colored crystal stone from out of nowhere. Then, this crystal stone was definitely the one from the Jade Lake's Li Family.

Everybody had already walked into a misconception.

They had all thought the little divine dragon had already swallowed that purple-colored crystal stone.

Chapter 719: Rong Yun's bias (6)

As a result, Li Yaoxiang did not even mention the matter of searching for it.

Who could have imagined that the little divine dragon had only swallowed one blue-colored crystal stone and that the purple-colored crystal stone still remained in his paw. Now, it just so happened to resolve Su Luo's worry.

A cold smile streaked across Su Luo's heart.

Didn't Li Yaoyao use every possible means to stop Beichen Ying from delivering the purple crystal stone?

Now, it could be considered that the Jade Lake's Li Family's purple-colored crystal stone had actually helped her out greatly.

Su Luo took out the brocade sack she had already prepared earlier. She took advantage of the moment when people were not paying attention to slip the purple-colored crystal stone into the brocade sack.

Apothecary Leng personally came down to take the brocade sack. Afterwards, he personally passed it into Grandmaster Rong Yun's hands.

Apothecary Leng retreated a step and mockingly cast Li Yaoxiang a glance.

What evil idea this person had, who wouldn't know? Who to learn from, why must he learn from that family's little divine dragon? Thought of intercepting halfway? He was already at such an age and still not afraid of losing face.

However, Apothecary Leng had personally come down to receive it, so Li Yaoxiang did not have an opportunity to act.

Seeing this, Li Yaoxiang hatefully glared at Apothecary Leng and then turned his face away.

However, he was not worried, in any case, Su Luo, that loathsome girl, could not bring out a purple-colored crystal stone.

Grandmaster Rong Yun opened the brocade sack and lightly swept a glance. If you looked carefully, you would have noticed his eyebrows wrinkle slightly for a split second.

He raised his head, his deep eyes shooting towards Su Luo. The meaning in its depths, others could not understand, but Su Luo clearly understood.

Su Luo's eyes contained a smile, her expression was unperturbed and at ease. She calmly welcomed Grandmaster Rong Yun's gaze that examined her.

Even though her strength was lacking, she still had a lot of self-confidence.

Grandmaster Rong Yun sized up Su Luo with a glance, then moved his gaze away.

“Crash—” Grandmaster Rong Yun picked up the brocade sack and poured out the pile of crystal stones inside.

Red, orange, yellow, green, cyan, blue, purple!

Unexpectedly, it was seven pieces and seven colors!

She was even able to find the most precious purple-colored crystal stone!

Everybody stared in a daze at the pile of crystal stones on the table, so excited that they almost trembled.

What was wrong with this world?

Even this kind of insignificant daughter of a concubine from Su family could conveniently bring out a purple-colored crystal stone?

This was absolutely, absolutely impossible!

Could it be that the Su family had another treasure storage?

At this moment, in the minds of many people, a different thought was secretly born.

At this moment, Emperor Jing was dumbfoundedly looking at that piece of purple-colored crystal stone. For a long time, he could not return to reality.....

He looked at that piece of purple-colored crystal stone, and then looked at Su Luo again. The words Nangong Liuyun said before he left resurfaced in his mind.

He said: No matter what incredible things happen on Su Luo's body, you should not be too amazed....

The decrepit Emperor Jing dropped back on the Imperial Throne. At this moment, he actually was slightly rejoicing that he had not gone to the Jade Lake's Li Family to conclude the marriage.

“This is wrong. That piece of purple-colored crystal stone....” Li Aoqiong's words hadn't finished.

But the little divine dragon, who was already guarding by the side of the table, was then seen with his paw as quick as lightning, grabbing that purple-colored crystal stone and stuffing it into his mouth.

He even accompanied it with a 'gulp' sound, as he swallowed the crystal stone into his stomach.

As everyone knows, this move was called destroying the corpse and wiping out all traces.

Originally, Li Aoqiong's words were too subtle and unclear, nobody could understand it. However, matching it with the little divine dragon's covering up action, that made it more obvious.....

Everybody all recalled the matter from before when the little divine dragon grabbed the crystal stones.

As a result, everybody all nodded their heads, having clearly understood.

That's right, how could Su Manor be able to bring out a purple-colored crystal stone. This purple crystal stone was clearly the one from the Jade Lake's Li family.....

Li Aoqiong was so angry that his face became black: “Great Master, that piece of purple-colored crystal stone clearly was the one from Jade Lake's Li family's! She cheated!”

Li Aoqiong pointed at Su Luo with a sinister and fierce gaze, wishing he could choke Su Luo to death.

Su Luo's expression was calm like unperturbed water as she cast him a glance: "Do you have evidence?"

Even if what you said was correct, if you do not have any evidence, then it would be of no use.

Chapter 720: Rong Yun's bias (7)

Li Yaoxiang's complexion turned ashen: "The evidence is inside that little dragon's stomach!"

Li Yaoxiang cupped his hands in respect towards Grandmaster Rong Yun: "Great Master, I have a way to make the little dragon vomit out the crystal stone in its stomach. Please allow it, Great Master."

Su Luo's eyes had a smile, and she shot a mocking glance at Li Yaoxiang.

He dared to ask permission to act against the little divine dragon from Grandmaster Rong Yun? Had the brain of the Second Master of the Jade Lake's Li family been kicked by a donkey?

Sure enough, Grandmaster Rong Yun's indifferent complexion suddenly sank. He coldly snorted: "Want to make the little dragon vomit? Only if you will let this apothecary cut open your stomach first."

"Sss—" Everyone sucked in a breath of cold air, and immediately looked at each other in dismay.

At the same time, they all looked at Li Yaoxiang with sympathy and pity.

This idiot, Grandmaster Rong Yun already showed that he favored that little dragon, yet you would jump up and down to complain like this? Wasn't this creating problems for yourself?

Li Yaoxiang was extremely angered by Grandmaster Rong Yun's biased treatment. His complexion was indeterminate, going from clear to overcast, the fists at his side were tightly clenched.

"Great Master, this is not fair!" Li Aoqiong, seeing his second uncle eating a loss this way, also stood out, unwilling to accept this.

Grandmaster Rong Yun's forehead wrinkled slightly. He hadn't even spoken before Apothecary Leng had already rudely glared at Li Aoqiong: "Are you the one accepting a disciple or is it my master who is accepting disciples? Is there a place for your opinion? Scram to the side!"

These words did not have any mercy.

However, they were truly reasonable.

It was Grandmaster Rong Yun who was accepting disciples. Whoever he wanted to accept, then he would accept. Whatever rules he wanted to set, then he would set them. Why would he need others' nonsense opinions?

Grandmaster Rong Yun nodded his head slightly: "Those who feel this is unfair, you can withdraw."

Once these words were out, the Jade Lake's Li family members looked at each other in dismay and collectively became silent.

They had already strived for many years to get Grandmaster Rong Yun to accept Li Yaoyao as a disciple. In their eyes, victory was in sight, how could they just voluntarily give up?

At this moment, Li Yaoyao's complexion was also very ugly.

Although she did her utmost to maintain a gentle magnanimous expression, but her heart was brimming with anger, and inevitably would be displayed on her face.

As a result, now, it seemed her smile was just that stiff, like a statue.

Li Yaoyao bit her back teeth, and squeezed out a stiff smile: "Naturally, what Great Master said is correct. Then, congratulations to Miss Su for passing the first round."

Su Luo naturally returned it courteously, her eyes having a cynical smiling expression: "Didn't Miss Li also pass? The same congratulations to you!"

Miss Li?

Being praised by others for a long time as the Jade Lake's fairy, suddenly hearing herself being addressed as Miss Li made her feel like dirt.

Li Yaoyao's heart increasingly loathed Su Luo even more. Only, her face retained its gentle and shallow smile.

Grandmaster Rong Yun beckoned with his hand, then the little divine dragon skillfully jumped into his arms.

Grandmaster Rong Yun unhurriedly hung the brocade sack on the little divine dragon's neck and lightly said: "Take it to go play with it."

Grandmaster Rong Yun's pampering indulgence towards the little divine dragon, everyone was numb from seeing it. As a result, their reaction was not as big as before.

Apothecary Leng took a glance at Grandmaster Rong Yun, the latter nodding his head.

Apothecary Leng understood, and raised his voice: "The first round, Li Yaoyao submitted seven crystal stones of seven colours, Su Luo submitted seven crystal stones of seven colours, as a result, both sides are tied."

If this kind of result was placed a day before, then, how unimaginable would it have been?

Even the Jade Lake's Li family had not foreseen this, in the end, what kind of dramatic scene would happen?

"After ten days, the second round begins." Grandmaster Rong Yun stood up, his wide robe swiped perpendicular to the ground. His expression had a type of supremacy that did not allow anyone to question him.

Everyone respectfully saw off Grandmaster Rong Yun.

Li Yaoyao thought for a moment and then still quickly chased after Grandmaster Rong Yun. Afterwards, she followed closely behind him.

Chapter 721: Rong Yun's bias (8)

Su Luo stepped out of the throne room. The first person she saw was Beichen Ying.

This child's head of hair was a chaotic mess. He looked messy and cut a very sorry figure. His complexion seeming travel worn and exhausted. However, his eyes were deep and alive.

With both hands crossed over his chest, he leaned on the red pillar flamboyantly, with deep eyes that contained a smile as he looked at Su Luo.

Su Luo smilingly patted his shoulders: "You arrived too late, otherwise, you would have seen a good play. Truly regretful."

Beichen Ying grasped that purple-colored crystal stone in his hands tightly, and placed it behind his back. His expression had a touch of lament: "That is truly regretful."

From an angle that Su Luo could not see, a changed expression flashed through his eyes.

These few days, he had hurried day and night to finally make a round trip between Beichen Palace and the Eastern Ling capital.

Because he was afraid of ambushes set up by the Jade Lake's Li family, he had notified Lan Xuan and Anye Ming. He asked them to impersonate him and lure away the opponent's experts.

Afterwards, he quickly rushed to the Imperial Palace. Originally, he wanted to directly go in. But instead, he stealthily flew to the roof to watch.

He had calculated everything, only, he could never have calculated that Luo girl would actually win the first round by relying on herself.

This time, in the end, he still was of no help.

Su Manor.

The news of Su Luo's draw with the Jade Lake's fairy in the first round was passed around very quickly.

Su Zian who originally was paying an abnormal amount of attention to this, naturally knew the results immediately.

The second he knew of this news, he immediately sank into ecstasy!

He truly never expected that that loathsome girl would actually be this hardworking. She was able to pass, standing side by side with the Jade Lake's fairy.

Even if it was just luck, so what, luck was also a part of one's strength.

Su Zian was currently waiting for Su Luo to return, and wanted to wantonly praise her. He wanted to make up for the lack of father-daughter feelings for these many years.

Su Zian couldn't help but secretly repent. These years, he truly did not treat Su Luo well. Among his children, he often neglected Su Luo, to the extent that their father-daughter relationship became estranged.

However, it didn't matter, from now on, he would treat that girl as a pearl in his palm. Concentrating all his doting on her, he believed at that time, their father-daughter relationship would advance by leaps and bounds.

Just when Su Zian became more and more excited and happy from these thoughts, suddenly, a letter flew in from the window.

At this moment, Su Zian had his hands on the table. The dagger with the letter attached inserted perfectly in the crack between his fingers!

.

How strong was this expert who threw the dagger, and how accurate was his strength of control over the dagger?

It must be said that Su Zian was a fifth rank expert.

Su Zian looked at that letter, his eyes flashing with astonishment. He rushed out to chase after this person and inspected all around. He discovered that the opponent had already disappeared.

That's right, if someone capable of secretly throwing the dagger into the crack between Su Zian's fingers, it meant his strength was much greater than Su Zian's. Then, how could he be caught by Su Zian.

Even if Su Zian could catch up, then what could he actually do?

When he understood this, Su Zian resolutely returned to the great hall. He looked at the letter that appeared so mysteriously, his eyes squinting dangerously.

He had a very bad premonition.

The night was pitch-black as ink.

Su Zian shut himself in his study.

The doors and windows were closed tightly, the entire room was covered all around in pitch-black darkness.

Su Zian's complexion was hard to distinguish in the gloomy darkness, none could see it clearly.

At this moment, he held the letter that was delivered this afternoon. It was very clear that the wax seal on top of it had already been broken.

Su Zian opened the letter, and very carefully looked at it once more. In the end, he angrily threw the letter on the table!

The words written on it was very clear.

Su Luo was not his, Su Zian's, daughter.

Chapter 722: Rong Yun's bias (9)

Su Zian opened the letter, and very carefully scanned it again. In the end, he angrily threw the letter down on the table!

The words were written very clearly.

Su Luo was not Su Zian's daughter. From the very beginning, his daughter had been switched by someone.

This was simply.....

The veins on Su Zian's forehead stuck out and were about to explode. His complexion became ashen!

He was so angry that his fist smashed down on the table. Immediately, a fist-sized hole appeared on the long table. It could clearly be seen that Su Zian was infuriated till he became nearly insane.

If this news had come earlier, he would have already expelled Su Luo from the Su family. How could he have allowed her to stay free and easy until now?

However, just when she and the Jade Lake's fairy were competing for the position of becoming Grandmaster Rong Yun's disciple, and just when Su Luo had passed the first round, it appeared!

What should he do?

Su Zian was so angry that he paced back and forth inside the room. He could not suppress it anymore, anything that could be smashed inside the room were smashed to pieces by him until nothing was left.

Speaking of Su Luo.

After returning to her Wisteria courtyard, she had not come out even once.

As a result, she did not know about Su Zian's current state.

At this moment, she was brooding over the question of the second round of examination.

Grandmaster Rong Yun did not leak out a word, so where should she actually start?

Su Luo's hugged the little divine dragon in her arms and poked his head unhappily: "You tell me, what topic would Grandmaster Rong Yun test on?"

The one response to her question was the little divine dragon's blank yet innocent little face.

Su Luo sighed: "Forget it, asking you is useless. However, it's truly strange, why would Grandmaster Rong Yun treat you so well? Could it be that he was acquainted with your old man?"

The little divine dragon shook his head, expressing that he didn't know. Thinking of the Old Divine Dragon, Su Luo let out a snort.

That old bastard! At the time, he lied that if she had broken the jade, at any time, the shadow image he left on this continent would come to save her. It just so happened to be useless at the crucial moment.

If it was not for Grandmaster Rong Yun's appearance, she and the little divine dragon would already be dead by now.

Just when Su Luo was sitting cross-legged on the bed and sighed from being bored to death, a clear knocking noise came from the windows.

Su Luo's heart moved.

"Who?"

"Me."

Beichen Ying's voice came from the outside.

"Come in to speak." Su Luo said, lowering her voice.

After all, it was already midnight, waking up others was not good.

Beichen Ying jumped in from the window.

Still haven't spoken, but seeing his face that was full of smiles, it was as if when he entered, the entire room was sprinkled full of sunlight.

Su Luo's heart sighed with sorrow. She really wished that he would be this optimistic and cheerful for his whole life.

"Sister-in-law!" Beichen Ying beamingly approached Su Luo, afterwards, he stuffed a sack full of things into her arms.

Su Luo hadn't even returned to her senses before another sound came from outside the window.

"Sister-in-law!" Lan Xuan jumped inside and similarly stuffed a sack of things into her arms.

Not waiting for Su Luo to ask a question, Anye Ming, also carrying a sack of things, stuffed it into Su Luo's arms.

However, Su Luo's arms could not hold anymore, so he could only place them on the floor.

"You guys, this is..." A huge question mark hung on top of Su Luo's forehead.

Beichen Ying acted as the representative and was the first to speak: "Sister-in-law, just now, we went to find Apothecary Leng to drink some wine."

"We conveniently got Apothecary Leng drunk." Lan Xuan interrupted.

"Apothecary Leng, after drinking wine, leaked out the test questions for the exam ten days from now." Anye Ming continued.

Beichen Ying pointed at the three sacks in front of Su Luo: "Ten days from now, Grandmaster Rong Yun will test you on an Apothecary's knowledge and theory. Apothecary Leng had said that Sister-in-law is only an Elementary Apothecary and can only act as cannon fodder."

Lan Xuan pointed at the sacks and added an explanation: "That's why we took advantage of Apothecary Leng becoming drunk. We coaxed him into bringing out the books that Grandmaster Rong Yun had given to him at that time to review."

Chapter 723: Rong Yun's bias (10)

In the end, Anye Ming summed it up in one sentence: "All the books are here. Sister-in-law, you must make a hasty last-minute effort to quickly memorize these books."

"We are going now!"

Just as he finished speaking, they immediately dispersed in a confusing manner and disappeared with incomparable speed.

Seeing them come and disappear without a trace, Su Luo suddenly did not know whether to laugh or cry.

After Su Luo had opened the three sacks and stacked the books up on top of each other, she was simply about to cry.....

What the heck do you call this....

So many books.....

When these damned books were stacked up, they actually were the same height as her!!!

To ask her to finish reading all these books within ten days? She would also need to memorize it? Might as well take a knife to directly kill her to forget about it.

No wonder Beichen Ying and the three of them slipped away faster than a rabbit. It seemed that they also knew this was forcing her to do something extremely difficult.

"Awooo, awooo—" The little divine dragon cutely laid at Su Luo's feet.

As if he felt Su Luo's gloomy mood, at this moment, he seemed especially cute.

Afterwards, he meekly took out a crystal stone from the brocade pouch around his neck and gave it to Su Luo.

This was a piece of purple-colored crystal stone.

He had always especially treasured it. Now, he actually specifically took it out to give it to Su Luo.

How considerate of him, her treasured darling. Su Luo, with one move, hugged the little divine dragon to her and rubbed his little head.

“Awoo, awoo—” The little divine dragon insisted on giving Su Luo the purple-colored crystal stone.

Su Luo declined a few times without success. However, right now, she also did not have a use for the purple-colored crystal stone. As a result, she placed it inside her space.

Su Luo, holding the little divine dragon, was resigned to her fate. She was about to pick up a book to read, when suddenly, Su Luo felt her brain aching from whiplash.

In the beginning, it was only a slight throbbing pain.

Afterwards, it slowly intensified, and sharply intensified.....

Until the end, even Su Luo's type of strong perseverance nearly crumbled.

Su Luo felt a burst of darkness come from an attack, and she sunk into darkness that was like a pool of mud.....

When Su Luo woke up, it was already the early morning of the second day.

When her drowsy eyes opened, Su Luo realized that something was different about her body.

When she probed her space, unexpectedly, she discovered that her space had undergone a huge transformation!

It was not merely that her space had become bigger.

Rather, it was time that changed!!!

Su Luo discovered that the time in her space was faster than time in reality by tenfold.

This astonishing discovery simply made her wild with joy.

What did she lack the most right now? It was time!

Ask her to finish reading that pile of books as tall as her in ten days, it was absolutely impossible.

However, after the time in her space had sped up, she actually had an equivalent to a hundred days of time. She believed that based on her ability to remember and not forget, plus hard work, there was still a glimmer of hope for her to finish reading these books.

Only, this space didn't get upgraded earlier or later. Why did it get upgraded at a time when she urgently needed it the most?

Suddenly, Su Luo's eyes lit up.

She remembered!

Before, because the little divine dragon had given her the purple-colored crystal stone, and she, in passing, placed it in her space. Just because of this, the characteristics of her space had transformed.

Thinking up to here, Su Luo couldn't help but to start to laugh heartily.

That piece of crystal stone was actually the one obtained from the Li family.

At that time, the little divine dragon simply did not swallow it. It was because he knew that right now, he could not bear the frantic surge of the spirit energy from a purple-colored crystal stone.

So, at that time he had tossed in a green-colored crystal stone that Su Luo had given him as a backup and not the purple-colored crystal stone.

If Li Yaoyao knew that her family's purple-colored crystal stone actually was such a huge help to Su Luo, don't know if she would fall down after being angered until she went insane.

Su Luo happily lifted up the little divine dragon and kissed him.

"Good child, quickly go back inside the space to cultivate." The time inside her space was effective for Su Luo, naturally, it was also effective for the little divine dragon. Moreover, the cultivation speed inside was much faster.

Probably, very quickly, the master and servant duo would become strong!

Chapter 724: Second round of the match

(1)

Even though Su Luo had an extra one hundred days of time, but with regards to her, it was still not enough time.

After all, when these knowledge were stacked together, they were as tall as her.

It's also not like reading a novel that could be read very quickly.

These books, each and every one of them, with regards to Su Luo, this greenhorn who just entered apothecary studies, was too obscure to understand.

But, no matter what, what needed to be memorized still needed to be memorized. What needed to be comprehended, still needed to be comprehended.

Su Luo picked up a book, and discovered it was 《The analysis and prescription of hundreds of types of herbal medicinal plants》.

Inside, there was a drawing of every kind of herbal medicinal plants. It seemed intuitive and clear, on the side, was also a long paragraph of introduction in small letters.

Since Su Luo had already entered the competition, then she would absolutely not be easily defeated.

Need to memorize it, then she'll just memorize it.

A really thick book with more than one hundred pages. With regards to Su Luo, this kind of person that lacked a good foundation, a child merely depending on memorization, so to speak, was still very difficult.

Moreover, not only did Su Luo need to skim it and recite it, she still needed to master the subject and its surrounding areas.

In just such a short time of ten days, she needed to finish walking the path that other people took ten years to complete.

The difficulties within was simply too hard to imagine.

Even with Su Luo's highly retentive memory that wouldn't forget, memorizing things very quickly, she still had to work hard for an entire night. To stubbornly memorize the entire book, word by word of 《The analysis and prescribing of hundreds types of herbal medicinal plants》

The second day, Su Luo, with two black circles around her eyes, once again began to memorize the second book 《The methods to enter the doorway to be an Intermediate Apothecary》.

The third day, the drowsy Su Luo tried to shake her head and mind to memorize the third book《The analysis of regions with uncommon medicinal plants》

The fourth day....

Even though Su Luo was extremely tired, but everyday, she would memorize a book no matter what happened.

Through several tens of days of memorization, Su Luo's brain had already turned into paste....so dizzy and confused, as if at anytime, her brain would explode.

Memorizing later on, Su Luo vomited from memorizing.

But she continued memorized while vomiting, Su Luo was absorbing each and every one of those books completely.

In the wake of the books piling up by her feet becoming more and more, the books that were originally put in her space became less and less.

Su Luo, since the beginning, had tossed the book aside after memorizing it....until later when Su Luo was buried in an ocean of books.

Until the last day, when Su Luo wobbled memorized the last sentence. Her entire body was so tired as to be paralyzed in her space and she directly lost consciousness, going to sleep.

Tired, too tired.

It must be made aware that these books were not just any ordinary books. Every one of them was as thick as the ocean, all were densely packed with words...Also, fortunately, after Su Luo used the strength of her space, the regions of her brain opened up. Otherwise, it would be impossible for her to complete this task.

Everyone believed that Su Luo's theoretical knowledge had stayed at the Elementary Apothecary level. In fact, Su Luo's theoretical knowledge, right now, had completely turned over a new leaf.

Outside, she merely endured ten days, but Su Luo, in her space, had already passed one hundred days.

During these one hundred days, besides Su Luo memorizing, she still memorized. She stubbornly stuffed those one hundred books into her head, stuffed until it was completely full. It was as if just one extra word would make her brain overflow.

Now, who dared to say the word book in front of her, she would absolutely spit out blood that would cover his entire face.

Because she really felt injured from memorizing...Her entire brain had become paste. Her pupils looked like a hypnotic spiral.

In the throne room, Grandmaster Rong Yun was dressed in an elegant robe. On the Chinese-style robe was embroidered several light and pure bamboos with silver thread. He was graceful, pure and cold with jet-black eyes that were shining with obsidian-like light. He looked down with a profoundly mysterious gaze.

He sat high up in the master position. Even though he didn't speak nor move, but his entire body issued an exceptionally lofty, sharp aura. It made other people who saw him feel inferior.

The Jade Lake's Li family, like always, were separated from others, standing in their place firmly.

Chapter 725: Second round of the match (2)

The Jade Lake's fairy was dressed in a purple gown with roses and had an unmatched beautiful complexion. She had a shallow smile on her face while standing alone, like a fairy who came to the human world, beyond noble.

Time passed by in minutes and seconds.

Seeing that the time was no longer early, Su Luo, as the lead, unexpectedly still hadn't arrived yet.

Momentarily, everyone inevitably started to talk

"Where is Su family's daughter by a concubine? Why is it that she still hasn't come?"

"Can't be that she is automatically forfeiting, right? After all, she is merely only at the level of an Elementary Apothecary."

"It may still be possible. The first round was because of her good luck. But this second round is truly an examination to test her knowledge. How could she, as a lowly insignificant Elementary Apothecary, compete with the Jade Lake's fairy?"

"That's right. The Jade Lake's fairy is already an Advanced Apothecary! Su family's daughter by a concubine must be afraid and doesn't dare to come."

For a moment, everyone's tongue was wagging. The situation was extremely not beneficial to Su Luo. The overwhelming majority of the people wanted Su Luo to forfeit.

Apothecary Leng was so anxious that he stood on his tiptoes, constantly peering outside.

However, no matter how much he peered around, Su Luo's silhouette still hadn't appeared in his line of sight.

Apothecary Leng was secretly worried in his heart: this damned girl, at the most critical moment, where did she go? Last time, she was also late, if she was late again this time, then it's truly...Apothecary Leng felt that if he was Grandmaster Rong Yun, then he would also be mad!

The Jade Lake's Li family, seeing this, couldn't help but be secretly pleased.

It seems like this loathsome girl really does have some self-knowledge. She knew she couldn't compete, therefore, she voluntarily forfeited. This was also something that could be understood. After all, forfeiting was much better than losing face at the scene.

Li Aoqiong coldly smiled, deliberately taunted and said: "Su family's, that girl, has such a grand style, making Grandmaster Rong Yun and His Majesty wait here for her."

Similarly, Li Yaoxiang also repeatedly sneered: "Looks like this girl is automatically forfeiting. However, this is also right. How could she, as an Elementary Apothecary, compete with our family's Yaoyao?"

Apothecary Leng sent an impatient glare towards Li Yaoxiang: "If your family's Yaoyao is so great, how was it that she didn't even win the first round?"

These words were indeed sharp, directly pointing out the critical point.

Li Yaoxiang was immediately choked off, his complexion flushed red, and he loudly blurted out: "That's because a person leans..."

Touching on Grandmaster Rong Yun's deep eyes smiling with not quite a smile, Li Yaoxiang's heart trembled, gloomily turning his face away.

If he dared to shout out that Grandmaster Rong Yun was partial at the scene, then, this round of examination, Li Yaoyao wouldn't need to take it. She would have to directly pack up and be sent home.

But Li Aoqiong continued and said: "Su Luo is not coming, we shouldn't let Grandmaster Rong Yun and His Majesty wait around in vain, right?"

He deliberately pointed out these two, the reason was to arouse everyone's fury.

As expected, with his reminder, a lot of bureaucrats in Li family's faction stepped forward one by one to talk to the emperor.

"Your Majesty, since Su family's daughter by a concubine has automatically forfeited, this round ought to be concluded right?"

"Even if she comes, it is also her having disrespected Your Majesty and Grandmaster Rong Yun. This kind of disciple, what's the use of having?"

"The Jade Lake's fairy is hundreds of fold better than her. She was able to pass the first round because of luck. Otherwise she would have already been eliminated..."

As a result, after hearing these negative voices, Emperor Jing hesitated. His gaze looked towards Grandmaster Rong Yun.

Grandmaster Rong Yun's eyes were deep and hidden. No one could make out a hint of his mood from that indifferent expression on his face.

Apothecary Leng gave two humphs: "Doesn't the Jade Lake's Li family have a lot of confidence in Li Yaoyao? What, you guys are just this afraid of competing with Luo girl?"

"Who's afraid?" Li Yaoxiang gave a furious glare at Apothecary Leng who always opposed Jade Lake's Li family.

"Oh, if you guys are not afraid, why must you try to forcefully cancel her qualifications to compete? Isn't because you guys are afraid Li Yaoyao would be defeated by Su Luo?"

Chapter 726: Second round of the match

(3)

Apothecary Leng, not saving any sentiments nor face, directly pointed at Li Yaoxiang's nose and cursed.

"You, you this...." Li Yaoxiang coldly snorted several times, "This man won't lower himself to your kind of level!"

"This man is also disinclined to lower himself to your level!" Apothecary Leng flung his sleeves, arrogantly and unyieldingly flinging his sleeves.

Li Yaoxiang was simply nearly infuriated to death by Apothecary Leng's attitude. However, the opponent was Grandmaster Rong Yun's disciple, therefore, there was nothing Li Yaoxiang could do to Apothecary Leng.

Just at this moment, from outside, came the voice of a court eunuch.

"She came, she came, Miss Su came!"

As a result, an exquisite, luxurious litter that was sheltered and sealed tightly was directly carried into the throne room.

Even the Empress did not have the qualifications to sit in a litter and be carried into the throne room. This allowed Su Luo to be first to do so.

One could only see the exquisite litter slowly being set down in the throne room.

There were three people lifting the litter.

The person in front was Beichen Ying, the two people behind were Lan Xuan and Anye Ming...

Able to get the three major families' direct line's core from the younger generation to come and carry a litter, this was simply the most luxurious lineup in history.

Lowering the litter, Beichen Ying lifted open the litter's curtain. He very carefully and solemnly opened his voice, yelling: "Sister-in-law, wake up. We have arrived."

After three calls in a row, there was only the sound of even breathing from within the litter. Apart from this, there was no other response.

Beichen Ying couldn't help but be somewhat helplessly exasperated. He anxiously pulled at his hair, then looked at Lan Xuan and Anye Ming with a request for help.

The two people behind him directly spread out their hands, shaking their heads, expressing they sympathized but couldn't help.

For these ten days straight, they took turns guarding Su Luo outside her room. So, they were really clear on how hard she had worked these days.

Until the tenth day, they had already gotten together earlier and planned to accompany Su Luo to the throne room. After all, they could give a show of strength and power, right?

However, what made them depressed was....

They had just gone in and discovered that Su Luo, this girl, was neatly dressed, sleeping soundly on the ground.

Very possibly, she had slept a night away in this posture.

Moreover, her face looked exhausted and tired, making them unable to bear to wake her up.

Then, they looked at those piles of books that almost buried Su Luo's entire body, and everyone became silent.

"These books...not possible right..." Lan Xuan's eyes were opened wide from shock!

"Every one of these books is thicker than a brick, all with densely-packed words...could Sister-in-law have memorized all of it?" Beichen Ying was so shocked that it took a long time for him to return to his senses.

"Ten days...this many books...a little difficult, right?" Anye Ming said, without sounding very certain.

How was it only a little difficult eh? In any case, even if Anye Ming was given one hundredfold of time, he still might not have memorized it all.

The three people seeing this gave each other a mutual glance with a touch of heartache, with Beichen Ying personally stepping forward to wake her up.

But, no matter how they called her, Su Luo, this girl, was dead asleep, completely unable to wake up.

“The exam is about to start, Sister-in-law is still sleeping. No matter how we call, she won’t wake up, what to do?” The three people looked at each other in dismay.

They felt extremely helpless. Seeing the time, she was about to be late again. Therefore, they decided to first move the person over to the throne room, then discuss it.

Consequently, it led to the appearance of that scene from before.

The litter was directly carried into the throne room.

If this was replaced with someone else, wouldn’t they have been beaten to death by the imperial guards? But, precisely because of these three, with each of their backgrounds being extremely huge, the imperial guards, in front of them, were tantamount to being decorations.

This moment.

Inside the great hall, everyone was dumbfounded as they looked at that purple-colored delicate litter, then looked at each other in dismay.

This daughter of a concubine from Su family was really extremely daring.

Grandmaster Rong Yun and His Majesty were both waiting for her, in spite of everything, she still had the guts to sleep while being carried in...

In this area of silence, Beichen Ying awkwardly coughed twice and rubbed his nose.

Chapter 727: Second round of the match

(4)

He somewhat embarrassedly asked for help from Grandmaster Rong Yun.

“Great Master, I reckon Luoluo was memorizing the books and passed out from memorizing, you see....”

The corner of Grandmaster Rong Yun’s mouth pursed slightly.

Didn’t see what he did, only saw his wide robe brush by. A cool breeze rapidly shot towards the litter’s curtain.

“Bang——”

A fierce sound echoed.

The delicate litter immediately disintegrated into pieces.

Su Luo, who was originally lying down in the litter, sensed danger, and she abruptly sat up!

Su Luo, in the next instant, jumped up fiercely and arranged herself in a warlike fighting stance. However, she discovered that all around her was dreadfully quiet.

Su Luo slowly opened her eyes but discovered she was surrounded by countless eyes.

In the depths of pair after pairs of eyes, was the inverted image of her comical actions.

Everyone of them was staring at her, as if watching an idiot.

Even the often thick-skinned Su Luo also couldn’t help but feel awkward.

She clearly coughed twice, that fighting stance very naturally and flowingly transformed into the movements of making one’s salutations.

She bent her knees slightly, making her salutations to Grandmaster Rong Yun and Emperor Jing.

What kind of eyesight did Second Child have, to actually fall for this loathsome girl whose face was full of traces of sleep? The corner of Emperor Jing's mouth twitched in displeasure, turning his face away.

However, Grandmaster Rong Yun did not get angry. A touch of interest flashed across that pair of always indifferent eyes that was like clouds. However, it flashed by very quickly, and others were unaware of it.

“Awake?” This was the first sentence Grandmaster Rong Yun had said directly to Su Luo since they first met.

Su Luo somewhat awkwardly nodded her head, immediately, she quickly tidied up her messy hair.

It was also the fault of Beichen Ying and them.

Wherefore would boys be this careful? At the time, no matter how much they called, they couldn't wake up Su Luo. They were worried, so they just found a litter and carried her over in a rush.

They also didn't think to dress and groom her well.

Under Su Luo's glare, those three big boys looked at each other in dismay, mutually shifting the blame to each other.

The Jade Lake's fairy, seeing them making fun of each other and acting as if nobody else was there, resentful rays of light flashed through her eyes!

She was the person who grew up with Beichen Ying and them. But why, now Beichen Ying and them always favored Su Luo, this loathsome girl, whereas they treated her like air.

The Jade Lake's fairy cast Su Luo a mocking glance: “Should we still first set aside time for Miss Su to groom herself?”

No one would have anticipated that Grandmaster Rong Yun would suddenly open his mouth to say.

“After a stick of incense, this test will officially begin.”

In other words, there was still a stick of incense worth of time to make preparations?

If these words were said in ordinary times, it was absolutely the most commonly said sentence.

But after the Jade Lake's fairy provoked Su Luo, Grandmaster Rong Yun provided this sentence. The meaning within...provided food for thought.

"Many thanks to Great Master." Su Luo smiled sweetly, then sent a provoking glance to the Jade Lake's fairy.

Li Yaoyao's fists clenched tightly at her side!

What was up with Grandmaster Rong Yun? Was it really because of love for the little divine dragon to love her? As a result he was treating Su Luo, that loathsome girl, so good?

An incense stick of time was enough time for Su Luo to return to the throne room in high spirits.

Now, in the center of the throne room, two desks were arranged.

Su Luo and the Jade Lake's fairy each had one desk.

Apothecary Leng placed the exam papers down one by one.

Once Su Luo received the exam papers, she swept a glance at it from top to bottom. She discovered that these topics were indeed covered among that pile of books.

Only, the stuff she memorized was simply too much, Su Luo found that she was somewhat mixed up.

The Jade Lake's fairy took a furtive glance at Su Luo, and seeing that her long shapely brows were wrinkled tightly, a cold laugh streaked across her heart.

These theories and knowledge span from Intermediate Apothecary to Elite Apothecary training. Su Luo was merely a lowly little Elementary Apothecary, and was separated by a distance of fifty-four thousand kilometers from these knowledge.

Chapter 728: The competition continues

(1)

Don't even mention solving the problem, very likely, just seeing the question, she won't be able to understand it.

Jade Lake's fairy cast a disdainful glance at Su Luo. She sneered secretly inside her heart, then lowered her head to answer the questions.

She quickly wrote the words with swift brush strokes, in order to cause more psychological pressure for Su Luo.

At this time, Su Luo really did feel somewhat pressured.

From top to bottom, Su Luo specifically picked out the topics she could answer and did those first. After that, looking at the last three topics, she was stunned.

She was a little bit familiar with these questions.

Dragon tongue grass, Wishful fragrant orchid and twenty-one other similar types of herbal medicine mixed together. After simmering and by boiling for four hours, place it in....

What was it placed in?

This was clearly in the category of Advanced Apothecary knowledge.

Su Luo still remembered that the previous night, she even memorized this. Only, at that time, she was too tired, with her entire brain swelling up. So, what she remembered was somewhat fuzzy.

Out of the corner of Su Luo's eye. she looked towards the Jade Lake's fairy.

At this time, she was writing at a tremendously fast speed.

The examination paper before her, that was originally blank and white, was now densely-packed with finely written work in small, regular script. It appeared exceedingly refined.

What to do? Could it be that she was really going to lose to her?

Su Luo grabbed at her hair in distress.

At this time, the Jade Lake's fairy just so happened to raise her head and look towards Su Luo. Seeing Su Luo's tagging-ear-and-scratching-cheek appearance, traces of a cynical look flashed through her eyes.

Too obscure! She, Su Luo, was actually looked down upon!

Su Luo came across the Jade Lake's fairy disdainful gaze and her thoughts suddenly got fired up.

She definitely would not be looked down by that woman.

In the throne room, there was a distance of two metres between Su Luo's and the Jade Lake's fairy's two tables.

With them in the center, the surrounding five metres were all cleared out.

Now, the people standing outside the five meter range were full of interest as they watched the two people answering questions.

The Jade Lake's fairy was completely concentrating on writing at a tremendous speed. She was in glowing spirits and her face was full of self-confidence.

In contrast, Su Luo was tagging her ear one minute, then scratching her cheek another minute. Then, another moment, she was looking to the east and then west of her. At one glance, one could tell that this child could not answer the question.

Seeing Su Luo looking like this, the corner of Li Aoqiong's mouth raised to form a sneer. He laughed coldly, "The ugly duckling actually dares to compete with a swan? Simply overestimating one's abilities."

Seeing Su Luo like this, Beichen Ying really wanted to fly up there to take her place. Now, hearing the mockery in what Li Aoqiong said, immediately, he became furious.

His long arm fished around and grabbed hold of Li Aoqiong's collar, lifting him off the ground: "Who is the ugly duckling and who is the white swan? If you don't know how to talk, then just shut your mouth!"

Finished speaking, he threw Li Aoqiong to the side in passing.

That agile movement, and that cold, imposing manner, was simply too cool!

Li Aoqiong, who was so casually picked up then randomly cast aside, almost fell down.

Originally, he was not this weak.

It was more accurate to say, that originally, among the younger generation, he was either number one or number two. Therefore, he usually considered himself to be an important person who led.

Yet, right now, he was actually lifted up and cast aside by Beichen family's loathsome boy?

He had just lost a lot of face.

At this time, many people used strange gazes to look at the staggering Li Aoqiong. The surroundings were quiet and silent.

In this noiseless silence, the many pairs of eyes with strange expressions nearly made Li Aoqiong go insane.

“What are you looking at! Careful or I'll dig all of your eyes out!” Li Aoqiong bellowed from being flustered.

The crowd of civil and military officials all silently turned their faces away. But their hearts, with regards to this young master from the Jade Lake's Li family who usually showed off his military strength, observed that he had certainly dropped a level.

At this moment, Li Aoqiong's eyes were shooting flames as he glared at Beichen Ying. However, Beichen, this child, had his face lifted in silent provocation.

“What? Want to fight?” The current Li Aoqiong was so weak that he could deal with him with just a fingertip.

Li Aoqiong gritted his back teeth. The veins on his forehead were protruding, ready to explode. The hands at his side were clenched tightly into fists. But ultimately, he still turned his face away in indignation.

Li Yaoxiang had originally wanted to vent Li Aoqiong's anger for him.

Chapter 729: The competition continues

(2)

But, seeing the beaming Elder Beichen standing by Beichen Ying's side, his complexion became ashen, and just like Li Aoqiong, he turned his face away.

With skill not as good as theirs, what could they do?!

Li Aoqiong glared at Su Luo with a raging inferno burning in his eyes. He wished he could rush up to skin her alive and pull out all of her tendons!

If it wasn't for this loathsome girl, how could he have ended up in his current disgraceful state!

As if at this moment, Su Luo had the time to care if Li Aoqiong was angry?

She was biting on her brush. She'd thought for quite a while but still could not recall the answers to the last three questions.

She remembered that at that time, she was memorizing until it became hazy. Finally exhausted, she fell asleep...

Oh!

Managing to catch the insight that flashed through her brain, Su Luo's eyes suddenly lit up.

She remembered that time when she was memorizing the books, she had put away all of them. Now, they were all lying quietly and still inside her space.

Her soul could enter her space oh!

Was there a more open method of cheating than this? This definitely was the most awesome way to cheat on earth!

Those that depended on mobile phones to pass the answers around or what not were simply pathetic. Come on, you can't deny it!

Saying to do it, then just do it!

Su Luo used one hand to support her forehead and pretended to doze off. Her soul had long since run into her space and was busily opening books.

Fortunately, she had already flipped through all of these books. Very quickly, Su Luo found the answer she wanted.

Consequently, Su Luo, who had found the answer, lowered her head and wrote at a tremendous speed. With swishing swift brush strokes, she started to write.

With a wave of her brush, she continued.

Then again, in passing, her brush stopped.

One question was completed.

When the Jade Lake's fairy, who had been paying close attention to Su Luo since the start, saw her finish one question so quickly, she couldn't help but to be somewhat distracted.

Just a moment ago, she had clearly seen this loathsome girl dozing off. In her heart, she was feeling disdainful. Then unexpectedly, Su Luo sat up and filled the entire empty space for that question.

She must have concocted a cock-and-bull story! For sure!

The Jade Lake's fairy thought like this in her heart.

However, what made her depressed was that, after she was finished answering the question, Su Luo, that loathsome girl, actually supported her forehead with one hand and started to doze off again.

After dozing for a moment, she would suddenly sit up again and begin to write with swift brush sounds at a tremendous speed.

It was like, when she was dozing off, an extremely strong expert would give her the correct answer in her dream.

At this time, it was not just Jade Lake's fairy, even the spectators in the surrounding circle were all confounded by Su Luo's cramping-like actions.

However, how could they possibly know that Su Luo was actually a space system mage? Furthermore, that she would so openly plagiarise in front of everyone?

At this time, the Jade Lake's fairy only had one final question left.

But, this question was actually extremely difficult. It could be said that only an Elite Apothecary had a grasp on this knowledge.

As an Advanced Apothecary, she felt this was a strenuous question that was to be expected.

But, she was also secretly rejoicing in her heart.

At first, in order to get close to Grandmaster Rong Yun, she had memorized countless volumes of uninteresting and cryptic books on Apothecary theory and knowledge.

Although at that time, she did not get to use it. Now, she this just so happened to be in a favourable position to use her skills.

However... Su Luo, that insignificant lowly Elementary Apothecary, how could she possibly understand an Elite Apothecary's theoretical knowledge? This time, she was going to win for sure!

The Jade Lake's fairy swept a disdainful glance at Su Luo. Afterwards, she lowered her head and began to write.

At this time, Su Luo similarly also had one huge question left.

This question involved many points of knowledge. From drug theory, medicinal herbs to the techniques of refining medicines. The control of heat using fire required all kinds of accuracy and data.

Under the attentive gazes of so many pairs of eyes, Su Luo was running in and out of her space. While flipping through the books, she would place them side by side, to master the subject by thoroughly comprehending the surrounding areas...

In the end, the Jade Lake's fairy had written voluminously, filling up more than half a page. When she happily arrived at an answer—

Chapter 730: The competition continues

(3)

Su Luo was a step ahead of her in submitting the completed examination paper.

When Grandmaster Rong Yun saw Su Luo, his thick sharp eyebrows raised slightly.

He, who had always been indifferent, unhurriedly spoke a line: “Being busy for more than half a day, must be really tiring, right?”

Other people all thought that Grandmaster Rong Yun was showing concern for Su Luo and could not help but view her in a new light.

But when Su Luo heard this line, her heart trembled slightly.

She knew that Grandmaster Rong Yun, who was also a space mage, had realized it.

However—

Su Luo raised her eyes and looked at Grandmaster Rong Yun’s appearance.

But she saw that his expression was the same as always. Only at an angle she could see, a trace of interest flashed across that pair of pitch-black as ink, deep eyes.

In her heart, Su Luo speculated secretly: This Grandmaster Rong Yun was really interesting.

“Cough, cough.” Grandmaster Rong Yun stared at her for a moment.

Su Luo touched her nose, then with tail between her legs, she ran back to her group of people.

Since Grandmaster Rong Yun was so magnanimous as to let her go, then she didn’t need to flaunt being let off lightly.

So, confronted with the Jade Lake’s fairy’s provocative gaze, Su Luo’s expression was calm and collected like water. She raised an eyebrow and smiled.

Seated on high, Grandmaster Rong Yun examined the test papers thoroughly on the spot.

Below, it was divided into three factions.

Jade Lake's Li family's faction stood on the left side.

The neutral faction stood in the middle.

And Su Luo, Beichen Ying's trio, stood on the right side.

At this time, the Jade Lake's Li family was immensely proud of themselves, with an air of arrogance that soared to the sky.

Because, the way they saw it, Su Luo, as an Elementary Apothecary, had no way of beating the Jade Lake's fairy.

Of course, the Jade Lake's fairy herself thought so too.

Consequently, she stood proudly and occasionally would cast a glance at Su Luo, with traces of a sneer in them.

Compared to the Jade Lake's Li family's self-confidence, Su Luo's side seemed to be lacking a great deal of confidence.

Beichen Ying simply comforted Su Luo directly: "It's no big deal. This is only the second round. If it's a loss, then it's a loss. Later, there are still opportunities."

Lan Xuan also joined the comforting procession: "After all, Li Yaoyao had started learning to be an Apothecary from when she was young. Sister-in-law, you've only learned for how long? So, even if you lose, that is merely an issue of time."

Anye Ming nodded his head in agreement.

Su Luo was extremely speechless: "Is this just how little faith you have in me?"

"Sister-in-law, you should just save your grief." The three of them spoke in unison.

Su Luo let out a snort and turned her body away.

Since even Beichen and the others felt she would undoubtedly lose, then, naturally, the rest of the people would also have the same thought.

Su Luo unhurriedly looked towards the Jade Lake's fairy.

And it so happened that right at this moment, the Jade Lake's fairy was also looking at her.

The two people's pair of eyes meet. Although they had similar smiles on their faces, sparks were flying everywhere when their gazes met.

Not long after, Grandmaster Rong Yun placed the two test papers on the table, in passing, he leisurely raised his eyes.

For a moment, everyone's gaze were focused on Grandmaster Rong Yun's face.

Each and every one of the Jade Lake's Li family was as excited as if they had been injected with chicken blood. Happy rays of light were flashing faintly across their eyes.

Grandmaster Rong Yun indicated to Apothecary Leng, who was standing at the side, to announce the results.

Apothecary Leng stood in the center, his voice resonant and clear: "Second round, Li Yaoyao, full marks!"

"Wow—" Everyone simultaneously looked towards the Jade Lake's fairy!

The test questions set by Grandmaster Rong Yun, the Jade Lake's fairy could actually get full marks!

In this case, wasn't she going to win for sure? Unless Su Luo could also get full marks.

But was there even a possibility? Everyone all felt this was definitely impossible.

As a result, now, there were already countless cynical and sneering gazes sweeping over Su Luo, with cold smiles on their faces as they rejoiced in other people's misfortune.

Apothecary Leng had a restrained and contained expression as he silently swept his gaze in a circle over the people below. A trace of disdain flashed across his eyes. With both his hands crossed in front, his head held high and his chest stuck out, he announced the final result.

“Second round, Su Luo, full marks!”

Full marks? How was this possible!!!

Chapter 731: Su Luo's Death (1)

Everyone below had a huge exclamation mark pinned to their foreheads as they stared incredulously at Apothecary Leng.

“This is absolutely impossible!” After Li Aoqiong heard the announced results, he immediately jumped out.

Following Li Aoqiong's example, everyone issued their own disbelief in succession.

“How can this be possible? Isn't the Su family's girl an Elementary Apothecary?”

“How can Su Luo get full marks? How can she be comparable to the Jade Lake's fairy?”

“There must be a mistake somewhere! Definitely a mistake!”

“Even if you kill me, I still won't believe it. Su Luo actually got full marks? Don't tell me she started to learn Apothecary theory and knowledge while in the womb?”

“In the past, wasn't she a starry-eyed, infatuated, good-for-nothing idiot? How is it that all of a sudden, she has now... become one of those extremely gifted geniuses?”

For a moment, the entire throne room became extremely chaotic. It was a scene of whispering, spirited discussions and noisy arguments.

Because, this fact was really too astonishing! Even the emperor was dumbfounded at this moment, stupidly staring at Su Luo, as his entire person sat there like a clay statue.

This is the legendary idiotic and incompetent Su Luo? This is the Su Luo who was stubbornly despised by the crown prince, then had the engagement cancelled? This is Su Zian's embarrassment of a daughter birthed by a concubine?

This was just the so-called amateurs watching a spectacle, while the experts saw the truth. Apothecary Leng was the one who was genuinely shocked to a stand still!

In fact, on the surface, Apothecary Leng looked solemn and calm. In fact, his heart was even more shocked than these outright amateurs!

Because, ten days ago, all of those books were actually taken from him. Such a thick pile, there were no less than a hundred volumes... Additionally-Additionally, the most important thing was that inside consisted of Elementary Apothecary theory books, Intermediate Apothecary theory books, Advanced Apothecary theory books... This girl couldn't really have become a self-made genius from ten days of study, could she?!!!

That girl was able to answer all of the test questions. Then, clearly, she really did learn and memorize it all by heart.

But, so many volumes... It took him a full ten years to memorize and fully understand all of them. Oh, heavens. Comparing one person with another will really cause people to die from anger.

At this time, inside Apothecary Leng's heart, Su Luo was totally an evildoer!

Regardless of other reasons, only this point of innate gift, Apothecary Leng's mind was decided. No matter what, he would get his master to accept Su Luo as a disciple.

After all, such a gifted talent like this was rarely seen on this continent.

Not only Apothecary Leng, Beichen Ying and the others, at this time, were all looking at Su Luo with foolishly blank expressions. They simply did not know how to react.

Beichen Ying's reaction was the most instinctive.

"Sister-in-law, quickly pinch me!" He felt like he was dreaming.

Dared to look down on her? Su Luo humphed twice. She then seized Beichen Ying's arm and pinched it.

"Ouch, it hurts, it hurts!" Beichen Ying's performance was extremely exaggerated in nature.

“Now, you believe it, right?” Su Luo had her hands crossed over her arms, looking immensely proud as she cast sidelong glances at him.

“I believe it, I believe it. Sister-in-law is truly awesome! You’re this!” Beichen Ying flatteringly gave a thumbs-up.

“This is more like it.” Su Luo nodded her head in satisfaction.

At this time, Beichen Ying and the others, the three of them, looked at each other in dismay.

In the end, it was Beichen Ying who issued a line that summed up their feelings: “No matter who we doubt, we cannot doubt Sister-in-Law. Hold whoever in contempt, cannot hold Su Luo in contempt ah...”

Thinking about before, counting the numerous past events.

Each time, everyone held Su Luo in contempt. And the result was that each time, Su Luo would turn defeat into victory. Every kind of feeling, Beichen Ying and them were already used to it.

Lan Xuan and Anye Ming hurriedly nodded: This was the truth.

The corner of Su Luo’s mouth pursed slightly.

In fact, this time, it really was coincidental. It seemed as if even heaven itself was intentionally standing on her side.

Chapter 732: Su Luo's Death (2)

Seated up high, Grandmaster Rong Yun indifferently swept a glance at everyone below in the audience. His deep and lofty gaze seemed to be looking at the mass of common people.

“Ten days later, go to the Demon Cave.” He stood up, and saw that all the people in the audience seemed to be frozen in place. Then, he cast a glance at the Jade Lake's fairy: “Prepare well.”

Until he left, he still did not even glance at Su Luo.

As if in his eyes, Su Luo was just a tiny ant, not worthy of him seeing with his own eyes.

Seeing Su Luo staring blankly, Beichen Ying somewhat heart-achingly patted her slim shoulders: “What are you thinking about?”

Beichen Ying was indignant on Su Luo's behalf. His family's little sister-in-law was so good, was way better than whatever her name Li Yaoyao. Why did it seem as though Grandmaster Rong Yun did not like little Su Luo too much?

Before Su Luo could say anything, Lan Xuan had already stepped out, being outraged by the injustice to her: “It can't be that Grandmaster Rong Yun had already selected Li Yaoyao from the start, right?”

Therefore, he didn't treat Su Luo so well, so seeing Su Luo emerging victorious, he wasn't too happy either?

Beichen Ying secretly shot a glare at Lan Xuan, but he wasn't accepting of the glance and continued to shout in dissatisfaction: “It's just like this. From the start, Grandmaster Rong Yun has always treated Li Yaoyao better than Sister-in-law.”

Anye Ming covered Lan Xuan's mouth and secretly shot him a look: “If you don't say anything, there still will be no one who thinks you're mute!”

Seeing Su Luo's slightly pale appearance, Lan Xuan's heart paused. Only then did he become aware of the burden he had added onto Su Luo. He could not help but be somewhat apologetic: “Sister-in-law...”

Su Luo smiled: “You guys are way overthinking things.”

From her point of view, Grandmaster Rong Yun’s manner was really somewhat unfathomable for people and hard to see through.

If one was to say he was biased towards Li Yaoyao...

But, he clearly saw her cheat in front of everyone. Not only did he not say anything, there was also traces of an interested smile that flashed through his eyes.

If one was to say he was biased towards her...

But, his outer manner and attitude was clearly much better towards Li Yaoyao.

It really was puzzling to people.

He sure proved himself to be the aloof and remote Grandmaster Rong Yun. He was so enigmatic, deep like the ocean, making it hard for people to understand him after a thorough investigation

Su Luo pondered it but she just couldn’t understand him. Instead, she felt like she had a slight headache.

Beichen Ying, the three of them, thought she was distressed by the matter of Li Yaoyao being selected, and one after another, they comforted her.

Beichen Ying raised his fist to give Su Luo a morale boost: “Sister-in-law! There’s no problem! We’re from the faction with strength, as long as you beat Li Yaoyao, then even Grandmaster Rong Yun will have nothing to say.”

Lan Xuan and Anye Ming hurriedly nodded their heads.

The faction with strength? Su Luo laughed softly. Li Yaoyao was already an Advanced Apothecary, okay? As an Elementary Apothecary, for her to claim to be from the faction with strength in front of Li Yaoyao, this was really a bit...

Su Luo waved her hand: “Forget it, let’s not get tangled up in this issue. Anyway, I believe in Grandmaster Rong Yun’s eyesight.”

Grandmaster Rong Yun, that kind of very able person - Li Yaoyao's character definitely could not escape his eyes.

"We sure won't believe..." The three brothers were sulking. They had all seen Grandmaster Rong Yun being biased towards Li Yaoyao.

Su Luo laughed for a bit then immediately asked again: "That's right, what kind of place is the Demon Cave? Why is it that I've never heard of it before."

At the mention of this, Beichen Ying, the three of them, all had somewhat unsightly complexions.

"What's wrong?" Frowning, Su Luo asked.

"The Demon Cave is where the historical remains of an ancient civilization resides. To open the cave's gate, apart from the key, you also need strength. Regarding strength, in the entire continent, naturally, excluding those from Purgatory City, the people who are able to open it can be counted on one hand. And Jade Lake's Li family's Elder is precisely one of them. It just so happens that the key is also in his hand."

Lan Xuan added and said: "The inside of the Demon Cave is filled with all kinds of dangers. Several large powerful families all use it as a place to train their disciples. Quite clearly, the Jade Lake's Li family has a detailed map of the inside."

Chapter 733: Su Luo's Death (3)

Anye Ming touched his nose: “Now you know how biased Grandmaster Rong Yun is towards Li Yaoyao, right? This place was specially chosen for Li Yaoyao.”

Su Luo frowned.

If it was really like what they said, Grandmaster Rong Yun really was very biased towards Li Yaoyao...

However, she always felt there was another reason within. Grandmaster Rong Yun was not such a simple character.

Speaking of the Jade Lake's Li family.

After leaving the imperial palace, Li Yaoxiang ordered people to return to the Jade Lake Palace at top speed to fetch the map his father drew before.

Li Yaoyao's complexion was without worry as she sat in a chair made of red sandalwood in the hall, drinking a big mouthful of tea.

Seeing this, Li Aoqiong couldn't help but to comfort her: “Yaoyao, don't be anxious. Although the last two rounds, you tied with that loathsome girl, but this last time, you can win over her no matter what you do!”

Li Yaoyao heavily threw away the tea cup and said hatefully: “Tied! Tied! How could I, Li Yaoyao, possibly have tied with that little slut! How can she even be mentioned on equal terms with me? What qualifications does she have to be on equal footing with me!”

In Li Yaoyao's eyes, she was a princess that was up high. Su Luo was unworthy to even be her servant. Yet, it was delusional that she was placed on par with her? This was simply a joke!

In front of her own family, Li Yaoyao was usually spoiled, willful and completely unrestrained. Completely lacking her noble and virtuous image that she kept in front of outsiders.

Li Yaoxiang slapped his palms down and angrily said: “Just like you said! Even though it's a tie, we, the Jade Lake's Li family, have also lost an enormous amount of face!"

"Second Uncle, I can't swallow this insult!" Li Yaoyao said angrily, "You must help me get revenge!"

"Your second uncle also can't swallow this insult!" Li Yaoxiang thought of that loathsome girl having stirred up the entire Jade Lake's Li family until the heavens seemed to have flipped over, and the rage inside his heart rushed upwards.

Elder Brother had only given birth to three kids. Now that Li Aoqiong had become like this, what's the difference compared to a useless person?

Li Aotian was completely unaccounted for, having disappeared without any news. It seemed as if everything pointed to disaster.

Li Yaoyao's originally smooth marriage plans were also stirred into complete chaos by that loathsome girl.

Thinking about this, Li Yaoxiang's hatred for Su Luo was deeply imbedded into his bones.

He slapped his palms down and angrily said: "Let's first not bother with others, talk about it after we make this loathsome girl look bad!"

Gnashing her teeth, Li Yaoyao said: "Didn't you say that she's not Su Zian's real daughter?"

This sentence of Li Yaoyao's, Li Yaoxiang naturally knew what she was suggesting with it.

"Yaoyao, you want to use this hidden trump card now?" Li Yaoxiang stroked his chin as a hint of contemplation flashed across his eyes.

"Of course, not using the hidden card, then once it expires, it will be useless! What's more, this is the last stage of exams and currently the most crucial time. If, at this time, something were to happen to Su Luo's person... Humph, humph. I want to see what time and energy she'll have left to participate in this last stage of the exam!"

The more Li Yaoyao thought about it, the more pleased she was: "Not to mention, by that time, she won't even be Su Zian's daughter. She will be a lowly person of unknown origin, with a status as low as dust. Don't need to talk about Grandmaster Rong Yun, even on the Emperor's side... Humph, humph!"

Li Yaoxiang said knowingly: "What Yaoyao said is right. Good, very quickly, you will see the scenario you wish to see!"

Very quickly, the news about Su Luo, that loathsome girl, being driven out of her family will resound throughout the entire imperial capital! At that time, she won't even be Su family's daughter by a concubine. Instead, she will be a loathsome girl of unknown origin!

A malicious sneer flashed across Li Yaoxiang's eyes.

Opposing the Jade Lake's Li family? She must really be tired of living. Su Luo, you just wait for the Jade Lake's Li family's extreme retaliation!

Su Manor.

Li Yaoxiang exerted pressure on Su Zian everyday, pressuring Su Zian until he nearly collapsed.

Could it be that he didn't want to drive this daughter that was not his biological daughter out of the family?

Chapter 734: Su Luo's Death (4)

But the problem was, she had already passed two rounds in a row! If she passed another round, then she would be Grandmaster Rong Yun's disciple!

If Su Luo was truly accepted as Grandmaster Rong Yun's disciple. At that time, even if Su Luo did not ask for favors from Grandmaster Rong Yun, the entire continent still would look upon Su Manor as very important.

Grandmaster Rong Yun only needed to say the word, then Su Manor could immediately reach the heavens in one step. Even the Jade Lake's Li family must also give Su Manor face.

As a result, Su Zian carried the heavy pressure by the Jade Lake's Li family. He wholeheartedly shouldered the pressure, waiting for the results of the disciple selection before making a decision. No matter how extremely forceful Li Yaoxiang's side pressured him, Su Zian continued to bear it, even though he was on the verge of collapse from it. It was merely that he wasn't sure if he could hold out until the end.

From others' perspective, ten days' time would pass in an instant.

However, from Su Zian's perspective, a day dragged on like a year.

Enduring and enduring, finally, Su Zian endured to the last round of the match.

Su Zian sucked in a deep breath of air: Su Luo ah, Su Luo. This time, everything will depend on you, if you cannot win the third round, you can just get out of Su Manor!

This time, everyone did not assemble in the throne room. Instead, they came to the Demon Cave, a distance of a day's travel from the imperial capital.

At this time, besides Grandmaster Rong Yun, Su Luo and Li Yaoyao, there were many others who were here to watch the spectacle.

For example, Su Manor and Liu Manor....every aristocratic and wealthy family from the Imperial Capital had sent representatives to watch. The entire scene was bustling and very lively.

Places with many people would definitely have a lot of spirited discussions.

“You tell me, this time, who do you think will win?”

“Do I even need to say it? It definitely will be Jade Lake’s fairy!”

“Exactly, not only is the Jade Lake’s fairy’s strength greater than Su Luo, in addition, you know this is the Demon Cave oh. This is the place where the Jade Lake’s fairy could be considered the host, like fish in water.”

“That may not be true. In the previous rounds, didn’t you all say that Su Luo would certainly lose? However, she still staggered along and charged through.”

“You also said that she had staggered along and charged through. However, it could be seen that she had already exhausted her abilities. What’s more, the Jade Lake’s fairy hasn’t used all her strength, it can be said that she was being polite and going easy on Su Luo.”

“Right. It is definitely like this, she is giving Su Luo some points!”

When Beichen Ying’s trio heard these people’s words, they rolled up their sleeves and were about to beat them up.

What do you mean by Li Yaoyao going easy on Su Luo? Motherfucker, Li Yaoyao wished she could actually throw Su Luo far away. Why would she go easy on Su Luo? They didn’t know how hard Su Luo had to prepare for this exam, but Beichen Ying and the others were there to see it all.

Su Luo pulled Beichen Ying and the others to a stop. She was all smiles as she said: “Don’t go.”

“Sister-in-law!” Exclaimed Beichen Ying, unable to accept it.

“After the results come out, at that time, they would be slapping their own faces with ‘pow, pow’ sounds. That would be more pleasurable.” Su Luo unconcernedly said.

Beichen Ying thought a bit and felt that this way was also good. Seeing them slap their own faces was truly more pleasurable.

These three extremely handsome youths fiercely glared at that group of gossiping people. They obediently stood behind Su Luo in a half-circle.

Grandmaster Rong Yun pointed towards that sinister cave opening, and shot Li Yaoyao and Su Luo a slight glance: “Inside the Demon Cave, there are Fire Source Stones, whoever can bring out the most wins.”

“Fire Source Stone?” Everyone’s face had a huge question mark.

The price of a Fire Source Stone was very high, but since the Jade Lake’s Li family could even take out purple-colored crystal stones, how hard could it be to get a Fire Source Stone?

What if somebody was to cheat?

Naturally, Grandmaster Rong Yun had already thought of a countermeasure: “Those Fire Source Stones have already been marked by this apothecary. No one could pass off a fake one for the real thing.”

The mark was his unique spiritual signature, so even an expert stronger than him could only erase the mark, but could not substitute an fake unmarked one for the real one.

Chapter 735: Su Luo's Death (5)

When Grandmaster Rong Yun said these words, happiness flashed through the Jade Lake's fairy's eyes.

Someone had already retrieved the map of the Demon Cave from the Jade Lake's Palace and handed it to her. She had spent an entire day memorizing every detail on it.

She hadn't even entered the Demon Cave yet, but she already knew the layout and structure inside very clearly. Su Luo, that loathsome girl, wanted to win against her? In the next lifetime!

Thinking up to here, the Jade Lake Fairy cast Su Luo an arrogant glance, her eyes filled with disdain.

However, Su Luo did not even take notice of her.

After Grandmaster Rong Yun had said that every single Fire Source Stone had been marked with his spiritual signature, happiness flashed through Su Luo's heart.

As a result, she quickly woke up the little divine dragon who was soundly asleep in her space. She patted his little butt and told him to rush quickly to Grandmaster Rong Yun's side.

The little divine dragon rubbed his drowsy eyes. However, he cleverly carried out his little owner's instructions.

In two-three steps, he ran into Grandmaster Rong Yun's arms. His little nose sniffed him here and there.

Grandmaster Rong Yun clearly showed that he did not know that the little divine dragon had a natural instinct in finding treasures. Full of affection, he rubbed the little divine dragon's head.

When the Jade Lake's fairy saw the little divine dragon, her heart trembled. She coldly said: "This little bastard cannot enter!"

When the little divine dragon heard that he could not enter, he immediately became worried. His two little paws clenched tightly onto Grandmaster Rong Yun's clothes at his chest. That pair of huge, innocent clear eyes shone with a pleading light.

Grandmaster Rong Yun affectionately rubbed his head.

No one noticed that when Li Yaoyao had shouted out the three words 'this little bastard', an icy cold glint flashed through the depths of Grandmaster Rong Yun's eyes. It was too fast, so others were unable to detect it.

Only Su Luo, who was secretly and carefully observing Grandmaster Rong Yun, had noticed it.

Su Luo secretly felt that this was odd.

Didn't know if it was her misperception, but she always felt that Grandmaster Rong Yun's treatment towards Li Yaoyao was not as good as it seemed on the surface...

However, Li Yaoyao not allowing the little divine dragon to enter, this was out of the question.

Su Luo coldly smiled and cast a sidelong glance at the Jade Lake's fairy: "Based on what reason is it that my little spirit pet cannot enter?"

"I didn't even bring a spirit pet, this is not fair!" In fact, it's not because Li Yaoyao did not have a spirit pet. Merely, her spirit pet was currently only at the fifth rank, so she looked down upon it. Therefore, she had tossed it aside in the Jade Lake Palace and did not bring it.

The corner of Su Luo's mouth hooked into an apathetic sneer: "Why should I care if you brought your spirit pet or not. In any case, I will definitely be bringing my spirit pet inside. If you have the ability, then you can also go find one."

"Miss Su, how could you be so unreasonable?" The Jade Lake's fairy used a criticizing gaze to look at Su Luo. With a helpless expression, she said, "If you act like this, how could the contest proceed?"

Su Luo secretly cast Grandmaster Rong Yun a glance, afterwards, she spread out her hands towards Li Yaoyao and helplessly said: "What my spirit pet loves the most is to explore. If he is not allowed to enter, then he will be in a bad mood. If his mood is bad, then he will not eat properly. If he does not eat properly, then he will get sick... Of course, if you can prevent him from entering, then you will have the final say.”

Before the Jade Lake’s fairy could speak, Grandmaster Rong Yun had already waved his hands: “Enough, spirit pets inherently are a part of one’s strength, naturally, they can enter.”

Su Luo’s heart secretly smiled.

As expected, Grandmaster Rong Yun was still really concerned about the little divine dragon.

The Jade Lake’s fairy was displeased in her heart. However, recalling the map she had memorized inside her head, the corner of her mouth lifted into a sneer.

“Begin.” Grandmaster Rong Yun said in an indifferent tone.

Hearing what was said, the little divine dragon quickly rushed into Su Luo’s arms, afraid that his little owner would leave him behind.

“Sister-in-law, we will wait for you to come out to celebrate.” Beichen Ying’s trio said to Su Luo, with their faces full of expectation.

The Demon Cave was very dangerous.

Chapter 736: Su Luo's Death (6)

Originally, they had wanted to stop Su Luo from participating. After all, if something were to happen to her, they would be unable to explain it to Nangong.

However, no matter what was said, Su Luo would not agree. She even brought out her good luck that had averted her from disaster every time as proof.

The trio were helpless and could only allow her to go.

“Yes!”

Su Luo nodded her head and stuffed the little divine dragon into her arms. Afterwards, without any hesitation, her body moved slightly. She used Spirit Dance Steps to skim towards the entrance of the Demon Cave.

Seeing Su Luo's leaving figure from the back and thinking of the things Li Yaoyao brought inside, Li Yaoxiang and Li Aoqiong exchanged a glance. A smirk could be seen in both of their eyes.

Su Luo, you have already become a grave threat to the Jade Lake's Li family. No matter what, this time, you must die!

Su Luo was a step behind the Jade Lake's fairy in entering the Demon Cave.

Clearly, the Jade Lake's fairy already had a plan. In order for Su Luo to not catch up with her, her speed rose to its peak. In the blink of an eye, she disappeared.

Inside the Demon Cave, there was a countless number of demon soldiers, with strengths ranging from first rank to fourth rank.

The demon soldier king's strength ranged from fifth to sixth rank.

As for the demon boss, its strength was above the seventh rank.

Su Luo's figure was like a thread of smoke as she swepted towards the cave's path as fast as lightning.

The lighting in the cave's passage was very dark.

Originally, Su Luo could have easily shot out small fireballs to use as light. However, she did not do so.

It was because bright light would easily attract the enemy's attention. At that time, if a group of demon soldiers came, then she would die for sure.

In the dimness of the light, one could only see at most a hundred meters.

Within a hundred meters, she simply could not see the Jade Lake's fairy's silhouette.

A cold smile flashed through Su Luo's heart.

So what if the Jade Lake's fairy had a map, didn't she have a spirit pet that could automatically hunt for treasure?

Su Luo patted the little divine dragon whose little head had popped out from her arm curiously. Her figure quickly moved through the passage.

Didn't know how long she traveled through the passageway until finally, rays of light could be seen up ahead.

Very clearly, they had already reached the end of the passage.

A steel door was at the end of the passage.

Originally, it should have been locked up with chains. But now, it was already cleaved in half by someone else. The chains were split up into pieces, scattering on the floor.

Very clearly, this was the Jade Lake's fairy's doings.

With someone ahead opening a path for her, this point was pretty good.

Su Luo carried the little divine dragon and entered with light footsteps.

Behind the door was a wide and imposing hall.

The surroundings were absolutely empty. There was nothing.

Besides a whole field of demon soldiers.

There was a group of demon soldiers on the floor that had just died recently, so they hadn't vanished yet. However, it was clearly done by the Jade Lake's fairy.

The reason why the Demon Cave was known as a hellish place was because these demon soldiers were one of the biggest factors.

The demon soldiers had died without transforming, so later, they could again reform.

In other words, these demon soldiers were never alive. So, no matter how you killed them, you could never kill them all.

Because they would die and resurrect again.

But right now, they hadn't been dead for long, and so their bodies hadn't disappeared. So, Su Luo bumped into them head-on.

Just at this moment, the little divine dragon abruptly emerged from Su Luo's arms.

One could only see him leap out with lightning speed towards one demon soldier. He then took a bite directly out of its corpse!

What surprised Su Luo was --

That demon soldier suddenly... suddenly changed into a ball of spirit mist. Afterwards, it was sucked in by the little divine dragon.

This was repeated again and again. Over and over again.

The little divine dragon continued to suck non-stop. He swallowed all the demon soldiers on the floor into his stomach.

Su Luo simply stared at this dumbfounded, and only recovered her senses after a long while. She picked up the little divine dragon and pried open his mouth to carefully examine it: "You truly are... What things don't you eat?"

She found that the little divine dragon's innate gift was incomparable, too amazing!

Chapter 737: Su Luo's Death (7)

Like her who cultivated desperately and experienced life-and-death situations again and again, even then, she was still currently only at the fifth rank.

However, as for the little divine dragon, he only needed to eat, drink and sleep. Occasionally acting cute, once in a while eating a few stones, and bubbly like clouds of mists... then his strength would immediately skyrocket.

The dragon race was truly the gods' favorites, this point, no one could compare to.

.

After the little divine dragon had absorbed nearly all of the spiritual mist from the demon soldiers, his entire little body seemed to be drunk from wine. While he was shaky and swaying, he was shadow boxing.

Su Luo immediately became speechless.

At this most crucial point, how could the little divine dragon become intoxicated? Without him, she wouldn't be able to find the Fire Source Stones.

In the end, the little divine dragon's body became askew and directly fell into Su Luo's arms. His little belly swelled and sunk as he entered into deep slumber.

Su Luo spread out her hands.

The demon soldiers on the floor were even more pitiful than her.

Very clearly, they were made from the spiritual mist. Originally, they would revive after death, growing and multiplying without end. However, being sucked up by the little divine dragon, they would disappear forever.

Su Luo couldn't help but feel the deepest sympathy on behalf of the demon soldiers in the Demon Cave.

She hoped that after they left, this would still be the best place for the other influential families to cultivate.

She stuffed the little divine dragon that had fallen drunk into her space. Su Luo's expression became slightly more cautious.

Originally, with the little divine dragon at her side, he would use his shrewd senses to warn her of danger. But now, it was only her alone, so she could only be more cautious.

Su Luo was mobilizing the spirit energy in her body, and her body gradually became stretched taut. A strong force circulated through the hundreds of bones in her body.

Su Luo searched the surroundings in the entire hall for a long while and still could not find a single Fire Source Stone. Consequently, she went deeper into the cave.

Before walking for too long, her footsteps halted.

Because she saw that the Jade Lake's fairy was now sitting on a swing, hanging from a curtain off a canopy. Looking down from above, her attitude was arrogant as she cast Su Luo a glance.

Her cold gaze carried a touch of disdain.

Inside such a huge hall.

The roof and the surroundings were embedded with numerous glowing black pearls, illuminating the deepest part of the hall as if it was daytime.

A countless number of gorgeous seven-colored curtains hanging from the canopy danced carelessly in the air, wondrously spry and lively.

The Jade Lake's fairy sat at a high place and arrogantly looked down at Su Luo.

Su Luo stood below with both hands crossed over her chest. Her eyebrows raised in a smile yet not a smile and she cast a sidelong glance at the Jade Lake's fairy.

After a short period of time, the Jade Lake's fairy finally started to speak in a cold and clear voice that was full of arrogance: "Su Luo, did you know? I truly loathe you."

The Jade Lake's fairy who always pretended to be gentle and kind-hearted in front of others, now used a despising gaze to look at Su Luo with disdain. She did not even try to cover up her loathing.

Su Luo smiled faintly. "No problem, in any case, I also loathe you. We're the same."

Jade Lake's fairy frowned and immediately followed with a sneer: "Based on your insignificant strength, aren't you afraid I'm going to kill you?"

Su Luo smiled widely: "Kill me? Aren't you afraid that you would end up like Li Aoqiong?"

Li Aoqiong dropped all the way from ninth to fourth rank, and had become the laughingstock of the entire continent.

A bitter hatred flashed across the Jade Lake's fairy's expression, and she clenched the fists at her side. Her eyes flashed with killing intent: "Very good. Since you, yourself, are courting death, then don't blame me for being impolite."

"Humph, don't worry, my spirit pet will also not be polite to you." Su Luo smiled indifferently. She calmly looked at her in the midst of chaos.

Unfortunately, at this moment, the little divine dragon was completely unable to sense his little owner's danger. He was soundly snoring inside Su Luo's space, his sleep especially sweet.

*

Words from the real Author:

Haven't even written to the part where Luoluo dies, a pity..Isn't it that everyday someone would urge me to finish this? If Luoluo died then isn't everything finished~~Hahaha!

Chapter 738: Su Luo's Death (8)

Hearing Su Luo's hidden mockery, a cold light flashed through the Jade Lake's fairy's eyes.

Although she had not personally seen it, she had however heard her older brother mention that Su Luo's spirit pet had toyed with Second Uncle until he was running around in circles.

Even though she was already at the peak of the sixth rank, her strength was still too far away from that little bastard's!

Thinking this, the Jade Lake's fairy snorted a few times and she swept a cold glance over Su Luo once again.

She had a trump card in her hands but now was not the right time.

Su Luo, I'll let you live for just a few more days.

The Jade Lake's fairy played with the Fire Source Stones in her hand by tossing them around and looked disdainfully at Su Luo. Instead, her sleeve danced in the air as she quickly flew away.

Su Luo secretly wiped the cold sweat from her forehead.

Fortunately, she left after falling for her bluff. If they were truly to fight, without the help of the little divine dragon, the odds of her winning would be zero.

However... the Jade Lake's fairy had played with two Fire Source Stones, flipping them in her hands. And now she still hadn't found a single one.

Worthy of being the Jade Lake's fairy that had the entire map of this place. This was like taking advantage of a divine opportunity.

Just when Su Luo was silently cursing her.

Suddenly, she noticed that the surroundings were eerily quiet, an uneasy premonition appeared in her heart.

Su Luo condensed all the spirit energy in her body, forming it to automatically defend, while at the same time her gaze guardedly inspected her surroundings.

“Thump, thump, thump—”

An orderly sound came from up front.

Su Luo raised her head to look. She discovered that a dense group of demon soldiers wielding weapons was directly rushing towards her!

So many demon soldiers...

Su Luo's heart jolted powerfully. She turned around and was just about to run back.

However, now there were also thump, thump, thump sounds of footsteps coming from behind her.

The bad premonition in Su Luo's heart grew even more intense. She took a glance backward and what she saw made her thoroughly depressed.

She discovered that behind her, there was another huge group of demon soldiers rushing toward her.

The two groups were at her front and back, surrounding her in the middle, forming a pincer attack.

Rendering the originally very narrow passageway blocked until it was sealed air-tight.

Su Luo visually estimated that when the two groups of demon soldiers were added together, there were at least hundreds of demon soldiers.

However, why were these demons soldiers looking to find her?

The image of that strange smile the Jade Lake's fairy had before she left popped up in her mind and she suddenly understood.

This was definitely Li Yaoyao's secret scheme.

Getting someone else to do her dirty work, she was really smart!

“Rustle, wham—” The demon soldiers from both sides, without distinguishing friend from foe, raised their weapons and struck towards Su Luo.

In front of the demon soldiers was a formidably strong demon king. By looking at them, the two demon kings' strengths were at the fifth rank.

Without mentioning the demon soldiers, just the spit from every one of them would already drown her.

What to do?

Su Luo's heart became deeply worried.

Based on her current strength, how could she defeat so many demon soldiers? She really didn't know how Li Yaoyao had drawn them here!

Su Luo originally thought of shrinking her stature down to make her way under them.

However, seeing those demon soldiers crowding together like ants, she immediately give up on this idea.

She saw that the two groups of demon soldiers were about to descend on her in a pincer attack. Just at the moment when the swords they waved were about to chop down— Su Luo quickly used her foot to push off from the ground and her figure shot forth like a fierce bullet!

Her two feet pushed off on the smooth walls, borrowing the strength to build her momentum. All of a sudden, she shot out further, going several tens of meters away!

These demon soldiers were all made out of spirit energy. Their actions seemed to have been pre-programmed, without sufficient flexibility.

As a result, only after Su Luo had jumped out a hundred meters away did they realize that the person was no longer there.

“Chase!”

The two demon kings brandished their glittering long swords and charged fiercely toward Su Luo.

Other than being a bit slow and inflexible, the strength of these demon soldiers were all pretty good. Their speed was even weirder.

Chapter 739: Su Luo's Death (9)

Within a moment, the two groups of demon soldiers assembled together to chase after Su Luo.

Su Luo's feet used the Spirit Dance Steps, travelling nimbly and quickly back and forth within the main hall.

Although for the time being they had not caught up, Su Luo's heart was somewhat bewildered.

Beichen Ying had told her, there was one characteristic of the demon soldiers and that was to form a large group.

Now, two groups had joined together to kill her. If she was seen by other groups of demon soldiers, they would definitely unite together to deal with outsiders!

At that time, not mentioning two, three groups of troops, there was a possibility that all of the demon soldiers inside the cave would chase after her to kill her.

They chased closely behind her but Su Luo also escaped very quickly.

While she was fleeing, she was also pondering countermeasures to this situation.

How could she shake off these demon soldiers' pursuit?

Su Luo's eyes narrowed slightly. Actually, the most important point was that she ought to figure out why the demon soldiers would pursue her so closely and not let her go.

She really needed to get to the heart of this matter. It seemed as if it was only after the Jade Lake's fairy had left that these demon soldiers had arrived.

Then, in the end, what did Li Yaoyao do?

At that time, she had been sitting on the handcrafted swing, floating back and forth. It didn't seem like she did anything...

Su Luo turned her head back to look at these demon soldiers who nipped at her heels, refusing to let go. Suddenly, her mind flashed with a bright idea.

Because she had unexpectedly seen when she walked passed that there were several demon soldiers who rushed to the wall which had her footprints, shouting anxiously. Furthermore, they even wanted to isolate that area.

How could she have left behind footprints?

It was only now that Su Luo suddenly recalled it—

When she saw the Jade Lake's fairy, she was not paying attention to the ground.

It may be assumed that she stepped on a wet spot at that time.

If it was an ordinary wet spot, how was it possible that these demon soldiers pursued her so tightly without letting her go?

Su Luo took off her own little shoes, sniffed them a little and she immediately understood!

Li Yaoyao, was this you trying to compete with me using Celestial Spirit Water? Truly interesting!

Now, Su Luo understood at last!

The reason why these demon soldiers followed her without letting her go was because she had unintentionally stepped into a trap set up by Li Yaoyao.

And that trap was precisely the Celestial Spirit Water from Jade Lake's Li family.

Since the Jade Lake's Li family had a map of the entire Demon Cave, they must have known the demon soldiers' characteristics and preferences. Then, this would have been inevitable and expected.

It was no wonder! It was no wonder that in the competition this time the Jade Lake's fairy seemed to have trump cards up her sleeves! So, it turned out she wanted to borrow the hands of these demon soldiers to kill her.

Such a pity... With regards to Celestial Spirit Water, who could be compared to Su Luo?

It took the Jade Lake's Li family three years to get one bottle but she had so much Celestial Spirit Water that it was enough to give the little divine dragon to bath in. Li Yaoyao could have used anything else to compete with her, yet she insisted on using Celestial Spirit Water to compete with her!

Thinking up to here, the corner of Su Luo's mouth hooked into a ridiculing sneer.

Since Li Yaoyao had given her such a huge gift, if she doesn't return it, wouldn't it seemed discourteous of her?

Su Luo was running around in the huge hall, circling it for who knows how long, until she finally made a loop within the hall.

And now, following behind her were at least five groups of demon soldiers.

Up ahead, the Jade Lake's fairy was crouching down, earnestly digging for Fire Source Stones.

She threw the demon soldiers to Su Luo, while she, herself, went digging for Fire Source Stones?

The corner of Su Luo's mouth hooked into a cold sneer.

She approached noiselessly, flying to a place directly above the Jade Lake's fairy.

In fact, the Jade Lake's fairy had sensed Su Luo approaching but she, who was always proud, never attached any importance to Su Luo.

Therefore, she was currently still wholeheartedly devoted to digging out that Fire Source Stone.

With one more, she would have three pieces!

And just at this second!

Su Luo, who had flown right above her, took out a washbasin's worth of Celestial Spirit Water from her space!

This was all high grade Celestial Spirit Water! It was so much better than the low grade Celestial Spirit Water from Jade Lake's Li family!

Chapter 740: Su Luo's Death (10)

Being so extravagant, was something only Su Luo, this nouveau riche person, could do.

One could see her holding up that wash bowl, to splash it all over the Jade Lake's fairy's face—

Jade Lake's fairy had initially thought that the demon soldiers would stall Su Luo, and also thought that Su Luo would not dare do anything to her.

However, she really underestimated Su Luo.

So, the Jade Lake's fairy, who was wholeheartedly digging for Fire Source Stones and too busy to attend to her, was splashed with water on her entire body from head to toe.

Her entire body was covered with high grade Celestial Spirit Water!

The Jade Lake's fairy, who was drenched until she looked like a drowned rat, couldn't react for quite a while!

There was actually someone who would pour water over her!

“Su Luo! You're courting death!!!” The Jade Lake's fairy bellowed vengefully!

However, the only thing left behind in the air was the sound of Su Luo's bell-like happy laughter: “Those demon soldiers, enjoy them well, hahaha—”

One must know, Su Luo's was actually high grade Celestial Spirit Water. It was much better in comparison to the Jade Lake's fairy's low grade Celestial Spirit Water.

Not to mention, currently, the Jade Lake's fairy's entire body, from head to toe, had been poured on. Her entire body was exuding the sweet scent of spirit aura.

Those demon soldiers who, originally, had stubbornly targeted Su Luo, not letting go, immediately turned their heads and threw themselves towards the Jade Lake's fairy.

Seeing countless demon soldiers rushing towards her, immediately, Li Yaoyao was scared to the point of turning pale and nearly shrieked.

“Su Luo! I want to kill! I will definitely kill you!!!” Li Yaoyao furiously brandished her fists, both her eyes bursting out with red light.

But, no matter how furious she was, if she wanted to take revenge, she must first get rid of the demon soldiers in front of her eyes.

She already had no time to ponder over where Su Luo got the Celestial Spirit Water from. Now, her complete attention was placed on the bodies of the five demon soldier kings and the approximately five hundred demon soldiers in front of her eyes!

Every demon soldier king, at worst, had strength at the fifth rank, and the more powerful ones were at the sixth rank.

The Jade Lake's fairy was merely at the peak of the sixth rank, how could she be a match for so many?

The gazes of every one of these demon soldier kings were bursting with a burning radiance. They stared fixedly at Li Yaoyao's body, with gazes that were greedy and intense.

Li Yaoyao was watching the four demon soldier kings in front of her who were hindering her. There was one final demon soldier king leftover.

He was clearly the most intelligent one, taking advantage of Li Yaoyao being unguarded to lick her neck.

His clammy tongue slid across, immediately getting a mouthful of the sweet scent! This demon soldier king released light from both of his eyes. He was itching to hold Li Yaoyao and lick her entire body.

Seeing the final demon soldier king enjoy it like that, the remaining four were also unwilling to give up.

Each and every one of them stretched out their tongues towards Li Yaoyao's body, pouncing towards her.

They didn't actually have any desire towards Li Yaoyao. What attracted them was the Celestial Spirit Water that Li Yaoyao had been drenched with.

Confronted with their vulgar actions, Li Yaoyao was frightened until she nearly fainted!

She frantically brandished the spirit strength in her palm, all the spirit power in her entire body exploded out, releasing an inexhaustible killing power.

Suddenly, within the distance of ten meters from Li Yaoyao, all the demon soldiers fell down in place.

However, the demon soldiers still rushed towards Li Yaoyao like the tide.

If these were numerous ordinary soldiers, perhaps they would be timid. However, these were demon soldiers. They were not human, with no hearts, why would they be scared?

With regards to the attraction of the Celestial Spirit Water, this stemmed from instinct.

As a result, each and every one of the demon soldiers were insanely starved wolves, fiercely throwing themselves towards Li Yaoyao.

It was just like slicing off chives after they had been cut, another would pop up, throwing themselves at her.

They advanced wave upon wave, incomparably valiant.

Even Su Luo, who was hiding at one side watching this, could not help but gasp in surprise.

Confronted with the demon soldiers who were like wolves and tigers, and were untiring and unafraid to sacrifice their lives, the Jade Lake's fairy, at this moment, was already pale by comparison. She almost couldn't withstand it anymore.

The movement her hands made, accumulated boundless spirit strength, bursting and exploding out unceasingly.

Chapter 741: Su Luo's Death (11)

Confronted with her vicious attack, even though the demon soldiers were not afraid of dying, they also could not get close to her body.

However, the Jade Lake's fairy's condition was quite bad.

Because of the attraction of the high grade Celestial Spirit Water, more and more demon soldiers gathered together towards her.

At a glance, she was able to see the densely-packed demon soldiers surge up violently like a tide, continuous and unending.

A burst of fear appeared inside the Jade Lake's fairy's heart. At the same time, she also possessed an endless amount of fury!

At this time, she was itching to dismember Su Luo's body into ten thousand pieces!

However, she could kill Su Luo at any time, right now, saving her own life was most urgent.

Again, the Jade Lake's fairy had no time to deal with anything else. Her hand suddenly tugged. Immediately, that white-colored outer dress, that was spry and lively like an immortal, tore with a ripping sound.

Jade Lake's fairy grinded her teeth and threw this white-colored outer dress towards the most concentrated place within the demon soldiers.

Weren't these demon soldiers throwing themselves at her in order to lick the Celestial Spirit Water on her body? This white-coloured outer dress was moistened with a lot of Celestial Spirit Water, just let them fight over it as much as they want!

At this time, dressed in only a piece of white slip, the Jade Lake's fairy's complexion was a sheet of haze.

Seeing that crowd of demon soldiers rip that white-colored outer dress into pieces, a trace of a very dark fierceness flashed across her eyes.

If she didn't go now, then when would she wait until!

Jade Lake's fairy turned around, then flew over them and left.

However, her head was splashed with the most amount of Celestial Spirit Water. This simply could not be concealed from the several demon soldier kings.

As a result, the five demon soldier kings instantly got up and followed behind the Jade Lake's fairy!

Li Yaoyao was nearly angered half to death.

She really wanted to turn her head back and tell them. In fact, the Celestial Spirit Water was poured by Su Luo, if they wanted to find it, they should go find her.

However, with regards to these demon soldiers that were spiritless and had the wisdom of three-year-old kids, what use would these words have? It was like preaching to the deaf!

Up ahead, was a gate.

Li Yaoyao's heart was moved and a hint of ecstasy flashed across her face.

As long as she entered through this black, iron gate and closed it afterwards, then these several demon soldier kings would not be able to chase after her.

Thinking of this, Li Yaoyao immediately sped up.

She gathered all of her spiritual strength beneath her feet, hoping she could rush inside within the shortest amount of time!

However, just right at this critical moment—

Just when Li Yaoyao was on the verge of flying through the panels of the gate.

Suddenly, a bucket on top of the gate emptied over.

The splashing sounds of water almost scared Li Yaoyao half to death!

However, the moment she smelled that scent, immediately, her heart was greatly shaken!

“Su Luo, you must not be allowed an easy death! You better get the fuck out here! Get the fuck out here!”

Li Yaoyao touched the top of her head. Her entire person was drenched.

She never thought that Su Luo would actually install a trap at this gate's entrance. Waiting for her to enter, and then the Celestial Spirit Water would once again be poured all over her body!

There wasn't actually that much Celestial Spirit Water in the bucket. It only poured onto the Jade Lake's fairy's body while not much was spilled on the ground.

The eyes of the five demon soldier kings behind her immediately lit up!

Each and every one of their eyes were naked and red as they stared at the Jade Lake's fairy, itching to pull off all the clothes on her body!

Of course, what they wanted were the clothes and not the person.

How fragrant, it's too fragrant—

The five demon soldier kings excitedly wagged their tongues and sped up to chase after Li Yaoyao!

Just at this moment, a figure burst forth rapidly from behind and swept towards them.

When those five demon soldier kings saw the person who had just arrived, suddenly, their hearts were frightened. Each and every one of them bowed respectfully and knelt down.

“Venerable demon boss.”

This demon boss was dressed all in black, only, those facial features were... both eyes were sticking out, a collapsed nose with lips flipped out, he was so ugly as to be extremely tragic, especially the skin on his face.

It was black and white patches with constant movement. It looked like there were countless worms wriggling on top of it. It appeared to be extremely disgusting.

At this time, he was standing upright proudly, his entire body exuding a gloomy and cold aura.

He was looking at Li Yaoyao with a dark and fierce gaze, it was sharp and direct: “You will strip it off yourself, or shall this king help you strip it off?”

Chapter 742: Su Luo's Death (12)

Li Yaoyao: “.....”

The demon boss of the Demon Cave was higher than a seventh rank.

In addition, there were the five demon soldier kings in front of her, no matter what, she could not escape!

What to do? What to do?

The Jade Lake's fairy bit her lower lip, constantly thinking of a scheme to escape.

However, this demon boss who was equipped with somewhat more intelligence cast a disgusted look at her. Not waiting for her to respond, he took unfair advantage and directly hugged the Jade Lake's fairy by her slender waist.

Following this movement, the Jade Lake's fairy's entire person became almost completely stiff.

She was called a fairy, her entire body was cold flesh with lofty proud and unyielding character. She avoided immorality and had never been so violated by a male before!

But now, she was together with this person, very close.

In addition, his face was like that of a toad's, with the sores and warts sticking to her skin, immediately making her hair stick up from a chill.

“Let me go!” The Jade Lake's fairy smashed her fist towards his head in fury.

But this seventh-ranked demon boss's strength was seriously strong. He merely raised one hand and jerked both of the Jade Lake's fairy's hands behind her back.

Such an action caused the Jade Lake's fairy's soft chest to stand proudly erect.

However this, with regards to the dressed-all-in-black demon boss, didn't have any attractiveness whatsoever.

One could only see his hand that was crawling with countless maggots firmly grasp the Jade Lake's fairy's final piece of clothing—

“Don't— Don't—I beg you, let me go! I know who has this kind of Celestial Spirit Water on their body, I'll take you there! I beg you to let me go!”

However, this demon boss only had some intelligence, with regards to things, he always followed his own judgement.

No matter how much the Jade Lake's fairy wept and pleaded, his hand that gave people goosebumps used force to fiercely tear.

One could only hear the sound of ripping—

The white slip the Jade Lake's fairy had on was immediately ripped apart!

The black-dressed demon boss conveniently gave a toss!

The five demon kings around were already salivating from waiting, now, all of them frantically rushed towards that slip.

That light-colored slip was frantically being contested.

Once again, he looked at the Jade Lake's fairy.

Now that her slip had been torn off, the only thing remaining was a pink undergarment (1) wrapped around her proud chest.

“Don't...” The Jade Lake's fairy was frightened until she cried, the tears tumbling down from her face.

From childhood to now, having always been treated as a princess, carefully clasped in the center of people's palm, no one had ever treated her like this.

The black-dressed demon boss's eyes were as cold and gloomy as before, even if the Jade Lake's fairy was even more pitiful and lovely, he still remained unmoved.

One could only see him lean over, and from top to bottom, he started

Inch by inch, the places that were soaked by Celestial Spirit Water, were absolutely unable to escape his tongue.

Looking at that extremely ugly appearance, the skin that would make a person feel sick... Goosebumps started to rise on the Jade Lake's fairy's entire body.

Just when the dressed-in-black demon boss's head lowered towards her lower body, a fiercely strict expression flashed through Li Yaoyao's eyes!

She concentrated all of her spirit strength into her right palm, and smashed her fist fiercely towards the dressed-in-black demon boss whose body was bent down!

“Thump—”

A heavy sound resounded!

The black-dressed demon boss's head was smashed directly, immediately, his body swayed and his foot staggered.

No sooner said than done!

Dressed in the undergarment that only covered her chest and abdomen, the Jade Lake's fairy escaped at lightning fast speed!

Her body was like lightning as she rushed out of the room, sweeping towards a distant place.

Daring to attack the demon boss?

The corner of the black-dressed demon boss's mouth curved into a cold and dark smirk.

He stood up as if nothing had happened, and with a wave of his hand, he gave a command in a coarse voice: “Begin the chase!”

Suddenly—

One could only hear ‘woo woo—’ sounds. One burst after another resounded in succession, continuously with no end.

Afterwards, the entire Demon Cave sunk into a never-before-seen franticness.

1) See chapter 717 for the detailed explanations and picture. Basically, it is an undergarment made of a square with strings tying it around a person's neck and behind a person's chest area.

Author note:

Yesterday's message was a joke, it was written for the readers who urged me to finish everyday~~humph, humph. Now see if you dare to urge me to finish again?

Chapter 743: Su Luo's Death (13)

A countless number of demon soldiers appeared from every corner, pursuing in the direction that the Jade Lake's fairy had left in.

Su Luo, who was stealing glances from a corner, saw the Jade Lake's fairy who was now barely-dressed, wearing an undergarment that covered her chest, leaving everything else bare, and being chased until she repeatedly screeched. The corner of Su Luo's mouth hooked into a wicked smile.

Giving you a taste of your own medicine, Li Yaoyao, you should enjoy it well.

Su Luo also had not walk far, merely a distance of being behind the five large group of demon soldiers.

There was a never-ending amount of demon soldiers that were slapped dead by the Jade Lake's fairy, while the surviving demon soldiers chased after the Jade Lake's fairy. There was basically no one to take care of the corpses on the ground.

Based on the principle of not wasting things, Su Luo's movement was nimble as she gathered these 'corpses' and placed them in her space for the little divine dragon to absorb.

Su Luo unhurriedly wandered about.

Not long after, the sleeping little divine dragon who had eaten until he was full, came out.

Su Luo saw his radiating-with-health-and-vigor appearance, and couldn't help but ask: "Promoted again?"

"No." The little divine dragon pursed his little lips and shook his head. He extended his little paw and gestured for Su Luo to see 'only got a little more.'

"Able to get a little more is pretty good, you should be content." Su Luo rubbed his little head, then pointed to those 'corpses', and smilingly said to the little divine dragon, "These are all food for you!"

Anything that had spirit force, the little divine dragon could absorb it.

“Oh—” Suddenly, Su Luo’s eyes lit up.

Because, she saw at the place that the Jade Lake’s fairy was digging before, expose a very small stone that was emitting a blazing color of light.

As expected!

She remembered that the Jade Lake’s fairy hadn’t finished digging it out when she was splashed in the face with a full washbasin of cold water.

Afterwards, it was all kinds of escaping and being chased, being extremely rushed.

So that Fire Source Stone from before was still at the original spot, with no one moving it.

The little divine dragon’s speed was faster than Su Luo’s. Like lightning, he dashed towards it. His two little paws were sharper than any weapon.

With a casual grab, he was able to dig out the Fire Source Stone that was buried at least a meter deep in the ground.

Afterwards, he clasped the Fire Source Stone, and in a manner of taking credit for an achievement, he jumped into Su Luo’s arms.

This piece of Fire Source Stone was the size of a hen’s egg. It was a very small piece that was emitting a burning red light, so dazzling as to blind a person’s eyes.

Su Luo handed the Fire Source Stone back to the little divine dragon, letting him sniff it: “Sniff it carefully, next, we will be looking for this kind of stone.”

The little divine dragon used strength to inhale a breath of air, clearly nodding his head to express that he remembered this smell.

Su Luo stuffed the Fire Source Stone into her space, afterwards, she picked up the little divine dragon and placed him in her arms. Now, she started the real reason of why she entered the Demon Cave.

With the little divine dragon's help, on top of all the demon soldiers that were originally everywhere guarding this place being drawn away by the Jade Lake's fairy, Su Luo's speed at finding them, therefore, could be said to be very fast.

“One piece, two pieces...” A satisfied smile appeared on Su Luo's face, “Now, we already have two pieces of Fire Source Stones.”

Don't know how many pieces Grandmaster Rong Yun ended up placing in this cave.

She had walked around the entire main hall up ahead. Still, Su Luo only had two pieces in her hand.

Before, the Jade Lake's fairy already had two pieces in her hand, if this amount was used, then she would win.

However, within ten days, she didn't believe that the Jade Lake's fairy would not be able to dig out more.

Behind the main hall was a dark and deep maze, so deep as to be frightening. At one glance, you could not see the end. Su Luo hesitantly stood there, unsure if she should go in or not.

Beichen Ying had already warned her, she had best not step foot into the maze, otherwise, she who did not have a map, would absolutely not be able to walk out.

But Su Luo clearly saw, in order to escape the dressed-in-black demon boss's pursuit, Li Yaoyao had flown into the maze.

The little divine dragon had already searched, there was not a single Fire Source Stone remaining within the great hall.

Chapter 744: Su Luo's Death (14)

If she wanted to find more, than she could only enter that pitch-black labyrinth to look for them.

Riches and honor could only be sought among danger.

Without risk, how could one acquire gains?

Standing before the pitch-black labyrinth, the corner of Su Luo's mouth formed a slight smile. Then, she moved forward, stepping inside the labyrinth.

Inside the black-colored passageway, Su Luo flew by.

After flying a distance of approximately several thousand metres, Su Luo finally came to a stop.

Because, a few faint rays of light had appeared up ahead.

Furthermore, by following these bits of light, Su Luo could see the scene before her very clearly.

This was a place where the labyrinth's route split into different paths.

Up ahead, there were a total of six roads.

Su Luo nudged the little divine dragon: "Which road to take?"

The little divine dragon rubbed his sleepy eyes awake and seriously examined the roads for a moment, then, at a loss, shook his head.

It seemed like every one of them was the same. He could not sense any path that was special.... The little divine dragon blinked his eyes, then, in the end, still shook his head again.

Since even the little divine dragon did not know, then she could only depend on her own luck.

Su Luo thought for a moment. In the end, she still chose the middle route to fly into.

After she had flown in, before long, she became stupefied.

Because, what had appeared before her was, once again, the same six roads.

Since, she had already chosen the middle route earlier, then she should just continue with it.

Thinking this way, Su Luo also followed through with this action.

On this route, the little divine dragon did not make a sound. It could only indicate that the surroundings didn't have Fire Source Stones that Grandmaster Rong Yun had buried.

Didn't know how long she had flown for, when gradually, a trace of light appeared in front.

Having stayed in the dark for too long, then suddenly seeing a trace of light, Su Luo was clearly not used to it.

By means of the rays of light, Su Luo could see the scene in front of her very clearly.

“Li Yaoyao?” She was actually here?

At this time, Li Yaoyao was not in the difficult situation that Su Luo had imagined.

Her clothing was intact and her hair was worn in a refined coil. It was as if the incident of her being violated by the black-robed person from before had never happened.

Li Yaoyao was currently crouching down, digging. At this time, in front of her, on the ground, was a pile of Fire Source Stones.

Gauging by sight, there were more than ten pieces.

Su Luo's eyes narrowed slightly.

She really was suspicious about where these Fire Source Stones of Li Yaoyao's had come from.

At this time, Li Yaoyao calmly turned her body around. After catching sight of Su Luo, a cold light quickly flashed through her eyes.

“Didn't expect you'd still be alive.” Li Yaoyao looked at Su Luo coldly, her gaze was sinister and ferocious.

“This line should originally be said by me to you.” Su Luo had her arms crossed as she leaned with a content posture against a column. She was all smiles as she looked at the Jade Lake’s fairy, “Weren’t you stripped naked by someone? Where did you get these clothes?”

Hearing this, the Jade Lake’s fairy’s complexion flushed red!

No matter what, her views would not be as open-minded when compared to Su Luo’s, who had crossed over over from the twenty-first century. Regarding the incident before, she was extremely concerned about it.

“Su Luo, shut your mouth!” Li Yaoyao, spitting with anger, glared at Su Luo!

“What? Since you are able to do it, why are you still afraid of people talking about it?” Su Luo was touching her smooth chin, sizing her up from top to bottom.

While sizing her up, Su Luo clicked her tongue several times, looking down on her: “Still saying about how much you like Nangong Liuyun, now, aren’t you just throwing yourself on every man you see?”

Su Luo deliberately distorted the facts from earlier.

Li Yaoyao’s complexion suddenly flushed red. A shady and fierce intent to kill burst out of her eyes: “Dare you to say that again!”

“Want me to say it again, then I’ll just say it again. What’s so hard about it?” Su Luo leisurely unfolded her arms, found a stone table and jumped onto it. Leaning comfortably against the wall, she then sneered and said: “What? Forgotten the thing that you’ve done? At that time, in the Amethyst Fish Palace, wasn’t it you that planned for Nangong Liuyun to co-habituate with you in the same room? Wasn’t it so that you could seduce him into having sex with you? And the result? He simply didn’t want you.”

Chapter 745: Su Luo's Death (15)

Just because she liked Nangong Liuyun, therefore, time and time again, Su Luo had suffered from being chased by the Jade Lake's Li family to kill her!

Even though she was lucky to be alive right now, but that anger inside her heart, Su Luo had always kept it in mind.

Since there's such a good opportunity now, how could she let Li Yaoyao go?

One must know, Su Luo was someone who would never leave a hatred unavenged.

And Su Luo's words stabbed straight into the deepest part of the Jade Lake's fairy's heart!

She had set up everything in the Amethyst Fish Palace. In order to guarantee the result, she had even released a strong drug to incite lust. But, even in that kind of situation, Nangong Liuyun still immediately pushed her away.

Li Yaoyao would always remember. At that time, Nangong Liuyun's figure almost could not stand up anymore, but he still staggered out and left.

She had already stripped naked and thrown her entire body onto him, embracing him. Yet, he used up all of his strength to cast her aside.

“Li Yaoyao, if you still want to be this king's little sister, then immediately relinquish your hand!”

“Li Yaoyao, in this life, the only person this king wants is Su Luo, not you. Get the fuck away from this king!”

“Li Yaoyao, if you want to die, then continue following!”

His words, each sentence, were more callous than the one before and more heartless.

They were as if he was ruthlessly swinging his hand to heavily slap her face, smashing her fantasy into pieces.

However, the more he rejected her, the more she wanted him, not sparing any cost at all!

Li Yaoyao closed her eyes and took a deep breath. When she slowly reopened them, they were already filled with murderous intent.

“Su Luo! Right now, you still have a final bit of time, say your last words.” Li Yaoyao looked at Su Luo apathetically.

A bad premonition flashed through Su Luo’s heart, but the expression on her face did not change.

“Ha— Li Yaoyao, you think that you, at the summit of the sixth rank, can beat me?” Su Luo raised her eyebrows disdainfully.

“Since you don’t believe it, then just try it!” A malicious radiance flashed across Li Yaoyao’s eyes.

She had just finished speaking and one could only see her shake both arms. Then, two creeper vines flew out from her sleeves towards Su Luo to wrap around her!

Su Luo already had her guard up.

Just before those two creeper vines burst towards her, Su Luo shot two flames straight at those creeper vines.

The flames met with the creeper vines, yet did not hurt them in the slightest. The creeper vines shot towards Su Luo, unimpeded and without obstruction as before.

Li Yaoyao’s face exposed a sneer: “Merely a beginner’s flames, how can they hurt me?”

The bottom of Su Luo’s heart cooled slightly.

Her best weapon for battles was her fire element magic. As for the wood element, she simply had not learned it at all.

Since the fire element was no good, then, she could only use the Great Dimensional Imprint she comprehended about space.

Su Luo suddenly condensed out a Great Dimensional Imprint on top of the Jade Lake's fairy's head.

However, her entire body was bound up by the creeper vines.

The creeper vines were thick and solid, also tough and extremely strong. Its speed was excessively fast, immediately wrapping Su Luo up like a rice dumpling.

Li Yaoyao laughed coldly: "Looks like your cultivation is sloppy and quite ordinary. Just this bit of ability, what qualification do you have to fight with me over Third Senior Brother!"

"You think you've won?" Su Luo smiled faintly.

"Hoist her up!" Li Yaoyao coldly shouted out loud.

Consequently, both ends of the thick and solid creeper vines tied themselves around the columns, immediately suspending Su Luo in mid-air.

"Go!" Yet another creeper vine shot out explosively from behind the Jade Lake's fairy, towards Su Luo.

"Whip her face!" A touch of malevolence flashed across the Jade Lake's fairy's complexion. Both her eyes exploded out with a very dark and sinister light.

What she hated most was this face of Su Luo's.

With regards to looks, Su Luo could never compete with her, but Third Senior Brother's eyes were deceived by her! Aside from this face, everything else about her was unworthy of being seen.

Therefore, she must first destroy this face.

Chapter 746: The final match (1)

Then, to chop off her head, and finally, slice off her flesh, piece by piece. Death by a thousand cuts!

Thinking this way, the arc at the corner of the Jade Lake's fairy's mouth increasingly rose.

However, just at the moment when that third creeper vine was about to whip Su Luo's face.

"I order you to break!" Su Luo shouted explosively.

A deeply cold dagger suddenly burst out of her sleeve.

And Su Luo used mental spirit power to control this dagger from top to bottom. It cut down directly towards those coarse and thick creeper vines.

This dagger's name was 'Yan Hua', she had gotten it from the imperial palace's treasure storage pavillion.

Ever since she got it, Su Luo never actually had the opportunity to use it. Now was actually her first time using it.

It truly was worthy of being considered a most precious treasure by the Nangong imperial family. The dagger was incomparably sharp, slicing through the tough and durable creeper vines as if slicing tofu.

"Ss—"

There was a distinct noise. Those tough and durable creeper vines split apart with a sound echoing from top to bottom, leaving a clean gash behind.

The dagger, 'Yan Hua', was incomparably sharp.

Su Luo quietly floated down from mid-air. Smiling a smile that wasn't a smile, she cast a glance at the Jade Lake's fairy: "Your wood element is also merely like this."

A trace of rage from being humiliated emerged from the Jade Lake's fairy's absolutely beautiful appearance: "You're courting death!"

During the moment the Jade Lake's fairy was shouting this line explosively, her whole body's spiritual strength burst out and rushed forth.

Tide-like spiritual energy moved in a wave motion around her.

The Jade Lake's fairy's hands trembled violently. A deeply cold, long double-edged sword, similar to a clear expanse of water, appeared in her palm.

This was a flexible double-edged sword. It was originally tied at her waist. The fairy suddenly turned the double-edged sword into an attacking weapon.

“Su Luo! Go die!” The Jade Lake's fairy shouted explosively. Pouring spirit strength into the flexible double-edged sword in her hands, she jumped up suddenly, aggressively and viciously cutting down towards Su Luo.

It seemed as if she was bringing about a strength of fifteen thousand kilograms. In a split second, the air erupted with a sizzling noise, as if even space was shaken until it split open.

Confronted with this thunderous and violent offensive as heavy as one hundred and fifty thousand kilograms, Su Luo's eyes narrowed dangerously.

Li Yaoyao, this time, I will personally fight with you. Let's see whether there really is an insurmountably wide gap between a beginning fifth rank and someone at the summit of the sixth rank.

The little divine dragon wanted to engage in this battle. However, earlier, Su Luo had already stuffed him back into her space and also told him to stay there nicely.

Confronted with such a strong offensive, not only did Su Luo not retreat, instead, she stepped forward half a step.

At this time, endless spirit strength was rotating and condensing within her body, then finally, surged out from her palm!

“Great Dimensional Imprint, second layer!” Su Luo’s complexion was cold and one of concentration. Her hands produced a complicated seal, finally, it suddenly exploded towards the Jade Lake’s fairy!

“Freeze!”

Su Luo’s hands produced the Great Dimensional Imprint. With incomparable accuracy, she maneuvered the Jade Lake’s fairy’s double-edged sword, that had arrived so explosively, to a stop. Her evolved Nothingness of Space stopped it in place.

At this time, that long double-edged sword was very close to Su Luo, almost piercing the space between her eyebrows.

The sharp edge was only ten centimeters away from the space between her eyebrows.

However, that double-edged sword appeared to have been fixed in place by someone, forever unable to advance even one centimeter.

Because inside that tiny piece of space in front of Su Luo, the gravity had been controlled by her.

At this time, she could only control such a tiny piece of Nothingness of Space.

It could be imagined that in the future, when her strength became formidable, she would be able to control an even larger piece of Nothingness of Space.

Every single person she saw that she didn’t like, she’d throw them into the Nothingness of Space. Only like this would it be called truly powerful!

Unfortunately, at this time, she was still too far away, unable to reach such a powerful degree.

The Jade Lake’s fairy, who was flying in mid-air, added more strength into her hands, condensing all of her spirit strength, trying to pierce through the space between Su Luo’s eyebrows with the sharp point.

However, what made her feel somewhat inconceivable was that she nearly lost control over that flexible double-edged sword.

Pierce, pierce, pierce again!

Yet, no matter what, it just could not pierce in!

The Jade Lake's fairy's complexion started to twitch. Her eyebrows knotted furiously: "Just what kind of tricks are you up to?"

Chapter 747: The final match (2)

Su Luo cast her a glance: “Regardless of what tricks I used, being able to beat you is good enough.”

“Want to beat me? Dream on!” The Jade Lake’s fairy angrily snorted.

Didn’t know why, traces of a black aura was rotating around her body. The black rays of light rapidly rotated around her body, gathering into a formidable force.

Very clearly, this was one of her trump cards.

“Mind control!” A sinister sneer flashed across the Jade Lake’s fairy’s eyes.

A scarlet tint appeared in her eyes, when she stared at Su Luo, her eyes were glowing like fire!

Suddenly, Su Luo felt as if her head was hit by someone with a rod, like she was being smothered!

She was dazed from the pain, and her vision was blurred and hazy. She was also very dizzy.

Just when Su Luo appeared to be swaying and staggering as if drunk, the corner of the Jade Lake’s fairy’s mouth raised into a treacherous sneer.

Su Luo, next year, today, will be the anniversary of your death!

Seeing Su Luo looking like this, a satisfied smile appeared in the Jade Lake’s fairy’s eyes, then, her smiling expression suddenly tightened.

One could only see her two fists suddenly clench, stream after stream of the black light flashing through her skin.

Suddenly, a mountain peak-like black object appeared above Su Luo’s head, giving people the kind of pressure of a mountain pressing down, a feeling of reverence!

Jade Lake’s fairy held up this huge matchless black object, and ruthlessly smashed it towards Su Luo!

And Su Luo, at this moment, was being mind-controlled by Li Yaoyao, therefore, her entire person was in a daze, staggering about.

If she was smashed like this, then Su Luo would definitely be smashed into a meat patty!

Just at this extremely thrilling moment—

Su Luo subconsciously felt danger approaching, as a result, she, who was in a daze, finally opened the door to her space.

The already extremely worried little divine dragon suddenly leaped out!

One could only see the furious little divine dragon launch like a missile towards that black object!

The little divine dragon's defense was simple so strong as to defy nature.

He directly passed through that black object which was deep as the sea and harder than mysterious black iron!

When he was penetrating through it, the little divine dragon extended his two paws and violently slapped at it!

The originally black object that was frighteningly hard was now no better than a wooden block. It directly became dust, falling and sprinkling the ground.

The Jade Lake's fairy's pair of eyes suddenly opened wide!

She had already anticipated that this little dragon would be difficult to deal with, but she never imagined that the dragon would be difficult to deal with to this degree!

As a result, she stared somewhat blankly for a split second.

Just when she was distracted, the little divine dragon had already shot towards her body. He extended his two sharp little paws.

He directly struck at her delicate, fair and matchless beautiful face with more than ten slaps!

The little divine dragon's claws were incomparably sharp, and his strength was tyrannical. They could not be compared to the slaps by a human hand.

“Slap, slap, slap—”

A succession of slaps made the Jade Lake’s fairy fall back non-stop.

She tried to resist, but from the beginning, the little divine dragon had broken both of her hands. Afterwards, both of his feet stood on her chest imposingly as he slapped her without pause.

This position was comical and hilarious at the same time.

However, the strength the little divine dragon used to slap her was not a bit weak.

The wind from a slap flew by and would bring about a bloody mist.

After throwing more than ten slaps in a row, he had directly scratched the Jade Lake’s fairy’s extremely-beautiful-to-be-otherworldly face to become full of bloody scars. An appealing sight of devastation.

Finally, the little divine dragon very fiercely kicked her in the chest, using that momentum to do a flip in the air, and flew to Su Luo’s shoulder.

Due to the Jade Lake’s fairy being thrashed by the little divine dragon, therefore, she didn’t have the energy to control Su Luo. As a result, now, Su Luo was already clear-headed.

Su Luo shook her head, and gladly let go of a deep breath.

She reached out to rub the little divine dragon’s soft little head. This time, at the critical moment, if it was not for his help, she would have already become a meat patty by now.

Chapter 748: The final match (3)

The little divine dragon was bouncing vivaciously on top of Su Luo's shoulders. Clearly, he was very excited, he even twirled around in a dance.

Su Luo was speechless as she supported her forehead with her hand.

This child had a natural foolish disposition that he shed to develop in the direction of joyful foolishness.

Speaking of the Jade Lake's fairy.

Originally, she was already riddled with scars, and being stepped on heavily by the little divine dragon, her body was unable to suppress it and she recoiled back.

Thud, thud, thud. She retreated back seven steps in succession before ruthlessly knocking against the wall.

When the little divine dragon beat her, he didn't just cause external injuries. His accumulated spirit strength also caused her serious internal injuries.

A streak of blood leaked out from the corner of the Jade Lake's fairy's mouth.

However, at this time, her entire face was covered in thin lines of blood. This streak of blood at the corner of her mouth did not seem that obvious.

However, the Jade Lake's fairy felt a burst of fishy sweetness rushing forth from her throat. She paused for a while, then a mouthful of blood exploded out from her mouth.

One mouthful after another, she vomited five mouthfuls in a row, only then was she able to stop it.

The Jade Lake's fairy, who had dropped down to sit at the foot of the wall, covered her chest with one hand. Her pair of malicious and sinister eyes stared at the pair of irksome master and pet.

Carrying the little divine dragon, Su Luo walked until she was in front of her. She unhurriedly crouched down, the corner of Su Luo's mouth hooking into a sneer: “You want to kill me?”

“Humph!” The Jade Lake’s fairy, with blood at the corner of her mouth, turned her face away!

At this moment, losing to her made the Jade Lake’s fairy feel an incomparable humiliation.

Su Luo used the dagger, Yan Hua, to lift up Li Yaoyao’s chin. She forced Li Yaoyao until she had no choice but to meet her gaze.

“You tell me, should I kill you?” The corner of Su Luo’s mouth hooked into a smile that wasn’t quite a smile as she unhurriedly spoke.

This calm and composed attitude further infuriated Li Yaoyao!

The Jade Lake’s fairy sneered: “Victorious person is king, the defeated is plundered. If you want to kill, then just kill! There is no need for excess words!”

“You think that I won’t dare to kill you?” Su Luo effortlessly sat in front of her, the corner of her eyes lifted up slightly.

“If you dare to kill me, then you’ll have to be prepared to be chased to the end and killed by the Jade Lake’s Li family!” Li Yaoyao snorted coldly.

“Being chased to the end by the Jade Lake’s Li family to be killed?” Su Luo laughed happily, “You said it as if the Jade Lake’s Li family had let me go at some point in time. Li Yaoyao, you’re so naive. You think that with this, you can threaten me?”

Li Yaoyao’s complexion flushed red!

It was indeed as Su Luo had said, regardless of whether Su Luo killed her or not, the Jade Lake’s Li family would chase Su Luo until the end to kill her anyway!

“However, killing you will immediately cause the Jade Lake’s Li family’s crazy retaliation. Each and every one of the people in your family is a lunatic, this is truly a hassle.” Su Luo stroked her chin. She pretended to appear as if this was rather difficult: “How about drenching your entire body with Celestial Spirit Water, then offer you to that person...”

“Shut up! Shut up! I order you to shut your mouth!!!” Li Yaoyao used both her hands to cover her ears. On the verge of falling apart, she yelled, “I order you to get lost!”

It seemed that this had become Li Yaoyao’s weak point.

Having finally probed out Li Yaoyao’s weak point, Su Luo stood up, “Sure, I’ll get lost and go bring that demon boss in here.”

“Su Luo! You’re courting death! If you really dare to do this! The Jade Lake’s Li family will never let you off! Definitely won’t let you off!” Li Yaoyao shouted towards Su Luo with such a loud voice that even the surrounding walls shook slightly.

“So noisy.” Su Luo pretended to be disdainful as she picked at her ears. Then, she stooped down to pick up the Fire Source Stones Li Yaoyao had left behind from before.

Just at this time—

A trace of fierce sinisterness flashed across Li Yaoyao’s eyes, who originally had fallen apart. One could only see her leaping outside, like a sharp sword, leaving only one line behind!

“Su Luo, go and die!”

Just when Su Luo was slightly distracted!

A violent blaze exploded and split open right in front of her.

At this time, Su Luo really wanted to rain out curses.

Would this be considered karma cycling back for the appropriate retribution?

She used the spirit pinballs to smash two people from the Li family—

Chapter 749: The final match (4)

And now, Li Yaoyao had just tossed a spirit pinball at her!

It was only now that she knew just how great the power of a spirit pinball was!

That earth-shattering wave of energy came to engulf her!

That intense power from the sudden explosion was like swallowing the blue dome of the heavens, scattering ashes and dispersing smoke!

Su Luo collided with this wave of energy, her entire person was flung up high, then heavily thrown down.

A stream of blood spat out violently from her mouth.

However, this was only the beginning.

A huge frantic blaze enveloped towards Su Luo!

Su Luo's entire person was trapped inside the raging inferno. She was surrounded by an endless sea of flames and she had no way out!

Speaking of Li Yaoyao.

She had calculated it very accurately. Only after her body had leapt out did she smash the spirit pinball towards Su Luo.

In this way, when the spirit pinball exploded, with her speed, she wouldn't be affected.

She had calculated it very well. Just as she ran one hundred metres away, the spirit pinball exploded with a loud bang.

In that very small room, within that sealed area, Su Luo still wanted to survive? Dream on!

Li Yaoyao's mouth hooked into a bloodthirsty sneer, and the speed of her feet accelerated.

Since Su Luo was already dead, then there was no longer any need for her to stay here.

As a result, Li Yaoyao decided to leave the Demon Cave immediately.

In any case, at this time, she already had three Fire Source Stones in hand. Since her competitor was already dead, then her three stones was considered a certain win.

At this time, Li Yaoyao's mood was very cheerful. It could be said that she was unprecedentedly relaxed and happy.

As for Su Luo, who was trapped inside that sea of flames.

Will she really die just like this?

Quite clearly, Su Luo was like a cat, having at least nine lives.

Just when Su Luo was almost dead, burnt alive by the endless flames surrounding her, she suddenly recalled that strange piece of stone.

Before, that strange spirit stone had saved her life in the cave of flames.

Su Luo suddenly threw out that spirit stone.

Just at this moment, the entire spirit stone shone with the luster of gems, didn't know how it accomplished it.

Just when Su Luo almost suffocated, that spirit stone decisively absorbed the flames from the explosion until there was practically nothing left!

However, even though the spirit stone had absorbed the explosion's flames in time, it was unable to stop the room from being on the verge of collapse.

At this time, because of the explosion, countless stones continuously dropped from the ceiling.

Su Luo stood up, wanting to escape, but realized that in every direction was a wall. Where was there still a way out?

Just at this time, a huge piece of rock attacked directly towards Su Luo.

Before Su Luo could react, the little divine dragon had already swatted it away with one claw.

The rocks continued on, uninterrupted. Only after quite a while did it finally settle down.

At this time, it was very quiet all around.

Su Luo, who had been swept into a corner by the wave of energy, slowly crawled up. Wiping away the traces of blood from the corner of her mouth, she walked over with a limp towards that stone.

She crouched down, wanting to pick up the spirit stone. Before she even touched the spirit stone, she withdrew her hand out of reflex.

Because, she realized, the spirit stone was extremely scalding hot at this time.

It was very clear, this time, the raging flames from the spirit pinball's explosion were too fierce. To the extent that after the spirit stone absorbed it, that originally transparent white jade colour, was now filled with a fierce red-colored aura.

Not to mention her hand, even the floor the spirit stone was lying on, at this moment, was also being heated until it nearly melted.

Su Luo sat quietly in front of that spirit stone with a very complicated expression in her eyes.

If she hadn't had the spirit stone to save her life at a crucial moment, very likely, she would have lost her life.

Li Yaoyao, originally, was fully aware that Su Luo had the little divine dragon by her side. The reason why she still dared to move against her was because of that spirit pinball.

This spirit pinball was at least a ninth rank in strength. If she hadn't had the spirit stone, she definitely would not have been able to escape.

However, Li Yaoyao's luck was really bad! It was simply extremely bad!

Chapter 750: The final match (5)

When she smashed other people, she would always smash them to be promoted in rank, and it was not only one or two ranks.

However, Li Yaoyao nearly killed her with an explosion! If it was not for that piece of weird spirit stone, she would have already died.

Su Luo discovered that her lifeline was really long.

Now, at the northwest side of the Demon Cave.

This place was the cave's exit, however you entered or exit, you must pass through here.

In front of this place was an area of open space, now, it was filled with masses of people.

Grandmaster Rong Yun was sitting on a spacious chair made out of red sandalwood, the corner of his white robe draped down to the floor. It was like a blooming snow lotus flower, pure, holy and noble.

His pitch-black as ink eyes were narrowed slightly, revealing a proud and exceptionally sharp point, such that people did not dare to look straight into them.

That matchless handsome face was profoundly mysterious, with one hand placed on the armrest of the chair. His fingers moved up and down, beating out a rhythm. No one knew what he was thinking right now.

Emperor Jing was also sitting on a circular chair made out of red sandalwood. He was dressed in a bright golden dragon robe, making him even more conspicuous, imposing and respectable.

Only, no matter how he tried to maintain a dignified expression and posture, compared to Grandmaster Rong Yun, he naturally appeared shorter by a length.

Li Yaoxiang was also sitting on a circular chair, only, with regards to the other two, his position was slightly slanted.

His eyes now had just narrowed, staring fixedly at that sole exit.

Being subjected to Su Luo, that loathsome girl, he was motivated to let Yaoyao secretly take the spirit pinball that the Li family had collected for a long time.

Wait until a suitable opportunity, then kill that loathsome girl with an explosion.

Li Yaoxiang was not a bit worried about Li Yaoyao's strength. He was only worried about that startlingly freakish luck of Su Luo's.

The fists in Li Yaoxiang's sleeves clenched even more tightly, he hoped that the spirit pinball would blow up Su Luo. And he'd rather not have her smash to being promoted a rank.

As long as you came out from that gate with many Fire Source Stones in hand, then, they could become Grandmaster Rong Yun's disciple.

Li Yaoxiang's expression was stretched taut.

Grandmaster Rong Yun's disciple, represented many things of significance.

If Yaoyao could get this qualification, then, the Jade Lake's Li family would be linked together with Grandmaster Rong Yun.

In this way, then, among the ten great powers on this continent, the Jade Lake's Li family's originally unremarkable position would absolutely leap up to distinguish itself.

This position was truly too important, absolutely could not tolerate a loss.

"Yaoyao, for this day, the Jade Lake's Li family has waited for many years. By all means, don't let us be disappointed..." Li Yaoxiang took a deep breath. As much as possible, he suppressed the restlessness in his heart.

Now, standing by Li Yaoxiang's side was Li Aoqiong, whose lips were also tightly pursed. His face was stretched taut. It could clearly be seen how nervous he was and how much he cared.

Because he had fought Su Luo before, he knew perfectly well that her strength wasn't strong. But, she could always avert disaster at the last moment. Therefore, his heart would inevitably be anxious.

Compared to Li Yaoxiang and Li Aoqiong, the other people from Li family were full of confidence in Li Yaoyao, because they had always worshipped Li Yaoyao.

These people that were present, their confidence in Li Yaoyao was far greater than with regards to Su Luo.

Only the several people with Beichen Ying's group had firm confidence in Su Luo.

They didn't necessarily believe in Su Luo's strength, but with regards to Su Luo's luck, they firmly believed it without any doubt.

"Sister-in-law will certainly win. If she doesn't win, then it won't make sense." Beichen Ying's smile was as brilliant as sunshine.

"What does Li Yaoyao count as? This fight is is a contest of real strength. Sister-in-law will definitely win." Lan Xuan nodded his head with an air of complacency.

"..." Anye Ming speechlessly looked at these two shameless believers. When comparing strength, he was really worried for Su Luo.

Just at this moment.

That cinnabar red door had spirit power hovering on it. The door that had been sealed all along.

Credits

Translator: Alyschu

Epub: Estevam / dotNOVEL