Ch1 – The God has an Idea.

RAW: <http://ncode.syosetu.com/n3461cg/1/>

MUWAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA the shortest bomb!!

I was Reincarnated as a Thief Girl and my Mission is to Harass the Demon Lord and the Hero.

Tozoku shoujo ni tensei shita ore no shimei wa yuusha to maou ni iyagarasena no!

Volume: A Thief girl will do whatever she wants Prologue – The God has an idea.

This is the world of the God.

“Yosh! This time it’s my win!”

The God of War did a Guts pose.

“When he first chose his representative, I honestly thought that it was impossible”

The God of Sorcery droops his shoulders.

“You guys, why don’t you just stop meddling with the human world?”

The God of Thieves rebuked the other 2 gods, but they didn’t pay him any attention.

“It’s because human society has forgotten the term ‘survival of the fittest’ and has, in turn, begun to rot” said the God of War.

“Because of our involvement. It’s all for the prosperity of the humans, you know?”

said the God of Sorcery.

“If it’s like that then no matter where my believers stand, they would always be outcasts” said the God of Thieves who was already fed up with the other 2 gods.

“Yosh, our next match will take place on this world”

“I won’t lose like last time!”

So you’re just doing it again. The God of Thieves let out a sigh. Eventually these guys’ representatives will go wild and end up killing my believers.

Oh, I just thought of something pretty good. The God of Thieves will, in where the other 2 gods are holding their match, send in his own representative whose sole purpose is to wreak havoc upon his counterparts.

Ch2 – Girl Reincarnation

Girl Reincarnation

His name is Yashiro Eiji. A legitimate HikiNEET.

His parents died several years ago and he is living off of the inheritance.

This, of course, reached it's limit. Out of necessity, he booted up his favorite PC and opened the HelloWork website and in the search parameters he entered [Girl], then clicked search. (TL: hellowork is a website that lists jobs, found it by googling this 八口ㄣ)

“So HelloWork has no girls. When will a girl fall from the sky for me?”

The keyword that he himself typed was the trigger that started Eiji's sleazy delusions.

The King of Sleazebags.

Soon after, he attained Sage mode.

“Well, time to go out and eat dinner.”

Next to him were his usual toys that he had ordered by mail.

He heads to the diner next to a convenience store. It's the only place he ever goes.

If he's lucky, he might get to see the shopkeeper's lovely daughter (estimated age: 8 years) who he worships.

“Oh, isn’t that the daughter of the diner’s owner? Why don’t I accompany her to the diner?”

Eiji, no longer in Sage mode, started to have delusions of going as far as grabbing her hand to lead her. Staggering, he headed towards the other side of the road where the little girl is.

He noticed something getting near. A huge, unique Semi-trailer. (ED: I imagine something like this: <http://goo.gl/QSRKeT>)

Eiji was hit 44 tons of pressure, instantly turning into minced meat.

“Oi, Eiji”

Eiji opened his eyes from suddenly having his name called out. He was in a pure white world.

“Oh, you’re finally awake”

A voice resounded in Eiji’s head.

“Well, you... you really are a low-life. The things in your head... Apart from the common knowledge, aren’t most of them crimes?”

“Mind your own business” Eiji thought while looking around the surroundings. There wasn’t anyone there.

“What a hobby, reading peoples minds. By the way, who are you and where in the world am I?”

“I am the God of Thieves. This is the border between heaven and the human world. You were turned into minced meat by a truck, do you understand that?”

Eiji remembered it. Being attracted to a little girl, he jumped onto the road. Then a trailer drew near, and that was where his memory stopped.

“What will happen to me?”

Eiji impatiently asked.

“If nothing happens here, you’ll be going to hell, you know? Since you’re scum.”

“Seriously?”

“However, I’m here to give you a proposition. Would you like to become my Representative and reincarnate into another world? I like guys like you who are the Kings of low-lives.”

“King of low-lives...are you praising me? What do you mean by representative?”

“You’ll be the representative of the God of Thieves. Well, when you reincarnate, you won’t remember that you’re the representative.”

“So, what should I do once I reincarnate?”

“You’ll be there with others like you. The God of War representative and the God of Sorcery’s representative will be in that world. I want you to harass them”

“That’s so troubleso~me”

“Then you’ll be bound for hell~”

“Ok ok! I understand. Just forget what I just said. By the way, when you think of reincarnating, you normally get some sort of cheat. What kind of ability will I get?”

“Unfortunately, the God of War governs over physical strength direct attacks and the God of Sorcery governs over wisdom and magical attacks, so I won’t be able to give you anything like that. In exchange, I can give you the abilities of thieves.”

“What do those do?”

“You’ll get Agile Aptitude and Prowess with Magical Tools”

The God of Thieves continues his explanation.

The Agile Aptitude will give various boosts to the thieves normal abilities.

Hidden presence, trap discovery, lock picking, and assassination.

Prowess with Magical Tools abilities are as follows:

[Magical Tool Perception] I am able to sense the presence of a magic tool at a glance.

[Magical Tool Identification] I can determine the ability of a magic tool and instantly know the command word for it.

[Peerless Magical Tool] Magical Tools cost 0 Mana Power(MP) to use and can be used limitlessly.

[Magical Tool Duplication] Can copy the ability of any magic tool and apply it to any normal tool.

“Amazing, this is an appropriate cheat.”

“Isn't it? If it's like this, there won't be any complaints, right?”

“No no”

“Yosh, the contract is complete. Well then, I will now hurl you towards your vessel in the other world. Your memories regarding me will disappear, but your abilities and purpose are drilled into your head, so you shouldn't need to worry.”

The God of Thieves started chanting something.

Eiji's existence began to fade and eventually vanished altogether.

“Well, if you don't have a magical tool, the abilities will be useless.” (TL: say that first! -> tsukomi by 9)

“Ellis! Oi! Ellis!”

Someone's voice resounded in Eiji's head. Who is this Ellis?
His head felt like it was split open.

“That's right, I was hit by a semi-trailer” Eiji remembered.
He searched for the feeling of both his arms and legs. There was no pain. The headache also quickly faded.
Eiji slowly opened his eyes. Right in front of him was an old guy who looks Italian.

“Ellis has regained consciousness!”

Again, just who is this Ellis?

“I'm glad that you're safe”.

Eiji turned towards the direction of the female voice beside him.
There, he saw a woman with a nice body. It was an older woman with clothes and facial qualities that made her look Swiss.

“Who is this Ellis?”

Eiji impatiently asks the old guy.
The old guy grabbed both of my shoulders, and said

“What are you saying? You’re Ellis, you know?”

“She might have amnesia”

The obasan continued.

Eiji looked at both of his hands.

His skin was pale and white. The size was that of a child's.

He looked down and checked his body from chest to feet.

There was a cotton dressing wrapped around his head. No matter how much he looked, he was a kid.

Eiji was reincarnated into the body of a little girl.

Ellis-Eiji understood the situation to this point. She pretended to lose her memories and began to confirm the situation.

The old guy's name was Kevin and the older woman's name was Alicia. They were Ellis' neighbors and her father's business partners.

“Angus sure is pitiable”

Alicia mumbled.

In short, the story goes like this.

Angus is a member of the Thieves Guild. He was either the center of the guild, or just the head of infiltration. (TL: TT__TT アンガスとは、盗賊ギルド所属の盗賊。ギルドでも中堅どころで、主に潜入に従事していた。)

Ellis was Angus' one and only daughter. Her mother died giving birth to her. Since then, Angus has been anything but doting on Ellis. It was something you call tough love.

Ellis once ran away from Angus only to get chased around by slave traders. Ellis already had the skills of a thief that Angus was drilling into her everyday. Even so, Ellis was sweetly raised.

Her skin was glossy and white, with straight, blonde hair that she inherited from her mother that came down to her shoulders. She had big, beautiful eyes that makes her look like a doll (ED: Or an anime character...)

Angus was worried that someone would take her away from him, so he made her register at the Thieves Guild.

Ellis became a member of the Thieves Guild and Angus left her to one of his subordinates.

“For a female thief, their body is also one of their tools”

He couldn't tell what his other colleagues would do.

Angus' specialty was infiltration. It isn't a gender specific job.

If she was in this field, he can bring her on jobs with him.

Angus thought it was a good choice, until the time he made a mistake on a mission.

Angus and Ellis were on a mission in the house of a certain noble. It was a guild quest.

The mission should have been simple, at least from what he could tell with his experience.

However, this time, the situation was different. A poison dart trap was cleverly set.

Both Angus and Ellis were hit by it.

They were both somehow able to make it back to their hideout, but Angus ended up losing his life. Ellis would have also, had Eiji not reincarnated into her corpse.

Ellis-Eiji was to wash herself. Alicia prepared a bath for her. In the reflection of the water in the tub, she could see her own naked body.

It was Eiji's dream to see a little girl's naked body, but with this being her own body, she didn't really get aroused. She could only think of it as beautiful.

Just like that, her sleazy thoughts exploded.

Her own body is a no go, but it's other girls, it shouldn't be a problem.

Instead of the body of a HikiNEET, this appearance will do much better.

On Ellis-Eiji's lovely face, the smile of the King of Low-lives appeared.

Ch3 – HikiNEET Vs Thief Couple

I was Reincarnated as a Thief Girl and my Mission is to Harass the Demon Lord and the Hero.

Tozoku shoujo ni tensei shita ore no shimei wa yuusha to maou ni iyagarasena no!

Volume: A Thief girl will do whatever she wants

HikiNEET Vs Thief Couple

The neighborhood couple, Kevin and Alicia, took good care of Ellis. They managed Angus' funeral, and invited Ellis over for dinner every day. Alicia treated Ellis like her own child, holding her hand when they go to town or contact the Thieves Guild.

Yes, they were too kind.

At this rate, the 8 year old Ellis would definitely be adopted.

Except she's actually a 30 year old HikiNEET.

“Suspicious”

Ellis-Eiji started to feel suspicious.

Things felt really uncomfortable.

Even though they are neighbors, there isn't a person alive who has such good intentions.

The walks with Alicia still serve their purpose.

Alicia believed that Ellis had lost her memories, so she answered anything Ellis asked.

The currency in this world is called Rill. Judging from market price, at least for food and clothing, 1 rill equals roughly 1 yen.

She also confirmed that she can read the language in this world. The signs on a storefront or guild papers, all were easily understood.

She also got to know the relationship between the Thieves Guild and the Adventurer Guild.

A thief works 100% with the Thieves Guild, and those who choose to work as a thief and adventure register as a [Thief Adventurer].

The difference between Thief Adventurers and thieves are that the former don't receive daily wages from the guild. Moreover, they are obligated to pay 10% of the rewards from their adventures to the guild.

For general thieves, the labor contract is tied with the guild like a salaryman. The Thief Adventurers have to pay a membership fee sort of like a franchise contract. (TL: why is the author using business terms when the MC is an HIkiNEET!!!)

The thieves who become adventurers are not allowed to go back to being regular thieves.

Choosing to be in a management position isn't a bad choice, since there are no fees, it's a good way to earn money from the guild. (TL: OTL 幹部候補生はそんな馬鹿な選択はしないし、そうでないものは一方的にギルドの収入となるから。)

Ellis thought about it.

I want to stay as far away from Kevin and Alicia. However, she was in an Infiltration Unit with her deceased father. She can't go against guild orders. The one giving her the worst feeling is Kevin, he's the leader of the Intelligence Unit.

“First of all, I need to look for something useful to protect me.”

Ellis-Eiji started searching every nook and cranny in her house. This is when she started to realize her ability as a thief.

She found a bunch of hidden doors, and unlocked all of her father's treasure chests.

She found her father's diary as well as the diary of her past self. She read it carefully, taking in the experiences of her father and her old self.

She noticed a faint glimmering light that came from an earring.

She picked it up and words suddenly surfaced in her mind, and the faint light disappeared.

[Earring of Intelligence. Ability: Target a person. You can hear what they are saying at a distance. Range: 1000 bit. MP Required: 3 Command Word: 【Strain my Ears】]

It would be weird if an 8 year old wore an earring.

In her left hand, Ellis held her favorite Katyusha and in her right hand was the [Earring of Intelligence]. She then recited: [Magic Tool Duplication][Katyusha of Intelligence. Ability: Target a person. You can hear what they are saying at a distance. Range: 1000 bit. MP Required: 3 Command Word: 【Strain my Ears】 It seems that 1 bit = 10 cm. (9: those who are lazy to calculate its 10000 cm or 100 meters)

Ellis wore the Katyusha on her head.

“Kevin-san, Alicia-san, Konichiwa”

They both smiled and Kevin waved Ellis over.

The wife is better at talking, but the husband was more suspicious.

That day, Ellis stayed with them until midday. As she left, she set Kevin as the target for her Intelligence ability.

“Stop being so noisy, wait just a bit longer”

Perhaps on the other side it was Alicia shouting.

“I know, but even so, won't it be bad if I put her to use while she's mourning?”

“After all, she is just an 8 year old brat. If this goes on, we'll start getting emotionally attached to her.”

“Well, let's give it a little bit more time. That Angus bastard, since I'm going to make Ellis my subordinate, I will have her search that guys' house.”

“It's totally fine, if that 8 year old blonde doll joins the Intelligence unit, she would be remarkable. All the others think so too.”

“Then, if I sell her off to the nobles as their adopted daughter, she could infiltrate the upper class. Then all kinds of information will fall into my hands.”

“We'll be able to easily make back the million Rill we spent to kill that guy.”

“That guy taking Ellis with her was beyond our expectations. Isn't it fine though? She survived in the end.”

Ellis smiled. She won't sympathize, since she knew that they were just trash. She has no proof of it though. If that's the case, she has to betray their expectations by slowly revealing what they were planning.

Ellis ended her Intelligence ability, then, just before it started getting dark, she headed out.

Ellis went towards the Adventurer Guild.
She more or less knew what Kevin and Alicia were about. Now she needs to do something.
What can just one 8 year old girl do? All she can do is smile, and if she does that poorly, they'll start to get suspicious.
With that knowledge, Ellis started to search for a suitable [Guardian].
Someone that can act for her.

Ellis entered the Adventurer's Guild and went full speed towards the reception desk, where a woman was working.

"Frau-san, hello"

"Ah, Ellis. I'm glad to see you are doing fine."

Due to Thief Guild requests, her father came to help adventurers many times. That's why Ellis and Frau were acquaintances.
Frau's age was around 18. An intellectual face, she is skilled with handling the rowdy set of adventurers. With her red eyes, pink skin, and flame like hair she gives off a passionate impression. A gentle "Is something wrong?" leaks out, and the difference between her appearance and her voice causes them to fall madly in love with her and become docile. Rumors say she is the daughter of the Guild Master.

Ellis-Eiji heard that when she was walking around with Alicia. Frau is a pretty hot topic. (MrPop: Get it? Flame like hair? Hot Topic? Right!? I'll show myself out...)
The guild has a good, natural atmosphere, as Ellis looks around.
It was mostly filled with dirty old men. There were a few handsome guys, but they hold no meaning to the sleazebag inside Ellis.

Oh, that girl gives a good impression.

Standing on one side of the guild, was a girl wearing a typical swordswoman outfit.

She gave the alibi "She might be an acquaintance" to Frau, and walked towards the female swordsman.

Judging off her looks, she seemed to be about 16. With green, shaggy hair, and the same color green long, slitted eyes. She was looking for something on the Guild Notice Board, often sighing.
Ellis, with a big smile, started speaking to her.

“Onee-san, is there something wrong?”

The girl looked down at Ellis. From her perspective, it was like looking at a cute doll. She looked at Ellis with tender eyes.

“Just a little bit, cute little girl.” (9: sounds better in jp “kawaii oujo-san) The girl only said this much,

Ellis saw her turning her gaze towards a certain quest.. It was a Treasure Hunt Quest. The HikiNEET had seen through the meaning of that sigh from earlier.

“Do you want to take up that Treasure Hunt quest?”

Ellis asked her, and then she continued.

“I am Ellis, I may look like this, but I’m a member of the Thieves Guild, you know?”

She showed the girl proof that she was a Thieves Guild member.

“I’m surprised, Oujo-chan. So you’re a full fledged thief?”

The girl replied and then continued on.

“Ah, I apologize. I am Reeve. A swordswoman in training.”

Oh, I caught her attention. After all, I am a girl with a 10 year or so age gap with her.

“I saw Swordswoman-san sigh at the treasure hunt quest. You lack a proper thief, right?”

“As expected from Oujo-chan. Ellis-chan was it?”

Ellis and Reeve sat at an open table and started to discuss.

Ch4 – The Guardian is the Great Swordswoman.

RAW: <http://ncode.syosetu.com/n3461cg/4/>

I was Reincarnated as a Thief Girl and my Mission is to Harass the Demon Lord and the Hero.

Tozoku shoujo ni tensei shita ore no shimei wa yuusha to maou ni iyagarasena no!

Volume: A Thief girl will do whatever she wants

The Guardian is the great swordswoman.

Reeve is the daughter of a noble in the countryside. As she saw her sisters one by one being sent around for political marriage, she did not know what will happen to her.

When her turn came, she took her own belongings and ran away from home.

From the start, she had known the basics of the sword; while on her journey, she had subjugated monsters.

However, because of that, she didn't have much for travelling expenses.

With Reeve's strength, hunting down strong monsters was difficult.

What she profited from were treasure hunting quests. If she can bring the target treasure to the guild, everything else other than the target becomes income to the whole party.

However Reeve hated men who are always vulgarly looking at her. Because of those circumstances, she couldn't form a party.

Nevertheless, female adventurers are really scarce.

That was what the sigh some time ago meant.

“Reeve-san, the one that you were looking at, was it the Aida Labryinth treasure hunting quest? Both Father and I once explored there, why don't you go with me?”

Aida Labyrinth, the labyrinth is easy enough that a Thief and a Warrior can safely enter, even with both of them being at elementary level. At the deepest level, a mushroom delicacy called Aida Mushroom can only be collected there; as a result, recruit offers are always appearing for the labyrinth.

However, it's impossible to do it alone, but it is said that 2 people can do it.

Though it could be difficult, and there is always a chance that you'll have to leave someone behind.

This knowledge came from Ellis and her Father's diary.

"Ellis, is it fine?"

Oh, the oujo-chan changed to Ellis. 'I expected this' Ellis anticipated, and laid the trap.

"Yeah, it's just that I have something to request, is it fine?"

Ellis proposed an idea to Reeve.

"If I can be of help I will,"

Reeve replied. Ellis was satisfied with it and continued.

"I want you to call yourself my sister."

Reeve was perplexed by Ellis' request.

"What do you mean by that?"

And then Ellis, talked about herself and Angus to Reeve who was listening.

However, the Kevin couple in the talk was still a secret.

She continued on.

"I want to register as a Thief Adventurer, but if it's just me, they might say that "Ellis has become odd" and start thinking that I became weird. That's why I want Reeve to claim me as my guardian. Since Reeve wants to challenge the Aida Labyrinth with me, it can become an good reason."

Some time ago, as she heard about Ellis and Angus she has only been crying, that's why she has been reflexively nodding to the conversation.

"So then, right now let's go to the Thief Guild. And then after that, Reeve-san, from this day onward, stay at my home. Since now, you don't have worry about leaving the inn. Also, let's eat dinner at my house."

Ellis all at once showered her with requests.

Reeve didn't notice that Ellis had grasped the lead, only nodding.

“So then, let’s go!”

Ellis pulled Reeve’s hand. and Frau, “so a relative sister came,” expressively coming along, and after that they went towards the Thief Guild. Frau seeing the both of them, she felt a vague emotion gush out.

“Somehow the 2 of them, no, this Reeve, I somewhat hate this.”

The reception at the Thief guild is Cathy. A so-called a Cat Eared-girl.

“Cathy, I want a position revision.”

As Ellis talked with Cathy, a puzzled look floated on Cathy’s face. She replied with these words, “Ellis, Angus dying is unfortunate, but this occupation, abandoning it is regrettable, nya?”

Now Ellis winked towards Reeve. Reeve continued it.

“I am Ellis’ distant relative, Reeve. From now on, I will be looking after Ellis, I came here because I want her position revised from the [Infiltration Unit] to Thief Adventurer.”

Reeve you’re magnificent. Just as expected from a noble.

Cathy’s gaze seems to pierce Reeve.

“If it nyike that we will proceed with the procedure nya. Ellis, you are really sure about nyis?”

Cathy did a last confirmation towards Ellis. Since [Infiltration Unit] is an Elite unit.

Then Cathy said that what Angus did to her was only to protect Ellis, while also receiving criticisms from the surrounding, and why Ellis became a member of the [Infiltration Unit], she knew all about it.

“It’s fine, Father is already gone. After this I will be living with Reeve. Cathy, thank you for worrying about me.”

Ellis’ eyes shot through Cathy.

What is this feeling.

I wonder how this girl feels this brutally cute. An image of fleeting, dangerous, and fickle tyrant was piled up, being transmitted. (EDN: no idea how to change second sentence. help)

In that place was a doll-like girl.

Still, from her, a pressure she doesn't completely understand is shooting out. Cathy couldn't help it and replied "I understand nya".

And then Reeve vacated out of the inn, and after they bought ingredients for dinner, Ellis with Reeve went back to the house.

Ellis introduced Reeve to Kevin and her wife.

From the both of their expressions, it was obvious that she was a person outside of their expectations.

A bunch of disqualified thieves.

"Kevin-san, Alicia-san, for taking care of me up until now, thank you. From this day on, I will be looked after by Reeve. Thank you very much."

And then before the couple could react, Reeve barraged them with words.

"I am Reeve. I am Ellis' Distant Relative. For looking after Ellis up until now, I will always be grateful towards you."

And then 2 of them, "a u a u," did a sidelong glance, and after that returned to their home.

"Was that fine?"

Reeve asked. Ellis replied.

"Yeah. Since up until now, Kevin and his wife had been looking after me. It's just that, from now on I don't plan to trouble them anymore. Thank you for your cooperation."

From Ellis' face her emerald eyes stared at Reeve.

Reeve unintentionally turn away her long slitted green eyes. And the reason she turned away was to shake of her feeling. She herself held interest in this doll. It was something society won't allow.

"Have I turned weird?" (TL: nope its not you but the society) And so forth she was answering her own questions, she herself must be the girls guardian, she herself found a different reason, Reeve was somehow able to smooth it over.

Buhihihhi

The HikiNeet, some way or the other, quickly noticed Reeve's reaction. That's right. Yuri yuri will do right.

The HikiNEET, once again realized that his delusions can materialize in this world. This is also because of this characteristic of this lovely girl's appearance.

"Hey, Reeve, let's make do with a light dinner, tomorrow will be the day we will prepare for the treasure hunt so let's quickly go to bed."

"You're right, let's do that."

Ellis and Reeve ate a simple dinner, and then before going to bed, they went to the bathroom to wash their bodies.

Reeve's body was more beautiful than what she had imagined.

An ordered shaggy green hair. Long slit eyes of the same color, and a white skin to the ends.

Regarding her height as a woman, she is on the high side. If you see it here, it's about 17bit(170cm).

Her chest was small, but at the head of it was a transparent like pink. (TL: i think you know what the pink part means)

Sitting straight up, from her smallish bottom to both of her feet were slender.

Reeve wiped Ellis' body.

"I need to seem like a Guardian right?"

Reeve smiled.

Ellis-Eiji curiously thought about it.

Right here it would be simple to have sex with her. However, after that it will be over. If possible she wants to keep having sex with her. Moreover, she wants the person herself to want it. Fortunately right now, she didn't have a penis to show her desire. Ok, this is an endurance match.

Ellis returned a smile toward Reeve.

"Hey Reeve, you being so gentle towards me, it may have been my first time."

Reeve unintentionally had an impulse to embrace Ellis. She falsified it by wrapping towel on Ellis' body.

"I will also wipe Reeve."

Ellis wiped Reeve's body with a towel.

As expected from the HikiNEET that had a pro call girl for him, it was unexpected that he was calm in this situation. (TL: OTL さすが宅配風俗でプロ相手には百戦錬磨のヒキニート、こういうときは意外と冷静。)

The HikiNEET one by one expanded his delusions.

Maybe at the night after the labyrinth has been captured.

Seductively wearing a loose, sheer one piece.

“Reeve use this room, OK?”

Ellis was in her mother’s room, while she lead Reeve to her father’s room, where there wasn’t even one day that it was neglected from cleaning.

“I’ll be at the room next to this one.”

Ellis walked along with Reeve, and then continued.

“Reeve, good night. Thank you for today.”

Ellis returned to her own room.

Reeve wasn’t able to sleep.

In this one day, various things happened.

Up until now, whenever she was exposed, it was the opposite of the vulgar stares from men, the eyes of a lovely girl, it was as if it was able to grasp the bottom of her womb. (TL: yes it is womb.....OTL i totally don’t get why, am i too pure for this-d-) right now she would be living with that girl.

and that girl is the room next to hers.

“is there something wrong with me?”

she asked herself.

she can’t sleep.

The door in the room made a sound as it was opened.

Reeve being a swordsman, something like a presence, she can immediately grasp it.

Then as she noticed it she got tense. The reason that she can’t sleep was there.

“Reeve, are you awake?” Ellis’ voice.

Reeve made an effort to reply.

“Ah, I’m still up. Ellis, is there something wrong?”

Ellis replied in a tearful voice.

“Nee Reeve, I want to sleep with you.”

Reeve’s heartbeat sprang up.

“If you are fine with it, won’t you sleep together?”

She wrung out the trembling voice, trying to calm down.

The little girl silently crawled into the bed.

The little girl showed her face around Reeve’s chest, her sweet emerald eyes looked up to her.

“Thank you, Reeve, good night.”

The little girl buried her face at Reeve’s reserved chest, and before long she started sleeping.

Being fished by it, it was as if the lust from earlier was a lie and Reeve pulled. She hugged the little girl, and slept in supreme bliss.

yossha 1st stage completed.

the HikiNEET’s delusion materialization plan started.

Ch5 – A Rival Appears

Xant: In case anyone gets curious about what I do as I edit. Also this is Sneak's first post thingy I guess so be gentle with the poor soul.

To quote Sneak:

it was a boring as fuck chapter

Uh. Enjoy.

RAW

A Rival Appears

The next morning, the two ate an early breakfast and began checking the equipment that they had on hand.

Reeve had a thin cotton padding under her chainmail, as well as leather breast armor with her boots and gauntlets which were not in use.

The weapons she had included a Shamshir that didn't seem to have any magical effects.

Ellis had a jet-black costume, which was originally tailored leather. Because Ellis was still growing every day, cloth had been used instead. Although she had only been equipped with a single multi-purpose dagger as her weapon at the start, she now also had the high quality dagger that Angus left behind for her use. Due to her lack of physical strength, Ellis' daggers are mostly for self-defense since she can't stab and kill a monster.

“In the case of a labyrinth search, some tools will be necessary.”

“Well then, should we go out to the marketplace?”

Ellis and Reeve nodded to each other, and headed out to the market. That said, bringing proper funds is essential.

Although Angus left behind some assets to be used, they couldn't squander them since they are to be used only when needed.

Ellis had 100,000 Rill on hand, and to ensure they had enough, she also carried the «Earrings of Intelligence» to sell.

They did not want to rely on Reeve's purse, her sighing from the Treasure Hunt quest earlier rang fresh in their minds.

The two of them put on casual wear.

Reeve had a snug-fitting, indigo dyed, three-quarter-sleeved pants and an unbleached colored pullover shirt.

However, she had not forgotten to hang the Shamshir from her waist.

Ellis was wearing a white blouse with a red short jacket and a red knee-length flared skirt.

Reeve sighed at Ellis' appearance, then muttered 'She really is a doll' in a low voice so Ellis couldn't hear her.

The two held hands and set out to the marketplace.

The first street stall had various secondhand goods lined up. Ellis noticed miscellaneous goods were emitting a faint light, though there were very few of those items.

In this world, magic tool appraisal is done via a special magic. The use of this magic employs the magic power of 5 people and consumes half a normal person's magic power while doing so, and the appraiser still charges a reasonable price.

Ellis was muttering in a low voice.

Reeve quietly asked 'What's up, Ellis?'

Ellis stood on her toes to bring her lips close to Reeve's ear, and whispered 'If I see something, I want to haggle'.

Reeve nodded in confirmation, and Ellis handed over the wallet stuffed with Rill to Reeve.

The two of them continued to peruse the items emitting a faint light.

The first item was a small, light brown leather bag used by children. It did not look out of place in Ellis' hand.

«Bag of Gluttony. Ability: Swallows every item put into it. MP required: 0.

Command Phrase to put item in: [Time of Meal]. Command Phrase to take item out: [Time of Turn].»

'I suddenly hit the jackpot' Ellis mumbled in a low voice. Then with a louder voice so the shopkeeper could hear she pleaded to Reeve.

"Reeve, I want this bag."

The shopkeeper intervened immediately.

"You have an expert eye, ojou-chan. Look at these if you like trying on clothes."

It's a diagonal shoulder bag. It has a pleasant feeling to it.

"It suits you, ojou-chan. If you like it I can sell it for 10,000 Rill."

Reeve gave an exaggerated response.

"We don't have 10,000 Rill to pull out!"

Relying on her acting skills, Ellis unwillingly puts down the shoulder bag.

"I understand onee-san, how does 7500 Rill sound?"

Reeve peeped unnaturally into the purse, then faced the shopkeeper and whispered in a sweet tone: "If it's 5000 Rill, would that be no good?"

When being stared at by Ellis' set of emerald doll-like eyes, and Reeve's green slitted eyes simultaneously, the shopkeep had no chance to refuse.

With Ellis swinging the bag about in a good mood, Reeve asked: "Although it certainly suits you, why did you want it so badly?"

"It's a secret for now, I'll teach you when we get home."

It was then recommended that a bag should be purchased for Reeve as well. She got a cloth pouch for 1000 Rill.

Next was an old dagger that shined.

«Dagger of the Flying Swallow. Ability: For a certain amount of time, damage done to the enemy will be doubled. MP required: 1. Command Phrase: [Coming of the Swallow]»

Ellis held the old looking dagger in her right hand and the other dagger in her left to compare them.

«Magic Tool Duplication»

When she muttered the phrase under her breath, the effect was transferred to

Ellis' dagger.

Reeve was then shown the dagger in her right hand.

The dagger she held became the «Dagger of the Flying Swallow».

“How about this dagger?” Speaking to Reeve in such a way that the shopkeep could overhear, then touching Reeve's Shamshir and muttering the same phrase again.

Reeve's Shamshir became «Shamshir of the Flying Swallow».

The ability of the old looking dagger then disappeared.

Ellis mumbled 'As I thought, it's not sufficient', and the dagger was returned to its former place.

As she did so, she was deep in thought.

'Does the reproduction only work up to 2 times or is it random?'

The next object to shine was a small silver ring. It was buried in a pile of rings costing about 2000 Rill each.

«Ring of Detoxification. Ability: To neutralize poisons in an object. MP required: 3. Command Phrase: [Wish Detox].»

Ellis decided to experiment with this.

“Reeve, let's each pick our favourite ring from among the ones here.”

They looked through the pile and chose rings to their preference.

Are the two shopkeepers sisters? They kept up pleasant smiles while helping the two find rings that matched their sizes.

With the rings decided on, Ellis used «Magic Tool Duplication». Like before, the original ring lost its ability when the second ring was given the treatment.

Next, the same experiment was performed. Holding the duplicate ring in her right hand, Ellis used the ability twice more. As expected, the source ring lost the ability when it was given to the second item.

“Although it takes time, the restriction can be avoided without a limit.”

Ellis, finally satisfied, said “This is mine, this one is Reeve's” while handing over the ring with the copied ability.

Reeve paid the shopkeepers 4000 rill with a smile, and they accepted the money with an equally pleased smile. Ellis' smile was that of a sleazebag.

Lastly, a small doll about the size of a thumb was discovered.

«Doll of Sacrifice. When the wearer receives an attack where their physical strength becomes 0 or lower, all damage from the attack is absorbed by the doll. The doll is then destroyed. MP required: 0. Command Phrase: Not applicable, automated type.»

Finally. A big shot item has shown up.

There aren't any items nearby that the ability can be copied onto, is the only choice to purchase it?

“Reeve, I want this doll.”

Reeve inquired for the price.

“You could buy it for 1000 Rill”, the shopkeeper had a happy yet calm expression on his face. Ellis was giving a look that screamed ‘Buy it’.

Reeve made the payment without hesitation after seeing that. Ellis tied the doll to the frill of her skirt like a charm. Two matching dolls are then purchased at another shop for 1000 Rill. Ellis tied one onto the belt loop of Reeve's pants.

“Embarrassing.”

“Charming.”

Ellis put another one away into her bag.

Shopping had only used up 12,000 of their Rill.

Next was potions and adventurer's tools. Incidentally, those can be bought from Frau at the Adventurer's Guild.

The two people proceeded into the building holding hands.

“Frau, hello.”

Although Frau welcomed Ellis with a smile, a tight gaze was thrown briefly towards Reeve, her bright red pupils locking on.

Reeve noticed this right away and glared back with her emerald stare.

Frau took her eyes off of Reeve as if ignoring it, and faced Ellis who was opposite of her.

“How are you doing today, Ellis?”

“I came to purchase some recovery potions and a standard exploration meal set.”

“Going somewhere?”

“Yeah, I’m going to the Aida Labyrinth with Reeve.”

Frau once again stared at Reeve.

“Reeve-san, I am aware you are somehow related to Ellis, but do you intend to put her in danger?”

“I think that’s rude towards a full-fledged thief.”

“Ellis is still only 8 years old.”

“Do you pick and choose your customers here?”

A nearby older man was displaying a dangerous expression towards Reeve and Frau who were creating an awkward atmosphere.

Ellis decided to salvage the conversation.

“I decided to go to Adia Labyrinth because I rewrote my position from Infiltration Unit to Adventurer.”

This surprised Frau.

“Ellis, you became an Adventurer?”

“Although I don’t understand it yet, I intend to put some distance between the Thief Guild and myself.”

Ellis answered in a low voice.

“So please sell me the potions and the meal set.”

Frau nodded reluctantly and asked how many days they will be gone.

I bought 10 potions at 1000 Rill a piece.

The meal set was 1000 Rill for a single day, and we need enough to last for 3 days between 2 people. 16,000 Rill total.

Because one Aida Mushroom sells for 4000 Rill, 4 of them are needed for us to break even.

If we get less than that, we’re in the red.

Frau turned to Ellis.

“Ellis, you must never act rashly.”

Before Ellis could answer, Reeve interjected.

“It’s okay, I will protect her.”

“I wasn’t talking to you!”

Watching their backs as they left the Guild, Frau grew nervous.

“What guardian acts like that? And for Ellis to be so emotionally attached... perhaps she is being deceived? Yah...it may just be like that! I must protect her!”

Ch6 – The First Victim

This is...well. A shitshow.

Sneak: Sorry for delay guys, been busy with RL, but also been debating on this latest chapter, as I find it... well inappropriate to say the least. For now I will do a few more chapters, but if there is any more chapters like this I will not continue the series. If you have any suggestions for other projects feel free to post in comments to this post.

[12:31:43 PM] Sneak Thief: caught me off guard also

[12:32:10 PM] Sneak Thief: if it keeps like this I'll prob end up with a different project, cause I didn't expect the series to go down the rabbit hole like this

Grand summary: We are at best going to try a few more chapters. If this pops up again, we're done with this series and will drop it. I am not about to keep having a TL do this, nor do I want to edit shitty child porn yuri. Not my thing.

Btw, I really didn't want to edit this. There will be flaws. I just lost all drive when I saw the yuri. I still did a cursory job, so it's readable.

Chapter 6 – The First Victim

Ellis and Reeve went directly to the Thieves guild.

Their application should have been processed by now, so their renewed guild identification should be ready for pickup.

“Hello, Cathy”

When Ellis greets the cat eared girl, unlike usual, Cathy speaks to Ellis with a somehow dark expression.

“Hello Ellis. I'm sorry but the application renewal has been put on hold nya.”

Cathy disregards Reeve and calls Ellis closer and whispers.

“Are you sure that woman isn’t deceiving you nya?”

“I think so, why?”

“It was with great pains that it was arranged to get you into the infiltration unit, it is funny that you are purposely transferring to an adventurer nya.”

“Does Cathy think so?”

“I think so nya. In addition the deferment this time is the result of Kevin’s strong resistance nya.”

A rat has begun to move?

“Well Cathy, thinking calmly. At 8 years old I am being assigned to infiltrate alone, or with Reeve, where we are two people living and searching beginner’s class labyrinths, which do you think is dangerous?”

Cathy had considered it. Though, it was frozen probably because I was in the Thieves Guild for a long time, the infiltration unit was the most elite, but also had the most dangerous work. Though Angus had been protecting Ellis till now, and most of the risk had been forgotten.

Ellis continued:

“Say that Kevin declares to protect me and you add me into his intelligence unit, he’ll still teach me ‘things’.”

And to strike home with Kathy:

“And bringing me into his unit for ‘protection’? The point of a woman in an Infiltration unit is to use her charm to maximum, totally the opposite of his declaration.”

“I understand Ellis nya. This is a secret of two people nya.”

“Please, Kathy”

Ellis and Reeve left the Thieves Guild.

“This is Ellis’s secret for only those two people.”

Kathy breaks into a grin.

That’s true. Ellis is correct to be suspicious of Kevin.

Come to think of it, the request that Angus lost his life on was accepted by Kevin This is worth looking into.

“We were busy all day long.”

Reeve called out to Ellis, while Ellis seems to be lost in thought.

Ellis agrees with it being a busy day while Reeve remains silent after saying that.

The two girls arrive at the house.

“Trouble seems to have appeared earlier than expected.”

The HikiNEET thinks up an idea.

“In the end it’s best to fill Reeve in by the end of the night.” (ED: too close to an innuendo) “Hey Reeve, since we are sweaty how about we bathe before dinner?”

Reeve greatly nods to Ellis’ suggestion.

The two girls stripped and bathed like yesterday.

Beautiful.

Reeve stares at Ellis who appears that she would break if embraced too tightly.

“Reeve, it’s embarrassing.”

Ellis’ cheeks blush as though understanding the meaning of Reeve’s stare.

Then in front of Reeve who is sitting, Ellis suddenly stands up bringing their faces to the same height.

“Reeve....”

Ellis brings her face close to Reeve.

Then embraces her while giving her a kiss.

The inside of Reeve’s head becomes blank.

Buhihihhi~

Using the techniques that the hikiNEET learned from the professional home delivery sex service company, Reeve is attacked by an 8 year old girl whose body looks like a doll.

It wasn't a stimulation that could be withstood by a 16 year old girl.

After several hours, all that remains of Reeve is her twitching body after having been wrung out.

"Ellis, are you the devil?"

"You could say that. Now then, it's time to teach you about today's purchased goods. Reeve, please wipe my body and put pajamas on"

Reeve nods, and Ellis is wrapped with a towel and pajamas are put on.

Ellis wipes Reeve's body with a towel.

The wiped places remind me of the intense pleasure from a little while ago.

Reeve was unable to stand up for a while.

Dinner is a sandwich and herbal tea that was bought along the way.

While the two girls ate in a languid manner, Ellis explained her ability to Reeve.

Reeve admired obediently.

Today we obtained 4 magic tools.

The first was the <Bag of Gluttony>, where Ellis had the original and Reeve had the first copy of the item.

The second item was the <Dagger of the Flying Swallow> and <Shamshir of the Flying Swallow>, where both were first copies of the item.

The third item was the <Ring of Detoxification>, where again both items were first copies.

The fourth item was <Doll of Sacrifice>, where Ellis had the original, and Reeve had the second copy, where the first copy was in Ellis' bag.

It is necessary to keep track of the original and the second copy because the ability gets lost on the second copy.

Ellis passed Reeve the <Earrings of Intelligence>. This way if by chance Ellis and Reeve are pulled apart Reeve can hear Ellis' conversation.

Mr. and Mrs. Kevin's story is then told.

Reeve gets angry but Ellis calms her as there is no proof.

Because the transfer from the Thief guild was exposed sooner than expected, Ellis requested to continue as they were with a smiling face.

Reeve suddenly thinks.

This 8 year old girl has been driven into such a situation I will at least become the shield of this girl.

I believe myself to have been carried away.

During that Ellis is doing something like an experiment.

“I see”

“It should be similar”

When Ellis is heard talking to herself she begins to clean up.

“Now, because we don’t know what will happen tomorrow, let’s go to bed”

Ellis leads Reeve by the hand like it’s natural and heads to Reeve’s bedroom.

Reeve couldn’t resist.

In the same position as yesterday Ellis looks up at Reeve with upturned eyes.

However, her expression belonged to the King of Sleazebags.

The smile of the Devil was reflected in front of Reeve.

“Reeve, are you asleep?”

Whispers the devil.

“Can we please try to continue from earlier?”

Ellis whispers while burying her face in Reeve’s chest.

Reeve feels Ellis hit the tip of her breasts and leaks out a sigh.

“Already? Boring child.”

Ellis stares at Reeve’s face again

She twists her body as she climbs up and faces the front of Reeve.

Reeve instinctively buries her face under the pillow The sadistic Ellis pushes her way through Reeve's hair and starts to lightly bite on Reeve's ear and once more commands: "Please. Reeve."

While nibbling on Reeve's earlobe ensnaring her.

"Please... Ellis..."

The Devil's Night.

After this, Reeve becomes Ellis' for the night, and Reeve comes to desire it herself.

A new morning came.

"Good morning, Reeve" says Ellis with a refreshing smile floating on her face.

"Good morning, young lady" says Reeve after breaking into a smile.

The way she calls me is different from yesterday, probably has something to do with last night, but I don't mind.

When I was preparing breakfast for two, a delivery was made from the Thief guild They were work orders stating to go to the guild tonight.

"Are you showing your true colors..."

Reeve asks what it is in response to Ellis talking to herself.

"Isn't it normally abnormal for infiltration work to come to an eight year old girl?"

And I continue.

"This job is probably a dummy meant to restrain me, and main purpose is to dispose of you Reeve."

Reeve understood immediately.

"Is it Mr. and Mrs Kevin?"

"Yeah."

When the two people finish breakfast they head out to the market. Today's purpose is assassination countermeasures for Reeve.

Today several new items were put up shedding a faint light.

I am searching for a particular important item.

And having found it, it is the following item.

<Ring of Spirit. Ability: +10 MP to the wearer, MP can be continuously restored by the ring. MP Required: 0. Command Phrase: [MP Backflow]>

MP replenishing is possible

It is determined to be for Reeve's personal use, and is confirmed that Ellis can replenish the MP without limits.

Reeve has the original, and Ellis puts the first copy away in the bag.

<Flash Bracelet. Ability: Emits a flash of light centered on the wearer. MP Required: 5. Command Phrase: [Let There be Light].>

Reeve puts on the original and Ellis puts on the second copy. The first copy is put in Ellis' bag.

<Camouflage Brooch. Ability: Raises concealment value of the wearer. MP Required: 3 Command Phrase: [Chameleon].>

This is given the same treatment as the Flash Bracelet.

And today's lucky find is this.

<Needle of Life Drain. Ability: When attacking it restores health equal to damage dealt by this needle. MP Required: 0. Command Phrase: Not Applicable, Automated type.>

Yesterday's experiment was the copy experiment. Because there was room on the <Ring of Detoxification>, With various attempts, it was determined that copies could can't be made from the same system, in other words, I can't have two command phrase or automated on an item. Even when the copy fails, it counts as the copy effect having been used once.

Well I was worried if the effects of the needle would transfer to the Shamshir properly, but there were no problems.

The needle was put in the bag as it is.

Is it because it is a command type and an autonomous type that both the Flying Swallow and Life Drain effects remained? This needs to be experimented separately.

Well, I was worried about the effects of the needle transferring to the Shamshir properly, but there were no problems.

The needle was put in the bag as it is.

“With this we should be fine even if attacked by several people.”

“Miss, I would like to act violently soon.”

The 2 girls laugh together while facing each other.

The preparations for the boobytrap are flawless.
