- STORY -

Mukouda Tsuyoshi, summoned from modern Japan to a different world of sword and magic.

He thought of what kind of a huge adventure was waiting for him, but actually, Mukouda is just a civilian who got caught in a [Hero Summoning]!!

And that Mukouda's base status shabby compared to the legitimate heroes (There's even three of them!)...

On top of that, the king who summoned Mukouda and the rest were suspicious, and Mukouda left the castle by himself realizing "Ah, this is the type that heroes would only be used".

The only thing that Mukouda could rely on in this world is his unique skill [Net Supermarket]—it can only order goods from modern Japan to the different world.

"It is not for combat, but if I use it properly, I might have no trouble living?", Mukouda thought lightly, but actually—he found out that the modern 'food' that he ordered would display ridiculous effects!

On top of that, ridiculous guys who were attracted by a different world's food gathers...?!!

Chapter 1

I Got Caught In A Different World Summon

My name is Mukouda Tsuyoshi. By the way, I'm 27 years old, single.

I'm a humble salaryman who lives in a rural area of Japan.

And the reason why I'm in this fantasy world of sword and magic that is similar to medieval Europe, is because I was caught in a [Hero Summoning].

I had read so much of those kinds of web novels for passing the time, but never that I imagine that it would happen for me for real.

On top of that, to think that I was not a Hero, but only someone who's caught in... this isn't a joke.

And the one that took command for that [Hero Summoning] ceremony that was not a laughing matter, is a country called Leysehel Kingdom.

The Summoned Heroes should've been only 3 people, but since 4 people appeared, the big shots in that place made a confused face.

But well, you know, the ones who was the most confused was us who were suddenly summoned to a different world right.

And although it was like that, it's suddenly like "Hero-sama!" , you get that.

Being someone who fancies reading web novels, I immediately realized it was a different world summoning though.

Since we were called as "Hero-sama", I expected just a little bit, you know.

Despite the fact that it turned out to be a disappointment soon.

The status identification was performed on us who summoned at that place.

According to them, they did it using an identification magic item or something.

And with that status identification, the people other than me (they're wearing uniforms, so I think that they're high school students), had [Hero who came from another world] in their job column, but I only had [A person from a different world who got caught].

On top of that, compared to the other 3 who had 700 to 800 stamina and magic powers, I only have around 100 more or less.

Even so, they said that I have the strength that is more than this world's average.

But, compared to the other three, there's no doubt that it is not as good as them so I couldn't be comforted by it.

The number of skills I have compared to the three is completely different too.

Other than the skills like Identification or Item box that we have in common, they had skills like Holy Swordsmanship, Holy Spearmanship, Holy Magic that made the big shots in that place astonished.

In addition to that, they had magic skills for Fire, Water, Earth, Wind, Light, Lightning, and Ice.

It's the thing that you call a cheat.

Compared to that, my unique skill is [Net Super].

Well, I was like, "No, no, what the heck is that".

You get it right, I also know what a net super is.

I have been under their care for many times too.

However, it's a skill bro, a skill.

Isn't there some kind of a magical thingy.

The people from the other world was like “What the heck is that”, and the other three heroes were laughing too, and because of this unique skill, I’m immediately treated as useless.

Even so, there’s no doubt that I’m summoned to this world because of the [Hero Summoning], so I was able to meet with the king in the audience hall, but that king’s words was like super suspicious like I meant it.

According to the king,

- The Demon King plans on dominating this country and frequently attacks this country.
- We are able to stop them somehow, but we do not know how long that would last.
- In this situation, the citizen of this country are suffering.
- With desperate emotions, we performed the ancient ceremony which is the Hero Summoning.
- This is a very selfish wish, in addition to summoning you due to our own conveniences, but please save this country.
- This country does not know the way for returning you to the world you were in before, but the Demon King who had lived for a very long time and is excellent at magic should know.

Well, his words were just like that.

It’s obviously suspicious right.

Especially when he mentioned about returning to the world before.

Also, from how the king spoke, this country should be in a dangerous situation, but the people in here doesn’t have tragic feelings, you know.

On top of that, the king is a fat middle aged man that is wearing a blinding, flashy, jewelry embedded cape that was like “how much damn money did you pay for that”.

The queen who is sitting beside the king and the princesses that were standing beside are wearing flashy dresses that were like saying “we’re living extravagantly~”.

The king and the rest, worried about the people suffering, even though you’re experiencing luxury in such a way?

And the result of comprehensive evaluation of such various things, I came to the conclusion that this is a “bad” type of different world summoning.

Even though they’re saying “Hero”, in the end, we would only be thrown into a war for expanding this country’s territory or something, anyways, we would only be used by this country as they wanted.

On top of that, I’m not a Hero or whatsoever, so I probably won’t get treated well, at worst, there’s even the possibility of getting executed.

I decided that I should leave this castle right away.

That’s why, for the meantime, I assumed a humble attitude, and said this.

“I am not a Hero, and being in this place, I would be only a nuisance for everyone. That really breaks my heart, so if I were to be allowed to receive money to live 2-3 months until I gain a job, I think that I can do something about myself”

And then, as expected, should I say, or did they think like “good riddance” or something, I was given 20 gold coins and was taken out of the castle.

And it comes back to the present where I am currently walking in the royal capital’s town

I don’t know if 20 gold coins are expensive or cheap, but anyways, I got money that I could live with for a while.

Including monetary value, there’s a need to learn about this world quickly I guess.

And then, if possible, I will leave this country as soon as I can.

Judging from how that king was, there’s no way that this would be a good country, and I feel like I would experience only bad things in here.

Yosh, now that’s decided, let’s start right away.

Chapter 2

I Asked Kids A Lot Of Things

The town of the royal capital is like a medieval Europe townscape.

I first called out to the street children who had been hanging around here.

“Can I ask you a little bit? I just came out of the countryside, and don’t know much about this country. In exchange of treating food from the skewer stall there, can you teach me a lot of things”

They felt suspicious at first, but seemingly unable to win against their appetite, they gave me an ok.

I gave the kids two skewers from the stall and listened to what they said.

First, the thing that calling it the most important thing is not an exaggeration, monetary value.

1 iron coin → 10 YEN → 0.1 USD (TL: not accurate ofc)

1 copper coin → 100 YEN → 1 USD

1 silver coin → 1,000 YEN → 10 USD

1 gold coin → 10,000 YEN → 100 USD

1 large gold coin → 100,000 YEN → 1,000 USD

1 white gold coin → 1,000,000 YEN → 10,000 USD

Judging after asking a lot of things, it’s probably like this.

The stall’s skewer that I treated the kids was 5 iron coins for each.

With a family of 4, it might be possible to live for a month in the minimum with 6 gold coins.

Other than that, there’s also the nation independent adventurer’s guild and merchant’s guild (this is a staple in fantasy novels), and when you belong to either of these, the movement from town to town and country to country will become smoother.

In short, it seems like it would cost cheaper.

It seems like in the cases with people who don't have identity cards other than the guild cards from adventurer's guild or merchant's, or do not have one (according to them, country bumpkins or street children like them doesn't have identity cards), although there's a difference whether it's towards a country or a town, one would need to pay taxes to enter.

This part's also in the cliché.

Also, I asked about this country.

And then, it seems like it's true that there were battles against the demon race, but it looks like, it's something that this country started.

It looks like the reason was something like destroy the demon race who resents the human race or something, but in the end, they were only aiming for the land of the demon race's country.

The relations with the neighboring countries that the human race governs has also become suspicious, and people who have started to run away from this country have begun to appear.

They said that they're also orphans who lost their parents due to war.

The kids were unexpectedly well-informed.

They said that they did multiple jobs to earn money to live, so they had heard a lot of things.

Street children, how strong-willed.

But anyways, I will stay in an inn here for the night, and leave this royal capital tomorrow.

When I asked the kids about it, they said that there's a stagecoach that is operated everyday that goes from the royal capital to the town of Keels which is on the border with the neighboring country, so I'm planning to escape from the royal capital using that.

After that, I will go to the neighboring country, and think again after that Anyways, the first priority is to get away from Leyhesel Kingdom.

I will need capital for that, but I have an idea for that.

Besides, there are also the 20 gold coins that I got from the country.

The reason why they gave me a lot more for a single person, is probably they at least have some feelings of apology for summoning like kidnapping due to their own circumstances.

It is very advantageous for me that this suspicious country gave me this.

For the meantime, I should hold out with this for a while.

I came to the fair and reasonable priced clothing shop that I heard from the kids.

It couldn't be helped for me to stand out wearing the suits I had when I was summoned.

I bought brown shorts and shaded shirts just the same as the people walking on the street.

The clothes were more expensive than I thought and took me 7 silver coins, but the suits, white shirt, and business bag that I had were bought by the store for 3 gold coins, so I now have an extra 2 gold coins and 3 silver coins.

I thought of placing the small things like my smartphone, paper files, and writing utensils that I had in the business bag inside my item box, but it is still unknown how item box is treated in this world, so it would be better to not show it carelessly here.

In novels, there are patterns that item boxes are a valuable skill after all.

Thankfully, the store owner gave me a shoulder bag made of cloth so I placed them inside there.

My shoes, there should be no problem with these leather shoes.

Before I left the clothing shop, I asked about a staying inn that has a reasonable price.

I was told that the third inn ahead from here was recommendable, so I went towards that inn.

The inn the clothing shop's store owner recommended was 4 silver coins per night with a meal.

I returned to my room after dinner, and did what I needed to confirm.

First is...

“Open Status”

〔 Name 〕 Tsuyoshi-Mukouda

〔 Age 〕 27

〔 Job 〕 A person from a different world who got caught

〔 Level 〕 1

〔 Stamina 〕 100

〔 Magic Powers 〕 100

〔 Attack Powers 〕 78

〔 Defense Powers 〕 80

〔 Agility 〕 75

〔 Skill 〕 Identify Item Box

〔 Unique Skill 〕 Net Super

When I chanted “Open Status” just as explained in the castle, a transparent window where my status is written on appeared in front of me.

According to what I was told, only summoned heroes (although that was said, I'm not a hero though) with an identification skill, are able to check their own status anytime.

They said that one would normally check their own status using status checker magic items placed in the guild branches or churches in towns.

Come to think of it, they were boasting like “this status checker magic item was invented by our country's magic item craftsmen” or something.

Well, leaving that aside, they said that the status value of a civilian in this world is more or less 70, so I'm slightly stronger than a civilian.

About the skills Identification and Item Box, the other three also have them so it's probably a privilege for someone who was summoned.

When I was in the castle, they casually said that in the case of a summoned person, the capacity of their item box was a lot, and there was even a legend that a summoned hero from the past had placed more than 1000 monsters inside.

In addition to that, about the language, they also said that a person who was summoned to this world would understand this world's language the moment they are in this world.

I think that this is also some kind of privilege for someone who was summoned.

That is also a cliché for the different world genre.

The number one problem, is that my unique skill is Net Super.

What in the world this is, of course I know.

I, who is a type of person who would want to stay home during his rest days, had used it quite a lot of times.

I don't dislike cooking, so I would order ingredients, and would eat the food I cooked from that while watching dramas I recorded beforehand, or spend time reading whatever web novels there is while drinking beer.

That's my routine during my rest day.

It's just, the problem is, how to use this unique skill Net Super.

"Net Super"

Nothing changed after I chanted huh.

Then, how about touching it?

When I touched the unique skill Net Super's words, the screen changed.

"Isn't this exactly like a Net Super's website"

It's exactly like the site Eon that I use quite often.

For the meantime, I placed a 500ml water worth 8 iron coins, and one sweet bread worth 1 silver coin into the cart.

It looks like the price is reflected from the price in Japan.

When it came to the purchase procedure screen, [Insufficient Balance. Please charge], there was a rectangular frame under that display.

“It means put money to charge right? It it to this rectangular?”

I slowly moved a silver coin near that rectangular frame, and then... the silver coin was absorbed into the frame.

And when I confirmed the order, silver colored particles gathered in front of me, and gradually showed its appearance.

It's the cardboard box that is delivered when ordered.

When I opened the cardboard box, there was the sweet bread and water that I ordered earlier.

“Ohh! This, this is very usable!”

The big shots of this kingdom don't know anything about this Net Super other than it isn't a combat skill, and the three heroes that were summoned with me were laughing, but this is a great skill that is very useful.

As long as I have money, I won't have problems with things to eat, and I might also be able to earn that money using this skill.

It isn't a cheat for something like a hero, but with this skill, I might become rich in this world.

According to the information I got from the kids, it seems like salt is expensive in this country that does not connect to the sea, and only nobles can put in their mouth spices like pepper or sweets.

With this Net Super, I can easily buy salt, pepper, sugar, or whatever in the same price when I was in Japan as long as I want.

But, those salt, pepper, sugar, or whatever, they can be sold for a high price in this world.

If that is so, I will gain a considerable profit.

Besides, if I search carefully, there should also be other merchandise that would make a profit.

After all, Net Super in this age handles not only food ingredients, but also a very wide variety, from daily necessities to clothes.

Thinking of that, it makes me want to register to the merchant's guild, but it would be bad registering in this country.

In the case where something happens and they found out about my skill or how I can earn money from it, there's the possibility of interference would come from this country.

If I'm going to register, it should be when I entered the neighboring country.

Anyways, tomorrow.

I will get away from this town quickly, and then, to the neighboring country.

It would be a journey starting tomorrow, and I would not be able to sleep in bed for a while.

I fell asleep for tomorrow.

Chapter 3

Escaping From The Royal Capital On An Omnibus

I left the inn after eating breakfast.

And went to the stagecoach's terminal then confirmed the fare to go and the departure time.

The price 1 gold coin, and it looks like it would take 4 days to a town along the border.

There's still time until the time for departure, so I decided to get food for 4 days and a weapon in case of anything happening.

It would be bad of course if I used Net Super in front of another person, and in the case that the item box is a rare skill, there would be a possibility that there would be a commotion, so it would be better not to use it.

I bought a leather water bag, dried meat, black bread, and a slightly large knife.

The preparations are done with this.

The only thing left is to ride on the stagecoach and leave this royal capital.

The stagecoach's customers, other than me, there was a middle-aged peddler, a family of four that is a young couple and their two kids, and a woman who was about in her middle thirties.

Then, there are 4 adventurers as the guard of the stagecoach.

After a while after the stagecoach had departed, I tried to talk to the middle-aged man that was sitting beside me.

“Are you selling something to Keels?”

I started first with a casual talk.

“Yeah, I had purchased soap from a certain connection. I am thinking of selling it to the merchant company of my friend in Keels”

Ohh, soap huh. It exists in this world too.

And, listening to him carefully, soap does really exist, but as I’ve thought, they’re for nobles.

When sold to nobles, he said that one soap would be for 3 silver coins.

When I casually mentioned about the item box, I found out that nobles and large merchant companies are hiring people who have those skills.

It is told that there is at least 1 item box possessor in ever 1000 people, and it seems like its size depends on the magic powers, and only those who have decently sized item box would be hired by nobles and large merchant companies.

“Even though it’s said to be small, it would still have three times the capacity of the backpack that I have right now, so looking from my perspective, just having an item box makes me jealous enough”

The middle-aged peddler said that and laughed.

I see, there are quite a lot of possessors of item box skill huh.

If I would act that although I have an item box, it’s capacity is low, there might be no problem using it.

“If you’re going to be a merchant, having an identification skill would spell success right”

Since I was able to hear about the item box, I mentioned about identification very casually.

“Ah~, that is something every merchant would dream of. But, however, the only ones who have identification skills are the heroes summoned from another world mentioned in fairy tales. Although, I think that identification skill should be a skill a merchant should have, rather than a hero. Identification skill, it’s the dream of everyone doing business. Even if identification skill doesn't exist, I would hope that identification magic items spread more. That's also something that is rarely found in ancient ruins after all, it's so expensive that your eyes would pop out, so only countries or guilds would have them"

Ohh, thank goodness. Identification skill is something that a hero would only have huh.

And also, there's also something like an identification magic item huh.

But, this one seems to be very expensive and not something to be owned individually.

Ancient ruins, in short, it's something that rarely appears from a dungeon with high difficulty, and their numbers are little too.

It's good that I've asked.

With this, I found out that the risk that I would get identified is almost gone.

And while talking like that about many things, I found out that the middle-aged peddler is planning to go to the neighboring country.

The middle-aged man whispered to me while telling me it is a secret.

"This country is starting to get suspicious after all. If you have a family, it won't go that easy, but fortunately, I'm single so I think of leaving this country quickly. After all, according to rumors, it is said that the borders might also be blocked soon"

Blocking the borders? This country is seriously bad.

Thank goodness I moved and abandoned it quickly.

Along the way to Keels, goblins and wolf monsters appeared, but (as I've thought, there were really darn monsters in this fantasy world of sword and magic) the adventurer guards subjugated them without difficulty, and the stagecoach had advanced smoothly.

After arriving in Keels, I went towards the stagecoach's terminal that goes to the neighboring country that I heard from the middle-aged peddler.

“No way...”

In the terminal, a sign saying [Operation of Stagecoaches Currently Suspended].

What the heck does “currently suspended” mean?

The middle-aged peddler was saying that the borders might be shut soon, so is this that?

But, if the borders were being blocked or something, the town should also be not this calm right?

For the meantime, I should gather information.

To also fill my stomach, I went to a restaurant where many adventurers who seem to be going in and out many countries gathers.

I sat on the counter’s seat, and called out to a pair of adventurers sitting right next to me.

“Excuse me?”

“Yeah, you need something?”

“Actually, I just arrived in this town, so I thought of asking a lot of things...”

I immediately called a waiter and ordered two ales.

And with that, the adventurer was like “Now we’re talking”, and told me about many things.

“I see. The suspension of the stagecoach is to prevent the population flowing outside the country”

“Yeah. If the population decreases, the number of soldiers and taxes will decrease too after all. It’s only about that right now, but soon, the borders might also be shut. This country, even though they’re warring against the demon race, they’re planning on even going to war against Malbare Kingdom”

“Yeah yeah, it’s only a matter of time until it becomes war”

The two adventurers, with the aid of alcohol, they told me a lot of things.

The country of the demon race is faced north of this country, and the Malbare Kingdom is a country faced on the west side of this country.

The one I'm going to, is the Feenen Kingdom facing in the southeast.

"We're also planning to say goodbye to this country too"

"For us, rather than joining a way, hunting monsters suits us better bro. You should also hurry up and leave this country"

I really want to leave this country quickly, but on roads where monsters also appear, I who is only a slightly stronger than a civilian has nothing that can do about it.

"I'm troubled", I thought, but looking at the adventurers, I suddenly thought.

That, shouldn't I just make a request in the adventurer's guild.

It would cost me money, but being cheap here would be for nothing.

Before the borders are blocked, the first thing to do is to get out of this country in any ways.

I decided to make an escort request up to the neighboring country to the adventurer's guild.

Chapter 4

Requesting Escort From Adventurers

The next day--

Well then, let's go to the adventurer's guild to make a request.

The adventurer's guild was a structure facing the main street and I found it easily, but the adventurers were going in and air in this early hours.

With a cliché development, I was stared at by the adventurers, but I acted as if I didn't know about it.

I'm a client you know.

If they knew that I'm a client with the interaction at the counter, they shouldn't pick on me. Probably.

After lining up for a while, it's finally my turn.

"Excuse me, I would like to have a request"

"A request. What kind of request would it be?"

"An escort request to the Feenen Kingdom. Also, I do not have a carriage, and it will be by foot, so... This is the first time that I would give a request to the adventurer's guild, in these kinds of requests, how much would be the rewards?"

"A request for escort mission by foot is it? For escort missions, the request would be for adventurers more than C-Rank, in addition to that, it would be by foot, and it would take more days, so at least 7 gold coins would be needed"

When I was thinking that 7 gold coins would be a great pain to what I have, the receptionist added this.

"Only that, as you know, the stagecoach has been currently suspended, so this kind of escort mission is increasing. Looking at that, I think that it would be better if you have 8 gold coins”

If this kind of requests increased, as an adventurer, they would choose the ones that have higher rewards.

8 gold coins huh, u~n.

It's a painful amount, but I don't really have many choices.

“I understood. I will request with 8 gold coins. Also, can I ask to add there that the food will be on my part”

From how the receptionist spoke, it looked difficult even with 8 gold coins, so I added free meals.

I don't dislike cooking, and with that skill that I have, it seems possible if I choose cheaper ingredients.

“Well then, please take care of it”

I entrusted the 8 gold coins of remuneration, and left the adventurer's guild.

The next day, there was a message from the adventurer's guild and when I got there, surprisingly, there were adventurers who were planning to receive my request.

It is unexpected to find someone this fast, but for me who wants to leave this country quickly, it is very appreciating.

The ones who were introduced by the adventurer's guild is a C-Rank adventurer party called [Iron Will].

“I am Iron Will's leader, Werner. Nice to meet you”

“My name is Mukouda. Please take care of me”

It seems like only the nobles have surnames, so to not receive weird inquiries, I did not say my whole name, but instead, only my surname, and I even named myself just like a foreigner.

Werner-san is around 30 years old and 190cm tall with a bulky body, and carries a shield on his back and a sword dangling on his waist.

Together with the numerous scars left in his thick arms, he really seemed like a seasoned adventurer.

The members introduced by Werner-san were, Vincent who was wearing a leather armor and have a long sword dangling on his waist, a young woman named Rita who was wearing a chest armor and had short swords in her waist seemingly to be a scout, a cool middle-aged man with white hairs who is wearing a robe that seems to be a magician named Ramon-san, and a woman aged around 20 years old named Franca-san who is wearing white clerical clothes that is probably a healer (By the way, she has super huge breasts).

It seems like it's a very balanced party.

Since even for the adventurer's guild, they would not like to introduce people who are impossible to succeed the quest, so I asked them that it is alright with this.

I talked to Werner-san, and decided that the departure is tomorrow, and to gather in front of the adventurer's guild 7 in the morning.

If that's decided, the food's on me, so I need to prepare a lot.

Along the way of going back to my inn, I bought a lot of things that are going to be needed for traveling.

First is a cloak.

This can be used for keeping out the cold, and is very needed since you can sleep just by curling yourself with this.

Also, I bought tableware from the general merchandise store.

At that time, I looked at a lot of things, and found a great thing.

Something called as Magical Cooking Stove.

As its name says, it's a cooking stove that creates fire when magic powers are input.

There was one unit type and two-unit type, but either of them is expensive.

But, I suddenly thought right there. That, "shouldn't I just buy a portable stove using Net Super?".

Its appearance is very similar to the portable stove, and if I tell the adventurers that it's a magical cooking stove, they might be able to tell.

Yosh, let's do that. It's also cheaper buying the portable stove from the Net Super after all.

If that is so, the only things remaining can be purchased from the Net Super, so I returned to the inn in a hurry.

After I had returned to the inn, I purchased a lot of things from the Net Super.

Portable stove and butane gas canisters, saucepan and frying pan, knives, cutting board, and the most important food ingredients.

The ingredients are for the 5 adventurers and me that is for 6 so I bought a lot.

Cheese, ham, sausage, eggs, to vegetables such as potatoes, carrots, onions. Also, I bought side dishes that can be prepared immediately. After that, I bought various kinds of seasonings such as salt and broth cubes.

With this and that, I even used 2 gold coins.

The remaining money I have is 8 gold coins, 5 silver coins, and some copper and iron coins.

My wallet is getting more and more difficult, but this endurance is only until I reached the Feenen Kingdom.

After I arrived at the Feenen Kingdom, I will register at the merchant's guild and sell a whole lot.

And after I get money, while looking at the present circumstances, I will move again.

If it is for a safe and secure living, I will do my best.

Chapter 5

Departure To A Neighboring Country With The Adventurers

When I came in front of the adventurer's guild at the time we're supposed to meet, the Iron Will's members were already gathered.

"Sorry for being late"

"No, we just came too early so don't worry about it"

The leader, Werner-san said that while smiling.

According to him, it looks like they had habits of moving faster, earlier.

It's a great attitude.

"Well, shall we go"

I nodded, and departed on the journey to the Feenen Kingdom.

After departing from the town of Keels, our journey advanced very smoothly.

There were no gaps in the Iron Will's line up.

With me in the middle, the scout Lita was in the lead, swordsman Vincent on my right side, magician Ramon-san on my left side, healer Franca is on the right side of me, and Werner-san to the left behind me

According to them, it is the arrangement for protecting the client, me, when an emergency comes.

"Let's take a break"

With that call of Werner-san, we had a lunch break.

And as promised, I started to prepare food.

Well, although I said that, I can't take too much time, so simple ones.

First, I took out the portable stove I purchased at Net Super from my item box.

"A-re? Mukouda-san has an item box huh. And a magical cooking stove too, you have something good huh"

While nodding to Vincent's question, I replied "the capacity is only small though".

Since I was asked if I have the item box skill, I answered with the setting that "I have the skill, but its capacity is small".

It's because I judged that, it would make it more convenient to carry my baggage that increased with that, and it would be better than hiding it weirdly.

"I asked a friend for this magical cooking stove. It's because he said that he's not going to use it anymore, I was able to get it cheaply"

I casually spoke the reason that I thought for the portable stove beforehand.

It's what they say, circumstances may justify a lie.

While chatting with Vincent, I prepared the bread loaf, cheese, and ham that I bought from the Net Super, and made a simple sandwich.

And I also placed an instant consommé soup broth cubes inside a wooden cup, of course, I made it secretly without being seen.

I poured hot water that I boiled using the portable stove on the cup, and the lunch is ready then.

"Everyone, I have prepared food"

I passed the wooden plates with the sandwich and soup in a cup placed on it to the adventurers.

“Well, let us eat then”

With Werner-san’s call, everyone started to eat.

“S-So delicious!”

“This bread, it’s so soft and delicious”

“Un, un, this bread is so soft and tasty. And also, this soup tastes great”

“This is good”

“Delicious...”

From the ascending order, Vincent, Franca, Rita, Werner-san, Ramon-san.

Thank goodness. But, I really cut corners though.

They were especially surprised by the bread.

They said that only nobles could eat such soft bread.

If I’m correct, the bread that I ate when I came here was a hard brown or black bread.

As if to make an excuse, I said things like “this is bread that is made using the way we had in my hometown, before I left my hometown, I bought many of it and put it in my item box”.

Everyone seems to be very grateful for that rare thing, so I added “it’s food so it would be a waste putting it on the side and not eating it”.

After all, I can always replenish my stock of loaf bread from the Net Super.

“Even so, to think that you would treat us such a warm meal in the journey, it’s very appreciative”

Everyone nodded to Werner-san’s word.

“That’s very true. It was correct taking this request”

According to them, food during the travels, most of it would be things like dried meat or hard bread that doesn't taste very well, and the food that I served could be treated as a great meal while traveling.

It seems like it's the same everywhere that the atmosphere would improve with delicious food, so our conversations lively.

It looks like the Iron Will also felt the unrest in this country, and was talking within themselves about going to another country.

And there, they found my request, so thinking that it was just right in time, they accepted it.

They said that actually, there were also escort mission requests that have higher rewards, but they were currently not troubled with money, and thought that if the food during the journey were guaranteed, it would be better, so they decided to accept my request.

It looks like food costs for 5 members isn't trifle.

"In my part, I am also very grateful that you have accepted my request. I also thought of leaving this country quickly, and I panicked once, and wondered what to do when I found out that the stagecoach was suspended when I arrived at Keels, but thanks to everyone, I am able to head towards the Feenen Kingdom just like this. Though I look like this, I am good at cooking, so please leave the rest of your meals to me"

After I said that, everyone was on smiles.

Things to look forward to journeys like this is mostly meals after all.

I'm going to do my utmost best, so please make me arrive at the Feenen Kingdom safely okay.

Chapter 6

My Ridiculous Skill Demonstrated Ridiculous Powers (1)

The third day since we departed from the town of Keels.

Actually, if we have used a stagecoach, we should've already entered the Feenen Kingdom.

And a half day more, we might've reached the Feenen Kingdom's border town Faliel.

However, we are moving by foot. We have just finally finished half of the journey.

We are taking a lot of time because we're moving by foot, but there were no special happenings during the journey.

The Iron Will were quite excellent, they would immediately defeat the goblins and monster wolves that came out.

As expected of a C-Rank, they said that this level of monsters couldn't even be used to test their strength.

"The sun will set soon. We'll stop here for today"

With Werner-san's words, each of us started our preparations to camp.

I'm also preparing dinner.

The menu's a little different.

Food that is too strange or had been prepared very well would be bad when it comes to this world's standard, so I will try to make it as simple as possible.

I think that it would be fried sausage, pot-au-feu, and bread for today.

Everyone here likes meat so they should have no complaints.

First, I put the sliced bacon on the heated pan, then put the vegetables and the sausage. After slightly stir-frying that, I put water. When it starts to boil, I put a consommé soup cubes into it, and make it boil on a low fire.

“Un, it tastes good”

I tried tasting it, and because of the saltiness of the bacon and sausage, it tastes good enough doesn't have a need to adjust the taste.

After that, I'd lightly fry sausages, and then.

“The dinner's here”

I passed them the wooden plate with bread and fried sausage on top of it, and a wooden bowl with pot-au-feu.

“Ah~, so delicious. Mukouda-san's cooking is delicious as usual”

Vincent said that while wolfing down on the food.

To those words, “Un, Un”, Rita nodded.

“It's really good right. Is it because of the good food, I feel that my moves are sharper than usual after all”

“I also felt that my strength increased compared to usual after I started to eat Mukouda-san's meals”

Franca responded like that to Rita's words.

“Eating is the most important thing to a person. And if food that you eat tastes better, people would feel different”

Ramon-san who was usually quiet said that profoundly.

Un, you mean you really like my cooking right, Ramon-san. Thanks, bro.

“That's true. People can't live without eating. And it's natural that eating good food rather than bad food is better. It means that being able to eat this good food on this journey, we are very lucky and happy”

Werner-san said that at the end.

Somehow, being praised this much, it’s a little embarrassing.

It means that it’s a victory for Japan’s food industry.

But, I wonder what it was that Rita and Franca saying? Something like their body movements is sharper or have more strength than usual.

I didn’t make such extraordinary things though...

It looks like it isn’t a bad effect, but, I somehow feel curious about it.

I should use identification just a little bit.

[Name] Rita

“Hey! What is it so suddenly?”

“Goho!, Goho! Goho!, N-No, the soup just got stuck in my throat a little, I’m fine, Goho, Godo! ...”

W-What the heck is this, +27 and +3.

I couldn’t help but blow off yo.

Is it from the food that I made?

Is it this? Is it really this?

I identified the pot-au-feu in my hand.

[Pot-au-feu]

Pot-au-feu made with different world's ingredients. Increases stamina by about 20% for 1 hour.

My god.....

My foods are entirely the cause.

Wait, wait, if the pot-au-feu is the reason for increased stamina, which one's the magic powers? Is it the sausage? Is it the bread?

[Sausage]

Different world's sausage. Increases the magic powers by about 2% for 10 minutes.

[Bread loaf]

Different world's bread loaf. Increases magic powers by about 1% for 10 minutes.

Un, the sausage and the bread loaf was the cause

This, thinking of it carefully, isn't it very bad.

Something like increased stamina or magic powers just by eating.

If someone finds out about this.....

UOO! I felt cold shivers.

If this were found out, it would be, absolutely, very, very, very bad.

Fortunately only summoned heroes would have identification skills, and identification magic items are on the level that countries or guilds would have them.

Besides that, people needs to use status identification magic items to confirm their own status, so there is no way that it could be found out.

If I shut my mouth, no one will know about this absolutely.

I zipped my lips.

I will never mention a word about this!

Chapter 7

My Ridiculous Skill Demonstrated Ridiculous Powers (2)

The fifth day since we departed from the town of Keels.

“Let’s make our camp here for today”

The sun has started to set, and as usual, the preparation for camping started with Werner-san’s call.

“Well then, I will use the red boar’s meat without reserve okay”

“Ou, we’ll look forward to it”

Red Boar is the huge boar monster that has the traits of having a red hair that the members of Iron Will defeated today along the way.

Goblins and wolf monsters (they said it was called Grey Wolf) does not have parts that can be exchanged for money so they were left behind, but they said that the Red Boar’s meat, leather, and fangs could be sold at a good price.

As expected of adventurers, their dismantling was also amazing.

The problem was that such a huge game could not be carried, they said.

Hearing about the cheaper parts of meat getting thrown away from them, I volunteered to take it, telling them that my item box still has free space.

And because of that, they also let me use the meat for our meals.

At first, I thought of using it to make a steak, but I dismissed it because it would take time, so today’s menu is “that”.

It is ginger-fried pork that is also one of my favorites.

First, I marinate the thin sliced Red Boar meat on the ginger-fried pork sauce that I bought from Net Super.

And while the meat is being marinated, I shred the cabbage.

It is finished by frying the marinated meat.

I quickly made the soup using the usual instant consommé cubes.

“Dinner is ready. I flavored the Red Boar meat with the taste in my hometown. It would be great if everyone likes it”

I distributed the Red Boar’s ginger-fried pork, a wooden dish with cabbages on it, and consommé soup.

“Ohh, what good appetizing smell” (Werner-san)

“What’s this, so delicious!!” (Vincent)

“So good! I’d never eaten such delicious food!” (Rita)

“I, I didn’t like Red Boar meat, but this, I can eat it deliciously” (Franca)

“It’s the first time that I ate cabbet uncooked, but it’s so delicious when eaten together with meat huh” (Ramon-san)

Ohh, it’s raining praises.

I just fried the ginger-fried pork with the sauce of a certain company though.

It’s all thanks to a certain company.

And also, cabbage is called cabbet in this world huh.

When I was eating while thinking myself that ginger-fried pork while taking everyone’s praises, a voice suddenly called out to me.

[Human, let me eat that as well]

The owner of the voice was a godly looking wolf with a miraculously beautiful fur that it was presumptuous to compare it to the wolf monsters that I have met until now.

The adventurers got petrified and wouldn't move an inch.

[Oi, human, can you not hear me?]

I nervously reached out the wooden dish with my half-eaten ginger-fried pork.

And then, the wolf that was the size of a cow thrust its face to the wooden place and ate all of it with one bite.

[It's tasty but not enough. Another]

"I-It's a Fenrir..."

Werner-san muttered with cold sweat.

Is it a monster that even adventurers with enough experience like Iron Will would be immobilized?

W-What should I do? Feenen is just so near too.

"M-Mukouda-san, please do what it says"

Werner-san says that, but there's no ginger-fried pork left.

It looks like a monster that could understand human language, so just like Werner-san says, it would be less dangerous if I make some food for the monster.

"U-Uhm, it is not like I can't make it, s-so, can you wait for a while?"

[Umu. I shall wait so hurry up and make it]

I made Red Boar's ginger-fried pork and gave it to that Fenrir or something.

The Fenrir gobbles up the ginger-fried pork that I made.

More, more, the Fenrir said, and in the end, I used 7-8 kilos of Red Boar meat to make ginger-fried pork.

[Burp. It was tasty. Even so, you, to be able to make me satisfied with such a small amount of meat, it looks like you're quite good]

Small amount, you say, you ate 7-8 kilos though.

How much do you normally eat then.

[Umu, I allow you to make a contract with me]

.....ha?

Contract, wut?

[Oi, are you listening? I am saying that will make a familiar's contract with you]

Familiar, you say, I remember that from reading some web novels that did something like that, is it taming or something?

No, no, no, no, no, no.

It's a monster that can speak the human language you know?

It's a monster that could make the Iron Will members petrified you know?

That monster, a familiar, isn't that... terrible.

“Uhhh, e~to, I will re [nn?]”

“No, I am saying, I will ref [Ahn?]”

“.....”

This bastard, is he not letting me refuse.

[This I do not think but, you, are you planning on refusing to make a familiar's contract with me, a Fenrir, a member of the household of Wind Goddess Ninril-sama? I do not believe that you shall do such outrageous thing but, what do you think? nn?]

When the monster that can use the human language Fenrir(?) said that, the members of Iron Will sent looks that seemed to say “Whatever, just hurry up and accept damnit”.

Do I really need to accept this?

Really, if things goes like this, the only choice I have is “Yes”.

When I reluctantly said “I understood” , the Fenrir got satisfied, [Umu]it nodded.

[Come here]

Being urged by the Fenrir, I went close to it.

[Get closer. Come in front of me]

I approached the Fenrir just like it said.

[Well then, let us start the contract ceremony]

After it said that, the Fenrir stuck its forehead with mine.

When my forehead touched the Fenrir's, my body shined for an instant.

[With this, the contract is completed. n? You, you have Identification skill huh. Are you a summoned hero?]

O-Oiiii-----!!

I couldn't help but cover Fenrir's mouth.

[MogoMogoMogo, O-Oi, what are you doing!]

I whispered, "K-Keep that a secret".

[Ohh, was that so. Yes, I understood. Well then, check your status]

It looks like the Fenrir understood and started to speak with a small voice that only I could hear.

Being urged by the Fenrir, I checked my status.

"Status Open"

[Unique Skill] Net Super

For some reason, my skills increased.

There's Familiar, and below that, there's Contracted Magic Beast Fenrir.

[Umu, it looks like it is alright]

“Eh? You can see it?”

[Who do you think I am? I am the household member of the Wind Goddess, naturally, I have the Identify skill]

Oh really. I mean, what happens if I make a contract though?

[Yosh, with this, I have become your Contracted Magic Beast. And if so, as my master, you shall take care of your Contracted Magic Beast which is me. You get that?]

“You get that?” you say, eh? Is that true?

Take care you say, taking care of the Contracted Magic Beast(Pet)?

[Well then, I shall expect three meals a day]

.....oi.

The meals you say, you! Don't tell me you made a contract because you got lured with food?

Is that so?!

[Oi, you there, I have made a familiar's contract with this guy. Stop trembling like that, I shall not attack you]

Being called out by the Fenrir's voice, the members of the Iron Will flinched.

"Uhhh, everyone, this Fenrir(?) can understand human language, and it seems to be okay, so..."

[Ohh, I have forgotten. I have made a contract with you, you, give me a name]

"Eh~, even if you tell me that so suddenly. n~, then, how about Pochi?"

[You, are you making a fool of me?]

When I said Pochi, it got a little pissed off.

I mean, I understood that it looks like this guy got lured with food so I started to feel stupid for being scared.

"Hey, don't get pissed off okay. How about Koro?"

When I said that, the Fenrir got more and more pissed off.

What the heck, this guy's quite spoiled huh.

"Then, since you're a Fenrir, how about Fer?"

[Umu, Fer huh, sounds good. I shall use that]

Why is he so bossy.

And just like that, the Fenrir's name was decided to be Fer.

And while we were like that, the members of Iron Will finally started to move.

And within them, Werner-san who was the first to recover nervously called out to me.

"M-Mukouda-san..."

"Ah, Werner-san are you alright?"

"Y-Yeah, I'm fine, but... T-To think that I would see the legendary magical beast Fenrir with my eyes..."

Eh? Legendary you say, this guy who got lured with food?

“There is a legend that it was seen for about 300 years ago, but something like making a familiar’s contract with “that” Fenrir, I have never heard about that”

Ehhhhhhhh!!

[Well, there are only a few of us Fenrirs after all. From what I have heard, there seems to be a Fenrir that taken a familiar’s contract 700 years ago. I have also lived for about 1000 years, but this is the first time that I have been contracted]

H-He~, you have lived 1000 years huh.

[I can eat such a delicious thing. I shall not have losses serving a human for just several tens of years]

Ahhhhhhh~, this guy really said it.

He affirmed that he did it just for food.

This guy, he’s called a legendary magical beast, but is he really okay?

Chapter 8

Please Earn Your Own Keep Yourself

As the result of some happenings, the Fenrir Fer became a member of the journey, and we have almost arrived at the Feenen Kingdom.

With me in the middle, Rita in the vanguard, Vincent to my right, Ramon-san to my left, Franca to the right behind me, and Werner-san to the left behind me, it is our usual formation with Fer on the rear walking leisurely.

Werner-san let out a sigh with a thinking face.

“What happened? Werner-san”

“No, it’s just, we’re almost at the country border, so I was just thinking what should we do” n? What does he mean?

“No, no, no, Mukouda-san, this is something that I absolutely cannot stop”

Vincent took a glance at the back and said that.

Ah~, there’s Fer after all.

“The border guard soldiers would probably come with full force. However, if they found out that it means no harm, I think that they would withdraw, but...”

“Werner, before thinking if the kingdom’s army would withdraw or not, think whether they would be the Fenrir’s opponent even if they pull out what army they could can”

“Well, it is as Ramon says”

“Eh, is that fairytale where a Fenrir destroyed a country really true?”

“Rita, that is being told as a history not as a fairytale”

E~to, is my ears gotten weird?

Destroying a country or something, it's a joke right?

“Even if you are allowed to enter the country when it is recognized as a familiar, the next thing will come out would probably the country, and that's for sure”

Werner-san said while looking at me.

Eh, me? What is it this time?

“There is no way that the kingdom would let Mukouda-san who have bound a familiar's contract with a Fenrir alone. After all, if they were able to invite Mukouda-san, the Fenrir would come for free”

Eh, R-Ramon-san, is that true?

Kingdoms or countries or whatever, that really sounds troublesome.

[There is no need to worry. If they meant harm to me or to this guy, I shall accept their challenge]

“No, no, no, t-that would be very bad. If Fenrir-sama [It's Fer]... if F-Fer-sama became serious, the kingdom would fall”

[If they challenge me, they should just be destroyed]

No, no, no, F-Fer-san my dear, aren't you too bloodthirsty?

[If they do not wish for that, all that they need is to not meddle with us. Is not that simple]

The members of the Iron Will could only drop their jaws with Fer's words.

[Rather than that, is it not already time for eating?]

It because lunch break with that call of Fer.

Ah~, this is bad.

The Red Boar meat that the members of the Iron Will are in a pinch.

Even if they told me that I could use all that I want, there's a limit.

I have used a lot of Red Boar meat with yesterday's ginger-fried pork, and in the breakfast's yakiniku because Fer would insist "meat, meat, meat" so much.

[Oi, I wish for meat]

"Ahh, it's meat for lunch too as I've thought. The Red Boar's meat isn't mine, so go get (hunt) your meat if you want some"

[Mu, is that so. I shall hurry up and get them so you wait there]

Saying that, Fer ran to the forest on the side of the road.

"M-Mukouda-san, you can use the Red Boar's meat okay"

"No, no, no, I cannot do that. It is a game that everyone has hunted, there is no way that I could use that as Fer's food. Also, it is not good spoiling him like that. If he's going to follow me from now on, I need to make him go get his own keep himself. I cannot hunt, and there is no way that I can buy tons of meat every time as well. If I did that, I would be bankrupt. Hahaha"

If he's a legendary magical beast, he should be able to at least get his own prey right.

"Mukouda-san was an amazing person huh..." (Werner-san)

"Amazing, you're amazing! Mukouda-san!" (Rita)

"That's so cool, Mukouda-san. I really respect you, giving orders to that Fenrir" (Vincent)

"Ordering a Fenrir that could destroy a country, what a hero" (Franca)

"You were a person who could command "that" Fenrir, huh" (Ramon-san)

Eh~, even if you tell me that~.

Fenrir might be a legendary magical beast that is amazing, but that guy Fer, he's someone who took a familiar's contract because he got lured by food.

Something like getting lured by food, honestly, I could only think of it as idiotic.

Although, it's scary so I won't say it that in person.

And while we were talking like that, Fer returned with a gigantic bird with him.

"I-It's a Rock Bird..."

The members of Iron Will looked at the bird Fer was holding with his mouth with soulless expression.

"Rock Bird, that's the bird that Fer caught right?"

"Yeah, it's a B-Rank monster. It's something that we are barely able to win"

Oi, you caught something like that?

[I got it. Hurry up and make me some food]

No, well, even if you ask me to make food by leaving a huge bird in front of me.

I, I can't dismantle it you know. I can only ask them to do it.

"Fer, I can't dismantle this you know. I can only ask these people, so in exchange, can I give them the materials other than its meat?"

[I have no problem as long as I could eat meat]

"So, it's like that, can I ask you to dismantle it"

When I said that, the members of the Iron Will, quickly shook their heads like "no, no, no".

"Dismantling the Rock Bird and taking all the materials other than the meat, we're taking too much!"

Even if you tell me that, I hate to use my own money just for this guy's meal.

“No, no, the Red Boar’s meat has also decreased a lot since Fer has eaten it, and you also heard what Fer said so please take it”

The members of the Iron Will were saying “we’re taking too much” until the end, but I somehow succeeded to convince them.

After all, it’s free since it was Fer who originally hunted it.

And it seems like there would be troubles entering the country, so I should make them grateful to me here and ask for help later on.

And so, with that, the Rock Bird was beautifully dismantled by the members of the Iron Will.

And, since it’s a bird, I bought teriyaki sauce from the Net Super and made teriyaki with Rock Bird.

First, I fried the Rock Bird until it was perfectly browned.

With that, there was extra oil so it might be better to use kitchen paper to wipe it off, but in addition to this place being a different world, we are outside so I can’t do something like that, so I tilted the frying pan and threw away the extra oil.

And there, I put in the teriyaki sauce.

Once the sauce boils, I placed it on the Rock Bird meat to cover it, and there, the Rock Bird Teriyaki is now complete.

The soup this time, I made a freeze dried onion soup.

This one has a lot more contents after all. Making instant consommé soup every time is unappetizing after all.

I distributed the completed food to the members of Iron Will first.

[Oi, where’s mine?]

“Fer would eat a lot so I made everyone’s first. I’ll make yours so just wait a bit”

[Mu, I got it]

And after that, I cooked a lot of teriyaki for Fer.

It looks like Fer really liked the Rock Bird's teriyaki so other than our share, all of it fell to Fer's stomach.

The Rock Bird teriyaki was delicious and I really liked it as well, but I'd like to eat some comfortable taste next time.

Chapter 9

Entry To The Country, The Feenen Kingdom

We have come immediately close to the Feenen Kingdom.

The border fortress could be seen from here.

Although there were guards swarming out of the fortress.

Haa~, it becomes like that after all huh.

I looked at Fer following casually following from behind and let out a sigh.

“It looks like there’s a lot of soldiers-san coming out...”

“Fer-sama is with us after all. I will go first to explain the situation”

Saying that, Werner-san ran towards the fortress.

Sorry for making inconveniences.

Werner-san and the guards had lined up cleanly in the fortress.

“I am called Edgar Vorgodo, Captain of the fourth order of knights of Feenen Kingdom. I have heard the situation from Werner-dono here. According to him, that Fenrir is bound by a familiar’s contract with you but, is it true?”

The captain-san that seems to have the highest rank within the guards (he has a surname so he might be a noble) asked that with an obvious nervous air around him.

This, it’s because Fer’s here right~.

The respected guards also haven’t taken their hands off their weapons to be able to react anytime as well.

How can I say this, although he's like that, he's still a legendary monster huh.

"Yes, this Fenrir and I are bound by a familiar's contract"

When I said that, voices like "Ohh!" were raised among the guards.

"I see. However, it is the legendary magic beast Fenrir that is said, had once destroyed a country. Do you really not have the will to harm this country or its citizen?"

As a person who's in charge of guarding the border, it is a very natural worry.

"Oi, Fer. These people here are anxious about the very strong Fer who is called a legendary magic beast. I'll be troubled if you go rampant inside the country after all. Fer wouldn't do something like that right?"

[Nu, do not treat me the same with those stupid monsters. As long as there would be no harm against you, my master, I shall never act from my side]

"Heard him? Captain-sama"

Looking at my conversation with Fer, the captain was dumbfounded.

"You really made a familiar out of a legendary beast huh... I cannot believe it even seeing it with my eyes....."

That's exactly right you know, Captain-san.

Before knowing anything, I was bound by a familiar's contract you know.

"Seeing your interaction right now, it would seem that it is true that you are bound by the familiar's contract. If so, I shall allow you to enter the country. However, I ask of you to please take the reins of your familiar, Fenrir properly"

"Yes, I understood. Oi, Fer, please behave okay"

[I understand. Just like I have said before, as long as they do not put harm against us, I shall not act from my side]

"I really, really, really beg of you, okay. It will be my fault if anything happens after all"

[You are too insistent]

“No, I really need to make sure. Ah, it’s possible that in the case where you make troubles for everyone, I’ll make you skip your meals”

[Ku...!]

Since we’re somehow allowed to enter the country, I need to make sure that he doesn’t do something weird.

It will be my crime if anything happens after all.

“I see. To think that you can tame that Fenrir to this extent, it would seem that the situation that I am worried about would not happen”

Captain-san said seemingly a little relieved.

“Captain-san, I believe that something like that won’t happen. We were around when Mukouda-san made a familiar’s contract with Fer-sama, and coming up to this place, Fer-sama does not go on a rampage without reason”

“It’s exactly as Leader says. After all, Mukouda-san is able to command Fer-sama to go and get some prey. I was very surprised by that”

Rita, I was also surprised you know.

My intention when I said to him to get his own prey was to make him earn his own share of food.

It’s not like I asked him to get it for me, so please do not make a mistake on that.

“Hou, it means that he controls it very well”

Hey wait, Captain-san, what’s that “Hou” you’re saying?

Placing a hand on your chin, you look like you’re planning something strange though?

Please stop it, I don’t want troubles.

And with this and that, we got the permission to enter the country somehow and entered the Feenen Kingdom.

By the way, because of not having a guild card, I was asked to pay 5 silver coins for entry tax.

Also, it seems like entry tax is also asked for familiars so I paid 2 silver coins for Fer's part.

To think that I also need to pay for Fer, that unexpectedly affects my wallet.

I should hurry up and join the merchant's guild.

Entering the Feenen Kingdom we are walking towards our destination, the border town of Fariel.

"Thank goodness we were able to enter the country without problems. This is all thanks to everyone"

In the first place, it's impossible to go on a journey alone in this world where monsters appear so I'm very thankful to the everyone in the Iron Will.

On top of that, about Fer, it is all thanks to everyone's support that we were somehow able to enter the country.

"No, no, you also let us experience great things as well. We were able to see the real legendary magic beast Fenrir, and we were able to talk to him as well"

"It's exactly as Leader says. I'm going to brag this to everyone."

"I'm going to brag about this just like Vincent~. Saying something like, "I met with the Fenrir in the fairytales you know""

"Fufufu, Rita is such a kid after all. But, it's true that this is something to brag about"

"Seeing a Fenrir while I'm still alive... this is what's great about being an adventurer"

Fer's existence was shocking to everyone after all huh~.

“However, Mukouda-san might become busy from now on”

Werner-san, what do you mean by going to get busy?

“Having a Fenrir and its owner enter this country means that a message would be sent to the Margrave Rindel that governs the land around here, and also to the king”

Ge! It would be like that after all.

“On top of that, that captain, seen Mukouda-san and Fer-sama’s relationship, he seemed as if he was thinking of how to make you tied to this country”

Captain-!! You really weren’t thinking of anything good.

“Even if you tell me that, I do not have plans on staying in this country, so at that time, my only choice is to discuss it with Fer”

“Hahaha, that’s true. You will not be treated roughly if Fer-sama’s around after all”

It’s all relying on Fer, but I cannot do anything about that.

Ever since coming to this different world, even I would want to see many things around the world.

Through the journey this time, I started to think that because I have the Net Super, traveling around this world while earning a profit might be also good.

Traveling in a fantasy world, it is what a man’s dream is.

“Since you’re saying that you do not have plans to stay in this country, are you going to go on a journey or something?”

I nodded to Werner-san’s question.

“I thought that I want to look around in this world”

“I see. If so, it should be better if Mukouda-san registers in the adventurer’s guild”

Eh, adventurer’s guild? I don’t have plans on becoming an adventurer though.

“The adventurer’s guild? I am planning to register on the merchant’s guild though. I can also cook so I am thinking of earning money in stalls arriving at towns while traveling, and since I have some special contact, I am planning to use those as merchandise”

“I see, but~...”

Werner-san made a face deep in thought while looking at Fer.

“Mukouda-san is planning on letting Fer-sama go and get his own food from now on right?”

I nodded naturally.

“If so, what are you going to do about dismantling the monsters that Fer-sama caught?”

Ah, there’s that.

“And also, thinking about the Rock Bird, the monsters that Fer-sama is going to hunt are all high ranked monsters. If so, the adventurer’s guild is perfect for selling the monster’s materials”

That is true.

If it can be sold, it would be better to sell it to use it for livelihood expenses.

But, an adventurer huh, u~n.

“Mukouda-san, you seem to be worried about something but, shouldn’t you just register on both?”

Vincent who was listening to my conversation with Werner-san said.

“That is, also true. But, is that okay?”

“Well, there’s not a lot of them, but there are guys who registered both in the adventurer’s guild and the merchant’s guild”

“He~, is that so. Then, I will register on both”

I decided to register in both the adventurer's guild and the merchant's guild.

Chapter 10

Registering To The Merchant's Guild

We arrived at the final destination of our journey, the border town of Fariel.

When we entered the town, it seems like there was already a message sent from the fortress so we were able to enter the town without problems even if Fer was with us.

Although it was not as much as the country entry tax, there was tax taken from entering the town (2 silver coins for me, 1 silver coin for Fer) so it was a little bad.

Entering the gates, there was the messenger of the Margrave Rindel that Werner-san was talking about standing by.

"I believe that you are Mukouda-sama, I am Edmond, messenger by Margrave Rindel-sama. I am very pleased to meet you. Actually, Margrave Rindel-sama have wished to meet Mukouda-sama"

Ahh~ it came huh, the invitation for an enclosure.

But, I do not wish to meet him.

I'm not planning on staying that long in this country as well.

I should refuse with respect.

"No, no, it is very disrespectful for Margrave Rindel-sama to meet such a lonely traveler as I"

"No, no, Margrave Rindel-sama insists"

"No, no, no"

"Oh, no, no, no, please come with us"

When I was talking like that with Edmond-san, Fer approached there.

[Oi, you. Do you not understand that my master is saying he shall not meet with him?]
(TL: 貴様kisama – saying you disrespectfully, or by one with higher status)

“O-Oh, p-please forgive me, Fe-Fenrir-sama. F-Fenrir-sama is w-welcome as well”

Edmond-san said that to Fer while making a stiff smile to his sudden appearance.

[Hmph, how cunning. I do not have plans on meeting the Margrave as well. You only want my powers right? After all, there were foolish humans who were like that in the past]

“N-No, no, no, no, w-we do not mean like that...”

[Stop lying. Do you wish to know what happens to humans who tries to use my power for themselves? Nn?]

“H-Hiiii!!”

Edmond-san ran away while screaming, frightened by Fer who showed his fangs.

“Fer, that was too much”

[Those kind of idiots won't understand if I do not do that much]

Yes yes, is that so.

“Is it alright to do something like that to the messenger of Margrave Rindel-sama? Nobles values their faces above all, so they might do something you know”

Werner-san's worry is natural.

I also didn't think that Fer would do something that much.

[There is no need to worry. Come if they will, I shall receive what they throw]

Ohh, I'm counting on you, Fer-san~!

“Well, Fer-sama says so as well, so it should be okay huh”

When Werner-san said that, the other members of the Iron Will nodded like “Un, un”.

“I do not believe that just the private soldiers of nobles would be Fer-sama’s match”
(Franca)

“It is exactly as Franca says. I think so too” (Rita)

“I mean, something that would be a Fer-sama’s match, that would be something like an Ancient Dragon” (Vincent)

“That is very true” (Ramon-san)

The dragon that is all present in fantasy worlds, they really exist huh.

I don’t want to meet them at all though.

[Mu, Ancient Dragon huh. It is true that only them could be my match]

“Eh? Fer-sama, have you fought against an Ancient Dragon?!”

Vincent asked excitedly.

[It was about 400 years before. It was a draw that time, but I shall not lose the next time]

“Uoo~, amazing~!! A fight between legendary magical beasts huh~, I wanted to see that~”

“I also wanted to see that~”

For some reason, Vincent and Rita got excited, but Franca and Ramon-san who looked at them were making a wry smile.

“Oi, oi, calm down you guys. We’re going to report to the adventurer’s guild after we got Mukouda-san’s mission complete sign alright”

Asked by Werner-san, I signed on the mission complete report paper.

And when I was about to give the Red Boar meat that I carried from them, they told me that it was nothing much compared to the materials of the Rock Bird.

“Even receiving the Red Boar meat in the end, I have really been under everyone’s care.

Thank you very much”

If there weren't the Iron Will, I wouldn't have reached this far.

“No, no, we also have experienced good things, we also got to eat good food, so it was a good request without complain”

It is great hearing that.

“Thank you very much. Well then, everyone, stay healthy”

“Mukouda-san as well”

The Iron Will members left while waving their hands.

Yosh, with this, I have completed my goal at the beginning but, what should I do from now on?

I don't plan on staying in this country for long, but for the meantime, I should register in the guild here.

According to what Werner-san said, it would be better to register in the adventurer's guild, but I should go to my first choice, to the merchant's guild.

“Oi, Fer. We're going to the merchant's guild”

[Mu, are you going to become a merchant?]

“Well, I aspire to. But I'm also planning to register to the adventurer's guild. I'm still going to ask Fer to get the meat you're going to eat yourself from now on, but I can't do something like dismantling. Also, the materials of the monsters that Fer would catch would be an addition to our living expenses if they are sold. I can sell the materials from the monsters right?”

[I do not mind because it is something that I do not need. Rather than that, I want to eat good food]

“Yes yes, I got it~”

Really, this guy's not a legendary magical beast but just a gluttonous character.

Fer and I came to the merchant's guild.

When I entered with Fer, everyone was surprised and there was a commotion, but I was able to calm the place down by desperately explaining that he's my familiar.

And then, I'm receiving an explanation in the merchant guild's window counter.

The one who's in charge for me is an amazing blue-eyed golden-haired beauty, Mikaela-san.

The contents of the explanation that I had from Mikaela-san is this.

-The merchant's guild is an organization that exceeds a country.

-There are 5 ranks in the merchant's guild.

Iron Rank → Peddlers, Stalls (ones who do business without a store)

Bronze Rank → individual stores (an individual store like the town's butcher or general store)

Silver Rank → small-scale merchant companies (a decent sized merchant company in a town)

Gold Rank → mid-scale merchant companies (a merchant company that has several branches)

Mithril Rank → large-scale companies (a merchant company that has many branches)

-The register fee, annual fee, tax fee is different in each rank.

Iron Rank → 5 silver coins for register fee → 1 gold coin for annual fee → 2 gold coins for tax fee

Bronze Rank → 1 gold coin for register fee → 2 gold coins for annual fee → 4 gold coins for tax fee

Silver Rank → 2 gold coins for register fee → 5 gold coins for annual fee → 10 gold coins for tax fee

Gold Rank → 4 gold coins for register fee → a certain amount of gold coins relative to the number of stores → a certain amount of gold coins relative to the number of stores

Mithril Rank → 8 gold coins for register fee → a certain amount of gold coins relative to the number of stores → a certain amount of gold coins relative to the number of stores

-The annual fee and tax fee must be paid within one year since the day of registration.

-With the day of registration as the base, the member's qualifications are yearly renewed. It shall not be renewed in the case where the annual fee and tax fee is not paid.

-The collected tax fee shall be paid by the merchant's guild to each country with responsibility.

-In the case where a guild card of a certain rank is lost, there would be different fees for reissuing according to ranks.

-In the case where one would do illegal transactions, there would be some case that one shall be expelled from the merchant's guild.

-The way of registering as Iron Rank at first and gradually increasing one's rank is possible.

-Please consult us anytime when you have problems about stores, capital investments, and procurement of merchandise any time.

As expected of the merchant's guild.

They explained to me kindly and politely the things I wanted to know and thought about.

"And so, what kind of business does Mukouda-san thinks of?"

About that, there's the thing about Fer and I'm also thinking of traveling around this world so I'm not planning to have a store right now.

If so, it will be Iron Rank.

"I have a familiar and I do not plan on having a store right now. I think that Iron Rank would be suitable, so I am thinking of registering as an Iron Rank"

"Thank you very much." The registration fee would be 5 silver coins. Is it alright if I proceed the registration right now?"

It's difficult for my wallet, but it's not like I can't pay 5 silver coins so I should proceed here.

"Well then, this will be Mukouda-san's Iron Ranked guild card. As I have explained from earlier, a fee would be required for reissuing in the case of losing it. In the case of Iron Rank, it will be 8 silver coins so please be careful not to lose it"

8 silver coins huh, it's quite expensive. I should be careful not to lose it.

Ah, also, there's something I want to ask.

"Uhm, excuse me, are you buying things here? Actually, there are some things that I procured during my journey..."

"Buying? It would depend on what it is, but yes"

Depending on what it is huh, as expected of the merchant's guild, there should be an expert after all.

The thing that I'm thinking of selling is salt and pepper.

If it's this, there should be no problem.

"Well then, I will come tomorrow together with the things I would like to sell"

"We will be waiting for you. Thank you for registering today"

I was about to leave the merchant's guild that treated my politely, and remembered.

Today's inn, I forgot to ask a place where one could stay with their familiars.

I returned to the window counter in a hurry and asked Mikaela-san.

The recommended inn where familiars could also stay is called "Prancing Horse Inn".

I got kindly told about where it is, so I immediately went to the "Prancing Horse Inn" together with Fer.

Chapter 11

Eating Rice In The Different World

Just like Mikaela-san has said, I was able to stay in the “Prancing Horse Inn” even if I was together with Fer.

However, it took me an accommodation fee of 7 silver coins for staying with a familiar.

My wallet’s getting looser and looser.

It looks like Fer would be in the beast house in the back of the building so I went there.

[Oi, I held back during lunch, but I am very hungry now]

Come to think of it, we didn’t eat lunch.

Fer didn’t say food as well.

He might’ve got thoughtful although it’s uncharacteristic of him.

“Sorry, sorry. Well, let’s eat an early dinner then”

It’s in front of the beast house, but only Fer is in here right now so there should be no problem cooking here.

On the side, I should eat as well.

I have the Red Boar meat that I got from the Iron Will, so today is a steak with that.

I cut Fer’s share thicker making it rare cooked.

Also, about my dinner, I really want to eat “that”.

“That”, is rice.

Japanese should eat rice after all~.

But, I only have 1 portable stove though~.

It takes a little bit of time to cook rice as well... u~n, what should I do.

I'm planning on selling salt and pepper in the merchant's guild tomorrow, so I need to buy those as well, and I'm planning to get money with that, so I should buy things that I won't be troubled having some.

My wallet's going to be lighter, but I really want to eat rice.

So with that, I purchased rice, earthenware pot, portable stove, and 5 kilos of salt and 100 grams of pepper, the ones that I'm selling tomorrow.

The rice, I bought Koshihikari that I eat often.

I don't know how much the salt and pepper would be sold for, so for the meantime, I just bought this much.

It had a total of 8 silver coins.

My wallet's getting lighter and lighter but, I'm expecting on tomorrow's deal.

Well then, let's start cooking.

First, I rinsed the rice and soak it for about 30 minutes.

Leaving that on the side, it's Fer's steak.

I sprinkled the Red Boar meat with salt and pepper then fried each side in the frying pan.

It's a little rare but this much should be enough.

I served the steak in a dish, add steak soy sauce, and it's ready.

"Here, Fer"

I served to Fer, and he ate that one piece gluttonously instantly.

I cut it very thickly though.

[This is good! Give me more]

I continued to fry Red Boar steak for Fer.

The next steak soy sauce that I would put in the next steak would be this.

“Here”

[HaguHagu, mu, it tastes different from before. However, this is good as well]

Fufu, he noticed huh.

Steak soy sauce is very convenient, so I bought many kinds.

The first I served was garlic flavor and the next is daikon-oroshi flavor.

Just having this steak soy sauce is very convenient.

It's also delicious when used in sautéed vegetables and frying rice with the garlic flavor would make a garlic rice.

Yakiniku sauce, teriyaki sauce, and steak soy sauce, they are very useful so I have all of them in my house, so I bought various kinds in the Net Super before the journey.

I continued to fry steaks for Fer.

Well then, next is onion flavor and butter flavor after that.

Oh wait, it's about time to cook rice.

I placed the earthenware pot in the stove, and since it would boil for about 10 minutes in a slightly stronger medium fire, it would be 5 minutes of low fire after that, and remove the fire after that, making it steam for about 20 minutes.

I cooked 3 times, but putting the rice in the item box would preserve it as if it was just cooked.

Oh yeah, my Item Box is for Heroes, its capacity is almost infinite, and it has the function of stopping time.

With just this, I am very grateful that it's "for a Hero".

While I'm cooking rice, I fried a lot of steaks for Fer.

[Make the next one with the same taste as the first one]

"Garlic flavor huh. Here you go"

[It is called garlic flavor huh, this is great]

"You liked its taste?"

[Umu. All of them tastes good, but this one I like the most]

Hou, hou, I see I see, though I like onion flavor the most.

And so, the rice is almost ready so let's make that.

First, I put the hot and freshly cooked rice into a bowl.

I cut the Red Boar steak to bite size, placed them on top of the rice, and finish it by placing steak soy sauce onion flavor on top of it.

It's Red Boar Steak-don.

Well, let's taste it.

"S-So goooooood!!!"

HaguHagu, this is super good!!

Red Boar steak also tastes delicious, but this rice permeating with steak soy sauce is also delicious.

As I've thought, it should be rice for Japanese.

Rice is the best~.

[Mu, that looks delicious. Give that to me as well]

Eh~, Fer is going to eat too?

If I didn't let him eat here, he would probably get noisy about not letting him eat it.

It can't be helped huh. Hey, wait a second, if that happens then the remaining rice would be going to Fer's stomach. Gakkuri

When I made the steak-don (garlic flavor) for Fer, he immediately started eating gluttonously.

[Umu, this is good. I have thought that grains are not my food, but this is very delicious]

"I know right? Rice is the best as I've thought"

I don't hate bread, but I really start wanting to eat rice you know.

Staying in this different world and eating rice like this is all thanks to [Net Super]huh.

I thought what the heck was it at first, but this is all thanks to Net Super.

Haa~, it was so delicious. What a bliss.

Fer also started to groom himself so he's probably satisfied too.

Ah, this might be too late, but they say that dogs and cats shouldn't be fed with food with a dense taste.

Also, onions are not allowed for dogs, was it?

Fer was gorged all of it but, un, he seems fine.

In the first place, Fer is a magical beast in a fantasy world.

He looks very well and healthy as if nothing happened so there's no need to worry huh.

"Well then, I also have preparations for tomorrow so I'll return to my room okay"

[Understood]

Returning to my room, I started preparing the salt and pepper that I'm planning to sell in the merchant's guild tomorrow.

I bought 5 kilos of salt in the paper bag and pepper in a vinyl pack (20g x 5) in the Net Super, but there's no way that I would bring it like that.

Placing the salt in jute bag that I bought when I bought food utensils in the general store before the journey, the salt, I should've bought a wooden container with a lid so that should be good enough.

I transferred the salt and pepper.

Yosh, preparations are complete with this.

A lot of things happened and I'm tired as well. I should sleep early.

While praying that tomorrow's deal would go well, I fell asleep in a bed after a long time.

Chapter 12

I Sold Salt And Pepper

This morning, Fer started saying that he wants to eat steak like yesterday morning so I could only make a whole lot of steaks in the morning.

As expected of a carnivore. The amount of his meat consumption is enormous.

It was alright because there was still Red Boar meat left this morning, but that was also exhausted with Fer's breakfast.

Maybe it would be bad if I don't let Fer take some game.

If it's like that, I also need to register to the adventurer's guild.

After I go to the merchant's guild and sold the salt and pepper, I should go to the adventurer's guild.

It looks like it's going to get busy today as well.

By the way, my breakfast was a simple ham and cheese sandwich and onion soup.

Well, I don't want to eat steak even in the morning after all.

I came to the merchant's guild as planned.

I'm planning to register to the adventurer's guild so Fer's with me.

There was Mikaela-san who took charge for me yesterday on the window counter.

"Good morning, Mikaela-san"

"Good morning, Mukouda-sama"

“I came to sell just as I’ve said yesterday. I wish to sell this”

I said that and took out the salt in a jute bag and pepper in a container from my item box.

“Please let me see. This is... please excuse me for a moment”

Mikaela saw the pepper and stood up from her seat.

A-re, was pepper bad after all?

They say that pepper could be traded with gold with the same weight in the past after all. Maybe 100 grams is too much.

After a while Mikaela-san came back and guided me to a different room so I asked Fer to wait and followed Mikaela-san.

There is a wealthy-looking 50-year-old man inside the room.

“Please have a seat. I am Robert, the guild master of this guild. Pleased to make your acquaintance”

Ohh, the guild master appeared.

As I’ve thought, maybe pepper was bad.

After a different personnel puts down my salt and pepper, the guild master says “Please excuse me” and started to check it.

As expected of someone who became the merchant’s guild’s guild master, he checked the taste and smell with sharp eyes.

“I have been in the business for a very long time, but this is the first time that I have seen such good quality of salt and pepper. Pure white salt without dullness and off-flavor, and pepper with a vivid smell and taste. I can only say that it is excellent”

Is that so, but buying that from the Net Super, the 5 kilo of salt is only 5 copper coins and the 100 gram of pepper is in the same price though.

“We really wish to buy this from you but, can I ask where you did you get this?”

Yes, it's from the Net Super. It's an otherworld-made salt and pepper so I can guarantee its quality.

Well, there's no way that I can say that.

"Just, in the middle of my journey..."

When I said that evasively, the guild master says "Please excuse me. There is no way that a merchant would leak the place where got this after all" and laughed.

"Well then, about the total price, how about 4 gold coins for the salt and 10 gold coins for the pepper?"

".....eh?"

N-No way right? Their original price is 1 silver coin in total, but 4 gold coins for the salt and 10 gold coins for the pepper?

Eh, eh, eh? I knew that salt and pepper is expensive in this world, but can it be that expensive?

"That was too low after all huh... Well then, how about 15 gold coins for both?"

UOH! The price went up!

Did he think that I was reluctant because I'm silent?

No, I'm just surprised you know.

"Ku... well then, how about 17 gold coins for both. I can't raise any more than this"

I don't know what the guild master misunderstood, but the purchase price went up again.

"Y-Yes! T-That is alright"

S-Seventeen gold coins...

That was originally 1 silver coin you know, and that became 17 gold coins.

Well this is, super profitable.

I asked to sell it with me bringing it here so it's not a way that I could use many times though.

If I bring it here many times, they'll get suspicious of me so the limit is probably once per branch of the guild.

Even so, I'm very thankful because I gained a way to earn decent money.

After receiving 17 gold coins, I decided to pay the annual fee and tax fee for the Iron Rank.

It's better to pay this kind of things while you can.

It would be terrible if the limit is near and you don't have money after all.

"Iron Rank's annual fee of 1 gold coin and tax fee of 2 gold coins, I have certainly received it"

Fuu, it should be fine for a year with this.

Even if I paid the annual fee and tax fee, 14 gold coins would enter my pockets.

Adding the remaining cash that I have, it's 20 gold coins, 5 silver coins, and several copper coins and iron coins.

It looks like I would be fine for a while.

Well, I have some ideas when it's not enough.

I heard that having the merchant guild's guild card, one could easily be trusted when trading with other stores.

I have the Net Super, so it means that I have many things to trade.

It's great that I entered the merchant's guild.

Well then, I should go and register to the adventurer's guild next.

I left the merchant's guild with my pockets warm due to the profits for selling the salt and pepper.

Chapter 13

Registering To The Adventurer's Guild

I came to the adventurer's guild.

Just like the merchant's guild, the building his also comparatively huge inside the town.

As expected of the adventurer's guild, there's a lot of tough-looking guys carrying weapons.

The proportion is probably 4 fighters with weapons and 1 magician?

Either way, it's unbelievable how they can do such tough job like being an adventurer.

Although, I also need to register right now though.

Well, I'm not planning at all to go battling like adventurers do though.

And like that, I thought of a lot of things get distracted, but the looks from the adventurers when I started to line up to the window counter is so terrible.

This is probably some cliché like "Someone like you becoming an adventurer? Hmph, don't make me laugh" , but because they can't do it because Fer's on my side.

I don't know if they know that Fer's a Fenrir, but they probably know instinctively that it would be bad to make a move on Fer.

Thank goodness Fer's with me.

This is probably the scene where I would get in trouble if Fer's not around.

I really want to leave this place quickly.

Haa~, can't the line move faster.

After a while, it's finally my turn.

"I would like to register"

"Well then, please fill up this registration form. You can leave the ones you cannot write as blank"

The adventurer's guild's lady receptionist is a beauty, but she seemed a little cold.

As I've thought, it's more polite in the merchant's guild.

Is it because of the summoned hero bonus, I can write without problems so I filled up the parts that I can write.

I filled up the name, weapon (I don't have any plans of using one but I thought it's better to have one so I picked a short sword) and the familiar then passed it.

"The registration fee will be 5 silver coins. Well then, please place a drop of blood on this card"

After giving the registration fee of 5 silver coins, she gave me a copper colored card and a needle.

I pricked my fingertip and put a drop of blood on the card just like I was told.

"The registration is finished with this. You will be the lowest rank, G-Rank, so please understand that you can only take G-F rank quests"

Eh, there's no explanation about the adventurer's guild?

"Is there anything else?"

"Isn't there an explanation or something?"

The lady receptionist had a face like "Eh? You're going to ask that?" , and troublesome was written all over her face.

Yes, I am. Yes, I'm going to ask a lot.

I think that it times like this, one should ask about properly because it would come back with interest, not knowing what the rules are.

The lady receptionist started to explain like she cannot help it.

The attitude of the receptionist in the adventurer's guild isn't good at all.

It's the difference between heaven and earth compared to the merchant's guild's receptionist.

Mikaela-san explained gently and politely with a smile from start to end you know.

According to the adventure's guild explanation full of unwillingness,

-The adventurer's guild is an organization that exceeds a country.

-The rank of adventurers is G – S just like the following looks.

(Low) G→F→E→D→C→B→A→S (High)

-The quests that adventurers can receive is only quests equal or one rank higher to their own rank.

-There will be penalty in the case where the quest has failed.

-Not receiving a quest according to the adventurer's rank in a certain span of time shall result in removal of the registration in the adventurer's guild. In the case when one would wish to become an adventurer again, they would once again register and start from G-Rank again.

G → Within 1 month

F, E → Within 3 months

D, C, B → Within 6 months

A, S → Within 1 year

-In the case of Murder, Robbery, one shall be expelled from the adventurer's guild.

-Private fights between adventurers are prohibited.

-The adventurer's guild shall not be responsible for the deeds that adventurers do.

-The adventurer's guild shall not be responsible for injury-death of adventurers.

It was like that.

It means that an adventurer is completely responsible for itself.

I'm not planning on raising my rank at all though.

I'm just a freshly registered G-Rank.

With G-Rank, the registration would be erased if I don't take a quest within 1 month right.

If that is so, the registration fee that I paid would be for naught.

Thinking of that, it's probably better to do some kind of quest here.

I also need to ask Fer to catch some prey.

I left the reception that doesn't have a good attitude for once and peeked at the bulletin board.

Even though they said that I can take a quest one higher than my rank, I had just registered so I should probably take a G-Rank quest, the same with my own rank.

G-Rank, G-Rank..... oh, this looks good.

It's cliché-ish but, it's a quest to collect herbs.

Kiayu Grass x 5

1 silver coin

Maju Grass x 5

1 silver coin and 3 copper coins.

For the meantime, these two are the choices, but the reason that the reward for the Maju Grass higher is because it's more difficult to find.

It looks like just how clichés go, I only need to peel out the quest paper from the bulletin board and take it to the reception, but it looks like one must take that quest if they took it off once too.

If it's like that, Kiayu Grass would be better.

I took the Kiayu Grass quest paper and went to the window counter.

By the way, it's a different window counter with the lady receptionist that I asked to explain about the adventurer's guild.

The attitude here was a little better, but it's was really far different from the merchant's guild.

I asked the place where Kiayu Grass grows and immediately left the adventurer's guild.

I got relieved because I didn't get in trouble because Fer is with me.

According to what I heard, the place where the Kiayu Grass grows is in the grassland immediately ahead after leaving from the east gates.

It's just near the gates so I don't think that it would be dangerous, but I should probably at least equip myself with a short sword.

I also wrote short sword as my weapon when I registered in the adventurer's guild, so I should buy one before I go find Kiayu Grass.

"Fer, we're going to the weapon's shop for a bit okay"

[Mu, there should be no problem even without weapon because I am here]

"What would I do then when Fer went to go catch some prey? I'll be alone so I isn't that too careless without having any weapons"

[There should be no problem if I make a barrier]

.....ha?

“B-Barrier you say, you! You can use that kind of magic?”

[Of course I can]

Of course you can? This is the first time I heard about that.

I mean, I just noticed right now, but I haven't identified Fer.

Although it seems a bit late, I identified Fer.

[Name] Fer

[Age] 1014

[Race] Fenrir

[Level] 906

[Stamina] 9843

[Magic Powers] 9481

[Attack Powers] 9036

[Defense Powers] 9765

[Agility] 9684

[Skill] Wind Magic, Fire Magic, Water Magic, Earth Magic, Ice Magic, Lightning Magic, Sacred Magic, Barrier Magic, Claw Slash, Physical Strengthening, Physical Attack Resistance, Magic Attack Resistance, Magic Powers Consumption Reduction, Identify

[Blessings] Wind Goddess Ninril's Blessings

.....

It was too amazing that I lost my words.

His level, stamina, and magic powers, this, isn't it close maximum?

His age is 1014 but, when Fer said that he had lived a thousand years, he was saying that seriously huh.

Does it mean that he took a thousand years to reach near maximum?

He's a usually glutton character, but Fer's really amazing huh.

“Fer, I identified your status right now but, you were an amazing guy huh”

[Why are you saying such a natural thing]

Ah~, yes yes, is that so.

Well, please create a barrier for me after we passed through the gates.

But, I'll still buy a short sword to be sure.

Chapter 14

First Quest

There are several weapon stores near the adventurer's guild so I entered one of them.

I asked the store owner something that is easy to use and recommended for beginners and bought a short sword for 8 silver coins.

Well, let's go and pick herbs.

Since I'm going out of the town because of a quest from the adventurer's guild, I showed my adventurer's guild card when I left from the east gates.

Leaving from the east gate, I walked for about 20 minutes with Fer and saw a vast grassland.

The herbs should be growing here.

"Well then, I'll go pick up herbs, so Fer should go and get some game"

[I got it. I will be troubled if anything happens to you so I shall create a barrier around you]

Ohh, come to think of it, Fer could use Barrier Magic huh.

[Yosh, it should be alright with this. It should be alright even if you meet monsters up to a certain level]

Thanks, thanks.

[Well then, I shall go now. Prepare my meal for lunch]

After saying that, Fer ran gallantly towards the forest.

I respected him a bit, but his glutton character is still strong.

Well then, I should pick up some herbs.

Well, although I said that, I'm just using Identify a lot.

Identify, Identify, Identify, Identify, Identify.

They're all weeds.

Identify, Identify, Identify.

Kiayu Grass.

Oh, it's there.

This Kiayu Grass looks similar to thistle.

I cut the Kiayu Grass from its root.

The knife that I haven't used since I bought finally did its job.

Once again, Identify, Identify, Identify, Identify, Identify.

All that I'm finding are weeds.

Identify, Identify, Identify.

Kiayu Grass.

Oh, there it is again.

Finding 3 more will complete the quest huh.

Yosh, let's find it just like this.

Identify, Identify, Identify, Identify, Identify.

Maju Grass.

Ah, this one, it's the one in the quest.

This Maju Grass looks exactly like a daisy.

Ahh, what was it called again, er, uhh, that's right, it's Erigeron.

I just also take this.

And after that, I continued to Identify and found a total of 18 Kiayu Grass and 7 Maju Grass.

Yosh, Fer should be returning now.

I started to prepare lunch.

But although I said that, since there is no meat right now and since Fer eats a lot that I don't know how much it would cost if I buy meat from the Net Super, I will make it as cheap as I could.

And so, I decided the lunch's menu.

First, shopping in the Net Super.

There's still the onion and soup cubes that I bought before, so I am buying 1 kilo of ground beef and pork, 5 700 gram per pack pasta, and 10 meat sauce cans.

All of it cost 4 silver coins and 5 copper coins, but there is still the money I got from selling salt and pepper to the merchant's guild, so well, I'll let it pass this time.

I bought pasta that would be boiled for 5 minutes, but it's that Fer, I'm sure that he'll be loud saying hurry up, hurry up, so I boiled some water for preparation so that I can cook the pasta immediately.

And while I did that, it's the meat sauce.

First, I sautéed sliced onions in the frying pan until it is transparent, and add the ground meat after that.

After the ground meat is cooked, I added the meat sauce.

If it's only like that, the water content would not be enough, so I added enough boiling water that I dissolved a soup cube into and let it simmer.

In the end, I added salt and pepper to fix its taste, and the meat sauce with increased ground meat is complete.

When the meat sauce was cooked, Fer returned.

Dosari, he dropped his prey in front of me.

[What a delicious smell]

“This, Rock Bird huh”

[The thing called teriyaki from before was delicious so I went to get one. I have also caught other things, but I cannot bring them at once so I left them at the edge of the forest after making a barrier]

He can only bring 1 with his mouth after all.

“If so, it will end with one trip when you bring me there and I put them in my item box. Wait a bit”

I placed the pot with hot water and the frying pan where I cooked the meat sauce, and the stoves into my item box.

And the Rock Bird that I shouldn't forget too.

“Yosh, let's go”

[It will take a long time if you are going to walk. Climb on my back]

Okay, then without holding back.

I climbed Fer's back as I was told.

[Well then, let's go]

“H-Hey, wait”

I desperately clung onto Fer's back who increased the speed dramatically.

“I said waaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaiiiiit!!!”

.....

.....

...

[Oi, we are here]

“Haa, haa, I thought I would die”

[Hmph, what a sissy, throwing the towel with just that]

With just that you say? Running with such speed is too scary you know.

“When you’re carrying me, don’t put on such speed! What will you do if I fell down!”

[Dunno. It’s your fault right]

This bastard.

“Ah! You’re saying such things huh. You mean that you don’t need your food. Also, if anything happens to me, you’ll never be able to eat food from the other world ever again”

[Gununu]

“Let’s hurry up and collect the monsters and return”

The monsters that Fer caught was piled up like a mountain on the edge of the forest.

When I used Identify on them, there’s Orc x 5, Red Boar, Giant Dodo, and Black Serpent.

I understand about the snake, they said that it tastes like chicken but, can Orcs be eaten?

When I asked Fer, he said it could be eaten.

He said that the humans in towns eat Orcs normally.

I-Is that so. They eat pigs standing on two legs huh.

I have the Net Super so I mostly cook for myself, but it was correct.

Food in a different world, how frightening.

I kept the monsters that Fer caught in my item box, and returned to the grassland, riding Fer again.

This time, Fer seemed a little considerate, so it was alright somehow.

“Well, let’s eat lunch then”

[I am hungry. Hurry up]

“Just wait for a while, I need to cook the pasta”

And, 5 minutes of cooking the pasta. (Thank goodness I bought easy cook pasta)

I placed the cooked pasta on top of a plate, added the meat sauce with increased ground meat and it’s complete.

I mixed it properly for Fer.

“Fer, it’s ready”

[Mu, what’s this?]

When I said that, Fer started to gobble it.

[Umu, the meat is few but it is quite good]

From how it seems, it looks like he’s still going to eat a lot.

I started to cook the next pasta.

While I did that, I also ate lunch.

In the end, I cooked 4 pasta for Fer.

I ate a meal for 1, but 700 grams x 4 is 2.8kg.

But even so, Fer was saying something like [This light meal is just enough for lunch].

You're eating too much I say.

After eating, his snout was covered with meat sauce so I laughed.

Although he removed it in a hurry by plunging into the water that I took out.

After lunch, Fer went to catch prey again and I continued to pick up herbs.

And the result, I got a total of 40 Kiayu Grass and 20 Maju Grass in one day.

It's probably a set of 5, so I collected it with that in mind.

As I've thought, Identify is very convenient.

Because I knew which ones are the Kiayu Grass and Maju Grass, and because I got used to using Identify as well, the herb collection after lunch was rewarding.

Fer also caught many preys.

Red Boar (it's the second one now), Cockatrice x 3, Giant Deer, Murder Grizzly.

The Murder Grizzly, just from its name, it really sounds dangerous.

I decided to act that I have never seen it, and put it in my item box.

And after that, I returned to the town riding on Fer's back.

The gates guard person in the gate was staring because I was riding Fer, but he wasn't saying anything so I did not go down.

Well then, I should go to the adventurer's guild.

"Fer, let's go to the adventurer's guild"

[Understood]

Chapter 15

Meat Is Something That I Need

I entered the adventurer guild, but there were not many people around, perhaps its too early for other adventurers.

Maybe I should hand in the remnants of Feru's catch. Before it's too late

I lined up at the counter which was almost empty

Because there was only two people in front of me It was my turn almost instantly.

When I reached the receptionist I passed up my card and the Kiayu grass

"You got the request this morning and have already gotten this much?"

I put up 40 Kiayu grass, so she was right to be surprised"

"Ah, well I Guess I got lucky"

Was 40 too much though?

Though I used appraisal, I kept it a secret

"ah , found a big cluster eh?"

The receptionist said so, It does make sense put this way

"the request was for 5 Kiayu grass as you have 8 sets the reward has become 6 silver"

I got six coins and then passed over the application for Maju grass

For the Maju grass quest I only handed over 5 this time

Even though I had more I decided to hand in a little bit.

The remaining maju grass is kept in my item box, which I would use another time

“Because there is 5 maju grass, the amount the request specified it comes out as 1 silver and three copper please confirm the amount”

With that I felt relieved

It's great that I can start a quest and then hand it in immediately

And appraisal was also helpful.

Then next is ferus catch

“by any chance do you buy red boa?”

“E? Red boa? But , you are only G rank”

Apparently red boa is not something people of G rank hunt

Well looking at it, it is quite large

It is impossible to say I hunted it myself

“Ah well, I didn't catch it, my contracted demon did

When I said so the receptionist seems to agree that it is possible

“Because it is sale of a large demon please move onto the next window, over there please”

The receptionist today is in a good mood.

The requests were handled quickly so I moved out to the next window as fast as I could.

“excuse me, will you buy this?”

“ah , please take it out and put it here”

The receptionist was an ossan

he was very stern faced and not amused.

“ah well there is quite a lot is it ok to put it all here?”

“a large amount, do you have an Item box?”

“yes, then I shall start”

First I take out 5 orc

Then 2 red boa

“woah woah wait please”

Eh, but there’s still more

Then the old man asked me to follow him to the depository

“Ah, this is place alright for me to take my contracted demon into?”

I got permission, and then I called feru in

Feru and I entered a warehouse behind the purchase window.

“so, you are that guy from the rumor?”

Rumor? What rumor?

“A Guy who has contracted with a fenrir is going to start a rumor if he were to enter town”

ha, it comes from such a thing

Wa, feru is actually quite conspicuous

“A guy with a fenrir?”

“well then we should begin”

Rock bird, giant dodo, black serpent, cocatris x3, Giant toad, murder grisly

“this is all of it”

The old man opened his mouth in surprise

Is this guy alright?

He still hasn't moved yet is he really ok?

But then he finally moved

“ this is a great amount, but they are also all strong, Rock bird, giant dodo and the giant toad are all B rank, but you also have the A rank black serpent and the murder grizzly oh, I didn't know these guys were that strong

Well all of them are very large so it is as expected

Well, I thought they only had dangerous names, but they were actually strong

Well, because feru was the one who caught these theres is no problem

I was actually able to learn from it

“ah, um, Can I eat all these demons here?”

Well, it is meat

And feru was securing meat for me to cook

“Ah, yes you can eat the entirety of these monster, they are all also a high quality item

Yay!

I thought I would be able to eat it but I did not expect it to be a high quality product!

It is quite a relief,

“Then am I able to take all the meat and just sell the materials?”

“Even though this meat is worth a lot, do you not want to sell it?”

“no I don’t, Feru here is quite the big eater”

The old man seemed disappointed but he looked down at feru with an “Ah I understand” looking face

“Well that is possible, but because there is a large amount, please come by tomorrow morning then you can take it back, the money from dismantling will be deducted from the materials”

Well then I will come back tomorrow

But I want meat now

“Is it possible to get meat from one right now?”

“hmm, ah a meal for the demon, then please just wait a moment”

So saying, he handled the red boa

He was quite professional, he skillfully divided the skin, meat and internal organs fast.

The skin will be sold, while the organs will be thrown away

“well, this is it”

There seems to be 200kilo of red boa meat passed to me

With this I do not need to worry about feru for a while

I put the meat in my irem box and thanked the old man as I let the workshop

When I walked out into the guild again I got many looks from the adventurers

Well I did sell many strong monsters just now...

However feru’s meal has been acquired as well

Chapter 16

Sweet And Sour Chinese Miso

When I returned to the inn, feru said he was hungry

The sun was beginning to set, I should make a big meal for feru now.

Oh there is no ginger

what will I make today?

Because all feru's eaten lately is meat, he better eat some vegetables today (maybe something with vegetables would be good)

Are you making stir fry with vegetables and meat ?

For Feru's share it requires too much meat

Because of him the amount of meat decreases quite fast, Though I can't really complain as he is the one that catches it

I currently have cabbage, onion, carrot and green pepper

Though I was bean sprouts and mushrooms, I will just endure through today

But because I have seasonings it is ok

First, I cut the meat of the red boa to a good size

As it's for feru it is cut quite largely

I also cut the vegetables

I rubbed a light amount of salt and pepper onto the red boa and lightly fried it in a pan

Frying it with sesame oil, would be better for taste

But I just used salad oil as that is what I have currently

In the frying pan I put carrot, onion, green pepper, then cabbage. In that order

I like to have a slight chewy texture, so I fry just enough to keep that feeling

When the Vegetables were done I began on the on the meat

Then for flavour

I added chinese miso(tube form) modern foodstuffs are really something aren't they

This wouldn't be possible if I didn't have chinese miso paste

The harsh chinese miso paired with the fried vegetables and red bo

A familiar smell came out when I was completed

"Feru, dinners ready"

"I would be fine if it was only meat"

"having only meat would get unpleasant after a while wouldn't it become unpleasant, it's good to have a few vegetables every now and then"

"well, it might be nice to have some leaves occasionally, but it is not a problem if I don't eat them, I have gone many years without eating leaves"

I wouldn't have said it like that, it's like you're bragging about it

Though what's up with the leaves, are you a herbivore?

But you should eat some vegetables it's not bad for your health

I put a large quantity of the miso stir fried meat and vegetables in front of Feru who took the first mouthful

He began to eat, piggy like always

Well, it's to be expected

Miso is delicious afterall

Well, I should eat as well

Mm mm it's delicious

...But there is no rice

Rice would make it better

I... forgot completely

This, would be the best with rice

Though It can't be helped so I ate it with bread instead

I think I should stock up on rice

The meal was also popular with Feru who had 3 servings and seemed satisfied by the end of it

Afterall Feru is a big eater

But, I wonder what the meat tomorrow will be like

Chapter 17

I Received Tons Of Meat And Tons Of Money

The day after I acquired a large quantity of meat I stood in front of the adventurerers guild with feru

I went to the purchase window from yesterday, where the same person was standing

“Good morning”

“ah, because the amount of meat is large, follow me into the warehouse”

Both me and feru follow

In the warehouse meat was piled up

“This is it”

This is even a large amount for the big eater feru, This might just last for a while

I immediately put the meat in the item box

“I thought so as well yesterday, but you have quite a large item box don’t you?”

To that question, I simply replied with “haa”

Because the meat is more important there is no time for respect

With that my business here is done

To be honest though I don’t think I will meet this guy again, I might not even come here again

I am scheduled to go out of town by the end of today or tomorrow

Staying to long will be bad

“Then next is the purchase of the materials”

When I finished with the meat, The old man came out with a jute bag which seemed heavy and put it out in front of me

“Well, we should break it down, first the orc. The most valuable part is the testicles, for the five it is two gold and five silver coins. Next the red boa. It is two gold and four silver for the 2 skins and four fangs. For the cockatrice though, the meat has a high price the only thing sold are the wings, It is 3 silver per wing, but since one is damaged, it is only five silver.

The testicles of the orc, are one of the materials required for energy medicine, I hear that both are needed to produce one energy medicine.

Though It is slightly unpleasant, energy medicine is still very helpful.

The skin of the red boa is popular for shoes and bags, and recently red boa belts are becoming popular, while the fang is used to craft art

The feathers from the wing of a cockatrice seems to be used as a pillow

“next is The loc bird, It is seven gold coins for the wing and beak. The giant dodo is quite small, so it is not worth much, but because there is a demon stone it is worth 22 gold coins, And then the giant deer. The material from the giant deer is the skin and it also had a demon stone so it is 28 gold coins, you are quite lucky to get two demon stones”

The beak and feather from the lock bird seems to be used for arrows

It seems to have quite the penetration ability so it's worth quite a bit

The giant dodo's, beak is used in magic tools, like pendants and bracelets that have various effect, and the feathers seem to be materials for high level duvets

For the giant deer the skin becomes leather armor, while the horn becomes good material for a wizards cane

The demon stone that was taken from the deer and the dodo, seem to have many usages depending on the attribute. Because it can only be found in monsters of B rank it often is worth a large amount of money

Not all rank B monsters have a demon stone though, it is only around 30% that have one, but the closer to Rank A you get the more common and stronger they are.

“next are the two A ranks, these are the first A ranks I have seen for quite some time. As for the materials, from the black serpent we have the poison sack, the liver, the fang, the eyes, The skin, With that and the demon stone, It becomes 64 gold coins. Next is the murder grizzly, liver, claws, Fur and the A rank demon stone it comes to 78 gold coins”

From the black serpent the poison sac has various uses many I don't know but are scary, while the liver is used as a medicine for nutritional fortification

The fang is used for evil things as well, The eyeball used for wands, The skin will become leather armor for a high ranking adventurer. The demon stone was of a good size and of the water element

From the bear, the liver is used for medicine, as for the claws, nobles seem to buy them for evil tools, while the fur is used as rug

The price for the demon stone was quite high as well because it was quite large

“overall it is 205 gold coins and 4 silver. From there the dismantling cost will be deducted, There is a slight discount because it was a large amount and of high rank, so it was only two gold and four silver, For a total of 202 gold coins, currently it is all in gold coins, if you want, it is possible to exchange for some white gold coins large gold coins.

“no, it's fine as just the gold coins”

I commonly shop around in the town, and coins like large gold and white gold coins will not be accepted because the amount is too large. A large gold coin is the value of ten old coins

Large coins like white gold or large gold, do not appear to often in the market

Still, 200 is a lot of coins

Though, it doesn't really matter

For now, I have other things to think about

Like what kind of meat I should feed to feru later

“I heard from an acquaintance that your contracted demon is a fenrir, is that correct?”

From behind me I heard a yawn, it seems feru is bored as well

But, what is it?

“Well, if you say that, he is only just a great wolf”

I have also heard of the rumours about a “A guy with a fenrir following him entering the town” There would definitely be trouble for a person who has a legend following him, So I made up the lie that feru is not fenrir, but instead only a great wolf.

A great wolf seems to be the same size and also has the same grey coat that feru has, but is only A rank

“In the first place, there is nobody who has seen fenrir in person, However, I worked as an adventurer before this. Though it's not worth much from me this does not look like a fenrir

Does fenru really look like a greatwolf?

Or did I hear it wrong

Maybe next time I should choose a smaller town, If I say feru is a great wolf, would it be easier to enter a town.

Though it might still cause a commotion as a great wolf is still of A rank

So I quickly gathered the money and left without another word if feru is a fenrir or not

I passed through the eyes of the adventurers similar to yesterday and quickly left with feru

“Feru, because I have finished everything I wanted in this town we are leaving, is that ok with you”

“It will be fine If I get to eat lots of delicious meals”

Is that so?

“Then, let’s go”

Thus with that we left Farieru town

Chapter 18

I Will Start The Magic Training

I walked out of fear meru town with feru by my side

Is it because I am with feru?

Though I have gone a great distance I have not encountered a single goblin or grey wolf

Though I was quite anxious going out with no destination in mind

“hey, feru can you use magic?”

“well, yes I can”

Though I practiced during the herb collection I was not able to create a visible form, or cast a spell

“Will I also be able to use magic one day?”

I had such feelings after coming to a world with magic, I wanted to use it. It's magic you know, magic

I am quite excited about it

“If it is magic, you are likely able to use it”

Woo hoo!

Because i have magic inside me does that mean I can use it?

“How do I practice magic?”

“When you try use it think about how you are going to use it”

“What I intend to do with it?”

“It is possible to practice wind magic, but wanting to practice it, If it is fire magic, you can use it If you want to”

...It's no use

Furu might be a genius that grasps it very easily

Ok, So I have to imagine it

Image, image, image

Fireball, Fireball, Fireball, Fireball, Fireball, I thrust out my right hand “Fireball”

Ha, shame

“Master, what did you do”

It seemed like feru was disappointed

Kuu, don't look at me like that

“You must practice magic in the mind, not with the body”

Ee? What do you mean?

I would have preferred to know such a basic thing earlier

“What is it like to use magic power?”

I do not know what magic power is in the first place

“It is hard to explain in words, I will cover my body with magic, if you touch me you may be able to feel it”

Is such a thing possible to feel?

I touched feru while feeling a little doubtful

Oh

I somehow understand

I was able to feel something warm

I was faintly able to grip something

“Did you understand?”

“Aa, I did somehow”

“If so there is only training now”

It is just like that isn't it

Alright, let's give it a go

Magic, magic, magic, what is warm? Magic, is there something?

I felt it, it's like it is flowing around my body, in my blood

I concentrated on that feeling and continued training, and I was able to force the magic around my body

“Oi, I'm hungry”

I was interrupted like that by feru

Is it time already?

“Then, should I make lunch?”

I moved out onto the empty road

Well what should we make?

It should be easy, So I will make pork chop

Though it is not pork it will be the meat of ork

Actually, is it safe?

Because it is a pig that walks on two legs

However, people of this world seem to get a lot of meat from adventures as well as some high quality goods as well

Because there is plenty of ork meat it would be a waste to throw it, so let's have fery eat it all

First of all the onion was sliced and I cut the meat thinly

Ketchup and worcester sauce, sugar, liquor and soy sauce was mixed to make the sauce

The onion and ork meat was cooked in a pan and it changed color quickly

When the onion turned transparent I added the sauce and thus was the completion of pork chop

When I pulled it out feru made a hiku hiku sound with his nose and quickly began to eat

"UMU, it is a delicious dish"

It was good

Feru is completely ok with the ork meat

Then, should I also try it

And the appearance of pork chop is nice

I boldly put it in my mouth

Mogumogu, mogumogu..... huh? It's delicious!

Even if the ingredients are uncommon it is still nice

It is like a brand name high-level pork

What a delicious thing, ork

Though there is a slight evasion due to the look of the creature it was a good dish

It is safe after, it is luxury pig

Un un, delicious

I put the unorthodox pork chop into bread

Yes, it is good, it is good

“Oi, more please”

While I eat I also prepare more for feru

There was a small rest after eating and then we continued walking

Of course I do not neglect magic training

I was able to do magic image training while walking, I felt the magic

Good, I thrust out my arm with the palm up

“Fire ball”

Po

A small fire, like that from a candle lit atop my arm

...

“Fusun”

Feru snorted, please stop with the disrespect

I do not feel as though this is a failure

I was able to produce a flame

Yes, no failure here

Even if you say there is, there is no such thing

...However from now I continued training so I could do it better

Chapter 19

Domestic Japanese Black Wagyū Meat Steak

“Feru, should we camp around here today?”

“Umu”

Because feru caught many monsters today, it shall be a feast

A magnificent feast of meat from another world

“Hey feru, since we earned a lot of money should I use my skill here?”

“Food from another world? It is fine if it is meat”

As expected

I search the net supermarket for something good

Feru stood next to me with eyes that was expecting something good

Then the side dish

What would be good, perhaps fried chicken or maybe meat dumpling.

After that, Hamburg steak, no a thick sirloin

I kept putting things in the cart

“Oi, is it ready yet?”

Feru had a long string of saliva dripping down to the ground already

For Feru it is hard to stop such a thing, then I will adjust the things from earlier

The cost for one serving was 4 silver coins and 7 copper coins

So for now I brought 5 gold worth

After that the cardboard boxes appeared immediately

Inside the boxes were warm meals

“Ooh, it’s warm, this is good”

I take the warm dishes out of the boxes and placed them in front of feru

“Hey, here you go”

As soon as I stepped away feru jumped into the food

But it was still eaten carefully

Because these might be insufficient I continued the look on the market.

I bought meat for the main dish

Sausage and roast pork, the sausage is cooked and served with salt and pepper, and the pork is roasted

The main is beef

for the main I was thinking about using wagyu beef

I’ve eaten many delicious dishes, but it is not common to reach that level

After all wagyu would be the best

It is slightly expensive, but it is worth it

Because I never had many chances to have it let’s go with a leg of wagyu

One steak has the cost of a silver coin and 5 copper

...it is indeed quite high

Feru might eat up to ten

But for me, I won't need much

The amount for the pork the sausage and the steak that I will eat comes out to 2 gold coins

Feru had also finished eating while I was shopping

"What will be the next meal?"

Feru ate quite quickly

"It will only take a short while, but it is a delicious thing"

I put five pieces of pork onto the plate

While feru ate that I prepared the sausage, cooking and then seasoning it lightly

"Here, take this as well"

When I served the sausage, feru became happy

"All this is delicious"

But there is still the main to go

The first two steaks are only cooked and lightly seasoned

"This is steak from cooked with only salt and pepper"

"hmmm... this meat is so soft, and delicious, this is a delicious dish

"ho hoh, this meat was raised in my country specifically for that meat"

"What!?, to eat cow raised in another country?"

"Ee? Do you not raise animals to eat them here?"

"No, the monsters here are abundant, so they are hunted and they are eaten this is enough"

Well, monster can be quite nice, if that's the case raising animals might not be necessary if there are plenty of monsters

I cook additional steaks while talking to feru

This time there is soy sauce on the steak

I kept serving steak with different seasonings, garlic, onion, grated radish, and lastly butter

"In master's country they have created something wonderful through raising food"

"Un, in my country we did not compromise on food"

If you travel to tokyo, you can get any kind of food you want, regular b grade shops to gourmet to french. You can get anything without needing to travel abroad

"The dishes that master makes are the best afterall"

Well it is the victory of the foodstuffs company that own the net market and the seasonings

Feru seems to have been satisfied through the power of the wagyu steak

"You made many great dishes today, I think I could even beat an old dragon right now, I am overflowing with energy"

Is you power really to that extent?

All of today's ingredients were from the net market

As for the meat, it was all regular stuff you buy, but there was a large amount

Therefore, I am pretty sure that is just feru's regular strength and not something from the steak

Feru ate many things from my original world

He seems to be filled with energy

I try to judge Feru

〔 Name 〕 Feru

〔 Age 〕 1014

〔 Race 〕 Fenrir

〔 Level 〕 906

〔 Strength 〕 9843 (+5118)

〔 magic 〕 9481 (+4550)

〔 Offensive power 〕 9036 (+4518)

〔 Defence 〕 9765 (+4394)

〔 Agility 〕 9684 (+4551)

〔Skills〕

Wind magic, Fire magic, Water magic, Earth magic, Ice magic, Thunder magic, Holy magic, Barrier magic, Scratch, Body strengthening, attack resistance, magic resistance, Magic consumption reduction, Judgement

〔Divine protection 〕

Protection of the goddess of wind

Are my eyes deceiving me?

After blinking feru's status was still the same

His status has increased by 50%

The status up might be a result of the quality of the meal.

It is apparently it is because of the quality of the meat from another world

But it is surely alright

Then we should check for a time limit

Feru ate many things from the other world, I will check in the morning if the effect is gone

Maybe.....

“oi, It is a waste If I do not do anything with all this overflowing energy so I will go hunt.”

“Woah woah wait, what if I get attack by monsters?”

The sun has already set, and a person being alone will be dangerous

“Then, I will be put up a barrier that won’t lose even to the breath of a dragon”

It even repels a dragon, you.....

“Then, i’m going now.”

After saying so feru left into the dark forest

“...then maybe I will eat my food in the dark.”

When feru is around there is a slight glow, perhaps it is due to his magic that’s why it was fine even when dark.

“The net is very helpful at this time”

I opened the market window and brought a flashlight and batterey

Then it’s good with this.

Because I have not eaten meat is some time I am looking forward to this

A lunchbox with riceballs

And coffee

I drank it every day when I was in japan

“Haa, Rice Balls are always good, even when cold and the coffee is great”

After I have enjoyed my meal I will sleep

I was going to lie down in my mantle, but that did not end well

Then I opened the market again

“hmmm, then I want a blanket and sheets, as well as asoft pillow”

Thanks to feru I had plenty of money so this is fine

Sleeping in the open with this will be comfortable

Then, let's buy it

With a click

“now I do not need to worry about anything, because of feru's magic I should be able to sleep easily”

I was wrapped in soft bedding and was able to fall asleep easily

Chapter 20

Fer-San Musou

I had a good sleep

It it's different than usual because of the bedding.

“Agh! What is that!”

Three heaps of corpses were piled next to me

.....

Even if you were overflowing with energy isn't this a bit over the top, Feru?

Feru, was lying down peacefully asleep on the other side

I do not know what I am to do with the three piles

I guess it will just have to go into my item box after all

But it is fine because my item box stops the passage of time

After all the vegetables I brought online one week ago are still fresh in my storage

With this amount in storage I can take it to the adventurers guild little by little

I could dismantle it myself, but I am a bit weak to gore and things of that sort

We should stop there, let me think

But, I don't even know how many are there

I used judgement on the monster mountains

Giant dodo and fiant deer, these were cought by Feru

The are individuals bigger than last time

After that lockbird x3

Maybe I could use this lock bird in place of chicken

There is also some black serpents which will sell for a large amount of money at the guild

As well as some murder bears which have a large sale price as well

Because they are large and frightening they will be able to sell for a large amount

There is also red serpent

It is just like the black one but different colour

Nn? Actually the overall size of the red serpent is bigger

Next is 5 ork generals and one ork king

Is the ork king the leader?

Why was the king of the orks in a place like this?

Feru, just what have you done?

Feru got up when I was thinking about such a thing

“Mu, what is it?”

When I looked at feru he had a face like he is wondering what is wrong

The large pile of monsters is lickelyl to be the thing Feru cought last night

“no no no, everyway you look at this, this is too many”

“Mu, I was filled with strength, I did this much and I did not even end up tired”

Haa if that’s the case

“Though what is the reason the ork king is here”

“I found an ork village and in that we fought, it became a festival of blood. Though I only brought back the king and the generals because for monsters the strong ones always taste better”

.....Really? A festival of blood?

“Just how many orks were there?”

“It was around 150 of them there”

One hundred and fifty of them..... (this was in katakana)

Feru was non standard to begin with, but with the power supermarket food he became unstoppable

Besides I had no impact on what happened last night

These are all monsters feru hunted

I turned my attention back to the piles and judged them further

Ogre X4... Can you eat this?

“hey feru, this ogre here, is it okay to eat such a thing?”

“the muscle of the ogre is tough and distasteful but the skin is valued highly for armor so I thought it would be good to grab”

Ah, is that so

I was able to afford everything because of feru

In that case let's keep it all for now

Then next is, blue ogre

It is different because the skin is blue

A subspecies?

The reason Feru got this was because it was profitable.

Then, metal lizzard

True to it's name it is silver with very had skin as well as being a lizard

With such hard skin how did feru knock it down

The lizards is as hard as iron

But still it's good because the leather should be would a bit

This lizards death may be to cruel to imagine

Then next is what

It is... chimira?

The chimera with a head of a lion snake and goat?

Isn't that like a final boss

No no no no, that can't be

But it still has all three heads

"Umu, this chimera will be a tasty dish, usually it is a hard fight but I ended it with one blow last night"

To be able to beat such a thing in one hit

This guy is a crazy one

Perhaps it doesn't matter if the rank is A

I got a chill thinking about the day I would take this to the adventurer guild

This is not good

Let's just keep it in the item box for eternity

Yep, it's fine just like that

While in thought I heard feru say he is hungry

He ate a lot last night though

But thinking that is useless

The piles that were in front of me were all put away in the item box

as well as my bedding

Well, what should I make

It will use mostly monster meat

Last night I learnt about the effects of products from the otherworld so I should keep those down

But I will still need to buy the seasoning, the sauce that I used for the spaghetti seemed to have been fine, so that can stay on the menu

I need to think hard about the menu

Everything needs to be moderated

Maybe I can use the meat of a cockatrice that looks like chicken

Chicken saute?

The extra fat of the cockatrice is removed and then lightly seasoned

I put a small amount of oil in a pan and started to cook the meat

The skin crackled and the smell leaked out

And then I cooked the back side until it was brown

After the meat is cooked I made a sauce in the pan

It is good to make it in the same pan because you get the flavour of the meat you just cooked in the fat that come off

In the pan I put butter and some lemon juice and a small amount of soy sauce, lemon butter sauce

Though just the lemon butter is good the soy sauce gives it another edge

The sauce is laid over the cockatrice and the dish is complete

“Feru, it’s done”

I put the dish of chicken saute out in front of Feru

For me I got some bread and made a chicken sandwich

And also canned coffee which i had ordered an abundance of yesterday

The sandwich is delicious

The coffee is delicious

It was good I brought coffee

Though instant coffee might be good

I also want to drink warm coffee

Then sugar and milk is also necessary

The seasonings and vegetables are running low, maybe I should buy them all tonight

“Seconds please”

Yes yes

I made a shopping list while making more for feru

After finishing and having a small rest we got up

“then, let’s go”

Together with feru I walked again

Training magic on the way

Idle Talk 1

A Certain Adventurer's Recollection

"Haaa....."

"Why are you sighing, what's wrong vincent"

"no there's nothing, I just want eat a delicious meal again"

"I think that as well, it was very nice"

"Rita thinks so too, after all that meal was delicious"

Other members were nodding, keenly to vincent agreeing

I also think so too

I remember the guard request I too not long ago

We are the party [[Will of Iron, Will of will of iron]] It is an unforgettable in multiple meanings

The man I introduced to the adventurers guild, I have not seen him around

He was of medium height and build, he seemed like one who would not get married, He asked for guards in the middle of his journey

The man introduced himself as mukoda

Mukoda said he wanted to go to a neighboring company, but the reward was nice at 8 gold pieces so I went along, but I did think that leaving the country is a bit suspicious

The path leading to the other country is a safe one, as a request from the client was he would prepare food, This was a bit strange

But money would also be required for the 5 people

Usually it would just be hard bread and dry meat, a true meal would be appreciated, eating a meal would beat out dried meat any day.

But it clear distinction between that and the meals mukoda prepared

The meal he prepared was not inferior to any well known city store

The bread he prepared was so soft, the sausages were so full of meat and juices, but still have a salty taste, I thought such a thing was impossible

I was pleased I accepted this request

It is natural

To eat such a meal is way better than staying in town

The monsters that came out during the journey were all small fries, then a red boar came out

Usually after hunting you would only take the items that are most valuable, such as the skin and throw away the meat

However mukoda had the so called item box and as able to take everything

With the rare meat mukoda prepared a dish that was from his home town

This was the most delicious thing I have ate in a long time.

But I never thought it was possible

After the meal the smell attracted the beast of legends a fenrir

It was a legendary beast that if you saw it you would not expect much but the power is great

You must never disobey such a thing

I was in a hurry at that time

I felt more dead than alive

I had never come face to face with such a powerful being since I became an adventurer

It has been said that a Fenrir once destroyed an entire country

However, we were not attacked

It said "Feed me!"

Because I was sure we were no match for it I encouraged Moku to do as it said

And when presented with the food the Fenrir ate it

"I will make a contract with you"

I thought I had heard wrong

The legendary beast Fenrir would become a contractor for a human

There is only one record of this over 300 years ago

Usually if this were to happen it will be someone long lived like an elf

Seeing the Fenrir entering a contract was a once in a lifetime thing

Moreover it was the Fenrir that asked for it

The Fenrir was also not looking for a negative response to this question

And the name Fenrir was given to the Fenrir by Moku

I had witnessed a historic moment

But, what reason was there for a contract?

"A monster of legends was persuaded by food!"

All five of us had the same reaction

But mukoda did not have much of a reaction at all

He probably does not know the real power of a fenrir

If he decided to do something no man would be able to stop him

It is said if you try stop a fenrir the only thing in your future is death

I had a cold sweat run down my back

It because those thing are said about feru

I prayed that there are no foolish people who will stand in his way

But mukoda was not phased at all his only words were, if you want meat you just need to catch it yourself

When I heard I the only response I could muster was a wide open mouth

Mukoda told a beast of legend that if it wants to eat it will need to catch food itself it was tempted by food and formed a contract with a human

Any country would try to get feru on it's side

But mukoda seems like he did not yearn for such a thing

He did not have a choice at all

The problem though was how much feru ate

When mukoda said if you want meat go catch it yourself feru returned with a lockbird

I was surprised

It is a demon of B rank

We "Iron will of will of iron" will have a tough fight with such a thing

When we hunter a lock bird I ended up with a broken foot and vincent with a broken leg

And mukoda gave us everything but the meat after dismantlement

Though with this the payment would be too much

However he kept insisting even though it was too much

And in short time the legends of the fenrir were all proven true

I also had a delicious meal

The salty sweet sauce was a rarity

Oops, thinking about the food made me hungry

When I entered the fenen country it was serious

The guards saw that the contracted beast was a fenrir and a commotion started

But in the end we were all able to enter

But in this country is quite dangerous there are no guards unless you are in a fort

But for mukoda it would never be a problem with feru around, he can probably get into any country he wants as trying to stop him will likely backfire

We had entered the town of farieru but we were instantly caught in a quarrel, but then feru stopped it easily

If any trouble comes to mukoda I'm sure that Feru will easily fix it

Those two might be an unstoppable combination

"A~Mukoda how about we go to a restaurant?"

Incent said such a thing

"I think it is a good idea too"

Rita who has a large appetite agreed

“I who is not so related to food thinks so aswell”

Even flanker thinks so

“certainly”

The taciturn ramon

I also think so too

But, compared to that...

“We should be able to meet those too once again”

I nodded at the words of the party members

The legendary beast fenrir and the man who cooks meals able to tame it

I want to meet them again

Chapter 21

Fer-San's Bootcamp

I did my best.

I did that thing of spreading magic powers throughout my body for three days continuously.

That is why, I should be able to do it.

I can, I can do it.

Let's go!

"Fire Ball"

A soft ball sized fire ball appeared above my right hand's palm that I reached out.

However, it cannot be called as a Fire Ball with just that.

It is called Fire Ball once it was shot and exploded.

"Ei~", I threw the fire ball ahead of the road.

The fire ball flew with the speed of a ladies' bicycle.

And when I reached 20 meters away it lost its speed and fell.

"Pon!"

A small explosion(if it could be considered as one) occurred.

I hate myself for saying this but, it's so shabby.

If it's like this, it cannot even become the letter A of the word attack.

Fer is Fer as usual, he scoffed at me with ridicule.

Damn it----!!!

[I have said that there all that you can do is practice but, if it comes to this, how about doing a real fight. Rather than long period of training, there are more things that you can get during a real fight would]

“Well, that might be true but... you mean fight monsters by that right? I can't use a sword, and my magic's just how you saw it. What would you do if I get injured?”

[What, do not worry. I shall make you a barrier. It will block the attacks from monsters, but it will not hinder your attacks. And also, I shall be by your side, there is no need to be afraid]

“But... I don't want to get injured...”

[Eeii, you coward! Hurry up and ride on my back!]

Fer who got pissed off with my whimpering attitude and forcefully placed me on his back.

“H-Hey wait, where are you planning on taking me!”

When I asked that in a hurry, Fer said [Of course it's where there are monsters].

“What! Monsters you say, I'd get killed with my strength right now!”

[It's alright. I shall pick weak monsters that are suitable for you. And I am with you, do not worry]

Do not worry you say, of course I'll be worried!

Call me a coward or whatever, but you shouldn't make someone fight a monster so suddenly.

[Nu, there's a goblin. Good timing. I shall erase my presence so that it will not notice, so you should be quiet as well]

After saying that, Fer ran.

Damn your “good timing”.

.....what the heck is this.

There are so many goblins.

The place Fer took me to was the settlement of goblins.

No, no, no, isn’t this too ridiculous.

What the heck do you want me to do bro.

[Hurry up and shoot]

“What the heck are you saying, that’s absurd, look how many they are”

[Nu, I told you I shall create a barrier. There, it is alright now]

“Alright you say, damn your it’s alright!”

[You coward. If you shall not go, then I will]

Saying that, Fer howled [Wuu----n].

Hey, don’t howl here!

Look, the goblins looked here at once.

Ge! They noticed us.

GYAAAAAA, a whole lot of goblins with clubs and swords and axes are coming--!!!

[Hmph, with this, you have no choice but to fight. Shoot and shoot and shoot magic so that your body shall remember it. I shall hunt higher tiered goblins]

“Hey! Don’t leave me alone!!!”

Damn your [Shoot and shoot and shoot magic so that your body shall remember it]!!

Damn it!! I'll remember this, Fer!

Uwaaa! Goblins are coming---!!

"Fire Ball! Fire Ball!! Fire Ball!!!"

My shabby fire ball hits the goblin.

Although it's shabby, fire is fire, so damage was dealt to the goblin.

I continued to shoot Fire Ball.

My surroundings were already full of goblins, but even if the goblins swing their clubs, slash with their swords, or try to split my head with their axes, all of them were blocked by the barrier that Fer made.

But even so, the looming army of goblins raises my fear.

And as if to dispel that fear, I shot and shot and shot Fire Balls.

"Fire Ball! Fire Ball!! Fire Ball!!!"

Just like Fer has said, I shot and shot and shot Fire Balls.

"Fire Ball! Fire Ball!! Fire Ball!!!"

Damn, I'm not yet finished!!!

"Fire Ball! Fire Ball!! Fire Ball!!!"

And then, what happened was that the more that I shot, the more its speed and power increased.

It looks like I grasped the feeling after getting used to shooting so many times.

I continued to shoot Fire Balls.

"Fire Ball! Fire Ball!! Fire Ball!!!"

I shot once, I shot twice, I shot many times.

How long has it passed since I started shooting Fire Balls.

“Haaa, haaa... F-Fire Ball!!!”

The volleyball-sized Fire Ball flew with quite some speed, hitting the goblins and exploded.

That shot was my ideal Fire Ball itself, but it was also the last one.

“I-I can’t do, no more...”

Is this what they call, drying up magic powers?

I can’t conjure any strength.

There are still many goblins remaining, but I can’t move anymore yo.

[Hmph, see, you can do it if you want to]

“Fer...”

Ohhh, he returned.

I’m already finished.

I-I’ll leave the rest to you.

As soon as I saw Fer’s appearance, I lost my consciousness at the same time.

Chapter 22

Bean Jam Bun, Strawberry Jam Bun, Cream-Filled Bun And The Shocking Truth

“n..... u-uwaa, goblin!”

When I jumped up and looked around, in the dark, Fer was beside me.

It was already this time huh, it means that I have lost my consciousness for so long huh...

[How was it? The real fight was a good experience right]

What experience you say.

Making me encounter such a terrible situation.

It's a light trauma, seeing small dirty green goblins coming all at once.

I'll probably have nightmares about a huge number of goblins chasing me for a while.

[The last Fire Ball, it was quite good though]

Saying that, “Un, un”, Fer nodded.

[It is all thanks to me that you finally can use magic]

“What thanks to you. I'm a beginner you know, we should've started with one or two. But skipping that, you suddenly brought me to a goblin village”

It is true that the last Fire Ball that I shot was great.

But, but, I think that taking me to a goblin village so suddenly should be reconsidered.

[It is your fault, being so slow to learn that level of magic]

Gununu.

This is why I hate geniuses.

“There’s no way that I can do it like Fer right. Fer could use Identity too so you should know my status points right”

Really, there is the difference between heaven and hell between Fer and me.

[Nu, you, it looks like you have leveled up]

Eh? You serious?

I hurried up and used Identify on myself.

〔 Name 〕 Mukōda (Tsuyoshi–Mukouda)

〔 Age 〕 27

〔 Job 〕 A person from a different world who got caught

〔 Level 〕 3

〔 Stamina 〕 110

〔 Magic Powers 〕 110

〔 Attack Powers 〕 83

〔 Defense Powers 〕 82

〔 Agility 〕 78

〔 Skill 〕 Identify Item Box Fire Magic

Familiar

<Contracted Magic Beast> Fenrir

〔 Unique Skill 〕 Net Super

Yay! I leveled up!

My stamina, magic powers, and the other status points also increased.

Ah, also, there’s the Fire Magic in my skills.

I’m now a magician with this! My job is still a person from a different world who got caught huh.

This, I wonder when it will change?

It would change if my level goes up or my skills increases, right.

...don't tell me, it would be like that forever, no way right?

No, no, no, there's no way.

[That's right, take this]

When I was thinking about this and that about my status, Fer suddenly stood up.

And, he rolled a large green colored object that was about two and a half meter towards me using his forepaws.

“Uoh!”

It was a super large goblin.

When I identified it, the result was Goblin King.

Goblin King you say, Fer-san...

It's true that you told me that you were going to hunt a higher tier goblin, but, to think that there was a king in that village.

That means, Fer brought me to a village with a king huh.

[There is a magic stone in that Goblin King. Magic stones can be exchanged for money between humans right? Goblins cannot be eaten and they are useless, but that Goblin King has a magic stone so I brought it all the way]

Ah, was that so.

That means, Goblin Kings are more than B-Rank huh.

“Is Goblin King B-Rank or A-Rank?”

[Rank? I do not know the rank you are speaking of, but if you became as great as me, you would be able to tell whether they have magic stones or not]

He~ is that so.

Then, if I can ask Fer to preferentially hunt monsters that have magic stones, then I am going to be filthy rich huh.

But hey, I won't do it though.

If I do something like that, it would absolutely bring me troubles.

[You have also lost your consciousness after all. Carrying you and that Goblin King while moving, would be very hard for me as well. That is why I waited for you to wake up]

Fu~n, and so?

I wonder why is Fer-san stealing glances from earlier?

[That one possesses a magic stone]

Un, that's why I'm asking you what then.

[Magic stones can be exchanged for money right?]

That's true.

When I went to the adventurer's guild a while ago, with the B-Rank Giant Dodo and Giant Deer having magic stones although they were small, their purchase prize jumped high.

[If so, should you not reward me with the food from the other world?]

Haaaaaa?

This guy, he got addicted to the taste of the Domestic Japanese Black Wagyu Meat Steak huh.

“Hey listen, there was a lot of monsters at that time right?”

[Mu, did I not hunt a lot of monsters a while ago as well. Most of them has magic stones too you know]

They're those that you got when you went on a hunting spree while saying you got full of vitality after eating the food from the Net Super right?

Of course, that's not counted.

It was the fault of the Net Super/other world's ingredients after all.

"Hey listen, I still have a lot of money from the ones sold to the adventurer's guild so I won't be selling the ones you hunted a while ago for the time being you know"

[Nu, is that so. I shall give up with the other world's food then. However, I am hungry]

Really, he remembered such a weird thing.

Thank goodness he didn't make things difficult.

However, I'm not in a great shape you know.

I have depleted my magic powers so my body is a little dull.

Making food for Fer is troublesome.

And also, I need to pay him back for throwing me into a group of goblins.

This, it should be the punishment, not making him eat meat.

I opened the Net Super's window.

E~to, it should be sweet things when one's tired.

Bean Jam Bun and Strawberry Jam Bun should be good, I really like them as well.

The same should be enough for Fer, but hey, he eats a lot so I should buy him Cream-filled bun as well.

For the meantime, five pieces for each.

After that, when you say Bean Jam Bun and Jam Bun, it's canned coffee right.

Oh, it looks like I could buy canned coffee in a box, let's pick this.

Since I'm going to buy a canned coffee box, the instant coffee that I thought of buying isn't needed for the time being huh.

Also, I planned on replenishing the stock on seasonings and vegetables, but I want to them while looking carefully, so I'll leave that to next time.

Well then, let's calculate all of it.

The remaining amount that I charged is only little, so I additionally charged 5 gold coins and paid all of it.

I took out the Bean Jam Bun, Strawberry Jam Bun, and Cream-filled bun and placed them in front of Fer.

[What, is this?]

"Bean Jam Bun, Strawberry Jam Bun, and Cream-filled bun. It's a sweet bread"

[Mu, is there no meat?]

"Fer asking me who have just woke up after collapsing to prepare food huh?"

[Gununu. I got it, this is enough]

FunFun, Fer smelled it then ate the Bean Jam Bun.

[Mumumu, this is quite tasty]

Eh, you can eat sweet bread too?

When he ate the Jam Bun next, [Ohh, this is good too], he seemed to like it.

And the Cream-filled bun, [This tastes like thickened milk. This also tastes good], he likes it as well.

Eh-! Fer also likes sweet food?

This isn't pay back at all

[Another]

Rather, he's even asking me for more.

I mean, you'd eaten 15 sweet bread you now, you'd be eating too much if you eat some more.

You should pay attention to diabetes (I don't know if Fenrir would be diabetic though) and tooth decay, if not, you won't be able to eat meat anymore.

"You'd get sick if you eat too much of sweet things you know"

[Hmph, how would I get sick. Rather than that, give me some more]

It couldn't be helped so I added Bean Jam Bun, Strawberry Jam Bun, and Cream-filled bun, two pieces each while asking "What do you mean by not get sick?".

[I have the blessings of the Wind Goddess Ninril-sama after all. In my case, other than being better at using wind magic because of her being a goddess of the wind, not mentioning poison and diseases, it would neutralize all kinds of status ailments. By the way, neutralizing of status ailments would be added with any blessing from a god. A god's blessing is something like that]

Just having a god's blessing, would neutralize all kinds of status ailments?

Eh, what, that shocking truth.

A god's blessing, that's cheating.

Neutralizing all kinds of status ailments, isn't that already cheating with just that.

Fer is strong even without the blessings right.

It is me who needs a god's blessing you know.

Dear god, I don't care who it is but, please give me your blessings----!!

Chapter 23

Coming To Light Of Fer Being Able To Use Telepathy

“Hey, Fer, were traveling without deciding a specific destination but, do you have a place you want to go to?”

For me, after leaving that stinking Leysehel Kingdom, traveling for a while then going to a country that is a far away from that kingdom is enough.

[If so, how about going to the west? There are many delicious monsters in the deep forest in the west]

“West? What country is that called in the west?”

[Nu, I do not know]

Not know you say...

“It’s important what the country’s name and what kind of country it is you know. It’s dangerous if wars starts or something”

[Mu, I do not know the name of the country. Whether humans fight each other or not, it has nothing to do with me. After all, humans starts fight here and there]

Not knowing the country’s name huh, it was my mistake asking Fer.

Well, if you’re as strong as Fer, you’d be uninjured even if you charge in the middle of wars, and there might be no need to know the state affairs or names of the countries.

But, in my case, I can’t be like that.

Since he’s saying that people fight here and there means that wars between countries never end in this world.

People were saying that, that Leysehel Kingdom would be on a war with Malbare Kingdom after all.

As I've thought, as long as I am in a journey, there is a need to know about the countries in this world and their state affairs for once.

If so, what I am going to need is a map.

Up until now, we have been bypassing villages along the way, not entering them because there's the thing about Fer as well.

But, I want a map so we should enter the next one.

[There is a village ahead]

Fer told me that he could detect presences and he could distinguish places where people and monsters are.

[Are we bypassing again?]

“No, let's enter this time. I want a map”

When the entrance of the village was in sight, the gate guard-like person shouted “Stop!” and pointed his spear towards us.

“I'm an adventurer named Mukouda. This is my familiar!”

When I shouted to the gate guard, he said “Prove it!” , so I replied “Just look at my guild card”

I would rather like to show the guild card from the merchant's guild, but since Fer is with me, I could only show the adventurer's guild's guild card that could prove that he's my familiar (other than the name and rank, the familiar would also be written there).

To my reply, one of the two gate guards nervously approached.

“This is my guild card”

“U-Umu, it looks like it is really your familiar. I-I-Is that, a-a Great Wolf?”

The gate guard seems to have mistaken him as a Great Wolf, so thinking that it would be better than saying he’s a Fenrir, I didn’t refuse and said “Yes”.

[Oi “Shh”...]

Fer was about to talk so I made him shut up.

He’s so afraid of him being just a the Great Wolf, I don’t know what would happen to this gate guard if he finds out he’s a Fenrir.

Also, there are many villagers who were looking from afar.

[I am not a Great Wolf]

Suddenly, Fer’s voice echoed in my head.

“Uoo!”

“n, what is it”

“N-No, no, it’s nothing, yes...”

“I see. Even so, to make a familiar of an A-Rank Great Wolf, you, you’re an amazing adventurer huh”

I vaguely smiled to those words of the gate guard.

[I said that I am not a Great Wolf]

Fer’s voice echoed again in my head, and I stared intently at Fer.

[Nu, this huh? This is telepathy. Those who are bound by familiar’s contract can send telepathize with each other]

He~, this is the first time I heard about it though.

[Umu, this is also the first time for me to have a familiar’s contract so I have completely forgotten about it]

Fer-san, it's bad if you forgot such important things right.

But, since he said that those who are bound by familiar's contract could telepathize with each other, does that mean I can also talk to Fer via telepathy?

[Ah~, ah~, ah~, Fer, can you hear me?]

[Umu, I can hear you]

[The reason I said that you're a Great Wolf, it is because it's better if it's like that. Just think of it, they're that frightened just hearing that you're a Great Wolf. If they find out that you're the legendary magical beast Fenrir, what do you think would happen?]

[Mumumu, but...]

[No buts. It's far better than having unneeded troubles right. From now on, we're going to say that Fer's a Great Wolf every time we enter human villages or towns]

[Nu, why?]

[If they find out that you're a Fenrir, the country or nobles would move you know. If that happens, wouldn't it be troublesome]

[That might be true, but is it not enough if I annihilate all of those countries or nobles or whatever that comes]

Annihilate all those comes, he said... I thought of this before but, Fer's a muscle head huh.

[Annihilate them you say, if you do that to all of those that come, we'll lose all the places we could stay in. Also, if you always do things like that, the human countries would unite and say something like "Destroy all Fenrir-! Death to all Fenrir-!" you know. That is going to be troublesome itself right]

[Gu! That is really possible]

[I know right? That's why to make things more easier, let's just say that you're a Great Wolf]

[If you really insist, then it cannot be helped]

[Ah, also, when we're inside the human villages or towns, let's normally talk using telepathy. They'll find out that Fer's a Fenrir if you started talking after all]

[Mu, yes I got it]

After we finished talking using telepathy, we were safely allowed to enter the village, but...

The looks of the villagers are painful.

In the end, even the village chief came out.

"Welcome to the village of Reiden. It seems like you are an adventurer but, for what reason have you come in such a place?"

"Actually, I wanted a map, so I went by to this village..."

"Such expensive thing like a map does not exist in a small village like ours. If it exists, it would be in the town of Rautel four days away from this village. There's a bookstore there, and a public library as well"

It seems like in this world, paper is not only valuable but all of the books are hand written so they are expensive. He said that maps are also written on paper and of course, written by hand, so although it might be sold in a bookstore, it would be with a high price.

Such expensive things are only sold in decent sized towns, but the town of Rautel is the next largest town to the royal capital so there should be many things there, he said.

I finished asking what I want to ask from the village chief-san so we immediately left the village.

The villagers seem to be unable to calm down with a huge magical beast like Fer around, so I really felt from the village chief-san his wish for us to hurry up and leave.

A village that's unkind to unfamiliar ones huh~.

Well, the next destination is decided so I don't mind though.

The town of Rautel seems to be four days from the Reiden Village just following the road.

“Well then, let’s go to the town of Rautel. But, four days huh~, I want to have a map soon”

[n? If you want to hurry up, would you like to ride on my back?]

“I’ll be thankful if you can carry me, but, don’t go with the speed just like before okay”

[With that speed, we could arrive there with just one day you know. Or is it that, do you want to arrive more quickly?]

“No, no, no, I almost fell down at that speed, I’ll die with more than that. The pace of having two days in a four-day distance is good. Please don’t go at such speed okay”

[It feels a little slow, but I will follow what you say]

And just like that, we went to our destination, the town of Rautel.

Chapter 24

Giant Deer Actual Eating

“O~i, Fer, the sun has fallen, so let’s go camping around here today”

When I called out while being shaken in Fer’s back, Fer stopped his steps.

[Umu, let’s eat. I am hungry]

Yes yes, you let me ride on your back today after all.

I’ll bring out meat, Fer’s favorite.

If that is so, I should bring out something that you’d really feel like you’re eating meat.

If it’s like that, this one might be good.

I took out the Giant Deer’s meat from my item box.

Giant Deer, literally a huge deer-like monster.

Actually, I have once eaten deer before.

A senpai co-worker received fresh meat from his relative that is in a hunting group, so I was treated to eat it in senpai’s house.

According to that relative in the hunting group, deer meat is eaten best by making it a steak, so senpai made some deer meat steak.

Deer meat has the image of being tough and has some distinct taste, but it was very different when I ate it.

Although it’s chewy, it’s not hard, but it didn’t have a distinct taste and it was delicious.

This Giant Deer meat is similar to the deer meat that I ate in senpai’s house because it has a red meat that has low fat so I might be able to make it.

I'm thinking of copying what senpai made and make a Giant Deer steak.

First, I put small cuts on the Giant Deer meat that I divided, and pounded it with the back of the knife.

Deer meat has a lot of fiber so pounded it and cutting it would make it a soft and juicy meat.

After that, I sprinkled salt and pepper on the Giant Deer's meat and let it sit for a while.

After a while, I melted butter in the frying pan and begin to fry the Giant Deer meat.

When the both sides had fried color, it's finished.

"Fer, here it is"

I served the Giant Deer Steak to Fer.

Well then, I shall eat it as well.

MoguMogu..... ohh! So good~.

It doesn't have a distinct taste and is decently chewy, the more I chew it, the more meat juice it releases.

It doesn't have a strong flavor so I can eat it all that I want.

[Seconds]

It looks like Fer also felt it was delicious and immediately asked for seconds.

I fried the additional Giant Deer meat.

The taste of the next one... Ja~n, it's the classic steak with soy sauce.

I really think that it's this when it comes to steaks.

It looks like Fer liked it as well.

First, I made it with garlic, the one that Fer said he likes the best.

[HaguHagu... umu, umu, it is delicious]

After that, I made it in the order of daikon-oroshi flavor, onion flavor, and butter flavor.

I also ate an additional onion flavored steak.

It doesn't have a persisting taste so I ate another one.

[Giant Deer tastes good eaten like this huh]

Well, he probably usually ate it raw after all.

Japanese food companies are great, really.

Even so, the Giant Deer's meat tasted greater than I expected.

Burp... it was so tasty so I couldn't help but eat too much.

Although it was smaller compared to those I made for Fer, eating two pieces of steak is too much after all huh.

Well then, after finishing cleaning the cooking utensils, preparing for bed is next.

To prepare the bed, first, I placed laid out cardboard.

It's the cardboard that comes out when I buy things in the Net Super.

I have understood, it is wrong to place futon directly on the ground.

I placed it directly on the ground without thinking very well at first, so the moisture in the futon that I bought was terrible.

It would be great if there were slat foundations, but well, those aren't sold after all in Net Supers right.

And so, I thought of things that I should lay down under the futon, and "Ahh, there's the cardboard box", I thought.

The cardboard boxes increases every time I buy things in Net Super, but they were completely trash up until then.

As trash, together with the bags where the food ingredients that I bought in Net Super are placed, they were placed deep within my Item Box.

However, laying the cardboard like this and placing the futon on top of it, there isn't a lot of moisture absorbed, and it doesn't get dirty.

It is the good utilization of the cardboard box.

It's eco, it's eco.

[Oi, prepare my bed as well]

Alrighty~.

Seeing me sleeping on the futon, Fer said [That looks good. Prepare mine as well], asking me, and I couldn't help but buy it in the end, yes.

It's uncomfortable with just me sleeping on the futon, and it's also Fer who's earning money after all.

That's why, well, I don't mind, but Fer's body is huge so could only buy three futons.

On top of the cardboard, I laid down three futons for Fer's use.

"Fer, I finished making your bed"

[Umu]

Goron, Fer laid on the side on the futon.

It looks like he's sleepy after getting full.

[Kuaa~]

Look, the legendary magic beast is making a huge yawn.

"Just make sure you make a barrier before you sleep okay"

[I got it... I made it. I sleep now]

Saying that, Fer immediately started to sound asleep.

“So quick! You slept already huh. Well then, I should sleep as well”

I can sleep without worries thanks to the Fer’s barrier.

I slept deeply on MY futon.

Tomorrow is finally the town of Rautel.

Fer said something like we’d reach it before lunch.

It would be great, if we could enter it peacefully though...

Chapter 25

Arrival In The Town Of Rautel

It was so troublesome entering the town of Rautel.

Rather than because Fer was around, it was because there was a very long line of people entering the town.

And lining up there, screams were raised as well.

It was so troublesome explaining to everyone around, "He's my familiar, so it's alright".

And getting near the gate, there was also a problem, the soldiers wearing full plate armors near the gate stopped us while pointing their spears.

"Stop!!"

"Fer, please stop"

When Fer stopped, the soldier holding a spear approached.

"Is it a familiar?"

"Yes. He's my familiar. Please check my adventurer's guild card"

I showed my guild card to the soldier.

"It's true, it's really a familiar. Is that a Great Wolf?"

"Yes"

"That's amazing of you, making a familiar of an A-Rank monster"

"Yes. I believe that I was very lucky"

"On top of having a familiar's contract, he's carrying you as well so I think that it is alright, but in the case where anything happens, it will be your crime as the owner of the familiar. In the case where casualties appear inside the town, there will be cases where you would be punished to death or turned into a slave according to the scale. Be careful on using your familiar”

“I understood”

Fuu~, although I was given warning, he let me enter so easily.

But, punished to death and turned to slave..... that’s too scary.

I mean, there’s really slaves huh.

There’s no human rights in this different world huh. This world, it’s so scary.

First, I need to get an inn.

Ah, it might be faster just to ask the soldier in the gate.

When I asked the soldier about an inn where familiars could also stay, he suggested “Elmira’s Inn” in the third corner after passing through the gate.

I went to the inn the soldier told me.

The town of Rautel, as expected of being second to the royal capital, there were many people.

There are not a lot of them, but I could see beastmen that has cat ears and tails here and there.

But most of them are wearing collars, so they might be slaves.

Although some people see me and Fer walking together and get stunned, they did not make commotions.

I could hear “A familiar huh...” whispers, so there might be many adventurers who bring familiars with them in this size of towns.

When I reached Elmira’s Inn, the lodging fee was 8 silver coins including the familiar.

I let Fer stand by on the beast house, and went to the bookstore I asked in the inn.

When I entered the bookstore, there were old looking books filled inside.

I searched around the store looking for something like a map, but I didn't find something like that.

Instead, I found an interesting looking book.

It's called [A Magic Introductory Book for Dummies].

This, I want this.

Right now, I'm able to use Fire Magic/Fire Ball somehow, but learning other magic spells would be equal to the increase of my own protection too.

I heard that books are expensive, but how much would it cost normally?

"Excuse me, how much is this book?"

The store owner took a glance towards me, and said "It's 7 gold coins".

Uwaa, it's so expensive!

Even this costs 7 gold coins, this, I'll refrain.

I heard that there's a library in this town as well, so let's look at books about magic there.

The thing that I want which is the map, that at least, I should buy it even if it's expensive.

When I asked if they have some map here, the store owner said "There's no way that a common bookstore has something like a map".

According to him, only those in a high position like the military authorities in the royal castle would have something like a map.

Ah~, I see, maps would be a class of military secrets huh.

Well, of course I can't get them in my hands.

While I return to the inn, I thought of what should I do about the map.

It's not like I want a very detailed map though.

I just want a world map that roughly shows this country is around here, there's this kind of country in the north, and there's this country in the south, something like that.

The state affairs for each country, I should be able to know about them by listening to adventurers in pubs where adventurers seem to gather.

Ah, I might be able to hear about the neighboring countries from the adventurers.

Adventurers, from how their jobs are, they would visit many countries after all.

If that is so... would there be an old map in the library?

I don't mind even if it's an old map, as long as it roughly shows this continent's shape, and if I write the countries there with the stories I hear from the adventurers as a base, I think that I would be able to make a decent map.

Yosh, let's do it like that.

I should go to the library tomorrow and find some old map.

Ah, I also want to look at books about magic.

Chapter 26

I Went To The Library

Well then, I'm planning to go to the library today.

When I said that, Fer started complaining (mostly about his food), so I fried a lot of meat in the morning, and left a lot of sweet bread that he pretty much likes as well.

Well, it should be alright.

I asked the where the library in the inn.

I have already bought college notebook and ballpen in the Net Super for writing down notes yesterday.

Well, shall we go to the library then.

.....

...

I'll say the result.

A map, there wasn't any.

I even paid 2 silver coins for the entrance fee... I'm disappointed.

I tried to search a lot for a long time, but a map-like thing was not written in any book.

After searching for a long time, when I started to think that it doesn't exist, I went to look at books about magic, but although there was only a short time when I started looking at them, I found out a lot of things.

And what I found out was, anyone possesses magic powers, but without how to use it (about how I circulate my magic powers all over my body), one cannot activate magic.

The reason why everyone has magic powers but those who came become magicians are limited is because some cannot sense the magic powers or they cannot use magic powers properly (circulate magic powers all over the body).

The basic, Fire Magic–Water Magic–Wind Magic–Earth Magic, as long as you are suitable for it and know how to use it, you can easily learn it comparatively.

However, special magic, Ice Magic–Lightning Magic, if you are not able to use all Fire–Water–Wind–Earth magic, it would not activate. In the first place, magicians who could use all Fire–Water–Wind–Earth magic is few, so the ones who could use Ice Magic–Lightning Magic is very few.

Additionally, about Recovery Magic, if you do are not suitable and not train in the church for a period of time, you cannot use it.

About Holy Magic, it is more special, and it is a magic that is only limited to those who have the job Hero, Saintess, or Holy Knight. It looks like one could use Lightning Arrow (Spear of Holy Light) that has high attack powers, and Holy Light (Light of Purification) with it.

When it comes to Sacred Magic, rather than special, it's described as legendary. First, one cannot learn it if they don't have blessings from a god. Because those who have blessings of a god is rare in itself, it is not clear what kind of magic it is. However, according to legends, one could kill an army of monsters with one blow or ruin a country with it.

The racial characteristic magic, Plant Magic–Darkness Magic, as it name says, only a certain race could use it; it is said that only elves could use Plant Magic and only the demon race could use Darkness Magic.

I wrote all of the things that I found out about magic in the notebook after checking no one is looking, yes, until the librarian found me.

I wasn't able to find the map that I wanted, but I should be content learning things about magic.

“I’m back”

When I came back to the inn where Fer is, Fer was sulking.

[You’re late]

The lots of food that I left in the morning disappeared with nothing left.

“Sorry, sorry”

[Hmph. You have returned too late that I cannot bear my hunger]

“I’ll make it right away so don’t be like that. I’ll add a lot more meat, so”

[Food from the other world is good]

Haa~, that huh.

But, if he eats many ingredients from the Net Super/other world, he’d start getting full of liveliness.

But well, it’s true that I came back a little late, so I should let him have some.

I purchased yakitori and tonkatsu in the Net Super. (TL: Japanese grilled chicken on stick, pork cutlet)

The amount is a little many.

Although, it is for Fer though.

I removed the yakitori from its skewer, and also put the tonkatsu on a different dish.

“This should be enough for the food from the other world. For the others, I’ll fry you some meat so wait a little bit”

Fer was whispering something like the amount’s too little, but I ignored him and fried some meat.

The seasoning is, as usual, steak soy sauce and yakiniku sauce.

When I served those meat piled up to Fer, he started to eat greedily.

I also have other places that I want to go to after this so I can't spend too much time.

I wasn't able to find a map in the library, so I want to hear the state of affairs of the countries from the adventures.

A-re? Come to think of it...

Looking at Fer who was eating greedily, I remembered.

It's about the magic that I researched in the library.

There's the Sacred Magic, and if I'm correct, Fer should have something like that...

I identified Fer.

[Name] Fer

[Age] 1014

[Race] Fenrir

[Level] 906

[Stamina] 9843

[Magic Powers] 9481

[Attack Powers] 9036

[Defense Powers] 9765

[Agility] 9684

[Skill] Wind Magic Fire Magic Water Magic Earth Magic Ice Magic Lightning Magic Sacred Magic Barrier Magic Claw Slash Physical Strengthening Physical Attack Resistance

Magic Attack Resistance Magic Powers Consumption Reduction Identify

[Blessings] Wind Goddess Ninril's Blessings

Sacred Magic, it was there after all.

Well, it was written that it cannot be learned if one doesn't have blessings from a god, so it isn't strange that Fer who have Wind Goddess Ninril's blessings have it huh.

Fer is really a legendary magic beast huh~.

He usually doesn't look like one though.

n? Wait a second, something like killing an army of monsters with one blow or ruining a country is written in the book but, I feel like the story about a country getting destroyed is only recently...

[Burp, umu, it was delicious]

Fer said satisfied after getting full.

Fer, Fer, Fer... ah.

That story is about you---?!!!

Chapter 27

This Is Not A Kind World

I left Fer at the inn again and came to this town's pub.

It's to ask adventurers many things.

This town is a huge town so I thought that there are adventurers in any pub but it looks like this store is a "hit".

It looks like it's a store where adventurers visit, and there are many adventurers inside.

What I had taken a look on are four adventurers who are probably in the same party.

"Uhm, can I ask you something for a while?"

I immediately called a waiter and ordered ale for the 4 adventurers.

"Oh oh, you know your stuff huh"

The tough looking skinhead man that seems to be their leader tapped me on the shoulder and made me sit.

"And so, what do you want to know?"

"I am doing something like peddling while traveling, but I have started this kind of job. That's why, I thought that I'll be really thankful knowing about each of the countries' situation from everyone who is well-experienced adventurers"

"What, that's what you mean huh. If it's like that, it's just good that you asked us"

After the leader said that, the beastkin (Probably a tiger?) that has a similar strong looking body like the leader nodded and replied "It's true that we visited many countries".

“Ou, what the hell are you looking at?”

When I looked at the beastkin member while thinking “is he a tiger?”, he glared at me.

“You idiot, beastkin other than slaves is rare in this country you know”

When the other member said that, the beastkin member nodded with understanding.

“About that huh. It’s true that in this country, when you say beastkin, it’d be slaves. Even so, this country is still well-off”

When the beastkin member said that, the other members including the leader said “That’s true” , and nodded.

According to them, the Sacred Kingdom of Rubanoff and the Geisler Empire and the Soles Kingdom that is treated as a vassal state of the Divine Kingdom especially treats races other than humans like beastkin, elves, and dwarves very badly.

The Geisler Empire is a completely dictatorial military state and those who does not obey the emperor, death is the only thing waiting for them, and the beastkin, elves, and dwarves are treated the same as domestic animals.

The Sacred Kingdom of Rubanoff is a humans supremacist religious state and in this country, those who believe in the Rubanoff Religion claim that those who does not has the fate of destruction. They believe in their own god, treating the beastkin, elves, and dwarves as heretics, and does cruel things to them without batting an eye.

The state of affairs of the Soles Kingdom which is treated as a vassal state of the Sacred Kingdom of Rubanoff does not differ much to the Sacred Kingdom of Rubanoff.

The fate of the beastkin, elves, and dwarves who became slaves in this country is full of misery.

Compared to that, although they are slaves here in this Feenen Kingdom, they have it better for them because on top of having cheap wages, their minimal lifestyles are guaranteed.

“What about the Leysehel Kingdom? I have passed through that country but, I feel like I did not see beastkin...”

“Ahh, that country too”

The Leysehel Kingdom is also a human supremacist country just like what the Rubanoff Religion believes, and they normally do not allow beastkin, elves, and dwarves to enter the country.

However, ever since the current king, their territorial expansion had pushed through, constantly making battles here and there.

And in those battles, it is an open secret that beastkin, elves, and dwarves who should not exist are participating.

Also, they said that it is famous that many nobles in the Leysehel Kingdom have female beastkin, elves, and dwarves as sex slaves.

.....this, is not a kind world.

The Malbare Kingdom that is bordering the Leysehel Kingdom, which is also these 4 adventurer's homeland, they said that it is a good country where one doesn't need to worry about racial discrimination.

However, they were not blessed with their neighbors.

It is the demon race's territory to their north, the Geisler Empire to the south, the Leysehel Kingdom and the Sacred Kingdom of Rubanoff to the east.

The adventurers said that their territory is constantly being targeted.

In fact, very recently, the confrontation of both of the armies of the Leysehel Kingdom and the Malbare's Kingdom in their borders has continued, and it is being said that the war is only a matter of time.

Come to think of it, I heard in the town of Keels that war is going to start between the Leysehel Kingdom and the Malbare Kingdom.

Probably, these 4 also have given up on that motherland and left it.

“If we had families in that country, we wouldn't have thought of that, but we're all orphans”

According to them, they're comrades who grew up in the same orphanage and became adventurers.

There seems to be a warning from the adventurer's guild to the countries to not prohibit the movements of adventurers above C-Rank, so unable to make enemies out of the giant organization that exceeds that of a country, every country, although reluctantly, allows that.

"We also passed through Leysehel coming here, but the looks that those guys in that country gave me is disgusting"

The beastkin member spat that out.

U~n, hearing their story, this world, is it really alright?

I feel like I came to such a terrible world...

Continuing the conversation, the name of the Kuraasen Empire on the east side of the Leysehel Kingdom came out this time.

This country is a country that has a very long history, but according to them, it is currently turbulent within the country because of the internal troubles in the house of the emperor.

Also, they said that from the south to the center of the continent are small countries whose name are not even clear.

They said that the situation there is that there is rivalry between warlords, so adventurers do not get close there as much as possible.

"But, about 5-6 years before, small countries in the seaside gathered up, and made, hmm, what is it called again, "It's the Quinn Republic", that's right, the Quinn Republic was created, but it's said that they're already on the brink of splitting up"

Un, I should not get close to those small countries as much as possible.

After that, the Erman Kingdom and the Leonhart Kingdom to the east of the continent.

Both the Erman Kingdom and the Leonhart Kingdom are a comparatively free country, and most of all, their armies are super strong so there are no worries about getting invaded.

On top of that, these Erman Kingdom and Leonhart Kingdom is in a good-neighbor policy, so their current internal affairs are stable.

“We’re also on our way to Leonhart. We’ll also go to Erman though”

According to them, there are many dungeons in both the Leonhart Kingdom and the Erman Kingdom, and both countries are countries that are profitable for doing adventurer’s work.

It came out huh, the dungeon.

It really exists after all.

I’m a little interested but, I would probably never enter it.

After all, safety first is the best.

Life is very important!

But, hearing many things from the adventurers, my destination is decided.

It’s only either the Erman Kingdom or the Leonhart Kingdom.

Both seems to have a stable state of affairs so whichever one is good.

The problem is, if Fer knows the route there or not.

It would be great if maps exist in these kinds of situations though.

Chapter 28

I Encountered A Ripoff

“If there was only a map~...”

“n? What, you want a map?”

The leader seemed to have heard my mutterings and said that.

“Eh, ahh, yes. I just thought it would be really convenient having a map, even if its just rough”

When I said that, the 4 adventurers looked at each other while whispering to me.

“Oi, actually, we have a map”

Eh! Seriously?

“I have a senpai adventurer that I’m friends with, I got it from that adventurer he returned”

Oh~, that’s great, how envious.

I also want a map.

“Of course, it’s not a detailed one that the upper ranks of the army have, it only shows roughly where the countries’ positions are”

Un, un, I don’t need something very detailed.

As long as I can tell the positioning of the countries, I’m fine with that.

“And so, if you want it, I can sell it to you”

I-Is that for real?!

“This map is already in my head after all. There’s no problem even if we don’t have it. And so, how about 1 gold coin?”

One gold coin huh, u~n...

I want a map, but 1 gold coin huh~, though of course I know that paper is valuable.

1 gold coin huh~, it makes me hesitate.

“Can I take a look at that map?”

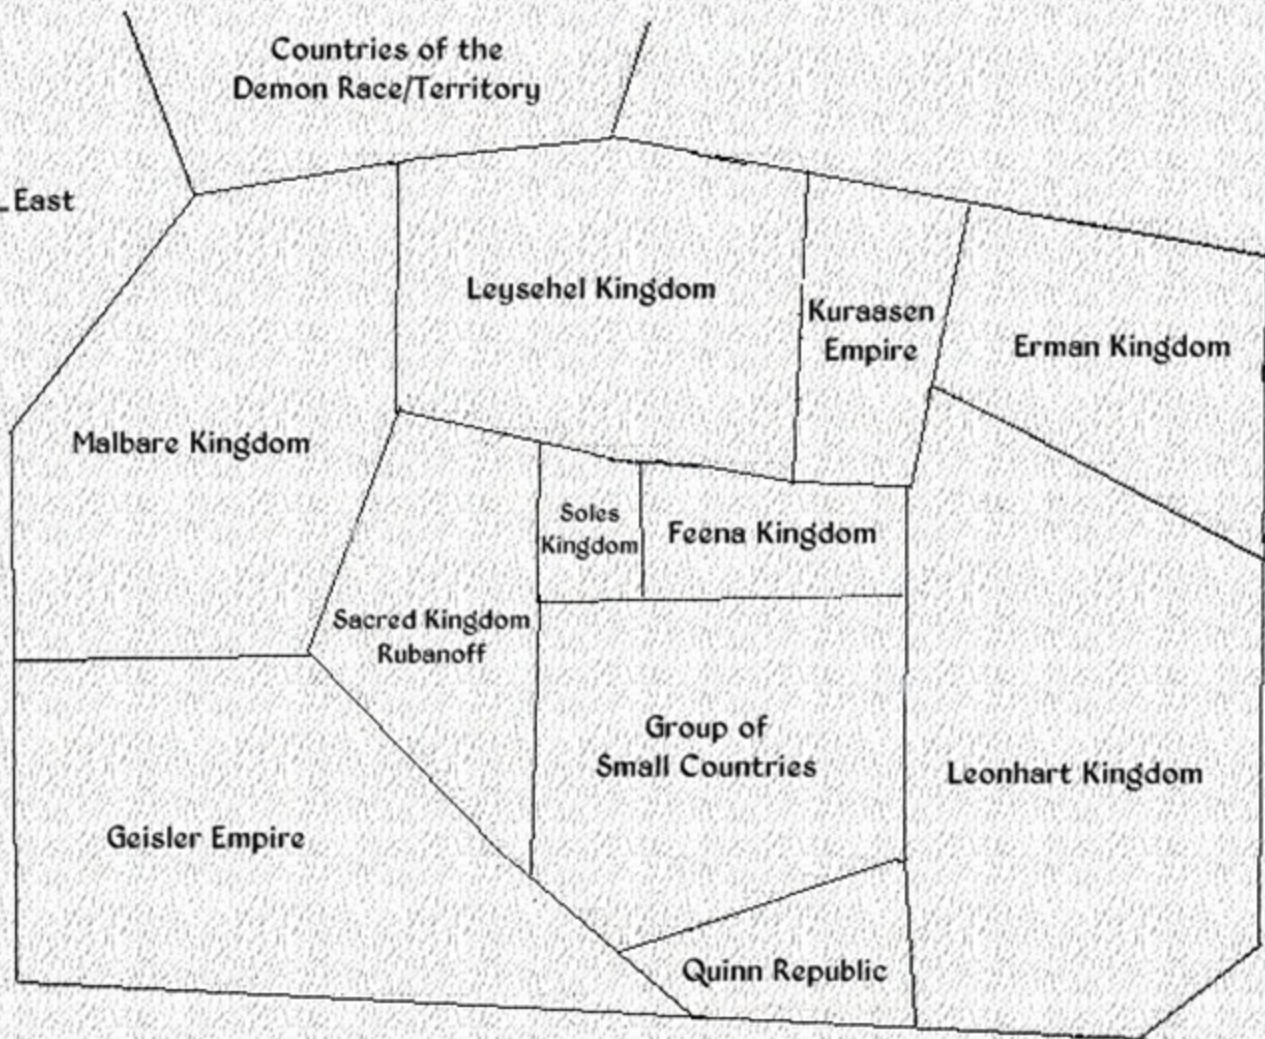

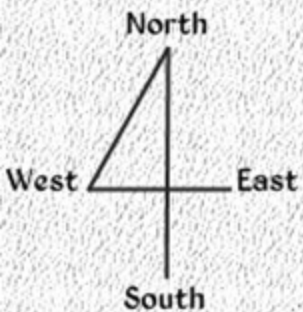

It seems better to decide after looking at it.

“Ou, it’s alright”

The leader took out a folded map from his pocket.

He showed me the map.

Un, it's really very rough.

But, with this, I can tell the positioning of the countries.

I want it, but I hesitate to pay 1 gold coin for this.

"I'll say this, this is very valuable you know"

I know that.

It couldn't find it at the bookstore, and didn't find a clue in the library as well.

"But, since you treated us with alcohol like this, I'll give you a discount. Let me see, how about 8 silver coins?"

8 silver coins huh.

I want a map, and paper is valuable, u~n...

Yosh, I'll buy it.

It's something that is better to have, so 8 silver coins as expenses cannot be helped.

"I'll buy it for 8 silver coins"

"Yosh, sold then"

I gave the leader 8 silver coins and gained a map.

"Well then, we have early mornings so we'll leave now"

"Yes. Thank you for the good conversation. Also, the map too"

"Yeah, it's alright. See ya"

Saying that, the 4 adventurers left.

Ohh~, I got a map.

Since it couldn't be found in the bookstore, I thought that I could make one by hearing stories from adventurers if an old map could be found in the library, but in the end, there wasn't something like a map in the library.

I thought that it's already impossible to get a map, but to think that I would get one here.

My luck is good.

"Pu!..."

"Kusukusu"

...what? There are adventurers looking at me and laughing.

"Pu! Oi, you guys, it's not good to laugh at him you know"

One adventurer said that to the guys who were laughing.

Although you're saying that, aren't you laughing too.

"Uhm~, is there something?"

I can get angry with this right?

When I said that annoyingly to the man because I was laughed at, he replied "Sorry, sorry" , it was as if he didn't feel sorry at all.

"Earlier, we heard what you were talking about but, you were cheated"

Ha? What are you saying?

Cheated, you say, what do you mean?

"You, you bought a map from the adventurers right?"

I bought it but, so what?

"That thing, it's normally sold at the adventurer's guild"

..... ha?

No, no, no, w-wait a second.

Normally, sold, at the adventurer's guild?

...HAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA??

"I also have one. Look"

Saying that, the thing that he showed me was exactly like the map that I bought for 8 silver coins from the adventurers earlier.

When I was stunned seeing that same map, the man threw in additional bombs.

"By the way, that's sold at the adventurer's guild for 1 silver coin" one, silver, coin...

8 silver coins for 1 silver coins---?!!

UO000000!! I was cheated----!!

"Those guys, they actually sold it so highly huh, 1 silver coin for 8 silver coins. Gahahahaha"

With those words, the adventurers in the pub laughed out loud.

Damn it, don't laugh at me.

I want to cry you know.

"You know, this map, it's made by the adventurer's guild from what they heard from adventurers. That's why, although it's paper, it's price is also made at a price we could afford"

"That's right. Well, there are also adventurers who doesn't by maps and rely on their memories, but there are a lot of those who buys maps. And then, they would write things like the towns and villages they passed through, were there a lake along the way, places where monsters often appear near this town, and make it a map on their own"

“There are also guys within the adventurers who are mainly active in their own country would copy that country to a large size, and write in it specific details. Although, those things are their assets so they can’t let other people see it so easily”

“Come to think of it, there’s also maps sold in the merchant’s guild”

“Well, both adventurers and merchants walk all over the countries after all”

The laughing adventurers said that one next to the other.

It’s not only sold in the adventurer’s guild, but in the merchant’s guild too huh.

The bookstore’s owner didn’t say anything like that though.

The bookstore owner should be registered at the merchant’s guild too, but bookstore owners doesn’t look like they walk through towns or countries to sell things, so he might have been clueless about that.

Anyways, you adventurers laughing there, if it’s like that, it would’ve been great if you told me beforehand~.

“““““Well, it’s your fault getting cheated”“““““

...that is very true.

Gunununu, I feel frustrated but they’re right.

In this world, I’m sure that something this much wouldn’t even be a crime.

I can only think that I learned something from this.

Tohoho...

Chapter 29

I Got The Fish~!

After that, I returned to the inn unsteadily.

I didn't think that I would encounter a ripoff.

Though there's Fer too so, I have avoided towns, and it's also my fault for not visiting the adventurer's guild and merchant's guild.

And when it comes to adventurers, the Iron Will that accepted my bodyguard request from before gave me a strong impression so I didn't imagine that I would be tricked.

I have a strong impression that in this world, royalties or nobles, guys in the upper class are doing what they want using their authority, but if you think about it, there are also good guys and bad guys in merchants and adventurers.

There are also good guys and bad guys in my previous world so it is natural.

Anyways, it's that, let's leave this town.

And hurry up to the Erman Kingdom or the Leonhart Kingdom.

Although the way I got it is pretty much 'that', I was able to get a map after all.

Un, that's a good idea.

After taking breakfast with Fer, I quickly prepared to leave the town.

"Well, let's go then"

[Is it fine already?]

"Yeah, let's hurry up and go"

After leaving the town of Rautel, we casually moved through the road.

“Fer, after this, I’m thinking of going to the Erman Kingdom or the Leonhart Kingdom”

[I would not know it even if you tell me the name of the country. What direction is it?]

“Both the Erman Kingdom and the Leonhart Kingdom is to the east. It’s the country that is facing the east sea”

[Ohh, the east sea huh. There are Sea Serpents and Krakens there. Those are really delicious]

.....a-an ominous name.

Sea Serpent sounds like a dragon living in a sea, and Kraken is a giant squid right.

I think, they’re both boss class characters though.

No, no, no, I didn’t hear anything, yes, un.

I mean, Fer also likes seafood huh.

[Of course I like meat the best but, I also eat fish sometimes]

Is that so.

If you think about it, he’s eating sweet breads and says their delicious, so he probably eats anything.

[Fumu, talking about fish, I started wanting to eat some. It will be a shortcut to the east if we break through the forest, and there is also a lake along the way. Oi, let’s go]

Eh, that’s already decided?

“O-Oi, is it alright breaking through the forest? Think about it, there’s monsters and dangerous guys right?”

[Hmph, who do you think am I? Those worries are unneeded]

Ah, is that so.

But, Fer might be strong, but I'm not like that, so.

[I will make a barrier for such puny thing like you, do not worry]

Puny...

No, well, that might be true, no, it is a fact, but I'll feel down if you say it so frankly.

[Hurry up and climb my back]

Alright, alright.

When I climbed Fer's back, [Let's go], Fer said and started running inside the forest.

"S-So fast, so fast, so fast!! Go more slowlyyyyyy!!!"

I shouted while clinging to Fer's back who ran like flying.

[Hold tightly so you would not be shaken off. We will go to the lake at this speed]

The victory of appetite.

Damn it! The explosion of the gluttonous character here!

"GYAAAAAAAAAAA-----!!!"

"Ahh---..... ah-... a-..."

My shout echoed throughout the forest.

Thanks to Fer's absurdity, we immediately reached the lake.

Haa, haa, haa, I thought I'd die.

He ran at such speed inside the forest you know, just thinking about it... BuruBuru.

All I could do was to desperately cling onto Fer.

When I am lying on the ground with my limbs stretched out, thinking “a stable ground gives such a feeling reassurance huh”, Fer’s face showed right above my head.

[Oi, let’s eat fish]

.....oh dear Fer, can you please let me rest for a while.

Really, Fer’s appetite doesn’t know where to stop.

But, eat fish? How are you going to catch one?

There’s no fishing rod too. Don’t tell me you’re going to enter the lake?

[This is the best way to catch fishes]

After Fer said that...

BARIBARIBARIBARIIII!

An electric shock ran to the lake surface.

And then, Bukka--the fishes started to float one next to the other.

The lake’s surface immediately became full of fishes.

.....Fer-san, that’s too much.

It’s probably Lightning Magic, but what are you going to do with this many fishes?

[I shall bring them to the shore using Wind Magic, so take what you like]

“Take what I want? This, aren’t all of them dead?”

[I sent them an electric shock so they are only in an almost death-like state, they will revive later]

Ahh, it was like that huh.

Though it's a disaster for the fishes-san.

Well then, let's go get some fish.

Oh, there are many violet colored fishes.

When I used Identify, Violet Trout came out.

Its size is about 30cm so it might taste good grilling with salt.

I placed the Violet Trouts inside my item box.

Well, I do not feel like taking all of those that are floating on the lake's surface, but taking many of them is fine since we'll be eating them later.

I'm also eating meat all the time recently and I want to eat fish too, so it's not bad placing them in my item box since I'll be able to eat fish anytime.

Oh, what's this pretty big one?

It's a silver fish around 80cm size, and King Trout came out when I used Identify.

If it's this big, even I would be able to fillet it.

I should get lots of these.

Oi, what the heck is that?

Within the Violet Trouts and King Trouts, a huge fish about 3 meters long was floating.

[Ohh, isn't that a Lake Shark. How rare]

When I asked him about it, it looks like even Fer who have lived for a very long time have only seen it a few times.

Although it seems like its meat is not suitable for eating.

Well, although its meat can't be eaten, it's a monster that big, and since it's a monster that even Fer describes it as rare, it should probably be sold.

For the meantime, I placed it inside my item box.

[Get some of this too. It tingles the tip of my tongue and delicious]

Fer said that and brought a fish to the water in front of me using Wind Magic.

Uwwa! What the heck.

It's a 50cm fish that has shocking pink and blue stripes.

It looks like something that absolutely has poison...

Anyways, I used Identify and found out that its name is Poison Lake Fish.

That's no good.

I mean, this clearly has poison but, is Fer alright eating this?

"Fer, you ate this fish right?"

[Yeah, I have eaten it many times. It tingles my tongue and it is delicious]

"I think that thing that tingles your tongue is poison. This fish, it looks like it's called Poison Lake Fish. Does Fer not use Identify before eating?"

[Something like using Identify before eating, I do not do such a troublesome thing. Having blessings of a God, poison does not work on me]

Ah~, god's blessings huh.

Nullifying all kinds of status ailments right, that really sounds good~.

How envious.

"It might not have an effect on Fer who has god's blessings, but it's poison for me after all. I won't take something like this. Also, even if you don't eat something like this, aren't I making you food properly?"

[Mu, that's true, but this in its way...]

“A fish that has poison, there’s no way that I’ll keep that together with other food ingredients. I’ll make you a good meal using the Violet Trout and King Trout that I took right now so be satisfied with that”

[Mumumu, it can’t be helped]

Chapter 30

I Ate Fish After A Long Time

Well then, it's fish after a long time.

How should I cook it?

I should roast this Violet Trout as a whole with salt, fillet this King Trout, u~n, maybe foil grilling or meunière is good too.

If it's like that, there's no more butter and I need to buy wheat flour.

After that, I should also buy mushrooms for the foil grill.

I opened the Net Super, and bought butter, wheat flour, mushrooms, and the seasonings that I usually use as well.

After that, I shouldn't forget the aluminum foil that is going to be used for foil grilling.

Other than that, oh, this might be good occasionally.

I bought the needed ingredients and started cooking.

I'm going to roast the Violet Trout as a whole with salt so, if it's like that, it's more delicious when cooked directly on the fire so I should start from collecting firewood.

We are in a forest so the firewood was quickly gathered.

I ignited that.

Of course, I made the fire using magic.

I am practicing it too, so I've become better at Fire Magic.

With this, the preparation for cooking it is finished.

First, I removed the insides of the Violet Fish.

There's also people who say that the bitterness of the organs tastes good, but I don't like it that much so I'm in the group that removes the insides.

After removing that, I stabbed the Violet Fish with a decent length branch that I picked up when I collected firewood earlier and sprinkled salt.

And, I placed the branch around the bonfire and started cooking it.

While that cooks, it's the King Trout's turn.

First, I will fillet it.

O~to, there's too much meat on the backbone part.

Well, as long as the back bone's removed it's good although the shape is a little weird.

First is foil grilling.

After spreading butter on the aluminum foil and added onions, I placed the sliced King Trout there and lightly sprinkled salt and pepper.

On top of that, I placed Shimeji and Enokitake and lightly sprinkled it with wine, added butter and closed the aluminum foil.

And I started baking it at the edge of the fire.

Next is meunière.

I sprinkled salt and pepper on the slice of King Trout and wipe out the moisture after a while.

After doing that, I thinly put the flour and cooked both sides in a frying pan.

Oh, it looks like the Violet Trout is cooked, the foil grill also started swelling, so it is baked very well.

I removed the Violet Fish that had a brown color from the branches and lined them up after that.

The foil grill's foil expanded, so it's complete after adding ponzu vinegar.

I put ponzu vinegar because I feel like it today.

By the way, adding soy sauce before closing the foil, butter-soy sauce is delicious too, and just adding salt and pepper tastes good as well.

I lined up the cooked meunière on the plate, and it is complete after adding the tartar sauce that I bought from the Net Super.

The usual butter and soy sauce meunière is good too, but since I used butter in the foil grill, I added tartar sauce.

“Fer, it's ready~”

I called out, and Fer came flying.

He bites into the grilled Violet Trout.

[Umu, umu, the fish after a long time is delicious]

Thank goodness then.

Well then, I should eat too.

The companion is this, I saw it in the Net Super, so I started wanting to drink it after a long time, a canned beer.

It's not like I really love alcohol, but you'd want to drink it sometimes right.

The grilled Violet Trout's skin is crisp and delicious.

The foil grill as well, the King Trout and mushrooms tastes great and really fits well together with the ponzu vinegar.

About the meunière, the protein-rich King Trout really tastes great with the tartar sauce.

Although I made it myself, it is really well made.

It's good with beer too.

Kubiri, beerrr so good.

The fish after a long time tastes good too.

[There's nothing left, give me seconds. This one enveloped by silver color and white one is good. This white one has a strange taste but it is good]

Ah~, yes yes.

Foil grilled and meunière right.

Fer liked the tartar sauce huh.

Tartar sauce--it's delicious after all.

I cooked additional foil grill and meunière while drinking beer.

I made both butter and soy sauce, and salt and pepper for the foil grill, and since Fer liked the tartar sauce, I made the meunière just the same.

I continued to cooked "seconds".

[Fuu, the fish after a long time was good]

Since Fer likes meat the best but looks like he's okay with fish too, I should cook fish from now on too.

Fortunately, we got many fishes today.

There's a big one too.

I should ask to dismantle that the next time I visit the adventurer's guild.

Chapter 31

When I Noticed It, My Familiars Increased

“Stone Bullet!”

One small stone bullet flew as far as 20 meters and fell after decelerating.

.....how disappointing.

Right now, I am practicing Earth Magic, but it is not going well.

I am now able to release the Fire Magic’s Fire Ball decently, so I tried a different magic.

The “Water Ball” that I thought when it comes to Water Magic did not have any reaction even though I chanted it.

And the “Wind Cutter” that I thought when it comes to Wind Magic did not react at all too.

And so, lastly, the “Stone Bullet” that I thought when it comes to Earth Magic, it only created a tiny stone that can even be described as sand when I chanted it.

When I got happy having an aptitude with Earth Magic, Fer who was looking at what I was doing scoffed at me.

“Damn it”, I thought, so I did my best to practice Earth Magic recently, but it wasn’t going well too.

I don’t know why though.

I think that I’m revolving my magic powers around my body quite well too.

I shot a Fire Ball to test it, and it went well.

Why doesn’t it go well with Stone Bullet...?

It activated although it's shabby, so maybe I can only practice repeatedly.

[You learn very slow]

Gununu, don't think that everyone's a cheat like you.

[How about training with actual combat again? Your Fire Magic became better with that before too right?]

I remembered the horde of goblins with those words from Fer.

That's a nightmare, a nightmare I say, Bururu.

"Don't joke around. Who'd want to experience something like that again"

It is true that I became better when it comes to Fire Ball, but the fear when I was left alone in the middle of the goblins was terrible.

[However, you are not able to use Earth Magic properly at all]

Haa, that's why I hate geniuses.

No one would have a hard time if they were able to do everything so quickly.

Ordinary people like me can only practice continuously.

When I was about to prepare Fer's and my bed after eating dinner, it was suddenly there on around my feet.

"Uoo!"

A bubbly transparent creature that is the size of a soccer ball was moving slowly.

"...isn't this, a slime?"

[I guess so]

“Eh, Fer, didn’t you make a barrier?”

[Of course I did. It might already be inside when I made the barrier]

“Isn’t there no meaning for the barrier if there are monsters although you made it?”

[Hmph! Is there a reason to be scared a diminutive creature that cannot even be described as a small fry? You are really faint-hearted]

Yeah yeah, I’m a coward okay.

Even so, is slime not that dangerous since it’s a diminutive creature that can’t even be a small fry?

“Does slimes not attack?”

[There might be some that attack from their higher level races, but that level of slime can only be predated. And from its size, it is probably a slime that was just born]

I see, Slimes is almost always treated as mob monsters, but it looks like it is the same in this world.

It won’t attack huh.

I got interested and poked the slime around my feet.

PuruPuru.

It is slightly cold, and the wake it shakes is like jelly.

It looked very interesting, and when I continued to poke it, the Slime timidly poked back to my finger.

It’s somewhat, cute.

Even so, what a friendly Slime this is.

“Hey Fer, are slimes usually this friendly?”

[Did I not say that that is a slime that was just born. Usually, it would hide and run away whenever it sees people or monsters other than their same race]

I see.

A slime that was just born huh, I wonder how it's status is?

I identified the friendly slime around my feet.

[Name] --

[Age] 3 Days

[Race] Baby Slime

[Level] 1

[Stamina] 2

[Magic Powers] 1

[Attack Powers] 1

[Defense Powers] 2

[Agility] 2

[Skill] --

.....so weak!

3 days of age? It looks like it was really just born.

Its race is Baby Slime too.

I'm sure, it is going to grow bigger and bigger and evolve to a Slime from a Baby Slime.

But, the Baby Slime right now looks so weak that it might get killed by other monsters immediately.

It's this friendly and cute too...

I should at least feed it.

Slimes are written like they eat whatever or anything, but is it really so?

"Hey, do you know what slimes eat?"

[They can eat pebbles around there]

They also eat pebbles huh, they're really omnivorous that eats anything huh.

If so, is that okay too?

I thought of that, and took out the things that I stored inside my item box.

The trash from the things that I bought from the Net Super.

The cardboard boxes can be used to lay my futon and Fer's futon, but the trash other than that...

I have a lot of the plastic bags where the vegetables are placed in, the instant soup's boxes, the bottles where spices are in, empty cans, plastic bottles, and etc.

I placed an empty can in front of the slime for testing and it poked the empty can like "Is it okay?" , and placed it inside its body.

The empty can that was taken in inside the slime's transparent body was quickly digested.

"Ohh, that's amazing!"

The slime twined around its tentacles to my feet as if to ask for more.

"More? Wait a second"

I quickly placed the trash that piled up in front of the slime.

The slime placed all of those inside its body and quickly digested it.

"Ohh, we're empty. The piled up trash disappeared without a trace"

The slime ate all of the different world's trash that piled up.

Honestly speaking, I'm troubled on how to take care of the different world's trash.

It is not like I can throw it away carelessly, so I have kept all of it inside my item box up until now.

So thinking of that, this slime did a great job.

“You, you’re amazing huh”

When I said that, the slime jumped like a super ball.

“n? Do you understand what I’m saying?”

The slime that jumped around jumped into my chest.

“Ohtto”

I hugged the slime while supporting it with my arm and the slime shook with satisfaction.

“You, you’re really friendly although you’re a slime”

I patted the slime while saying that.

[Oi, that one, it became your familiar]

“.....he?”

[I said that that slime became your familiar]

“Eh? We didn’t make a familiars contract though?”

[The contract is made if that slime thought that it is fine becoming your familiar and you accepted it]

“He? I-I didn’t accept that though?”

[Whatever you say, the contract has already been made. Check your status]

Fer said that so when I checked my status...

[Name] Mukouda (Tsuyoshi–Mukouda)

[Age] 27

[Job] A person from a different world who got caught

[Level] 3

[Stamina] 110

[Magic Powers] 110

〔 Attack Powers 〕 83

〔 Defense Powers 〕 82

〔 Agility 〕 78

〔 Skill 〕 Identify Item Box Fire Magic

Familiar

<Contracted Magic Beasts> Fenrir Baby Slime

〔 Unique Skill 〕 Net Super

Ueh?!

There's suddenly Baby Slime in my contracted magic beasts!

Chapter 32

The Baby Slime Sui

The slime that I had contracted as a familiar when I noticed it.

I named it Sui.

I won't comment even if you say I don't have any sense.

Sui's current status is like this.

[Name] Sui
[Age] 6 Days
[Race] Baby Slime
[Level] 8
[Stamina] 24
[Magic Powers] 21
[Attack Powers] 18
[Defense Powers] 20
[Agility] 21
[Skill] ---

For some reason, its level has increased a lot.

Though I think that it's the effect of eating the other world's garbage...

It's not like there's anything with the things bought from Net Super (For example, your stamina or magic powers increasing when you sleep using the futon), so I think that there's probably some effect from absorbing the things from the other world.

By the way, the effects of the time limited bonus of stamina or magic powers were not shown from Sui.

What my guess is, Sui is very weak from the start, so its overall level increased.

And then, those guys with a certain level would have a time limited bonus.

If not so, it will be the difference of leveling up whether it is not food ingredients or not.

However, testing that is very difficult.

After all, you know, those who eat garbage might be limited only to slimes.

It would be great to test it when I saw a slime, but slimes are very hard to find.

When I asked Fer about it, he said that slimes are weak so as long as it is not a high-level species, they would normally hide or runaway.

Well, it's not a bad thing for Sui to level up, so it's fine though.

Sui is a very thankful existence too.

She would eat the trash and would clean the dishes. (TL: it is not written whether there are she or he in slimes, but I'll use "she" for convenience's sake)

At first, she digested even the dishes, but when I told her to don't eat the dish, only the stains, she cleaned them up properly.

Thanks to Sui, the stains that stuck to the frying pan was cleaned.

I have been using the Net Super's dishwashing soap whenever I wash the dishes, but it would use a lot of water when washing with that amount of bubbles.

It is alright when there are sources of water or a river nearby, but it is very troublesome when there is none.

But thanks to Sui, the need of using water was lessened to a small quantity.

She would eat the other world's trash happily too. Sui's really a good girl.

And that Sui's fix position is inside the cloth bag that I have bought from the clothes store in Leysehel Kingdom's capital that I have completely forgotten about.

She seemed to like that position and behaves well.

And I am on top of Fer.

We are currently sprinting through the forest at high speed.

But even so, he's saying that the speed is much slower than before/

"Fer~, the sun's about to set, let's camp around here for today?"

When I called out to Fer, Fer dropped the speed.

[Meat is good]

Yes, yes.

I brought out a lot of meat for Fer, and while I ate vegetables as well, Sui ate her dinner of the other world's trash.

It is currently after dinner, but for some reason, I really wanted to eat sweets.

There are times when you really want to eat sweets right?

When I searched in the Net Super, I found some that really looks tasty.

"Dorayaki, it looks tasty"

When I muttered that, Fer stood up abruptly and came to me.

[What looks tasty? I shall not forgive you eating just by yourself]

Yeah, yeah, oh, Fer, are you okay with swee... it was a foolish question.

There's no way that he wouldn't like sweets although he ate that many sweet breads.

Sui also wobbled and seemed to want to eat as well.

One should be enough for me and Sui, Fer would probably easily eat five.

I bought 7 Dorayakis and a tea bag set because I wanted to drink tea as well since we're eating Japanese Treats.

I took out the Dorayaki from the bag to a dish and put it in front of Fer.

For Sui, I took out a Dorayaki and put the Dorayaki and bag in front of her.

I boiled water and prepared tea.

“Dorayaki’s so good~. Zu--, tea’s good too. It’s really green tea when it comes to Japanese treats”

[Ohh! The skin around it and the black thing inside taste well together. This is delicious]

As I’ve thought, Fer easily ate the Dorayakis.

Sui also seemed to get excited and wobbled a lot, so she probably felt it was delicious.

She also ate the plastic bags (including Fer’s Dorayaki bag and mine) properly.

U~m, I feel guilty for eating sweets before sleeping, but it is most delicious.

Chapter 33

Wind Goddess Ninril's Blessing (Small)

“Fuua~~”

When I crawled out of the futon, Sui also woke up with me.

Sui is sleeping with me on the futon.

Did she like it when she entered the futon on the first day? Sui would immediately follow me after I entered the futon.

Fer who would usually wake up at the same time as I do was already awake.

n? He seems a little different from usual.

“Oi, do you have an upset stomach or something?”

[I do not have such thing as an upset stomach. If the first place, it is impossible for me to get sick. Oh really, that does not matter. I have an important thing to talk about with you]

Fer said that with an earnest, or rather a serious voice, so I also fixed my posture.

[Last night, the Wind Goddess Ninril-sama has given me an oracle]

Ha? Is there something like that, when you have a god's blessing?

According to Fer, it seems that those things happen from time to time when you have a god's blessing.

In Fer's case, he said that Ninril-sama would appear in his dreams when he is sleeping.

[About Ninril-sama's oracle, it has something to do with you]

Hoe? Me?

[With Ninril-sama's generous consideration, it was that you shall be given a blessing if you wish so. However, you must offer and pray at the altar with the other world's sweets once a week]

.....why the other world's sweets?

Don't tell me, the Goddess saw us eating sweet breads or dorayakis in our journey that she started wanting to eat it?

No, no, there's no way huh.

[At this occasion, it is Ninril-sama's mercy after reading your thoughts of wishing for a god's blessing, however, she cannot give the same blessing that I have. Regardless of that, if it is God's Blessing (small), it is possible to grant you if you offer the other world's sweets in the altar once a week]

...this, don't tell me she really just wants to eat sweets?

Goddess-sama, what in the world are you doing?

[Although it is God's Blessing (small), the status ailment nullification will work as long as it is not things that have instant death effects, or very powerful curses, and it would make your magic activation better as well]

He, is that so?

Even if it doesn't work on instant death effects or powerful curses, having status ailment nullification and better magic activation? Isn't that great?

I'll say this although I'm the one who would receive the blessings, but is it really alright to give blessings for just something like that?

[This is Ninril-sama's mercy. Receive it with gratitude]

Hahaa--.

If I would receive a God's Blessing (small), I'll offer sweets or whatever.

Receiving a status ailment nullification and better magic activation, all that I can say is that I'm very thankful.

“Of course, I will pray with offerings if I would receive a God’s Blessing. But, offering it on an altar? I don’t have an altar, how would I do that?”

After all, we’re in the middle of our journey you know?

I need to give prayers and offerings once a week, but it’s not like there would always be a temple nearby.

[It does not matter what kind of altar it is. You could even go as far to make an altar out of the stones lying around. The most important thing is to pray with feelings. Close your eyes and pray with feelings of gratitude towards Ninril-sama. If so, your prayers shall reach Ninril-sama]

Hou, hou, I see.

Well then, I should immediately pray to Ninril-sama with offerings.

E~to, what should I use as an altar...

Ah, a cardboard box should be enough.

There’s a lot of it inside my item box too.

I placed the cardboard box upside down, and use it as an altar.

[There is something that I forgot to say. Ninril-sama wishes the first offerings to be Bean Jam Bun, Jam Bun, and Cream-filled Bun]

Goddess-sama, to make requests using an oracle... she’s not so simple.

Goddess-sama, you were looking at us from the time when we ate sweet breads?

Women really loves sweets after all~.

After all, the women in the company I was in declared that there’s always room for desert. (Looks far away)

Most probably, she thought of what she must do when we were eating sweet breads but held back, but finally couldn’t endure it when we ate dorayaki yesterday.

I bought Bean Jam Bun, Jam Bun, and Cream-filled Bun, also coffee milk on the sides from the Net Super.

I made an offering of Bean Jam Bun, Jam Bun, and Cream-filled Bun together with coffee milk to the cardboard box altar.

Rather than offerings to a god, it's like a tribute.

After that, I closed my eyes, put my hands together, and prayed.

“Wind Goddess Ninril-sama, I have prepared the offerings you wish. Please take this coffee milk that goes with them very well too. Please give me your blessings. Thank you very much”

When I opened my eyes, the Bean Jam Bun, Jam Bun, and Cream-filled Bun together with the coffee milk had disappeared from the cardboard box altar.

Owwa! It disappeared.

I don't know how it works for a different world's gods, but it looks like she received it.

Would I have a God's Blessings with this?

When I checked my status...

[Blessings] Wind Goddess Ninril's Blessing (small)

The Wind Goddess Ninril's Blessing (small) has been added to the last part.

God's blessing, thank God.

Ninril-sama, thank you.

I will give an offering of dorayakis later.

God's Blessing (small), I got it!

Idle Talk 2

The Disappointing Goddess

This is the God's Realm.

The world where gods live.

Wind Goddess Ninril, this goddess that has a long silvery white hair and a pair of clear blue eyes has a godly beauty suitable for the gods.

Ninril is in her palace, in front of a reflecting water surface that can see different worlds or lower realms when divine powers are infused in it.

“Nuoo~! I-Isn't that the Bean Jam Bun that I even saw in my dreams?!”

When I used my divine powers and took a peek at the world called Earth for the first time, that thing was being eaten deliciously.

The impression of the appearance of the human I saw eating it while saying “delicious, delicious” remained clearly, and I have wondered what taste it would have.

Bean Jam Bun... all I could find out was it was sweet.

Because I rarely intake sweets, it made me more interested.

However, even if I am able to look at different worlds using my divine powers, I am unable to gain objects.

It is not of my world after all.

Gods have rules for gods as well.

Although it is allowed to look at other worlds, we must not intervene.

That is why, although I wanted to obtain that Bean Jam Bun that much...

When I coincidentally peeked at the Fenrir that I bestowed my blessings upon and made my kin, he had suddenly made a familiar's contract with a human.

When I thought of why did he make a familiar's contract with just a human, I found out that the person that Fenrir contracted with was a person from a different world.

On top of that, he is a human from Earth.

He is a skill user of that very strange and peculiar [Net Super].

I understood that it was a skill that can summon the different world Earth's food ingredients and other things.

Ever since I understood that, I became curious about that person from a different world and the Fenrir's party, so I would peek on them from time to time, but...

"Oh my, to think that he can summon a Bean Jam Bun. That many as well... I want to eat too"

However, even if it is my world, it cannot be forgiven to intervene so casually.

It would not set a good example for other gods.

However, Bean Jam Bun.....

Gununu, I must endure.

But, Bean Jam Bun.....

When I was peeking at the lower realms, as usual, the Fenrir, my kin that I bestowed my blessings upon, was eating sweets deliciously.

"W-What is that, w-what in the world is with that Dorayaki! That's unfair, you ate that many Bean Jam Bun just a while ago. I want to eat too, I want to eat too, I want to eat too~!"

I love sweets.

But, in this world of mine, the things called sweets are limited.

After all, when one would say sweets, there would only be dried fruits or honey.

But those guys..... that's unfair, that's unfair, that's unfair~!

I want to eat sweets too.

Ah, that Fenrir is my kin that I bestowed my blessings upon.

If it is that Fenrir's Master, it should not be that strange to give me prayers and offerings right?

Un, un, that's right.

That person from a different world was saying something about wanting a god's blessing too, so he shouldn't be cheap if I bestow him my Blessings (small).

I immediately gave oracle to that Fenrir, and told him to tell that person from a different world to give me prayers and offerings.

Offerings should be once a week.

There is a chance that other gods would find out if there were too much.

It will be troublesome if they find out.

My goddess friends, the Goddess of Fire, Goddess of Water, and Goddess of Earth would ask me to give them sweets, and the God of War and the God of Blacksmith would tell me to give them alcohol.

It seems like that different world's alcohol can also be bought with that [Net Super]after all.

If they found out, there is no doubt that they would gather.

It is either that, or try to gain sweets and alcohol themselves by bestowing blessings to that person from a different world.

If that happens, my share will decrease, right?

Bururu... I should be careful not to let them know.

Oh, it looks like that Fenrir told that person from a different world about my oracle.

Fumu, fumu, it looks like my Blessings (small) did its job.

Bean Jam Bun should be the first offerings.

And I also said to offer that Jam Bun and Cream-filled Bun that they ate together with the Bean Jam Bun.

Ohh, he started to pray and offer.

Well then...

I teleported the offerings which were the Bean Jam Bun, Jam Bun, and Cream-filled Bun and also that Coffee Milk that the person from a different world added using my divine powers.

“Ohh! T-This is the Bean Jam Bun that I saw even in my dreams. And there’s Jam Bun and Cream-filled Bun too”

Let me see, I quickly took a bite on the Bean Jam Bread.

Muaha~, it’s delicious, it’s delicious, it’s delicious~!

Is this black thing sweet boiled beans?

It has a subtle sweetness that is hard to describe.

To envelope this sweet beans with buns... the person who made this Bean Jam Bread is a genius.

Un, un.

Mu, I should drink the Coffee Milk that the person from a different world offered on the side.

Let me see, put this in here huh.

Chu~chu~.

Mumu, this is, this soft bitter sweet drink fits good with the Bean Jam Bun.

Person from a different world, good job.

I shall praise you.

Next is Jam Bun.

Muho~, this Strawberry Jam Bun is delicious too~!

The boiled red fruit tastes good being bittersweet.

And to envelope that with buns, the person who made this Jam Bun is a genius.

It's delicious~, it's delicious~.

Ha! There's nothing left.

I still want to eat, so next is the Cream-filled Bun.

Muhho~, this Cream-filled Bun is delicious too~!!

This milk that was sweetened and boiled has a thick, good taste.

To envelope this with buns, the person who made this Cream-filled Bun is a genius.

It's delicious, it's delicious~, all of them are delicious~.

The combination of these Bean Jam Bun, Jam Bun, Cream-filled Bun, and Coffee Milk is the best.

Howa! T-This is bad.

I-I ate all of it.

I thought of leaving one aside and enjoy eating it too~!

It's all because all of them looked delicious.

In fact, all of them are delicious...

With this, I don't have anything to look forward to.

To think I would need to wait for the next offering, what a pity.

This is all the fault of that different world Earth's sweets being so delicious~~~~!

Chapter 34

Sui And Different World Garbage

I searched for Slimes to verify Sui's level up, but I suddenly thought.

If it is about whether she would level up with food ingredients or not, shouldn't I be able to find it out if I let her eat normal food?

No, well, I have only let her eat garbage from the different world, so I missed something as simple as that.

I'm so stupid.

Thinking about it carefully, Sui would eat dorayakis normally. She's an omnivore that would eat anything, so it's natural.

It would have been great if I noticed it at that time, but it was too normal that I let it pass.

And so, for the sake of Sui's verification, I decided to make Sui's share in today's meal.

I kept the different world garbage that I let her eat usually, and should make her eat it tomorrow.

First, I identified Sui before she eats the food ingredients.

[Name] Sui
[Age] 8 Days
[Race] Baby Slime
[Level] 10
[Stamina] 28
[Magic Powers] 27
[Attack Powers] 25
[Defense Powers] 28
[Agility] 27
[Skill] ---

Sui? Aren't you already level ten?

Her status is still weak, but you're too quick on leveling up.

It's what happens after eating right?

I look forward to after eating.

Today, I'm thinking of cooking something that fits well with rice that I made beforehand.

What I'm going to make is a Miso-Grilled Pork Rice Bowl.

I prepared the orc meat yesterday.

I portioned the orc meat into thick slices and poked it with a fork so that the taste would permeate properly.

After making a miso sauce out of miso, sake, mirin, and sugar, I placed the orc meat into a plastic bag with zipper, added the miso sauce, and set it aside until the flavor permeates.

By the way, depending on your taste, adding grated garlic or grated ginger would be delicious too.

I placed it in my item box, so its time did not pass, but I have set it aside for two hours before putting it in my item box, so I think that its flavor has soaked in properly.

I should cook rice before I start grilling the meat.

I cooked using the usual pot.

And, this is important.

The cabbage to lay under the meat.

When you put that, the thick miso taste would finish with a refreshing taste.

I shredded the cabbage.

I should leave having some thick ones as amusement.

I cooked the main orc meat using the frying pan.

Be careful because miso is easy to burn.

After the rice is cooked, I served it with a bowl, then add the shredded cabbage on top.

And it is complete after adding the Miso-Grilled Orc Meat that was cut into easy to eat pieces.

For Fer, I prepared not a bowl but a deep dish.

“Fer, Sui, it’s time to eat”

[Ohh, this smells very appetizing]

Smells appetizing? Isn’t Fer always full of appetite?

Just as usual, Fer wolfed down the food.

“Sui can also eat this today okay. However, don’t eat the container”

When I said that, Sui enveloped the bowl after shaking a reply.

Well then, I also started to eat.

Orc meat is delicious as usual.

Why is that thing this delicious? Really, this different world is mysterious.

The miso flavor has soaked in well too, so it’s delicious.

Eating the meat together with cabbage and rice is the best.

[Give me seconds. Make me more meat]

Okay okay, oh hey, it’s meat after all huh.

I made Fer's second Miso-Grilled Pork Rice Bowl (extra meat) and gave it to him.

Sui also seemed like she wants to eat a little more, so I made Sui seconds as well.

It looks like the Miso-Grilled Pork was well received by Fer and Sui.

Adding grated garlic or grated ginger in the miso sauce, or using honey instead of sugar, or adding salt-marinated rice malt would be delicious, so I should also make it next time.

I portioned the orc meat into thick slices this time, but it might also be delicious, trying it with thin slices.

Yosh, I should prepare miso sauce again.

Well then, I wonder what happened to before and after with Sui's status?

I identified Sui who was wobbling in satisfaction.

[Name] Sui

[Age] 8 Days

[Race] Baby Slime

[Level] 10

[Stamina] 28 (+1)

[Magic Powers] 27

[Attack Powers] 25

[Defense Powers] 28 (+1)

[Agility] 27

[Skill] --

Oh! There's a bonus.

That means, the status would be raised with a time limit with the food ingredients, and would level up with things other than food ingredients.

But, this, who are gaining something from it?

In the first place, isn't there only Slimes which can digest things other than food?

It means, Slimes gained?

Only Slimes can level up all they want? What the heck is that?

It's really an incomprehensible arrangement.

In the first place, since it's something from a different world, it might have just become like that after appearing in this world, without things like arrangements or something like that.

Well, anyway, this means that only Sui could level up so easily.

She is still weak right now, but it would be great if she eats a lot of different world garbage, and level up continuously right?

And I hope that she would contribute to my safety together with Fer.

Safety first, that's important.

Chapter 35

Sui And Fer And The Goddess's Favor

"Stone Bullet!"

Byun!, the one Stone Bullet flew.

Then, Gatsun, it hits the tree.

I took a look in a hurry, it looks like the trunk was beaten a little.

"Yossha! It got better"

As usual, there was only one Stone Bullet that flew, but thanks to its speed getting faster than before, its power increased.

This is also thanks to Wind Goddess Ninril's Blessing (small).

Although it's (small), it does its work.

This is all thanks to the Goddess.

And right now, we are on a short after-meal break.

I'm using that time frame to practice my Earth Magic.

Fer said [I am curious of something]immediately after he finished eating, and ran into the forest.

He said that I shouldn't worry because he'd return quickly and he also made a barrier around me and Sui so it's fine though.

Sui is wobbling around my feet.

By the way, she's leveling up steadily (after all, she would level up just by eating the different world's garbage) and she is level 13 right now.

I am really looking forward on how much level she needs to evolve.

Well then, I should continue training my Earth Magic.

As I've thought, common people like me can only practice.

“Stone Bullet!”

Fu~, I'm tired.

I think I used my magic powers a little too much.

All that I can do is practice, but it's troubling since the exhaustion comes at once when too much magic powers are used.

It would've been great if I had a little more magic powers.

Well, nothing would happen even if I ask for too much.

When you're tired, it's sweets, right?

I bought a chocolate bar and canned coffee from the Net Super.

The canned coffee is black coffee.

Sweet things and bitter things, this combination of chocolate and black coffee is exquisite.

When I was eating chocolate, Sui came to my feet.

“What? Does Sui want to eat too?”

When I asked that, Sui wobbled.

I split the chocolate bar into halves, and when I let Sui's tentacle hold one of the halves, she immediately started to eat it.

The chocolate bar entered Sui and melted in an instant.

It looks like Sui like the chocolate bar. She wobbled her body even more as if to ask for more, and rubbed herself to my feet.

“You, you’re good at getting spoiled huh. Wait for a bit”

I bought an additional chocolate bar for Sui.

When I gave Sui the chocolate bar, she ate it deliciously while wobbling.

I guess I’m soft towards Sui.

She’s cordial and cute, so I can’t help it.

But even so, Fer’s late.

He said that he’d return quickly, but a lot of time has passed.

And after that, when I’m relaxing with Sui as I recover my magic powers, Fer finally returned.

“You’re late, Fer. Did anything happen?”

[It’s alright. It was nothing much. n? SunSun...]

Fer started smelling me and Sui around.

“W-What is it?”

[You guys, did you not eat something delicious while I was not around?]

Giku!

It’s about the chocolate right?

Does chocolate smells that sweet?

“N-No, why?”

When I said that, Fer stared at me intently.

[You cannot trick my nose]

Guu...!

Damn it, he found out huh.

As I've thought, Fenrir smell that's dog-like? wolf-like? is sharp.

"Sui and I ate a treat called chocolate. I was tired practicing magic after all. Sweet things are good when you're tired"

[I am a little tired from running as well, I want that chocolate or something]

What do you mean by tired?

There's no way that guys like you who have almost maximum status value would get tired after running for just a while.

[That's unfair if you and Sui, and only I did not eat]

Uu! If you say that...

Ah~, okay, I got it already.

I lost to Fer's stare and bought chocolate bars from the Net Super.

Sui was also looking at me as if she wants some too (actually, she doesn't have eyes so it just felt like that), so I also bought Sui's share.

"Here, this is chocolate"

When I took out the chocolate bar from its wrapping and reached it out to him, Fer started to wolf it down.

[Mu! This is a taste I ate for the first time. It's not bad]

Haa, is that so? I mean, just this guy ate ten chocolate bars.

You'll get a toothache if you eat that much, oh, ahh, you won't get one because of the status ailment nullification huh.

How envious, oh, hey, come to think of it, I also have a God's Blessing although it's (small), so I won't get a toothache right?

Well, even if I would say I'd like to eat sweet things, I won't be eating as much as Fer though.

By the way, Sui happily ate the chocolate bar.

[You, I am the Wind Goddess Ninril. Pray and offer that chocolate or something immediately. Ah, do not forget to add the dorayaki with it]

A woman's voice echoed in my head.

It's similar to Fer's telepathy, but I heard her voice clearer than that.

She's saying she's Ninril-sama though.....

This, she's just asking for sweets right?

Can this be called an oracle?

[That is right. It is an oracle. Hurry up]

What's with that prompting?

Goddess-sama, to give an oracle to ask for sweets..... are Gods okay like that?

I hate to say this, but she's a very disappointing goddess.

This, she doesn't have a speck of dignity.

[Shut up. Even Gods needs something to look forward to]

Uwwa, she said her real intention.

Oh really, what a helpless Goddess-sama.

Although I thought of her as a disappointing Goddess since I heard the oracle "offer sweets" from Fer.

I mean, can't she get it from the different world using her God Authority?

By doing that, she doesn't need to tell me to give offerings right?

Well, I received Blessings so I'm going to give her offerings though.

I bought chocolate bars and dorayakis from the Net Super for the Goddess-sama.

[n, what? You're giving me more?]

"No, no, this isn't for Fer. Right now, Ninril-sama gave me an oracle. She told me to pray with chocolates as offerings"

[Nu, is that so. If it is Ninril-sama's oracle, then pray properly]

I placed the chocolates and dorayaki on the cardboard box altar as offerings and prayed.

When I opened my eyes, the chocolates and dorayaki disappeared.

[Good Job](TL: she says in english)

What Good Job?

Where in the world did you remember those words?

She's really a disappointing goddess.

[Yosh, you've finished praying. Well then, let's go. Hurry up and get on]

Fer is making me hurry for some reason.

"I got it, but, is there a reason to hurry?"

[N-No, nothing at all. Rather than that, how's your Earth Magic going?]

A-re? Did he just change the topic blatantly right now?

"As usual, there is only one pebble flying, but it got stronger thanks to Ninril-sama's Blessings"

[Stone Bullet is a magic that releases several stones right? To release just one of them...]

Gununu, it can't be helped right? They won't fly after all.

[This, as I've thought, we can only go there](Fer with a small voice)

"n? Did you say something?"

[Nothing. Rather than that, hurry up and get on]

"Alright, alright. Sui, get inside the bag. Yosh, it's alright now"

[Well then, let's go]

Chapter 36

Heaps Of Different World Cooking

Fer suddenly stopped.

“Oi, what happened?”

[Get off]

I’ll get off if you say so, but I think it’s not yet time to eat though.

[We’re going to have actual combat]

Ha? What is it so suddenly?

[You, you became better at Fire Magic when we included actual combat right? This time, do it for Earth Magic]

Do it? What are you deciding it all by yourself?

“Why are you deciding it yourself? I, I won’t do it alright”

[No, you shall do it. If this goes on, who knows when you will be able to learn Earth Magic. Achieve success through actual combat rather than wasting time doing it. Was it not proven by the Fire Magic?]

Damn it~, I’m doing my best too you know?

The sad part is that there are just no results.

There was that thing about the Fire Magic, so it is not like I do not understand what Fer is saying. But, I just want to refrain getting taken to a goblin’s village so suddenly.

“Leaving aside doing it or not, what are you making me do?”

[It’s that]

I looked at the place where Fer was looking at while he said that. There is an open cave.

“What’s up with a cave?”

[That is not an ordinary cave. It is a dungeon]

.....ha?

D-Dungeon?

Dungeon? That Dungeon?

W-Why is it in the middle of this forest?

[It is a young dungeon that has just been made. Things like this occur from time to time in places where the magic essence are thick]

Magic Essence is just like its name says, the essence of magic powers.

Absorbing that essence and changing it into magic powers is what using magic is.

I feel like I get it, or I get it not.

According to Fer, when there are terrains where magic essence gathers easily or corpses of a high-ranked monster (one with a magic stone), dungeon are sometimes created.

“Dungeon already? You’re saying absurd things again. Dungeon, of course, it’s impossible for me. I won’t enter it, I swear”

[It is not impossible. I investigated what’s inside and found out that there are only monsters like Slime, Horned Rabbit, Goblin, and Kobold. Monsters that aren’t that much]

No, no, no, they are much for me you know?

I mean, you investigated? Did you enter it?

I thought you were late to come back. It looks like you entered the dungeon.

[It is a shallow dungeon with only 5 floors, so even a rookie like you should be fine]

5 floors are shallow? That's not shallow for me at all.

I mean, I am not entering the dungeon.

[Well then, let's go]

"Wait, wait, wait! "Let's go." your ass. Why are you entering the dungeon like it's natural? I won't enter it okay"

[Oh really, why are you such a coward?]

Fer-san, can you please call me careful, not coward?

"I'm just very careful. Entering a dungeon so suddenly, that's too ridiculous"

[Hmph, it depends on how you say it huh. Even I would have not intervened if you were able to learn magic in your own way. However, with your method, it was dubious whether you'll even be able to learn Fire Magic]

Guu... that might be true though.

[You got it, right. What I am saying is the right thing. I shall make a barrier for you and Sui, do not worry. Let's go]

Fer is planning on taking me to the dungeon at all cost huh.

If so...

"Wait a second. If you really want me to enter the dungeon, I need to prepare"

I'll make you show your prowess here, Net Super-san.

Increase status using the food ingredient of the Net Super--the different world's Strategy.

I don't want to get injured, and dying is out of the question.

Since I'm entering an unknown world like a dungeon, I need to get stronger even just a little bit.

“I haven’t told Fer, but by eating the different world’s food, you can get stronger”

[What?]

I explained to Fer that the status value would increase with a time limit when eating the food from the Net Super.

I don’t really understand, but I explained to him that there are differences on which status would go up or how long it would last depending on the kind of the food that was eaten, how it was cooked, or how much was eaten.

“Remember? When I treated you with the different world’s food before. Didn’t Fer say that you have been full of energy? At that time, it was raised so much that I’m the one who’s surprised”

[Hou, it was like that huh]

It looks like Fer also felt that his condition is good when eating the different world’s food.

[That means, you will enter the dungeon after eating food from the different world]

“That’s right”

It would take time if I were to cook, so for the meantime, I bought daily dishes that can be immediately eaten from Net Super.

Deep-Fried Chicken, Croquette, Mince Cutlet, Thick Sliced Pork Loin Cutlet, Yakitori, Sweet and Sour Pork, Deep-Fried Horse Mackerel, Assorted Sea-Food, Marinated Smoked Salmon, Potato Salad, Pizza, Cream Puff, Cake, etc.

Anyways, I bought the ones that I saw.

I don’t know which would raise which status, so it’s better to eat many kinds of food as I can.

But although I said that, I can’t eat all of them, so I’ll eat small portions of all kinds, and let Fer eat the rest.

I feel bad that it's leftovers, but it's Fer's fault that it became like this.

Ah, I should give Sui too.

Leveling up using the different world garbage as well as the raising of her status.

Also, I should buy drinks as well, yosh, this should be enough.

I lined up the daily dishes that I bought from Net Super.

It's heaps of different world food.

"I don't know which of them would raise which status, so I need to eat as much as I can. But, I also have a limit. I'm going to eat small portions, so can Fer and Sui eat the rest? I'm sorry that it's my leftovers, but it's to enter the dungeon after all"

[Alright, got it]

Fer-san, you're drooling you know.

Sui shouldn't wobble at high speed too.

Well then, let's eat.

I took a bite and gave Fer the rest.

The containers where the dishes are in is given to Sui.

"Ahh, I forgot to say this, but it looks like eating food other than the food ingredients of the different world would result to a level up. Things like this, and also this"

I explained to Fer while pointing at the containers where the food is placed in.

[Mu, is that so. If it's like that, Sui can level up as long as she wants huh. Things from the different world are sure mysterious]

"Mysterious? It wasn't like that too when I was in my previous world. It became like this after I came here, so I think mysteriously of it too"

Honestly, I also want to find out why in the world it is like that.

Well, I encountered a bizarre and mysterious phenomenon like being teleported to a different world, so it's probably a world where anything can happen.

I continued to eat.

While making Sui level up by letting her eat the containers, I also let her eat food that would increase her status although with a time limit.

Fer also wolfed down my leftovers.

“Fu~, I ate a lot~. For finish, it's dessert”

Lastly, I took a bite off the Cream Puff and Cake.

What remained were deliciously eaten by Fer and Sui.

“Uppu, I'm so full”

Let me see, how much did my status go up?

〔 Name 〕 Mukouda (Tsuyoshi-Mukouda)

〔 Age 〕 27

〔 Job 〕 A person from a different world who got caught

〔 Level 〕 3

〔 Stamina 〕 110 (+24)

〔 Magic Powers 〕 110 (+23)

〔 Attack Powers 〕 83 (+19)

〔 Defense Powers 〕 82 (+17)

〔 Agility 〕 78 (+16)

〔 Skill 〕 Identify Item Box Fire Magic

Familiar

<Contracted Magic Beasts> Fenrir Baby Slime

〔 Unique Skill 〕 Net Super

E~to, it increased by about 20% huh.

I hoped it increased just a little bit more, but I can't be asking for too much.

I wonder, what about Fer and Sui?

I identified the two, and found out that Fer's status increased by about 30%, and Sui became level 16 and her status increased by 20% just like me.

[As you have told, the status really went up]

It looks like Fer identified as well.

[There should be no problems going to the dungeon with this. Let's go]

It's not like there's no problem, I mean, there's a huge one, but even if I tell Fer that I won't enter this dungeon, he'd probably drag me into it.

I took out a short sword from my item box.

I should resolve myself and enter.

"Ah, Fer, make the barrier properly alright?"

You must not call me a coward.

My motto is safety first.

Chapter 37

Fer-San's Bootcamp

~Dungeon Edition~ (1)

Fer and I entered the dungeon, and the first monster we encountered was a Slime.

When I was against doing something to a Slime since I like Sui very much...

“He?!”

The Slime suddenly melted.

Ehh? What happened?

[Sui, that was quite an excellent attack]

Eh, did Sui attack right now?

I mean, they're of the same race but an attack without hesitation.

[Sui shot out acid]

After Fer said that, Sui did it again to show me.

Acidic fluid was shot from Sui's tentacle like a water gun.

It seems like a high-density acid; smoke rose up from the rock it hit then melted.

.....what's, with that strong attack?

Eh, Sui is that strong?

[Showing such an excellent attack, Sui might be a unique variant]

Unique variant... i-is that so?

If Sui continues to level up, what in the world will she evolve into?

W-Well, there's nothing bad about being stronger.

[The next one came, you should attack this time]

Following what Fer said, I swung my short sword towards the Slime.

The Slime was smashed and was absorbed by the ground after a while.

“Does corpses not remain in dungeons?”

[That's right. Dungeons are like creatures that lives through absorbing magic essence. Those that enter the dungeon, whether they are monsters or humans, they would be by the dungeon when they die inside it, and become its nourishment]

Ahh, this world's dungeon is that kind of type huh.

I absolutely don't want to die inside a dungeon.

[Next one. This time, attack using magic]

I nodded and fired Fire ball.

The Fire Ball hits the Slime and exploded.

Ohh, I feel like it's stronger than usual.

This must be the effects of the food from the other world/Net Super.

Sui and I defeated the Slimes that spawned one next to the other.

[Yosh, let's go to the next floor. Horned Rabbit will appear on the next floor. Beware of its horn]

Going down the stair-like steps, a Horned Rabbit immediately attacked.

It leaped, attacking using its sharp horn on its head as a weapon.

“Uohh!”

I involuntarily swung my short sword but it was not a fatal wound.

“Byu!”

It then melted because of Sui’s acid attack.

“Ohh, Sui, great job”

I praised Sui and she happily wobbled.

[There are still more of them. Don’t let your guard down]

I guess so.

We’re inside a dungeon after all.

[Also, you, use your Earth Magic. It will not be training if you do not use it]

Gu...! He really got me there.

And from then on, I defeated the Horned Rabbits using Stone Bullet.

However, it was only one flying pebble after all.

Sui and Fer defeated the Horned Rabbits that I failed to hit.

[You really aren’t improving much]

“Haa, haa, there’s no way I can improve so quickly! Stone Bullet!”

I hit the Horned Rabbit that leaped with the Stone Bullet that I shot.

[There is really one pebble huh. Maybe a stronger monster is needed?]

I’m barely able to defeat them right now, what the heck are you saying?

“Rather than that, these guys, why are they approaching although Fer’s here? In the forest, Fer was too strong that monsters don’t appear right? Why is it that, in here, they would come without caring about that?”

If it was usually, probably because Fer is too strong, monsters won't appear or come near at all.

They would come near when Fer had hidden his presence, but they would desperately run away once they saw his appearance.

That's why, we won't encounter monsters that much during our journey.

But, inside this dungeon, although Fer had not hidden his presence, small fries like Slimes and Horned Rabbits would attack.

[The monsters in dungeons, they would treat those who entered the dungeon as enemies whether they are strong or weak]

I-Is that so, dungeons are scary.

I don't get the meaning of entering one although you know that you'd get attacked.

I will never enter a dungeon again.

[Oi, what are you spacing out for? The next one has come]

"Owwa! Stone Bullet!"

As I've thought, we shouldn't have entered a dungeon.

We finally reached the next floor while defeating Horned Rabbits.

[It is Goblin in this floor]

Ge...! Goblin.

I don't want to remember that thing before.

[It's here]

Gege! Three Goblins are running from the passage towards us.

"F-Fire Ball!"

The Fire Ball hits and the Goblin was burnt black.

[I told you, use Earth Magic]

Even if you say that, the Goblins rushing towards me are scary.

If it's like that, I would involuntarily use Fire Magic that is more useful.

[The next is here]

Gyaa! It came again.

On top of that, the number of Goblins increased!

“Stone Bullet! Stone Bullet! Stone Bullet!”

There was no way that the Stone Bullet that only shot one pebble would decrease the number of Goblins, and the surviving Goblins got closer and closer.

“Uwa! Don't come! Stone Bullet! Stone Bullet! Stone Bullet!”

I shot Stone Bullet, but even so, one tenacious Goblin closed in to me while swinging its club.

“Hiiiiiiii!!”

It's the nightmare again.

“Byu!”

The Goblin's upper body melted because of Sui's acid attack.

“Sui~ thank you~. You, strong. The best!”

I rubbed my face to Sui while hugging her.

[I guess Sui is far more courageous than you]

Gununu, I have a trauma with Goblins you know.

Because of a certain someone.

Although I had a hard time on this floor full of Goblins, I managed to get through with the help of Sui.

[Well then, let's go to the next floor]

Next floor is 4th floor huh.

After that, there's 5th floor too...

I really wanna go back to the surface.

Haa.

Chapter 38

Fer-San's Bootcamp

~Dungeon Edition~ (2)

[There are Kobolds on this floor. Their numbers are plenty as well, be careful]

Fer told me so I walked carefully.

[They're coming]

The dog-faced Kobold group charged towards us while showing their fangs and crying "WanWan, GyanGyan!".

"Gyaaa! What's that! No way, no way, no way!!"

[It's yes way. There is a barrier so it is alright. Calm down and release your Earth Magic]

No, no, no, there's no way I can calm down!

"Fire[If you use Fire Magic, I'll leave you here alone]..."

Fer declared mercilessly when I instinctively tried to shoot a Fire Ball seeing the Kobolds' scary faces.

Fer you ogre, demon!

Damn it~! All I can do is to shoot, shoot, shoot Stone Bullets.

I was able to achieve that with Fire Ball, so I can only believe bro!

"Stone Bullet! Stone Bullet! Stone Bullet!"

"Hyu! Hyu! Hyu!", the pebbles flew.

It hit the two Kobolds running in front, but the Kobolds behind them are unfazed and continued to charge.

Their feet are also fast as expected from a dog.

A Kobold was already in front of me, opening its mouth and was about to bite me anything.

Gyaaaaaaaa!!! It's the end.

"Am I going to die inside a dungeon like this?", but the instant I closed my eyes while thinking of that.

Gakinnn!

The Kobold's bite attack was blocked by something.

I slowly opened my eyes, and what I saw in front of me was a tough, transparent thing blocking the Kobold's huge mouth, making it show a foolish face.

[Did I not tell you it's alright? My barrier is not something so soft that a mere Kobold can destroy it]

I know it you know, I knew it inside my head.

But, Fer's barrier is transparent so there's no real sense of presence coming from it.

It's frightening to see a Kobold with a terrifying face charging towards you.

Fu~, calm down.

Just like Fer had said, it looks like this barrier is very tough.

It's true that a group of Kobolds charging towards me is scary.

However, it's fine since there's Fer's barrier.

Anyways, I should use Earth Magic.

I should shoot, shoot, and shoot, and learn it.

If I don't do that, then entering this dungeon has no meaning.

"Yosh, let's do it!"

[That's the spirit. Kobolds are coming again]

"Stone Bullet! Stone Bullet! Stone Bullet!!"

I mercilessly shot, shot, and shot Stone Bullets towards the Kobolds.

We finally reached the stairs that connect to the floor below after defeating numerous Kobolds.

"Haa, haa, see that, Fer. My Stone Bullet improved right? There are already three pebbles being shot"

[You still have a long way to go. Don't get cheeky just from being able to shoot three pebbles]

Gununu, so strict.

[Next is finally the last floor. There is a vast space below, and there should be a lot of Kobolds waiting there. Prepare yourself]

I nodded and followed Fer down the stairs.

The last was a round dome-shaped space, and just like Fer had said, there are so many Kobolds.

"I-Isn't this too many...?"

[Nu, there are many indeed. It was not like this when I entered, but... n? There's a King in the back]

"K-King? You mean a high-level species?"

[That's right. For the mean time, you and Sui should try to defeat it. You do not need to worry since there is a barrier. I will be there if it comes to it as well]

No, no, no, don't casually say "try to defeat it".

You, why are you asking for such absurd things?

[Sui looks fired up. You should learn from her]

I looked at Sui after hearing Fer say that, and saw her releasing a tentacle, completely ready to shoot acid.

“S-Sui~~”

Why are you so fired up like that?

Was my lovely Sui a battle junkie?

[It looks like Sui is far more courageous compared to you. Hm, just go]

Fer said that and pushed me.

“Hey...!”

I staggered forward, and with my one step as a signal, the numerous Kobolds charged.

“U-Uwaaaa!!”

“Byu! Byu! Byu!”

Sui crawled at a speed that I had never seen before and shot out acid.

The Kobolds who were hit by the acid shouted and screamed while melting.

“S-Sui?!!”

To think that Sui was so aggressive.

This scene, I'd probably vomited if this isn't the situation.

[Now, you go too! You must use Earth Magic okay]

Fer pushed me once again.

Countless Kobolds are charging.

“Damn it! Stone Bullet!! Stone Bullet! Stone Bullet!!!!”

I desperately shot out Stone Bullets.

.....

I shot and shot and shot without any care for anything else.

I really hate to admit Fer’s words, but I am now able to shoot Stone Bullets exactly how I thought.

The only one that remains is the Kobold King that is larger compared to the others.

It is standing dauntlessly at the very back, but seeing its Kobold comrades defeated one next to the other, it seemed to be furious, and growled while showing its huge canines.

The Kobold King roared “Guwaaaoon!” and moved towards me while swinging its axe.

“Haa, haa, Stone Bullet!! Stone Bullet!!! Stooone Bulleeeettoooo!!!!!”

I mustered all of my remaining strength and shot Stone Bullets towards the Kobold King.

Even while bleeding, the Kobold King did not collapse.

The furious and bloody Kobold King walked towards me and was only a few steps away.

“Damn it! I exhausted my magic powers... Fer, I’ll leave the rest to you...”

But just before I fainted after saying that, the wobbling Sui got in between me and the Kobold King.

And, “Byuuu!”, she showered the Kobold King with a huge amount of acid.

The Kobold King melted without being able to scream its death throes.

He? What, what's with end?

Sui took everything good?

S-Sui-----?!!

I lost my conscious again with exhausted magic powers.

Chapter 39

Sui Had Evolved When I Noticed It

PechiPechi.

n... who is it? Who's slapping my face.....?

PechiPechi.

“What is it, really... n, nn...? Owwa! Dungeon!!”

I quickly woke up and Sui worriedly reached out her tentacle from my stomach.

You were the one who was PechiPechi-ing me huh.

“Sui... I'm okay. Are you okay?”

[I'm okay]

A young voice

“Uoo! W-Was it Sui right now?”

[Un, it's Sui you know]

I-It's telepathy right?

Fer said that those who are bounded by the Familiar's Contract could talk telepathically, so it isn't strange that Sui is also able to use telepathy.

But, she didn't use telepathy up until now, right?

Ah, is it that, she's now able to use telepathy after leveling up?

I looked at the wobbling Sui on top of my stomach.

I remembered the fight against the Kobold King in the dungeon.

In the end, Sui got in between me and the Kobold King, and...

I mean, Sui seems to be super strong.

I'm pretty sure that Sui has leveled up with the battles in the dungeon, right?

She somehow looked like her agility and movement got sharper and shaper.

It might also because she leveled up that she can use telepathy.

I used Identify on Sui.

[[Name]] Sui

Sui, when did you evolve...?

You didn't only level up, but you also evolved.

You've become a Slime from a Baby Slime.

On top of that, she's already level 7 after evolving to a Slime.

Also, she has a skill too.

Acid Bullet, it's that attack when she shoots acid huh.

That attack, it's super strong right?

After all, it's shooting acid.

The ones who received that attack would be in a state that is surely rated R18.

I mean, looking at Sui's status, isn't she stronger than me now?

I quickly checked my own status.

[[Name]] Mukouda (Tsuyoshi-Mukouda)

Gu...! I-I lose out to Sui.....

B-But, I leveled up and I'm now level 7.

I even have Earth Magic in my skills.

Well, experiencing that much in the dungeon, I would cry a man's tears if I didn't level up.

But, alas, Sui's status looks stronger.

I lose out to Sui who was born only 14 days ago, haa...

Who in the world is Sui?

Although Fer said that she's a unique variant.

Are all unique variants like this?

Even so, I feel like she grew up too fast, and is too strong as well...

After all, she's already a Slime, and that Acid Bullet skill is too strong right?

I looked at Sui who is still wobbling on top of my stomach, and looked like having fun touching my face with her tentacle, and talked to her.

[Hey, is Sui a unique variant?]

[n? I don't know. Sui is Sui you know?]

W-Well, she is only 14 days old after all, how would she know?

Also, there are only good things if Sui gets stronger.

Mostly, for my safety.

Come to think of it, I don't see Fer, where did he go?

I looked around, but I don't see Fer.

[Hey, Sui, where did Fer go?]

[Uhm, he went somewhere saying he's hungry. But, he said he'll return quickly]

I-I see.

I mean, a-re? It means that she can communicate using telepathy with Fer?

[Sui, can you talk with Fer using telepathy?]

[Un, I can]

It looks like contracted familiars can use telepathy towards each other.

Fer, you got hungry, and unable to endure, you temporarily returned to the wild huh.

After a while, Fer appeared from the forest.

[Nu, you finally woke up]

F-Fer-san~, it's okay to return to the wild, but can you please do it without me noticing?

There are red colors around your mouth you know...

[You would not wake up at all, so I went out for a meal since I got hungry]

As I've thought, you returned to the wild and ate raw meat huh.

Those reds around your mouth are so graphic.

[However, as I've thought, the meals you make are better. Cook something for me]

I mean, didn't you get full with lots of raw meat?

[The satisfaction level is different with the meals you make]

Haa, is that so.

But, I just woke up from fainting.

[You have successfully learned Earth Magic as well thanks to me. It should be fine treating me with the other world's meal as well]

Other world's meal? Can you stop coaxing me?

It's true that I was able to learn Earth Magic, but the dungeon was so frightening you know.

I don't want to enter one ever again.

Guu~...

My stomach growled.

It looks like quite a long time had passed since I fainted.

I really hate to do it like I complied with Fer, but I should make a meal.

Chapter 40

Soft-Boiled Chicken and Egg Bowl and Fer-ojichan

U~n, what should I make.

The food from the different world that Fer wants, if I use that, Fer would go on a hustle again so no.

I used too much magic powers and I'm a bit fatigued, so maybe something nutritious would be good.

Thinking of nutritious food, the first thing that comes to my mind is the egg that is full of nourishment?

Egg huh, come to think of it, I haven't eaten it for quite some time.

Egg, egg, egg.....

It could be cooked in a short time, and there's still the Rock Bird's meat remaining so I should use that as well.

With that decided, I bought the things needed from the Net Super.

I bought eggs and stock and soy sauce mixture, and since there's still mirin and sugar, there's still onions as too... ah, I need to buy the most important, rice.

First, I chopped the onions, and sliced the Rock Bird's meat into bite size.

And then, I cracked an egg, and beat it.

After that, before putting the frying pan onto the fire, I placed stock and soy sauce mixture, mirin, and sugar for flavor, only then that I put it on fire.

It's troublesome so I'd always use stock and soy sauce mixture.

It's so convenient after all.

After that mix started to boil, I added in the onions and Rock Bird meat.

After the onions and Rock Bird meat are cooked, I added in just half of the beaten eggs and started to cook on low fire.

After the egg started to get firm, I added in the remaining beaten eggs and immediately stopped the fire.

After that, I let the egg cook with the remaining heat, and what completed was a bowl of rice of chicken and half cooked eggs.

The only thing left to do is to eat it on top of freshly cooked rice.

“Fe...”

When I was about to call Fer and Sui, I found them staring just by my side.

“Here”

I placed the extra large size chicken and eggs bowl in front of Fer.

[Umu]

He started to wolf down after saying that.

I served Sui a normal sized chicken and eggs bowl and also gave her the eggs' shell and onion peels.

[Aruji~, it's delicious](TL: Aruji means Master)

Sui told me using telepathy.

“I see, I see, it's good then”

I patted Sui once and started to eat my own chicken and eggs bowl as well.

Un, it's cooked quite well.

[Give me seconds]

Oh Fer-san, aren't you eating too fast?

I mean, didn't you went out to eat raw meat?

It can't be helped huh.

I made seconds for Fer.

Sui looked like she wanted to eat some more, so I made Sui seconds as well.

Oh really, our house's familiars eat very well.

After leaving a short after-meal break, I started a conversation with Fer with a "come to think of it".

"Ahh, that's right, I was thinking of telling Fer. Sui is now able to use Telepathy"

[I know]

[Uhm, you know, I already talked to Fer-ojichan~]

"Pu...! O-Ojichan....."(TL: Uncle)

F-Fer-ojichan huh.

Sui is quite bold.

Well, he's over a thousand years old, so he's not only just an Oji-chan(Uncle) but an Ojii-chan(Grandfather).

[Mu, don't laugh. And also, Sui, did I not tell you to stop calling me Ojichan]

[Eh~, why? Fer-ojichan is Fer-ojichan right?]

[I'm telling you don't call me that...]

"Bufu! W-Well, isn't it fine? Sui is only 14 days old after all. Compare to that, you're really an Ojichan right? Fer-ojichan"

[Gununu, don't call me like that. I'll bite you]

“Hahaha, sorry, sorry”

[If I am an Ojichan, then wouldn't you be an Ojichan as well]

“No, no, no, I'm still 27 you know. I'm not an uncle”

[Aruji is Aruji~]

“Look, Sui is saying it as well”

[Gunununu. Sui, listen to me, you must call me Fer. Understood?”

Fer said that towards Sui while growling.

[Uu~, Fer-ojichan, is Fer-ojichan...]

Sui said that and started to wobble.

“What are you doing? Don't make Sui cry”

I embraced Sui and patted her.

[Uueeee~n, Aruji~~]

I comforted the wobbling Sui.

“Okay now, stop crying okay. Sui is a strong girl after all”

[Unn, Zui iz shtrong you knoww]

Ah~, it's alright, it's alright.

“But even so, how disappointing. Growling with just one nickname, Fer-ojichan has a narrow heart”

I told that sarcastically to Fer, and he made a “Gununu” with a sour face, and looked away.

[My heart is nothing but narrow. I allow only Sui to call me like that]

Ahaha, Fer lost to Sui.

“Sui, he said you can call him Fer-ojichan”

After I said that, Sui started to wobble happily.

[Fer-ojichan, thank you~]

Sui wobbled and wobbled happily.

Ahh, how cute you are.

Our house's Sui is so cute~.

Idle Talk 3

Dear Goddess is a Captive of the Otherworld's Sweets

“Haa...”

I could only sigh.

This is all because there is still time before that man from the different world would offer the next batch.

And during that time, the sweets would be on hold.

Those Bean Jam Bun, Strawberry Jam Bun, Cream-filled Bun was delicious.

Those sweets from the other world “Earth” were unimaginably delicious even for me...

They were so delicious that I could not help but eat all of them in the first day.

I should have asked to make a little more offerings.

Haa, only if the time of the next offerings would come soon.

While waiting for the next offerings, I am peeking at the world below with the mirror just as usual.

“Mu! W-What’s that?”

What in the world is that brown plank that the man from the different world summoned using[Net Super]?

He claimed that it is sweets.

Is that really sweets?

It does not look like it at all...

What, hmm, that sweets is called “chocolate”?

His slime familiar is begging for more.

Those creatures normally ate anything, but it is rare for them to want something that they would plead for it.

Is it considerably delicious?

Gununu, I want to eat some toooo.

It is from that world that made Bean Jam Bun, Strawberry Jam, and Cream-filled Bun. There is no way that it tastes bad.

My instinct says so.

However, it is not yet the time for the next offering.

However, I want to eat that “chocolate”.....

Eiii~, I am a Goddess, such a minor thing must be forgiven.

In short, I only need to be careful so that no one finds out.

That’s right, that’s exactly right.

I immediately sent an oracle to that man from a different world.

“Humble one, I am the Wind Goddess Ninril. Pray and offer that thing called “chocolate” right away. Ah, do not forget to offer dorayakis together with them”

Since I am at it, I also asked for the other treats that they deliciously ate along with the “chocolate”.

That man from a different world got surprised by my oracle.

He is doubtful if such thing is an oracle.

“That is right. It is an oracle. Hurry up”

“Sending an oracle to ask for treats? Are you even a real god?” you ask?

Of course I am.

Sweets are the best.

“There’s dignity or anything at all” you say?

You man from a different world, how dare you speak such rubbish.

“Shut up! Even gods have things they enjoy”

Stop complaining and hurry up and offer the “chocolate” and dorayaki.

That man from a different world summoned “chocolate” and dorayaki using[Net Super].

He started praying with the “chocolate” and dorayaki on the shrine.

Yosh, yosh, well then, I shall transport that “chocolate” and dorayaki to the god’s realm.

Man from a different world, good job.

“Good Job”

I know that such thing must be said after someone has done something good from peeking into Earth with the mirror.

“Ohhh, this is “chocolate” and dorayaki!”

Let me see, well then, let us start with the “chocolate”.

That man from a different world took off the wrapping before eating it.

So just like that man from a different world, I took off its wrapping.

What came out from inside the wrapping is a brown plank.

Umu, they ate this.

“Even so, this “chocolate” smells good. It smells with a sweet fragrance that one would wish to smell it as long as possible”

Well then, let us take a bite.

Parin!!

The brown plank snapped along with a crisp sound.

Fuoooo! I-It melted inside my mouth!

This is sweet, and it has a slightly bitter, but unique taste.

This is delicious, this is too delicious!

Such thing, it does not exist in my world.

The human who invented this “chocolate” is a genius.

It is too delicious just like the Bean Jam Bun, Strawberry Jam Bun, and Cream-filled Bun.

Each of those treats tastes otherworldly delicious.

There must be swarms of sweets geniuses that other world “Earth”.

How enviable.

If only such a genius was born in my world, the sweets here would have been a little more developed.

After all, it is still in the range of dried fruits and honey pickled...

It’s a little sad.

Haa~, “chocolate”, how delicious.

Next is dorayaki.

Ha! No, no, no, no, I must stop!

If this continues, it would be the same with last time!

I should keep dorayaki for tomorrow.

..... Gulps

D-Dorayaki, it looks delicious.

Ha! I forgot to tell that man from a different world to give more offerings.

I must tell him to offer more in the next oracle.

By doing that, there should be no problem if I eat this dorayaki right now.

Un, that's right.

He will be offering lots more next time.

Yosh, it's dorayaki time.

Bites

Umumumumu, delicious!!

This must be the same beans with that Bean Jam Bun.

That, with sweet bread that really taste well along with it.

Both of them are sweet, but this sweetness is not heavy, but exists in an exquisite balance.

The human who invented this dorayaki must be a genius.

After eating the sweets from that other world "Earth", I cannot eat other sweets.

I am a captive of the sweets from that other world "Earth".

Haa~, I wonder what sweets would I will be able to eat next time, I am really looking forward to it.

Chapter 41

Please Say That Earlier

While riding on Fer's back, I got curious so I asked him.

By the way, Sui is currently sleeping on my shoulder bag.

"Hey Fer, would it still take time before we get out of the forest?"

When I told Fer that we should go to the Erman Kingdom and the Leonhart Kingdom, he said that passing through the forest is a shortcut to the east road so I just followed him, but there 3 weeks had already passed since we entered the forest.

[We are moving with a slow speed that is keeping up with your wish so it would still take some time. Though, it would be much quicker if we proceeded with speeds without me holding back]

Ah, if so, I'll be patient.

Letting Fer run without holding back is out of the question.

If he speeds up like that, I'll get shaken off, unable to grab hold.

[Even so, we should be must faster compared to the road that humans made]

Ah, is that so.

[In this forest are the territories of Orthros and Griffin, so the road that humans made is a huge roundabout way from the forest]

.....a-re, are my ears tired?

I felt like I heard the name of something I must not.

Did he just say Orthros?

Did he just say Griffin?

I think that Orthros should be a dual-headed dog monster and Griffin should be a monster with the upper body of the eagle and the lower body of the lion.

I remembered the illustrations of Orthros and Griffin found in games and novels.

That, isn't that dangerous ones which are boss character levels---?!!

"Why are we passing through this forest even though you know there are Orthros and Griffin!"

Normally, you won't pass through a forest with such monsters right?

[Shut up. Orthros and Griffin are not my match]

Not your match? We're talking about Orthros and Griffin you know!

[I should have told you this before, but the only thing that can be my match is the Ancient Dragon. Orthros and Griffin are not my match. Also, they know that they cannot win against me. And if, there were to challenge me, it would be young Orthros and Griffin that does not know how to be afraid]

n? What a second.

"Hey, from how Fer is speaking, it feels like, there are multiple Orthros and Griffins though..."

[What are you talking about. Both the Orthros's territory and the Griffin's territory are their breeding grounds. Of course there are many of them]

Haa---?!!

S-Such a thing, please say it earlier!

Multiple boss character class monsters?? Isn't that too much.

Normally, it would be out with just one you know.

And now you're talking about many of them.....

This is bad, this is very bad.

“H-Hey, let’s avoid the Orthros’s and Griffin’s territory okay”

Un, that’s a great idea.

Mostly for my mental health.

[Why must we avoid it? Of course we will continue like this. Also, we have already entered the Orthros’s territory]

“Haaaa?! S-Say that earlier!”

[Am I not telling you right now? Really, what in the world are you angry about?]

After saying that, Fer continued to advance.

Haa~.

I could only let out a sigh.

Oh well, it’s Fer after all.

From Fer’s point of view, he is too strong that there is no way that Orthroses and Griffins would bare their fangs against him.

But from my point of view, it is super scary thinking that we might encounter Orthroses and Griffins.

After all, we’re talking about Orthros and Griffin here okay?

Coward, you say? I’m alright with that.

Normally, anyone would be scared if something like that appears.

The only ones that would stay cool with that kind of monsters around are only strong beings like Fer.

Although we might not be attacked with Fer around, even so, I don’t want to encounter them.

But according to Fer, we're already within the Orthros's territory...

Orthros, don't come out okay.

Orthroses should know that Fer is stronger too.

Ah, but Fer said that young Orthroses might challenge him.

No, there's no way right...?

Keep behaved and don't come okay~, Orthros~.

Chapter 42

Fer vs Orthros

I faintly heard a dog barking.

“.....o... oof... woof...!”

Ge...!

T-The dog’s barking feels like it’s approaching.

I-Is it coming? Orthros.

“Woof! Woof! Woof! Woof! Woof! Woof!”

Pushing its way through the bushes, what appeared in front us was Orthros with black fur and two vicious faces.

Its size was also not lacking compared to Fer.

On top of that, there’s five of them.

“F-Fer...!”

Oh no, oh no, oh no, Orthros came.

[It is alright. They are nothing to be afraid of]

N-No, even if you say that, they are five dangerous looking creatures you know.

Especially the one in the middle, both of its heads are drooling and baring their fangs.

nn? A-re? They seem somewhat strange.

The one in the middle is growling and barking and taunted Fer from the beginning, but the other four looks like they’re trying to stop the one in the middle.

[That one in the middle must be the youngster that does not know what fear is]

W-Wait a second.

Fer seems a bit aggressive.

O-Oh Fer-san, are you going to do it?

[You and Sui, go take refuge for a bit]

Y-Yes, of course we will gladly take refuge.

I hurry up and got off Fer's back and took refuge behind a tree.

I peeked from the back of the tree and saw Fer and the Orthros facing off.

This, isn't this atmosphere too bad...?

[Are you aware of what it means to bare your fangs towards me? I shall not hold back. If you are prepared for death, then come at me]

After Fer said that, the Orthros in the middle growled "Grrrrrrr".

And, with a strong "woof!", it plunged towards Fer.

Against that, Fer did not look like he's going to dodge at all, all that he did was to swing his right paw up and down.

"Kyan!"

At the same time Fer swung his right paw, a phantom of sharp claws appeared, and cut Orthros apart.

"W-W-W-What the heck was that...?"

Is it a skill?

I'm pretty sure it's a move mixed with magic powers though.

I remembered Fer's status.

Come to think of it, there should be Claw Slash...

[Scram]

When Fer said that to the remaining for Orthroses, they ran away like a leaping rabbit.

[Oi, it's alright now]

Being told by Fer, I cautiously approached Fer while carrying Sui.

At this point, Sui woke up due to the commotion, and worriedly stayed in my arms.

[Fer-ojichan's strong huh~]

“Yeah, he's strong. Fer, was that a skill earlier?”

[That's right. It's called Claw Attack (爪斬撃 Souzangeki). By charging magic powers to the claws, it would be released creating slashing attack that tears enemies apart]

That sharpness with one swing, what a brutal skill.

[This is a technique that I created about 600 years ago]

Fer, you don't have to make such a smug look.

Even so, he made that? Although it's too late to say this, you're really such a cheat huh~.

[Ne~, ne~, would Sui be able to do it just like Fer-ojichan?]

“U~n, Sui doesn't have claws so it's a bit impossible. But, Sui also have an amazing skill right? That acid bullet that shoots acid, it's quite amazing you know~”

[Really? Sui's, amazing? Amazing?]

“Un, Sui's amazing~. Sui's the best~”

I hugged Sui tightly.

Bloodthirst was in the air earlier after all, ahh~, how soothing.

Well, though I said that, it smells blood over here though.

“Oi, what will we do with this Orthros?”

There’s the dead Orthros that received Fer’s Claw Slash.

Ueeh, this is terrible.

Its insides are coming out from its chest and stomach...

[Orthros? They taste bad and inedible]

Taste bad and inedible? Did Fer try to eat an Orthros like this before?

What a challenger.

Normally, if you see this, you won’t think of eating it.

[If I am correct, its skin and fangs should be treated valuably among humans]

Ohh, is that so.

But, if I showed this, there’d be a commotion without a doubt.

There’s a Chimaera in my item box right...?

I should let this Orthros sleep together with the Chimaera inside my item box eternally.

Un, that should be it.

Peace is for the best after all.

Chapter 43

Fried Food Joins The Popular Menu

After Fer's fight with the Orthrus, I got on his back and we ran off again.

When the sun went down we decided to make camp nearby.

"Hey, is this still Orthros territory?" I asked.

"Yeah, we still got a ways to go before we're out of it." Fer said.

There are still Orthros around? Is it OK to just make camp here? I looked around worriedly.

"Don't be afraid, the Orthros won't come around here. They saw who was the strongest in the previous fight." Fer explained.

Well, I must admit...

The Orthros that he defeated was probably the strongest of them all, and Fer had killed him with a single slicing blow.

As Fer says they will probably not come, but I can't be calm while we're still in the Orthros' territory. I'll get Fer to make a really secure Barrier.

"Now that's understood, how about food?" Fer said.

"It's not OK, we're still in Orthrus territory. Make a really secure Barrier."

"Aruji-, Sui is also hungry." Sui said.

"Is Sui's tummy empty? Let's make dinner then."

"Hey, why do you treat me different from Sui?" Fer growled.

Of course I treat her different, she's a lot cuter than you are.

Since Fer was getting grouchy I got ready to make dinner. I checked what was left in the Item Box but a lot of the meat had been used up.

"Fer, how far have we got through the forest?"

"Ummm, we're about half-way."

That means if it's taken about three weeks to get here then it'll take us about the same time to get to the other side of the forest? About three weeks... we've barely got enough supplies. However there's the Net Super so it should be OK, and we can use less meat by putting it on rice bowls.

So maybe I should use some meat I haven't tried before? I've still got that Black Serpent meat. It's a snake though. Since the old guy at the Adventurer's Guild said it was a luxury item I think it's supposed to be delicious but...

I've heard it said that snake meat tastes like chicken but I've never tried it myself. However the orc meat was delicious when I tried that for the first time so maybe the Black Serpent will be the same. Right, I'll cook some Black Serpent. It looks like chicken, a bit anyway.

Everybody likes fried food.

First I'll buy stuff that I've nearly run out of from the Net Super. Soy sauce and sake, and since it's a pain to grate ginger and garlic I'll buy some grated paste in tubes, and wheat flour and potato starch and vegetable oil as well. I've got a frying pan and a cooker but I'll need to buy a pot for deep-frying.

Right, let's get started cooking.

Cut the Black Serpent's meat up into bite-sized pieces and stab them with a fork so that the sauce seeps in. Put soy sauce, sake, grated garlic and ginger in a plastic bag and give it a really good shake. Add the Black Serpent's meat and squeeze it over and over to infuse it with the sauce. Poking the meat with a fork helps but I give it a good ten minutes anyway. Meanwhile I put kitchen paper on a dish.

I get the oil warmed up properly. Right, it's about time.

I covered the Black Serpent's meat with a mixture of flour and starch, shook off the excess powder and fried it. Yep, it looks like it's nice and crispy, just like fried chicken. Whether it tastes like it...

I try not to think of it as snake, I think to myself, "it's chicken" and try a bite.

*Crunch, chew chew chew... *.....It tastes delicious, nothing weird.

"Don't hold out. Feed me some of it too."

Fer had been standing motionless, eyes fixed on the food but his patience was exhausted. I scooped out more freshly-fried chick- uh, Black Serpent meat for him.

"Wa-, wait a minute." I said.

"Nnnn, this is delicious. Not enough, give me more."

Hang on, I just started frying.

"Sui wants to eat it too."

Yes yes, just wait a moment. "Give me some time to fry more."

I fried and fried continuously. As I finished each batch Fer and Sui gobbled them down. I fried until I was ready to drop, it seemed endless.

Fer and Sui ate nearly everything, would they leave any for me?

"Hey, leave a little for me will you?"

Eventually after frying and frying, Fer and Sui seemed satisfied.

"Umu, it was delicious. I want to eat this dish again." said Fer.

"Yeah, it was delicious. Sui likes this too. I want to eat it again."

It looked like fried food will be a popular item on the menu from here on.

However, there were only three pieces of fried chick- uh, Black Serpent meat left. I put them between two slices of bread but it was not as nice to eat it that way. Damn it.

Chapter 44

Healing Mushroom

"That reminds me, Fer, whereabouts is the Gryphon territory?"

That's right. I had forgotten, what with the fight with the Orthros that there were Gryphons in this forest too.

"The Gryphons territory is a bit further on." Fer replied.

A bit further, then we've got some more time.

"Hey, let's avoid the Gryphon's territory." Gryphons are also dangerous. For one thing, Gryphons can fly since they're feathered creatures. If you know such demons exist then you should avoid them at all costs.

"But why do I need to avoid their territory?" asked Fer. It's the sort of thing only someone like Fer would say. "There's nothing to fear about those guys. Besides, their territory is wider than the Orthrus' turf so we can't avoid going through there."

Wh-, what the-...

"I've said this many times but tell me about these sorts of things sooner, will you?"

"Well you should have asked me about it earlier."

Haa, I give up. We can't avoid it so we'll have to go through the Gryphons territory.

I don't wanna. I hope we don't meet any Gryphons. Hey Mister Gryphon, please don't show yourself.

"Don't worry about it, you'll be fine. You and Sui are always protected by my Barrier and the Gryphons territory is still some way away."

No matter what I say it seems we'll be going through the Gryphons territory regardless. I really don't wanna.

"Nuu, that's curious..." said Fer. I stopped suddenly.

"Eh? What's curious?" I asked apprehensively.

Following the line of Fer's stare, I saw a pale blue mushroom growing at the base of a tree. Looking around there were more mushrooms like that one growing at the base of other trees nearby.

"That, well it's a very rare mushroom, supposedly a healing mushroom. It's been a long time since I saw any."

When you say "healing" does that mean it has an effect like recovery magic or can it be made into a potion? Fer's been around for over a thousand years and he's not seen many of them then it must be a really rare mushroom.

"Just eating raw it is very effective, it even cures deep cuts and fractures in an instant."

Hee, so just eating them works?

"If they work like that then I'll gather some." I got off Fer's back and picked some healing mushrooms.

Then Sui crawled out of her bag. "What smells so good?-"

Do they really smell good?

Sui went over to the healing mushrooms.

"Hey hey, Aruji, these mushrooms look delicious. Can I eat some?"

Fer could eat them without harm but is it really OK to say yes to Sui?

"Fer, is it OK to eat them?"

"Ah, there shouldn't be any sort of a problem as they just have a recovery effect." Fer answered.

"OK, Sui, you can eat them, but not too many." I figure eating them in moderation would prevent something bad happening.

"Yay!" Sui started happily absorbing the healing mushrooms.

"Yeah, I just remembered." added Fer. "The healing mushroom is one of the ingredients of the potion called "Elixir". It seems that a medicine like "Elixir" can cure any disease. People on the verge of dying will get better and it also extends their lifespan."

"So, Elixir-" It seems Elixir is a secret remedy. If these healing mushrooms are one of the ingredients then maybe the other ingredients are difficult to find too. It must be hard to make. You might find it as a rare drop in a treasure chest in a really difficult dungeon, maybe, in a game or a light novel.

Well, it's not likely I'll ever get an Elixir but It's lucky that I found these healing mushrooms here.

I'll take a lot. For me. The way I am I'll likely need them, whatever you think of me.

Fer is a legendary Demon Beast even if he only appears to be a glutton and Sui is a Unique Slime even though she looks like a small-fry. Me, I'm just an ordinary guy. OK, I've learned how to use magic and I've got a bit stronger. While Fer and Sui are doing their best, I have to prepare for emergencies.

While I was carefully picking healing mushrooms, Sui who was absorbing the mushrooms next to me glowed a pale white light.

"Uh, Sui-?!"

"Aruji, Sui's body feels all sparkly."

"Sui, are you all right? Is it painful?"

"It doesn't hurt-"

The pale light infusing Sui's body faded after about a minute.

"Sui, is there anything wrong?"

"Nothing, Sui, feels OK." Sui bounced up and down excitedly.

What just happened? Although she seems OK, I used Appraisal.

[[Name]] Sui
[[Age]] 21
[[Types]] Slime
[[Level]] 17
[[Fitness]] 367
[[Magical Power]] 361
[[Attack power]] 354
[[Defense force]] 357
[[Agility]] 363
[[Skill]] acid bullet, restorative medicine creation

Sui is already level 17... she's eating foreign-world trash every day so it's going up fast. Hmm? Something's been added to her skills. What is restorative medicine creation...?

"Hey Fell, it says Sui's skills include restorative medicine creation, is that right?" I ask Fer to carry out an Appraisal too.

"Oh, there it is. Perhaps it's because Sui ate a lot of healing mushrooms."

"Huh? Can she acquire new skills that way?"

"It's because Sui is a Slime. A long time ago I saw a Slime that only ate metal which had evolved into a Metal Slime. It acquired the skill of Hardening as it evolved. I think this is the same sort of thing."

So depending on what she eats changes her evolution and lets her gain specific skills? Restorative medicine creation is not a bad skill after all. I mean, I'd rather she gained a skill that was a good thing.

"Well done, Sui!"

"Uh? Sui is a good girl?"

"Yes, yes, Sui is a good girl!"

Sui jumped around me, bouncing happily.

Chapter 45

Sui's Deluxe High-grade Potion

"Sui, will you stop for a moment while I tell you something?" I said as Sui bounced happily around me.

"What is it?" said Sui telepathically as she stopped in front of me.

"Sui, you got a new skill, restorative medicine creation. Can you use it?"

"Uhn? I don't quite understand, but I will try."

Sui made a groaning grunting sound as she concentrated on making restorative medicine.

"Oh I can. Aruji, I can make it!"

"Really?"

"Yeah, watch..."

Sui pushed out a tentacle and a liquid dripped from the end.

"Oh, hang on a moment." I said. I quickly retrieved an empty bottle from my Item Box.

"Please put it in this." I put the plastic bottle close to the tentacle tip. A clear bluish liquid collected in the PET bottle.

"This is all I can make just now, Aruji."

"Oh, I see. Thank you."

The bottle's half full of a liquid that's probably a restorative medicine made by Sui. Is it really a restorative medicine? I sniffed it but it seems to be odourless. I used Appraisal on the bluish liquid in the plastic bottle.

[[Sui's Deluxe High-grade Potion]]

Eh? What's this...? Sui's medicine is a deluxe high-grade potion? Explain this to me, Sui-chan.

"Sui, this is called a Sui Deluxe High-grade Potion but do you know why?"

"Because it's made by Sui. Also it's a medicine that will cure a lot of pain very quickly."

Is- is that so?

"Can you make other medicines?"

"Well, I can make a medicine that will cure some pain and another medicine that will cure a small amount of pain."

Potions that can cure mid-level pain are middle level, and medicine that cures a bit of pain is a lower-level potion. I wonder what effect each of the upper, intermediate and lower classes have...

"Sui, do you know how effective the medicine is?"

"Ummm, a high-grade medicine cures a lot of pain, a medium medicine cures medium pain and the low-grade medicine heals a little pain."

Obviously it was a mistake to ask Sui. Is there any other way I can check its effectiveness?

And how does Sui make the restorative medicine in the first place? Sui can make acid bullets as well as restorative medicines, that makes Sui absurdly strong.

"I've lived for a long time but it's the first time I've ever seen a Slime produce a restorative medicine." Fer interjected. This is a first for a fellow who's over a thousand years old?

"I'd say Sui is a very special individual." I said.

"There's no doubt she's special, she has a very high intelligence for a Slime after all. That makes her quite unique." Fer's long experience probably means Sui really is a special case.

You can't think of Slimes as small fry if you look at Sui. Whoever decided Slimes were only ever small fry anyway?

Bouncing around, Sui jumped up to my chest saying "Aruji-". I caught her, of course. Sui is cute. Sooo healing-.

"How much Sui Deluxe High-Grade Potion can you make in a day, Sui?" I asked.

"Uh, I don't know." You don't know?

"Well, can you make the same medicine as before until the bottle's full?" I held out the PET bottle which was half-filled with Sui's Deluxe High-grade Potion.

"Uh, I'll try." Sui produced more Sui's Deluxe High-grade Potion and it didn't take long for the bottle to be filled.

"That's it full, Sui. Thank you." I'm all set. I've got healing mushrooms, I've got Sui's Deluxe High-grade Potion, I won't die too easily.

I never thought she'd produce restorative medicine. Sui-sama!

"Hoi, let's get going right now." Fer growled.

"Ah, sorry sorry. Come here Sui-" I put Sui in her bag and climbed up on Fer again.

"Right, we're off."

Chapter 46

My Bad, I Forgot Something

After dinner Fer reminded me of something.

"By the way, are you offering your prayers to Ninril-sama?"

"Oh yeah, I completely forgot."

"You'll be cursed big time! Hurry up and do it." Fer growled.

"Yeah yeah." I grumbled.

It's only been a week since the oracle told me to make offerings so I've not actually broken my promise quite yet. I don't want complaints from that poor excuse for a Goddess though so I'll make another offering now.

I look through the Net Super menu while trying to decide what to offer.

The Goddess likes sweet things so I wonder what would be good. What should it be...?

Hmmm, some things from this section might get the goddess to look kindly on me. I start searching the sweets menu but there are many different kinds.

I'll just choose things that catch my eye to start with. First of all there's custard pudding and cheesecake.

Cheesecake -- baked cheesecake or unbaked cheesecake? Both?

Next, I think Swiss Roll, cream puff, Mont Blanc, chocolate cake and strawberry shortcake. After that pudding a la mode and tiramisu as well.

Is that a total of ten pieces? Everything's a Western-style cake but if it's for that Goddess it'll be OK, I expect.

I've never looked in the Sweets Corner before but it seems to have been the right place this time. Right, I have to pay for all this.

A cardboard box appears as usual. I take out the sweets I purchased and line them up on the instant cardboard box altar.

"Wind Goddess Ninril-sama, I'd like to thank you for giving me your protection although I'm a little bit late. Thank you for your continued support." I pray to Ninril-sama while I make the offering.

[Ooh, finally. Really, how long were you going to keep me waiting?] Ninril-sama sounded snippy.

"I'm incredibly sorry, I was distracted by various things here and I forgot, sorta..."

[Stop lying. I can see you from the World of the Gods, you know. You didn't just forget.]

Ow, she got me.

"Well, I'm incredibly sorry. I'll take more care next time, please forgive me." I grovelled.

[Hmmm, I'll forgive you this time but don't make such a mistake again. I considered sending you an oracle to remind you many times but there are reasons why I couldn't do it.]

I forgot because she didn't send me an oracle but it seems she can't always do that for some reason.

[It's like this,] Ninril-sama explained. [The Gods and Goddesses watch each other like hawks. If one of us sends too many oracles the others will notice. If I'm not careful then you'll end up having to make offerings to them too. You've got to remain a secret.]

Ah, I muttered to myself quietly, there are other greedy Goddesses too.

"Ninril-sama, as an apology, I have brought together these various offerings today." I prayed with my head bowed. When I looked up again, the items on the cardboard altar had disappeared without a trace.

[Woohoo! This, this is-!!]

What's with the Woohoo!? This is a very disappointing Goddess.

[They're all so sweet, and so different? And there's so many of them too!!]

"Yes, Goddess, it's an apology offering as I said earlier. I thought it might be a bit too much..."

[Wh-what are you saying? Too much? No, this is perfect. Next time you should offer the same amount. That's an order.]

Yeah yeah. So ten pieces was OK after all.

"Oh, Ninril-sama, these sweets are all cakes so keep them refrigerated so you can enjoy them tomorrow."

[I got it. However we Gods don't need to refrigerate things, we can just stop time passing for them. I can enjoy one piece each day. Mmphph...]

Mmphph... oh Goddess... Somehow in my mind I can see this Goddess jumping for joy.

[Anyway, offer up this amount next time, please. Be sure not to forget again.]

"As you command." Haa- I'm worn out. That is to say, this disciple of a disappointing Goddess is worn out.

I thought about going to bed immediately but Fer and Sui were looking at me intently.

"Wh- what's with you two?"

"Sui wants to eat some too..." Oh Sui, don't ask me in that sort of a cute voice...

"That's right. Shouldn't we also get a small share?" growled Fer.

"The cakes were an offering to Ninril-sama. They're not really for eating before you go to sleep."

"Uh-, Aruji-" Sui is shivering and trembling. She really wants to eat some cake... Ah, Sui-tan is too cute. I surrender.

"Three pieces only, understand?" One piece each isn't really enough for Fer and Sui, probably.

"Really, Aruji?"

"Ah. But like I said, only three pieces."

"Yeah, yay-!" Sui bounced up and down happily.

"Hey, what about me?"

"You'll get some too, Fer so don't worry."

"Yeah, well."

I search on Net Super with Sui watching over my shoulder to help me choose. I bought a chocolate cake, a strawberry shortcake and a pudding a la mode. A piece each was not enough for those two as I thought but but at least mine was delicious.

Haa- my Contracted beasts are gluttons.

Chapter 47

Fer vs. Gryphon

"We'll soon be entering Gryphon territory." Fer's words gave me a shock.

We're finally at the Gryphon territory. I don't want to enter it.

"Keep the Barrier up solidly." I beg Fer.

"Yes I know. Don't worry."

I'm going to worry anyway. They're Gryphons after all.

We're well into Gryphon territory now. We haven't seen any trace of Gryphons yet. I wish we could go all the way through the Gryphon territory without seeing them at all.

On the third day a Gryphon appeared at last. A single Gryphon landed in front of us with a great beating of its wings. I was struck speechless. Honestly the sight of it nearly made me wet myself.

Anyway the Gryphon looked like a really big deal. It had the head of an eagle and the body of a lion and it was even bigger than Fer.

Suddenly this giant Gryphon kneeled down and bowed its head.

"Fenrir-sama, please, do this"

"Wh- what, it can talk?" I was surprised because I thought the only monster that could speak human language was Fer. Sui can use Telepathy like Fer because of her Contract with me but she can't talk. But this Gryphon can talk...

"Gryphons can't normally use human languages but this one is special and of high intelligence."

"Oh, that's why."

"This Gryphon and me and the Ancient Dragon can speak human language fluently." Fer explained.

I see.

"As he said, human words, only I" So this Gryphon is the only one that can speak human language.

"Flock leader, to become, trial, I must, fight me, please"

Huh? The Gryphon wants to fight Fer to become the leader of the Gryphons?

"Mighty, Fenrir-sama, fight, everyone, me, accept." So everyone in the flock will accept him as their leader if he fights a Fenrir. The Gryphon's got some guts, hey?

"Very well, I'll be your opponent, but I won't go easy on you." Fer said.

"Understood"

Sui and I got off Fer's back and moved clear. As I got off I whispered "Don't kill him, hey?" in Fer's ear but the only response was a shrug. I can't help but wonder if that Gryphon was going to be OK? If it comes to it we can use some of Sui's Deluxe High-Grade Potion but we've only got one PET bottle's worth. That might not be enough for such a large Gryphon.

"Sui, can you make more High-Grade Potion?"

"Nnnn, easy-"

I got another PET bottle out to make more of Sui's Deluxe High-Grade Potion, just to be safe as Fer and the Gryphon faced off against each other.

"Right, let's go." said Fer.

At Fer's words the Gryphon spread its giant wings and flew up into the sky. From its wings high above countless black things like arrows descended. Fer dodged them like he was dancing. When I looked I saw the "arrows" fired by the Gryphon were feathers. A large volley-ball-sized stone struck by a feather was shattered into tiny pieces.

*Wow, that's amazing... *

It was Fer's turn to fire magic at the Gryphon high above. A small tornado formed around the Gryphon, spinning it around and around in the wind. The tornado seemed to have a cutting edge -- I think that magic is the most powerful version of Wind Cutter -- and the tornado was coloured red with the Gryphon's blood. The Gryphon's really in a bad way.

"H- hey Fer, that's too much-"

"Hmmmph-"

The tornado collapsed and the Gryphon crashed to the ground. I immediately went to the Gryphon's side and sprinkled it with Sui's Deluxe High-Grade Potion.

"I told you to take it easy on him, didn't I?" I said to Fer. There are limits, you know. That kind of tornado, don't use it just because you want to show off.

"Nnnn..." The Gryphon opened its eyes.

"Hey, are you OK?"

"Aaah... , wounds..."

"I think the cuts are healed up where I sprinkled this potion but does it hurt anywhere?"

"Human, medicine... expensive"

"Don't worry about that. Is everything else OK with you?" The Gryphon's body was covered with blood, even its pure-white wings.

"I'm fine, sorry."

Huu-, it turned out good. It looks like Sui's Deluxe High-Grade Potion worked perfectly. It did take two PET bottles worth to do the trick though.

"Nothing, so easy, to lose,..." The Gryphon hung its head dejectedly. It seemed the Gryphon didn't expect to match up to Fer but he didn't think he would lose so easily.

The Gryphon is a boss-level character, one of this world's greatest Demonic Beasts after all and Fer beat it by magic while it was flying around... Fer's really something special, isn't he?

Oh, hello? I noticed something when I looked at Fer.

"Hey, you did manage something. Look at that." I pointed at the shoulder of Fer's foreleg. Fer's white fur had a slight tinge of blood.

"It's a wound from the Gryphon's first attack. It's not much to inflict on a legendary Demon Beast like a Fenrir but it's a solid hit, isn't it?"

"Nununu, it's annoying even if I say so myself."

The Gryphon raised its head after hearing Fer's words.

"I, I, Fenrir-sama..." The Gryphon made a loud cry and looked up into the sky. Scores of Gryphons were flying towards us.

"Uh, waah...!"

One Gryphon was intimidating enough, scores of them were another matter entirely. Or should I say, totally terrifying.

The Gryphons landed behind the one that Fer had fought with. I couldn't look.

"I, the leader, am recognised"

Is that so? That's good I think.

"Fer-sama, thank you, very much"

Yeah yeah, keep going.

"Human, here, take"

The Gryphon plucked some feathers from its wing and passed them to me. Apparently they were payment for treating his wounds with Sui's potion. Gryphon feathers are valuable, it seemed.

"So, human, you can, pass here, be eaten not"

I'm happy and terrified at the same time. Gryphons eat people but they're not going to eat me.

Hearing that I'm never going to come this way again!

"Can we go now, Fer?"

"Yah, let's go." I put Sui back in my bag and climbed aboard Fer to away from this place quickly. The annoying Gryphon sent a loud cry after us.

Chapter 48

Delicious Pork Cutlet After A Long Absence

"We're out of the Gryphon territory." said Fer.

"Oh, finally?"

We hadn't seen any Gryphons since that talking Gryphon challenged Fell. I was kinda scared when the Gryphon said they ate people, so I was happy we're out of their territory.

"How much longer will we be in the forest?"

"Not too long. It will be about three more days." Great, we're nearly out of the forest. After that it's the Leonhart Kingdom, I think?

"Hey Fell, once we're out of the forest, will we be in the Leonhart Kingdom?"

"I do not know where that country is. However, when I go east I go through this forest. You wanted to go east? Well it'll be fine." Fer answered.

Huh, it was a mistake to ask Fer.

According to what Fell told me, it seems that the forest here is part of a larger forest area covering the eastern part of the Feenen kingdom. Because we started from the Feenen Kingdom, where we will come out of the forest is probably going to be the Leonhart Kingdom... We'll ask someone when we get out of the forest. It will be good to meet people again after so long. Maybe.

"Do you want to make camp around here today?" I said to Fer as the sun was going down.

"Good idea. My belly has shrunk." Hey, I'm hungry too you know?

I asked Fer to raise his speed a little since we're nearly out of the forest and I've gotten kinda used to being on his back.

Well, I'd like a cheerful meal so in that case...

Breaded pork cutlet.

It's definitely the right time to eat that, but breaded pork cutlets should always be made of pork. Hmmm, there should be some orc meat left... When I searched the Item Box, I found some orc meat. OK, let's eat breaded pork cutlet here with Fer, but I have to buy some missing items first.

Well, I've already got salt and pepper, eggs too, oil for deep-frying..... what's missing is, hmm, bread crumbs and wheat flour? Oh, it's important that I buy cabbage and tonkatsu sauce (of course!) and rice is ESSENTIAL!

I bought materials that I had run out of from the Net Super and checked them off the list. Everything's there, yes.

First I started cooking the rice then I shredded the cabbage and soaked it in water. I cut the orc meat into thick slices then hit it with the back of the kitchen knife to tenderise it. After dusting the orc meat lightly with salt and pepper, I dunked it in flour and removed the excess. I coated them with some beaten eggs and then added bread crumbs, then repeated the eggs and breadcrumb coating to make the finished product even crispier. I then deep-fried them until they turned a nice light brown colour in the oil.

Poking them with a kitchen knife made a nice crunchy sound. They're gonna be delicious~ I served them on a dish with shredded cabbage and rice.

"They're ready." I announced. Fell and Sui immediately crowded in.

I added tonkatsu sauce. "Right, here it is. Be careful as it's hot." I warned them but Fer had already sunk his fangs into the food before I could say "hot".

"It's a bit hot, but this is delicious." Fer said.

It seems Sui is OK with hot foods so she ate the pork cutlet in one go.

"Yeah, this is delicious, isn't it?" she agreed.

Well it is a pork cutlet. They both like it so that's good. Time for me to eat too. Mmmm, success! Oh, it tastes delicious after such a long time. Next, the rice. Pork cutlet eaten with rice is the best.

Oh, this makes me want some miso soup. Do I have any? Yes, I had bought instant miso soup earlier. I made some instant miso soup taken from the item box. Pork cutlet, rice, miso soup, pork cutlet, rice, pork cutlet, sometimes cabbage... it's so delicious.

"Hey, I want seconds." said Fer.

"Sui too"

Yeah yeah. Fer and Sui pestered me until I started frying more and more breaded pork cutlets for them. I thought there was another serving of orc meat left but we used it all up in one go.

Good grief, Fer and Sui are way too greedy.

Chapter 49

Fer and Sui Combo vs. Bandits

Fell picked up speed. I could see a blue sky ahead through gaps between the trees.

"Okay, we're out-" said Fer.

We left the forest and entered a wide sprawling prairie. Our journey through the forest had lasted for for a month and a half.

"Haa, we're finally out of the forest." I sighed. Grassland, it feels good..... but where are we? Are there any roads?

"Fer, have you been here before?"

"Maybe..." he replied noncommittally. So you're not sure, huh?

"Are there any roads around here?" I enquired.

"Roads made by humans? I think there's a road not far from here."

"Can you head there?"

"Why should we?"

"From what you've told me, Fer, I think that this is the Kingdom of Leonhart but it's better we check that with someone. In addition we need to get to a town quickly since the meat will be used up soon, that's why."

"The meat is running out?" Fer asked anxiously. "That's serious. There's bound to be a human road over that way. We'll go there at once." The possibility of running out of meat to eat is a big deal for Fer.

As Fer promised, he found a human road quickly. I hope to encounter someone while going along this road...

From high up on Fer's back I spotted a horse carriage in the distance as we ran along the road. "Ah, people..."

I heard voices, faint and intermittent. They must be quite loud since they're so far away. Are they shouting?

"That carriage, it's being being attacked by bandits." Fer said.

What? Bandits? !

"F-, Fer, please protect me, I will make a luxury dinner tonight!" The words tumbled from my mouth. I panicked and forgot I wasn't the one that needed help here.

"Don't forget that promise." Fer said as he accelerated towards the carriage.

We were suddenly beside the carriage. Adventurers who appeared to be escorting the wagon were fighting a gang of scruffy-looking ruffians. It looked like the bandits outnumbered the adventurers who were being pressed back.

"Plug your ears." Fer ordered. As Fer said I put my fingers in my ears.

"A-oooh!" Even with my ears plugged Fer's howl froze my body.

The bandits and the adventurers who heard his howl clearly were totally petrified.

Sui crawled out of her bag. "Aruji-, what's wrong?"

"There are some bad guys, Fer-ojichan is dealing with them."

"Huh? Is that so? Sui will help too."

"Right then, shoot acid bullets at the arms of those men with weapons over there and there and over there, OK? Don't hit them with big acid bullets, just get them to drop their weapons."

"I understand-"

Pew, pew, pew, pew, pew.

"Gyaaa"

"Gooo"

"Gaaaaah"

"Gyaaaa---"

"Giyaaaa---"

The bandits screamed as their arms were hit by Sui's acid bullets. It seemed Sui's acid bullet attack is evolving. She wasn't shooting it like from a water gun, it was more like a high-speed beam of acid spray.

"If you don't surrender right now I'll kill and eat you. Throw your weapons down if you understand." The faces of the bandits who hadn't been hit by Sui's attack blanched as Fer showed his teeth and they threw down their weapons.

But the biggest bandit, presumably their leader, refused to obey Fer and brandished an axe. "Where did you come from? Stop interfering!" he shouted as he aimed his axe at me. I crossed my arms over my head to protect myself.

Slash. Pew.

When I opened my eyes after the axe didn't hit me, the axe man was breathing his last, with a horrible appearance that made me want to throw up. Uuurp. Deep breaths, deep breaths...

Fer's claw slash cut him to ribbons and then he was hit by Sui's acid bullet... I will let you imagine what it was like.

The surviving bandits knew the consequences of the crimes they committed but they didn't want to die. Seeing how the axe man was killed took the fight out of them and they meekly let themselves be tied up by the reinvigorated adventurers, none of whom were seriously injured since we had stepped in quickly.

After tying up the thieves, the adventurer's leader and a merchant from the carriage came to speak to us.

"I am Lambert, a merchant from Carerina, a city in the northwest of the Leonhart Kingdom. Thanks to you, everyone is safe and my cargo is OK. Thank you so much for your help." The merchant, a well-built man in his mid-40s bowed his head deeply as he spoke.

"I'm Rashu, the leader of the adventurer party 'Phoenix' who is escorting these merchants. We appreciate your assistance." The big muscular guy, he must have been more than 180cm tall, bowed deeply too along with everyone else in his party, thirty or so people all dressed in reddish-brown clothing.

"No, I just happened to be passing near by... my name's Mukouda."

"Ummm, are these your contract beasts?" Lambert-san seemed to be afraid, looking at Fer and Sui as he asked about them.

"Yes, they're my contract beasts, but they won't hurt anyone. Don't worry." When I said that, Lambert-san looked relieved.

"That Demonic Beast is a Fenrir... so the rumor was true." Rashu-san muttered while staring at Fer. Have such rumors spread so far?

"I heard that there was an adventurer who had taken a Fenrir as a contract beast, there were Wind Rumours... I thought that it was just someone's fantasy so I didn't believe it..."

I sometimes don't believe it either, but it is a fact.

If the rumors have spread this far, is it only a matter of time before the secret gets out? Rashu seems to have figured it out immediately after seeing Fer after all. It is going to be a big problem if we can't move around freely because everyone recognises him as a Fenrir.

I had overheard high-ranking adventurers saying that the Kingdom of Leonhart is a relatively free country without discrimination and they were open about accepting outsiders so I hoped I could fit in there.

However Fer is a legendary Demonic Beast and insanely strong. It would be great to be able to move freely in the Kingdom of Leonhart and their allied nation, the Ellen Kingdom if they are understanding about our circumstances. I hope that will be the case.

I can't do anything else now, I have no choice but to simply see what happens. We're probably going to be OK since Fer is with us, no matter what happens. I won't worry about it now.

"By the way, where are you guys heading?" I changed the subject. I'm not going to admit out loud that Fer is a Fenrir.

"We are returning to Carerina." said Lambert-san. Is he going back to his headquarters after finishing his work? We also wanted to go to a city, I wonder if I can piggyback here?

"Fer, Sui, this seems to be the Leonhart kingdom that were headed for so would you like to go to the city of Carerina? "

"Get some meat there. I'm OK." said Fer.

"Sui is happy too-"

Fel and Sui seem to be OK with going to Carerina.

"Lambert-san, we've just arrived in the Leonhardt Kingdom and to be honest we're not familiar with the geography of the area. If it's possible would you let us travel with you to Carerina?"

Lambert-san agreed to my request with a smile.

"Everyone would be grateful for your company, I'm sure. Please do come along with us."

And so we departed for the city of Carerina.

Chapter 50

The Awesome Adventurer's Guild

It was agreed we would accompany the merchant Lambert-san to his home town of Carerina. It would take two days to get there according to him.

Lambert-san was sitting on the front bench of the wagon driving the horses with Rashu, the leader of 'Phoenix' beside him. A member of 'Phoenix' was escorting the wagon on each side.

All eight surviving bandits were tied by a rope in two rows to the back of the wagon, walking behind it. A member of 'Phoenix' was walking on each side of them to keep an eye on them. We were following behind the two lines of bandits.

Of course, I was riding on Fer's back and Sui was in her usual place in her bag.

It appeared these bandits were going to be handed over to the Knights of the town of Carerina.

The chief bandit was killed in the fight and it wouldn't have been a problem if the other bandits had been killed too when they had attacked Lambert-san and 'Phoenix'. However since there would be a reward, the thieves who survived were taken along to be handed over to the Knights.

They told me to accept the reward since the bandits were actually defeated by Fer and Sui. Mr. Lambert said that it was the correct thing to do since we had saved his life and the members of 'Phoenix' were not able to fulfill the responsibility of the escort mission properly.

I appreciate the reward money so I decided to gratefully accept it. It's a pain that we have to drag the bandits along with us like this though.

Incidentally all the members of 'Phoenix' were big strong-looking men like Rashu-san. Even though they're trying to whisper they're kinda loud since they're so big. I could hear what they were saying to each other.

"Leader said it's a Fenrir but is it really? The rumour I heard was that it's a Great Wolf."

"I don't know but if Leader says it's a Fenrir, well..."

"Would such a legendary Demonic Beast become a contracted monster though?"

"To tell the truth it was Sandra-chan who told me it was a Great Wolf."

"Sandra-chan? That's Sandra, the Guild employee you're sweet on?"

"Ahh. Y'see, the Adventurers Guild's got these magic tools that can send messages between the guild houses. There's all sorts of information gets passed back and forth but it can get messed up sometimes. Maybe it came out 'Fenrir' when they meant to say 'Great Wolf'. Where Sandra-chan works most folks think it can't be a Fenrir so they decided it must be a Great Wolf after all."

"Well, yeah, that's what I'd say too."

"Yeah but, Leader has said he's sure it's a Fenrir. I'm sure I'd die if I went up against him whatever he is so..."

"We definitely don't want him as an enemy. Even a Great Wolf is a Rank A monster after all."

"Absolutely. Luckily for us he's a contracted monster and quiet as a lamb. Let's not provoke him though, huh?"

"Yep."

That was what I overheard. Thinking about it I had been wondering how the rumours about Fer had spread so far so fast in a world without telephones and the like. Was the magic tool they mentioned something like telpotation? The Adventurer's Guild is awesome.

Saying that it's clear the rumours about Fer were from someone in the Guild leaking that information. I suppose the Guild's got all sorts of people working for it, good and bad.

Rashu-san is convinced Fer is a Fenrir but the other members of 'Phoenix' aren't so sure. That might be down to their individual levels.

Werner of 'Iron Will' identified Fer as a Fenrir when he first saw him and he's a C ranked adventurer. The ojisan at the Adventurer's Guild in Fariel did so too and he was a B or C ranked adventurer even though he was retired. The other members of 'Phoenix' seem to be in their early twenties so I'd guess they're D and E ranked. So given that, it's likely any C rank or better adventurer can recognise Fer as a Fenrir...

For the moment Fer can pretend to be a Great Wolf and we can only hope anyone else gets confused.

People able to see clearly that he's actually a Fenrir tend to be of a high level and not stupid so when they realise what sort of Demonic Beast he really is they're not going to start anything because they know they'd lose.

Raashu-san also seems to have warned his party members "Don't mess with him unless you're totally ready to die."

The biggest problem we face is the local nobility and the Kingdom itself. We came here because it's supposed to be a relatively free country without discrimination but I don't want to be pressured by the rulers because of who we are.
